

Chapter 599

"What did you just say?"

Sophia's mouth fell open. She was completely stunned at Elise's words.

What?

Chuck said that he wanted her?!

She couldn't believe it!

In fact, she had thought that Chuck would ask her for money. That would be easy. As long as it wasn't the name of the Lawrence family, she could give him everything he wanted.

She had mentally braced herself, but what the hell was this?

Was Elise being serious?

"Like I said, Mom. He told me that he would do that to you, right in front of my eyes..." Elise said weakly.

Sophia's words were absolute. If she had agreed to give Chuck whatever he wanted, then she would fulfill her promise.

However, if Chuck really asked for this, would Sophia still agree to his request?

Elise didn't dare to think about it anymore.

"Elise, are you being serious?" Sophia was stunned.

Elise was just joking around, right?

Would Chuck really make such a request?

How could he?

Sophia had been furious when she heard what Elise said.

That request was too much.

However, she mentioned herself that she would definitely agree to whatever he requested. What should she do?

Sophia panicked all of a sudden.

"Yes, Mom. Why did you promise him that?" A tear fell down Elise's cheeks.

When she had passed out, she wouldn't have imagined things to go so wrong. She would rather be beaten to death by Chuck.

She never wanted to see such a thing happen.

Now that she realized Chuck was the one who had saved her, her thoughts had fallen into chaos.

Initially, she had even decided to repay him with her body!

But... What was this turn of events?

Thud!

Sophia fell onto the ground in a daze.

She was still very beautiful and charming. She had given birth to Elise at the young age of 16. Now, she was only 34 years old.

She had worked out to maintain a good physique. She had also taken care of herself and looked much younger than her age. People even mistook her for Elise's sister...

The expression on Sophia's face was indescribable.

She felt deeply conflicted.

What if Chuck really requested for that?

She herself had said that she would definitely keep her word, and she was always a woman of her word. What should she do now?

Sophia fell into despair.

The news of ten Lawrence family bases being destroyed overnight spread all over the country. Everyone was talking about it.

Arguably, the Lawrence Family was one of the Four Greatest Households. In the face of such humiliation, they would've definitely taken revenge immediately!

However, a day had passed and nothing had happened. Shouldn't the entire city be turned over by now?

Wasn't any action taken to protect the prestige of the Four Greatest Households?

However, nothing had happened.

The Lawrence family had remained quiet.

They had not even given a response.

What was happening?

It was as if someone had publicly given the Lawrence family a slap in the face, and they just took it without retaliation.

What on earth was going on here?

What happened?

Everyone was confused. This entire situation was definitely abnormal since the Lawrence family was just too silent.

Who was this person who managed to destroy ten bases from the Lawrence Family?

Everyone was talking about it.

Everyone was curious. Who could be the one behind it all?

"Miss Adriana, Karen Lee is the one behind the whole fiasco with the Lawrence family. It was all to take revenge for Chuck."

Back at the secret Whitlock family mansion, someone reported something to Adriana.

Adriana turned a page on the book that she was reading lazily.

"Oh, really?" She asked indifferently.

"Yes," Nothing could ever be concealed from the secret families.

It could be said that there was nothing in the world that the secret families didn't know about.

"Interesting. This woman really surprised me!" Adriana put down the book in her hand.

Of course, the Whitlock family could easily destroy ten bases from the Lawrence family.

It was an easy feat for them.

However, this only applied to the secret families. It was a whole different story for Karen. It seemed that Adriana had really underestimated Karen's ability.

"By the way, I asked you to investigate Karen Lee. How is it going?" Adriana inquired.

"Well..." Nelson trailed off.

"What's wrong? Out with it," Adriana demanded.

"Well, I did find out something. Karen hid some of her secrets really well, so it took me some time to find out about it," Nelson replied.

Through vague clues, he had managed to put together that Karen was the one behind several companies.

He was also very surprised when he found out about it!

The hidden families should've known everything in this world.

However, Karen had managed to hide something from them.

"Oh? What is it?" Adriana glanced over at him.

"She has a pharmaceutical company, a network company, and..."
Nelson started listing everything down.

"How fascinating. Karen Lee imitating the secret families?" Adriana raised an eyebrow.

"How dare she imitate us?" Nelson snorted. So what if she had several companies?

Compared to the hidden families, she had nothing.

"She's pretty smart. She only shows us what she wants us to see, and hides what she doesn't. How interesting," Adriana smirked.

"Miss Adriana, are you serious?" Nelson was shocked. How could she have accomplished this without the secret families knowing about it?

How did she do it? After all, the whole world had been divided up by the hidden families!

However, Karen actually managed to pull it off.

"Probably. Try your best to find out what else Karen is hiding," Adriana's eyes flashed.

She was a little annoyed. How dare Karen Lee do this?

"Yes, I will," Nelson nodded. Of course, he could see that Adriana had gotten angry.

This was not a good sign!

Just as Nelson was about to leave, Adriana suddenly thought of something and calmed down. She asked, "By the way, what about the other thing that I asked you about?"

"You mean Chuck's father, Chadrick Cannon? He..." Nelson stopped.

"What's wrong?" Adriana asked.

"He's a little mysterious."

"Oh, of course he is. If he could suit Karen's tastes, how could he not be mysterious?" Adriana said.

Adriana admitted that when it came to intelligence, Karen was definitely on her level. How could people like them get together with someone boring?

That would be too weird.

"How mysterious is he?" Adriana questioned.

"I can't find out where he is or anything about his family. There's nothing on him," Nelson replied.

He was also surprised.

Something that the secret families didn't know about was rarely found!

"Oh, that's normal. No matter what, find out everything about Chadrick! He's probably someone like Karen," Adriana picked up her book again.

"Yes! Do we need to monitor his movements?" Nelson felt that Adriana's interest in Chuck had grown. Had she really taken a liking to him?

"Why not?" Adriana asked.

"Miss, may I ask you something?" Nelson asked carefully.

"Ask away."

"Are you really going to marry Chuck Cannon?" Nelson thought that Chuck was not worthy of marrying Adriana.

"Yes, he's the only man I'm interested in right now," Adriana's expression grew serious.

"Then... What if Karen doesn't agree to it?" Nelson continued.

"She doesn't agree? I always get what I want! If she doesn't agree, I'll force her to agree to what I want. If she still refuses to, I'll make her disappear!" There was a cold glimmer in her eyes.

Chapter 600

"Mr. Cannon, what should I do?"

Patricia Dawson, who had finally been picked up by Chuck's men, was shocked. She knew that this area was a place where only the extremely wealthy in the United States could reside in!

No wonder Chuck could end the Allen family.

Patricia was curious. Just how rich was Chuck's family?

"I'm going to open a casino here, and you will be in charge of it. You can learn how to manage a casino from my mom," Chuck said.

Chuck thought that opening a casino was something manageable. Karen had also agreed to it.

Chuck had suggested that one was enough, but Karen disagreed. She told him to either go big or go home.

Therefore, he agreed.

However, the location was all up to Chuck. When everything was settled, he would then ask for money from Karen.

Sigh, so he still had to rely on her in the end.

He had no choice. The capital needed for this project was much too large.

Patricia was capable of completing her role perfectly. After learning from Karen, things would go flawlessly for her.

"Okay, I'll do my best," Patricia was pleasantly surprised. The biggest casino? She couldn't believe that she would have the opportunity to be in charge of it.

"Great, I've already arranged everything. Follow me to my mom's casino and have a look around. I have to settle something there as well," Chuck still had some concerns of his own as well.

"Sure."

"Patricia, you have to be serious about this. You're in charge of all the affairs here in the United States. This casino is just the beginning for me, there's more to come," Chuck advised.

"Really?" Patricia smiled in surprise.

This was what she was talking about!

"Yeah," Chuck nodded his head.

"Thank you for this opportunity, I will do my best," Patricia said. Chuck had finally arranged for her to be in charge of something bigger. Back then, he had only appointed her as the manager of a hotel.

She was thrilled at such a chance.

She suddenly noticed that Chuck was looking at her strangely. She frowned and asked, "Mr. Cannon, is there a problem?"

"Fix your clothes," He then turned around and left.

Patricia paused. She looked down and suddenly blushed. Her buttons had become undone. She quickly fixed them and followed after Chuck.

She was thinking about what Chuck had seen just now.

She shook her head, feeling embarrassed.

She decided not to think too much of it.

Patricia was here for work and Chuck was her biggest source of wealth. She would be able to make all kinds of connections and experience after working for him for five years.

Karen, Betty, Yvette and Willa were all at the casino. When Karen got to know that Chuck was planning to open a casino, she had happily agreed.

First of all, the profit was extremely high.

Not only that, it could be a good chance to train Chuck.

Karen was excited about it.

Chuck had Karen, Willa and Yvette by his side, so he had nothing to worry about.

Chuck was still recovering from his injury on his head, but he didn't let that stop him at all.

He had to improve himself. He was only caught by Elise because he was lacking, and he would never allow such a thing to happen again.

He only had one life to protect.

"By the way, Chucky, what are you requesting from the Lawrence family?" Karen asked.

She didn't lack wealth, so Chuck definitely wouldn't ask for it.

If so, what else was there to request for?

Yvette, Willa and Betty were all looking at Chuck, curious to what he would ask for.

"Mom, I haven't decided yet," Chuck shook his head.

"Fine, there's no rush. Sophia is a woman of her word. No matter what you ask for, she will agree. Take your time!" Karen smiled.

Chuck nodded. Really? Then...

He had an idea...

Just then, Betty's phone rang. She answered the call to find that it was about the Oatker family. She said, "President Lee, about the Oatker family..."

"It's okay. Today, I will go with Chucky to see the casino," Karen shook her head. She wanted to spend time with her son as she had nearly lost him.

Betty put the phone away.

Black Rose came back and told Karen that it would take a few days before she could continue to protect Chuck.

Of course, Karen agreed.

Black Rose only had one thing left to worry about.

Frieda Olmedo.

Black Rose swore to herself that she would end Frieda with her own hands as revenge for the disgraceful photos of herself.

She requested for three days off. If she couldn't finish off Frieda by then, she would continue to protect Chuck.

Meanwhile, Frieda had finished her training. What had she done in the past month, one may ask?

She had trained like crazy every day that even Alexandrina Middleton was surprised at her rapid improvement.

Her huge improvement was astounding.

This day, Frieda had come over to find Alexandrina. She had always despised Alexandrina.

She was the one who forced random men to take away Frieda's virginity.

Frieda felt greatly humiliated.

Therefore, she had been preparing all this while. She was looking for an opportunity to catch Alexandrina off guard.

She would take inappropriate photos of Alexandrina and spread them out. Every man in the world would be able to see them.

When they arrived at a private room, Alexandrina was sitting inside with a glass of red wine in her hands.

"Boss," Frieda entered, her mind swirling in evil thoughts.

"Your strength has improved a lot, so you can take on missions now. I will help you a bit. From today onwards, your starting price will be three million dollars!" Alexandrina announced.

For the past month, Frieda's performance had surprised her. She felt that her hunch was correct. Frieda was indeed a vicious woman. It was possible for her to replace Black Rose as the number one female killer!

It was very likely that she had already done so.

"Three million dollars?" Frieda was surprised.

Just by receiving commission from the assassins' organization, she should be able to get two million dollars!

She had never thought of obtaining such a large sum of money.

"Yes, but I have to tell you my rules again," Alexandrina's expression grew serious.

"Go ahead."

"Our organization doesn't accept missions related to Karen Lee or Chuck Cannon. Do not accept any mission related to them by yourself, or I'll make you pay," Alexandrina warned.

Frieda grew angry. She wanted to kill Chuck, but now that Alexandrina was warning her against it, she became frustrated.

"Got it," Frieda chose to compromise temporarily.

She suddenly thought of something. Why did she have to do it herself?

If she could take a picture of that woman, would Chuck still be able to live if she threatened Alexandrina to kill him?

Frieda sneered silently.

"But may I ask why?" Frieda asked. There were seldom organizations who chose not to earn money when presented the chance to.

"Karen Lee is someone I know. Chuck is her son, and he is also quite fascinating," Alexandrina took a sip of red wine and smiled.

She thought about the time Chuck had openly flirted with her in a private room.

Honestly, she almost wanted to slap him then.

But what happened after that?

She snickered. No man had ever dared to flirt with her like that before!

Alexandrina had found him interesting. She wanted to see if he still dared to tease her after she dealt with him privately.

Frieda was filled with envy and hatred.

Chuck was seriously too lucky.

However, when she finally managed to take Alexandrina's pictures, Chuck was dead meat!

"Alright, you can leave now and make some preparations," Alexandrina waved her hand to dismiss her.

"Um, can I have some wine?" Frieda asked weakly.

"Fine," Alexandrina passed her a glass of wine.

Frieda took a sip and asked, "Boss, can you still summon the person you called for me last time? I..."

"Oh," Alexandrina was surprised that Frieda brought it up on her own.

"Please."

"No problem," Alexandrina smiled and immediately arranged for her men to enter

In fact, Frieda was thinking that this was a way to get close to Alexandrina. Only by getting closer to her would she have a chance to take a photo.

When she was finished, Frieda saw that Alexandrina had fell asleep. The thoughts in her mind consumed her. This was an opportunity, no one would find out.

Frieda tiptoed over quietly. She gave her an opening!

Chapter 601

Frieda approached Alexandrina. Alexandria's beautiful face was flushed red after consuming alcohol. Frieda couldn't help but feel envious of her boss' pretty face.

Not only was Alexandrina's figure perfect, but her skin was also silky smooth.

What was even more infuriating was that she owned an entire organization of assassins. How rich was she?

The more Frieda looked at her, the more envious and jealous she became. She quietly tiptoed towards Alexandrina.

She suddenly felt a little nervous.

She knew that Alexandrina was smart. Even Cheryl and Black Rose couldn't compare to her.

Frieda was worried that if she was found out, she would be done for.

Freida got close to Alexandrina nervously and sat down on the sofa, calling out softly, "Boss, boss..."

"Yes?"

Alexandrina looked as if she was talking in his sleep. Frieda decided to hold back and not take such a big risk.

Her life was still more important!

If she was discovered by Alexandrina, Frieda couldn't imagine what would happen to her. She'd better be careful!

"Boss, I'll go back then," said Frieda.

"Hmm?" Alexandrina murmured.

In truth, Frieda did not know that she had actually missed an opportunity. Alexandrina really had fallen asleep.

She had too much to drink. After watching Frieda put on a show for a while, she slowly lost interest. As she had more and more to drink, she slowly fell asleep.

Frieda still felt that it was a pity as she left the room. She kept looking back at her boss. It was then that Alexandrina spoke, "Don't leave, stay and talk with me for a bit."

Frieda was taken by surprise.

"Okay," Frieda came over and sat down. "Boss, what's up?"

"You little rascal. How dare you tease me?" Alexandrina said in a daze, a smile on her face.

What was she thinking about?

She thought of the day when Chuck was alone with her in a private room. She was the one who had initiated things with Chuck.

However, he later took control and teased her back... She found it fascinating.

Frieda froze. She knew that Alexandrina was not talking about her. In that case, who was she talking about?

What was going on?

Who was the one that had teased Alexandrina?

Frieda felt shocked to her core.

In her opinion, how could Alexandrina Middleton take a fancy to just anyone?

Was the person that she was talking about a lot younger than her?

"Boss, who are you talking about?" Frieda asked out of curiosity.

Alexandrina was smiling when she said that. It was obvious that she had taken a liking to whoever she was talking about.

"What? Don't you even remember who I am? You're really disappointing. Get out," Alexandrina murmured in her sleep.

It seemed that she had gotten angry, but she actually hadn't.

Frieda was even more confused. Why did it feel like her boss was flirting with her?

"Don't. Then, do you know who I am?" Frieda asked.

She was just too curious. Could it be that Alexandrina liked younger guys?

"You rascal, do you think I'm stupid? Chuck Cannon, of course I remember you. You're the first man who dared to trick me. No, you're not a man. To me, you're just a boy who's a little bit special..." Alexandrina laid on the sofa, her words trailing off.

"What? Chuck Cannon?!"

Frieda stood up in shock.

The guy Alexandrina was talking about was actually Chuck?

How could this be possible?

Since when did Chuck dare to tease Alexandrina?

Moreover, Alexandrina hadn't gotten mad at him? In addition, she found it fascinating?

What exactly was going on?

Frieda was completely stunned. She couldn't understand.

That b*stard Chuck!

"Boss, do you like me?" Frieda took out her phone and began to record everything.

"Don't call me boss. I don't have an employee like you. Be a good boy and call me Alexandrina. I'll treat you nicely if you do..." Alexandrina smiled in her sleep, as if she were really flirting with Chuck.

Frieda was surprised. What was so good about Chuck? Her boss really had bad taste in men.

How dare he tease Alexandrina?

Frieda could not understand anything.

What she didn't know was that for so many years, Alexandrina was someone who could make men kneel down before her just by clicking her fingers.

She always took the initiative when it came to men. It was the first time that someone had teased her like what Chuck had done.

She felt that it was something new.

Chuck was the first one to do something like this to her, so she would remember him for a long time.

"Alexandrina," Frieda called out.

She felt envious of Chuck. What did Chuck do to deserve this?

Was he really that charming?

"Good boy. Take the black card in my purse, there is a lot of money inside. I'll give it all to you," Alexandrina said with a smile, her eyes still closed.

Frieda hesitated before opening her purse. There were indeed a lot of bank cards in it. The amount of money saved in these kinds of cards was probably worth at least a few million dollars.

How could Chuck just take it as he pleased?

Frieda was shocked. She took the black card that Alexandrina had been talking about. Frieda herself knew everything about luxurious brands around the world. After all, she had realized that Cheryl was a wealthy woman just from the things she wore.

There was at least ten billion dollars saved in this card. Was Alexandrina willing to give it all to Chuck just like that?

Was Frieda dreaming, or was Alexandrina the one who was dreaming?

Frieda could barely differentiate between dream and reality.

"Alexandrina, why did you give it to me?" Frieda really could not understand her.

Even if she was filthy rich, she shouldn't have just given money away like this.

"Because I like you. Come on, sit next to me and make me happy. If you do, all the cards in my purse will belong to you," Alexandrina laid down and patted the seat on the sofa next to her.

Of course, Frieda did not dare to take the card. She wouldn't want to suffer the consequences of really taking it. She put it back into Alexandrina's purse in a hurry, and returned it to where she took it from.

She hesitated on whether to leave or not. Suddenly, a thought popped up in her mind and a sinister look appeared on her face.

She sat down again and mused, "Alexandrina, you said that you like me, but why can't I feel it?"

"You little, what are you trying to do? I like you but I don't swing that way. I just find you a little interesting," Alexandrina muttered.

Frieda sneered.

Just now, she had assumed Alexandrina to really take a fancy to Chuck, but now Frieda understood. Chuck was nothing more than a toy to Alexandrina.

He was just a new toy that had peaked her interest.

"I'm a little sad. I like you, but you don't," Frieda pouted with a sneer on behalf of Chuck.

How could a scaredy-cat like Chuck say something like this in front of Alexandrina?

"You're really good at sweet talking. How could you be sad? The last time you flirted with me, you were so experienced. Don't lie to me," Alexandrina retorted.

Frieda felt that the whole thing was ridiculous, but just as she was about to speak, the smile fell off Alexandrina's face, "Are you really sad? Don't cry, come here, I'll comfort you."

In fact, Alexandrina had dreamed that Chuck was crying sadly. She didn't know whether to laugh or cry in her dream. She was probably supposed to comfort him now!

However, everything in her dream was just her own fantasy.

"You don't even like me. I don't want you to comfort me," Frieda continued jokingly. Alexandrina's drunk side really surprised Frieda.

"Are you angry? Come on, I'll give you all the money in the bag. Are you happy now? There's a lot of money there, so don't cry," Alexandrina was comforting Chuck in her dream.

"Don't give me money, I don't want it. I just want to look at you," Frieda snickered.

"Look at me? What for?" Alexandrina asked.

In her dream, Alexandrina was in a daze. Her face was already flushed red from drinking, but now, it had gotten even redder.
