

Married At First Sight Chapter 3027

Married At First Sight Chapter 3027-Rylee added, "If you were her, you would do the same thing. Could it be that you would say so carelessly that you want to seek justice for your father and send your stepfather and mother to prison? In that case, you won't even survive to adulthood."

Samira was speechless. After a while, she said, "Anyway, I just don't like Camryn."

"You don't need to like Camryn. I only introduced her to you because I can talk to you reasonably well. Since you are so condescending and look down on others, forget it and just treat me as a kind-hearted person."

After saying that, Rylee turned around and left. She and Samira had known each other for several years. The Levine family was very low-key in Wiltspoon, but the Levine family's status was not low. Otherwise, Samira would not have appeared at the Erickson family's banquet.

When Samira looked at Camryn like that, Rylee felt that she had taken a wrong look at Samira. She was usually very generous in front of them, but they didn't expect that she would look at Camryn like that.

Maybe Samira felt that Camryn had been raised after all, so she shouldn't have sent her stepfather and biological mother in.

However, Camryn did not send Mrs. Newman in. She was caught and sentenced severely because she hurt Camryn and was involved in gangs.

Camryn sent Mr. Newman in. It was Mr. Newman who killed his own brother and did some illegal business. Camryn got the evidence before he could be sent in.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Newman deserved their punishment.

Although Camryn's righteous act of annihilating her relatives made her famous, many people still supported her. Everyone saw how she lived with the Newman family.

Some people said that Camryn was cruel, ruthless, and a white-eyed wolf. They said that she should not sue Mr. Newman. They said that Mr. Newman was both her stepfather and her uncle, and he had raised her anyway. However, she repaid Mr. Newman like that. She was a white-eyed wolf.

After hearing too many people scold Camryn like this, Rylee just told the people around her, 'Don't persuade others to do good unless they have suffered.'

Camryn was Mrs. Newman's biological daughter, but how did Mrs. Newman treat Camryn?

She was simply more like a stepmother than a stepmother.

Camryn had been blind for ten years, and it was said that it was her biological mother and stepfather who caused the blindness.

What mother would treat her own daughter like this? Did she want her daughter to die?

It is said that if Evelyn had not returned to her parents' home, discovered that Camryn was in trouble, and insisted on sending her to the hospital for rescue, Camryn would not only be blind but also die.

It was her stepfather who was unkind and her biological mother who didn't love her. It was they who did something wrong to Camryn and hurt her first. Camryn just took back everything that belonged to her and sought justice for her biological father.

Additionally, there were a lot of people who had to correct and criticize her. The world was really declining, and people's hearts were not as old as they used to be.

"Rylee."

Samira reached out and grabbed Rylee. She said unhappily, "Rylee, are you doing this because of that blind woman, Camryn, and you don't want to associate with me? Thankfully, I thought we were friends."

Although the two of them were not best friends, they still invited each other out for parties from time to time, so they could be regarded as friendly friends.

Rylee looked at her and said, "Camryn can see now. She is no longer blind. Samira, what happened to you tonight? Your words make me feel strange. You seem to be a different person."

Rylee felt that she couldn't recognize people clearly again. Just like her relationship, she thought she found true love but ended up finding a real sc*mbag!

She was able to chat with Samira, and she thought Samira could make a friend, but now she felt that she and Samira had different views.

Elisa was still the best.

No wonder her only best friend was Elisa.
