

Everyone behind Mr Lang had strange looks on their faces after hearing what Jiang Ning said.

They all exchanged glances, then looked at Mr Lang. They didn't understand what Jiang Ning was talking about.

Why did he say that it was a pity for the rest of them?

"What do you mean by that?" asked one of them.

They had just been awoken and only knew that the Longevity Pond might have appeared somewhere. Mr Lang needed them to work together and find it. Once they found it, they would all be able to live forever.

That was why all of them agreed to listen to everything that Mr Lang said. Nobody else knew better about this pond than Mr Lang did.

"I don't really mean anything," said Jiang Ning.

"Mr Lang is going to bring you on a journey to eternal life, so all of you should be thanking him." He looked at everyone else. "Even I am touched by his actions."

Mr Lang narrowed his eyes at Jiang Ning and didn't say anything. He didn't know how much Jiang Ning knew and why he was saying all this now. Even if he was trying to sow discord, surely there was more he could say to do that, right?

But instead of going on, Jiang Ning started smiling sweetly at him.

“Are you ready?” Jiang Ning looked at him.

“Are YOU ready?” asked Mr Lang in return.

“I’m ready anytime.”

The two men were talking in riddles and nobody else could understand either one. They were even more puzzled now.

Mr Lang was already a very mysterious man who was impossible to understand. He was one of the best fighters of their time and they were a long way off from him, so none of them dared to second guess him.

This Jiang Ning initially looked too young for them to be worried about, but now, it seemed like he also had an air of mystery around him.

“Don’t be bothered by him,” Heifeng reminded him.

He knew how frightening Jiang Ning could be. Jiang Ning was no ordinary man at all. Anybody who could fully comprehend the Extreme Fist Technique was definitely no ordinary person.

Jiang Ning was the only person from this era who could kill him very easily!

He looked ordinary and harmless, but once he started fighting, his prowess was enough to strike despair in one’s heart. Mr Lang was the one who told him about this.

Mr Lang had also been injured by Jiang Ning before. He knew about that.

Jiang Ning got up, looked around, then pointed at the lake behind him with a cheeky laugh.

“Since we’re all ready, then let’s get started.”

He then stomped hard on the ground and the ground trembled a little before eight metal chains suddenly pulled a large bronze coffin from the water.

Mr Lang’s expression immediately darkened.

“I can help you to open the passageway and bring all of you into the second spatial dimension, but first, you’ve got to help me get this coffin out.”

“What are you trying to do?” Mr Lang’s voice had turned frosty.

The rest of the people behind him were also shocked when they saw that coffin.

“That’s a Triple Lifetime Bronze Coffin. What’s it doing here?” Heifeng’s expression was grim.

Everyone else was staring at that bronze coffin too. They didn’t expect this coffin to be here. They had searched for this thing for a long time back then too. All of them hoped that they could find this coffin so that they could live for a longer time.

Besides Peter Pan’s black coffin, the other one that existed was this bronze coffin.

A lot of them were already thinking that if they couldn't find the Longevity Pond, then obtaining this bronze coffin was a good second option.

Mr Lang didn't expect Jiang Ning to expose the existence of this bronze coffin. He sneered and wasn't bothered.

"Enough of this nonsense," said Mr Lang. "Open the passageway! Otherwise, don't blame us for getting nasty!"

Jiang Ning was trying to sow discord after all. But he had chosen a method that was different from what he had expected from most people. This was a really sly fellow.

When he saw that Mr Lang was getting a little frustrated, Jiang Ning burst out laughing.

"Can't wait?"

Jiang Ning took a deep breath.

"Alright then!"

Once he had said that, their surroundings immediately went through a tremendous change.

The earth seemed to spin, and a dense forest suddenly appeared from nowhere as trees that reached the sky grew before them. The faces of Heifeng and the rest changed dramatically. They never thought that Jiang Ning was capable of doing something like this.

Only Mr Lang knew that this wasn't Jiang Ning's doing. It was those runes on the manual pages!

"Is this an illusion?" Heifeng reached out to touch a large tree next to him. It was real!

The expression on his face became even more surprised.

This place looked exactly the same as the forest that Peter Pan had been in in!

The rest of them were also deeply shocked by the sudden and drastic changes around them. They simply couldn't believe that Jiang Ning had done something like this.

"I've really underestimated you," said Mr Lang.
"But since you've opened the way, let's go in then."

He looked at Jiang Ning.

If Jiang Ning didn't go in, he wasn't going in either.

The current situation was a little out of his control now. Jiang Ning's grasp of the runes on the manual made him lose some confidence. Even though he knew that this was definitely the doing of that old geezer, Broken Soldier, Mr Lang didn't dare to drop his guard even though the man was dead.

"I know that as long as I don't go in, you wouldn't dare to go in."

Jiang Ning seemed very relaxed and didn't bother saying too much. He glanced at Mr Lang, then glanced at the rest before laughing loudly and walking right into the forest.

He instantly disappeared into the forest.

“Mr Lang, what do we do? What’s going on now?”

Some of them didn’t understand what was happening at all. These changes were too shocking for them. How did Jiang Ning disappear just like that?

“If my guess is correct, the Longevity Pond is in here. Once we enter this passageway, we will be able to find it.” Mr Lang was also being very careful.

He had done many calculations and had studied the secrets of the runes on the manual for many years. He was very certain that Jiang Ning had indeed opened the way into the second spatial dimension.

It took an environment like this to slow down the process of aging. Just like how Peter Pan had chosen to enter into deep sleep in such an environment before he lost his memory.

It wasn’t difficult to reach this conclusion.

But he really didn’t trust someone like Jiang Ning.

Even though Jiang Ning had been the first one to walk in, Mr Lang was still rather worried.

“Heifeng, you go in first.” Mr Lang turned to look at Heifeng and his expression immediately fell.

“I go in first?” He was a little wary.

“Go in.” Mr Lang’s tone of voice was cold and distant.

Heifeng clenched his teeth. He looked at everyone else and wanted to get someone else to go instead, but there was nothing but doubt and wariness in their eyes. Clearly, nobody was willing to go in his place.

First, they had been oddly led by Jiang Ning into the mountain gate, then to the northern region, then pulled up the Triple Lifetime Bronze Coffin from the bottom of the lake, and now he had opened the way to the second spatial dimension.

Everything about this was weird.

“Fine, I’ll go in first!” Heifeng steeled himself and took a step in. He could feel a great change in the world around him and he wasn’t sure if the things around him were real or not.

But he could hear the birds. That was real.

The smell of the flowers couldn’t be a lie.

He looked back and didn’t see Mr Lang and the rest anymore.

“Of course it’s all real.”

Jiang Ning’s voice suddenly rang out from behind him, causing him to tense up. He spun around with a start to see Jiang Ning walking towards him.

“What do you want?”

“I’ve fooled all of you into coming all the way here, so of course I’m going to kill you guys.”

Jiang Ning’s eyes were as deep as the galaxy and as sharp as a knife. Even a highly skilled fighter like Heifeng felt his heart shudder when he saw them!

“After thinking about it, I have to kill all of you in order to make sure that none of you cause any trouble in the future!”

SWOOSH!

Jiang Ning immediately unleashed the Extreme Fist Technique. The violent and wild winds that the punch created enveloped Heifeng like a tidal wave.

“AHHHH!!” Heifeng screamed loudly, but nobody else could hear him. Outside the dimension, all Mr Lang and the rest saw was that Heifeng had literally disappeared without a trace.

“Hmm?” Mr Lang still had a bad feeling about this. But he simply couldn’t put his finger on what was wrong.

Jiang Ning had disappeared after going in, and so had Heifeng. He was still unsure about whether to go in or not.
