Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3721

The men quickly went to fetch more guns and ammunition, and each soldier was equipped with at least two guns and fifty rounds of ammunition or more.

As Sam Elephant prepared his machine gun to fire, he no longer saw any movement in the shadows.

In his heart, Sam Elephant became inexplicably confident again: Ronald's men were the best at scaring people!

They know they can't beat him and can only hide behind the scenes.

As Sam Elephant was getting carried away and ready to order the shooting, one of his nearest men was shot in the head again!

Mori Xiang was in a complete panic! He didn't even dare to breathe harder, lest he should be next.

There was another long interval and still no movement

The other side did not show up, yet each time they killed a man just as the Sensiang was about to attack, clearly sapping the Senro family's willpower.

"Are your people dead? What kind of heroes and heroines are you if you only dare to shoot behind your backs!" Moro Elephant said with a feigned calmness.

"Oh? We're just learning how the Moro family always acts."

At this moment, the four main butlers, Ryan, Iron Wall, Shadow and Guardian, walked out with their sniper rifles.

"Hmph, I thought how many people were there, but it's just the four of you, where are your soldiers?" Sam Elephant began to sneer again.

"Do you need a lot of men to deal with a bunch of brainiacs like you?" Shadow said with disdain.

Knowing that these four stewards were not easy to deal with, Sam Elephant took a few steps back and feigned composure.

"Surround the four of them for me!"

After Sen Xiang finished speaking, the soldiers of the Morrow Family immediately surrounded the four butlers in layers and aimed their machine guns at them.

Even if the four of them were powerful, they could not withstand the fact that I had many men and many guns, I didn't believe they could still fly away with wings!

The four butlers' expressions were as bland as the wind, and even a little bored.

"If you put your guns down obediently, I can still consider letting you die a painful death."

Sam Elephant casually picked up one of the guns of the men around him and aimed it at Ryan.

“Ouch, I’m scared, I’ll surrender, so you’ll be kind enough to let me live.”

Ryan said as he put the gun down and began to act up again

Just as the Sam Elephant was about to pull the trigger and shoot, Shadow quickly whipped out a dagger and flung it straight through the Sam Elephant’s arm!

Enraged, Sam Elephant ordered his men to shoot them dead immediately.

But the next second, their soldiers were wailing!

For some reason, the moment they pulled the trigger to fire the bullet, it exploded in the barrel or chamber of the gun before it could exit the muzzle!

The soldiers who fired the guns were all badly injured by the guns in their own hands!

Did something happen to these guns too? Mori Xiang immediately threw away the guns he was holding.

At that moment, tens of thousands of Ronald’s forces poured in from all directions in Block 12! Surrounding the Moro family tightly!

All these soldiers were well-built, well-armed and their morale was high! There was no such thing as a scout saying that the army was disorganised and unmanned?

These were soldiers who had undergone long and rigorous training!

“I’ve been D*mned again!!!” But how could all these weapons of their own have gone wrong overnight when they were under strict guard in a military stronghold?

Had there been an inside job? Immediately, Mori Xiang called for the soldiers who were guarding the weapons store to question them.

“Who was on duty last night?”

When everyone pointed their fingers at the same soldier, the soldier himself was astonished, saying he had never left his post!

Sam Elephant, however, flatly asserted that he was a spy, but he was afraid to shoot and simply killed the soldier with his bayonet.

“Commander Sam Elephant is a real killer!” At that moment a strong voice came out.

In the midst of his anger, Sam Elephant looked up and it was actually Ronald!!!

He was as graceful as ever, holding a scepter and striding in with a calm and steady pace.

He didn’t look like he’d been seriously injured at all, and even felt more fit than before!

“Aren’t you dying?”

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3722

“How can I be willing to die first before I have said goodbye to the Mori Elephant Commander?” Ronald was still smiling elegantly.

“I didn’t expect that Mr. Ronald, who has always been open and honest, has also started to play dirty tricks!”

“That’s also thanks to the Moro family for the inspiration, as far as sneak attacks are concerned, I, Ronald, admire you very much.”

The Moro Elephant was enraged, and with a command, all the soldiers of the Moro family started to attack Ronald!

But as expected, every soldier who fired was wounded by his own bullets without incident!

The enemy had not been wounded, but his men had lost many.

Sam Elephant asked Ronald angrily, “What the hell have you done?”

“Ryan, let him die!” Ronald gestured to Ryan.

“Just yesterday, I used disguise to dress up as one of your soldiers guarding the armoury. The same one you just stabbed to death and infiltrated your military stronghold.

During the night watch, I placed 3,000 high-pressure water vapour bombs inside the armoury!

The high-pressure water vapour then quickly seeped into your explosives and bullets, not to the point of complete failure, but to the point of deteriorating the gunpowder.

So when you force the trigger to fire them, they blow right up the barrel of the gun.”

“D*mn it!” Mori Xiang was furious and kicked the already dead soldier on duty.

“All of you, charge! If you don’t have explosives or guns, use your swords!” Sam Elephant was getting mad!

But at that moment none of his men followed his orders any more, but unloaded their weapons and equipment and crouched to the ground.

Sam Elephant was dumbfounded! He did not expect these men, who usually obeyed his orders and said they would kill and sacrifice themselves before coming here, to be Ronald’s captives willingly

But the situation at hand, there are four expert housekeepers in front, behind a thousand primitive secret guards, and even more powerfully returned Ronald sitting in the town.

The Senro family doesn’t even have a gun, so there is no chance of winning a fight like this, and even more people can’t block the guns!

To attack would be tantamount to suicide.

The only chance of survival was to surrender to Ronald, who was known to be a good man on Death Island and would not kill the common soldiers who had surrendered.

“Get the f*ck up! You mutineers, are you worthy of your dead chief Moro?”

Moro roared at the top of his lungs, but no one responded to him, not that they didn't know how Moro had treated them before!

"Do you think that by surrendering to Ronald he will spare you? Don't dream, Ronald is a hypocrite, a fake good man! You will all be killed by him!"

And at this point any more persuasion from the Mori Elephant paled in comparison.

"Take Mori Xiang away under close guard, and send his men to the Ministry of Rehabilitation in unison!" Ronald snapped.

These soldiers really bet right this time, what is reforming these punishments compared to going to death?

The paralyzed Sen Xiang didn't say a word as he watched in despair as his men were pulled away by the truckloads.

He began to regret that he had not listened to the elders and ended up burying the Moro family with his own hands!

And after Ronald swallowed the power of the Moro family, his sphere of influence increased further and his strength grew completely to become the number one in Block 12.

Felon Prison.

"Say, who sent someone to sneak up on Mr. Ronald?"

Iron Wall lashed out with a whip at Mori Xiang's body, and the several layers of his uniform immediately opened up, leaving a thick and long whip mark that oozed with a little bead of blood.

"Sneak attack? I never do that kind of thing, ask the Moro chief of the Moro temple if you want to ask him, hahahahaha"

"Not telling, are you?" Tie Bi flung another whip down and Sen Xiang was already bleeding from the skin!

"Ah stop! I don't even know where Ronald has gone, where am I going to sneak up on him hiss"

This guy seemed to know nothing about Ronald being out for a sneak attack

Just as Iron Wall was about to swing a third whip, Mori Elephant hastily shouted to stop.

"You just beat me to death, I don't know either!"

But there's another elder in the Moro family, and he only told Moro about some of the previous plans, so you guys go ask him."

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3723

Sam Elephant was still afraid, if Iron Wall's third whip had swung down, he would surely have fainted from the pain, and now he had to betray the elders!

"Count on your good sense."

Seeing Tie Bi leave with the whip, Sen Xiang dared not speak out in anger.

The reason why Tie Bi tortured Sen Xiang was that he remembered that the night Senro led a sneak attack, he had said that Mr. Ronald was in trouble and was afraid that he would not return.

At that time, everyone thought that it was Senro who was deliberately disturbing the army, but then the Senro family once again took advantage of Mr. Ronald's injury to sneak in!

This showed that the Moro family had known that Mr. Ronald would be injured, so the person who sneaked up on Mr. Ronald must have had something to do with them!

Tie Bi brought the word to Ronald, who immediately led his men to clean up the Senro family's lair.

Lin Mo also said that he would go with Ronald, he always felt that the person behind this matter was not simple.

When the group arrived at the Moro family's compound, they found it empty, with all the valuable items and clothing taken away.

It was obvious that the Moro family had run away when they learned of their defeat.

Lin Mo suggested that Ronald should take a look around the place to see if he could find any clues.

"Mr. Molin, what is this?" Ronald found a bottle of potion in the hidden compartment of the elders' room.

Lin Mo took it over and looked, and there was this black gla*s bottle again! His eyes suddenly turned cold: "So it's them."

Punching the gla*s bottle, it was indeed a pale red liquid!

He told Ronald that this bottle of potion was the drink that the Human Snake Organisation used to enhance their internal strength, and it was refined from a large amount of human blood.

The recipe was something they would never pa*s on, which was enough to show that this elder of the Moro family was a member of the Human Snake Organisation!

Knowing that the other party was from the Human Snake Organisation, Ronald was very angry because Aniya had been separated from himself because of them.

If Maureen hadn't saved Aniya in time, she would have been drained of their blood to make a potion!

With scarlet eyes, Ronald ordered his men, "Immediately send out a full-scale hunt for the Human Serpents and kill them without mercy! Take revenge for Miss!"

"Don't get excited yet, the Human Snake Organization has always been sinister and not easy to deal with, if you pursue them in such a big way, you will only scare the snake."

Under Lin Mo's persuasion, Ronald decided to stay put for the time being, he was indeed a bit impulsive just now.

So they returned to their residence and decided to discuss another feasible way to deal with them.

.....

Ronald had just expanded his power and had many things to take care of, so Lin Mo was bored and out for a stroll.

At that moment a medical hall down the street caught his attention and he walked up to it.

"This gentleman, is there something wrong with you for coming here?"

The person who came up to greet Lin Mo was a middle-aged man, who was also the owner of this medical hall.

"Oh, I do feel much less healthy recently, but I don't know what the reason is."

Lin Mo became interested, so he wanted to test the man's medical skills.

"Please take a seat in the hall, and I will check your pulse to find out."

Lin Mo then followed the owner of the medical school inside.

He placed his finger on Lin Mo's pulse and carefully diagnosed the problem, sometimes frowning and sometimes nodding his head, with a profound and inexplicable look.

Lin Mo was a bit impatient, "Boss, what kind of disease do I have?"

He let out a sigh, "Do you know that you have a terminal illness?"

Lin Mo cursed angrily in his heart, "You are the one with a terminal illness, your whole family has a terminal illness!"

Although he was angry, Lin Mo still intended to put on a full act and immediately changed his face drastically.

"Ah? What is this about? How long do I have to live? I haven't had any offspring yet"

Lin Mo found that he seemed to be a little infected by Ryan

"This pulse of yours is a true dirty pulse! No stomach, no spirit, no roots, now the vital energy has been exhausted and the disease and evil are deeply planted, this is a great omen!

If you had come an hour later, it would have been hopeless!"

The owner of the medical clinic was speaking in a very critical manner, as if Lin Mo was about to burst

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3724

Once these words were spoken, Lin Mo knew that this was an uncompromising black-hearted medical school.

“He who gains God prospers, he who loses God dies, this gentleman, I see that your seal is dark, your face is obscure, your eyes are listless, your essence is already extremely depleted!”

Again?

The foreword was not followed by the words, and before even asking the patient about his basic ailments, he started making unfounded diagnoses.

These words were a joke to the ears of Lin Mo, a divine doctor.

“Then do you know that a person whose pulse moves more than four times in one breath is a dead pulse; a person whose sheepishness is like the end of a string and is sparse at first and counted at first is suffering from the weakening of both yin and yang, and that is also certain death.”

Lin Mo thought to himself, actually the words of the Yellow Emperor’s Inner Cla*sic had been applied by him, don’t sully the sage’s book if you don’t understand it!

Hearing this sentence from Lin Mo, that medicine shop owner was at a loss of how to reply, and just nodded his head repeatedly.

“Yes right, it is as you said, you are a dead vein, your life is not long.”

“Since I am a dead vein, can I still be saved?” Lin Mo asked.

“Of course there is salvation! This is an ancestral secret recipe that I have been studying for ten years, with hundreds of precious herbs, taking one pill will save your life.”

The boss introduced his pill without changing his face, blowing it out of proportion.

Lin Mo saw that the pills he brought up were just some ordinary herbs that had been dried and ground into powder and mixed into pills.

It wouldn’t do any harm if you took it, but it just didn’t have any efficacy at all.

“Sir, this is the treasure of my Chinese medicine school, the quantity is scarce.

“Only, that one pill can only temporarily unblock your meridians, the true qi in your body is too decrepit after all, you still need to take one pill daily for ten consecutive days.”

Seeing Lin Mo accept the pill, that boss began to increase the propaganda again.

“Then you go and fetch it!” Lin Mo pretended to agree.

The boss hurriedly signaled his men to go and get it, and did not forget to add: “Sir, in addition to the pill I gave you, you will also need to pay 500,000 maple leaf coins for the consultation and medicine.”

“Really black-hearted Chinese doctors, seeking money and killing people!”

After Lin Mo heard the final price calculated by the boss, he finally couldn’t pretend to go on and cursed.

“If you can’t afford it, say so earlier, don’t delay my business and slander my reputation!”

Seeing that Lin Mo didn't continue to fall for it, the boss was about to get up and blast people for fear of being poked at the truth.

"This treasure of yours is only White Peony, Perilla, Ephedra, Bitter Ginseng and Gentian Herb a mere five inexpensive herbs, I'm afraid it's not even worth five hundred Maple Leaf Coins!"

Hearing Lin Mo say his "secret recipe" word for word, the boss immediately felt weak.

I didn't expect to meet a peer this time, but he was also an expert in the use of medicine!

"I advise you to close down your business quickly, don't continue to cheat here, and seek money and kill people!"

Chinese medicine is profound and profound, benefiting all the people, and will never allow people with bad character like you to tarnish the reputation of the profession!"

The boss was furious at Lin Mo's words, "I think you're not here to see a doctor, you're here to smash the venue!"

At that moment, dozens of big men armed with machetes barged in from the back door of the medical hall and surrounded Lin Mo.

Lin Mo smiled coldly, "It seems you want to buy by force."

"Cut the crap, today you either pay the 500,000 consultation fee and medicine fee honestly or leave one of your legs behind!"

The boss looked rampantly at Lin Mo, his greedy eyes disgusting.

"I'm just afraid you won't be able to afford it!"

Lin Mo finished by flinging out dozens of flying needles with one hand, each one stabbing into the thighs of the dozens of knife-wielding big men at an extremely fast speed!

Before the big men had time to react, they only felt the numbness in their legs and threw their swords to the ground, clutching their thighs and crying out in disgust.

The boss was also stunned, "What did you do to them?"

"Aren't you a Chinese medicine practitioner? Can't you see such simple acupuncture points? What a fool!"

Only to see the boss hurriedly glance at the human acupuncture point chart posted on the wall, Lin Mo had stabbed precisely the key part of the nerves in both legs of the human body.

Once the flying needles entered, both legs went numb and the pain was unbearable.

If not removed in time, the nerves in the legs would be destroyed in less than half an hour and the legs would be crippled!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3725

At this time, the big men were in pain, so they kept urging the boss, "Boss, you quickly take out the flying needles for us!"

The boss had an ugly face, "This, the flying needles have entered the acupuncture points, I really can't take them out ah Please bear with me!

As for the cost of this disability damage to your legs, I will definitely compensate more!"

The big men cursed angrily upon hearing this, "You are at least a Chinese medicine doctor, but you can't even remove a flying needle! What's the use of asking for more money when these two legs are ruined?"

Seeing that the medical school owner couldn't help himself, they turned their heads and crawled to Lin Mo's feet again.

"This divine doctor, it was us brothers who were blind to the fact that we had accepted money from this black-hearted boss and helped him do bad things!

Now that we've come to our senses, please ask the divine doctor to be noble and take out the flying needles! We are all dragging our families with us, we can't lose our legs"

Looking at these brawny men, who were almost about to hug their legs and cry, Lin Mo came up with a solution.

"I can remove the flying needles from your legs, but you have to do one thing for me."

"Just say the word, Divine Doctor!" The big men knelt down to thank them.

"Chop off both legs of this medical school owner and throw them into the wilderness to feed the dogs."

Hearing Lin Mo's words, the owner of the medical school turned pale and was about to sneak away!

Only to see a big man in the lead immediately stop the boss with the big sword in his hand.

"Boss, you've really done a lot of black-hearted things in this period of time, and now you've messed with the big man and implicated us.

The brothers can only do it to you in order to save their lives, and don't feel aggrieved, this is the retribution you deserve!"

"How dare you any of you? If you hurt me you won't get half a cent! If you protect me well, the money for hiring goes up five times!"

The boss attempted to reap the hearts and minds of the people with money again, but the big men were no longer moved by the price of losing their legs.

"Brother, don't talk nonsense to him, if we drag on, our legs will be ruined first!"

Only to see the leader of the big man nod, immediately came a few men to press the boss to the ground to death, one of the big man raised his big knife and cut at the boss's legs"

The only thing that could be heard was a miserable scream as both legs were chopped off and blood flowed all over the ground.

Lin Mo gestured for the big men to come over and handed out a small pill for each of them to take.

A few moments later, the big men felt the flying needles in their legs slowly swimming along their meridians.

“Pay attention to the Yongquan point on the bottom of your feet.”

Lin Mo said, and the big men all took off their shoes, only to see that the flying needles that had just been stabbed into their legs by Lin Mo were gushing out of the soles of their feet a little bit!

The moment the flying needles were removed, the legs immediately stopped being numb! This was simply amazing, and the big men were in awe of Lin Mo.

After healing his legs, the big men said that if Lin Mo needed help, he could always come to this street and ask for their help, and then they dragged the half-dead boss away.

Lin Mo was interested in this medical hall, so he went inside and continued to wander around to see if he could find some good herbs to use in his alchemy.

But in the end, he found that the herbs displayed inside were all cheap goods, some of which were of poor quality, but they were also on sale.

There was no telling how many innocent patients' conditions would be delayed, or even aggravated, by these spoiled herbs!

Lin Mo destroyed them by hand and was about to leave the medicine hall, but just as he was about to walk out the door, he spotted a small, inconspicuous door hidden behind the medicine cabinet by the wall.

When he walked in, there was a very complicated eight-trigram mechanism on it, which required eight holes to be plucked to the corresponding directions of the eight-trigram diagram in order to open it.

Lin Mo only took a glance at it before turning the wheel on it with his hand.

“Qian, Kun, Zhen, Xun, Kan, Li, Burgundy, and Tui, return to your position!”

Only a sound of iron ropes rubbing together could be heard as the small door slowly opened, and there was actually something else inside!

Only before Lin Mo had even stepped into this secret room, he smelled the smell of human blood!

Sure enough! A cold light flashed in Lin Mo's eyes!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3726

Walking straight in, he only saw that there were various containers of different sizes constructed here, all tightly covered with lids.

Lin Mo casually opened a large jar, only to see that about two or three dissected corpses had been thrown into this jar!

Looking at the other containers, there were either gutted internal organs, dark red blood pulp, or chopped up human skin

This was clearly the human laboratory of the Human Snake Organisation! I had no idea that their base was still hidden here!

It's only been two days, and we've discovered two Human Snake strongholds, and there are still many more people being tortured and killed by them in hidden corners.

It seemed like it was time to wipe them out!

But judging from this current stronghold, a human lab of this scale is nothing compared to the Human Snake base that was eradicated in Block 13.

There are no other clues at the moment, so we might as well follow the vine here, wait for the rabbits, and slowly catch the big fish

Lin Mo returned to Ronald's territory and told Ronald what had happened today and what his next plans were.

He said that he would do his best to cooperate with Lin Mo and wipe out the vicious Human Snake Organization!

When he arrived at the medical centre again, Lin Mo had already changed his appearance into a young Chinese doctor with an immortal style, and his new identity was the master of the owner of the medical centre.

At this time, Lin Mo had changed into rough linen clothes, and although his newly disguised face looked a bit wooden, his face still had the same poise, but it was more than a bit cute as a teenager.

Looking at the messy shelves and poor quality medicines in the medical hall, Lin Mo decided to do a big clean-up.

He threw all the rubbish into the rubbish dump and had new Chinese medicine cabinets and some top quality herbs rebuilt.

While cleaning out the pill house owner's room, he also accidentally found a whole million Maple Leaf coins in cash under the bed!

"Insatiable greed!" Lin Mo thought to himself how many people's life-saving money this had screwed over!

Lin Mo decided to use the money to do charity clinics afterwards, to benefit the people around here that he had screwed over so badly.

As for the human body lab, for the time being, he had not found the test subjects being held there.

Lin Mo decided to leave the place untouched for the time being. Only by keeping it as it was could he avoid arousing the suspicion of the Human Snake Organisation.

The medical centre, which had been renovated by Lin Mo, had become simple and elegant, emitting a faint aroma of herbs, causing passers-by to glance at it frequently as they passed by.

“Is this a newly opened medical hall?”

At this moment, an old woman in rags walked up to the entrance of the medical hall.

“Old man, is there anything uncomfortable about your health?”

Lin Mo greeted the old man cordially, without a hint of bravado or a disgusted look.

“Can you give me a sip of water, I haven’t had any for two days.”

The old woman cautiously made her demand, her eyes very timid.

Hearing the old woman’s words, Lin Mo immediately assisted her into the medical hall and sat down, giving her some tea and refreshments to quench her thirst.

The old woman wolfed down her food and suddenly knelt down for Lin Mo with a thump.

“You are a good man, please tell the boss to lend me one of the town’s treasures, when I have enough money for medicine, I will definitely return it in full

Lin Mo understood as soon as he heard it, this was the patient who had been victimized by the black-hearted boss’s pills before!

“Old man, that boss before was my senior brother, he is no longer here, now the medicine shop is continued by me.”

As a result, when that old woman heard Lin Mo’s words, she sat down on the ground at once, her eyes full of despair.

“What can we do then, my granddaughter is getting sicker and sicker now, how can she get better without pills!”

“Old man, where is your granddaughter? Let me have a look.”

“Forget it, even your senior brother can’t cure her, and now we’re out of pills, we can only leave it to fate.”

Lin Mo thought to himself, this black-hearted boss is really good at brainwashing, to have these people so convinced by him!

Although people are dead, the residual poison is still there!

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3727

“Old man, this is an elixir I made myself, you can go back and try it on your granddaughter first.”

Lin Mo took out a modified An He Dan, which was calm and more suitable for young people to take.

The old woman took it half-heartedly and left with thanks.

Early the next morning, there was a knock on the door of the medical school.

“Boss, open the door! Come and see my granddaughter!”

Lin Mo opened the door, only to see the old woman from yesterday had come again, with a girl of about sixteen or seventeen standing beside her, in the same ragged clothes.

“Boss, your Anhe Dan really works too well! My granddaughter was coughing up a bit of blood yesterday! She couldn’t even sit up!

But after taking this elixir, she is as normal as ever today! Quickly, go and thank the boss!”

The old woman said as she pulled the girl over to Lin Mo.

“Thank you boss for saving my life, Bai Ying can’t repay me, if boss doesn’t mind, I’m willing to stay at the medical school with Ah Nan to do odd jobs, no pay, just a mouthful of food”

“Boss, our grandchildren have already been cheated out of all their savings by your black-hearted senior boss in order to cure their illnesses, so we can only wander the streets and really have nowhere to go.”

Looking at the ancestors and grandchildren begging themselves, Lin Mo agreed, it was good to stay, now the medicine house really needed some helpers.

“My senior brother is not from the same school as me, he has indeed lost his conscience, and I hate him.”

Lin Mo hurriedly explained clearly for the two of them, he didn’t want to be mentioned with that kind of person.

“You are the true divine doctor, he is a quack, we were the ones who were deceived by him before!”

The old woman was full of anger as she spoke.

“Good, you will stay in my medical school as workers, but you must be careful in your work, or I will kick them out.”

“Thank you boss, you are such a good person!”

Bai Ying’s youthful and innocent face was filled with infinite vitality, infecting Lin Mo.

“This is fifty thousand maple leaf coins, take it to buy some household items and clothes, and keep the rest for pocket money.”

The money Lin Mo gave Bai Ying was taken from that inheritance of the black-hearted boss, and it was a compensation for the grandfather and grandson.

The two accepted the money and thanked each other repeatedly.

.....

“The medical school is offering a limited time charity clinic to cure all diseases without charging a penny!”

A crisp shout rang out from the entrance of the medical hall, only to see Bai Ying holding a small flag waving her arm incessantly, and a simple consultation table was set up next to her.

Although Lin Mo was sitting at the table in rough linen clothes, he had quite an aura.

Pedestrians on the road were attracted by Bai Ying's shouting and stopped to watch.

"A cure for all diseases? It's not another scam like the last boss, is it?"

"He looks young, his medical skills are probably just average."

"But he looks good, if he can become a son-in-law in my family, my daughter will love him."

Well, it's fine for those who doubted his medical skills, but what the hell is being a flunky?

I'm a son-in-law in China, but I'm still being joked about here in the Wanxiang Islands.

"Young man, you dare to come out for a charity consultation at such a young age, you are not afraid of making a joke and ruining the reputation of your medical school."

Lin Mo was about to reply, but Bai Ying spoke up before him.

"Does this old man still recognise me?"

The old man walked into Bai Ying, "Aren't you the girl who has been lying on the street for days and is dying of illness?"

"Yes, my daughter! May I ask how you saw me a few days ago? And what is the state you see me in today?"

Bai Ying asked the old man instead!

"A few days ago, I saw you coughing up blood and your breath was as thin as a thread, so I'm afraid you're not going to live long. Today you are vibrant, your cheeks are rosy and your voice is clear and moving."

The old man was a truthful man and recounted the changes in Bai Ying's condition very clearly.

"How did you fully recover in such a short time? Could it be that"

The old uncle seemed to understand Bai Ying's hint and turned his eyes towards Lin Mo.

Medical Genius Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 3728

"That's right, it was our boss who cured me of my serious illness!"

As soon as Bai Ying said this, the crowd started talking, but it was still difficult to convince people based on this little girl's one-sided words alone.

"It is not difficult to judge the level of medical skills, just try it and see!"

At that moment a fierce-looking one-eyed butcher came and sat in front of the consultation table.

"You might heal my eyes?"

"Easy as pie." Lin Mo said in a light-hearted manner.

“Not a small mouth, this eye of mine has been useless since my mother’s womb, if you can cure me, I will kill and slaughter a pig and bring it to you every day!”

Lin Mo asked the butcher to take off his eye patch, and everyone looked dumbfounded!

It turned out that the butcher’s eye had no black eyeball, only the whites of his eyes, so even if the Great Gods came, there was nothing they could do!

Lin Mo, however, did not panic in the slightest. He gently waved his fingertips and his true qi gushed out, wiping at that eye and then retracting it.

“Alright, you cover the other eye and see if you can see anything.”

The butcher immediately did as he was told, “I can really see! I can see!” The butcher shouted excitedly.

At this moment, everyone could clearly see that the butcher’s eyes, which had only had white pupils, now had black pupils!

The magic wasn’t that fast, was it?

“Boss, you are a miracle doctor! I’ll go back and kill a pig and a sheep for you!”

The butcher had been ridiculed as a “white-eyed wolf” since he was a child because he did not have a black eye.

In order not to be bullied, he became a butcher in order to scare those who made fun of him.

Now that his eyes have been restored, he can finally start a new life for himself!

“There’s no need, if we say it’s a charity clinic, we won’t ask for any payment from you.”

At this point the crowd of onlookers were not calm, and very consciously formed a long line in front of Lin Mo’s consultation table.

This medical skill was out of this world, this was a true miracle hand!

Bai Ying was about to go forward to receive them, but was told by Lin Mo: “Close the stall!”

“Boss, is it going to end after just one charity consultation today?”

“Yes, tell them that there will only be one clinic a day, and it’s up to chance who they choose.”

Bai Ying told Lin Mo’s words to the people in line, and they could only leave helplessly.

The next day.

The next day, a queue so long that it could not be seen to the end spread out from in front of the medical centre.

Bai Ying had never seen such a grand scene before and immediately went to tell Lin Mo.

Lin Mo went out and saw that the people who came to the clinic were all suffering from the most common diseases and did not need special treatment at all.

They were just trying to take advantage of the situation and did not want to pay for the consultation.

“I only do charity consultations for those who have a destiny, your illnesses are not difficult and complicated, there is no need to waste time here.”

Lin Mo said and went in the door, the crowd in the queue were not only not angry when their minds were torn apart, but they had a higher opinion of Lin Mo.

“What a divine doctor, just one glance and you can tell that what we have is a minor illness!”

“Yes! I wanted to experience the miraculous hands of a god doctor, but I won’t have the chance this time.”

.....

In this way, Lin Mo only chose one patient suffering from a malady to have a charity consultation every day, while other ordinary patients came to see the doctor at home for normal fees.

And the patients who were cured by Lin Mo all became vegetarian spokespersons for Lin Mo.

Of course, there was also a special group of women who visited the Medicine House almost every day, not to see a doctor, but to see a person!

After all, it was not Lin Mo’s medical skills that convinced them, but Lin Mo’s beauty.

In this way, the business of Lin Mo’s Medical Hall was getting better and better, and it was bustling every day!

The outside world even spread the rumour: Boss Mo, the divine doctor with the holy face! Flesh from dry bones! The Pill King is reborn!

The pharmacy is no longer just a place to see a doctor, but also a place for health, health care and beauty

Although the medicine hall was doing a brisk business, Lin Mo did not have the slightest hint of joy on his face.

Why hadn’t the people from the Human Snake Organization been lured in yet?

Could it be that they have already left Block 12?

On this night, a sharp knocking sound suddenly sounded at the door of the medical hall.

Lin Mo opened the door and saw a man in black robes standing in front of the door, as if he had been injured.

When Lin Mo’s afterimage skimmed over the black-robed man’s arm, the mark once again stung his eyes.

The Human Snake Mark! This black-robed man in front of him was from the Human Snake Organisation!

After waiting for so long, one had finally come.

And the black-robed man did not recognise Lin Mo and asked in surprise, "Where is the previous owner of this medicine shop?"

"It's dead, I'm his senior brother, and my senior brother entrusted this pill house to me before he died."

Lin Mo conversed with him with a calm face.

"Then has your senior brother ever said anything else to you, such as the Eight Trigrams Chamber."

The black-robed man revealed a dangerous expression, as if he was threatening Lin Mo not to act rashly.

"Of course, my senior brother has explained everything clearly with me, I will complete the next task in my senior brother's place, please rest assured, my lord!"

Lin Mo guessed that this black-robed man was going to the secret room, so he took the initiative to go forward and lead the way.

Seeing Lin Mo skillfully open the eight gossip chamber, the black-robed man's face finally showed a hint of relaxation.

This secret gossip room could only be opened by people who were fully trusted within the Human Snake Organisation.

Since that boss had told Lin Mo the password, it meant that Lin Mo had already gone through a number of tests within the Human Snake Organisation before he was allowed to join the organisation.

When he reached the secret room, which was the human laboratory, Lin Mo attentively handed a black glass bottle to the black-robed man.

The black-robed man nodded towards Lin Mo, meaning that Lin Mo was quite an eye-catcher.

After the black robed man finished the bottle of potion that could stimulate his physical abilities, he took two more bottles by the way and put them in his body pocket.

"Not much stock left, time to grab the materials, keep an eye on it lately, get some suitable ones to use first."

The black robed man looked at the few remaining glass bottles in the box and said to Lin Mo with a frown.

"Yes, Captain Sogang, I've recently selected a batch of good materials, I'll be able to get them soon, when are you coming over next?"

Lin Mo saw the name and rank on the black-robed man's right shoulder staff execution plate when he was drinking the potion just now.

"Yo, you're doing a good job for a newbie! If you really get your hands on this batch of materials, I'll promote you well.

As for when I'll come next, it's still hard to say, the matter that Lord Special Envoy has explained is not yet finished."

Suo Gang hardly felt defensive towards Lin Mo, and even wanted to cultivate him properly.

“Thank you, Captain, if you have any problems, just talk to me, maybe I can help in a small way.”

“Fine, you can do the matter at hand first.”

Although Suo Gang was very satisfied with Lin Mo, after all, he had just joined the Human Snake Organisation, so he did not want to tell him that much yet, and he was wary.

Lin Mo also did not pursue the matter further, only when he had completely gained the trust of Suo Gang could he learn more about the Human Snake Organisation.

“I’m about to leave, so do your job well, and yes, remember to tattoo your mark.”

Suo Gang explained Lin Mo some more rules and secret codes of the Human Snake Organization and left.

Lin Mo waited a short distance for Suo Gang to leave and wanted to follow him to find out what was going on, but then Bai Ying came down from upstairs.

“Boss, have you got a patient? I’ll receive them!”

“No, it was a man who asked for directions and has already left.”

“So that’s it, who asked for directions in the middle of the night? How strange!” Bai Ying muttered and went to close the door behind him, only to see Lin Mo still standing in the hall.

“Boss, aren’t you going to rest?”

Lin Mo said inwardly anxiously, “You go to bed first, I’ll sleep later.”

He didn’t want to involve this innocent girl in the rights and wrongs of the Human Snake Organisation, it was safest for her not to know anything.

When Bai Ying returned to his room, Lin Mo immediately went out to chase after her, but he had long since failed to detect Sogang’s scent.

Not catching up with Suo Gang, Lin Mo went back to the Medicine House and began to think about his next plan.

Just now, when Suo Gang was leaving, he asked himself to pierce the mark of the human snake, but that mark was really too disgusting.

Lin Mo used a little internal energy and the mark appeared on the inner wall of his arm, only to disappear in a flash.

This mark would only appear when he saw a member of the Human Snake Organisation, it would disappear on its own normally.

As for the batch of materials that Suo Gang had explained, Lin Mo's mouth curled into an evil smile as he thought about it.

The skills in the ancestral jade pendant did not just allow him to cure diseases, but would also allow him to become an expert in poison casting.

After dawn, Lin Mo asked Bai Ying to go to the market of wholesale herbs to buy a large quantity of Broken Heart Grass and Ying Ying Flower, both of which were common and highly poisonous ingredients!

Although Lin Mo did not explain the reason, Bai Ying did not ask much, she knew that a divine doctor like the boss must be unique in his drug development

The fact that one understands the boss does not mean that others can also understand, after all, the pharmacy purchased a huge amount of poisonous herbs at once, and it is indeed not good to explain if one is found out.

In order to avoid causing unnecessary trouble, Bai Ying specially dressed up and ran to the herb market while it was dark.

After buying the poisonous herbs, he bought a batch of beneficial herbs similar to the two herbs to cover them. I must say that although Bai Ying was still young, he was indeed very resourceful and capable.

This was also the reason why Lin Mo dared to leave such a risky matter to Bai Ying, but with confidence.

"Boss, it's all in the backyard, will you go and see how the quality of this herb I picked is?"

Bai Ying ran in panting, the broken hair in front of his forehead was soaked with sweat.

Lin Mo went forward to check, and the two herbs were still very fresh, the Ying Ying flowers were incredibly showy and had numerous buds; the Broken Gut Grass rhizome was slightly yellowed, so it was evident that it already had a rich inner substance.

"Well done!" Lin Mo finished by throwing a money bag to Bai Ying, who nimbly caught it and opened it to see that it was ten thousand maple leaf coins!

"Thank you boss! I'll go buy some new clothes for Ah Nan!"

Bai Ying got the reward money and bounced away.

Seeing Bai Ying leave, Lin Mo began to process the herbs.

Seeing Lin Mo's eyes closed, he urged the divine power of the jade pendant and immediately transmitted a stream of true qi to his right hand!

As his right hand gently danced over the herbs, he saw the juice from the Broken Gut Grass and Ying Ying Flower condense into droplets of water, which continued to rise in mid-air.

In no time at all, two balls of water were formed and each fell into two containers.

The sap from the Broken Gut Gra*s was transparent, while the sap from the Ying Ying Flower was pink because it contained the liquid from the petals.

Lin Mo took some of each of the two juices in proportion and blended them together, immediately forming a light red colour that was comparable to the colour of the potential potion inside the black gla*s bottle of the Human Snake Organisation!

But the colour was like far from enough, Lin Mo began to recall the taste of the potion he had mistakenly drunk on the Human Serpent warship before, with the feeling he had in his body when he drank it.

The taste was was a heavy plasma flavor with a scarlet sweet taste

Where to get blood? Lin Mo suddenly thought of the one-eyed dragon butcher who had previously volunteered for the clinic.

The next day, Lin Mo instructed Bai Ying to go and ask the butcher for some animal blood like pig's blood and cow's blood to come over.

"Yo, is Bai Ying's girl here to buy meat? This is a freshly slaughtered goat, this lamb chop is fat and lean, it's fresh, bring it to your boss as a token of my appreciation."

When the butcher saw Bai Ying, he hastily stopped his work and handed the lamb chops to Bai Ying in a neatly wrapped package.

Bai Ying was not polite and took it with his hand, after all, the boss often gave the butcher some health medicines and other things.

"This time, I'm not here to buy meat, the boss asked me to fetch some fresh animal blood from you."

Hearing Bai Ying say that, the butcher was curious.

"What do you need that for? Is it good with meat?"
