

Married at First Sight Chapter 4353

“Miss Ning.”

Ning Siqi also hated her elder sister in her heart, but she controlled her hatred tightly and did not dare to show it at all.

“Mrs. Zhan has given birth, right? I came to see her.”

Ning Siqi kept smiling.

Ning Yunchu stared at her for a long time before saying coldly, “Wait a moment, I’ll see if Haitong is awake. If she wants to see you, I’ll ask Mrs. Long to come in.”

After saying that, she closed the door and stopped Ning Siqi outside.

Ning Siqi’s face darkened, but soon returned to normal.

Ning Yunchu turned back to the room and said to Haitong, “My sister who has some ulterior motives is here. She said she wants to see you and the child. Do you want to see her?”

“Now that she’s here, let her in. Baby, you help me hold her. She always keeps her distance from you. You hold the baby, she won’t ask to be held.”

Haitong was not afraid of what Ning Siqi would do to her, but she was afraid that the woman would do something bad to the child. Some people with evil hearts would pinch the child or put needles in the child’s clothes when no one was paying attention.

In short, a person with a black heart can be cruel even to a newborn baby.

“good.”

Since Haitong was willing to see her, Ning Yunchu went out and opened the door again, saying to Ning Siqi, “Come in, Haitong just woke up.”

Ning Siqi thanked him with a smile and came in with the gifts she had bought. Seeing Zhan Yin sleeping on the sofa, Ning Siqi walked lightly for fear of waking Zhan Yin up.

Deep down, she was somewhat afraid of Zhan Yin, as this man was the most ruthless.

No, his ruthlessness is only directed at others. He is gentle and affectionate towards Haitong. I don’t know how many people envy and hate Haitong.

After Ning Siqi had gone through so much, she realized what happiness in life was, and she couldn't help but feel envious and jealous of her elder sister, Haitong and others.

She especially hated her eldest sister's happiness the most.

Ever since she could remember, the family had been her world. Her parents doted on her and treated her like the apple of their eye. Her elder sister was not even as good as a servant at home, and she bullied her elder sister. Well, every time she bullied her elder sister, her elder sister would always retaliate against her.

Her elder sister was not even as good as a servant at home, and she bullied her elder sister. Well, every time she bullied her elder sister, her elder sister would always retaliate against her.

In fact, she didn't take advantage.

她能压着姐姐，完全是靠着父母的宠爱，只要她哭了，不管姐姐有没有打她，妈妈都是站在她这一边，暴揍姐姐一顿。

Although she couldn't get any advantage from her sister, she could be considered the winner because her mother vented her anger for her.

After Ning Yunchu became blind at the age of sixteen, she was able to deal with Ning Yunchu on her own. A blind man, any punishment she could give Ning Yunchu was enough to make him suffer.

Ning Yunchu, who had just lost his sight, was not used to the dark world and was often hurt by her.

No one felt sorry for Ning Yunchu even though he was injured.

At that time, in Ning Siqi's eyes, Ning Yunchu was not even as good as a dog in her family.

However, now, the Ning family has fallen into the hands of Ning Yunchu, and my brother trusts Ning Yunchu very much and listens to her.

Ning Yunchu even married the man she once wanted to marry.

Live a happy life and regain your sight.

Her life went downhill instead.

Now, on the surface she lives a life of luxury, but she is the only one who knows how much grievance and suffering she has endured.

Mr. Long simply doesn't treat her as a human being.

You can do whatever you want to her. She can't resist or look gloomy, otherwise she will be beaten.

Being whipped with belts and whips was a kind of pain that Ning Yunchu had never experienced before.

After Ning Yunchu brought her sister into the room, she went to Haitong, took the baby, then sat down on the family member's bed next to her, looking at the baby without looking at her sister.

"Mrs. Long."
