

Chapter 170

Colleen shocked. She couldn't believe her eyes. Wasn't this the pervert who had bumped into her just now outside of the bathroom?

"Hi, we meet again." Jason was polite and smiled as he waved his hand.

Gomer was a sly old fox, so he understood what happened instantly. He smiled respectfully. "Young master, do you know Colleen, the CEO of Prosperity Pharmaceutical?"

Jason scratched his head awkwardly. "I just met her outside the bathroom. I didn't expect this coincidence to happen."

After the group took their seats, Gomer deliberately arranged the seats so Colleen was next to Jason. This made his heart beat faster and he became absent-minded.

The reason for this was Colleen's voluptuous body. He couldn't take his eyes away from it.

During the meal, Gomer and the others explained to Jason about the cooperation with Bi Kang Pharmacy.

Jason listened attentively. After all, it was Cindy's company. Then he waved his hand. "It's up to you guys. You must invest one billion dollars in Bi Kang right away. I don't want any delays, understood?"

"Understood."

All the big shots from the domestic pharmaceuticals nodded in unison.

If anyone saw this, they would be scared out of their wits.

These were top businessmen, all of whom had net worth of more than ten billion dollars.

But at this moment, they behaved like primary school students in front of Jason; they were extremely respectful.

Colleen was scared. She told herself that she had to win Master Smith's affection.

Colleen finally saw an opportunity when the dinner session was done. "Master Smith... Master Smith, can you give me your phone number?"

Jason turned around and looked at Colleen—who was a little embarrassed—and replied, "Okay."

She was so excited that she had successfully gotten Jason's phone number. "Thank you, Master Smith."

Before leaving, Jason went to the toilet. When he arrived in the lobby, he saw something interesting.

Randy was greeting the CEOs of his family pharmaceutical companies with a smile on his face. He was very respectful.

"Chairman Wang, Chairman Song, Chairman Cai, I didn't expect to see you here. It's a great honor."

Randy greeted the board members politely.

Every CEO present there was a big shot. Each was strong enough to influence the domestic pharmaceutical field.

They were all entrepreneurs who had recently come to Shang Jiang City to negotiate the cooperation with Bi Kang Pharmacy!

Randy was very excited now. If he could start a relationship with them, his future would be bright.

His family's business could rise to a whole new level.

Cindy would then definitely return to his side!

The CEOs nodded and smiled, but they were looking around. It was as if they were looking for something.

"Where is the young master? Why hasn't he come down yet?" Gomer whispered.

"I don't know. I think he has gone to the restroom. Let's wait a little longer." Chairman Wang said.

Upon hearing this, Randy's heart skipped a beat. These CEOs didn't seem to like him at all.

Who was this young master?

It seemed that he was someone who was powerful enough to make the big shots from domestic pharmaceuticals wait for him.

Could it be that he was the Smith Group's young master from capital city?

Randy was shocked.

Randy only needed to think about it for a moment to understand what he was going to do. He had to get to know Master Smith, even if just to become acquaintances.

"Mr. Song, are you talking about the Master

Smith; the one from the Smith Group in the capital city?" Randy asked with a smile.

Gomer smiled and turned to see a man walking towards him. He looked very happy.

"Young master, where have you been?"

Gomer and the other CEOs walked over quickly.

Upon hearing this, Randy turned his head and looked in the direction the CEOs went, and he was shocked by what he saw!

"Jason?!"

"That's impossible!"

"Absolutely impossible!"

But that was happening in front of his own eyes.

Gomer and the other influential figures from domestic pharmaceutical companies gathered around respectfully at this moment, "Young master."

Jason nodded indifferently and he looked at Randy

"Randy, how have you been?" Jason smiled calmly, but there was a hint of sarcasm in it

Randy was completely dumbfounded. He could not believe what he was seeing.

All the big shots who had a net worth of more than ten billion each were respectful toward a loser like Jason.

"Is this a joke?"

"Mr. Song, have you mistaken him for someone else? He's famous for being a good-for-nothing!"

Randy didn't believe it and glared at Jason.

Gomer's face darkened and he glanced around. He was furious with Randy. 'Randy, what are you talking about? Are you insulting the young Master? Shut up!'

Thud!

Randy panicked and hurriedly bowed and apologized, 'Chairman... Chairman Song, you misunderstand me. I didn't mean that. It's him. His name is Jason. He's not a young master at all. He's just a loser. Have you been deceived by him?'

"This must be the case!"

He didn't expect that Jason would con people.

It must be that he wanted to help Cindy, so he pretended to be Master Smith to deceive Mr. Song and the others. He was really shameless!

"Jason, honestly, why are you pretending to be Master Smith? Can a loser like you con them with his name?"

Randy was angry, and he pointed at Jason fiercely.

Slap!

Chairman Song immediately slapped Randy on the face.

"How dare you! Who said you could talk to the young master like this?"

Gomer was furious. "Randy's family just owns a small medical company, how dare he talk like this to the young master?! Such insolence! He's dead!"

Even if Randy's father—He Guangyao—had come, he would not have been so rude to the young master!

"Mr. Song, you have fooled by this loser. He is purely a fool."

Randy still wouldn't give up.

However, at this moment, Jason looked at him calmly. "Randy, I already told you to not think too highly of yourself. There are a lot more people who are more powerful than you are. In my eyes, you are nothing more than a puny insect. I didn't hurt you for Cindy's sake."

Upon hearing this, Randy's heart trembled in fear.

He shook his head desperately and looked angry. He roared, "Impossible! This is absolutely impossible!"

However, the evidence was right in front of him.

Especially when he saw several pharmaceutical big shots escorting Jason out respectfully. When he saw them getting into a Bentley, Randy's last doubts disappeared.

"How can this be?"

"Jason is the Master Smith of the Smith Group in the capital city?"

"Fk!"

"He's just a loser!"

"Why?"

Randy was furious. He pushed a few of his men and roared, "Even if he is the young master of the Smith Group, so what? Shang Jiang City is Randy's territory. I must kill him!"

He was furious.

He had completely lost his mind.

Randy had been pampered by everyone since he was a child, so he was spoilt.

Now that the loser Jason had revealed himself to be the young master of the Smith's Group which was the talk of the town for these past few days, Randy was enraged.

"If he's a loser, then what am I?"

"Wait, does Cindy know about this?"

Randy shivered in fear.

If Cindy knew about this, then what should he do?

Thinking of this, Randy immediately called Cindy and probed, 'Cindy, I want to ask you something. Do you know what Jason's job is?'

Cindy had just left the company and was on the way to the hospital when she received he phone call from Randy. She was stunned and asked in confusion, "Why are you asking this out of the blue?"

Upon hearing her tone, Randy understood that Cindy did not know Jason's true identity, so he hurriedly replied, "Nothing, oh, I have something to do. Talk later."

Hanging up the phone, Randy left Juxian Chamber with a dark face.

Meanwhile, Jason happened to bump into Cindy when he returned to the hospital.

The two of them still weren't talking, so they did not pay any attention to each other.

However, Cindy was obviously much calmer. She came over first, "Jason, I was wrong. Is that what you want to hear?"

Jason didn't want to be angry with Cindy. He crossed his arms and asked coldly, "And where did you go wrong?"

Cindy hooked Jason's arm and said pitifully "I should trust my husband unconditionally. I should discuss everything with my husband. I shouldn't have met Randy in private and I shouldn't have lied to you."

Jason smiled gently, "Tell me, what's on your mind?"

When Cindy heard Jason's tone, she knew that he had forgiven her. She immediately smiled. "Dear, actually I had a selfish intention when I met him that day. I wanted to help the company with his connections and funds. But you must believe me. I really have nothing to do with him. Now, I only have love for you in my heart. You are my husband."

Jason rolled his eyes at Cindy, and he scratched her nose. "I know you've been under a lot of pressure recently, but remember to discuss with me when you need something in the future. I can help you, understand?"

Cindy nodded and held Jason's arm tightly. She leaned into his arms and closed her eyes. She said with a sweet and happy smile, "It's good to have you by my side, Jason."

The two of them leaned against each other without saying anything more.

This was a simple but sweet life.

However, all of a sudden, Cindy got up in a hurry. She covered her mouth, rushed into the bathroom and retched again.

Jason frowned and was very worried. He chased after her, patted Cindy's back and asked, "Cindy, are you all right? Why have you been retching so much recently?"

Cindy shook her head. She washed her face with cold water "It's okay. I've been under a lot of pressure recently, so I probably haven't been eating well."

"Really?"

Jason was very worried about Cindy's health. He knew that she had been staying up until late in the night these days.

Cindy was about to say something, but her mind suddenly went blank. She opened her eyes wide and said in surprise, 'Ja... Jason, I... I'm not pregnant, am I...?'

"What the f*ck!"

Jason was stunned. All he could do was stare at Cindy.

Without saying a word, Jason suddenly held Cindy in his arms and rushed to the emergency room. "Doctor, please check my wife, and make it fast!"

In the ob-gyn department.

Cindy was sitting there looking very nervous. A middle-aged man in front of her was feeling her pulse with a serious expression on his face.

Jason stood next to Cindy anxiously and pressed on her shoulder. He was looking very anxious.

It was very late and there was no one in the specialist department save for a few doctors on duty.

"Doctor, what is it? Is my wife pregnant?" Jason asked anxiously.
