

Married At First Sight Chapter 3023-Rylee said apologetically to Camryn, "Camryn, I'll have someone take you in. I'll go greet Mrs. Labbe."

Camryn first looked ahead. Joelle had graciously welcomed Rosella and the others into the gorgeous main house. She was not familiar with the people around them, so she said to Rylee, "Rylee, do you mind if I follow you to greet Mrs. Labbe?"

"I know very few people," she added.

Rylee smiled and said, "Okay, let's go and see what Mrs. Labbe looks like. I have never heard of Mrs. Labbe."

She had never heard of anyone named Labbe among the upper class in Wiltspoon. Even the ladies had never heard of anyone surnamed Labbe.

She was really curious.

Camryn said, "I have met Mrs. Labbe once, but I don't know if the Mrs. Labbe I met is the same person as the one tonight."

Rylee pulled Camryn away. After hearing Camryn's words, she asked in surprise, "Have you seen Mrs. Labbe?"

Camryn said, "Well, a few days ago I was in Serenity's bookstore and saw a young woman who called herself Mrs. Labbe. She was very young, only in her early twenties. She was quite beautiful and was dressed in jewels. She went to buy information in the bookstore. She said she bought the information for her brother-in-law, who is in kindergarten."

Rylee didn't listen to the rest. At Mrs. Labbe's age, she did.

She exclaimed and said, "She got married in her early twenties? Did she get married just after graduating from college? She is a bit younger."

Camryn said, "I don't think she has graduated from college. She is at most twenty-one years old."

Carrie never graduated from college. Her grades in school were not as good as Trenton's, and she barely managed to get a second degree. She didn't want to go there until she finished her studies. Her parents doted on her, and she felt that her family was well-off, so even if she didn't have a good education, she didn't have to worry about food and clothing. If her parents had insisted that she finish college, she would not have formed a quarrel with Serenity and others, and the result would not be like today.

Of course, if Carrie hadn't gone in, it would have taken a long time for Camryn to bring down her adoptive father and biological mother and avenge her biological father.

Rylee said, "After greeting her, let's stay away from her."

Camryn was puzzled. "Why? Rylee, do you also know about her? Does she have a bad character?"

Rylee curled her lips and said, "No, I have never met her, and I don't know that there is such a person. How can I know what her character is like? She married someone else so early. To round it up, I am thirty years old now. I'm also not married yet. With her, it would be strange if my mother didn't push me to death.

I don't mean I don't want to get married. I've been hurt by love. I'm not in a hurry to get married now that I've finally come out. I'm taking my time looking for a husband. I'll pay attention to my elders this time and find the right person."

After experiencing lovelorn and emotional injury, Rylee believed the words of her elders. Like her relationship, the other person abandoned her just to climb the ladder.

Camryn smiled and said, "Even if we are not the right match, we can't be too far apart."

"You and Callum are a perfect match. The same goes for Elisa and Remy. Seeing that Elisa has gained happiness now, I am full of hope for my future. I believe there will always be someone who truly loves me."

Camryn said, "Rylee, you will definitely find a good man."

Rylee smiled and said, "I appreciate your words, but I'm really not in a hurry now. My mom is so anxious that she urges me and my brother all day long. My brother is still young, so he doesn't have to listen to my mom reciting sutras all day long."

Camryn smiled.

Facing the elders who pressed for marriage all day long, it was not just listening to the elders chanting sutras.

Her elders would recite it, and her relatives would also recite it when they saw her.

How many unmarried people dare not go back to their hometowns during the holidays, and when they go back to their hometowns, they will face pressure to get married?
