

Read I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2773

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2773-“Lufian, don’t mess around! We can wait until after Elora’s restoration, okay? If you mess around now, it will cause Elora’s restoration to fail!” Sylvio shouted.

“Don’t worry! I know for sure that Elora’s restoration will not fail this time!” Lufian replied coldly.

Then he turned and walked towards David.

“Boy, I don’t know who you are, but no one can touch my things! Whoever touches them will die!” Lufian said as he walked.

“Lufian, although Elora and I are not in the kind of relationship you think, I disagree with what you say! Elora is a person, not your thing. She has her own thoughts and is free to do whatever she wants. No one has the right to interfere with that. No one!” David replied.

“Really? Then, I will kill you now and take Elora away! Even if I can’t win her heart, I still want to get her body! I want her to watch you die in my hands.”

“You can’t!” David was not afraid at all.

“I’m so curious as to who gave you the courage to say this to a Heavenly Overlord?”

“My own strength, of course!”

The conversation between the two made the other people’s hearts leap to their throats.

Sylvio, Valentin, and Drogo knew what would happen next.

The only thing they could do was to work hard to maintain the operation of the formation.

At this time, Elora was at the critical moment of her restoration. She could hear the sounds outside but could not do a thing.

She could only pray that David could survive his fight with Lufian.

“Very good! Then, show me where your confidence comes from.”

The moment he finished saying that, Lufian rushed towards David.

Just as he approached David, a figure suddenly appeared out of thin air.

Lufian did not hesitate and slammed into it with all his strength.

Anyone who dared to stand in front of him would die.

Bang!

The loud noise alerted everyone.

They witnessed a figure being propelled, transformed into a point of light, and vanishing into the void. This demonstrated the immense force of Lufian’s impact.

However, Lufian was also forced to stop.

His eyes were locked on the person he crashed into.

This person was not weak. When he got hit, he did not disintegrate but just flew away. Even Sylvio’s strength might be inferior to that person.

When have so many strong people suddenly appeared in Leila?

The figure that was knocked away by Lufian suddenly reappeared and stood in front of David, confronting Lufian.

Lufian’s eyes narrowed.

He looked exactly like that kid.

Not only that, but the energy they exuded was also the same.

What’s happening?

Why did these two look alike and even have the same energy?

Were they twins?

Even if they were twins, they could not have the same energy, right?

Sylvio, Valentin, and Drogo were also mesmerized.

When they saw 'another David', all three were puzzled.

They also had no idea why there were two Davids.

Even Elora did not know that David had a clone, let alone them.

"Is this your trump card?" Lufian looked at David.

"You can say that." David smiled and answered.

"It's just an ant! Do you think he can protect you? What a joke!" Lufian showed a sinister expression.

"If one can't, how about a few more?" David asked.

As he said that, more figures appeared from thin air. Including the one Lufian knocked away, ten clones were now protecting David.