

N Destiny 2581

Chapter 2581

“We were just having breakfast this morning like usual. If you look at those photos, it’s evident that someone intentionally took them from that angle. I can immediately retrieve the surveillance footage from the restaurant to show you.”

Upon realizing how troublesome it would be, Harmony shook her head and said, “Forget it, I believe you.”

“So, you’re not angry with me anymore?”

“Aren’t you supposed to be in meetings all day today? What are you doing here?” Harmony asked curiously. Ezekiel chuckled softly. “No meeting is more important than you. I’m not attending the meeting today. I want to stay here with you.”

“No need, filming is quite boring. You should go to your meeting,” Harmony declined. Moreover, how could she pretend to be in love with the male lead if he was on set?

Wait, would he be jealous if she had to shoot intimate scenes with the male lead?

“Ezekiel, would you feel uncomfortable when I shoot intimate scenes with the male lead?” Harmony asked in a soft voice. Considering his perspective, it seemed like she was also doing something that made him uncomfortable.

Ezekiel shook his head. “I trust you. This is just a part of your job. I know that the one you love is me, and it will only be me.”

Harmony didn’t know where his confidence came from, but he was right. No matter who she acted with in the future, the one she loved in her heart was him, and it had always been him.

Outside, Sera had been standing at the cafe door for a while. She was worried that Harmony and Ezekiel would start arguing. Looking through the glass window, it was evident that she was worrying for nothing. Harmony and Ezekiel were communicating well and were full of affection for each other.

In the hotel conference room, Miles had been chatting with the manager for a while, but he didn't dare to call and urge the boss. The other managers also didn't dare to ask the boss to come back for the meeting. Yuna, sitting next to him, was also wondering why Ezekiel didn't return.

She picked up her phone again and scrolled for a while, but suddenly, she couldn't find any news about her and Ezekiel. She looked at Miles. He had made a phone call earlier. Had he taken care of it just like that?

"The boss won't be back for the meeting today. Everyone, get back to work," Miles announced and left his seat.

On the other side, Harmony was already in position. It was a challenging scene where she had to run up and down a street four or five times. She was already exhausted, but fortunately, the last take was successful.

Ezekiel, standing in the blind spot of the camera, watched his hardworking girlfriend with a pang of concern, but he couldn't do anything. When Sera wanted to go up and give her water, he took the cup and approached her himself.

Harmony was panting, her face flushed. She wanted to reach for the cup of water, but the man teased her. "Let me do it."

Harmony had to tilt her head back slightly and let him feed her the water. She felt a bit shy. After all, there were so many extras and crew members around.

After Harmony had a few sips, she noticed a certain man's gaze on the male lead. Harmony caught this and understood why Ezekiel had personally fed her water. He was asserting his dominance over other men.

Harmony finished filming early today. She hadn't eaten properly during the shoot, and by the afternoon, she was famished.

"I'll take you for a big meal. Ezekiel took her hand, and they got in the car.

Ezekiel was engrossed in his phone, seemingly working on some app. Harmony saw him concentrating and couldn't help asking, "What are you doing?"

"Creating an account," Ezekiel replied. After completing the registration, he took a picture of the night view outside and of the food on the table. Finally, he took a selfie with Harmony.

"You didn't use a filter? Are you just using the camera on its own?" Harmony asked in horror.

Ezekiel nodded. "Yes, just the camera on its own."

"No, no, let's use my phone instead. I'll capture the photo and send it to you, so you can post it on your social media, alright? Please."

Chapter 2582

Harmony possessed natural beauty and looked stunning in the original camera, but as a woman, she couldn't help but have a touch of stubbornness.

Ezekiel chuckled and approached her to take another picture together. Harmony took a few shots with her phone and sent them to him. After reviewing the photos, Ezekiel helplessly remarked, "There's no difference!"

Harmony insisted, "There is! I look a bit fairer."

Ezekiel resigned. Harmony was his girlfriend, and he would indulge her every whim. Thus, he posted the photo with a caption that read, The night is enchanting, the wine is aromatic, the food is abundant, but the most beautiful thing is you, my darling.

Curiously, Harmony went over to see what he had written and discovered the heartfelt message he had posted. She couldn't help but giggle. It turned out that the best way for a man to express his love was not through explanations but through actions.

Ezekiel proved his love for her through his actions. Given his status, he would never register for a popular app. However, he had now registered and openly announced their relationship.

The media, with their keen sense, immediately noticed when Ezekiel tagged Harmony. His post quickly became widely shared. With that, the rumors of a rift between them were quickly proven false.

At the same time, in a hotel room, Yunna, who had put in great effort to dress up, was checking her phone on the bed. She quickly saw the post and narrowed her eyes. Looks like I have underestimated this cunning little artist! How dare she force Boss to register for such a popular app?! Boss will never engage in such activities. That girl must've forced him to download it!

Meanwhile, Sophia in Dansbury also saw her son's post. Being from Averno and having married a man from a different social class, she had no specific requirements for the type of girl her son liked. She simply hoped that he would meet the right person.

She had also conducted an investigation on Harmony. People in the industry spoke highly of her, describing her as a breath of fresh air, meaning she wasn't an overly ambitious person.

Sophia knew that her mother also liked this girl. Anyone who could win her mother's favor was rare, for her mother had a discerning eye for people. When she had the opportunity, she would return to her home country to take a closer look at this girl.

Back in the country, the topic of Harmony being loved was trending once again, closely followed by Catalina and her mother returning their bags as if it was a mockery.

Catalina was at home when she happened to see it. She hit the roof, believing that Harmony was deliberately showing off.

"D*mn it, I won't be defeated like this." Catalina would rise again in this circle. Currently, her mother was selling everything to pay off the debt from their failed bet.

Even Catalina's residence was being liquidated. This would be her last night here. She would have to move to the newly rented apartment the next day.

During her most difficult time, Reuben, whom she wholly supported, turned a blind eye to her now. When she asked him for money, he flatly refused.

She had now seen the true nature of this man and regretted why she had separated him from Harmony. If Reuben had always been with Harmony, Harmony would never have had the chance to meet someone wonderful like Ezekiel.

In the evening, when Ezekiel brought Harmony back to the hotel, Yunna was waiting in the corridor. She immediately approached them and said, "Boss, Miss Mayo, you're back."

Ezekiel squinted and asked, "Do you need me for something at such a late hour?"

Harmony laughed and remarked, "Miss Yunna, you're quite dedicated. Are you still here to report work at this late hour?"

Yunna sensed the confrontational tone in Harmony's words, but she also smiled and replied, "No, I'm just waiting for the boss to return because I'm concerned about his safety."

Chapter 2583

"No need. You can return to your room!" Ezekiel said coldly. Yunna maintained a charming smile and replied, "Alright, boss. Now that you're back safely, I can rest assured and go to bed." She smiled charmingly and turned to leave.

Harmony could tell that Ezekiel had no interest in Yunna whatsoever. It was Yunna who was trying to catch his attention, going beyond her duties as an assistant. Her behavior that night, for instance, was not appropriate for an assistant at all.

If Harmony wasn't present, would Yunna have followed Ezekiel into his room and prepared his bath?

That night, probably due to what Harmony had said earlier in the day, Ezekiel seemed even more passionate. It was too much for Harmony. I swear this man is punishing me!

She wished he could change his approach, for this method was truly draining her.

"Well? Are you pleased?" he asked, holding Harmony, who was drenched in sweat, in his arms. It seemed that if she expressed dissatisfaction, he would do it all over again.

“No, no, I’m very pleased. Let’s rest! Don’t overexert yourself,” Harmony mustered up the energy to respond.

“I see you’re still full of energy. You must be unable to sleep. How about we do it again?” Ezekiel chuckled softly, leaning against her forehead, his eyes clearly still unsatisfied.

Harmony quickly pushed him away. “Are you trying to kill me?!”

Ezekiel burst into laughter, and he leaned down to kiss her cheek. “Alright, let’s sleep!”

Harmony got up bright and early the next morning. Though she wasn’t a workaholic, she was very punctual when it came to filming. If she was late, many extras and other actors would have to wait for her. Since she entered this industry, she had never made anyone wait for her to shoot. This was her professionalism.

When Sera came to fetch her, she saw Yunna emerging from the elevator, dressed in a brighter suit that day.

Upon seeing Harmony, Yunna greeted her with a smile, showing no signs of fear. “Good morning, Miss Mayo!”

Harmony was vexed. It was evident Yunna wanted to annoy her, yet she had to smile back. Then again, this wasn’t her first rodeo.

“Miss Yunna, you should just focus on your job. As for other matters, you don’t need to meddle too much, Harmony advised her.

Yunna laughed and replied, “Miss Mayo, you don’t understand my job, so naturally, you don’t know the extent of my responsibilities.”

“I may not know the extent of your responsibilities, but I do know that subordinates should maintain a certain distance from their superiors and not behave like you, Harmony warned, her eyes flashing.

Yunna had her own strengths. She had been able to stay by Ezekiel's side all these years because of her excellent work abilities. Having worked with Ezekiel for three years, she had become familiar with his work habits and could meet his expectations.

"Thank you for the reminder, Miss Mayo. However, you should also know your place. This is between my boss and me. You don't need to interfere too much," Yunna retorted.

Having been in the entertainment industry for such a long time, Harmony certainly wasn't easily intimidated. While she didn't bully others, it didn't mean she could be bullied.

"Miss Yunna, if I were you, I would return to my room right now, pack my belongings, or take out my computer and send out a few more resumes, hoping to find a good company," Harmony said calmly.

Yunna looked at Harmony in disbelief. Harmony didn't want to say anything more; she turned and left.

Yunna couldn't help but clench her fists. Impossible! Ezekiel will never fire me! I'm such a valuable asset; Ezekiel will never dismiss me because of a word from Harmony!

Once inside the MPV, Sera asked curiously, "Are you sure Mr. Weiss will fire this assistant?"

Chapter 2584

Harmony couldn't help but chuckle as she said, "Let's see how things go this afternoon!"

Yunna had been waiting at the door for over ten minutes when Ezekiel, dressed in a sleek black suit, appeared. Upon seeing Yunna, his eyebrows furrowed instantly.

"Boss, I'll join you for breakfast and give you a report on last night's work," Yunna suggested. Ezekiel declined outright, "No need. I have a breakfast appointment with Miles. He will report to me."

Yunna immediately looked upset. "Boss, am I not performing well enough?"

Ezekiel's gaze swept over her coldly. "From now on, you're no longer my assistant. I'll have Miles draw up your termination contract."

Yunna was completely taken aback. She hadn't expected Harmony's words earlier to come true. She was really being fired. Had Harmony whispered something to the Boss last night?

"Boss, I haven't made a single mistake at work in the past three years. You can't just fire me like this. I know you best, and only I can ensure your work goes smoothly," Yunna quickly asserted her value.

"Miss Yunna, whether your work is valuable to me is for me to decide. You will be compensated fairly. Please hand over your duties to Miles for the time being," Ezekiel responded coldly and left.

Yunna gasped for breath. She had never imagined that her eager anticipation of working here and developing a better relationship with Ezekiel would end just a few days after her arrival. And all of this was caused by Harmony. Yunna bit her red lips, her eyes flashing with unwillingness and resentment.

Soon, Miles contacted her and came to find her.

Yunna opened the door. Still wanting to stay, she pleaded with Miles, "Miles, help me. I really want to stay and work for the boss."

"I warned you before. You can stay here if you want, but don't delude yourself into thinking you can have more than a professional relationship with the boss. It's your own fault for not handling it well."

"It's Harmony. She ruined me. She's the one who drove me away," Yunna said angrily.

"Yunna, can't you see that Miss Mayo is the woman the boss loves the most? Your attempt to offend Miss Mayo only proves your inadequacy."

"But she's just a celebrity. How long can she stay by the boss' side?!"

“You don’t know the boss well enough. Once he falls in love, he never changes his mind. He loves Miss Mayo enough, and no matter what job she does, he loves Miss Mayo herself.”

“How is that possible? I’ve known the boss for three years. She’s not good enough for him,” Yunna said, looking frustrated.

“Whether she’s good enough or not is not for you or me to decide, but for the boss.”

“Has Miss Mayo met Mr. and Mrs. Weiss? Do they approve of her?” Yunna asked, raising an eyebrow.

“Mr. and Mrs. Weiss will like whoever the boss likes,” Miles said.

Reluctantly, Yunna handed over her work computer and files. However, she kept one file back, planning to take revenge on Ezekiel for his coldness. In her opinion, Ezekiel shouldn’t have been so heartless to her.

As for Harmony, Yunna didn’t plan to let her off either. Yunna was a well-educated person, capable of many things, such as ruining an artist’s career.

Meanwhile, Harmony was passionately filming her scenes. She loved acting because it allowed her to experience different lives.

After finishing filming in the afternoon,

Harmony was taken by Sera for a relaxing spa session, as she had been hanging on wires for the day’s shoot.

Sera was willing to spend money to give Harmony a better experience. They went to a high-end spa frequented by many celebrities. As soon as Harmony and Sera walked in, the staff immediately came forward to serve them.

“Miss Longjohn, Miss Mayo, welcome. We have prepared our best technicians for the two of you. Please follow me.”

Harmony and Sera followed the attendant upstairs. Just as they turned a corner, they bumped into someone coming downstairs. Harmony looked up and locked eyes with the person.

It was Catalina, who was also surprised to see Harmony there.

“What a small world, running into annoying people everywhere,” Sera commented.

Catalina looked a bit disheveled. She glared at Harmony, “Can’t you watch where you’re going? You almost bumped into me.”

Harmony frowned. “But I didn’t, did I?”

“If you dare to bump into me, I will sue you,” Catalina huffed.

The attendant warned grimly, “Ms. Martin, these are our esteemed guests. Please respect our customers. We have refunded your money. You can leave now.”

Catalina’s face turned redder. She had come here to get a refund. Now, she had gone to every club she used to frequent to get her membership fees refunded.

“What’s with your attitude? I am a member here,” Catalina complained.

“Our boss has said we will no longer do business with you, Ms. Martin. Even if you have money in the future, please go elsewhere.”

Catalina’s face grew even more unpleasant. But she had indeed made a scene to get her refund. At this moment, she was holding a bag of free samples from the club, which she had become too stingy to throw away. She used to look down on these things, but now, she could only take them with her.

“How very economical of you, Ms. Martin! Even taking away the gift bag. I remember you saying on a show that you never use free samples given by the stores,” Sera immediately called her out.

Catalina glared at Sera. “Mind your own business.”

“Sera, let’s go upstairs,” Harmony said to Sera.

Catalina was waiting for Harmony to mock her about the bag incident last time, but to her surprise, Harmony didn’t mention it. She quickly left before Harmony could bring it up.

“What happened?” Sera asked the attendant curiously.

“Ms. Martin came this morning asking for a refund. We do provide this service, but there is a process. However, she came with a lawyer and threatened to sue us. Our boss generously refunded her membership fee.”

Sera looked at Harmony and commented, “Looks like some people are starting to have bad luck.”

Harmony thought about Catalina’s past behavior. She was indeed too arrogant, which was why she was in such a mess now.

Harmony had her own set of principles. Even if she reached the peak of success, she would remain humble and modest, not showing off or being arrogant. Even though she could have humiliated Catalina just now, she chose not to.

After Catalina got in her car, she called Reuben to complain. “Reuben, guess who I just ran into?”

“Who?”

“Harmony. I can’t believe she came to my regular spa club now. Reuben, I’m out of money. Can you lend me some?” Catalina cooed.

Reuben comforted her on the other end, "Catalina, I don't have any money either! I lost all my money in investments. You know I'm only acting now to pay off my debts."

Catalina gritted her teeth in anger. When she asked Reuben for money nowadays, he always had an excuse. Back when she had money, she didn't hesitate to buy him luxury watches and bags. Now, she had seen Reuben's true colors.

"In that case, give me back the watch I gifted you!"

"I lost that watch a long time ago. I can't find it."

"You... Reuben, you..."

"I'm very busy. I have to hang up. Don't call me if it's not important. I'm filming." Then he hung up.

Catalina was so angry her face turned pale. In fact, she didn't need Harmony to humiliate her. Reuben alone was punishment sent by heaven.

Chapter 2586

An hour later, a car pulled up at the entrance of the spa. Reuben stepped out and entered the lobby. "I'm looking for Miss Harmony Mayo."

"Please wait a moment. She's not ready yet."

"Alright, don't tell her I'm here. I'll wait for her." Reuben found a seat and sat down.

He now regretted his past decisions. Catalina had fallen from grace, while he hadn't found a wealthy benefactor, so he planned to follow Harmony, hoping that she would give him a significant supporting role in her future films, which would be a better opportunity than joining other film crews.

Two hours later, Harmony and Sera finished their spa session and descended the stairs. They were engaged in cheerful conversation when a figure suddenly intercepted them.

“Harmony, what a coincidence to meet you here!” Reuben immediately approached them with a flattering expression, not forgetting to greet Sera, “Sera, it’s been a while.”

“Mr. Nagy, don’t be so familiar. We’re not close.” Sera huffed.

“Harmony, I know we’re no longer together, but I can’t forget the difficult times we shared. I believe we can still be friends, right?” Reuben looked at Harmony with his usual affectionate gaze and shamelessly stated, attempting to evoke Harmony’s sympathy and pity.

Unable to take it anymore, Sera refuted, “You just want to curry favor with Harmony, don’t you, Nagy? What, does your former benefactor, Catalina, not care about you anymore?”

“Sera, don’t misunderstand. Catalina and I merely had a business relationship. We’ve terminated our collaboration and have no connection now. I just can’t forget you, Harmony, and the happy moments we shared.”

“Happy moments? For me, those are memories I’d rather forget. Leave, Reuben. Don’t bother me anymore. We’re just strangers now.” Harmony said coldly.

“Harmony, I know you’re not this heartless. You’re the most gentle and understanding person I’ve ever met. So, we can still be friends, and I promise we’re only friends.”

Harmony felt revolted. She didn’t expect Reuben to be so shameless.

“Reuben, have you no shame? Must I curse at you before you’re pleased?! Do you think a despicable person like you is worthy of being my friend? Get lost!” Harmony cursed. She knew the only way to deal with a person like Reuben was to be harsh.

Reuben was dumbfounded. The Harmony, who never cursed, was now calling him despicable in front of so many people and even telling him to get lost!

Sera also watched with great interest, hoping Harmony would curse at him even more.

“Harmony, we’ve been together for so long. Can’t you leave me with some dignity? Although I’m down and out now, our past can’t be erased. We had dated in the past.”

“Thinking about the days with you makes me sick. Don’t mention the past to me. You’re not worthy! And why aren’t you sucking up to your Catalina? Why are you here? Do you think I’ll pity you and help you? You’re dreaming. I’ve already done you a favor by not using my connections to cut off your resources.” Harmony sneered.

The nearby attendants observed this drama unfold. They also held no fondness for Reuben, for when he and Catalina had come, he was very arrogant, bossing them around. He even flirted with the prettier attendants.

Now, Harmony’s scolding had alleviated their anger.

Reuben didn’t anticipate this. He thought he could gain Harmony’s sympathy by acting pitiful, but it seemed he was mistaken. Harmony was no longer the Harmony he used to know.

“Harmony, can we find a place to sit down and talk? There are too many people here.” Reuben pleaded. He didn’t want to lose any more dignity, but he also didn’t want to give up the chance to plead with Harmony.

Chapter 2587

Upon finally encountering her, he was determined to gain an advantage before anything else.

Sera couldn’t help but laugh. “Reuben, you deserve this. How dare you come to Harmony! I suggest you stop humiliating yourself and go home!”

“Sera, considering the favors I’ve done for you in the past, could you put in a good word for me? You know my current situation. I was forced by Catalina. I didn’t mean to hurt Harmony, really.” With that, Reuben turned to Harmony. “Harmony, I genuinely didn’t mean to hurt you.”

“I should thank Catalina for helping me see your true colors. And I should thank you too. Your departure allowed me to meet my current boyfriend,” Harmony retorted sarcastically.

“I know your boyfriend is very influential, Harmony. I congratulate you and wish you well. I have no ulterior motives today. I just hope that the next time you take on a role, you could help me get a part. I want to act in the same drama as you. Is that okay?” Reuben pleaded.

Harmony firmly refused, “No, you are absolutely not allowed to participate in my shows. Even if the director invites you, I will quit.”

Reuben had been begging for so long, but not only did he fail to get Harmony’s help, but he also suffered a lot. Especially the ruthless look Harmony gave him at the end, which finally crushed his last bit of dignity as a man.

“Harmony, you...”

“If you dare to curse me, I’ll have my boyfriend blacklist you,” Harmony threatened, her eyes filled with anger.

Sure enough, Reuben didn’t dare to curse her, so he stepped aside and said to Harmony, “Harmony, there’s no need for us to argue, right? Okay, I came to the wrong place today. You go ahead!”

Sera took Harmony’s arm and left. Having finally vented her anger after so long, Harmony felt relieved.

After Harmony left, Reuben turned around to see the attendants laughing at him. He couldn’t help but curse, “What are you laughing at? Laugh, and I’ll smash your shop.”

Reuben quickly left after his threat. He didn’t have the courage to actually damage the shop because he couldn’t afford to pay for the repairs.

Reuben had another hobby, gambling. However, he didn’t gamble within the country but abroad. So, he was genuinely broke. Catalina couldn’t borrow money from him because he was already in debt.

Harmony returned to the set for night shooting. Around 8 p.m., the entire crew was treated to a luxurious supper. Even the extras received a share, and they were all pleasantly surprised. The main actors also received the most expensive supper, all from a high-end restaurant. About eighty lobsters alone were served, enough for everyone to feast on.

Naturally, it was Ezekiel's treat, and his generosity also made the entire crew very fond of Harmony.

At this moment, Harmony was in the trailer and being fed lobster by a certain someone.

"Do you like it?" Ezekiel asked with a smile.

Harmony smiled. "Delicious."

"Try not to shoot so late in the future. It worries me."

"No, this scene really needs to be shot at night. It's okay, I'm used to it." Harmony reassured him. As an actress with such a high salary, she had to deliver a good performance. Otherwise, how could she satisfy those who paid to watch the films?

Although Ezekiel was worried, he respected her work. With the money Harmony was making now, she was already among the highest earners in the industry. Supporting herself was not a problem at all. In fact, she could live very comfortably. So, making money was one thing. She was truly passionate about acting.

After everyone had feasted, they were even more energized to work. The following scenes went smoothly with the cooperation of the extras, and they were completed in two or three takes.

Chapter 2588

After wrapping up their activities, Harmony and Ezekiel returned to the hotel. Exhausted, Harmony fell asleep in Ezekiel's arms during the journey.

Upon reaching the underground parking lot, the bodyguard opened the door, and Ezekiel personally carried Harmony into the hotel.

He gently placed her on the couch. Feeling drowsy, she didn't feel like taking a shower.

"I want to sleep. Can I skip the shower?" she asked.

"You've been rolling around on the ground all day. How can you not shower? I'll go fill the tub for you. You take a bath," he playfully teased, tapping her nose.

Harmony nodded contentedly, waiting for him to prepare her bath.

In no time, the bath was ready. Harmony went to soak in it herself, but to her surprise, Ezekiel joined her, claiming he was going to scrub her back and wouldn't do anything else. Can I trust him? Harmony thought to herself.

However, this time, Ezekiel kept his word. He was very restrained, and the scrubbing was very comfortable.

However, as time passed, Harmony's sleepiness vanished! His hands brushing against her entire body aroused her. She couldn't believe Ezekiel could be so cunning. Is he trying to seduce me?

Finally, Harmony couldn't hold back any longer. She turned around, threw herself into the man's arms, and hooked her neck around his, saying, "You're really mischievous."

"Why do you say so?" Ezekiel innocently asked. Harmony looked at his sexy, wet hair and kissed his cheek. "You tell me! This is clearly for your own benefit."

Knowing his plan had worked, Ezekiel smirked and asked, "Are you rewarding me, then?"

Harmony boldly replied, "I'm going to devour you!"

The word "devour" unleashed the strongly restrained beast within the man. He panted, "Come on! I can't wait."

What a provocative statement! Harmony blushed, but even though it was late, the happiness didn't stop. The consequence of their passionate night was that the next day, Harmony couldn't make it to the set on time and had to take half a day off. The director readily granted her leave, and the other actors had no objections.

After all, her boyfriend had treated them to a generous supper, and considering how handsome he was, it was quite understandable for her not to wake up in the morning, right?

Harmony slept until 10 a.m. When she opened her eyes, she found the man sitting on the couch in front of the bed, working quietly. His casual attire highlighted his noble temperament.

At that moment, she wasn't in a hurry to get up anymore. She propped up her chin and watched the man work seriously, admiring and etching his image in her head.

"What are you looking at?" Ezekiel looked up and smiled. Harmony squinted and replied, "At you. Do you have a problem with it?"

Ezekiel shook his head with a smile. "Get up! I'll take you to eat something delicious."

Only then did Harmony obediently get up. When she heard there was something delicious, she didn't want to miss it.

At noon, Ezekiel took her to a feast. Halfway through the meal, Sera called her. When she heard that Harmony was indulging in another feast, Sera felt the need to say a few words.

"Harmony, you better be careful! If you gain weight, you won't look good on camera. You better not eat to your heart's content."

Harmony was just about to take another bite, but suddenly, it lost its appeal, and she had to take small bites.

Then again, she also cared about her figure. Even though the feast was in front of her, she restrained herself and only ate a moderate amount.

“The sports car will be airlifted over in the afternoon,” Ezekiel said.

“Perfect! This scene has been on hold. Once your sports car arrives, we can start filming,” Harmony said, expressing her gratitude. “I thank you on behalf of the director!”

“You’re welcome,” Ezekiel responded with a smile, his eyes narrowing, seemingly concealing something.

“You go ahead to the set this afternoon. I’ll arrange for someone to bring the car.”

Later, Sera arrived to pick up Harmony for the set. The intense filming had everyone on edge, unwilling to let their guard down.

Chapter 2589

Around 2 p.m., a black Bugatti sports car zoomed past, followed by a mysterious container truck.

Everyone rushed over to admire this limited- edition sports car. Many wanted to take pictures, but the director stopped them. The car needed to maintain an air of mystery for now.

From the driver’s seat of the sports car emerged a tall figure. Naturally, it was none other than Ezekiel.

A distinguished man in an exquisite car was a sight to behold.

A female supporting actress standing next to Harmony couldn’t help but express her envy. “Harmony, you’re so lucky! Your boyfriend is incredibly handsome.”

“You’re absolutely right! If he were to enter the entertainment industry, other men wouldn’t stand a chance.”

“Why would he need to enter the entertainment industry? He’s already a top talent in the business world!”

“That sports car must be expensive! It looks so impressive. Hey! What’s in that mysterious container truck following it?”

“It’s obvious, isn’t it? It must be for transporting this sports car! They’ll need to load it back up when Mr. Weiss leaves. What if someone steals it?”

“You’re probably right.”

Harmony shared the same thought. However, just then, Ezekiel went around to the passenger seat, opened the door, and surprisingly pulled out a bouquet of red roses. Harmony blinked, bashfully wondering if they were for her.

Ezekiel, holding the flowers, started walking toward her. Harmony was still a bit dazed when someone gently pushed her from behind. “Harmony, go to him quickly. Mr. Weiss might be proposing to you.”

Impossible! Harmony thought. She was completely unprepared for this.

However, when Ezekiel was less than two feet away from her, he indeed got down on one knee. Holding the flowers in one hand and a diamond ring the size of a pigeon egg in the other, he raised it up. “Harmony, will you marry me?”

Harmony covered her mouth in shock, incredulous about the fact that Ezekiel was proposing to her. This... This is too sudden!

“I...?”

Just then, Ezekiel snapped his fingers toward the container truck, and the three doors of the tightly sealed truck slowly descended, revealing the contents inside—a massive glass container filled with romantic blue balloons. But what was the most eye-catching was the pink sports car, the same model as the black Bugatti.

Harmony's eyes widened. She couldn't believe there was another sports car.

Those who were envious before were now even more so. Harmony must have done something extraordinary in her past life! they thought. Not only was Ezekiel wealthy and romantic, but he was also generous, proposing a luxurious sports car.

Harmony was stunned. At this moment, someone behind her said, "Harmony, say yes! Hurry up and say yes!"

"Yes! Hurry up and say yes!"

Tears welled up in Harmony's eyes. How could she not be moved by his elaborate proposal?! She covered her red lips, her slender finger extended toward him. "Yes, I will marry you."

Ezekiel gently slid the diamond ring onto her middle finger and reverently kissed the back of her hand.

Harmony helped him up and threw herself into his arms, hugging him tightly. "Thank you!" she said gratefully.

Just then, applause erupted from the crowd. Harmony was tightly embraced by Ezekiel. He lowered his head and asked, "Do you like this car?"

"Can I sell it?" Harmony blinked and asked, stupefying the man for a few seconds.

Harmony giggled. "Just kidding. I love it. But I've never used my driver's license since I got it. I'm not sure I can drive it!"

Ezekiel laughed. "Don't worry, I'll help you tame it."

Harmony nodded happily. "Okay."

Chapter 2590

Ezekiel was on set, providing the actor with serious and professional instructions on how to drive the car. The actor was so thrilled that his hands were trembling. Being able to drive this sports car even once was something to boast about for a lifetime.

Soon, they finished shooting the scene with the sports car. Many of the director's shots were taken inside the car, and Ezekiel personally performed several impressive stunts.

The female actors on the sidelines were all swooning. Ezekiel is so cool that he seems capable of anything.

Harmony also inwardly sighed. He really is impressive!

With that, Ezekiel had indirectly participated in this drama. The director was excited for a long time. Those shots were simply fantastic. Definitely a bonus for the entire movie!

Harmony didn't have any important scenes that day, but she received a proposal. It felt like a dream. Not far from the crowd, a woman stood there. It was Yunna. She had found out about Harmony's shooting location and had come to take a look. Unexpectedly, she witnessed Ezekiel's proposal and saw the envy-inducing sports car.

She finally understood that Ezekiel truly loved Harmony. She also resented Harmony because she had lost her job, and her dream of marrying into a wealthy family was shattered.

Why could Harmony achieve the dream she couldn't?! She was not willing to accept this. Moreover, she had taken an important document from Ezekiel. As long as Ezekiel didn't notice, a major project would be delayed for a week, causing Ezekiel to indirectly lose a sum of money.

Although this wouldn't greatly affect Ezekiel, it was the only thing Yunna could do to take revenge on him.

As for Harmony, Yunna had studied a lot and had a wealth of knowledge. She was not here for nothing. She could do many things. Her AI knowledge, for instance, was extensive. So, it was very convenient for her to use this to frame Harmony. For example, ruining Harmony's reputation and making the Weisses kick her out.

Yunna got into her car with her bag. She didn't plan to return to her country. She needed to stay here to complete her revenge on Harmony.

Yunna found a cafe and searched the internet for some scandalous photos. She used AI to replace the faces with Harmony's, creating several photos that were so realistic that they were indistinguishable.

Yunna packaged these photos and sent them to Sophia's email. These were all saved from before, and she didn't expect them to come in handy now. She sent them anonymously, not wanting to get herself into trouble.

In Dansbury, Sophia happened to be using her tablet. When an email came in, she was reminded to check it. Sophia opened the email out of curiosity. When she saw the photos, her mind went blank.

The girl in the bikini in the photos was... the girl her son was currently dating?!

Sophia was taken aback. It seemed that she had underestimated Harmony's past. Had she actually taken such photoshoots?

This was not just simple photography. It was clearly meant to please men. Sophia felt a bit agitated. She took a deep breath.

She had originally planned to head home in another few days, but now it seemed that she had to head back immediately.

Sophia said to her assistant, "Get the plane ready. I need to head home today."

"Must it really be today, ma'am? Mr. Weiss hasn't returned."

"I'll go back first. He can come back later."

Sophia wanted to handle this matter personally, and it was not something her husband should deal with.

“Alright, I’ll pack up now.”

Sophia looked at the photos, feeling a heaviness in her chest. She made a decision. Even if Harmony was a good girl, she had to reconsider letting her into their family.

Even with Sophia’s open-mindedness, she couldn’t accept such a girl as her daughter-in-law. She had to go back and make her son break up with Harmony and then find a suitable girl for her son.