

Married at First Sight Chapter 4350

Zhan Yin does not recommend that all his younger brothers run back.

However, everyone was happy because his son was the first of the next generation. His younger brothers were all very happy to be uncles and they all dropped their work and ran back.

This is also the result of their deep brotherly love and everyone's recognition and respect for Haitong as the eldest sister-in-law.

"Are you going to bring Miss Ouyang back?"

Zhan Yin only grasped the key point later.

If my future sister-in-law is coming over, it means she will be formally meeting my parents. After all, she is the head of the Ouyang family. How can I let her go straight to the hospital when she is meeting my parents for the first time?

"Well, the eldest lady said she wanted to pay a formal visit, and she also wanted to meet the eldest sister-in-law."

Zhan Yuan said honestly: "She is very busy at work. I wanted to persuade her not to follow, but she insisted on going back, so we went back together."

I am still very happy.

Because Ouyang Ya easily accepted that she was the candidate for Zhan Yuan's wife chosen by Grandma Zhan.

In Ouyang Ting's words, the only one worthy of her elder sister is Zhan Yuan.

Zhan Yuan himself is very outstanding.

Ouyang Ya has become accustomed to the food he cooks.

The two families are well matched.

As for the issue of marrying far away, everything will be fine as long as the elders of both families communicate well.

Both Grandma Zhan and her daughter-in-law told Ouyang Ya in person that as long as Zhan Yuan lived a happy life, they didn't care whether Ouyang Ya returned to live in Dongguan City or not. They also said that Zhan Yuan was currently working in the Ouyang family, so he should put work first and naturally stay in H City.

Whenever I have time during the holidays, I will go back to Dongguan to spend time with my family and have a meal.

It's okay if you can't come back when you are busy. The old man is still very healthy and you can take a plane to see him.

In short, there is no obstacle for the two families to get married.

"This is Miss Ouyang's first time here. You should take her home first. After she has met the elders at home and eaten, it won't be too late to come to the hospital to see your sister-in-law. Your sister-in-law will be discharged from the hospital and go home tomorrow at noon or in the afternoon."

"This is Miss Ouyang's first time here. You should take her home first. After she meets the elders at home and has dinner, it won't be too late to come to the hospital to see your sister-in-law. Your sister-in-law will be discharged from the hospital and go home tomorrow at noon or in the afternoon."

"Don't worry, take Miss Ouyang home first."

"It's the first time they come to your house, and you're taking them straight to the hospital. What does that mean? It's not a good omen."

Zhan Yin told his younger brother not to take his future wife-in-law straight to the hospital.

"What time is your flight? What time will you arrive at the airport? I'll arrange for someone to pick you up."

Zhan Yuan replied: "No, I have already contacted Uncle Yang and asked him to arrange a driver to pick us up."

"Okay then. I'll listen to my eldest brother and take the eldest lady home first. After dinner, we'll go to the hospital to see my eldest sister-in-law and the child."

After being discharged from the hospital, my sister-in-law is officially in confinement. As her brother-in-law, it is not convenient for him to visit her and he has to wait until she is discharged from the hospital.

But it was different in the hospital, he went over to see that everything was fine.

He hasn't seen what his first nephew looks like yet.

Although my eldest brother posted the photo in the family group.

Zhan Yuan wanted to hug his nephew in person.

“That’s fine. Uncle Yang has arranged a driver to pick you up, so you don’t have to worry about that.”

“If it’s too late at night, you don’t have to come over. Your sister-in-law and the children go to bed early.”

Zhan Yin instructed.

Zhan Yuan said, “It depends on the situation. If it’s still early, we’ll go over there. I’ll call my brother then.”

“OK.”

“Brother, the plane is about to take off. I’m going to hang up first.”

Zhan Yuan said this and hung up the phone.
