

Read I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2747-2749

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2747-To ensure that everything went well, the head of the Vingean had brought his best troops.

He was prepared to get the maximum benefit at the minimum cost.

Unexpectedly, an Overlord appeared and crippled them all.

Even though he did not kill them, without strength, the Vingean's life would be worse than death in this world where the strong were respected.

Without the head, the Vingean would surely fall into disarray.

The head of the Vingean never thought it would end like this.

He had thought of the worst outcome: Elven Queen Isa would threaten him with a blow laced with the weapon's source.

He did not even expect the other party to release that arrow.

After all, the Elves would struggle once they lose their last trump card.

Yet, it was quite the contrary.

Isa ignored the Elves' life and death and used her last trump card.

At the same time, they even found an Overlord to help them. Now, he fully understood that David must be here for the Elves. Otherwise, how would he care about such a trivial matter as an Overlord?

The head of the Vingean could not figure out how the Elves got the help of an Overlord.

Just like David said, as an Overlord, he was not even afraid of the five Leila rulers. So, how much benefit would it take for him to come out?

Even if the Elves were sold as a whole package, they still could not afford to get help from an Overlord.

Even if he could not figure it out, this had already happened.

So, what was the point of thinking about this anymore?

The Vingeans' side outside the valley looked bleak.

They could not accept the fact that they had been crippled.

David had crippled the Vingeans and destroyed their spirit.

'This is a small punishment for you. I didn't kill you, not because I am merciful, but because I want to hand you over to the Elves, who will decide how to deal with you, scum," David said calmly.

Crippling thousands of Vingeans elites was a trivial matter to him.

That was the fact.

As a strong partial Heavenly Overlord, everyone below Overlord Realm was just an ant to David.

"My Lord, why are you treating the Vingeans like this?" The head of the Vingeans asked loudly in dismal.

"Because you have violated my bottom line. Everyone in the mortal world knows that the delegates must not be killed when two countries are at war! But what did the Vingeans do? I have no control over the grudge between you and the Elves. Even if you wiped out the Elves because they are not strong enough, they can't blame anyone. However, I can't stand by if you're selling Elven women and letting them suffer a lifetime of torture to gain profits. There is a saying that says one would rather die than be humiliated. You, Vingeans, deserve to be punished by God for your actions. If God won't punish you, then I will!"

After David finished speaking, he looked so devoted to righteousness that he inspired reverence, which caused the Elven women in the valley to fall for him.

Including Queen Isa and Princess Evie.

He was strong, handsome, and had such a sense of justice. Where could they find such a man?

Of course, they also knew the gap between themselves and David.

He was an Overlord who stood at the top of Leila.

So, they would not dare to wish for any interaction between them and would just keep it silently in the deepest part of their hearts.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2748-The head of the Vingeans was stunned by what David said. Finally, he laughed miserably, "I don't accept it!!!"

"So? I asked you to find the five Leila rulers, but you refused to. I gave you the chance, but you didn't use it, so what can I do?" David spread his hands and looked helpless.

He quickly destroyed the shocking arrow that Isa shot, and it disappeared without a trace.

After he said that, David ignored the Vingeans outside the valley.

Completely crippled, they could not do anything but wait for death.

He approached Queen Isa before saying, "Queen Isa..."

As soon as he said that, Isa interrupted him.

"Master David, please don't call me that. You should call me Isa! I am not worthy of being called Queen Isa by you."

What a joke!

Besides the five Leila rulers, David was now the sixth Overlord among Leila.

Even if he called her Queen, she would not dare to acknowledge it.

If it spreads, it would be a crime of great disrespect.

“A name is just a code. Why are you so persistent, Queen Isa?” David said calmly.

“Master David, even if we don’t take it seriously, what will others think if it spreads? I will be scolded to death by the others,” Isa insisted.

“Fine, I’ll call you Ms. Isa then. I have destroyed the Vingeans. As for how to deal with them, I leave it to you. I know that the Elves have suffered greatly over the years and have a lot of resentment towards the Vingeans. So, no matter what you do, I will not interfere.” David stopped struggling and got to the point.

Isa first broke away from the support of Evie and another Elven warrior, bowed to David, and then said thoughtfully,

Thank you, Master David. You not only saved us but also helped us avenge our blood feud. The Elves will never be able to return the favor! From now on, the Elves will always be available for any tasks you have for us.”

Evie also bowed.

“Thank you, David!”

Then all the Elven women in the valley bowed to David.

“Thank you, Master David!!!”

“You don’t need to be so polite with me. It’s just a small effort,” David replied with a smile.

“It might be a small effort for you, Master David, but it is a huge favor for us. I declare that from now on, Master David will be the Elves’ most distinguished guest, and he can enjoy all privileges,” Isa announced loudly.

“Ms. Isa, we’ll talk about this later. Let’s handle the business with the Vingeans first, and then we’ll find a place to talk in detail. It happens that I need to talk to you, too.”

‘Yes, Master David!’

An hour later.

David, Isa, and Evie sat around the table in the tower where Elven Queen Isa stayed.

After dealing with the Vingeans, David took Isa and her daughter back to where the Elves lived.

The other Elven women returned the same way they came.

After drinking the Water of Life, Isa’s condition improved a lot. She was much better than when she activated the bow’s source to shoot the arrow. At least she could walk without support now.

However, she would still need some time to recover fully.

After all, she had just activated the bow’s source, which consumed her too much.

“Master David, can I ask you a question?” Isa asked, looking at David sitting opposite her.

She still felt like she was in a dream.

This did not feel real at all.

The Elves’ enemies for generations, the Vingeans, were utterly annihilated, and the young man in front of her annihilated them.

He was an Overlord!

No matter how Isa looked at it, she never expected that the David in front of her was an Overlord who had already reached the pinnacle in Leila.

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2749-“Ms. Isa, if you have any questions, just ask!” David replied.

“Are you really an Overlord?” Isa’s eyes were filled with anticipation.

Evie also looked over.

She also wanted to know the answer to this question.

As the Elven Princess, Evie naturally knew the status of an Overlord.

“What? Do you think I don’t look like one?” David smiled.

“No, no! I just think it’s too exaggerated for Master David to reach Overlord at such a young age. It’s so exaggerated that it’s a bit unreal.” Isa quickly denied it.

She had to be cautious while talking to an Overlord.

She thought David was the heir secretly cultivated by some powerful force.

Who would have thought that David was actually the grandmaster?

“Being young doesn’t mean anything! I reached Overlord Realm not long ago,” David admitted modestly.

There was no need to be secretive about this kind of thing.

After getting David’s affirmative answer, Isa and Evie’s eyes widened, and they were shocked and speechless for a long time.

When he saw the two speechless, David broke the silence and asked, “Ms. Isa, what’s wrong?”

“Oh! Nothing! Nothing’s wrong! By the way, Master David, you said you have something to tell me. May I know what it is?”

Isa came back to her senses.

David thought for a while and said honestly, “Ms. Isa, with all due respect, I want your treasure, so I want to know if you can part with it. I can exchange it for other things.”

“Master David, what are you saying? We might not have left the valley if it weren’t for you! Moreover, you also helped us avenge our blood feud, so just tell me whatever you want. As long as we have it, you can have it,” Isa replied generously.

She longed to be able to rely on someone as powerful as David.

As long as they could win David's favor and gain his protection, there was nothing the Elves could not part with, including her, the Elven Queen.

"I want the bow you just shot that arrow from."

Isa was stunned when she heard this. Uncertain, she asked, "Master David, you want the Elves' inherited weapon?"

"Yeah!" David nodded.

"Master David, it's not that I don't want to give it to you, but the bow can only exert its power fully when paired with the Elves' special skill. It will be useless if you take it."

After Isa finished speaking, she suddenly thought of something and quickly added, "Only women can practice the Elves special skills. Moreover, the source of the inherited bow has been exhausted. So you won't be able to deliver that shocking blow again for a while."

"Ms. Isa, to tell you the truth, I have other uses for the bow, and I do not intend to use it as a weapon. If you are willing to give me the bow, I, David Lidell, swear as Overlord that I will always protect the Elves from any invasion as long as I live.

What do you think?" David solemnly promised.

As soon as Isa heard this, her breathing became rapid, and her plump chest heaved.

She was not angry but excited.

She knew in her heart the weight of David's words.

What would it mean to have the eternal protection of an Overlord?

The Elves would become Leila's darling in the future.

All forces must respect them, and they would no longer need to bow to other forces' wishes.

Even top forces with partial Overlords will treat the Elves with respect.

This was the intimidating power of an Overlord.

As David announced this, the Elves' fate would change completely.