“Hubby...”

“No room for negotiation here.”

Jiang Ning refused to budge this time.

There was no use in pleading with him.

“If you try to bargain with me some more, I’ll close this company down and make you rest at home.”

Jiang Ning didn’t give Lin Yuzhen anymore chances. “Come, let’s go home now. I’m sure you haven’t told Mum yet, right? She’s going to teach you a lesson.”

Of course Lin Yuzhen didn’t dare to say anymore. Jiang Ning carefully took her hand and they left the office.

She figured that she had to whine a little more cutely for a longer time before he would allow her to return to work. Or perhaps she could try cutting her workload by half.

When they got home, Jiang Ning told his in-laws about Lin Yuzhen’s pregnancy, and everyone was so excited.

Lin Wen and Su Mei didn’t blame Lin Yuzhen for not telling them since they were so happy, and immediately started talking about making preparations.

When the Jiang family in the north got the news, Jiang Daoran and family immediately sent a truckload of supplements to Donghai.

NH

Even when Fang Qiu heard about it all the way in Mount Zhongnan, he got some men to pick some thousand-year ginseng and sent it to Donghai as well.

This little one was only a fetus, but it had already touched so many lives and so many people were all waiting for it to be born.

Even Jiang Ning couldn't be bothered with anything else.

He arranged for everyone else to settle his matters and he didn't go anywhere at all. He stayed by Lin Yuzhen's side all day to protect her and serve her.

Nothing was more important than Lin Yuzhen and his child.

But the others weren't as easygoing or as gentle as Lin Yuzhen was.

They knew that when working for Jiang Ning, the process wasn't important, and the most important part was to complete the mission he gave them!

The announcement that Lin Group was entering the Third World was made the very next day. The person in charge of this matter was Huang Yuming!

He was originally in charge of taking care of Donghai, but since Jiang Ning was in Donghai, he was free to do something else instead.

NH

“It’s time to stretch my joints,” Huang Yuming laughed. It had been a long time since he did anything like this, and he couldn’t wait.

Fei was still in the Middle East, and him alone was enough to keep the mercenary armies in check. Brother Gou and the wolves had gone to stir up trouble in Tokyo, so the royal family kept going to Sugita to beg him to get Jiang Ning to take the wolves away.

But Sugita ignored them. If the royal family did not completely give in, he wasn’t going to let them rest easy.

Huang Yuming didn’t need too many people for the business, or at least not for the time being.

He didn’t only have a trump card on hand, he had a trump bomb!

Lin Group’s R&D lab had come up with the first prototype of their new integrated circuit, and they just needed a few more tests to confirm the results before they could start mass manufacturing.

That alone was enough.

Huang Yuming’s mission was to follow Jiang Ning’s instructions and enter the Third World!

He was best at doing such things.

If others were reasonable, then he would deal with the matter reasonably. If others weren’t reasonable, then he was more than happy to teach them a lesson!

Lin Group made their move!

Huang Yuming left Donghai with several people while Jiang Ning remained in Donghai.

He just wanted to accompany Lin Yuzhen and didn't want to leave her at all.

"We're in Donghai, so you don't have to be so worried." Ye Shan knew what Jiang Ning was worried about. "Donghai is no longer the Donghai of the past."

"That's right, you don't have to worry." Ye Qingwu had also put aside all her work and came to Donghai to accompany Lin Yuzhen because she was afraid that she might be too bored.

Tan Xing also sent highly skilled fighters from the Extreme Martial Arts Academy to make sure Lin Yuzhen never left their sight, and of course, Jiang Ning had Chen Huangtang protecting Lin Yuzhen in the shadows all this while.

But Jiang Ning shook his head.

It wasn't that he didn't trust these people or that he was worried that someone might attack Lin Yuzhen.

He just wanted to be by her side when she needed his company the most.

NH

Jiang Ning's lifestyle became more routine and he seemed more like an ordinary man now.

He spent all day by Lin Yuzhen's side like a little puppy and Lin Yuzhen wasn't sure if she should laugh or cry.

"You're even following me to the bathroom?"

"The floor is slippery and I'm afraid you might fall," said Jiang Ning.

When Lin Yuzhen woke up and opened her eyes, she could see Jiang Ning sitting by the bedside and looking at her gently. There were times when he reached out to touch her belly, but didn't dare to in the end.

She was so amused by this.

For breakfast, everything was available in the house and she had mother who could probably win professional cooking competitions, so Lin Yuzhen never had to worry about her meals.

After eating, they would take a walk, watch TV, eat fruits, listen to music...

Jiang Ning had already lined up all the activities that would be beneficial to the baby.

Lin Yuzhen wanted to do work, but Jiang Ning didn't allow her to touch anything.

He even confiscated her phone.

"Don't worry, Lin Group has now fully matured and it won't collapse just because you're not around," said Jiang Ning. "You have to trust Yuming, he's a wily old fox. And Xiang Gao and the rest won't let you down."

"Of course I trust them." Lin Yuzhen shrugged her shoulders and looked really adorable. "But I want to be part of them and work hard with them too."

"Then why don't you ask them if they're willing to let you join them now?" said Jiang Ning crossly.

There was no need to ask. Lin Yuzhen couldn't even access any company documents and she had practically been ousted.

She tried to call Xiaozhao to ask for the progress on a particular project, and Xiaozhao actually hung up on her!

This girl was really bold now!

Lin Group was operating very well even without Lin Yuzhen, because Jiang Ning was in control of everything.

But he wasn't working on the ground like Lin Yuzhen used to. He just needed to make the final call on things and professionals in the company would see to the rest. He didn't need to worry at all.

"Alright then." Lin Yuzhen flipped an illustrated book for children open. "What story shall we tell our little one today?"

"We'll tell the story of the Beggars' Sect."

NH

She glared at Jiang Ning, then purposely said, "Once upon a time, there was a group called the Beggars' Sect, and a handsome young man was among them..."

.....

Meanwhile.

Back in Europe!

Huang Yuming really moved quickly!

Before Lin Group's integrated circuit was ready, he was already looking for business partners.

He didn't hesitate and went straight to look for the people who used to work with the Salos.

"And what do I stand to gain from working with you?" the other party had a kindly look on his face, but he didn't hide the disdain in his voice.

This company was from China and regardless of brand image or financial power, they were nowhere near the Salos. From whatever he knew about this company, they were clearly at a different level and he didn't want to talk to Huang Yuming initially.

But if there was enough benefit to be made, then a discussion wouldn't hurt either.

"Duke Bolan, China is a huge market, and this is an advantage that you can actually see," said Huang Yuming with a smile. "Besides, if you work with Lin Group, I can guarantee that you will remain standing in the Third World for at least the next few decades or even the next few centuries.”

“Wow, how boastful,” snorted Duke Bolan.
“Remain standing in the Third World?”

“Lin Group isn’t even good enough to get into the Third World and you dare to say something as boastful as this?”

He felt like he had just heard the biggest joke in the world.

Someone outside of this world could tell him that they could help him to stand at the top of the world for a long time to come. If this wasn’t a joke, then what was it?

Duke Bolan got up and shook his head. “Mr Huang, I think Lin Group is an overly ambitious company who doesn’t seem to be fully aware of its capabilities. We are unable to work with you like this.”

He got up and left.

Huang Yuming didn’t stop him and just remained seated. The smile on his face never faded a single bit.
