

Medical Genius's Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 343

Ellie grabbed Matthew anxiously, saying, "Matthew, y-you better leave first. I-It will be bad once the police get here..."

"No problem!" Matthew replied with a faint smile. "They can't do anything to me even though I don't have an invitation!"

Charlie sneered, "Matthew, do you really think you're powerful now because Cunningham Pharmaceuticals is in Sasha's hands?"

This conference is an important event in the medical sector of the six southern states, and everyone here are giants in the industry. Cunningham Pharmaceuticals is nothing here, so even Sasha won't be able to protect you this time!"

Charlie deliberately avoided the topic about Matthew taking part in the conference to make him look bad, but Matthew simply snorted and didn't say anything.

Subsequently, another group of security officers came up aggressively and Mr. Wellington, who was hopping mad, ordered, "That's him! Get him for me and break his limbs! Damn you! How dare you cause trouble at Thousand Lakes Manor? You're dead!"

The crowd which had gathered all looked at Matthew in disgust.

"He's merely riding on his wife's success, but he's acting so insolently. Does he really think that he's some big shot? Also, all those businesses belong to his wife's family. Even if it belonged to him, it's too small to make a difference!"

“He’s asking for it by causing trouble here! A lesson should be taught to a person like him; that should put him in his place!”

Someone chuckled and said, “It won’t be as simple as a lesson this time!”

The security guards were surrounding Matthew menacingly and were ready to strike when Crystal and her friends happened to descend the staircase.

Seeing her, Matthew immediately blurted, “You can ask that lady over there how I got in here!”

Turning to look at who he meant, everyone was startled to see that it was Crystal. Mr. Wellington immediately panicked and said anxiously, “Lad, don’t just point your finger at anyone!”

Do you know who she is? She’s the granddaughter of Mr. Harrison and the Young Lady of the Harrison Family, Crystal Harrison. Who do you think you are to harass Miss Harrison? You must really have a death wish!”

Meanwhile, Charlie was stunned by Crystal’s beauty when he saw her and his eyes sparkled at the mention of her name.

So she’s Crystal Harrison? What a stunning woman! The Cunninghams will definitely be able to enjoy a meteoric rise if I marry her! he secretly plotted.

Seeing the commotion, Annie asked in a puzzled tone, “Who’s that, Crystal? Why is he pointing at you while speaking?”

In the midst of her laughter, Crystal turned her head to look and her face fell at the sight.

What’s wrong with this guy? Did he just get into trouble again immediately after entering the venue?

Lucas chuckled, "That's the guy Crystal is betrothed to!"

Her friends burst into laughter and her face flushed a bright red as she glared at him. "Shut up! He merely knows my grandfather and that has nothing to do with me! What a troublesome person he is!"

"Miss Harrison, do you want me to throw him out, then?" Lucas offered with a grin.

Crystal hesitated before shaking her head. "Forget it, my grandfather already made his instructions clear. It will embarrass him if we throw him out now. Whatever, you guys go ahead while I take care of this matter!"

"Crystal is right," Annie said while nodding her head. "Alright then, we'll go to the entrance since Young Master Hughes is almost here. Crystal, make it quick and don't miss meeting him."

After giving her a nod, Crystal headed over to the scene and asked with knitted brows, "What happened here?"

Mr. Wellington put on a pleasing smile and greeted her, "Miss Harrison, these two slipped in without an invitation card and wanted to steal something. They even beat us up after they were caught and I'm taking care of the situation now!"

Medical Genius's Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 344

Crystal's expression turned cold when she heard what happened.

After almost getting into a fight with the security at the entrance earlier, he's beating up people once he got in? Where did such a barbarian come from? I wasn't paying attention for only a second and he has already caused such a huge mess. Just what kind of person did Grandpa acquaint himself with? It's not gentlemanly at all to hit someone in such a classy place!

Ever since young, Crystal received the most high-end education and the people she met were all from the upper class society who paid great attention to etiquette and mannerism. Thus, she held only contempt for people who were not chivalrous and not gentlemanly.

Everything which Matthew did made her feel extremely disgusted. If it wasn't because her grandfather had instructed her, she really couldn't be bothered with this mess at all!

Giving Matthew a glare, she said, "Mr. Wellington, I was the one who brought him into the venue. Is there a problem?"

"Huh?" Gasps could be heard echoing from the crowd and they all looked surprised.

What was happening now?

A wimpy live-in son-in-law like Matthew, who was just a janitor at the hospital, was actually brought in here by Miss Harrison!

What was the relationship between the both of them?

Why did Crystal know someone as insignificant as a janitor and even personally brought him into such a high-end conference?

The Cunningham siblings were equally stunned that Matthew actually knew Crystal, especially Charlie, who had turned pale.

What's going here? How is Matthew even qualified to be acquainted with the goddess-like Crystal Harrison? Previously, it was Leanna who spoke up for him, and now it's Crystal? What's so great about him who's merely a live-in son-in-law? There's no way he's better than me, the Young Master of Cunningham!

"Miss Harrison, did you make a mistake?" Charlie blurted. "Were you somehow fooled by this live-in son-in-law? Or maybe you got the wrong person because he looked like someone you know?"

Immediately, her brows furrowed into a tight knot; her grandfather even wanted to pair her up with him but he was already married, and a live-in son-in-law at that.

That's downright nonsense, Grandpa!

No matter how outstanding he might be, Crystal could never take another's husband! Moreover, she totally looked down on the fact that he was such a barbaric and unreasonable person.

There was not a single cell in Matthew that could match up to her, but she kept her opinions to herself and said indifferently, "Do you think I'll mistake someone else for the person I brought in personally?"

"This..." Charlie was speechless while Mr. Wellington panicked. "Miss Harrison, t-this—"

She frowned and interjected, "Is there a problem? Do you still need to see my invitation even after I told you that I was the one who brought him in?"

"N-No, there's no need..." Mr. Wellington replied, waving his hands frantically.

Mr. Harrison was the one in charge of this conference, which made Crystal one of the organizers by extension. So, who would have the guts to say anything about the person she brought in?

However, the rich woman refused to give up and cried, "But he beat up the people here while the girl he brought in soiled my dress! Not only did they refuse to pay, they even hit me! Miss Harrison, are they allowed to be so unreasonable simply because you brought them in personally?"

Just as Crystal thought it wasn't possible anymore, her face turned even more solemn and her disgust for Matthew deepened.

He actually had the cheek to hook up with another girl when he is already a live-in son-in-law. How can such a shameless person exist in this world? In addition to that, he is also unreasonable. After denying compensation for soiling another person's dress, he even beat her up? Shameless, barbaric and utterly ungentlemanly. Just what does Grandpa see in this guy?

Completely dismayed at Matthew, she couldn't bring herself to help him anymore and declared, "I merely brought him in. Anything else he does is not my problem!"

Her words cracked up the crowd and Charlie breathed a sigh of relief, thinking that she had come over to get Matthew out of trouble.

Unexpectedly, she drew the line between the both of them in the end. Matthew was undoubtedly in deep trouble now!