

Married at First Sight Chapter 4355

Hai Tong said happily: “Zhan Yin is very good to me. I am lucky to marry him in this life. I saved the Milky Way in my previous life, so I can marry him in this life.”

She couldn’t hide her happiness.

Zhan Yin loves her as his life.

Her love for him is as deep as the ocean.

The couple have walked hand in hand all the way to this day.

“Mrs. Long.”

Hai Tong looked at Ning Siqi and asked, “Where is your husband? I’ve known you for such a long time, but I’ve never met your husband.”

Ning Siqi maintained a smile and replied, “My husband is a workaholic. He is rarely at home, and even rarely stays in Wancheng. He often flies around, on business trips, and only comes back occasionally.”

“He treats my home like a hotel. He stays for a few days and then leaves. Once he’s gone, he won’t come back for ten days, half a month, or even several months.”

Hai Tong showed an understanding look and said, “Men are like this. They put their careers first. Once they start working, they forget about everything else.”

“Our Zhan Yin is the same. When he gets busy with work, he even forgets his last name.”

Ning Siqi couldn’t help but say, “The eldest young lady is wronging Young Master Zhan. Young Master Zhan might have been like this before. Ever since he had the eldest young lady, he has put her first.”

“In our Wancheng, everyone says that the eldest young lady has changed Young Master Zhan, saying that Young Master Zhan dotes on his wife like crazy and is a well-known wife-crazy maniac.”

Haitong smiled happily, “Compared to before, he is more family-oriented now.”

“Mr. Zhan is very family-oriented. With his status and position, it is really good that he cares about his family. Madam, you are the envy of all the women in Wancheng.”

“Not to mention other times, right now, you see Young Master Zhan is taking care of you personally, without asking anyone else to help. He fell asleep while lying on the sofa outside. You can see how tired he is from taking care of you.”

Ning Siqi was not speaking for Zhan Yin, but she was actually envious of Hai Tong.

Haitong smiled.

She asked Zhan Yin to go home and have some rest, but he refused to go back and did not ask the servants at home to come and take care of her. He was afraid that others could not take good care of her, so he insisted on doing it himself.

She asked Zhan Yin to go home and have some rest, but he refused to go back and did not ask the servants at home to come and take care of her. He was afraid that others could not take good care of her, so he insisted on doing it himself.

It is really great that a big CEO would do this for her.

Ning Siqi stayed here for an hour before leaving. If Zhan Yin hadn't woken up and entered the room to see her, Ning Siqi might have wanted to stay a little longer.

As soon as Zhan Yin woke up, she couldn't stay any longer and found an excuse to leave.

Haitong did not accept the gifts she sent.

Zhan Yin handed her the gift she bought, and Ning Siqi didn't dare to refuse it.

She left with as much as she had bought.

Haitong said that she had everything she needed and was very happy when people came to see her. No one had to spend money to buy her things. She would not accept anything sent by anyone.

Ning Siqi was speechless.

After coming out of the hospital, Ning Siqi stuffed the gifts into the hands of the two bodyguards and said in a cold voice, “Mrs. Zhan, don't want them. I'll give them to you guys to eat.”

The two bodyguards looked at the supplements, said nothing, and followed Ning Siqi silently, carrying the supplements.

After getting in the car, Ning Siqi looked at the two bodyguards and hated them to death.

He followed her wherever she went, leaving her no freedom at all.

That fake Ning Siqi lived a more carefree life than her.

The two bodyguards said they were protecting her, but in fact they were just monitoring and controlling her.

Whenever she did anything out of line, they would interfere.

In the past, she could still restore her identity as the Second Miss Ning and visit Ning Yunchu to vent her anger.
