

Chapter 315

Harper's heart was full of regret!

Damn it!

How could he be so lucky when his enemy was still alive!

Fortunately, someone came to save her just now. Otherwise, if Young Madam was killed by this b*stard again today, she would not be able to atone for her life even if she committed suicide a thousand times!

"Catch this guy!" Harper roared.

All of a sudden, they rushed over and pressed the Falcon to the ground.

The scene was eerily quiet.

Harper looked at Felicity, only to see that Felicity's eyes were dull. He looked at the ground as if he was in a daze.

Harper thought that Felicity was stunned by the scene just now and was about to apologize.

At this time, Hugo He suddenly cried out!

"This silver needle! This silver needle! This!"

He was so excited that he couldn't even say a word!

Felicity, on the other hand, was in tears, all of a sudden, her big bean was falling down!

She ran toward the door like crazy!

At this time, Harper finally fixed his eyes on the ground.

This time, his whole body was shivering with cold!

A piece of vermilion, a Needles of Ruby Flower!

Wasn't this Needles of Ruby Flower left to the young master by the old master?

If the Needles of Ruby Flower appeared, would the young master be far away?

The young master was still alive!

At the thought of this, Harper's tears flowed down his face and he knelt down in front of the door!

If the young master was still alive, she would have a place to redeem herself for all the sins she had committed.

A familiar but indifferent voice came from the door.

"Hey, when did my home become so lively? Alas, it hurts..."

When Felicity ran to the door, he saw a man wearing sunglasses and a mask struggling to come in.

After guarding for ten years, William was turned into ashes. Felicity could recognize him!

Her heart seemed to explode completely, and for a moment, she could not find any words to describe herself.

With a quick step, she threw herself directly at that person!

Only when she heard William's cry of pain did she wake up. She let go of William and looked at him distressedly.

At this time, William finally took off her sunglasses and mask, but revealed the scars on her face.

Felicity's tears crashed down. She painfully reached out her hand to touch the scars on William's face.

William had been missing for three days. She really didn't know what kind of grievance William had suffered outside.

"However, it's good to come back, it's good to come back..."

William gently grabbed the hand of the snow and touched her face, feeling a warm current flowing from her palm to her heart.

"William, you took a thousand cuts. Why don't you really die..." Felicity was moved and burst into tears.

William gently touched her hair and said, "Go in, I'll talk about my business later. I can't let the guests wait too long."

This gentle yet familiar touch caused tears to flow down Felicity's face once again.

"I don't need a good image at this time."

She nodded obediently, but held on to William instead. The two of them slowly walked towards the hall together.

William's appearance in the hall once again caused the whole audience to be shocked!

His face was full of injuries, as if he had climbed out of hell!

Falcons were so horrified that their souls were about to fly out of their bodies!

Wasn't William dead!

Who was standing here now!?

How could a dead come back to life?

"What on earth happened here?"

When Hugo saw William, he was also so excited that his eyes were full of tears!

It's good that he's not dead!

"It's good that he's not dead!"

If she died, there would be no point in Qena City anymore!

If I die, I won't have any fun anymore!

This fella really did have nine lives, so it should also be his nine lives!

However, if William did not die, then...

"William, Tigger, he?" Hugo couldn't help but ask.

When he asked this, his heart was still trembling.

Liu Tigger was his most loyal right-hand man, and Hugo would not let him go.

William smiled and said, "I'm here to take something."

William had just driven to the door with Liu Tigger, only to find that there were numerous cars parked outside the door. She immediately found that there was something wrong with her family.

So he got out of the car in a hurry and saved Felicity and snow at the critical moment.

Hugo's words made the old man burst into tears!

"He's not dead!"

And he didn't die either!

However, Falcon seemed to have been struck by lightning, and they were all dumbstruck.

Were both of them still alive!

Could it be that Brother Sirius had managed to escape with his life?

What the fk!

It was really a disaster that would be passed down for thousands of years!

However, what about Brother Sirius? Since they appeared, it meant that Brother Sirius would also come after them.

As long as he could hold on until Brother Sirius showed up, he would survive.

As soon as William entered the door, she saw a man kneeling straight in front of her.

After seeing that it was Harper, William quickly helped him to his feet.

"Young master, I didn't protect you well. I don't deserve to die!" Harper said in a low voice on the ground.

When William heard him address her as "young master" in public, she seemed to understand something.

He smiled and helped him up. "Am I not dead? It's not your fault. Get up first, and we'll talk about it later."

Only then did Harper stand up.

William made an obeisance by cupping one hand in the other before his chest to Hugo and Frandick. "Thank you for your help, my two elders. I thank you on behalf of my wife."

Hugo and Frandick hurriedly returned the salute, indicating that there was no need to take it to heart.

Then William looked at Bernard, who was lying dead on the ground, and then looked at the Falcon who was being held down tightly. "He was the one who wanted to kill my wife just now?"

Frandick was most clear about the situation inside, so he quickly explained the cause and effect to Hugo.

William smiled a little. "Oh? You thought that I was dead, so you came to find trouble with my wife?"

Falcons and William looked at each other.

William gave Falcon a very strange feeling.

It was clear that this guy's temperament was unremarkable, and now his face was full of injuries, showing a very weak look.

However, what was going on with that pair of eyes!

He was like a dragon or a phoenix, proud beyond compare!

Under such eyes, Falcon unconsciously lowered their heads.

"You're called Falcon, right? Do you have any last words?" William asked.

Falcon made up their minds and raised their heads to say: "William, don't be so arrogant here! Who do you think you are? You're still heavily injured by our Mr. Sirius. Although I don't know how you managed to escape, as long as my Mr. Sirius is alive, you won't be able to live a good life in Qena City! One of Falcon is dead, and tens of millions of Falcons are coming for you for revenge!"

Hearing this, William actually applauded. "What you said is really soul-stirring. These days, you have swallowed Brother Tigger's territory, haven't you?"

"That's right! Mr. Sirius is the only one in the entire family, who would dare to provoke him!" Falcon-like predator issued an internal order.

"How about I provoke them?" A domineering voice sounded at the door.

All the people looked up and came in. It was Liu Tigger, who was full of vigor and power!

In his hand, there was a cloth bag that gave off a stinky smell.

Seeing Liu Tigger coming over, William smiled and said to Falcon, "Then let's make a reward for your soul-stirring words just now, Brother Tigger..."

Liu Tigger threw the bag in his hand to Falcon.

As for William, he gently covered his curious eyes with one hand.

"Baby, good girl. I won't look at ugly things."

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 316

Felicity's pretty face turned red.

Although she was curious, after hearing William's gentle words, she still closed her eyes obediently.

The cloth bag spread out in the air, and a round object rolled to the front of Falcon.

When the crowd saw that thing clearly, they exclaimed at the same time!

It was disgusting!

That thing suddenly turned out to be Sirius's head, whose eyes were wide open in anger!

The head of the falcon was already pressed to the ground, and the head rolled to a place less than a centimeter away from him.

Their eyes met!

That stench, as well as the strong visual impact, actually scared the vicious Falcon. He was about to die on the spot!

"what!" "what!" "what!" "what!"

He let out a pig-killing scream!

He looked at the head of Brother Sirius in front of him in disbelief, and his heart fell to the bottom.

"How is that possible! How could you possibly send Mr. Sirius... He brought nearly two hundred people!" Falcon cried out.

William didn't bother to talk nonsense with him. She waved her hand and said, "Take him away, Brother Tigger. Rest for one day today. Starting from tomorrow, I want you to have two heads within three days. Clean the rest of the evil! Pass on bull ears!"

William's last six words made the scene quiet again!

"Evil Qing!"

"What the f*ck!"

How domineering!

He was planning to unify the underworld of Qena City once again!

However, with the heads of the Skywolf and falcons in hand, the enemies would be too scared to resist!

Liu Tigger agreed in a deep voice, and his eyes were also bursting with strong killing intent!

Liu Tigger had suffered a lot during the battle in the Lantern Village!

There was no way for him to repay William's favor, so he decided to report it to the old emperor of Qena City!

When Hugo heard the words and answers of the two people, his eyes also sparkled with a strange light.

No matter how unwilling Falcon were, they had no choice but to be taken away in despair.

Everyone at the scene knew what would happen to him.

William thanked Frandick for saving the scene again and said, "I'll visit you to thank you some other day!"

Frandick had been so provoked by Qin Yu today that he could not stand it anymore.

He looked at William with mixed feelings and didn't know what to say.

He had thought that William was just a person in charge of Lunanica Company.

Now it seemed that William's identity had long surpassed his!

He silently made an obeisance by cupping one hand in the other before his chest and then left the Bai family quietly with his men.

"Old Master Li, I know you have doubts too. Please wait here with Brother Tigger for a while. I'll have a few words with Senior Wang and my wife." As William spoke, he brought Felicity and Harper into the room.

In the room, the three people were silent.

William broke the silence and said to the snow, "Feng and snow, now you know that Mr. Wang is my man."

Felicity's eyes suddenly became faint. "William, how many secrets do you have? Why did Mr. Wang call you young master? What's your identity?"

William gave a wry smile, thought for a moment, and said to Felicity, "Felicity, my identity is not suitable to tell you yet. The more you know, the more dangerous it is for you. But I can tell you two things. One, I have a blood feud, and I have to avenge it."

"Second, I love you, love is stronger than gold."

Felicity stared at William and suddenly asked, "William, a few months ago, we were going to get divorced. Did something happen?"

William was stunned and bitterly said: "On that day, my grandfather passed away. Elder Wang told me about it."

Felicity was also a smart person and immediately figured out the key point in the middle.

The Rolls-Royce that came to pick up William that day was Harper's.

It was also from that day on that William's whole temperament had undergone a great change.

Just what kind of suffering had made him endure for ten years!

Just what kind of hatred had caused him to be covered in blood and tears from now on?

However, since William said that it was not the time yet, the snow storm would not ask too much.

When the time came, William would naturally tell her.

This was a small tacit understanding between the two of them.

"Xuexue, I'm hungry. I really want to make breakfast for you." William said with a smile.

Felicity blushed, rolled his eyes at William, and then went to prepare breakfast.

She walked out of the room and suddenly let out a violent sigh of relief.

This was where the heavy burden had been unloaded.

The sun was rising outside, and everything was full of vitality.

After William gave Harper a few matters, he told Harper to leave first.

At the same time, in the hall, Liu Tigger suddenly knelt down to Hugo.

With this kneeling, Hugo sighed as if he had understood something. "Hey, after all, you are William's man, but I don't blame you. William, this boy, has the emperor's face. Tell me what happened in the past few days."

Liu Tigger nodded and told Hugo everything that had happened in the Lantern Village.

When it came to William's several attempts to save people and finally he made a deafening roar after escaping from the death in the Immortal Pond, Hugo, a man who had been on the battlefield for a long time, also patted the table with one hand and shouted loudly!

His eyes were red and his temperament was agitated!

A one-on-one meeting! It was a happy ending!
What a great opportunity to save the common people! This was an eternal place!

There was a loud roar of anger, as if the tiger was looking at a vast expanse of land!

There was such an amazing person as William between heaven and earth!

"Jianghu is a blessing! People are a blessing! The world is a blessing!"

There was actually a kind of regret in Hugo's heart!

He hadn't expected to miss this battle!

"I can't experience it with my own eyes, let alone see it with my own eyes!"

"What a pity in my life!"

However, he also completely understood how William was able to win over Liu Tigger.

Not only did he have the image of an emperor, but he also had the posture of a god of war!

Hugo spent several minutes before he calmed down and joked, "Do you remember the first time we discussed William?"

Liu Tigger was stunned. It was as if his thoughts had come back to a few months ago.

At that time, Liu Tigger had just helped William carry the knife to the Lin family, and the killing was also very powerful!

Afterward, Hugo asked Liu Tigger what he thought of William. Liu Tigger said that he was a bloodthirsty killer of Gao Song and deserved to be an ambitious man of his generation!

He even said that if he didn't pledge allegiance to Hugo in his life, he would pledge allegiance to William!

Now, one word had come to an end!

He had truly submitted to William.

It seemed that the time was right, and his life was also there!

And Hugo didn't stop smiling.

He thought of Harper's previous bet and now, Harper had also submitted to William.

Thinking of Liu Tigger's words, Liu Tigger also worshipped William as the king.

He even thought that at the end of the conversation with Liu Tigger, he said a word.

"Let me tell you the truth. I'm afraid that the greatest effort I have to do for the rest of my life is to keep a proud heart and not be submitted to him! This person absolutely has an emperor's talent! He can create a perfect plan to pacify the world and be domineering in martial arts! If I am not careful, I will be easily convinced by him."

"Everything is like a chess piece. It seems that even I can't decide what will happen to me in the future."

"Old Master Li, you can rest assured. Although I have submitted to William, if you have any orders, I will go through fire and water without hesitation. I believe William will not have any objections," Liu Tigger finally said in a deep voice.

But at this time, Hugo suddenly asked strangely, "What if I fight with William?"

Chapter 317

Liu Tigger was stunned.

His mind was full of questions, and he really didn't think of such a situation.

But Hugo immediately laughed out. "Hahaha, I'm just kidding. Don't worry, I appreciate that kid William very much. What's more, he saved my life. I know how to repay his kindness. If it weren't for my age and my face, I'm afraid I would have surrendered to William earlier than you."

Liu Tigger's heart was finally at ease.

At this time, William came out.

William looked at Hugo's resentful face and smiled slightly. "Old Master Li, it seems that you know all about it. I'm really sorry."

However, Old Master Li walked to William and patted him on the shoulder. He smiled and said, "You don't have to be embarrassed. I have expected this kind of ending. It seems that the next Qena City will be very interesting. If you think well of my life, you must be the first to inform me in the next battle like this in the Lantern Village! You owed me a promise a few months ago!"

Seeing Hugo open-minded, William smiled and said, "It must be the first time."

Hugo looked at William with satisfaction, and then left William's house with Liu Tigger.

William, on the other hand, gently enjoyed the quiet time alone with the two of them.

After all, they wouldn't have a good time starting from tomorrow.

On the one hand, Liu Tigger wanted to get rid of the remaining evils in Qena City. On the other hand, William thought of Sirius's identity.

He was a disciple of Frederick of the Yellow-crowned Martial Club. If he was dead, what would the Frederick do?

He was completely different from the bludgeon in the martial arts world.

The news that William was still alive was received by Melissa and others on the same day.

All sorts of feelings welled up in Melissa's heart for a moment.

Unbeknownst to her, she managed to pull another small group out of the crowd.

The name was "Reverend Qing Ming and pay respects to the small squad".

There were woods, Flavia, and Janet pulled in by her, Excluding Felicity.

"..." Flavia was speechless.

"..." Janet.

"..." Lydia was speechless.

Melissa saw that everyone was speechless. He didn't know what to say for a moment and wrote, "I have bought the coffin. Now tell me that my son is still alive."

"I've already bought my tombstones," Flavia said.

"I've already dug up the grave pits." Janet said.

"I've picked all the chrysanthemums," Lydia said.

Melissa was in a trance again.

For a long time, no one spoke in the group.

In the end, Melissa's hands were trembling and he cried out loud.

In an instant, several women put on an expression of crying together, as if there was a hidden resentment that was about to be released.

"It's such a fine day," said Wang Qinghua in confusion.

"Well, there is no spring that won't come." Flavia said.

"Well, she is also in a good mood." Lydia said.

"Yes, another day full of enthusiasm!" Janet said.

"Dismiss." As soon as Melissa cotton-padded hair was done, the group was disbanded.

This group was the shortest group in history, but it brought a long-lasting warmth to several women.

Melissa opened the curtains in the office and carried Lin Momo on his back.

Her tears suddenly fell down.

It's so nice that he's not dead...

William, I really hope that you can live to a hundred years. You can only live for ten million years by raiding the small team in the ancestral graves.

The next day, Liu Tigger took action.

But unexpectedly, a piece of news came out from the Medicine Association.

Felicity directly took over the eastern region of the city that Bernard was in charge of before. Now, in a person's position, Felicity was in charge of the two regions of the eastern and southern areas of the city at the same time.

This news directly set off the medical industry in Qena City!

One must know that Bernard was faintly the histology's Vice President of the Medicine Association.

The east part of the city he was in charge of

was the center of the city, and it was the most developed region.

Oil was the most abundant, and power was the most.

Ever since Bernard stepped down, there had been many people watching this place.

He didn't expect that it would end up in Felicity's hands!

And now, Felicity and Snow were even more shocking.

At the same time, he is in charge of the southern part of the city and the eastern part of the city!

Power was much more powerful than the previous Bernard's.

It could be said that Felicity was the strongest under Frandick!

She had just taken office a few days ago!

For a moment, every citizen of Qena City's pharmaceutical company was envious of Felicity and their eyes were red.

At this rate, Felicity was bound to be the next president of the Association of Medicine, so he had no doubt about his words.

When William heard the news, she was also stunned for a moment.

But on second thought, he also knew it clearly.

Frandick must be aware of the relationship between him, Harper, and Hugo He, so he made a great effort in this move and was ready to bind himself firmly with the drug association.

However, doing so had no effect on William. After all, William still remembered that he had not fulfilled his three promises that he owed Felicity.

However, to William's surprise, when Felicity heard this news, he was actually unruffled.

William asked her, but got a warm answer.

"Is there anything happier than the fact that you've come here with me?"

Well, today, Felicity was completely immersed in William's arms, completely ignoring that William was still injured.

As for the news of the blizzard, it caused some people's faces to turn white.

Bai family!

At this moment, the members of the Bai Family were all sitting in Yasmine's house, their faces pale.

They had been so cruel that they broke up with Felicity before that they were almost put in prison.

Then, what kind of benefits did they gain?

There was no benefit at all!

"But what kind of evil consequence did I get?"

Felicity became the vice president and took charge of them directly.

Then a few days ago, many of the businesses in the upper and lower realms had worked with them. When they heard that the Bai family had broken off with Felicity, they all became hostile and broke off the cooperation with the Bai family.

Now, Felicity was more powerful, in charge of two areas!

Such an evil result was completely unbearable for the Bai family.

If things went on like this, the Bai family would be finished sooner or later.

In the midst of their pale faces, only Xena's heart was filled with joy. His sister and brother-in-law seemed to be getting more and more powerful.

"Do you want to break up with your family, and then pretend to be pitiful to go to your sister and brother-in-law?"

"My brother-in-law doesn't know, but my sister will certainly take me in, won't she?" Hee hee.

Yasmine suddenly hit the table and said, "Tell us what we should do now! We can't wait to die."

The people at the scene looked at each other.

None of them spoke a word.

Steven was also as silent as a frosted eggplant, not daring to make a sound.

After all, he was a person who had been through hell.

"Mom, why don't we change to do something else?" Bai Shengliang said in a weak voice.

But Yasmine refused directly, "Can you talk? Bai family's pharmacy is a hundred-year-old industry. Are you going to smash our rice left by our ancestors in my place? Shut up if you can't talk!"

Everyone looked at each other.

Finally, Yasmine looked at Xena and asked, "Ruoshuang, what's your idea?"

Xena wanted to spread her hands and pretend to be confused, but then she suddenly thought of something and said, "Why don't we go and beg my sister and brother-in-law to come back?"

Chapter 318

This sentence made the atmosphere at the scene even stranger.

Everyone lowered their heads and looked at each other.

Xena laughed in his heart.

In fact, everyone was well aware of this suggestion.

Everyone thought so in their hearts, but no one dared to say it out loud.

Because this was the best way.

However, one by one, the Bai family members were all too proud, and they were all eager to accept the fact.

The reason why Xena said this was purely to disgust them.

"Xena, what do you mean by this?" Yasmine looked at Xena with an unfriendly expression.

Bai Xena didn't care and said: "Everyone knows that big sister's power is so great that she naturally wants to make peace with her. After all, we don't have the qualifications to be enemies with her anymore."

The crowd was once again ashamed of what they had just heard.

Now, they didn't even have the right to stand in front of Felicity.

But was he really going to beg Felicity to come back?

At the thought of this, everyone felt as uncomfortable as if they had eaten shit.

After all, he had already begged for it once before, and now he had to use it the same way again?

Felicity was completely different from before.

Was it really that easy to fool her?

"In addition to surrendering to her, is there any other way for everyone to let her take the initiative to return to our Bai family?" Yasmine asked.

Her words almost made Xena laugh out loud.

Oh, I want to be a witness again, and I want to build a monument again. I'm really like the Bai family.

"We can only see if we can find a middleman to plead for leniency." Zhang Rebecca muttered under the platform.

"But, who are you looking for?" Yasmine frowned and thought for a while.

At this moment, Steven suddenly raised his head and said, "Grandma, I suddenly thought of someone."

Yasmine looked at Steven, disgust written all over her face.

Steven had scolded Yasmine for being an old man in front of everyone, which completely shattered Yasmine's impression of him.

Now, Steven was in the Bai family. He could only live in seclusion, and Yasmine didn't put him in an important position at all.

But at this moment, Yasmine had no choice but to ask, "Who is it?"

"Felicity's uncle, Zhang Ruolong," Steven said.

Hearing Zhang Ruolong's name, the faces of the on-site people froze.

Zhang Rebecca couldn't even raise his head.

On the other hand, Yasmine scolded angrily, "Don't talk to me about that poor relative who only knows how to brag but has nothing to do with success. Our Bai family doesn't have such relatives!"

Just like what Yasmine had said, Zhang Rebecca was Rebecca's elder brother.

He was already 50 years old. He lived in the village and did nothing. He wandered around every day in the village and played mahjong everywhere.

In his early years, he had been living in the complicated human world. He had spent two years in jail before he came out.

In the past few years, as long as he had no money, he would borrow money from Zhang Rebecca. Even if he had borrowed money, he wouldn't be able to return it. In a rage, Yasmine told Zhang Rebecca to cut off all ties with him.

What was the use of such a poor relative in everyone's eyes?

But Steven said in a low voice, "You should know what Felicity's biggest concern for the Bai family is? It's her father. And Zhang Ruolong and her father had a good relationship in the early years. There was a traffic accident when they went out together. It was Zhang Ruolong who saved her father's life."

"Felicity always remembers this life-saving favor, and he has a good relationship with Zhang Ruolong when he was young..."

As Steven spoke, the people at the scene became silent.

Steven's words were reasonable.

For a moment, they had forgotten the most crucial part.

Zhang Ruolong had a good relationship with Felicity's father and saved his life.

Felicity didn't dare to not repay such kindness, right?

However, when it came to the idea of facing

Zhang Ruolong, who only knew how to brag, everyone's head would be raised.

In the end, Yasmine thought that if she went on like this, the prestige of the Bai family would disappear. Now was not the time to stick to trifles.

She looked at Zhang Rebecca and said, "Rebecca, you should immediately call the bastard and test him first."

Looking at the faces of the Bai family, Zhang Rebecca sighed and took out his mobile phone to call Zhang Ruolong.

After all, Zhang Ruolong was Zhang Rebecca's biological brother, and the blood relationship between them was constant.

After Zhang Ruolong was cut off by the Bai family, Zhang Rebecca once held a grudge against Yasmine.

Now, the Bai family was in trouble, but they thought of their brother.

The phone was soon connected, and a very exaggerated voice came from inside, "Hey, isn't this my sister? Sister, why do you suddenly have time to call your brother?"

This exaggerated voice made everyone feel sick.

Zhang Rebecca looked at the crowd carefully and then said, "Brother, have you come to the city recently? I want to buy you a meal."

"Treat me to dinner? Oh, you know, I'm very busy. A bunch of business needs me to take care of. I don't have time," Zhang Ruolong said.

But everyone knew that Zhang Ruolong's business was gambling.

"Brother, my mother also wants to meet you." Zhang Rebecca glanced at Yasmine and said.

"Hey, which old woman? I don't like her. Please scold her for eighteen generations of her ancestors for me, okay?" Zhang Ruolong said casually.

Yasmine's face turned blue when she heard this, but she didn't lose her temper on the spot because she needed someone to help her.

"Brother, just come here. We have something important to discuss with you, so you can get a lot of benefits from it," Zhang Rebecca said without authorization.

When he heard the word "fortune", he said immediately, as if a dog had smelled shit, "Well, okay. Just now I was going to the city to find a brother who was said to have a great development. I'll go to your house by the way. But we agreed that if you ask me to go out again, I'll be completely ungrateful to you."

Zhang Rebecca was embarrassed when he heard that. This brother began to brag again.

"What a strong brother. If he had such a relationship, he could stay in the countryside all day long and be despised everywhere like a dead dog."

After they had arranged the time and hung up the phone, there was a silence.

"Well, let's talk about it tomorrow when we meet." Yasmine said this and left with a gloomy face.

Everyone could tell that she was in a very bad mood.

In the early morning of the next day, Yasmine and the others were waiting at home for Rebecca's arrival.

Nine o'clock passed, and ten o'clock passed.

The crowd waited until twelve o'clock, and Zhang Ruolong finally arrived.

Yasmine was so angry that she almost wanted to kick him out.

When they saw Zhang Ruolong, they were all stunned.

He didn't come alone, but two people.

The other was his similarly infamous son, Zhang Jin.

Both of them were dressed in flower-printed shirts, looking casual. They were obviously country bumpkins from the countryside.

"Brother, Gold, you finally come. Come in and let's talk." Seeing that everyone's expression was unkind, Zhang Rebecca hurriedly welcomed the two into the house.

However, Zhang Ruolong patted his stomach and said, "It's noon now. Don't you eat? I've booked the private rooms of the hotels in your city. Let's just have a simple meal there. Of course, you have to pay for it, haha."

@vamp20w0111

Chapter 319

Yasmine was on the verge of exploding with anger!

Zhang Ruolong was shameless to the extreme!

He had made an appointment to meet her at home at nine o'clock.

This guy was shameless and didn't show up until 12 o'clock.

"It turns out that he just wants to take advantage of the Bai family to have a meal!"

This was the way it was!

He was so narrow-minded!

It's a joke to say that he's a relative of the Bai family!

However, Yasmine didn't lose her temper. She only put on a fake smile and said: "Ruolong knows our Qena City's hotel. It's rare, and it's also fine. It's rare for you all to come from the countryside, so we'll go out and eat today."

"Oh, I'm flattered. In fact, I eat in hotels very often. It's always annoying to have so many brothers. I have a life-and-death brother who is a famous figure in Qena City. I'll introduce him to you when I'm in a good mood." Zhang Ruolong said as he picked up his clothes and patted his belly.

The white and greasy beer belly made everyone feel sick.

When everyone arrived at the hotel, Yasmine gnashed her teeth in anger again.

Zhang Ruolong, who was shameless, also knew the most famous hotel in Qena City. He booked a private room and ordered a table of dishes in advance.

It was obvious that he wanted to eat a blank meal.

After everyone was seated, the father and son of the Zhang family began to attack the food in front of them without hesitation.

The two of them were like hungry ghosts, eating the dishes on the table in a mess.

Especially Zhang Ruolong, he kicked off his slippers and just sat on the chair with bare feet. With one hand holding the vegetables and the other playing with the mobile phone, he ate happily.

In the end, he burped heavily and opened his clothes again to show his white belly. He patted them and said, "Well, we've eaten. Just tell us what you want to say. I don't believe that you will invite us to dinner when you have nothing to do. We all know what's going on."

Yasmine was stunned for a moment. Sure enough, although this guy seemed to have nothing to do, he was still somewhat discerning for he had been living in society for a long time.

Knowing that the Bai family was asking him for a favor, he dared to book a private room in the hotel directly.

Yasmine finally swallowed her saliva and said, "Ruolong, we were not nice to you before. Don't take it to heart."

Zhang Ruolong patted his stomach and said with a smile, "No problem, no problem."

"Actually, there's something that needs your help." Yasmine said, "Recently, there's been a misunderstanding between us. You've been on good terms with him, haven't you? I was wondering if you can help us talk to him so that she can calm down."

Zhang Ruolong looks around and says with a smile: "I wondered just now why my beautiful and lovely niece Felicity wasn't here. It turns out that she was in conflict with you. However, you're an old woman who keeps your words at home. How dare my niece disobey you?"

This guy kept calling her an old woman, which made Yasmine so angry that blue veins stood out on her face.

She was about to explain when she saw

Zhang Ruolong's strange smile.

Could it be that this fellow...

Sure enough, Zhang Ruolong said with a smile, "Just now, I saw that my lovely niece was not here, so I searched her with my mobile phone. Unexpectedly, my niece seems to be very beautiful recently. You have broken up with her."

As soon as he finished his words, everyone's face changed.

Although Zhang Ruolong was shameless, he was really scheming!

How could he search for information about Felicity when he saw that Felicity wasn't there?

Now, the initiative was completely in his hands!

"So, you're asking me to persuade Feng and Feng to return to the Bai family so that she can be your puppet, aren't you?" Zhang Ruolong said again.

Seeing that the situation was not right, Zhang Rebecca quickly said, "Brother, we are all family. What are you talking about? You can help me, or else, I will be homeless."

At this time, Zhang Ruolong said while picking his teeth, "Okay, I can help you. Anyway, I haven't seen Felicity for a few years. It doesn't matter to meet her. But..."

"But what?" Everyone was worried, knowing that Zhang Ruolong would definitely make a big deal out of it.

"But I have to buy a house for my son recently. He is thirty years old and hasn't bought a house yet. Several blind dates he had before were yellowed..." Zhang Ruolong said.

Yasmine's face was ashen. "Just say it."

"Nothing. I'm just short of money. Let's see if you can borrow three or five hundred thousand yuan." Zhang Ruolong said with a smile.

Yasmine was so angry that she did not know what to say.

In the end, it was Zhang Rebecca who bargained and offered 200,000 yuan.

Everyone knew in their hearts that although the money was borrowed, it was true that there was no borrowing.

After the price was settled, Yasmine said with a sullen face, "You can go to your niece for borrowing money. She has plenty of money."

However, Zhang Ruolong said with a smile, "Of course. I kept her to buy a car for my son. My son has been very interested in luxury cars recently."

Everyone was shocked by Zhang Ruolong's despicable and shameless behavior.

"Well, we've had dinner and talked about it. I'm a little sleepy. Help me and my son get two rooms here, and we'll sleep here for two days," Zhang Ruolong said again.

Yasmine almost wanted to turn over the table on the spot!

"Bastard, I want to give him face, but I don't!"

In the end, it was Zhang Rebecca who grabbed Yasmine's hand and whispered, "Mom, the overall situation is more important."

"Zhang Ruolong, you'd better solve this matter! Otherwise, I will not let you go!" Yasmine finally said angrily.

Zhang Ruolong leisurely raised the word "man" and said, "Don't worry, old woman. You can take money to help people solve their problems. I know Jianghu rules better than you. Besides, I have a powerful brother here in the city. If I can't do anything, I will ask my brother for help. The niece, Felicity, still listens to me."

In the evening, Felicity suddenly received a phone call from Zhang Ruolong, saying that he had come to the city. He ordered a table at the hotel tonight and asked her to come over for dinner.

Felicity immediately became suspicious in his heart.

This uncle, Felicity was quite speechless to him, but he couldn't say anything because of his feelings.

They haven't seen each other for a few years, but he actually took the initiative to invite me to dinner?

It was more painful to ask him to pay than to kill him.

"What on earth is going on here?"

William, who was on the side, smiled and said, "Don't you understand? Those people from the Bai family are behind the scenes."

Felicity understood immediately after being reminded. She wanted to refuse, but she heard William say, "I'll go with you. The debts of father will be repaid. There are some favors to be repaid."

Felicity knew what William was talking about and nodded gratefully.

The two of them entered the hotel's private room and pushed open the door. Indeed, just like William had said, the Bai family members were sitting neatly in neat rows. They were forced to smile.

A fat fat middle-aged man spread out his hands and tried to hug Felicity. "My dear niece, I haven't seen you for several years. You're getting more and more beautiful. Come on, uncle, give me a hug!"

Chapter 320

Felicity saw Zhang Ruolong reaching out to her and frowned slightly. He lightly stepped behind William and then politely greeted him. "Uncle, nice to meet you. I really haven't seen you for a few years."

Felicity was very speechless with his uncle.

In Felicity's eyes, he was not even a man.

He had no responsibility as a man at all.

But he was the one who took all men's bad habits.

They ate, drank, drank, played with women, ate, and ate. There were all kinds of problems.

However, Felicity and Snow couldn't ignore him.

After all, he had a very good relationship with his father and had a life-long friendship.

When Zhang Jin saw Felicity, his eyes obviously lit up.

The last time he had met Felicity was five or six years ago.

At that time, although Felicity and snow were also very beautiful, they were still rather immature.

But now, the beauty in front of him had lost the innocence of the past, and she had a kind of woman's unique charm.

No wonder he could captivate a city of men.

Zhang Ruolong got nothing, but he didn't look embarrassed. He laughed and said, "My niece is still so shy. You don't have to be so polite with uncle."

When he turned his eyes to William, the smile disappeared in an instant.

Not only did Zhang Ruolong have a lot of free time, but he was also a big male chauvinist.

From the bottom of his heart, he looked down on son-in-law like William who was an out-of-the-way son-in-law.

He stared at William and said in a strange voice, "What are you doing here? Hey, are you beaten by someone? Hahaha."

There was still a wound on William's face.

When the whole Bai family saw that William was injured, they suddenly felt relieved.

This demon would also be beaten. Why didn't he beat him to death?

He would have to pay back sooner or later if he came out to work.

William did not answer Zhang Ruolong's question, but Felicity's face changed slightly. She pulled him and said, "Let's sit down first."

Zhang Ruolong sneered and said, "Is your big city so open-minded? If it's in our place, your son-in-law is not qualified to sit at the table and eat."

Seeing that Zhang Ruolong didn't let go of William at all, Felicity's heart trembled slightly.

Now she knew William's means.

"Slaughter for killing!"

This useless uncle didn't know how to appreciate favors.

If he provoked William, he was sure that he would not be able to walk out of the room today.

Fortunately, William had long been immune to this kind of trash talk. He shook the little hand of Felicity under the stage, indicating that it was okay, and he didn't take it to heart.

Zhang Ruolong, however, was still spouting nonsense. "This son-in-law of mine is equivalent to a married woman. Do you know three obediences and four virtues? When did the Bai family become so ill-mannered? They still have their ways when they taught me a lesson."

The people at the scene were very embarrassed when they heard that.

Especially those people from the Bai family.

Yasmine stared at William in a sinister manner. She did not speak on the surface, but her heart was filled with grief and anger.

It wasn't that the Bai family didn't have rules. It was that this bastard obviously didn't have any ability at all, but every time he got lucky, he was surprisingly lucky.

He was even willing to become a lackey for those big shots in Qena City.

Now, the Bai family had to be wary of him.

Now, another trash was pointing at the Bai family and scolding them without rules. It was conceivable that everyone felt jealous in their hearts.

However, although they were angry, the Bai family secretly looked at each other and did not speak tacitly.

This kind of dog bite dog, the more lively the scene, the better.

In the end, Felicity finally couldn't stand it anymore. She angrily raised her voice and said, "Uncle, let's stop talking about this, okay?"

Zhang Ruolong glanced at William as if he had spared his life. He muttered, "You can hide behind a woman and be a gigolo."

However, without William, the atmosphere at the scene was a little awkward.

After all, Felicity had just broken off all ties with the Bai family, and now they were sitting together. They had no common topic at all.

Yasmine winked at Zhang Ruochen.

Zhang Ruolong nodded and then said to Felicity, "My niece, it's not easy for me to come to the city. But I heard that you had a recent conflict with your mother and your grandmother."

Felicity already knew what they were here for, so he didn't answer them, with a cold face.

This made everyone furious.

"B*tch, you're getting more and more shameless."

"It's clear that we're giving you a way out, but you don't appreciate it."

Zhang Ruolong saw that there was something wrong with Felicity's expression and continued to say, "My niece, listen to my uncle's words, the silver nest is not as good as the dog nest of his own. There is nothing more important than his family. My uncle is just doing a peacemaker today. Let's toast each other and let the past go."

Everyone turned to look at Felicity.

Felicity took a deep breath and said, "Uncle, this is between me and them. Don't worry about it."

Zhang Ruolong's face changed slightly. Obviously, he didn't expect Felicity to be so determined.

He was used to being a man. If his wife dared to disobey him like this, he would teach her three obediences and four virtues.

Zhang Ruolong's tone also became a little unhappy. He said, "My niece has grown up and is disobedient. Hey, if your father sees you so disobedient, how sad he will be."

Felicity suddenly heard Zhang Ruolong mention his father and raised his eyebrows.

The meaning of her words couldn't be more obvious. She was using her father to pressure her.

As expected, Zhang Ruolong continued to say in grief, "If I had known that you would become so unfaithful and unfilial, I would not have saved your father at that time, in case he would be heartbroken when he sees you in the future."

Felicity's face suddenly became even more ghastly.

As for the Bai family, when they saw Zhang Ruolong take advantage of the problem to take advantage of the situation, they were all very proud of himself.

Sure enough, the wicked still needed to be dealt with by the wicked.

They were delighted to see Felicity suffer such a setback.

Felicity looked at William, who showed a faint smile. "It's good for you to make a decision. I support you."

She nodded and looked at Zhang Ruolong at last. "Uncle, I'll listen to you today, but only this time! This is the only time, not the next time."

Zhang Ruolong was so happy in his heart.

"Returning to your father's face."

I don't know which corner of your dad's face is worth two hundred thousand yuan. He's really too generous.

"Ha, ha, ha. You see, my niece is quite sensible, isn't she? That's right." Zhang Ruolong's mouth was twisted because of laughter.

However, Felicity suddenly looked at the members of the Bai family and his voice became cold. "I know what you're thinking. So let me put it first. Let's make an appointment for three times."

Everyone was stunned. They didn't expect Felicity and Feng Shaoyu to say that.

Felicity continued, "It's fine to make peace. First, I won't participate in any business or decision of the Bai family anymore."

Everyone's face froze and they turned to look at Yasmine.

Yasmine frowned and said, "Go on."

Felicity said in a low voice, "Second, within the privileges of the Vice President of the Medicine Association, I will handle official affairs with you. The reward and punishment should be fair."

Dissatisfaction was clearly flashing in everyone's eyes.

"Third, don't do things in my name outside." Felicity finally said.

As soon as Steven finished his last sentence, he couldn't help but slap the table and stood up. "Felicity, you are worse than a beast! You fking regard our Bai family as a beggar, aren't you?"
