

A WARRIOR UNDEFEATABLE/

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3496

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3496-“Master, Master...” Feenix called out for Jared. The recent third heavenly tribulation was incredibly terrifying, and she was unsure of Jared’s condition.

“Feenix, please calm down. Jared should be alright. The fact that the demonic tribulation cloud is still present means they are still alive,” Catina reassured Feenix.

However, Igor and the others wore solemn expressions, knowing that this was only the third heavenly tribulation. Even if Jared and Montane Daemon survived this one, it would be challenging to endure the ones that followed.

“Mr. Daemon, Mr. Daemon...” After the third heavenly tribulation, Jared appeared extremely pale as he coughed up a mouthful of blood.

Montane Daemon was covered in wounds, his eyes tightly shut and his complexion pale.

In response to Jared’s call, Montane Daemon slowly opened his eyes and weakly said, “Mr. Chance, you... you should leave quickly. We simply cannot endure this. I have never heard of anyone being able to withstand the demonic tribulation cloud...” Jared glanced at the demonic tribulation cloud hovering in mid-air and could only respond with a helpless smile, “Mr. Daemon, I cannot escape either. But until the very last moment, I hope you won’t give up. Even in death, you will have my company. Stay strong, Mr. Daemon. We may be struck dead by the lightning tribulation, but we must not let the fear of it consume us...” Upon hearing this, Montane Daemon struggled to sit up, cracking a smile as he said, “You’re right, Mr. Chance. We must not be frightened until the very last moment...” Montane Daemon’s gaze regained its vitality. Although both he and Jared’s internal energy were extremely weak, neither of them gave up.

The two individuals quietly awaited the onslaught of the fourth lightning tribulation, their faces devoid of any trace of fear.

“It’s just ahead. Let’s hurry up...” Xavion watched the approaching demonic tribulation cloud, growing somewhat impatient.

But just as Xavion and his group were rapidly approaching, Igor sensed their arrival.

“Oh no, someone is coming...” Igor frowned.

During one’s tribulation, it would be their most vulnerable time. If these people were here to deal with Jared, it would be troublesome!

Upon hearing that someone was approaching, Feenix, Catina, and the others became alert. Soon, Xavion and his group arrived. When he saw Feenix and the others, he was stunned. Xavion recognized Feenix and knew she was with Jared.

However, among these people, there was no sign of Jared.

When Igor saw Xavion, his face instantly turned even more unsightly. Igor knew that these individuals were from the Demon Seal Alliance, and they were searching for Jared everywhere.

Igor pretended not to know Xavion and approached, asking politely, “Fellow cultivators, I have a friend undergoing a tribulation here. May I ask what brings you here?” Xavion didn’t even look at Igor and instead stared intently at Feenix. At the same time, his eyes kept shifting between Catina and Igor.

This man always had a wandering eye for women.

“Your friend is undergoing a tribulation? Is this friend of yours named Jared?” Zayan asked coldly.

Feenix and Cloud were present. Zayan knew these two had been with Jared the entire time. Thus, he speculated that Jared was nearby.

“My friend, I do not know who you are referring to. I am not familiar with anyone named Jared.” Igor continued to put on an act. Now, it was the most critical moment for Jared and Montane Daemon. If anyone were to interfere, it would truly be dangerous!

“Hmph, stop pretending. Jared must be nearby. You are definitely in league with him,” Xavion said, turning to Zayan. “Mr. Cabeza, go and see if Jared is undergoing tribulation. If it is him, let's capture him." Zayan nodded and headed straight towards a nearby building.

"How dare you?" Upon seeing the situation, Igor unsheathed his sword. The blade's aura, carrying a fierce sharpness, headed straight for Zayan.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3497-Zayan swiftly dodged, and the sword aura crashed down, leaving a deep trench in the ground. Zayan's expression darkened. It was evident that Jared was inside that building!

Igor stood up and pointed his sword at Zayan, declaring, "As long as I'm here, you won't harm Mr. Chance. This place is not where members of the Demon Seal Alliance can act recklessly." Zayan sneered, "So you finally admit it, but with your limited abilities, can you stop us?" With a cold smile, Zayan reached into the void and summoned the Sky-Piercing Baton into his hands. He swung it, and a myriad of radiance flickered as a formidable aura surged towards Igor.

Igor's face became solemn, his sword emitting a gleaming light as he struck continuously. However, Igor was continuously forced to retreat, directly suppressed by Zayan. It seemed that Igor's strength was somewhat inferior to Zayan's!

"Dad..." "Master..." Seeing that Igor was no match for Zayan, Rosetta and Dalton became anxious.

On the other hand, Catina swiftly flicked the long whip in her hand and leaped into the air!

Catina was a Seventh Level Tribulator, capable of joining the battle. The presence of Catina's family relieved some of the pressure on Igor.

"Attack!" Xavion frowned and waved his hand. The members of the Demon Seal Alliance rushed forward. Upon seeing the situation, Feenix and others also charged into the fray.

Observing the chaos, Xanthus took advantage of the situation and slipped away.

At this point, he wasn't sure whom to assist.

"Hmph, do you think you're capable enough to stop me?" Zayan's aura enveloped his entire body, successfully blocking the attacks from Igor and Catina. Following closely, the Sky-Piercing Baton descended, resembling a plummeting meteorite. Its target was Igor!

Seeing this, Catina wanted to intervene but was blocked by a member of the Demon Seal Alliance. Igor's brow furrowed as he brandished his sword in defense. The Sky-Piercing Baton struck against his longsword, emitting a resonating hum!

The longsword trembled. A tremendous force coursed through it, surging into Igor's body!

Igor's aura turned tumultuous as he fell from the sky. Zayan snorted coldly and headed towards the nearby building. He wanted to check if Jared was inside before the lightning tribulation struck.

Upon seeing the situation, Igor let out a thunderous roar, his sword's light once again soaring towards the heavens!

Igor knew he was no match for Zayan, but he would never stand by and watch Jared in danger. Jared had already saved his own daughter twice. Even if it cost him his life, Igor was determined to stop Zayan. And just at that moment, the fourth lightning tribulation thundered down.

Along with the lightning tribulation, everyone engaged in the fight was thrown out by a tremendous force.

Even the mere aftershock of the lightning tribulation held such power. One can imagine the suffering Jared and Montane Daemon would endure under the tribulation!

As Jared and Montane Daemon felt the fourth heavenly tribulation descending, this time, neither of them emitted any aura!

They knew that with their current weakened state, they couldn't withstand the tribulation. An overwhelming pressure directly overwhelmed Jared and Montane Daemon, making it hard for them to breathe.

Although the lightning tribulation had not yet arrived, its presence was already felt!

Jared and Montane Daemon both closed their eyes, silently awaiting the impending lightning tribulation!

Just as the tribulation was about to strike them, suddenly, a colorful light radiated from Jared! Following that, they saw a streak of golden light shooting straight towards the lightning tribulation!

Amidst the astonished gazes of the crowd, they saw a demon beast, no larger than a palm, opening its wide mouth and directly swallowing the lightning tribulation into its belly!

At this moment, everyone was dumbfounded. Except for Feenix and Catina, no one knew what kind of demon beast this was!

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3498-Jared and Montane Daemon waited patiently, but the lightning tribulation did not descend. Curious, they opened their eyes and looked up.

"Mr. Chance, what is that?" Montane Daemon noticed a small demon beast emitting colorful radiance under the demonic tribulation cloud.

Jared was pleasantly surprised and laughed heartily, "This little guy can actually withstand the lightning tribulation of the demonic tribulation cloud... Oh, I almost forgot, this little one is the mount of the Demon Lord, so it's completely fearless of the demonic tribulation cloud!" "Mr. Daemon, we're safe now." Hearing Jared's words, Montane Daemon couldn't fully understand, but seeing Jared's excited expression, he knew that the demonic tribulation cloud wouldn't harm them.

"Mr. Chance, there are several more lightning tribulations behind. I wonder if this little guy can handle them?" Montane Daemon asked.

"It should be fine. Let's wait and see." Jared followed Montane Daemon, awaiting the fifth lightning tribulation. In the sky, the demonic tribulation cloud seemed to be brewing, and lightning flashed in the pitch-black clouds.

But before the fifth lightning tribulation struck, the Celestial Devourer opened its mouth wide and suddenly sucked with great force.

A tremendous suction force headed straight for the demonic tribulation cloud.

The demonic tribulation cloud seemed to have consciousness, struggling desperately to escape, constantly changing shapes to evade the massive suction.

However, no matter how the demonic tribulation cloud struggled, it was futile. It ended up being swallowed by the Celestial Devourer.

The pitch-black sky instantly became bright, and the sun shone warmly on everyone.

Burp!

Suddenly, the Celestial Devourer burped.

With just one burp, the entire earth trembled. Everyone, including Igor and Zayan, stopped and stared in astonishment at the small Celestial Devourer.

The Celestial Devourer paid no attention to the gazes of others. Instead, it descended with a thunderous crash, scampered back into Jared's storage ring in a puff of smoke, and promptly fell into a deep slumber!

"Is the demonic tribulation cloud really gone?" Montane Daemon was shocked and couldn't find words to express his feelings.

The lightning tribulation that followed never came. Even the demonic tribulation cloud had disappeared!

Jared was astonished. He thought it was impressive enough that the Celestial Devourer could swallow the lightning tribulation, but to his surprise, it even devoured the entire Demonic Tribulation Cloud. It was beyond belief!

“Mr. Daemon, we can say that we have weathered the demonic tribulation cloud.

You should break through quickly. I’ll leave first...” Jared urged Montane Daemon to break through before getting up to leave.

However, just as Jared walked out of the room, he saw Igor and others confronting members of the Demon Seal Alliance.

Upon seeing Jared emerge from the room, Zayan frowned. “So it was you indeed. What was that little beast that swallowed the demonic tribulation cloud?” Zayan was curious to know what creature could devour the demonic tribulation cloud.

“Why should I tell you?” Jared replied coldly.

“Jared, you killed disciples of my Demon Seal Alliance. I’ve come to take your life. Regardless of the demonic tribulation cloud, you must die today...” Xavion shouted at Jared.

Jared glanced at Xavion and said coldly, “You’re the young master of the Demon Seal Alliance, right? I heard that besides relying on your father’s reputation, you don’t have much ability.” “Nonsense, I’m not without abilities. How could a mere First Level Tribulator like you have any say? Today, I will personally end your life...” Xavion retorted and attacked Jared.

“Mr. Xavion, please don’t be reckless...” Zayan wanted to stop Xavion, but Xavion had already made his move.

When Xavion took action, Igor, Catina, and others also sprang into action, and chaos erupted once again!

Jared had just assisted Montane Daemon through the tribulation and had almost depleted all his various powers. Now, getting involved with Xavion was indeed not the best timing.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3499-However, given the current circumstances, Jared couldn't simply turn and flee, especially with Montane Daemon still on the verge of a crucial breakthrough.

As Xavion launched his attack, Jared swiftly wielded the Dragonslayer Sword, slashing it towards Xavion. Instantly, the sword released countless streams of sword energy, tearing through the void and condensing into a storm of sword energy aimed directly at Xavion.

Xavion snorted coldly, and a surge of energy erupted from his body. This energy resembled the relentless waves of the vast ocean, crashing one after another!

Wave after wave of sword energy was directly repelled, and Jared's sword strike was instantly neutralized. Undeterred, Jared followed up with his Sacred Light Fist.

At this point, Jared had almost depleted all his spiritual power, draconic energy, and even the nascence power within him. The only strength he could rely on was the physical power of his own body.

The Sacred Light Fist was the most suitable technique for this situation, utilizing the fundamental power of the body.

Golden light erupted from Jared's fist, and countless fist shadows rained down like cannonballs towards Xavion!

Upon seeing Jared's Sacred Light Fist, Xavion burst into laughter.

"Hahaha, have you exhausted all your spiritual energy and resorted to the strength of your physical body? Surely you don't intend to defeat me with such primitive power, do you?" Xavion laughed heartily, then concentrated his spiritual energy between his fingers. With a sudden jab, countless beams of spiritual light flickered, directly blocking Jared's Sacred Light Fist.

Xavion wasn't merely putting on a show; he possessed genuine strength.

Witnessing Xavion's arrogant demeanor, Jared couldn't help but feel furious.

In response, Jared suddenly bit his tongue, spitting out a mouthful of blood essence. The Dragonslayer Sword trembled violently, followed by a surge of sword energy. Sword lights manifested one after another behind Jared!

If Jared hadn't exhausted all his strength, he wouldn't have reached the point of burning his blood essence. If Zelda hadn't been injured, he wouldn't have ended up in such a sorry state!

Although Jared possessed the Divine Bow, he was likely unable to draw it at present. Even if he could, he wouldn't use it unless absolutely necessary!

The same went for the life-saving artifact, the Dragon Bell. As the saying goes, "A person's talent will arouse the envy of others." If Jared were to reveal too many of his powerful weapons, he would likely invite a great deal of trouble!

A myriad of sword lights manifested behind Jared, immediately charging towards Xavion.

"Hmph, with your limited abilities, burning your blood essence won't do anything to help," Xavion scoffed.

A black mist rose from Xavion's body, forming a colossal skeleton behind him, exuding a lethal intent. The myriad of sword lights enveloped Rosetta, who collided with the massive skeleton!

Jared kept retreating, his face growing increasingly grim. Even by burning his blood essence, Jared still couldn't defeat Xavion!

The myriad of sword lights gradually faded away, and the massive skull formed from the black mist also vanished without a trace!

Jared propped himself up with the Dragonslayer Sword, his forehead covered in cold sweat.

"Jared..." Catina witnessed Jared's struggle against Xavion and felt extremely anxious.

However, her anxiety was in vain as members of the Demon Seal Alliance stopped her, making it impossible for her to break free.

The Demon Seal Alliance had numerous strong members. Catina and her group were in grave danger. Especially Igor, who could only defend himself against Zayan's attacks and couldn't spare any effort to help.

"Brat, meet your end..." Xavion coldly smiled and raised his palm, preparing to strike Jared.

Jared frowned, observing Xavion's approaching palm. In a moment of determination, he bit his tongue again, activating the Golem Body, causing golden scales to cover his entire body.

It seemed that Jared was going to forcefully resist Xavion's strike.

"Mr. Xavion..." Just as Xavion was about to strike with his palm, someone suddenly called out his name!

Xavion turned and realized it was Xanthus.

"What do you want?" he demanded, displeased.
