

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2708-He should be taught not to curse so casually.

He needed to pay a price for some of the words he said.

However, before David could take action, he heard Evie's voice.

"Sir, please calm down! David and I are good friends.

We don't have the kind of relationship you think we have.

Moreover, I'm not one of the women assigned by the Elves, so please let us go." "Oh? You're not assigned? Does that mean you haven't been touched yet?" The young man's eyes lit up in surprise.

It was such a godsend that a beautiful Elven woman like her had not been touched before.

He could not miss this chance.

Otherwise, he will regret it for the rest of his life.

He finally stood out from the many heirs and got the opportunity to participate in the Elves' sacrificial ceremony.

So of course, he had to seize the opportunity.

"Sir, we have regulations that do not allow an Elven woman like me who has not received special training to have any physical contact with you humans.

Please forgive me, Sir." Evie said politely.

Of course, she understood what the other party meant.

She also knew very well that it was not easy for the Elves to have the good life they had today.

It was all because of the personal visits and promises made by her mother, the Elven Queen, that they were finally here today.

Therefore, she should try not to offend them so that it does not not cause trouble to her mother.

"You can always bend the rules.

You didn't allow us to walk around in the first place, but now look, didn't you change the rules? As long as you come with me, I promise I'll make your clan change the rules.

How about that? ?" the young man asked expectantly.

When everyone first came to the Elven Forest, their main purpose was not to attend the sacrificial ceremony, but to enjoy the services of Elven women.

It would be a pity to miss out on such a beautiful Elven woman.

He wanted to take the most beautiful Elven woman in front of him back to his place and enjoy her slowly.

"Sorry, Sir, I cannot say yes to that.

This is the rule set by the Elven Queen so no one can break it.

If I say yes, I will be removed from the clan," Evie shook her head.

"Does that mean that as long as the Elven Queen agrees, you can come with me?" "Our Queen will not agree to that," Evie replied with certainty.

"That's not necessarily the case.

If that's the case, I make things hard for you.

Let's go and the Elven Queen together now to see if she agrees." Of course, Evie was unwilling to fulfill the young man's request.

She believed that her mother would not agree.

After all, she was the Elven Princess.

The other party was only a second-level force.

Even if he was from the first-level force, the Elves would still not give him the Elven Princess.

Evie did not want to go because she was afraid of disrupting her plan to take David to enjoy the scenery of the Grand Canyon.

"Sir, I'm just an ordinary Elven woman.

Please don't make things difficult for me, okay? If you feel dissatisfied with the Elven woman assigned to you, you can apply to the clan." Evie said seriously.

"To tell you the truth, I was already satisfied before I saw you, but now that I see you, I think the others are just ordinary and unneeded.

I'm no longer interested in them.

Now, I only want you." The young man showed a lewd expression.

"Sir, actually I am..." Evie wanted to reveal her true identity but the other party forcibly interrupted her.

"Okay! I don't want to hear any nonsense.

You have two options.

One is to look for the Elven Queen with me, or the other is for me to forcibly take you to look for the Elven Queen.

Choose one! Don't try to escape.

Although this is the territory of the Elves, you can't escape from me."