A Man Like None Other Chapter 3431-“Our opponents are too strong. Let’s discuss revenge later!” Pablo responded.

Seeing that Pablo was afraid, Feenix couldn’t help but roll her eyes and mutter, “Damn, you’re really a coward, huh?” Feenix spat on the ground in disgust, causing Pablo to freeze in shock.

“Monkey, come over here and take him down!” Feenix ordered Monkey Archon with a wave.

Monkey Archon hurried over to Feenix and replied awkwardly, “Ms. Feenix, he’s an Eighth Level Tribulator cultivator, and I’m only at the Seventh Level. I can’t beat him.” Feenix chided, “How useless of you! Can’t you join hands with the rest to take him down?” Thousand-Faced Demon Archon glanced at Monkey Archon in confusion.

“Monkey Archon, what’s wrong with you?” “Thousand-Faced Demon Archon, can’t you see? She’s Feenix!” “Feenix?” The rest scrutinized Feenix carefully.

In the end, they all gasped in shock. “Why are you in this state?” “It’s a long story. I’ll fill you in when we’ve got the luxury of time. Anyway, this little demon wants to play master without even considering his own worth,” Feenix remarked, casting a disdainful glance at Pablo.

“You...” Pablo’s face paled in anger. “Who are you exactly? Don’t forget that you ate my pill. That wasn’t an immortal pill. It is poisonous. Without my antidote, you would succumb to its effects.” “I know, but I’m not afraid!” Feenix remained unfazed. She trusted Jared’s abilities. As long as he was around, any poison could be neutralized.

“What the f*ck? How dare you poison her?” Infuriated, Monkey Archon struck Pablo without hesitation.

The others joined in. As they were Seventh Level Tribulator cultivators, their combined might was enough to confront an Eighth Level Tribulator cultivator.

Seeing that, Pablo turned to run.

With a wave of his hand, he summoned a black mist and stepped into it.

The void shook, and Pablo's figure disappeared from sight.

"Darn it, this guy knows teleportation magecraft. Otherwise, I would have surely crippled him," Monkey King boasted.

With an ingratiating expression, he approached Feenix and asked, "Ms. Feenix, how was my performance?" Feenix gave his shoulder a reassuring pat and replied, "Not bad. You didn't let me down." "Feenix, what happened to you? Why are you in such a state?" Thousand-Faced Demon Archon asked, clearly surprised.

"It's a lengthy tale. I'll share it when we have the chance. I never expected you all to become kings and archons. You used to be the most foolish lot," Feenix commented.

With that, she turned to leave. She needed to return to Jared as soon as possible. It was imperative to let Jared know that Pablo was searching for him to kill him.

When Feenix arrived, she discovered Jared and Catina had already completed the deed. Catina's cheeks were flushed. Clearly, she was satisfied.

"Feenix, where have you been?" Jared asked.

"Master, someone showed up just now. I was afraid he would discover you, so I led him away, Feenix explained.

"Who was it?" Jared was surprised.

"Some guy named Pablo. He was looking for you to take you down." Jared was instantly shocked as he carefully scrutinized Feenix. "How did you escape from him? He's a cultivator at Eighth Level Tribulator." He couldn't understand how Feenix had escaped from Pablo as she was merely at Body Fusion Realm.

Feenix chuckled. "I have my own way." She proceeded to narrate the occurrences to Jared. The tale left Jared with a sense of dread. Thankfully, Feenix had crossed paths with the kings and the archon. Otherwise, it could have cost Feenix dearly, perhaps even her life.

However, Jared was taken by surprise to learn that the kings and archon were afraid of Feenix.

Suddenly, Feenix frowned and spewed out a mouthful of blood. The poisonous pill in her body had started to take effect.

Jared hurriedly carried Feenix into the cave to detoxify her, while Catina guarded outside.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3432-Pablo's poisonous pill was indeed formidable. It took Jared nearly half a day to help Feenix expel the poison from her body.

Fortunately, Catina was guarding outside, providing some relief for Jared. As a Seventh Level Tribulator cultivator, Catina could easily handle any ordinary cultivator.

"Where do we go now? The Celestial Battlefield might close in a few days," Catina asked when Jared emerged with Feenix.

"Let's take it step by step. While the Celestial Battlefield offers many opportunities, it also poses significant dangers. Let's rely on luck," Jared replied.

Jared's optimism about discovering treasures in the Celestial Battlefield had dwindled. The vastness of the battlefield made searching for magical items akin to finding a needle in a haystack.

Moreover, he already had the spirit beast egg in his possession. Though unaware of the creature within, Jared was confident it wasn't an ordinary beast.

"Sure. Let's just walk around." Catina nodded.

This time, entering the Celestial Battlefield had allowed her to merge her bloodline with Jared's, significantly boosting her bloodline. It was a benefit she considered well worth it. Whether they found magical items or not was no longer a top priority.

To Catina, Jared represented the most precious treasure. If she could persist in fusing her bloodline with Jared's and give birth to his child, her lineage would thrive.

Yet, she acknowledged this as mere wishful thinking. Once they departed from the Celestial Battlefield, Jared would have no reason to keep her around or succumb to any threats.

Catina understood that Jared didn't lack women and wouldn't invest emotions or efforts in her. The three of them wandered around aimlessly. Meanwhile, not far from their location, the members of the Nesser family were exploring a mountain range.

"Elder Nesser, how can you tell that there might be magical items here?" Cameron asked, puzzled.

"It's just a feeling," Skylar replied with a serious expression. Not daring to probe further, Cameron silently followed behind him.

Suddenly, a massive underground crack appeared in front of them, resembling a fissure created by an immortal using a sword.

The crack extended for hundreds of miles. It was shrouded in an ominous black mist as if it were a gaping mouth waiting to devour everything.

Facing this immense crevice, the members of the Nesser family felt a chill run down their spines. On the other hand, Skylar gazed at the seemingly bottomless abyss with a hint of excitement in his eyes.

"Send a few people down to explore. There must be treasures within this crevice," he ordered.

"Elder Nesser, this place exudes a sinister aura. It might be filled with Demonic Cultivators. Entering could be dangerous," Cameron said softly, sensing the eerie vibes emanating from the crack.

"Whatever it may be, our purpose here is to seek treasures. This is the Celestial Battlefield. Even if this is the Demonic Cultivators' domain, should we withdraw just because of that?" Skylar spoke, his expression turning dark.

Unable to refute, Cameron reluctantly dispatched two individuals to venture into the crevice. Skylar and the rest followed closely, jumping into the abyss.

It was dark, making it impossible to see anything.

As they descended, the only sound they heard was the whistling wind. In such an environment, endurance became a critical factor. Cameron continuously extended his spiritual sense, maintaining contact with the two explorers ahead.

If something were to happen to them, he could take action at once.

Suddenly, two clear sounds reverberated in the distance. Upon hearing them, Cameron was momentarily surprised, but he quickly discerned their origin.

Hastily, he cautioned, "Everyone, stay vigilant. We've reached the bottom.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3433-Hearing Cameron's reminder, everyone quickly prepared themselves and descended to the ground cautiously. Once they landed, the once mist-shrouded crack in the earth emitted a faint green glow.

Cameron observed the two Norton family disciples who had been dispatched for exploration lying lifelessly on the ground.

If not for their scouting efforts, many would've died from the fall. The eerie atmosphere surrounding them and the emergence of the eerie green light left both Cameron and the Nesser family disciples with a sense of dread. Only Skylar seemed strangely delighted.

"Elder Nesser, this place is full of negative energy. It feels like we're in the netherworld. It's terrifying. Should we leave?" Cameron suggested nervously.

"Rest assured. There's no danger here," Skylar said before walking ahead. As the Nesser family members explored the bottom of the crack, Jared, Catina, and Feenix arrived at the same location above them.

Observing the deep crevice, Feenix asked, "How did a big crack suddenly appear in this place? It looks like it was forcefully split open by someone." "This place seems to exude a sense of impending danger. I suggest we leave," said Catina after scrutinizing the crevice.

However, Jared remained silent as he gazed at the crack. Suddenly, he leaped into it. Seeing this, Feenix hurriedly exclaimed, "Master, wait for me!" She jumped into the crevice after him, leaving Catina no choice but to go after them. Jared expanded his spiritual sense thoroughly and furrowed his brows slightly. Although he didn't sense immediate danger, an oppressive feeling enveloped him.

The reason Jared had jumped into this crevice was because there was a lot of lethal intent within. It might not be useful for other cultivators, but it would be highly beneficial for him.

The marked aura wasn't just ordinary lethal intent. Jared needed the marked aura the most to use the Divine Bow.

The reason Skylar had entered the crevice was also because of the marked aura. He was familiar with it.

"This lethal intent is quite strange. It seems different from other lethal intents I've encountered before," Catina said, sounding confused.

Soon, the three of them landed on the ground. Jared observed the eerie green glow around them. His expression turned progressively solemn.

"Master, look!" Feenix suddenly exclaimed. Jared and Catina hurriedly looked over. They noticed two individuals nearby who had already turned into a bloody mess from the impact of their fall.

"Somebody's been here?" Catina frowned as she looked at the two cultivators who had already turned into a pulp.

"They are from the Nesser family." Jared immediately recognized them despite their heavily damaged appearance.

Even though their faces were unrecognizable, their clothes still confirmed their identity.

"You know them?" Catina asked.

Jared bobbed his head. "Yes. It appears that someone from the Nesser family is well-versed enough to discover this location and venture into the crevice." Jared had entered the crevice for the marked aura as it was beneficial for him.

Ordinary cultivators would hesitate due to the seemingly bottomless crevice and the lethal intent.

As the members of the Nesser family were inside, they should be aware of the presence of magical items within the crevice.

“Master, let’s catch up. If there are treasures, the Nesser family might have already obtained them,” Feenix said urgently. Jared nodded. He then led Feenix and Catina forward.

Meanwhile, Cameron and two Nesser family disciples were exploring ahead.

Skylar and the rest tagged behind. Soon, Cameron noticed a gleam of spiritual light in front, a welcome change from the eerie green glow.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3434-An excited member of the Nesser family shouted, “Mr. Nesser, there is a magical item ahead!” Cameron looked over and saw a golden light emanating from a huge rock.

There was an arcane array surrounding the rock, and on top of it was a technique book.

Mist floated above the book, indicating their extraordinary quality.

“Go inform Elder Nesser that we have discovered a magical item!” Cameron ordered excitedly. The Nesser family member hurried to deliver the news, and Skylar soon arrived.

Facing the giant rock and the book on top, Skylar grew increasingly elated. He stepped forward, intending to destroy the arcane array to get it, but Cameron stopped him.

“Elder Nesser, let us handle this. You can rest at the side,” Cameron said, concerned about any potential accidents. He understood that Skylar played a crucial role in the future prosperity of the Nesser family.

Cameron sent two members, who cautiously approached the arcane array.

Soon, they reached the arcane array. One of them cautiously extended his hand, penetrating the arcane array effortlessly.

Stunned, they both entered the arcane array, which didn’t react at all. An unexpected turn of events occurred when they reached out eagerly to get the book.

The arcane array suddenly emitted a bright light, and a black hole appeared behind the giant rock.

Roar!

A roar echoed from the black hole, sending both Nesser family disciples flying with its ferocious aura.

A huge beast with a lion's head and a tiger's stripes on its body, emerged from the black hole, its eyes glinting dangerously.

"A lion-tiger beast? Aren't they extinct?" Cameron could barely hide his surprise when the beast emerged. He had barely finished talking when a black mist sprayed from the beast's mouth. It carried a captivating and chilling power.

Everyone from the Nesser family was blown away, and some members were instantly killed, bleeding profusely. Cameron, too, had blood trickling from the corners of his mouth. He was wounded from the impact.

Skylar, however, remained indifferent as if the casualties were inconsequential.

"Elder Nesser, this lion-tiger beast..." Cameron looked at Skylar in astonishment, but the latter remained calm. Skylar stared at the lion-tiger beast intently as it was his first time seeing such a demon beast.

The lion-tiger beast boasted a coat of black scales adorned with intricate patterns. Its appearance, a hybrid of lion and tiger, was truly intimidating.

The creature lifted its gaze, locking eyes with Skylar in a fierce stare. It roared again, and this time, the black mist from its mouth thickened, carrying an intense coldness.

The Nesser family were prepared for the encounter, but the freezing mist still caught them off guard. Almost half of them were frozen by the mist. Skylar's pupils contracted. He was surprised by the creature's ability to use Frost Technique underground.

In this environment, where the temperature was exceptionally high, employing the Frost Technique was a challenging feat.

However, the beast had effortlessly unleashed a freezing effect with a simple breath, showcasing its formidable power.

"Run quickly!" Skylar finally remembered to remind the rest to escape.

As he spoke

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3435-Boom! The frost mist expelled from the mouth of the lion-tiger beast hit the barrier, creating a tremendous noise!

The barrier shattered upon impact, and the immense recoil forced Skylar to continuously retreat!

The remnants of the frost mist rushed toward them, and in an instant, several members of the Norton family were transformed into ice sculptures!

Skylar furrowed his brows tightly, but at that moment, he dared not use his demonic technique!

Skylar was familiar with the marked aura. Back when he was cast into the demon cave, transitioning from an ordinary man to a demon cultivator, he had experienced the corrosion of the marked aura!

However, Skylar was unable to act at the moment. If he did, Cameron and the others would undoubtedly suspect his identity!

“Run!” All Skylar could do was shout loudly, leading Cameron and the others in a relentless run!

The lion-tiger beast was hot on their heels. Those few Norton family members who had been frozen were reduced to nothing more than dust under the beast’s paws!

After covering some distance, the lion-tiger beast halted its pursuit and no longer chased them!

It seemed that the lion-tiger beast couldn’t stray too far from the technique book.

Upon seeing the lion-tiger beast halt, Skylar and the others finally breathed a sigh of relief! At that point, only five people were left in the Norton family!

They watched helplessly as the treasure was right before their eyes, yet they couldn’t reach it at all!

“This lion-tiger beast is utterly monstrous. It’s unimaginable that such a grotesque creature can exist in a place like this.” Cameron, panting heavily, spoke with a face full of lingering fear!

Skylar gazed at the oppressive, dark patterns overhead, emanating a marked aura. Then, he glanced at the beast not far away. He was torn and struggling internally!

If he were to utilize the marked aura, perhaps he could have a fight with the lion tiger beast!

However, if he used it, he would be completely exposed.

At that moment, three figures were rapidly approaching from not too far away.

These were none other than Jared and his companions!

Catina and Feenix closely followed behind!

“Someone’s coming...” Skylar’s brow furrowed. Cameron and the others quickly assumed their positions, waiting in silence!

As Jared’s figure drew closer, Cameron relaxed his stance and quickly spoke out, “Mr. Chance, it’s you...” Upon catching up with Cameron and the others, Jared halted his steps!

“What just happened?” Jared turned to Cameron and asked!

“Just now...” Cameron was about to speak but suddenly stopped. He then shook his head and said, “Nothing!” Cameron didn’t want Jared to know about the technique book, fearing that Jared might seize it!

Although they couldn’t obtain the technique for the time being, Cameron didn’t want others to take it away either. After all, they were the ones who discovered it, and they had even lost several people in the process!

Jared glanced at Cameron, knowing for certain that the latter was definitely not telling the truth!

However, Jared did not continue to inquire further. Instead, he glanced at Feenix and followed Catina, saying, “Let’s go...” Seeing Jared intending to continue forward, Skylar suddenly spoke up. “You can’t go any further. There’s a lion-tiger beast ahead...” “A lion-tiger beast?” Jared was taken aback!

“Hadn’t those already disappeared? How could they appear in this place?” Catina exclaimed in surprise.

“Up ahead, there’s a technique book, likely a remnant from the Celestial Battle.

Next to this technique, a lion-tiger beast stood guard. We just had a skirmish, but we were no match for that lion-tiger beast. I urge you all to leave as quickly as possible!” Skylar spoke to Jared!

“Technique book?” Upon hearing that, Jared instantly became interested. After all, he had never seen what an ancient technique looked like!

Catina cast a cold glance at Skylar, then turned to Jared, warning, “Jared, don’t be fooled. That lion-tiger beast is extremely dangerous. You might not get the book you’re after and instead lose your life here!” Catina saw through Skylar’s intentions. The reason the latter mentioned the presence of a technique was undoubtedly to lure Jared into seizing it, and the lion-tiger beast would surely intervene!
