

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2715-I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2715-"David, how daring of you! How dare you call the Overlords by their first names. You must be tired of living. Don't drag me down if you want to die. I never said that an Overlord was supporting me. Using the Overlords' names is a capital crime.

Everyone knows that the five Overlords have not been involved in world affairs for many years. They will only appear when Leila is in crisis or there is serious internal strife. If you want to harm me, you should at least come up with a believable idea!" Ambrose yelled at David.

Using the Overlords' name could be very serious.

As long as word did not spread about his casual answer, it would be fine. If reached the Overlords' ears, even the Loughy family could not protect him.

"So, you don't have the support of an Overlord and you still dare to call your family the top force in Leila? You don't even have an Overlord. What kind of top force is that?" David replied.

"David, I think you are teasing me on purpose! Go and ask the dozens of top forces in Leila to see which one of them has an Overlord. Your words have offended everyone. Have you never thought about the consequences of saying that? And the fact that you directly called the Overlords by their names has already violated Leila's two taboos. No matter how powerful the force behind you is, you will not have a place in Leila anymore," Ambrose threatened with a sneer.

His words helped David understand Leila's general power structure.

First of all, the strongest were definitely the five Leila rulers. They have broken away from the secular world. They were aloof and had a transcendent status, so they would not participate in worldly struggles and had no force of their own.

Then, there were dozens of top forces, all of which had partial Overlords.

In other words, Leila had at least dozens of partial Overlords.

It was hard to tell how many there were; it could be hundreds.

After all, some top forces had more than one partial Overlord.

Further down were some second and third-rate forces with Deities.

David did not know the specific division, but there was no need for him to understand.

As for what Ambrose said about him offending dozens of top forces in Leila with just one word, David was not bothered at all.

So what if he offended them?

He had already long disregarded all partial Overlords.

He would kill all of them who dared to go against him.

They were no different from ants to him.

David was thinking about Leila's power structure. On the outside, he looked quiet.

This made Ambrose think that his threat had worked, so he became even more arrogant.

"David, if you are sensible, you should kneel and kowtow to me to admit your mistake. After that, you'll hand over your method of silently controlling other people's bodies to me. That way, I will keep today's matter secret and give you a chance to survive. Otherwise, once word about this spreads, you will become the public enemy of all forces in Leila, and when the time comes, you will no longer be welcomed in Leila," Ambrose continued to threaten David.

He took a fancy to David's weird way of controlling other people's bodies with just one word.

Whoever he told to get lost would obediently lie on the ground and roll away.

How awesome and domineering would that be?

If he could master it, he would just tell anyone arrogant to get lost.

Not only would it make him unfathomable, but it would also humiliate the person acting arrogant. From then on, they would no longer be able to show their face in front of him.

Just thinking about it excited him.

Ambrose's words made Elven Princess Evie, who was standing behind David, tense up instantly and become worried for David.

Although her mother said that David's identity was not simple and he also had an impressive background, it would be useless if dozens of forces and the five Overlords were hostile toward him.

No one could help him and no one would dare to help him.

Nervously, Evie unconsciously tugged David's sleeve.

She wanted to tell David that they must not let Ambrose spread the news about what happened today.

Otherwise, the consequences would be very serious.

David was deep in thought, mulling Ambrose's words.

Upon feeling someone tugging at him, he turned to look at Evie.

When he saw the worry in her eyes, he showed her a reassuring smile to tell her that she did not need to worry about him.

At the same time, he quietly released a little bit of his mind power.
