

NH

Zhang Tiankai's voice was filled with mockery.

What he had to do now was detract Bao Rongdong as much as he could and make sure his credibility and authority went down as much as possible.

How else would he get the chance to become Chairman?

Zhang Tiankai had coveted the Chairman's position for years, but he only came close to it now. Since Bao Rongdong was such a coward, he didn't deserve the position anymore.

It was Zhang Tiankai's time.

The atmosphere in the main hall was depressing.

None of the few remaining leaders wanted to die. And they were keenly aware that Bao Rongdong wasn't going to step up to his position now.

He didn't even react at all after this tragic incident befell Qing Sect. What else was he capable of doing other than hiding in the Bao family estate?

Bao Rongdong's credibility in Qing Sect had hit rock bottom, and countless members cursed and spat at him in private.

"Many of our men have died," said Zhang Tiankai, "If this continues, everyone will die!"

It's an embarrassment to die at Jiang Ning's hand. Qing Sect's 100-year old foundation stood strong 20 years ago, but it is getting ruined by a little brat now. Can you take it lying down?" Zhang Tiankai said loudly.

NH

Yin Yun and the others looked equally upset.

It wasn't a mere question of indignation but one of continuity and survival.

No one anticipated Jiang Ning to be this insane. He provoked them within their homeland, and now he had personally come here to execute six of their leaders!

No one knew who was next.

"Then what do you think we should do now?" asked Lin Huan as he stared at Zhang Tiankai. "Do you have any ideas?"

In a matter of days, so many people died. Jiang Ning wasn't easy to handle.

"Should Qing Sect fear Jiang Ning?" asked Zhang Tiankai as he smiled. "I tell you, we didn't end up like this because we were incapable. It was because...we lacked a brave and driven chairman!"

Each one of them was keenly aware of this.

Zhang Tiankai stopped beating around the bush.

"I think it's time we change the chairman!"

NH

“That’s right!” said Qian Hu immediately, “Bao Rongdong has completely let us down with those actions of his. He doesn’t have the right to continue being the chairman. When Qing Sect needed him to stand up for us, he went into hiding. When the Qing Sect was insulted, he conceded defeat. What use is a chairman like that?”

Qian Hu reached his hand out and pointed at Zhang Tiankai as he said, “I recommend that the leader of the Dragons, Zhang Tiankai, take over Qing Sect as its new chairman! He will lead us to new heights!”

Zhang Tiankai stood there with a calm and collected smile on his face.

He looked around before asking, “I agree with Qian Hu’s suggestion. What about the rest of you?”

Lin Huan and the others looked at each other. At this point, what other choice did they have?

“I agree,” said Lin Huan as he nodded.

After all, no matter who became chairman, it would never be Lin Huan. It was enough to stay alive and keep his position.

“In that case, I agree too,” said the leader of the Mice, Yang Bai. Since Lin Huan agreed, he nodded too.

“I agree too,” said the leader of the Rabbits, Yan

NH

Fei, as he nodded.

It was the general trend and popular sentiment, so he couldn't change anything.

Only Bao Rongdong's trusted subordinate, the leader of the Snakes, Yin Yun, was left.

There was a complicated expression on Yin Yun's face.

Everyone else had voted for it, so it didn't matter even if she didn't agree to it.

She even speculated that those other leaders might not have died at Jiang Ning's hands at all, but were killed by Zhang Tiankai and Qian Hu here!

They had been eyeing the chairman's position for a long time!

The only reason why they didn't kill her was to get her, Bao Rongdong's most trusted subordinate, to agree and bow to them as well.

Rate the Translation to Get 2 Pearls.

Wait! I Have Something to Say!

Send a Gift to the Writer!

NH

If even Bao Rongdong's trusted subordinate was disappointed in Bao Rongdong and voted for Zhang Tiankai, it would firmly legitimize his promotion to the chairman.

They were cunning. They were extremely crafty people here!

"I agree," said Yin Yun slowly after inhaling deeply and staring hard at Zhang Tiankai.

She knew she had no other choice.

"Hahaha!" said Zhang Tiankai as he laughed out loud when he heard Yin Yun's response. "Thank you for your support! I, Zhang Tiankai, am unfit to be the chairman. But since everyone wants me to serve as the chairman, I won't disappoint you!"

Then he said loudly, "Then from now on, Qing Sect's chairman is no longer Bao Rongdong, but I, Zhang Tiankai! I promise to bring Qing Sect to its previous heights. And our first step to greatness is by trampling Jiang Ning's corpse under our feet!"

Things had gone as Zhang Tiankai planned.

Zhang Tiankai was suddenly grateful for Jiang Ning.

If Jiang Ning hadn't suddenly appeared, he wouldn't have the chance.

Now he had to kill Jiang Ning and Bao Rongdong and stabilize his position by trampling their bodies under his feet!

NH

“My men have located Jiang Ning’s position. Please prepare, everyone. We have to make Las Vegas shake with our battle!” roared Zhang Tiankai.

Meanwhile.

Jiang Ning raised his head and looked at the Bao family’s estate front door.

“He has been inside and never once left. I’m certain he’s in there.”

A silhouette flashed, and Brother Gou appeared next to Jiang Ning to report this.

They were in charge of keeping an eye on Bao Rongdong and to ensure that he didn't run off. They had stood guard here for days, almost without any rest.

“Good,” said Jiang Ning as he nodded. “Keep standing guard here.”

“Big Boss, don’t you need us to come with you?” asked Brother Gou a little worried.

They knew that Bao Rongdong wasn’t only the highly skilled fighter in the Bao household. It could be dangerous for Jiang Ning to enter on his own.

“There’s no need. You have to wait for other guests,” said Jiang Ning before walking straight into the estate.

NH

Before Brother Gou realized what he was talking about, Fei put an arm around his neck and chuckled, "Hope we can catch a big fish today. Bao Rongdong...isn't good enough."

Then their silhouettes disappeared once more.

Guards patrolled outside the Bao family estate from time to time. From a distance, they saw Jiang Ning and instantly went on high alert!

DADADA!

The sound of footsteps running over could be heard instantly.

"Who goes there?"

"Stop him!"

"If anyone comes close, kill them all!"

Inside the estate's study.

Bao Rongdong sat there restlessly. He took a few sips of tea before slowly calming down.

He didn't bother with the things going on at Qing Sect for now. The most important thing was how to survive His Lordship's attack!

"What happened?" asked Bao Rongdong when he heard a commotion outside with his eyes constricting. "Is he here?"

NH

“Mr Bao!” said the butler as he knocked on the study door and said, “Mr Bao, Jiang Ning is here!”

“Jiang Ning?” asked Bao Rongdong as he raised his brow. The fury he suppressed for so long instantly emerged.

This fellow actually dared to come here?

This fellow even dared to come to his house?

He had guessed that Jiang Ning was the one responsible for the chaos within Qing Sect and had secretly done something. This brat was waiting to be killed!

“How many men did he bring?” asked Bao Rongdong coldly.

“He’s alone,” said the butler as he gulped.

“Hahaha, he’s so arrogant! How dare he charge into the Bao family estate on his own? Where is he now?” said Bao Rongdong. He was so angry that he smiled instead. No one had ever insulted him like this before.

There were more than 200 men standing guard outside the Bao family villa, including dozens of grandmaster level fighters. Jiang Ning was digging his own grave!

“He is...already at the study entrance,” said the butler with a voice filled with terror.