

Chapter 297

William was about to speak.

Liu Tigger suddenly turned around, his eyes became unfamiliar, "William, this is my fate with this village, it's none of your business. The people in the village are tired, and I am tired."

From these words of Liu Tigger, William heard a lot of fatigue and relief.

What a Liu Tigger.

What a Lantern Village.

They wanted to use this catastrophe three days later, completely but the village's sad fate.

To die, to live forever.

William sighed without speaking.

He carried Liu Tigger's lantern and walked slowly towards the hillside.

Behind it, Liu Tigger murmured to himself, "What can I choose? Only small immortality."

Sharon seemed to know that William would come, she had already guarded the hillside.

"Let's go." Sharon said to William coldly.

William did not answer either, but followed Sharon's back.

In front of him, there was a light of three feet illuminated by a small lantern.

Behind him is a sea of bitter world illuminated by a bonfire and a century-old lamp.

The song of "The Third Kingdom of Jade Dragon" is still floating, sad and happy.

When the two came to the parking place, Sharon got into the car and started it soon.

William sat in, but Sharon did not drive.

She turned her back to William, not knowing what she was thinking.

It was not until three minutes later that Sharon turned off the car suddenly, and threw the key directly into William's arms, "Go down the mountain yourself."

Looking at Sharon's unpredictable eyes, William seemed to understand something.

However, Sharon meant that there was no silver three hundred taels here, and said with a sneer: "Don't think that I stayed for my dad, he is in my heart, nothing. I stayed, there are some things that have not been done yet. ."

"This village has nothing to do with you, and it's not like a small person like you can get in. Get out."

After Sharon finished speaking, he handed the small lantern to William, but he took the phone to illuminate Xiao Xiaoguang and returned to the village.

William sat in the driver's seat, took a deep breath, and shook his head.

My heart was depressed.

At this moment, in a club in Qena City.

A thin middle-aged man with a numb face was holding a cigar in his mouth, listening and reporting to work.

This person is Sirius from Qena City!

After Sirius listened to the report, his eyes flickered, "Hehe, you mean, Liu Tigger has gone to that village?"

The man nodded.

"And not even one of his men?" He asked again.

The subordinate nodded again.

"It seems that the village is indeed Liu Tigger's weakness! Hahaha! This shameless pen, people in the rivers and lakes actually left a weakness for themselves. However, in order to prevent that guy from plotting, we will bring more people when that time comes. Go up, yes, that thing, you guys also go to prepare." Sirius said.

The pupils shrank, "Brother Sirius, you mean, that thing..."

"Well, I'm going to die anyway, I'll decide how to die." Sirius said with a grim smile.

Qena City has been silent for too long, but in my hands, it is lively.

Three days passed in a blink of an eye.

At this evening, in the square of Lantern Village.

The bonfire that had been burning for three consecutive days was still burning.

But the fire was much smaller, and there was a feeling of exhaustion.

The villagers surrounded the bonfire one by one and continued to sing and dance, without any panic of going to death.

They all went through the most elaborate dressing and dressing tonight.

The men put on the clothes they had just sewn, and the women put on crude hair accessories.

Liu Tigger drank the wine, his whole body was slightly drunk.

At this time, suddenly the ground trembled.

Liu Tigger opened his eyes, and twenty or thirty people walked towards Liu Tigger.

Seeing the visitor clearly, Liu Tigger's face suddenly showed anger.

Here comes his subordinates, Leon and Klutz!

Leon is okay, but Klutz is directly naked, back, and carrying thorns!

Liu Tigger shouted: "Did I let you over!"

Leon's face froze.

However, Klutz knelt in front of Liu Tigger, his voice choked, "Brother Tigger! Today, all of this is my fault! I read less, only remember one idiom, bear Jing please sin, today, I I didn't come to fight Sirius, I just came here to redeem my conscience!"

The people behind him all knelt in front of Liu Tigger.

"Brother Tigger, you treat us like a mountain, we cannot live with you, we will die with you today!"

"We have already explained the family affairs."

"If it's Brother Tigger, you doubt that you want to drive us away, then I'm sorry. Today we--"

"Draw a line with you! In this way, you can't control us!"

These people are Liu Tigger's most loyal subordinates!

Rao was begging for death in Liu Tigger's heart. Seeing them kneeling on the ground one by one, his eyes were red.

His steps moved, and finally he helped them one by one.

He ordered the number, there were twenty-five people in total.

These twenty-five people, what use can they come here?

It just gave Sirius's butcher knife a little blood.

However, Liu Tigger could no longer say to drive them away.

He and those people sat back in front of the campfire again.

The bonfire is about to go out.

"Brother Tigger, when we receive the call, Sirius's people will come over soon. And they destroyed the stone bridge that entered the village, and no one can come in again." Leon said to Liu Tigger.

Liu Tigger nodded, patted his shoulder, and said, "I was ready to die today, you guys, let me owe you guys, give me a drink!"

With that, he took up the wine in his hand!

Those people, all drink together, higher than their foreheads!

"May the next life be a brother!" Liu Tigger shouted!

"May the next life be brothers!" the people shouted together.

After drinking the wine, the jar fell to the ground!

"Ping Pong Pong", like a war song!

After Leon and Klutz finished drinking, they led the people and walked toward that path!

That is the only way into the village.

There is the first pass to be held tonight!

It is also their grave in this life!

But Liu Tigger didn't stop him, he looked at the villagers in front of him.

They are still singing and dancing, seemingly not caring about the arrival of these people.

The peace of liberation hung on everyone's face.

Only Sharon beside her was indifferent, but her eyes were red.

Liu Tigger looked at her, feeling guilty.

She shouldn't be here tonight.

Here is the blood she fears most in this life.

Thinking of this, Liu Tigger gave a wry smile and took out a black cloth from his pocket.

Sharon was about to speak, but Liu Tigger stopped him.

"Don't move, listen carefully to Dad's last words." Liu Tigger said gently, and then gently covered Sharon's eyes with the black cloth in his hand.

"Sorry, my father has countless enemies. It's not that I don't want to put down the butcher knife. Dad doesn't put the butcher knife. It is Dad who bleeds. But if he puts down the butcher knife, he bleeds..."

"It might be you."

"Sorry....."

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 298

Sharon under the black cloth burst into tears.

Tears wet the black cloth.

But it made Sharon feel that at this moment in this life, by his father's side, he was particularly at ease.

She doesn't understand reason.

When she decided to stay with her father, the disparity between father and daughter had long been ignored by her.

What else is warmer than Dad's last sentence.

She wanted to say something, but heard Liu Tigger's footsteps.

Not far away, there have been waves of soldiers meeting each other.

There was a lot of laughter, there was a roar.

The enemy has come.

Sitting cross-legged on the ground, Sharon suddenly unconsciously sang the song "The Third Kingdom of Jade Dragon", which was passed down from generation to generation.

"Ah mile... Ah mile..."

"Holding your hand in the breeze, kissing your face in the drizzle..."

"Here is the bridge and the flowing water filled with flowers and snow..."

"In the legend, you and I will never be separated, in the singing, you and I love to death..."

"Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon, flying in the wind and strolling in the sea of clouds..."

"Oh... I love you until the jade dragon flies to the sky..."

"Oh... I love me, it stops flowing when I love Lishui..."

"Trust me, follow me, I will let the snow lotus on the mountain drive for you..."

"Let's fly, let's float, we are in the Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon..."

The more you sing, the more tears flow.

It seems that she and her father are just a pair of butterflies going to death.

As long as I can hold my father's hand in the troubled times, what is there to be afraid of...

The people around listened to Sharon's song, and sang along one by one.

Outside, there was the sound of fighting, and it was bloody.

Here is the sound of singing and dancing.

It seems that two worlds do not interfere with each other.

This time, "The Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon" is like two butterflies experiencing the moment of death.

Endless sorrow, endless sadness.

There is a yearning for eternal life, and a nostalgia for this life.

After the singing was finished, there were still a few flames dying from the campfire.

Someone slowly left the campfire and walked towards the house.

They did not enter the house.

But he pushed open the simple lid of the coffin at the door of the house, without saying a word, he glanced at the world for the last time, and lay quietly in the coffin.

Serenely waiting for death and relief.

Every time the folk song is sung, someone quietly leaves and lies quietly in the coffin.

Although Sharon was blindfolded, he seemed to know what had happened.

Tears flowed down again, and she suddenly discovered whether this would be too cruel to these people.

At this time, a calloused hand was placed on her head.

A pitiful voice rang, "Sharon, don't blame your father. All of us don't blame him, but thank him very much."

"We are all tired. Even the village head of me is fed up with such shackles."

After the village chief said this sentence, he faltered and left.

"Let's fly, let's float, we are in the Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon..."

The singing has stayed on this sentence, repeated, repeated.

Until gradually disappeared.

The surroundings are terribly quiet.

Only the roar and fighting sound not far away can be heard.

Dou Da's tears slid down Sharon's cheeks.

And on that trail.

Liu Tigger watched his brothers fall in front of him one by one, his eyes cracked!

They died without saying a word.

They even smiled, thanking Liu Tigger for his kindness.

Is such a death really worth it!

Liu Tigger only felt the blood and energy in his heart, but he couldn't use his power.

The wound on his body cracked and blood came out again.

Sirius stood not far away, laughing arrogantly.

This trip, I did not expect it to be so smooth.

This Liu Tigger is a paper tiger who pulled his teeth at all!

Finally, in front of Liu Tigger, only one subordinate was left.

Klutz.

This person who came with the heart of redemption, but at this moment, burst out with immense bravery.

He held a machete, as if completely mad, slashing left and right.

However, Sirius brought hundreds of people with him, and after just a while, there are still sixty to seventy people left.

Liu Tigger watched Klutz humiliate him in a single blow!

In the end, Sirius took the sword and slashed it.

Blood shot!

Klutz suddenly looked up to the sky and laughed.

He turned around and walked slowly towards Liu Tigger.

He suddenly knelt heavily in front of Liu Tigger.

"Brother Tigger, in this case, I am not guilty..." Klutz grinned and said this sentence.

As if waiting for a pardon from Liu Tigger.

Liu Tigger, a seven-foot man, also shed blood and tears!

He nodded heavily.

Klutz squeezed the last smile, and fell on this ground forever with a click of his body!

Around him, Sirius's subordinates laughed wildly.

Liu Tigger kept moving back.

A heart that originally wanted to die, at this moment, suddenly there was a slight looseness.

Revenge!

However, this thought of revenge disappeared in an instant.

How to get revenge?

There are fifty or sixty enemies.

And myself, alone.

The people in the village, humbled to their bones, even with a knife on their necks, they dare not resist.

Outside the village, the stone bridge has collapsed.

No one will come to support yourself.

Is this my fate?

Liu Tigger gave a wry smile.

At the beginning, shouldn't you be ready to die?

That's all right.

He kept backing, only to find that there was no way to go back.

Behind him is the bonfire.

There was only one person behind him.

Sharon.

Covered with black cloth, Sharon sang "The Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon" over and over again, as if to vent his anger.

It also seems to be doing the last time for the villagers who have already been lying in the coffin and waiting to die.

Liu Tigger sighed and sat beside Sharon, holding Sharon tightly in his arms.

With this hug, the singing stopped.

Yes, only a soft sob sound.

"Hahaha! Are all the people in this village dead? Why are there no one!" Sirius stood in the front, laughing arrogantly.

Liu Tigger did not speak, but slowly closed his eyes.

Lantern Village is cut off today.

Break away, a big dream in a century.

"The Tiger of Qena City turned into a dog who didn't know how to resist. It's really boring. Forget it, I don't want to play with you anymore, let's do it." Sirius shook his head, but turned to Go back.

The overall situation is set.

A knife has already gone towards Liu Tigger.

Sharon's heart, at the moment of life and death, actually slowly calmed down.

She opened her mouth, wanting to sing the song of martyrdom again.

But I found that my throat was completely stuck, and I couldn't make a sound.

And at this moment, it was like a hallucination.

Not far away, the small road full of corpses suddenly lit up with a little jumping red light.

A misty and melancholy song came.

"Holding your hand in the breeze, kissing your face in the drizzle..."

Chapter 299

Sirius and others turned their heads together in an instant, looking at the road to death!

On that road, a red dot was flickering faintly.

There was a corpse there, and the red dots were beating, which looked strange.

And I don't know when it will start, it is starting to fog up here.

In a cloud of confusion, it seems that something is coming.

Everyone got goose bumps all over.

Is this a ghost?

"Here is the bridge and the flowing water filled with flowers and snow..."

"In the legend, you and I will never be separated, in the singing, you and I love to death..."

"Third Kingdom of the Jade Dragon, flying in the wind and strolling in the sea of clouds..."

The singing was still singing, and it seemed very desolate.

Sirius couldn't help it anymore, and shouted loudly: "Who! Who is there to pretend to be a ghost! Come out for me!"

There was no answer.

However, the red light can see more clearly.

In the mist, a figure also faintly appeared.

The figure broke through the fog and walked out slowly.

I saw a man, holding a red lantern in his hand, slowly walking on this lifeless land.

The singing came from his mouth.

Before the villagers sang this song, there was always a bitterness and loneliness.

However, the song in his mouth seemed particularly tragic and desolate.

Like a samurai at sunset, going to death alone.

But Liu Tigger was stupid when he saw the person who came.

It's William!

This lone lantern bearer turned out to be William who should have left here three days ago!

Hasn't the stone bridge been destroyed?

How did he appear here!

Sharon couldn't help pulling down the black cloth. After seeing that it was William, his head was in a trance.

Did he come here to die?

Obviously he is just a humble little person, but he still wants to show off some prestige here!

"Who are you!" Sirius shouted at William.

William's footsteps stopped, he did not answer Sirius's words.

But his eyes were on Liu Tigger's body.

"Brother Tigger, do you remember the question you asked me three days ago?" William asked suddenly.

Liu Tigger was startled.

I heard William continue to say: "You ask me, in life, should I choose the great immortality or the small immortality. At that time I was asked by you."

"I was outside, spent three days, finally figured out the answer, so I will come over and tell you."

Liu Tigger was going to be pissed off by William!

What answers are you thinking about at this time!

Moreover, thinking of it, I stupidly came over and told me why!

See you, are you all from Sirius at the scene!

However, William seemed to mutter to himself: "Since my grandfather passed away, I feel lost in the direction of life."

"Your question, wake me up."

"If I, William, have the world in mind."

"Then you Liu Tigger is my world's son, this Lantern Village is my world's next village, does it have nothing to do with me?"

"I want future generations, and bravery will have me!"

"I want future generations, saying that I must be a male!"

"I choose--"

"Great immortality!"

After William finished speaking, the scene was deadly silent.

Liu Tigger's eyes suddenly turned red.

He didn't know why William made such a choice.

However, this choice does not mean that William wants to coexist and die with himself and Lantern Village today!

This fool!

Thanks to his unparalleled wisdom!

Thanks to his resourcefulness!

It's a complete fool!

Sirius felt completely confused when he heard these words.

He stared at the man who dared to come by himself, and touched the beard of his chin.

There was a fierce look in his eyes.

"It turns out that I wanted to be a hero. Okay, I will make you perfect! Give it to me and chop him into meat sauce!" Sirius has always been a cruel master.

Sirius's men, Qi Qi rushed towards William.

And William put the lantern on the ground casually, his hands, he didn't know when, he had already tied a thick bandage.

And on the bandage, a touch of cold light can be seen under the moonlight!

I saw that the bandage was filled with Needles of Ruby Flower.

This is William's weapon!

Seeing William alone, rushing towards the other dozens of people, without fear, even Sharon, who had been looking at him upset, his heart convulsed fiercely at this time.

"Dad, who is he?" Sharon couldn't help asking.

Liu Tigger's eyes were fixed on William who was fighting alone, his voice choked.

"If he does not die tonight, he is my master!"

Sharon stared at Liu Tigger in disbelief, "Dad, you mean, he alone can treat these people..."

Liu Tigger said with a wry smile: "I don't know, just let us see how many miracles he can create."

William was already at war with those people.

Without a knife, the heart is cruel than a knife!

Without a sword, the eyes are as sharp as a sword!

He slammed a punch, and his fist slashed across a person's neck!

The Needles of Ruby Flower wrapped tightly in his fist cut that person's throat directly.

The man didn't even have time to yell and fell straight.

However, one person fell, and there were successors.

These people, in this blood-scented land, have long been exaggerated so much that life and death are no longer in their minds.

After William contacted and killed ten people, he couldn't help but gasped.

He looked at these people bitterly.

It's too much.

If there are more than twenty people, William still has the confidence to fight.

However, six to seventy people long ago exceeded the limit that William could bear.

Although he has been studying "The Scripture of Tranquility", the second chapter is just to stimulate the body's potential.

His body is just better than ordinary people. How to defeat Sirius with one enemy and one hundred.

Liu Tigger clearly saw that William was incapable, and his brows were deeply locked.

"Dad..." Sharon grabbed Liu Tigger's hand anxiously.

Liu Tigger looked at William and said softly, "What a William, he chose Great Immortality. Since it is his choice, let's just look at it. Anyway, this life has already been sacrificed."

William seemed to feel Liu Tigger's heart. He raised his head, his eyes sharpened suddenly.

Powerless!

But the heart is even more unwilling!

He slammed a punch and smashed the few people in front of him fiercely. The madness in his heart always had the kind of suffocation that would not come out!

Too frustrated!

Then, even more crazy!

More crazy!

William suddenly drew more than a dozen Needles of Ruby Flower from his body, and his eyes gradually became blood red!

"This disgusting village, don't you know how precious life is!"

"My grandfather wanted to be born but couldn't. You two or three hundred lives, and you all committed suicide! You are trampling on the dignity of life, trampling on my beliefs!"

"You just lie in the coffin and watch carefully! If I firmly believe that fate should not be broken!"

"Who is it!"

William yelled up to the sky, and the dozen or so silver needles in his hand plunged into his body like crazy!

@vamp20w011

Chapter 300

Sirius's men looked stupid!

What the hell is this lunatic in front of!

Are you self-harming?

Neurosis!

And Liu Tigger's heart trembled fiercely after listening to William's words!

His eyes were red again!

William's call was meant for the whole village!

And these words are exactly what Liu Tigger wanted to say but didn't dare to say!

People in Lantern Village, have you heard that!

The lunatic in front of him intends to use his own life to prove one thing to you cowardly people.

If people don't give in, who would dare to let me go to netherworld!

Liu Tigger also suddenly thought that this is William's courage and William's wisdom.

Sirius's people were all present.

Relying on William, there is no way to win.

The only way is to awaken the blood of these villagers and fight the enemy together.

It's just a pity, William, you still underestimated the humbleness and cowardice of these people.

After the coffins on the scene moved slightly, they fell silent.

Liu Tigger couldn't help sighing.

The shackles of the millennium are deeply rooted.

William, you miscalculated.

After being stimulated by the silver needle, William straightened up again and rushed out toward Sirius's person.

This time, blood for blood, strength for strength!

The blood shot at William and the enemy at the same time.

The scene has long been unable to tell who has more blood and who has less blood.

This kind of desperate play made all those people back up a few steps.

They looked at the desperate guy in front of them in amazement, almost vomiting blood in their hearts.

Obviously, he suffered more than a dozen knives from them, although he had escaped the key at the last moment.

However, his body was already scarred and bloody.

In this way, he actually stood up straight, as if he didn't know the pain at all!

He is like an iron-blooded warrior, more like an unparalleled God of War!

Although powerless.

But in terms of momentum, he alone severely suppressed dozens of people on the scene!

Such bravery caused Sirius not far away to be dumbfounded.

When will Qena City have such a tiger and wolf man who is not afraid of life and death!

Where did he come out!

What does this village have to do with him!

What does Liu Tigger have to do with him!

Can you use your own life to go shopping!

The battle continues.

I don't know when, William was already standing in front of Liu Tigger.

He even stood trembling, but he seemed to use his own body to block the thousands of troops in front of him.

No one can break through William and come to Liu Tigger and the others.

The whole village was actually kept by William alone!

The coldness in Sirius's eyes was even worse.

What a shame!

Bringing so many people over, it was even suppressed by one person to move forward.

If this is spread out, in the future, the name of Sirius will be laughable and generous in the arena!

He yelled fiercely: "Have you not eaten yet! Beat me to death! Whoever beats him, I will reward a villa!"

The group of people who were originally afraid, heard such a reward, and their eyes turned red.

They roared together and slashed towards William again desperately.

William was accidentally chopped up, his blood shot out.

Liu Tigger was about to protect Sharon who was close at hand, but it was too late.

William's hot blood spilled on Sharon's face!

Sharon was completely stunned for an instant.

William's desperate protection is right in front of her

She could even see clearly that William's body was oozing blood.

His shirt is already in tatters, showing all the scars!

And the hot blood on her face, like a thunder, hit her head fiercely.

In her heart, it seemed that something had been broken.

Liu Tigger was about to wipe off the blood for Sharon.

Because he knew that Sharon had been fainted with blood since she was young, and now that the blood is on her face, she has not been scared into a coma.

However, his hand was suddenly caught.

Liu Tigger was taken aback.

But it was Sharon who grabbed his hand.

Sharon's whole body was trembling violently, as if there was a sea of dead blood flowing on his face! It's a monster!

The blood ran down her cheeks slowly.

Until it flows into her mouth.

A strong smell of blood made her suddenly hold her head and burst into tears.

She looked at the man in front of her who was fighting for the village alone, and suddenly a burst of inexplicable gratitude burst into her heart.

why!

Why is it that this village has to be protected by an outsider at all costs!

why!

Why do we wait for death one by one, waiting for the sanction of death!

It shouldn't be like this, it definitely shouldn't be like this!

We can still live!

We obviously have hundreds of people!

Liu Tigger was about to hug her, but saw her get up from the ground and ran towards the village like crazy!

"Don't kill! Don't kill!"

"Everyone, okay! Get up and help that lunatic, okay!"

"I don't want to die, and I don't want you to die."

"I want to sing with you again! I want to dance with you all the time!"

"Although I am afraid of blood, I really like the Fragrant Blood Centennial Lamp!"

"Everyone get up!"

"Can we help the lunatic together? I beg you."

Sharon shouted and ran towards the nearest coffin.

She put her hands on the heavy coffin lid and pushed it hard.

These coffins were made crudely by the villagers themselves. On the coffins, there were spikes left by the axe.

The spike cut directly through Sharon's palm.

Sharon actually didn't know, and with a hard push, he pushed the coffin lid to the ground.

The person inside looked at Sharon.

There were deep tears in each other's eyes.

"Get up, get up, get up! This is our home!" Sharon shouted at the man, and continued to run to the next house.

William was still struggling to support, his legs were already shaking.

The Needles of Ruby Flower in his hand, because of excessive force, plunged into his palm instead.

His face was covered with blood, and his eyes were a little bit blind.

The sane, because of the excessive bleeding, gradually became unclear.

He is like a machine, fighting instinctively.

Sharon was pushing every coffin and awakening every villager who didn't want to wake up.

Her hand had long been pierced to blood by the spikes.

In the end, with no strength in the hands, use the feet.

The feet trembled and pressed their heads.

Until the blood and tears ran, until the whole body was covered with blood.

Until the lid of the coffin of the last village chief was pushed.

Her consciousness was blurred, and she fell on the village chief.

Before she fell into a coma, she murmured and cried, "I still want to sing "The Third Kingdom of Jade Dragon"..."

The village head's heart, as if being hit by a stone, was so sad that it was hard to breathe.

At this moment, all the lids of the coffin were opened.

In the coffin, the first person slowly stood up.

One, two, three, three...

Until more than two hundred people stood together!

Chapter 301

Watching the villagers coming out of the coffin one by one, Liu Tigger was already in tears.

He was aching!

His heart ached for William, not caring about life and death!

His daughter's heart ached for him and he was full of holes!

Her heart ached for the villagers of this Lantern Village. The shackle of a hundred generations, the torture of eternity!

"With such a humble death, how can I see anyone else in my next life?"

"Wake up, everyone!" Liu Tigger suddenly shouted at them.

Because he used too much strength, the wounds on his body directly cracked, and blood came out.

William, who was in front of him, was in danger.

There were thirty to forty enemies in front of him!

The villagers looked at William, who was fighting alone, and their eyes began to turn red.

Prior to this, they had never imagined that there would be an outsider who would think so highly of them.

He was willing to sacrifice his life for them and burn their broken bodies!

They didn't have the fortune to enjoy the protection of others.

Their lives were worthless.

However, there was this type of person in front of him who used his own strength to forcefully extend the life of Lantern Village.

Everyone's eyes were filled with tears as they looked at Village Chief.

Village Chief laboriously put the unconscious Sharon on the ground and looked at William in a daze.

Under everyone's expectant gaze, he slowly walked home.

However, in a short while, he reappeared in front of everyone.

There was a worn-out bowl in his hand.

The bowl was filled with a cup of flirtatious Immortal Water.

Carrying the bowl of blood, he tremulously walked towards Liu Tigger.

When all the villagers saw the village chief's expression, they seemed to have understood something.

All of them suddenly wiped away the tears in their eyes and returned home one by one.

After a while, they all came out.

Each of them was holding a bowl of Immortal Water that carried the millennium-old glory and humiliation of the Lantern Village.

Village Chief stood in front of William, Liu Tigger.

"Him, what's his name?" Village Chief suddenly asked. His voice was no longer weak and weak as before. Instead, there was a hint of firmness in it.

"William!" Liu Tigger said in a low voice.

Village Chief nodded. "This bowl of Immortal Water is for William in the Lantern Village!"

After he said that, he took the lead and drank up the bowl of blood!

"Salute William!" All of a sudden, the villagers made the biggest roar in their lives!

He drank up his blood!

Smashing the bowl into the song!

"People of our Lantern Village have long been immune to blood incense, so we just drink some Immortal Water to arouse some courage!

Villagers, copy it! Kill these bastards with a thousand cuts!" Suddenly, the village chief shouted with grief and indignation.

"Roar!" After drinking more than two hundred bowls of blood, it seemed that the bloody nature of this group of weak people was completely aroused!

For a moment, the old, the weak, women and children!

"Drinking blood to become a weapon!"

Liu Tigger's tears were streaming down.

He had an impulse to kneel down in front of William!

It was William!

Summon blood with blood!

It awakened the villagers' courage for the first time since they were born!

From the moment they climbed out of the coffin and drank the Immortal Water!

They were no longer the same as before!

Lantern Village, Nirvana, continued one's life!

All of this was woken up by William with his life!

William, you must hold on!

At the sight of this, the eyes of Sirius, who was standing not far away, were split open!

Damn it!

A bunch of garbage actually knew how to resist!

Okay!

"Then I will let you taste the taste of fresh blood!"

"Go back to the coffin and wait for death!"

"Do you really think that I've brought these people here? Haha, I'm going to become the tiger of the Qena City! How could I be so careless!" Sirius suddenly whistled loudly.

The ground not far away suddenly trembled.

Before the person arrived, the voice came first!

A large number of people rushed out on the path!

There were at least one hundred people!

Liu Tigger's heart sank when he saw this!

Sure enough, Sirius had a backup plan!

The reason why Sirius could compete with Liu Tigger in Qena City was not that he was wise or powerful.

"And it's because of his insidiousness!"

By hook or by crook!

Now more than a hundred strong men and horses appeared. What should they do?

Although the villagers of the Lantern Village were in high spirits, their bodies were too weak.

He was no match for those strong soldiers.

William, who was fighting with only one man, was obviously at the end of his tether.

With the help of William and Sharon, the new flames were finally ignited. Would they be killed by this bloody moon again today?

At the thought of this, Liu Tigger's eyes were wide open!

"I'll go all out! Life is a candle, death is a candle to the candle!" Liu Tigger grabbed a broadsword on the ground and roared in an imposing manner.

"Kill!" The villagers completely released their blood vigour by borrowing a bowl of blood, and their eyes were all red.

At this time, William, who was in front of Liu Tigger, finally gave a grunt and fell backward straightly.

Liu Tigger held on to William.

However, William opened her eyes slightly and looked at the bright moon in the sky with a smile of regret.

"Kill this punk for me!" Sirius shouted from behind.

However, the people of the Lantern Village had already protected William in the middle.

"Just now, William guarded us! Now, it's our turn to protect William! Villagers, drain the last drop of blood, don't let this group of bastards hurt their benefactor at all!" Village Chief roared.

"Roar!" The villagers responded in unison.

However, at this moment, a strange smile suddenly appeared on Sirius's face.

"Hehe, you good-for-nothings? However, I'm really too lazy to fight to the point that both of you will suffer. I still have a great nation in the future, so all of you, go to hell! Someone! Explode!" Sirius suddenly shouted again.

His men actually stepped back one by one.

Then, in everyone's confused eyes, they took out masks from the backpacks behind them one by one and quickly put them on.

William endured the pain and stood up with the help of Liu Tigger.

This mask was a poison-proof mask!

What were they going to do!

Just as everyone was feeling uneasy, they suddenly heard the sound of machine fans flapping in the sky.

More than a hundred drones had been hung on the top of the whole Lantern Village!

There was a big bag hanging under each drone!

As soon as Sirius gave the order, all the bags under the drone exploded!

Wave after wave of dense green gas gushed out from the bag!

All of a sudden, green gas permeated the sky of the Lantern Village, and even the moonlight was dyed green!

William secretly shouted, "It's the toxic gas! Run!"

At this time, the villagers suddenly panicked and turned around to run into the village one by one.

However, William stared at the poisonous gas all over the sky and frowned slightly.

The smell of this poisonous gas seemed to be...

The poisonous gas was slowly drifting down.

Sirius and company were wearing masks as they roared with laughter.

"Run! I want to see where you can run to! I'm going to bury the entire village today! No one will be spared!" Sirius said fiercely.

The poison gas slowly came down, and was dozens of meters away from them.

Chapter 302

The villagers saw that they couldn't get out of the toxic gas's range one by one. They stood there in a daze, and their eyes were fixed on him.

This was a look of despair that had gone through despair and seen hope again. Now, it was despairing again.

Compared to before, it was even sadder.

Sirius, who was in the middle of it, suddenly rang his phone.

He picked up the phone casually. "Who is it? Bernard? I've heard of him. What can I do for you?"

After listening to the phone for a while, Sirius suddenly burst out laughing. "You want me to kill someone named William? Hahaha!"

As he spoke, he looked at William, who was next to Liu Tigger with blood all over her body. "No problem. The money is transferred to my account. I promise that from tomorrow on, you will no longer hear any news about this kid. Hehe, Liu Tigger is his accomplice? Is it difficult to deal with him? Then I will give you another small gift. From tomorrow, William and Liu Tigger will completely disappear from this world!"

On the other end of the line, Bernard hung up the phone, trembling with fear. He could not believe what he had heard.

Bernard had long heard of Sirius's viciousness.

He obtained Sirius's phone number through Yohan's relationship.

William had given Bernard a hard time during the Trade seasons, causing him to lose all his reputation. How could Bernard not take revenge for such a deep grudge?

Therefore, he decided to buy a murderer!

Now hearing Sirius say yes immediately and even want to kill Liu Tigger with him, he trembled all over.

Were they going to wash the cards under the ground of the Qena City?

However, Sirius's words were full of confidence. After Bernard calmed down, a cruel look appeared in his eyes!

If Sirius really did it, then that woman called Felicity would have no one to rely on!

He could not let her go!

Bernard thought it over and over again, and decided to wait another three days!

If Liu Tigger died, there would definitely be turmoil.

Three days later, the news must have been confirmed.

At that time, it would be the time for her to visit Felicity in person and take revenge on that little b*tch!

"Felicity, three days later, I'll kick your ass!"

When Sirius hung up the phone and looked at William and Liu Tigger who were about to die, he felt very proud.

He didn't expect that these two guys could make a lot of money for him before they died.

In the midst of the deadly poison that filled the sky, Sirius started laughing maniacally!

"Go to hell! All of you, die! If you die, I'll be the king!"

He looked at the desperate villagers and spread out his hands as if he wanted to embrace the new world!

It was nothing. It was more appropriate to welcome the King of the undercity of Qena City than to use a battle of a hundred people to bury him together!

The whole audience was stunned, and only William's nose kept sniffing.

A pungent smell came from the sky earlier than that of the poisonous gas.

Seeing Sirius's laughter and everyone's despair, William steeled his heart!

"Are you kidding me?"

"I'd love to see you. How can I laugh later?"

William forced herself to take a breath and suddenly broke away from Liu Tigger's support.

He darted to the campfire where still had sparks left!

Under the watchful eyes of the people, he picked up a piece of wood that was still burning and had sparks in his hand.

"William! What are you doing!" Liu Tigger shouted out loud.

Everyone's eyes were on William.

Holding a piece of wood, William seemed to be crazy.

Unexpectedly, he said in public, "There are thousands of flowers in the cold wind night! Even more so! Stars fall like rain! Let me show you how beautiful the stars and fire are like rain!"

As he said that, he threw the wood in his hand into the sky!

The wood with sparks suddenly broke through the poisonous fog and disappeared.

Just when Sirius is about to laugh, his eyes suddenly narrow!

An ear-deafening explosive sound was heard in the air!

This was!

Everyone looked up into the sky!

An explosive sound could be heard from the fog of poison that had disappeared from the wooden block.

Then, there were faint sparks!

Then, sparks were getting bigger and bigger!

The sound of the explosion was getting louder and louder!

"Boom!" "Boom!"

A deafening sound suddenly exploded in the sky!

The ball of poisonous fog emitted a dazzling fiery light!

This ball of fire was like a flood dragon that was shuttling through the sea of clouds, quickly spreading towards the location of the poisonous fog!

"Bang bang bang!"

The whole sky seemed to be ignited by William's one hand, and the sound of the explosion was endless!

The sky was as bright as a white explosion, illuminating everyone's shocked faces!

What the hell was going on!

Why was the sky on fire!

Only William made hysterical laughter. "If you want to die, let's die together!"

From the moment they released the poisonous fog, William smelled a strong smell of sulfur.

The poisonous fog in the sky was mixed with a large amount of sulfur.

Since the other party was wearing a protective mask, then what if sparks rained down like rain?

Watching all of you being trapped in this scorching hot hell, how are you going to defend yourselves?

In the blink of an eye, the sound of explosions in the sky became louder and louder. Countless sparks quickly fell like meteorites falling to the ground!

On the ground, the houses in the whole Lantern Village were built with thatches.

A fire was ignited in just a few points!

In an instant, all the houses were on fire, and the Lantern Village was really turned into a fiery hell!

Liu Tigger gawked at this unbelievable scene and was completely dumbfounded.

He didn't dare believe it. There was someone who, with his own strength, set the sky aflame!

What was more, he couldn't believe that a great deal of flowers fell down like a shower of stars at the night when the wind blew!

A line that should have been beautiful and moving, in William's mouth, had become so tragic and heroic!

All the houses were on fire, which meant that they were no different from flowers and trees!

The rain of fire in the sky wasn't just a rain of stars!

It was cruel to the extreme!

However, if not for the fact that he was so cruel, how could he have developed the hope of living and dying together with them!

He had to die. He had to die together!

"I'll never let this Sirius go easy!"

And when Sirius saw this scene, he was so scared that he couldn't even speak!

He originally thought that it would be a piece of cake for him to bring the poisonous fog up the mountain and bury this group of garbage.

But he didn't expect it!

William, who appeared out of nowhere!

He actually had the ability to fight back in such a decisive way!

The fire dragons raged in the sky!
The purgatory on earth!

Accompanied by the thick smoke rising from all over the place, the scene was a terrible one!

"Quickly escape!" Sirius could not help but shout.

His subordinates immediately scattered like wild animals, howling like ghosts and howls like wolves.

However, would he be able to escape?

The fire had already swallowed the whole village, and the smoke was so thick that people couldn't open their eyes.

Where else could he run to?

He was afraid that he could only be burned to death here!

Even Sirius showed a hint of fear at this moment!

All the villagers looked at William, who was swaying but not falling in a daze, and all of them burst into tears.

"Am I going to die?"

Lantern Village could die.

However, how could he die?

It was the young man named William who made a choice for them at the last moment of their lives.

He didn't get killed in a humble way.

Instead, he would use an incense lamp to burn them to death with dignity!

They even had the impulse to kneel down to this young man.

But at this time, William's body trembled slightly and he looked somewhere.

He immediately looked at the villagers, and his voice was cold to the bone.

"I'll give you another choice!"

"Do you want to die by burning, or..."

"Wake up from the ashes!"
