

Dear Ex-Wife Back My Son (Anika and Joshua)

Dear 141-160

Chapter 141

Chapter 141

Luxe Club, rooftop.

In the dim light, people were dressed in bright and glamorous attire. Many upper-class gentlemen were present here.

Joshua sat in a quiet place. He opened his phone and saw a message from the bodyguard assigned to track Anika, "Anika got lost."

Joshua had just left when Anika went out. Now Anika is still missing.

His brows furrowed, he sent a message saying, "If Anika is not found within an hour, you don't have to stay in Oasisville."

As soon as he sent the message, all the surveillance along the entire route was mobilized.

Joshua tried calling Anika again.

However, what came through was a cold customer service voice saying, "The phone you have dialed is currently not being answered..."

At this moment, Anika is still calling Clare to tell her,

"Don't worry about William and Evan. I will take care of them over here."

On the video call, Clare had white hair all over her head, and her eyes were filled with worry. "Anika, whatever it is, make sure to call me and Trent and let us know. Don't bear it alone."

What Clare was most worried about was Anika's depression, afraid that she would do something foolish again.

1/3

'Okay, don't worry.'

Anika had intended to say something to Clare.

However, when Anika saw Luciano rushing over, she had to hang up the phone first.

"What happened?"

"Joshua's people are looking for you," replied Luciano

Anika immediately took out her phone upon hearing and called the driver to pick her up at an intersection.

Then she pretended to go shopping for clothes and got on the car.

Not long after, Joshua's bodyguard spotted her and immediately took a photo to send to Joshua.

Joshua looked at the photo and dialed the phone number.

Anika heard the phone vibrate and only then saw that he was calling. She answered, "Hello."

'Where are you now?' Joshua asked directly.

Chapter 141

Anika glanced around and said, "I am at the shopping plaza and I am about to head back. What's wrong?"

"Commercial square?"

Come to the top floor of Luxe Club."

Joshua didn't give her a chance to refuse and hung up the phone directly.

The commercial square was very close to Luxe Club just a few hundred meters away.

Anika had the driver change the route.

Inside Luxe Club, Joshua's friends were ecstatic, each holding a beautiful woman

"Joshua, I'm telling you, there have been a few very beautiful women here recently, and they were all top students."One person hinted to the manager in order to win Joshua's favor,

The manager understood immediately. Soon, a stunningly beautiful girl with a pure and alluring appearance was brought up.

The beauty clearly had just arrived here and was still a bit shy.

Someone whispered to Joshua,"She was still a fledgling."

In the dim light, the woman's gaze fell upon Joshua.

She was instantly captivated by his appearance.

She shyly walked up and said, "Mr. Conan, I offer you a toast."

Joshua just watched her without drinking.

Compared to her, he found Anika to be more attractive.

Because Anika didn't have that petty attitude.

His indifferent behavior puzzled people.

One of them joked," Joshua,is it because the little deaf girl is back that you're not interested in other women anymore?"

Valentin did not come today. However, Joshua's friends all agreed with Valentin's nickname for Anika.

The talented and beautiful student from Luxe Club became curious when she heard her friend Joshua's words.

"What little deaf person?"

Joshua's face looked pale. His friend standing beside him didn't notice and explained, "That's Mr.Conan's ex-wife."

The talented student couldn't help but be surprised, Is it true that Joshua,such an outstanding man, had a deaf ex-wife?"

2/3

She couldn't help but sympathize with Joshua and gained confidence in herself.

Chapter 141

"Mr. Conan, my name is Jennifer Hale. If you didn't want to drink this glass of wine, I would drink it for you." After finishing speaking, she picked up the wine glass and drank it all.

This man was hers today.

Chapter 142

Jennifer Hale thought so. Amidst the crowd's laughter she sat next to Joshua.

In the dim light, she couldn't see Joshua's expression clearly. Without the initial awkwardness and shyness, she was ready to peel fruits for him. Joshua looked at her actions and asked bluntly, "If I didn't give you money, would you still sit here?"

Jennifer Hale was taken aback.

She quickly realized.

"It is my honor to sit by your side. I don't want money.

"What a freebie."

Upon hearing these words, Joshua naturally thought of Anika.

After being married for many years, he only found out after the divorce that Anika had never spent a penny from the Conan family.

"Alright. From now on, you work here. Without any salary," Joshua said calmly and without hesitation.

Although Luxe Club is not his industry, as long as he says a word, the boss will immediately implement it.

Jennifer Hale's eyes were filled with astonishment.

"Mr. Conan, are you kidding with me?"

She thought, "If it weren't for needing money, how could I possibly come to work here?"

"With my educational background, it is not difficult to find a job that pays ten thousand per month."

"But earning ten thousand in a month, where can you make as much in just one day?"

"Moreover, I was young and beautiful, who knows, I might have married a wealthy and influential person?"

"What do you think?" Joshua asked in response.

All of his friends were surprised and asked, "Joshua, what happened to you?"

Joshua did not answer, he just looked at Jennifer Hale.

"Any objections?"

Jennifer Hale shook her head, "No," she said, unable to meet Joshua's gaze due to his overwhelming presence.

She thought Joshua just wanted to test her, so she didn't pay attention.

Joshua's friends knew that he always kept his word.

Jennifer Hale's efforts were in vain.

1/3

Chapter 142

They all knew the reason but they didn't say it explicitly Jennifer Hale didn't know that she would not receive any payment in the Luxe Club in the future. No one would dare to give her money.

She became even more presumptuous and brought up Anika. "Mr. Conan, wasn't your ex-wife very bad?"

The others suddenly festiller

Joshua looked at her with a faint gaze and asked "How did you know?"

"I felt that way! thought you were very happyfer Hale said with a smil at her eyes, which were beautiful and captivating

Joshua leaned back against the chairus eyebrows raised lightly "You're right. She wasn't good."

Anika had arrived at the door and happened to cherten a conversation between Joshua and a woman.

Chapter 143

In the astonished gaze of the crowd, Joshua walked towards the door. When he passed by Philip,he stopped in his tracks.

He asked Philip, "What did Anika just say to you?"

Philip told him Anika's words truthfully.

Joshua did not ask any more questions and quickly left.

Not long after he left, one of his friends informed Violet about Jennifer's matter.

Violet was busy handling online public opinion and reducing the trending topics when she suddenly heard that a woman wanted to pursue Joshua. Her gaze turned cold.

Thank you for telling me."

Then Violet made a phone call directly. "There is a woman named Jennifer Hale at Luxe Club, I want to teach her a lesson."

How dare this shameless woman think of pursuing Joshua?

Today's Violet is no longer the poor girl who was bullied in the past. She has become a big star and, of course, has some influence.

Rafter Villa.

When Joshua came back, he saw that the lights in the living room were all turned off.

After he turned on the light, he saw a shopping bag on the table, which was brought back by Anika, confirming that she had already returned.

Joshua stepped forward and glanced at the three bags on the coffee table, discovering that they contained some clothes.

Joshua couldn't help but take another glance and noticed that they were all men's clothing.

His mood became gloomy.

Joshua went upstairs and saw that the door to Anika's bedroom was not closed, and the light was leaking out from under the door.

He gently pushed open the door and saw Anika sitting on the balcony's long chair, wearing a thin Hightcolored long dress, staring at the moon outside the window with hollow eyes. Joshua didn't understand what Anika was thinking at the moment.

The starry night resembled an oil painting, and Anika was like the girl in the painting.

Anika turned her head to look at him her eyes apeated slightly red.

Joshua thought she would question him with grieevines just like before but he found her unusually calm

Anika said, "I went to Luxe Club just now but I came back because neither you nor your friends wanted me to go in

Anika stood up and walked barefoot to Joshua's front

She said, I am a bit tired and would like to rest. If you don't have any questions for me can you please leave first?"

Joshua didn't leave. He looked at her calm face seriously and asked, Did you really). go shopping today?"

If she had just gone to the commercial street, the bodyguards would not have lost track of her.

Anika knew that he wouldn't believe her.

"To thank you for signing the agreement today, I bought you some clothes."

Joshua didn't expect that she went to buy clothes for him.

Joshua felt confused. His rationality told him that Anika was deceiving him.

But as he looked into Anika's eyes, he forced himself to suppress his doubts.

After a brief silence, Joshua spoke again, "Don't believe what you hear at Luxe Club."

This was the first time Joshua comforted Anika.

However, Anika did not feel happy. She slightly tightened her hand and then forced a bitter smile.

"Okay, I know, I had already gotten used to it."

She had already gotten used to it.

Joshua felt sad, he wanted to explain, but he couldn't say anything.

Anika pretended nonchalantly, "Don't worry, I will repay you as soon as possible. Once all the issues are resolved, you will be able to be happy." Joshua walked away in confusion.

After returning to his room, he felt particularly uncomfortable.

The reason he felt uncomfortable was not because he felt guilty, but because of Anika's attitude.

She was so indifferent, completely different from before.

When she loved him, he could feel it. And when she didn't love him, he could also feel it.

Joshua couldn't fall asleep again tonight. He sat on the balcony, instinctively looking towards Anika's room.

He never thought that their relationship would become like this now.

Chapter 143

In Anika's room.

Anika couldn't fall asleep either.

Even though it was already summer, she still needed a blanket to keep warm.

Whenever she closed her eyes, she would recall those mockeries.

They called her Little Deaf Girl.

She touched her ear and some warm liquid came out.

Anika grabbed a tissue from the bedside and wiped away the blood. After that, she took some medicine.

Finally, she fell asleep while holding the dolls that William and Evan had left for her.

Joshua kept his promise that night and did not come to her room.

Chapter 144

Dear 144

Chapter 144

The next morning, after Anika woke up, she went to the kitchen and saw Joshua.

Joshua was wearing a light-colored shirt, and gray pants, and had an apron tied around his waist. He was cooking oatmeal Anika felt very surprised. She had never seen Joshua cook.

She had only heard Violet say that Joshua could cook, and he had even cooked for Violet himself.

Joshua heard Anika's footsteps and looked up at her.

"Are you awake? I cooked oatmeal for you," he said as he served two bowls of oatmeal on the dining table. Anika didn't notice that there was a pot of failed oatmeal in the sink.

Joshua's slender and beautiful fingers were also burned.

Joshua was born into a wealthy family. He neither knew how to cook nor clean. He didn't do any household chores, but this morning he learned how to cook oatmeal from a website.

Joshua looked at his injured finger and thought to himself, cooking isn't difficult either.

He also didn't know why he suddenly wanted to cook oatmeal for Anika. Maybe it was because he had said something he shouldn't have done last night, and he felt somewhat guilty.

Anika came to the dining hall and saw that there was seafood in the oatmeal bowl. She stood still, without picking up a spoon.

Joshua thought that oatmeal was not tasty. He pulled out a chair and sat down, taking a bite. The oatmeal he cooked was not extremely delicious, but it wasn't too bad either.

"If you don't like it, you don't have to eat it," he said, and started eating oatmeal, but his eyes were fixed on Anika.

Anika picked up a spoon and scooped a spoonful of oatmeal, muttering to herself, "This is the first time I've had seafood in my oatmeal."

1/2

Joshua did not understand what she was saying.

He said, "This oatmeal is good for your health."

Anika took a spoonful and then asked Joshua, "We have known each other for about 17 years, right?"

Joshua had already forgotten.

"Yes, nearly twenty years."

Anika slowly ate her oatmeal and whispered, "I was so silly."

Joshua couldn't hear clearly, "What did you say?"

This was the first time cooking oatmeal heels ***

Anika finished eating the oatmeal in her foot

"Are you not I get you more, Joshua stood up to prepare oatmeal for Anika but didn't hear a response from her

He looked at her again and only then did he notice red spots on her neck and hands

What happened?" he felt puzzled and uneasy

"I was allergic to seafood."

Anika looked at him and said softly.

They had known each other for seventeen years and had been married for over three years, but he was unaware of this fact.

Joshua was shocked. He hurriedly carried her into the car and rushed to the hospital.

On the way to the hospital, he anxiously said, "Are you crazy? Why didn't you tell me?"

"I had told you before, maybe you have forgotten."

Anika did tell him indeed.

When she was still a high school student, she went to the Conan's residence for dinner once.

Joshua discovered that she hadn't eaten enough, so he secretly took her out to enjoy some delicious food.

At that time, Anika had already told him that she was allergic to seafood.

Anika remembered very clearly that Joshua said, "I have noted it down,I will never forget it in the future."

Joshua,however, couldn't remember when she had said that she couldn't eat seafood.

He only remembered that every time he came home, Anika would prepare dishes with seafood for him.

He naturally assumed that she also loved seafood.

Anika seemed to have known what Joshua was thinking and said, "I used to cook fish for you often, not because I liked it, but because you did." Joshua's heart became even more painful.

The road to the hospital seemed to have become very long.

"You didn't have to do this for me, Joshua said after a long silence.

Anika only realized everything she had done in the past and could only receive the evaluation of 'unnecessary".

She was really silly in the past.

"I know now, I will never do it again in the future."

Chapter 145

On the same afternoon, Raina hurriedly came over after hearing the news that Anika was hospitalized.

Joshua was not in the ward.

Raina looked at the red spots on Anika's body and felt very worried,

She said, "Why are you so silly?Why did you eat something you couldn't eat?"

Anika comforted Raina, "Don't worry, I have checked before, my allergies were not severe, I wouldn't die."

Raina retorted, "You're talking nonsense, I know seafood allergies can be fatal! If you ever do this again, I..." She paused, unsure of how to threaten Anika, and finally said, "I will also consume the allergen.*

Anika couldn't help but laugh.

"Silly girl, I really didn't deceive you. Although my symptoms were particularly evident, they were truly not life-threatening."

have William and Evan now, how could I not cherish my life?"

Raina felt very confused and asked, "Then why did you make yourself suffer?"

*Joshua stared at me all the time, he also disliked me, and I didn't know how to make him relax his guard against me."

Every time Joshua was about to compromise, he would stop himself.

"I could only think of one stupid way, which was to make him feel guilty."

"I used to be so foolish, keeping everything to myself.

So he thought I was living well by his side, thinking that I was dependent on him. Now, I want to make him realize how much I have suffered by his side."

That's also why she didn't get angry when she heard Joshua say those words to another woman yesterday.

'That is also why I wanted to return the money I cheated from Mireya and Eli."

Anika knew that she had never been a match for Joshua.

So she disguised herself to be the same as before.

The only difference was that she wanted Joshua to see clearly how good she was to him and how bad he was to her.

Raina understood.

"Anika, you were too tired like this."

"Please don't tell Evan what happened to me, or he will worry about me," Anika cautioned.

1/2

Chapter 145

Okay, don't worry."

Because it was getting late, Anika asked Raina to go back first.

When Raina walked out of the ward, she saw Joshua walking towards her.

Joshua stood tall, with a handsome appearance but a serious expression. He looked very dignified.

Raina had seen Joshua on TV before, but now that she saw Joshua in person, she understood why Evan was so handsome.

Of course, it was because Evan had a handsome father.

Joshua looked so handsome, but unfortunately his heart was ugly.

"Mr. Conan, you probably don't know me. I am a friend of Anika's, and I have a favor to ask of you," Raina looked directly at Joshua, "Please treat Anika better, she doesn't owe you anything!" Joshua indeed did not know Raina before.

But when he had someone investigate Anika before, he also incidentally investigated Raina, so he remembered what Raina looked like. "You'd better focus on your professional knowledge instead of worrying about our affairs," Joshua said, and stop getting arrested." Raina was taken aback.

Was Joshua talking about the last time she was arrested?

This man is really annoying!

She was very angry!

Joshua stopped talking and turned around to enter the ward.

Raina is now certain that Evan is indeed Joshua's son, because sometimes Evan speaks in the same annoying manner.

She only hopes now that Evan doesn't become a cunning and bad man like Joshua.

When Raina got on the car, a child appeared next to her.

'Raina, how is my mom doing?' Evan looked very worried.

Raina was startled, "You should be in kindergarten at this time."

Evan felt helpless as he had been hiding in the car for so long, yet Raina hadn't noticed.

Evan said, "In the morning, I heard you calling Mom, and I got a little worried, so I got in the car with you."

Raina said, "You naughty boy, you must not do this in the future, it's very dangerous."

Raina made Evan sit on the child's chair and then drove him to kindergarten.

Raina said, "Don't worry, your mommy is fine, she just had an allergy."

Evan asked, "Why was she allergic?"

Evan remembered that Anika couldn't eat seafood.

Did someone put seafood in her food?

Raina had promised Anika to keep the child a secret, but now Evan has started to suspect.

So she could only tell him the truth.

After listening, Evan showed a worried expression.

"Raina, when could I go and meet my mommy?"

He really wanted to hug Anika now. He wanted to tell her that he was by her side.

"You can't go now, wait a few days."

"Okay."

Evan felt a little disappointed.

In the hospital.

Joshua looked at Anika's body covered in red spots and furrowed his brow, "Why haven't these spots disappeared yet?"

"At least half a day," Anika answered.

Just now, the doctor told Joshua that allergies seemed to be just red spots on the skin, but only the patient could experience that kind of unbearable itching, even worse than pain.

Joshua never imagined that his first time cooking would make Anika sick.

"What food are you still allergic to?" he asked.

Anika paused for a moment and then shook her head.

Joshua wanted to ask something else, but suddenly his phone rang.

Anika saw his phone screen, which displayed "Violet"

Chapter 145

Anika didn't know what Violet and Joshua had talked about. When Joshua came back, he said, "I have something to do today Payton will handle your discharge procedures and take you back to Rafter Villa later."

"Don't bother..."

Anika hadn't finished speaking when Joshua interrupted her, saying, "You need a new driver, and Payton will arrange it for you."

Her driver was Trent's person.

After Joshua learned about Anika's disappearance yesterday, he had the idea of getting a new driver.

Anika hesitated for a moment, she endured and endured, without retorting.

Joshua has always been so stubborn, never considering others' wishes.

Not long after Joshua left, Payton came to discharge Anika and arranged a new driver for her.

'Ms. Carey, if you needed anything else, you could let me know,' Payton said, Anika replied "okay" and then got off the car and returned to the villa.

Today, the villa was particularly quiet.

She couldn't sleep, so she went to write a song.

But she hadn't been writing for long when she heard the sound of the door opening downstairs,

She thought Joshua had come back, so she ignored him.

Until Anika heard a knock on the door from outside the room, she looked over and only then did she realize it was Rachel wearing an expensive dress.

This was the first time Rachel had seen Anika face to face since she left a few years ago.

Rachel didn't expect Anika to be alive and actually return to Rafter Villa, just as Violet had said.

"Let's have a chat."

Rachel walked into Anika's room and found a chair to sit on.

Anika sat across from Rachel.

Anika asked, "What did you want to talk about?"

'What was your purpose for coming back?' Rachel asked directly.

Anika heard the question and laughed, 'Do I have to have a purpose to go back to my own home?'

Rachel was stunned, clearly she hadn't expected the previously timid Anika to dare to argue with her today.

Rachel believed that no matter how much Anika changed, she would never alter her cowardly nature.

Rachel widened her eyes and said, "You pretended to be dead and left back then, and now you're back. How can I believe that you have no purpose?"

"Your son asked me to return the money before I left

And you gave me money and asked me to leave. I don't know what to do."

"What do you mean?"

"You should go ask Joshua."

Rachel thought about it and did not continue to ask.

Instead, he wanted to move Anika.

"Anika, you and Joshua have been married for more than three years, but you haven't given birth to a child for him. Do you know what the outside world thinks of him? I hope you can think about him and not be too selfish."

Selfish.

Anika mocked himself in his heart. Who was selfish?

There were no children before, so she should go ask her son.

"I told you, you should ask Joshua about these things.

It's not that I don't want to leave."

Rachel did not expect Anika to have this kind of attitude. She walked up to Anika and asked, "Is this attitude you have when speaking to your elders?"

After she finished speaking, she raised her hand and was about to hit Anika.

But just as Rachel's hand was about to fall, Anika grabbed her wrist.

"Mrs." Edwards, please conduct yourself with dignity. "Anika shook her off.

Rachel couldn't help but take a few steps back. She couldn't believe for a long time that this was the daughter-in-law that had been obedient in the past.

After arriving outside, she picked up her phone and dialed her personal secretary.

'Find a way to find out what Joshua has been doing all this while?"

Although Rachel was Joshua's mother, she did not understand what he was thinking.

Joshua said she didn't love Anika, but she stayed with

Rafter Villa.

What was wrong with him?

enter

If this continued the Conan family and the others would definitely take advantage of this opportunity to

After hanging up the phone, Rachel was worried and called Payton and the secretaries of Joshua's company. He wanted to get information about Joshua from them, but unfortunately, he did not know any useful information.

In the villa.

Anika listened to the sound of the car leaving from the outside and felt uneasy.

Joshua no longer cared about children, but the Conan family's people valued their descendants very much.

Because of Rachel and Mireya, she had taken all kinds of medicine.

Anika knew very well how much Rachel wanted a grandson. She only hoped that Joshua would not tell Rachel about William.

Outside Rafter Villa.

There was a small figure wearing a mask and a hat, looking over from afar.

Evan told the driver that he was playing with his friend today, and his friend's Si chance to send him back at night.

Then, he took a taxi and went outside Rafter Villa.

He wanted to see his mother, see how her allergic reaction was, and see if his father was not there.

The sky gradually darkened and he could not see Anika, so he could only go back.

There were no taxis here, so he had to walk one or two kilometers.

At this time, Rachel's car slowly drove past him. She was looking out of the window absent-mindedly and saw the short Evan.

kind.

How could there be a child here?

Her face was full of doubts as she asked the driver to stop the car.

Rachel opened the car door and walked out. When he saw that it was Evan, his cold face instantly became 'Evan, why are you here?'

There were no other residences near Rafter Villa Evan did not expect to meet Rachel. It was obviously too late for him to dodge.

"Hello, I came here to play with my friends. I accidentally lost them. Evan replied.

Looking at his beautiful and deep eyes, Rachel felt inexplicably familiar and her mood became better.

"So that's how it is."

Chapter 147

The hope in Rachel's heart disappeared.

Just now, before she saw Evan clearly, Rachel thought that he might be her grandson,

What a pity.

Dear 148

Dear 148

Chapter 148

Chapter 148

Rachel was not suspicious of a child. She came to Evan and squatted down. "Do you still remember where your house is? Do you want me to send you back?"

Such an amiable Rachel made Evan a little surprised

Although his mother had never mentioned his grandmother, he had investigated it long ago.

Rachel was the young lady of the Conrad, a stern woman.

After Rachel married Evan's grandfather, because his grandfather was not from the Gu family, Rachel took care of his son and grew up alone. He never smiled to outsiders.. While he was in a daze, Rachel said, "If you remember the phone calls of your parents, I can also call them for you."

Evan came back to his senses and bowed to her.

Thank you. Can you take me to the bus stop on the main road?I know how to take the bus back."

Rachel liked such a polite and smart child even more.

She sighed.If Joshua was willing to listen to her, her grandson would probably be this old.

'Okay,get in the car.I'll take you to the bus stop."

After all, Rachel was his grandmother. Evan was not worried that she was a bad person. He followed Rachel into the car and wanted to see what kind of person she was. After they got into the car.

Rachel could not help but chat with Evan.

Evan began to try to get her words out."Do you live here?That villa is so big.

Rachel smiled.

'This is my son's home.I can't live here."

Evan then asked, "Then you must have come to see your grandson,right?"

At the mention of his grandson, Rachel's face changed.

"Sigh,I don't have a grandson yet. If I have a grandson, I will let him live in a villa bigger than the palace."

Rachel was not joking.If she knew that the child in front of her was her biological grandson.

She would definitely give the child the best and most luxurious life.

When Anika first married the Conan family, Rachel had someone build a children's amusement park,children's race, children's ski park, and other places for children to study and play.

Joshua had grown up and had his own career.

it was too lonely for her to be alone at home. She really wanted a grandson to accompany her.

She also wanted her grandson to take over the Conan family's business in the future.

There was another reason, which was her former mother-in-law

Evan did not expect Rachel to say this. He thought that all of the Conan family's people were like Joshua and did not like him and his younger brother.

When they reached the main road Evan said, I'm here. Thank you."

Even got out of the car.

Rachel watched him arrive at the bus station before letting the driver drive home.

The driver also noticed the child. On the way back the driver couldn't help but sigh, The children nowadays are getting more and more intelligent. I think the eyes of the child just now are really like Mr. Conan's." Rachel felt the same way.

if it was any other child she would definitely not be as kind as she was today. But this child really made her fike him for no reason.

On the other side, Joshua returned not long after.

Today he was called over by Violet, who said that she met extreme fans.

That extreme fan not only claimed to be her boyfriend, but also broke into her home to forcibly take her away to do bad things.

After Joshua rushed over the man had already been driven away by the security guard.

He sent a bodyguard to Violet and asked her to call the police or the bodyguards if she had any problems in the future.

Thinking that Anika might not have eaten anything up until now, Joshua ordered a meal.

On the second floor, Anika's door was not closed.

The white curtains fluttered with the wind, and she was sitting in front of a table, burying herself in writing the music score.

Everything was so quiet.

Joshua walked in and immediately saw the red rashes on her body "Have you eaten?*

When Joshua's shadow fell on the paper Anika discovered that he had come over.
"You're back

*Okay, let's go downstairs to eat."

Anika continued to busy himself with work.

Even if you are not hungry.you still have to go eat."

Joshua said and went straight downstairs.

Anika had no choice but to follow him to the dining room, where exquisite dishes were arranged Joshua had asked the restaurant to prepare them and send them over. She took a look and found that none of the dishes on the dining table were seafood.

Joshua did not explain and continued to eat his own food.

After a meal.

Anika said, "Your mother came to find me today."

Joshua looked up at Anika.

"Why is she looking for you?"

Anika handed the blank check that the RAL had given him to Joshua.

'She gave me a check and asked me to leave you."

Joshua looked at the check. "Did you agree?"

As long as Anika filled in a number on the check, she would immediately be able to repay the money she owed Joshua.

Anika shook his head. "No, since I have already signed an agreement with you, of course I won't take Rachel's money."

If she left now, how could she give birth to a third child?

How could he save William?

Anika handed the check to him. "Give it back to you."

Joshua took the check, glanced at it, and threw it into the trash can. He looked at her face after her allergy, and his eyes were deep.

"Your choice is right. Even if you fill in the number on this check, I will not give it to you."

He wanted to destroy her hope of leaving in the cradle!

When Anika heard this, his hand that was placed in front of him tightened a little.

Joshua wiped his hands with a hot handkerchief and stood up to come to her.

Before she could react, Joshua touched her red neck.

There was no change to her neck at all.

'Did you apply the medicine?'

His quick, cold, and hot personality made Anika very uncomfortable.

She quietly dodged. "I applied the medicine."

Anika's subtle movements failed to escape Joshua's eyes. Just as Joshua was about to forcefully touch it, the doorbell rang.

At this time, who would come?

The strange atmosphere in the living room made Anika stand up immediately. "I'll open the door."

After avoiding Joshua, she quickly walked to the door and opened it.

When she saw that it was Anika who opened the door her expression changed slightly. Then, she said gently, I am looking for Joshua.*

It was no wonder that such a pitiful beauty was able to win the likes of Joshua and VIP Anika retracted his gaze. When he turned around, Joshua had already walked over.

When Violet saw him, her tears fell. "Joshua."

Joshua frowned, not understanding why she was here at this time.

Violet arrived in front of Joshua as if no one else was there. Tears rolled down her cheeks. Joshua, not long after you left, he came again.

As she spoke, she raised her arm, which was bruised all over.

"He wanted to take me away, but I refused. He dragged me to jump off the building. I was so scared."

Where are the bodyguards?" Joshua took out his phone and planned to take responsibility.

Violet quickly explained, "At that time, I was ready to sleep. I didn't expect him to come in through the window. The bodyguards stood at the door and didn't find him."

Joshua looked at the bruises on her arms and arms and felt a little bored.

"I'll arrange for someone to send you to the hospital.

Violet hurriedly shook his head. "Joshua, I'm not going. I don't dare to go anywhere. I beg you to let me stay here today." day."

"I'm really afraid that he will find me again."

Anika listened from the side and roughly understood that Violet seemed to have been followed by a man.

'I'll arrange a hotel for you. Joshua was about to make a phone call when Violet grabbed his hand.

*Joshua, you said that you will give me whatever I want. We are not married yet. I want to live here for a "I am really scared."

Her tears fell.

Joshua would never give up his bottom line for the sake of others.

But today he agreed.

"Alright."

Joshua pulled Violet away.

*Joshua, thank you, Violet said gratefully and turned to look at Anika proudly.

Violet regretted choosing to marry Joshua. She found that it was better not to marry him.

If she did not marry him, she could raise any conditions, and he would generally agree. Violet was glad that she was the one who pretended to save Rachel.

Anika saw her showing off and looked indifferent.

Rafter Villa was very big and there were many rooms.

Violet chose a room closest to the master bedroom.

His meaning was self-evident.

When Violet went to tidy up his room, Anika was ready to go back to the bedroom.

Joshua sat in the living room and called out to Anika.

"Come here."

Anika did not know what he was going to do. She walked over and asked, "What is it?"

Joshua paid attention to her expression.

He had always remembered that after their marriage, Anika had said that Rafter Villa would be their small family in the future. Other than relatives and friends, no other women were allowed to live there.

"Aren't you angry?" He promised Violet because he was afraid that she would die. At the same time, he also wanted to see Anika's attitude.

He did not believe that she did not care.

Anika's performance was beyond his expectation.

'Didn't we agree? We will divorce after I return the money. Why should I be angry?"

Joshua felt a lump in his throat. "I hope you can keep it up."

He got up. "I have an appointment today, so I won't come back tonight."

Violet really didn't expect that Joshua would leave when she tried so hard to stay.

She went to Anika's room and knocked on the door.

Anika originally wanted to continue writing the score, because this was the only way she would not let her imagination run wild.

Anika returned to his room, found a chair and sat down. He raised his eyes and sm contemptuously. isn't it you who is pretending to be pitiful?"

Anika knew what Violet was thinking.

Violet was now a big star. With a precedent, how could she let a man enter the room for the second time? Violet was not angry at all. The corners of his mouth raised. "Yes, I am also pretending to be pitiful.

However,

She leaned against Anika, as if afraid that she could not hear clearly, and deliberately increased the volume of her voice.

"Joshua will feel sorry for me if I pretend to be pitiful, but what about you? Did he care about you when you turned yourself into this ugly appearance?"

Anika did not answer.

Violet continued, "I really don't understand. Why do you have to snatch Joshua from me?"

"Although you are husband and wife, do you know what the most intimate experience with him is like?

Do you know that he likes to sleep over there? Do you know what he likes above or below?"

"I know all this.

Anika did not expect Violet to be so straightforward.

She was a little confused.

In this aspect, she definitely did not know as much as Violet.

Now, she also did not want to understand.

He didn't care about what Joshua liked. She just wanted to give birth quickly and then leave Joshua.

Seeing that Anika was speechless, Violet was very happy.

Anika didn't mind and slowly said, "You should have saved a lot of money these years, right?"

Violet was in disbelief. "Anika, you were not like this in the past."

Anika used to be so arrogant, how could he use money to measure Joshua?

Anika asked her, "Is the position of Mrs. Joshua not worth 2 billion dollars?"

Violet smiled.

"You've really changed. I still remember when we were in college together, you said that you would never snatch my boyfriend from me. I didn't expect that not only did you snatch my boyfriend, but you also asked me to snatch billion dollars back."

Violet was very good at making false accusations.

Anika's eyes were full of cold ridicule. "Everyone knows that I didn't rob Joshua, but Joshua didn't want an orphan like you.

Violet's beautiful face was completely distorted.

"Shut up! Are you sure you only want money?"

Anika nodded, then continued, "I hope you don't tell Joshua that I asked you for money. If you tell him, then the agreement between us will be void.

"I will keep pestering Joshua. You will never be his legal wife."

Anika said deliberately.

She just wanted Violet to tell Joshua.

If Violet told Joshua, Anika had his own plans.

If Violet really prepared 2 billion dollars, Anika would be happy to accept it.

However, Anika was still more sure that Violet would complain.

Because this was Violet's normal state. In the past, if Anika had not done anything, Violet would have let her bear it. This time, Violet definitely would not miss the good opportunity to complain.

"I will think about it carefully, Violet said and prepared to leave.

Before he left, the music score on Anika's table was blown by the wind. Violet inadvertently saw it and was a little surprised.

However, Violet did not care. After all, in her eyes, a weak and disabled person like Anika was born with no fate for music.

1/2

Violet would never have thought that Anika was a genius composer abroad.

After Violet left, Anika calmly put away the song and then lay down.

Chapter 151

On the other side, Violet was still thinking about how to tell Joshua Anika that he wanted money from her.

If Violet told Joshua directly, he might not believe it.

Moreover, Violet had done this kind of thing too many times.

After thinking for a while, Violet had an idea, and she decided to give a part of the money to Anika first.

Just let Joshua see it when she pays.

The next morning, Violet skillfully asked someone to send breakfast over, as if she was the hostess of this place...

Anika was in a bad mood and woke up late every day

Before she woke up, breakfast was already set up in the dining room.

Joshua had already returned and was sitting in the living room.

"Joshua, you can have breakfast now," Violet said.

Joshua glanced at Violet. "I've eaten. You can go back after breakfast."

"If it is not convenient for you to go back to your original residence, I will arrange a hotel for you."

Violet was rejected several times but she did not dare to continue pestering Joshua. She was afraid that Joshua would be angry. "Then help me arrange a hotel."

After leaving Rafter Villa, Violet sat in the nanny van and immediately asked someone to prepare the check.

After that, Violet sent an SMS to Anika. Tve prepared

Eight o'clock in the morning.

Anika had just woken up.

She looked at her phone and found a text message from Violet.

Violet agreed to pay so easily?

Anika felt that this matter was not so simple.

However she wanted to see what Violet was planning so she agreed.

Chapter 152

Violet was very happy to receive Anika's message and immediately sent a message to Joshua.

"Joshua,I don't know what kind of relationship you have with Anika, but she is a very complicated person."

"If you don't believe me, let's go to the street Coffee Shop at 10 o'clock tonight."

She wanted to expose Anika's disguise in front of Joshua.

Anika did not know about this. After she got up and washed up,she saw Joshua sitting on the sofa in the living room, looking at his phone.

Joshua heard the footsteps and deleted the message from Violet. Then he looked up at Anika.

'Let's go out for breakfast.'

Anika was a little confused. She clearly saw that there seemed to be breakfast in the restaurant.

Anika did not think too much about it and followed Joshua out to eat.

There was exquisite breakfast in the dining room outside.

Anika didn't stand on ceremony and chose some food that he liked to eat.

Joshua had been paying attention to her. "Don't you have anything to tell me?"

"What?"

Anika said doubtfully, but he had already thought of Violet in his heart.

"Nothing."

Joshua stopped asking.

Anika felt that Joshua was really idle recently. Did he not have to go to the company?

Anika soon finished his breakfast.

The driver sent Joshua and Andrew to the company.

In the company, Anika found that she and Joshua could not write a composition at all when they were in the same office.

Not long after, she could no longer sit still and walked over to Joshua's desk.

"I want to go out for a walk."

Joshua's hand paused as he flipped through the documents. He said seriously, "Yes."

Anika didn't expect it to be so easy. Before she left, she said, "I have something to do tonight, so I have to come back later." Chapter 152

Joshua looked up at her tranquil face and said.

"What is it?"

"It's my private matter.

Anika pretended to be mysterious and said.

Joshua did not expect her to say this. His eyes were cold."I want to remind you that no matter what happens, do not make me angry."

When Anika heard him say this, she was ninety percent sure that Violet had told him that she asked him car.

However, it was strange that Joshua was not someone who could tolerate betrayal.

If he knew, why didn't he directly question her?

After coming out of the company, Anika still did not understand.

She secretly sent a message to Luciano.

Before long, a taxi stopped in front of her, and the driver of the car was Luciano.

Luciano was a right-hand man by Trent's side and was very thoughtful in everything Anika got into the Luciano told her that there was a car following them)

Anika knew that those people were Joshua's subordinates.

"Should we get rid of them?"Luciano asked.

"No need."

If she dumped them again, Joshua would be even more suspicious.

Luciano looked at Anika in the rearview mirror."Then where are we going now?"

"Please take me around.I feel too bored recently."

"Alright."

The inside of the car quieted down.

Anika opened the window and looked at the familiar yet unfamiliar scenery outside. His mood slowly calmed down.

Meanwhile, Joshua's subordinates followed them all the way. Anika's taxi had no destination and had been wandering around the city. The bodyguards told Joshua all the news. Joshua asked them to continue watching. When the taxi was not far from the Carey family's villa, Anika said, Luciano, can you drive the car over?"

The Carey family's old house was built on half a mountain.

Chapter 153

Anika could only watch from a distance the pink weeping cherry blossoms outside the courtyard.

"I didn't expect them to still be here," she murmured.

Luciano followed her gaze and saw beautiful camellia flowers.

This villa looked quaint, but it exuded vitality everywhere, indicating that the original owner who built the villa had put a lot of effort into it.

"Where is this?" Luciano couldn't help but ask.

"That was my home in Oasisville when I was a child,"

Anika replied.

Unfortunately, she doesn't even have the qualification to go in now.

"Let's go," Anika averted her gaze.

The vehicle slowly drove away.

Anika did not see a man hiding in the bushes nearby

The man looked slightly disheveled and had been secretly lurking here.

After taking a stroll around the city, Anika asked Luciano to take her back to Rafter Villa.

Later, she played the piano in the music room while writing sheet music.

The bodyguard reported today's schedule of Anika to Joshua.

Evening.

Joshua deliberately stayed at the company for a while. Around nine o'clock, he had the driver drive to the coffee shop on 10th street.

Anika also got into the car and came from Rafter Villa.

Her phone vibrated, and when she opened it, it was a message from Luciano.

"Joshua's car indeed went to 10th street."

Before Anika returned to Rafter Villa, she asked Luciano to keep watch outside the Conan Group and see where Joshua would go tonight.

As expected, just as she had anticipated.

Violet hasn't changed, she still loves to tattle.

There were basically no people in the coffee shop at night.

Chapter 153

Violet booked a private room, which happened to have a view of the outside scenery.

Anika arrived here on time.

Anika was wearing a long dress and had covered the allergic red spots on her body with a small jacket.

Actually, even if she didn't have allergies, she would still need to prepare a jacket when staying outside for too long because she is sensitive to the cold, even in the summer.

Anika now is completely different from Violet when she first returned home a few years ago.

Anika's face and appearance were both dazzling, and her figure had returned to its pre-marriage state. Her face left a deep impression on anyone who saw it.

Violet was a little jealous of her.

Although Anika's mother, Mireya, treated her poorly, her appearance truly inherited from Mireya. Anika had a great figure, deserving to be the daughter of a famous dancer. "Anika, please have a seat," Violet said, suppressing her inner resentment, and quietly placed her phone on the table.

Violet had already called Joshua, and Joshua outside could hear the conversation inside.

Anika pulled out a chair and sat down.

Violet then took out a check for 100 million dollars and said, "Anika, you asked me to prepare 2 billion dollars and leave Joshua."

"I really couldn't prepare so much money, and even if I could, I don't think I all, Joshua is not a commodity, not something to be bought and sold." Would give it to you. After

"You can take this 16 million dollars first and consider it as my personal support to you."

On the phone, Joshua sat in the car, listening to Violet's words, his brows furrowed.

Did Anika go to Violet to ask for 2 billion dollars? To buy herself???

How dare she!

He continued to listen quietly.

As long as Anika had taken 16 million dollars, he immediately went back and brought her to Rafter Villa.

In this lifetime, she could never expect to have freedom!

However, Anika pushed away those 16 million dollars and questioned Violet.

"Wasn't it you who asked me how much money it would take for me to leave Joshua?"

"Why did you still estimate a price for me now?"

Violet was taken aback, she couldn't remember when she had said it.

Anika continued, "I had already told you before, I didn't need your money at all."

Chapter 153

'In the past, when the Carey family went bankrupt, you who had benefited from the Carey family, did not offer any help. Why are you suddenly pretending to be kind now?"

Violet looked at Anika in shock and said, "You were the one who said..."

"I'll say it again, Joshua and I were still married. Even if he didn't love me, I wouldn't leave him!" Anika's gaze fell on the phone that Violet had placed face down. She knew that Violet was probably already on the phone with Joshua.

Violet knew that she had fallen into Anika's trap today.

She was very angry and quietly hung up the phone.

In the black Cadillac, Joshua silently listened to the conversation between the two and said to the driver, "Let's go home."

In the coffee shop.

Anika stood up and approached Violet. Then she lowered her voice and whispered slowly into Violet's ear. 'Didn't you say that I had changed? How come you still think I would be deceived by you like before?'

"I told you,I used to not be unaware of your low tactics, I just didn't care!"

"Please be smarter next time!"

Violet's beautiful face turned dark and terrifying after she heard what Anika said.

Anika walked out of the cafe and, once outside, she realized that the car,which had been parked there, was no longer visible, based on the location Luciano had given her. Anika breathed a sigh of relief.

Anika suddenly felt that the present Joshua was really different from the boy she used to like in the past.

That boy didn't have such deep thoughts, he treated her well and didn't doubt her.

Violet came out from behind. Just as she took a few steps, suddenly a man grabbed her hand and led her to a secluded place.

"Violet,I missed you so much."

The man had a scruffy beard and dark circles under his eyes,clearly indicating that he hadn't had a good night's sleep in a long time.

Violet reached out to push him away,"Harry,how did you follow me here? How many times do I have to say it, I won't go back to Consta with you."

'If you really care about me,go back on your own and don't stay in Oasisville anymore."

Harry listened to these words, pain evident in his eyes. "Is it because of Joshua? He never truly cared for you.If he really loved you, how could he still not have married you by now?" Violet listened to these words,not caring at all.

"So what?At least he could give me what I wanted.

Harry was taken aback.

Violet then said, "What can you give me?"

"1"

"You,at present,couldn't give me anything.

Violet sneered.

"I didn't need your songs, you had lost your talent long ago, admit it."

Harry's eyes were bloodshot. "How could you be so heartless? If it weren't for me back then,could you have made it this far?And now I need you!"

Violet saw him angry and consoled him.

"Harry,can you please grow up a bit?We all hope to find someone who can help ourselves."

"What have you become now?When I left, you weren't as miserable as you are now."

"Five years have passed, and I am living so well now, while you have made no progress at all. Only I am willing to talk to you, if it were any other woman, she would have ignored you long ago." "Do you still think I was heartless?It's truly chilling!"Harry heard her words and became honest again.

Rafter Villa.

When Anika came back, Joshua had not rested yet.

He was wearing dark pajamas and sitting on the sofa, watching Anika.

'Did you have fun today?'

"It was alright, Anika replied.

Joshua stood up, his tall figure instantly blocking most of the light in front of her.

"According to Violet, are you going to sell me for 2 billion dollars?"

Anika paused. Joshua clearly knew what she had said, so why was he still asking her?

"I didn't have."

"Is it?" Joshua leaned towards her.

Anika took a step back and said, "First of all, you should know that Violet and I had a bad relationship.

How could I possibly ask her to sell you for 2 billion dollars? Also, your mother gave me a check before, and I didn't even cash it. Why would I go through all this trouble now?"

Joshua did not believe her words after listening to them.

He knew that Violet would not let him see today's scene. The only possibility was that Anika knew everything Violet had done. He also didn't expose Anika.

'Is there anything else?' Anika had been pushed against the wall.

Joshua looked at her cautious appearance, his Adam's Apple slightly bobbing.

Just the thought of experiencing the wonderful taste of Anika afterwards, Joshua was almost losing control.

"How did you prepare your money?"

Anika didn't expect him to start asking for money so soon. "I'm not ready yet."

"Then you might as well accept my proposal."

Joshua breathed heavily, "After all, we were married.

If you fulfilled your duties as a wife, then there is no need to return the dowry."

Wife's duties?

Chapter 155

As an adult, there was no way Anika could not know the meaning behind Joshua's words.

Her face was burning like fire. Before she could say anything, Joshua's scorching hand landed on her cheek, slowly caressing it.

"How about 16 million dollars once?"

Anika's mind boomed.

One time, 16 million dollars?

What did he take Anika for?

Anika remembered the first time when he did everything despite Anika's resistance.

Anika pushed him away, saying, "Not great."

After finishing speaking, she quickly went upstairs in anger and annoyance. Upon returning to her room, she locked the door.

Joshua's arms were empty, not understanding why

Anika was angry again.

He found that Anika was the angriest woman. She would get angry easily and even dared to ignore him.

Other women did not dare to do so.

Feeling upset, Joshua went straight to Luxe Club.

The boss quickly arranged for the most beautiful and intellectual woman here to come over for Joshua to choose.

Joshua sat at the front seat, looking at row after row of different women, but he was not interested.

"Mr. Conan."

A seductive woman approached Joshua's presence and tried to please him.

Joshua coldly watched her actions, but in his mind, all he could see was Anika's angry expression.

When the woman touched his hand, he felt extremely disgusted "Get lost!"

Before long, one by one, the women inside the private room left dejectedly.

Joshua sat here alone.

At that moment, a woman named Jennifer sneaked in while the wine was being delivered. When she saw Joshua, she immediately knelt down.

"Mr. Conan, please spare me."

Joshua found it strange when he saw this woman looking at him with a frightened expression, her face full of injuries.

7755

"Who were you?"

Jennifer was stunned.

"I, I am Jennifer, did you forget me?"

Jennifer?

Joshua had a good memory, but he would not remember people who were not related to his work or himself.

Jennifer discovered that Joshua had truly forgotten about her and could only tell him about what had happened that day.

"You asked me at that time if I didn't have money, whether I would be willing to serve you."

"I said yes. You said that in the future, I would work at Luxe Club without a salary."

Joshua heard her say this and had an impression.

"Are you regretting this now?"

Jennifer shook her head in a hurry, "No, I was begging you to spare me. I really didn't want to go and serve the customers."

Joshua found it strange. Who allowed her to receive guests?

Chapter 156

Chapter 156

I have never received such an order," Joshua said coldly.

Jennifer still refused to leave, and when the bodyguard came over, she held onto the table and chairs beside her tightly. 'Mr. Conan, the person who hit me told me that it was because I offended you.'

'Please let me go, I don't want to be trapped here.'

Jennifer was crying miserably at the moment. Her face was covered in bruises, which would surely leave scars once they healed.

Joshua originally didn't want to get involved in this matter, but according to Jennifer, someone was using his name to teach her a lesson.

He couldn't just ignore this anymore.

Joshua had the bodyguard keep Jennifer.

"Tell me about this matter carefully."

Jennifer was put down by the bodyguard.

She knelt on the ground, trembling

"It was the day after I had seen you. After work, when I went back home, around two or three in the morning, I was suddenly dragged out of bed by someone."

"They hit and scolded me, saying that someone like me dared to provoke you."

"Since that early morning, the company's staff assigned me to...pick up...clients."

Tears rolled down Jennifer's face as she said, "I didn't agree, but they hit me..."

Joshua was certain that his subordinates would never take matters into their own hands without his instructions.

He had the bodyguard escort Jennifer out of Luxe Club, and then ordered someone to find out who was behind this.

Because this incident happened at Luxe Club, it was easy to investigate.

Over an hour later, the bodyguard reported.

"Mr. Conan, we found out that the person who attacked Jennifer was arranged by Ms. Jonson."

It was Violet again.

Joshua used to not pay attention to what Violet did, but now this thing is too much.

Chapter 156

"You went to tell Violet, if there is another time, don't blame me for being impolite."

The bodyguard hesitated for a moment, then nodded, "Yes."

He had never seen Joshua so angry because of Violet before.

What he cared about was not Violet hitting other women, but her pretending to be someone else!

In the early morning.

Violet learned that Joshua found out about her reprimanding Jennifer.

She thought it was not a big deal.

Upon receiving the message from the bodyguard, Violet finally realized that she had crossed Joshua's limit this time.

She was thinking about how to explain to Joshua, but unfortunately, the company received a lawyer's letter from Ms. Aniya, and the court had already accepted her plagiarism case.

Now she didn't know how to ask Joshua anymore.

"I wish Valentin would still be willing to help me at this time."

Violet couldn't help but sigh.

Compared to Joshua, Valentin was better at understanding her. Whatever she wanted, Valentin would give it to her.

her.

It's a pity that Valentin seems to have changed as a person now. No matter what, he is unwilling to help

"Violet,I don't think this can go on like this. Raina is Ms. Aniya's lawyer. You should apologize to her and ask for her forgiveness, "Violet's agent couldn't help but advise her.

After all,the news about Violet's involvement in plagiarism has spread so widely online that everyone knows about it.

There was no benefit for Violet in going to court.

"That's all we could do."

Violet felt reluctant and helpless when she thought about apologizing to Anika's friend.

"You helped me arrange a meeting with her."

Anika was awakened by the sound of Raina's phone call.

Last night,she didn't sleep well and got angry when she thought about Joshua's mention of sixteen million dollars.

"What happened?"

"Anika,I have some good news to tell you. Violet wants to meet me. She said she wants to apologize to me about the plagiarism incident, "Raina smiled.

"She even asked me to go see her. I told her that if she wants to apologize, she has to come to my house."

Why didn't the person who apologized do it in person?

"You did the right thing. She made you stay at the police station for a day,you definitely can't let her off

"Sure.Anika,come over here too."

Raina also wanted Anika to see Violet's humble appearanc

I have never received such an order," Joshua said coldly.

Jennifer still refused to leave, and when the bodyguard came over, she held onto the table and chairs beside her tightly.

'Mr.Conan, the person who hit me told me that it was because I offended you.'

'Please let me go,I don't want to be trapped here.'

Jennifer was crying miserably at the moment. Her face was covered in bruises, which would surely leave scars once they healed.

Joshua originally didn't want to get involved in this matter, but according to Jennifer, someone was using his name to teach her a lesson.

He couldn't just ignore this anymore.

Joshua had the bodyguard keep Jennifer.

"Tell me about this matter carefully."

Jennifer was put down by the bodyguard.

She knelt on the ground, trembling

"It was the day after I had seen you. After work, when I went back home, around two or three in the morning, I was suddenly dragged out of bed by someone.

"They hit and scolded me, saying that someone like me dared to provoke you.

"Since that early morning, the company's staff assigned me to...pick up...clients."

Tears rolled down Jennifer's face as she said, "I didn't agree, but they hit me..."

Joshua was certain that his subordinates would never take matters into their own hands without his instructions.

He had the bodyguard escort Jennifer out of Luxe Club, and then ordered someone to find out who was behind this.

1/3

Because this incident happened at Luxe Club, it was easy to investigate.

Over an hour later, the bodyguard reported.

"Mr. Conan, we found out that the person who attacked Jennifer was arranged by Ms. Jonson."

It was Violet again.

Joshua used to not pay attention to what Violet did, but now this thing is too much.

"You went to tell Violet, if there is another time, don't blame me for being impolite."

The bodyguard hesitated for a moment, then nodded, "Yes."

He had never seen Joshua so angry because of Violet before.

What he cared about was not Violet hitting other women, but her pretending to be someone else!

In the early morning.

Violet learned that Joshua found out about her reprimanding Jennifer.

She thought it was not a big deal.

Upon receiving the message from the bodyguard, Violet finally realized that she had crossed Joshua's limit this time.

She was thinking about how to explain to Joshua, but unfortunately, the company received a lawyer's letter from Ms. Aniya, and the court had already accepted her plagiarism case. Now she didn't know how to ask Joshua anymore.

"I wish Valentin would still be willing to help me at this time."

Violet couldn't help but sigh.

Compared to Joshua, Valentin was better at understanding her. Whatever she wanted, Valentin would give it to her.

Anika walked out of the bedroom wearing slippers.

She went outside and found that Joshua had not returned yet.

"When did you meet up with Violet?"

"We agreed to meet at 10 o'clock in the morning," said Raina.

"Okay. I'll come over now."

After hanging up the phone, Anika thought for a moment and then sent a text message to Joshua, telling him that she had gone to her best friend's house.

After leaving Raina's house today, Anika planned to go see Evan in the evening.

Anika hadn't seen Evan for a few days and missed him. She didn't know how he was doing lately.

Luxe Club was very quiet inside.

Valentin didn't sleep well this morning and was called here to drink by Joshua.

"Joshua, why did you drink alcohol so early in the morning?"

Valentin didn't even have time to take off his white coat. "Do you know how busy I've been lately?"

Joshua looked at Valentin and asked:

"Why are you so busy? You don't have a wife like Philip."

Valentin immediately replied, "But you have a wife, why are you still here?"

Joshua was suddenly speechless.

Valentin noticed that his face didn't look good and quickly changed the subject.

"I am now ready to study medicine seriously. I performed several surgeries these days."

Of course, during this period, Valentin was also investigating Raina privately.

Valentin wanted to know when Raina had dated him and had a child with him.

He had no impression at all.

Joshua didn't expect Valentin's change to happen so quickly.

"Why?"

"What did you mean?"

"You said before that you didn't want to be a doctor."

Valentin picked up his glass to hide his expression when he heard the words. "When I was young, I was

Joshua thought that Anika's text message to her was an apology to him but he didn't expect that she was just telling him that she was going to her best friend's house again Valentin leaned in "Anika asked where you went?"

Joshua said lightly. She said she was going to her best friend's house to hang out."

"Oh, "Valentin thought for a moment, her best friend's name was Raina, right?"

"Yes"

"I told you, these days, my grandfather has been urging me to go see her."

Joshua raised an eyebrow "You didn't like her?"

"Yes," replied Valentin.

After Joshua listened he advised him, "You don't necessarily have to marry someone you love compatibility is the most important."

*Joshua is Anika the right person for you? Valentin couldn't help but ask.

Joshua remained silent for a while. "She used to be."

"Isn't she suitable now?"

Joshua didn't answer and finished the drink in his glass.

"It was getting late, so I went back."

Valentin was a little unwilling and said again when Joshua was about to leave, "Joshua, would you be happy to marry someone you don't love?"

Joshua looked at him with confusion.

Valentin said again, "If you're not happy, I think it's better for you to break up with Anika earlier.

Valentin was different from Joshua.

Valentin thought that when looking for a wife, one should find someone they like.

Chapter 158

Anika arrived at Raina's house early in the morning

Anika and Raina had breakfast together and then waited for Violet to come and apologize.

"Anika, why did Violet suddenly agree to apologize to me?" Raina was confused.

A few days ago, Violet was still spending money to lower the trending searches, but now she suddenly says she wants to apologize to Raina, which confuses Raina.

Anika didn't know either.

Anika thought, "In theory, if something happened to Violet, Joshua and Valentin would definitely help her."

They could easily take down that article.

Perhaps Joshua and Valentin didn't want to help her for some reason.

"Don't overthink it. Just remember to reclaim the grievances you once suffered," Anika said.

"Okay."

"Wait a moment, I'll hide first, and you deal with Violet when she comes."

"Okay."

At ten o'clock, Violet indeed came over, and Anika went to the bedroom first.

There was also a lawyer who came along with Violet

Violet wore a mask and sunglasses. After she entered the villa, she looked at Raina sitting on the sofa.

Raina had a little baby fat and looked very young overall.

"Hello, Ms. Schmitt, "Violet did not take off her sunglasses.

Upon hearing this, Raina did not offer her a seat and said directly, "Violet, let's skip the pleasantries. Just apologize."

Violet was stunned.

Thinking about the news online, she had to apologize, saying, "I'm sorry,"

"I feel like you have no sincerity at all. Let's not talk anymore," Raina deliberately provoked her.

Violet was getting impatient, but she was stopped by the lawyer beside her.

Violet took off her sunglasses and mask, and once again apologized to Raina. "I'm sorry.

"I hope your company can overlook my mistakes. I am willing to accept all the compensations you have proposed."

Raina was very happy to see Violet, who had always been arrogant, apologize.

1/3

Chapter 158

"I remember my client saying that you should apologize to me first, and then publicly admit to the media and the public that you plagiarized her work.

Will you agree?" Raina had long heard Anika's rumors

Anika and Raina could not forgive Violet.

Violet did not answer, but looked towards the lawyer beside her.

The lawyer stepped forward and said, "Ms. Schmitt, I wonder if you could do a favor for Violet? Can you communicate well with your client and make sure Violet doesn't admit to plagiarism, please?"

"If you agreed, I could use my connections at my law firm in Sagedale to help you obtain the status and reputation you desire as quickly as possible."

Upon hearing these words, Raina was very surprised,

Raina thought, "Violet came with a lawyer to bribe me

She didn't come to apologize to me.

Raina smiled and said, "Sorry, I don't care about status and reputation like Violet does.

After finishing speaking, Raina approached Violet and looked at her mockingly.

"Violet, you plagiarized others' work, indulged yourself abroad, and then stole someone else's husband after returning to the country. Do you still have any reputation as a woman like this? Just wait for the lawsuit, you will soon be ruined both personally and professionally!"

"I told you, I had no intention of accepting your apology today.

Violet, in disbelief, looked at her and said, "What did you say?"

At that moment, the bedroom door was pushed open and Anika walked out.

Violet thought, "Anika saw me in my humble state just now."

Violet instantly got angry.

"Anika, did you intentionally have your friend retaliate against me now because Joshua doesn't like you?"

Anika was completely confused.

Anika thought, "What Violet said was really annoying.

'Did you plagiarize my work, or was it intentionally arranged by me?' Anika asked.

Violet, being asked by Anika in this way, had already lost patience to apologize.

She looked at Anika with hatred in her eyes. "Since you are unwilling to accept my apology, don't blame me for being impolite to you in the future."

After finishing speaking, Violet angrily left, ignoring the lawyers around her.

Violet returned to the nanny car, asked the people around her to leave, and then she picked up her phone and called Harry "Didn't you CAV VOLL WOULD protont mollutant Anika doad!!!"

After Violet finished speaking, she picked up her phone and entered the address here to Harry.

In the villa.

Raina took out a hidden camera from nearby.

"Anika, you were amazing. You knew Violet wouldn't apologize publicly, so you asked me to record her apology video."

After Raina finished speaking, she opened the video saved on her phone.

The video recorded in its entirety how Violet apologized to Raina, admitted to plagiarism, and attempted to bribe Raina.

"Because I knew her too well. She, as a person, would not publicly apologize unless absolutely necessary, for the sake of her own interests."

"I will upload the video online right now."

Raina was very excited.

Anika stopped her. "Don't rush to publish yet. I don't think it's the right time."

Anika thought, "Violet is very famous now, even if Raina releases this video, it will only damage Violet's reputation."

But Raina might have been retaliated against by Violet.

"I listened to you. Raina knew what Anika was worried about.

Anika's phone rang just as she and Raina were about to analyze what they should do next.

Anika took out her phone and saw that it was Trent calling.

Trent's voice came through the phone. "Anika, I was about to board the plane. I will arrive in Oasisville tonight at 11 o'clock."

"Okay."

Anika thought, "Trent arrived in Oasisville at eleven o'clock at night..."

I didn't know if I could go pick him up.

On the other side, Trent held his phone tightly, gazing at the clear blue sky.

"Tomorrow is your birthday, right?"

Anika was taken aback.

She had almost forgotten her own birthday.

parents. so she never celebrated her birthday again.

After Anika married Joshua, no one still celebrated her birthday

Over time, Anika no longer celebrated her birthday "Yes."

"Tonight, I will celebrate your birthday for you, Trent said.

Anika thought for a moment. "Alright. I will pick you up tonight I stayed at my friend's house today."

Upon hearing this, Trent couldn't help but ask, "Will I be disturbing your friends?"

Anika looked at Raina, who was eavesdropping nearby. She saw Raina shaking her head repeatedly. "It's okay. You can let him come over."

In the past four years, Raina has only seen Trent a few times from a distance.

Raina thought Trent was very handsome.

'She said it's okay. She asked you to come over.

"Alright, I'll hang up first. See you tonight."

After Trent hung up the phone, he smiled.

After Trent boarded the charter plane, the doctor examined his wound. "You must be careful and avoid any vigorous exercise. Once you return to Oasisville, you must take caution, otherwise the wound may easily reopen and become infected."

"I knew."

Trent looked out of the window at the white clouds, holding a delicate little box in his hand. He had never been so excited to see Anika as he was today.

After hanging up the phone, Anika started thinking about how to talk to Joshua.

Raina said, "You send him a text message."

"Okay."

Anika remembered that in the past, Joshua would also send her text messages telling her where to go without even asking if she agreed.

Anika edited a text message and sent it to Joshua.

Joshua was having a meeting. At that moment, his phone vibrated.

Joshua opened his phone and saw a text message from Anika.

"I accompanied my best friend tonight and won't come back."

The chilling aura emanating from him made all the executives present tremble in fear, each one thinking they had made some mistake in their work.

Joshua got up and left the meeting room directly.

"He was in the room."

Joshua breathed a sigh of relief.

Joshua thought, "Since that child was there, Anika definitely wouldn't run away."

'Springwood Manor had tight security, ordinary people couldn't possibly take away that child."

"You should be more careful tonight."

Joshua cautioned.

"Okay."

The butler didn't have time to sleep. He had someone open all the security devices in the estate.

Joshua quickly arrived at the location assigned to him by the bodyguard.

Joshua saw Anika walking out of a car from a distance and entering the airport.

Inside the terminal building.

Anika glanced at the time and realized that Trent still had over ten minutes before he would get off the plane. Tonight, when she came out, she didn't notice anyone following her, so she let the driver take her to the airport.

Anika thought, "It's so late, the people Joshua arranged should all be resting.

She didn't know that Joshua had already arrived at the second floor of the airport and observed all her actions.

Soon, it was eleven o'clock.

Anika stood up and walked to the position of the exit.

At that moment, Joshua finally realized that Anika had come to pick someone up.

Soon, a group of people walked over. Among them, the man in the middle was tall and upright, dressed in cool-toned clothes, and exuded a rebellious handsomeness.

Anika waved her hand at him.

Trent quickened his pace and rushed towards her.

"How did you come alone? Why didn't Luciano accompany you?" Trent was worried that it was dangerous for Anika to come out alone so late.

"Luciano protected me during the day, so I let him rest at the hotel at night. I couldn't let him sleep in the car all the time," Anika replied.

2/3

"I sent a few more people..."

Trent hadn't finished speaking when he was rejected by Anika.

Chapter 160

When Anika saw a row of bodyguards standing behind Trent, she felt very uncomfortable.

"Okay. Anyway, I also came back," Trent chuckled.

Let's go. Raina and Evan are both waiting to see you.

When I left, they were both tired but refused to go to sleep. They said they had to see you first before going to bed."

Anika and Trent walked and laughed together.

Joshua's face darkened after seeing this scene.

Joshua thought, "Anika didn't come back tonight because she was originally going to pick up Trent at the airport."
