

Married at First Sight Chapter 4371-4375

Zhan Yuan said, "I went there just for you. You are the only one in my eyes and heart. The Second Miss is simply the Second Miss to me. I've never had any inappropriate thoughts about her or any other young lady."

Fortunately, he had always maintained a respectful distance from other women.

And fortunately, Ouyang Ya had fallen in love with him in the end.

He hadn't expected that Ouyang Ya had once considered pairing him with Ouyang Ting.

Luckily, Ouyang Ting had no romantic interest in him—she simply admired him.

"When the time comes, let my grandmother know and ask her to keep an eye out for someone suitable for the Second Miss."

Knowing that the woman he loved once considered matching him with her sister, Zhan Yuan now took his sister-in-law's future seriously.

He thought it best to help marry her off as soon as possible to avoid any future awkwardness.

"My grandmother has a wide network. She knows people all over the country. She was able to find someone for me from your side, and she can also help introduce a talented young man for the Second Miss."

Ouyang Ya said, "Grandma Zhan is already very old. Let's not trouble her with this—we can handle it ourselves."

"Love is all about timing and fate. If it hasn't arrived yet, there's no use worrying."

Her sister was so exceptional—she believed a good match would come her way naturally.

"Let's go upstairs and rest. It's been a long and tiring day."

Ouyang Ya didn't continue the topic.

Zhan Yuan led her upstairs to the guest room he had carefully prepared, making sure everything was in perfect order.

"All the daily essentials are new," he said.

Knowing she was particular about her surroundings, Zhan Yuan had asked the servants to replace her clothes with brand-new ones. Even the sheets and quilts were freshly purchased.

The toiletries were all newly stocked as well.

“This room is rarely used. When I’m home, I sometimes sleep here for a few nights. The window and balcony face the yard—the view is lovely, so I like to stay here from time to time.”

“This room isn’t used often. When I’m home, I occasionally sleep here for a few nights. The window and balcony overlook the yard, and the view is beautiful—so I enjoy staying here from time to time.”

The other rooms were already occupied by relatives and friends.

“I actually thought about giving you my room, but I was worried you might mind sleeping in a bed I’ve used. So I arranged for you to stay in the guest room instead.”

When they got married, he planned to renovate his room and replace all the furniture with new pieces.

For some reason, Ouyang Ya’s face flushed slightly.

Noticing her blush, Zhan Yuan lowered his voice and teased, “Aya, what are you thinking? Are you imagining sharing a bed with me?”

As soon as he said that, she pinched his arm, making him yelp in pain.

Ouyang Ya quickly let go, looking slightly apologetic. “Did it hurt? I didn’t think I used that much force.”

“It didn’t hurt, it didn’t hurt. If you like, you can pinch me a few more times.”

Despite the cry, Young Master Zhan instantly claimed the pain vanished under the care of his beloved.

Ouyang Ya gave him two light taps in response.

“Zhan Yuan, we may be in a relationship, but we’re not married yet. We’re not legally bound, so we shouldn’t cross any lines. I hope you’ll respect that.”

At her core, she was still a very traditional woman.

She hoped their first time would be on their wedding night.

Zhan Yuan gently held her shoulders, looked into her eyes, and said seriously, “Aya, I’m also a very traditional man. Don’t worry—if you don’t agree, I’ll never touch you before marriage.”

“Once we get our marriage certificate and become a legal couple, even if we haven’t held the ceremony yet, I will...”

“If we’re legally married, I wouldn’t object. And once we get the certificate, we’ll definitely set a date for the wedding. I won’t be like your brother and sister-in-law, who waited a year or two after getting married to hold their wedding.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4372

“After we get the marriage certificate, we’ll probably hold the wedding within a month.”

“Yes, since our families are so far apart, where should we hold the wedding? At your place or mine? Or should we have ceremonies in both places? Even though you’re the sixth among your brothers, getting married is still a big deal, and everyone usually gets a proper celebration.”

“I don’t want you to feel shortchanged. People in Wancheng should know we’re married.”

Most of his relatives and friends lived in Dongguancheng.

If the wedding were only held in her City A and not in Wancheng, Ouyang Ya would feel Zhan Yuan was being treated unfairly.

She loved him and didn’t want him to feel neglected.

He had already sacrificed a lot for her.

Zhan Yuan said, “We’ll hold wedding banquets in both places—invite family and friends, share a toast, and receive their blessings.”

He didn’t personally mind, but he knew the elders in his family would care deeply.

So they would celebrate with both families.

Ouyang Ya nodded. “When the time comes, let’s have the banquet in Wancheng first, then return to my city. I’m the one marrying you, not the other way around.”

Zhan Yuan smiled. “You make the call. I’ll go along with whatever you want. Even if we skip Wancheng, I wouldn’t mind—but the elders in my family might.”

“Of course. Marriage is a major life event, not something casual. Everyone wants to be a radiant bride or groom and celebrate in style.”

Zhan Yuan pulled her into his arms.

“Aya, thank you for thinking of me.”

“What are you thanking me for? You’ve been just as considerate. A relationship needs mutual understanding and care.”

A good relationship or marriage has to be nurtured by both partners. It can’t be one person giving while the other simply receives. Eventually, that imbalance leads to disappointment—and possibly a breakup.

They held each other quietly for a while, then Zhan Yuan gently released her and leaned down to kiss her soft lips.

They embraced briefly before Zhan Yuan gently released her. Then he leaned down and kissed her tender lips.

After the passionate kiss, Zhan Yuan spoke softly, “I’ll run the bath water for you and hang your clothes in the closet.”

Ouyang Ya watched him walk into the bathroom, and soon the sound of running water filled the air.

He was so considerate, attentive, and thoughtful.

A man like him—who could be both a gentleman and a homemaker, skilled in business, balanced in strength and grace, and from an excellent family background—seemed almost too good to be true. If she hadn’t met him herself, she wouldn’t have believed such men actually existed.

Usually, men like this only show up in novels—as the male leads.

If her life with Zhan Yuan were a novel, he would undoubtedly be the male lead, and she the naturally gifted female lead.

With the heroine’s halo, she felt invincible—like an indestructible cockroach. Hahaha.

At the moment, she had no romantic rivals.

In fact, she considered herself luckier than any heroine in a story.

In novels, the heroine always faces numerous love rivals—scheming women who try every dirty trick to tear the couple apart.

Zhan Yuan finished preparing the bath and returned from the bathroom. Noticing she hadn't taken her clothes, he picked them up and brought them in, hanging them up for her.

Ouyang Ya stepped into the bathroom and said, "You're so thoughtful. It makes me feel like my hands are useless—I don't do anything."

Zhan Yuan smiled affectionately. "Your hands are meant for signing important things. You need to take care of them. I'll handle everything else. Just relax."

"And I should thank you for giving me the chance to take care of you. Plenty of men out there would kill for this opportunity, but they don't have it."

Zhan Yuan knew many men had once longed for Ouyang Ya.

But she was too difficult to win over. Eventually, they all gave up, unable to conquer her.

Married at First Sight Chapter 4373

"Okay, okay, your mouth tonight is as sweet as honey, and your words always sweeten my heart."

Ouyang Ya smiled and pushed him out of the bathroom. "You should go back to your room, take a shower and go to bed. We still have to go to the hospital to see your sister-in-law and nephew tomorrow."

"Good night."

"Good night."

Zhan Yuan still couldn't bear to leave.

Finally, Ouyang Ya gave him a goodnight kiss, and he reluctantly returned to his room.

Ouyang Ya took a comfortable bath and sat on the bed. She looked at the time and saw that it was just past eleven o'clock, which was still very early for her.

She seldom goes to bed before twelve o'clock.

He took the phone and sent a message to Ouyang Ting, asking about the company.

Ouyang Ting did not reply to the message, but called her instead.

"Big sister, haven't you slept yet?"

Ouyang Ting is on her way home.

“It’s only eleven o’clock. I won’t go to bed so soon. I feel like I can’t sleep if I lie down so early. I am a miserable person and need to stay up late.”

Ouyang Ting smiled and said, “Sister, if you say something like that, be careful to get beaten. You are obviously very happy, but you still complain about being a miserable person. How can you embarrass those who are truly miserable?”

“Sister, how are the Zhan family members treating you? Are they all very friendly?”

Ouyang Ting asked with concern.

The eldest sister was not in the company, so she was the most tired one. A lot of work that should have been done by the eldest sister was temporarily taken over by her. She didn’t even have time to call her elder sister in the whole afternoon to ask about her meeting with the parents.

“Very good. They treated me very well and were very nice. They treated me as a distinguished guest and a family member. They were not shy at all. I was very happy to be with them.”

“Ruotong is right. The atmosphere of the Zhan family is really good and warm. I liked the atmosphere of the Zhan family the first time I came here.”

Ouyang Ting smiled and congratulated her sister, “Sister has met the parents and will probably get married soon. I congratulate you in advance.”

“It’s too early. Zhan Yuan and I haven’t even gotten our marriage certificate yet, and even our elders haven’t met each other yet.”

“Soon, after you meet her parents, Zhan Yuan will urge his family to come over and propose marriage. By the end of tonight, we will definitely be able to drink at the eldest sister’s wedding.”

“Have fun in Wancheng, sister. There’s nothing wrong at the company. We can handle it. Don’t worry, sister.”

After chatting for a while, Ouyang Ting finally answered her sister’s question.

“The only thing that makes me unhappy is that Long Tuo still shamelessly comes to pester me. Seeing him makes me lose my appetite. How can there be such a narcissistic and shameless person?”

Ouyang Ting complained about Longtuo to her sister on the phone.

After her sister finished complaining, Ouyang Ya said, “Don’t pay attention to him. He has evil intentions and great ambitions. Both father and son are of the same kind. There is no good person in their family.”

“I’m just too lazy to pay attention to him. It seems that I have to find a formal boyfriend. If nothing else, at least he can help me fend off other suitors. It’s really annoying to be entangled by a disgusting man.”

Ouyang Ya smiled and said, “Just now I was talking to Zhan Yuan about your major life event. Zhan Yuan said that he would ask his grandmother to keep an eye out for you and introduce you to good men. He and I will also keep an eye out for you.”

“Sister, among your future uncles, are there any suitable ones for me? I’m also very good, why doesn’t Grandma Zhan like me?”

Married at First Sight Chapter 4374

Ouyang Ting said jokingly, “It’s great that we are sisters in my parents’ home and sisters-in-law in my husband’s home.”

“It’s not that I haven’t thought about it, but Zhan Yuan’s brothers all have significant others, and he has three younger brothers who are still young. Grandma Zhan isn’t in a hurry to find wives for them.”

Ouyang Ting laughed, “Sister, I’m just joking, don’t take it seriously.”

“Yes, last time I went to Fengchen Villa, I met several unmarried young masters of the Jun family. The seventh young master of their family is a good match for you. When we chat one day, I will ask Grandma Zhan to help you introduce him to someone else.”

“Sister, are you serious? I’m just kidding. I don’t want to get married, at least not now. Wait until I’m thirty, and see if I’ll change my mind.”

Ouyang Ting screamed. She didn’t expect that her sister was serious and really wanted to introduce her to a boyfriend.

In fact, she wanted to stay single and be an old aunt for the rest of her life. Anyway, her parents and brother would not chase her away.

She has plenty of assets, so she can live a happy life without getting married.

“Of course I’m serious. I won’t joke with you. You’re only a little younger than me. I’ve found a good home, and I hope you can be happy too.”

“The family tradition of the Jun family is as good as that of the Zhan family. The men in their family are also excellent and good-looking. They are a perfect match for you. The seventh and eighth young masters of the Jun family are about the same age as you.”

“If you are willing, I will arrange for you to meet with Jun Qi Shao and Jun Ba Shao. It’s up to you to see which one of them you like.”

Ouyang Ting: “...Sister, I’m not in the mood for love right now, please forgive me. Besides, the young master of the Jun family will have no trouble finding a wife, how can I be so picky among them.”

“You really don’t care about emotional matters?”

“It’s absolutely true, sister. We have been sisters for more than 20 years. Don’t you know what kind of person I am? I will never lie to you.”

Ouyang Ting said seriously: “Sister, please don’t match people up randomly.”

“If the young master of the Jun family and I are destined to be together, I don’t even need you to help me matchmake. We can still get to know each other across thousands of miles.”

“If there is no destiny, even if someone introduces you, there will be no follow-up. When it comes to relationships, just let nature take its course.”

“Sister, if there’s nothing else, I’ll hang up first. I’ll be home soon.”

“I am so exhausted today. I just want to fall asleep right away.”

Ouyang Ting hung up the phone immediately after she finished speaking, fearing that if she was too slow to hang up, her elder sister would really introduce her to the young master of the Jun family.

She loves to joke and tease her sisters. In fact, she really doesn’t want to get married. After getting married, it will not be as comfortable as being a daughter in her parents’ home.

If she marries into a family like her Ouyang family, where there are more women than men, and they are still trying hard to have a son even in their thirties or forties, she will simply become a tool for having children.

As a strong woman, Miss Ouyang said she could not accept it.

Women of our parents’ generation gave birth to one child after another in order to have a son, and only stopped when they reached an advanced age where their lives were in danger.

My father's generation had several brothers, but in the end they only had two boys and a lot of girls.

Although her parents did not favor sons over daughters, Ouyang Ting knew that her parents had expressed regret more than once that she was not a son. If she and her elder sister were both sons, the Ouyang family would not have had to go through the experience of being nearly bankrupted by a scheme.

After having two younger brothers, their parents wanted them to take over. Since they were still young, they let the older sisters protect the Ouyang family's business for their younger brothers.

Ouyang Ting also loved her two younger brothers very much, but she did not like the custom that the family property must be given to her sons.

Who says daughters are inferior to sons?

Married at First Sight Chapter 4375

Now she, her eldest sister, and her third and fourth sisters are supporting the Ouyang family's company together. They also don't forget to develop their own private businesses, because they are afraid that they will be marginalized when their younger brother takes over in the future.

No matter how good the relationship between a sister and brother is, that is before interests are involved. Once interests are involved, who knows if the brother will be on guard against her and plot against her?

Ouyang Ting felt that it was better to live alone and be free.

After the eldest sister got married and had children, the elders could enjoy having grandchildren and would not urge her to get married.

However, her parents were not in a hurry for her to get married. They said that it was her turn to decide her marriage and that she could fall in love freely. But she knew in her heart that it was because her two younger brothers were still young and unable to take over the family business.

They need her and her sisters to continue to manage the family business, and want to keep her for a few more years.

If she is in a relationship, and if the person is from the same city, it would be better.

From other places, haha, she dared to say it, her parents were the first to jump out and object.

I won't really let her marry freely.

The car returned to the Ouyang family mansion.

The door of the mansion opened, the car drove into the villa, and finally stopped at the door of the second room.

In the mansion late at night, even though the street lights in the yard were on, it was quiet.

The servants have all gone off work.

Their working hours are from 6 am to 10 pm.

After get off work, if the employer needs them, it will be considered overtime.

Generally speaking, when Ouyang Ting and her friends come back late at night, they don't need help. They can get whatever they need themselves without having to be served by anyone.

Even if they need to have some midnight snack, they can make some simple snacks for themselves.

Only Ouyang Ya would alarm the chef, but Ouyang Ya seldom eats midnight snacks.

Ouyang Ting got out of the car and entered the house. After she entered the house, the driver drove the car into the garage and parked it. His work for the day was completed and he could go back to the dormitory to rest after get off work.

The hall was also quiet, but the lights were still on. It was not Ouyang Ting who turned them on, but her mother was still sitting in the hall.

Seeing that her mother had not gone to bed yet, Ouyang Ting guessed that her mother was deliberately waiting for her to come back.

She walked over, sat down next to her mother, put her arm around her shoulders, and asked affectionately, "My dear mother, you are still awake so late, are you waiting for your daughter to come back?"

The second wife patted her hand lovingly and said, "I was waiting for you. Why are you back so late? It's almost twelve o'clock."

Ouyang Ting leaned back on the sofa and was about to cross her legs, but her mother glared at her and she put them down.

“Tingting, you are a rich lady, a lady from a noble family. Even at home, you have to pay attention to your sitting posture and maintain your image.”

The second wife was talking about her daughter.

She knew that her daughter’s true nature was very unrestrained, but she was restrained by rules and the status of a lady from a noble family.

Born in the Ouyang family, a wealthy family in the city, the daughter must abide by such rules.

This is my daughter’s life.

“If I can’t relax at home, then what am I going home for? Isn’t it said that home is a safe haven in life?”
