

Married at First Sight Chapter 4348

It ruined Yangyang's good impression of them.

In the past, Yangyang was very happy to see his biological father. But now when Yangyang sees him, he just calls him dad and is not as happy as before.

This is all caused by my mother.

Mother Zhou's expression changed, and she said reluctantly: "I understand. I won't say bad things about Liberty in front of Yang Yang."

After comparing herself with Ye Jiani, her daughter-in-law, Zhou's mother also knew that Liberty was better.

Unfortunately, there is no medicine for regret.

Ultimately, it's the Zhou family that is unlucky.

As soon as the three Zhou family members left the hospital, Liberty and his wife arrived.

Liberty brought bone soup to her sister.

"Sister, I just had breakfast and now I can't drink the soup."

Haitong sat with her back against the pillow.

The baby sleeps beside her, and after eating and drinking, the little one just sleeps.

When he wakes up, he just cries once or twice to remind the adults that he is awake.

Zhan Yin thinks his son is easy to take care of and is a very well-behaved child.

Haitong told him that it was too early to be happy, as newborn babies only eat and sleep, and then eat and sleep, in the first few days after birth.

As he grows up a little, you will know whether he is easy to take care of or not.

It was the same thing when Yangyang was just born in the first few days. When his sister was discharged from the hospital and went home to recuperate after giving birth, it was so difficult to take care of him.

Fortunately, the little guy is very sensible now.

“The soup is still hot. You can drink it later. It’s in an insulated lunch box so it won’t get cold that quickly. You can eat the meat and drink the soup now. You need to make up for it.”

“The soup is still hot. You can drink it later. It’s in an insulated lunch box so it won’t get cold that quickly. You can eat the meat and drink the soup now. You need to make up for it.”

Liberty placed the insulated lunch box on the bedside table before sitting down in front of the bed. She looked at her sister’s complexion and said, “You look a little better today, but you’re still a little pale. You need to take some extra care.”

“During the confinement period, the most important thing is to eat well, sleep well, and feel good.”

Hai Tong smiled and said, “Don’t worry, Zhan Yin will definitely treat my mother and me like pigs.”

Liberty tapped her forehead and said, “Zhan Yin feels sorry for you.”

She looked at her nephew again, “Just fell asleep?”

“I just finished drinking milk powder half an hour ago. I was full. I opened my eyes and looked around, but fell asleep again in less than two minutes.”

Haitong looked at her son with gentle eyes, “He changes every day. He looks better now.”

Yangyang said that the little brother is a little ugly.

Well, that’s the truth.

It looks much better now.

“I’m beautiful to begin with.”

Liberty changed her seat and sat next to the child. Looking at the child’s sleeping face, her expression was also gentle.

“Sister, Yangyang’s dad and grandparents came here just now.”

Liberty said “oh”, not surprised by this.

Zhou Honglin is different now. He fulfills his responsibilities as a father to Yangyang.

It was normal for Zhou Honglin to come and see his sister after knowing that she had given birth to a child.
