

Medical Genius's Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 333

Annoyed, Crystal answered, "Guys! Enough! I'm already so hacked off and you guys are still making fun of me! I seriously don't know what Grandpa was thinking about."

How could he ask me to pick up some stranger? Who the hell is he? Why can't he just come here by himself? Ugh, forget it. I need to stop talking and go get him now."

Immediately, some of the kids said, "Crystal, if you leave, what should we do then? Your friends are all here and you are going to pick up some bumpkin you don't even know? Is this what you should do to your friends?"

Crystal was defenseless. "Then tell me what should I do? How am I supposed to reject when grandpa wanted me to go? If I don't do it, he would scold me!"

At the moment, Annie had an idea and she grinned, "Crystal, you don't have to do it. Lucas hasn't arrived yet. I can give him a call and ask him to go get that bumpkin here."

Crystal was puzzled. "W-Will that be alright?"

Laughing in response, Annie said, "It should be alright. He will be here either way. Besides, we can let Lucas test him out. If he is some nasty scumbag, it would be better for you to not meet up with him. What happened if he clung to you after today?"

Arh, it would be a whole lot of trouble for you! Remember? Young Master Hughes will be here in a moment. Don't you want to meet the heir of the ten greatest families in Eastshire? He is one of the most influential people of the younger generation around here. Crystal, we have high hopes on you!”

Crystal was in hesitation. It was true that she was really curious about Travis.

From what she had seen, the heirs from the Eastcliff’s noble families were mostly some foolish coxcomb and none of them was exactly her type.

Besides, as the heir of the ten greatest families, Travis was definitely the leader of the younger generations. Only this kind of man could stand beside her!

After thinking for a while, Crystal slowly nodded her head. “Okay. Give Lucas a call now!”

Instantly, Annie chuckled. “That’s my girl! Don’t worry, I’ll ask Lucas to check out whether he’s handsome or not. If he is neither handsome nor rich, then we can just shoo him away instead of allowing him to stain our vision! Hahaha!”

After waiting for almost half an hour, a car finally stopped in front of Matthew.

A tough-looking young man walked down from the car and looked around. Finally, he laid his eyes on Matthew. “Hey, are you Matthew Larson?” The young man asked.

Confusingly, Matthew replied, “Yes I am, and you are?”

Taking a look at Matthew from his head to toe, the young man did not answer. The corner of his mouth quirked after realizing that Matthew was wearing some off-the-rack clothing.

“I’m Lucas. Miss Crystal asked me here to give you a lift.”

Taking in the information, Matthew replied in surprise, “Oh, thank you! Sorry if I had given you trouble!”

Lucas glared. "I need to pick my girlfriend up later and she hates it when the car smells. So, you can't ride in my car! Here are 100 dollars, go get yourself a taxi!"

Lucas pulled out a 100 dollar cash from his pocket, dumping it on the floor in front of Matthew and walked away.

Frowning, Matthew thought, What's wrong with this person? Is he trying to shoo me off like I'm a beggar?

"Wait!" Matthew called out. "Even though you can't give me a ride, I'll still have to thank you for coming all the way here and notified me. Please keep this. I have the money myself." Matthew left right after the talk.

Instantly, Lucas was baffled and he groaned, "Is he dumb? How could he reject my money? Fine, I'll keep it then! It's not my business if Crystal asks later."

Medical Genius's Unspeakable Marriage Chapter 334

7 p.m. at the Thousand Lakes Manor.

A Maybach slowly approached the parking lot and came to a stop. The Cunningham's siblings, Charlie and Lily, then got out of the car.

"Brother, how do I look tonight?" Lily asked excitedly.

"Amazing!" Charlie nodded in delight. "Don't worry, you're always the pretty one. There's no way the others wouldn't be fascinated by you!"

There are going to be so many decent young men tonight, who will definitely be stunned by you! If one of the sons from the noble families likes you, this will be our chance to kick Sasha out!”

Eagerly, Lily answered, “Don’t be worried, Brother. I heard that Young Master Hughes will be here personally tonight.

I couldn’t talk to him when I met him in a rush last time at the Cunningham Pharmaceuticals. Besides, I wasn’t looking my best that day, which was probably why he didn’t notice me. However, I’m going to take him down tonight!”

Charlie grinned, “Seemed like you were prepared. Well then, I hope we won’t let grandpa down. He took so much effort to get us here. We shouldn’t embarrass the Cunninghams today!”

Bobbing her head in agreement, Lily asked, “Oh right, is it true that Joseph Harrison will be emceeing this year’s conference?”

Upon hearing that, Charlie said, “Eastcliff is the host of this conference. Of course, our local famous doctor, the Master of the Watkins Family, is supposed to emcee tonight. But no one knows why the Watkins had all vanished suddenly. Even their residence was empty.

It seemed like the authority had got no choice but to ask either Dr. York or Mr. Harrison to handle the event. Unfortunately, Dr. York has been busy lately, so Mr. Harrison will be hosting the conference. But, I don’t think Joseph can handle the situation tonight, and so I guess our representative would be the long-lost Dr. Ellis!”

Lily’s eyes were enlightened in response to her brother’s answer. “Dr. Ellis?! He’s a real big shot! I heard that even the Old Master Hughes is a close friend of his. No one in the Eastshire’s medical industry would disobey Dr. Ellis if he ever says something.”

Like-mindedly, Charlie yearned, "It's true. Don't you know many people are here tonight just for Dr. Ellis!"

Suddenly, Lily said, "But Young Master Hughes said that Leonard the Acupuncturist from Mightwater will also be here tonight."

Charlie shook his head. "Although the skill of Leonard the Acupuncturist can be ranked among the top 10 in the country, he is still from Mightwater, which means there's no way he will be more influential than Dr. Ellis in the Eastshire.

Besides, he's only here tonight to help out with the conference. He'll only be doing something if there's an emergency. The spotlight will still be on Dr. Ellis!"

In sudden realization, Lily chuckled, "But then again, Dr. Ellis's influence in the Eastshire is prominent! Rumor has it that many people are trying their best to get in here tonight after they found out that Dr. Ellis would also attend the conference. Even the price of the tickets for tonight's conference is incredibly high!"

Charlie responded as he nodded, "As expected, do you think it was easy for us to get the tickets? Grandpa bought them from an old friend of his with great effort, so don't you ever waste the tickets. Your target tonight will be Young Master Hughes and mine... hehe... "

"Nah, stop laughing so creepily. I know you better than you do! Allegedly, Mr. Harrison's granddaughter, Crystal Harrison, will also be here tonight. You have always had your eyes on her, right? I'm going to see how pretty this legendary campus belle is!" Lily pouted.
