

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 1526 – 1530

Chapter 1526

After a while, Lenan came back with a bottle of Maotai in a four-jin bottle.

Philip took over the bottle and opened the lid while saying to Charlie: “Charlie, since the year of her birth, every year on her birthday, I will spend a lot of money to save a batch of the best Moutai I can buy. So far, there is already a storage room in the basement. They are all auction-level top Maotais. They were originally prepared to wait for the wedding day of Sara to entertain relatives and friends. Today, let’s try it first!”

Lenan smiled and said: “Charlie, this batch of wine, for your Uncle is very precious. The storage room is like a grave, you can only get in. It has been stored for more than 20 years, and he hasn’t taken a bottle out to drink it. This is the first time today!”

Philip smiled and said, “This wine was originally prepared for the wedding of Charlie and Sara, so now it should be preheated!”

Sara on the side blushed immediately.

Charlie was inevitably embarrassed.

I am a married person now, how can I marry Sara again?

Philip also saw the embarrassment in Charlie’s expression, and said seriously: “Charlie, I know your current situation, you don’t have to have any psychological burden. Since your uncle is now healed, I must live another 20 or 30 years. No problem, uncle is Master, our family has been waiting for you for many years!”

Speaking of this, Philip said while pouring his wine, "In the next three years, you can solve the current problems in a few minutes, and then make a plan for your own future, whether you want to return to Eastcliff or Wade's home. , Think about all these things, but it doesn't matter if you return to the Wade family. In my eyes, you are the son-in-law of the Gu family. Everything in the Gu family belongs to you. It doesn't matter if you don't have the Wade family!"

"Yeah Charlie!" Lenan also said to the side: "You were born in Eastcliff and grew up in Eastcliff before you were eight years old. This is your root. After you marry Sara, the best choice is to return to Eastcliff life!"

"If you feel tired of these cumbersome things in Eastcliff's wealthy family, I also support you and my daughter to settle overseas together, and you don't need to worry about money. The assets of your Uncle are enough for the two of you in this world. In any country, you can live a lifetime without worries!"

Sara had a blushing face, and she didn't say a word shyly, but she looked at Charlie from time to time, and she could see that the expression in her eyes was full of tenderness.

Charlie knew that his marriage contract with Sara was the order of his parents.

And it has existed for more than 20 years, and he did not keep the promise of his parents. At this time, if he refuted it immediately, he would have no face to face dead parents.

So he nodded lightly and said seriously: "Uncle and Aunt Lenan, I will consider these issues carefully."

In his opinion, the best solution is to delay the matter first, and then slowly ease the matter.

Philip naturally agreed, and then handed Charlie a glass of wine. He also picked up a glass and said boldly, "Come on, Charlie! Finish this glass!"

Charlie nodded, and the two of them clinked their glasses, and drank all the Moutai in the glass.

Philip sipped his stomach with a glass of wine. The familiar and unfamiliar feeling made him smack his lips. He said excitedly: "Oh, now I understand that being rich and powerful is not as good as being healthy! Health is fundamental!"

As he said, he couldn't help asking Charlie: "By the way, Charlie, it is not convenient for you to tell uncle, what kind of magical medicine you gave me, how can it have such a magical effect? It's like an elixir!"

Chapter 1527

Charlie heard Philip's question about the rejuvenating pill and said with a smile: "Uncle, this medicine is called the rejuvenating pill. I dare not say that it is a real elixir, but I can say that it is at least half a fairy elixir. Medicine was refined by ancient Chinese geniuses, and I also obtained it by chance."

Philip did not doubt that he had him, and said seriously: "This medicine is really amazing. It really doesn't look like a mortal thing in the world. The feeling when I took the medicine just now is almost dreamlike! It seems that there are indeed many ancestors of whom we cannot understand their Supernatural powers!"

Charlie nodded in agreement.

Although he doesn't know who wrote the "Nine Profound Sky Classics", according to the age of the bottle, it should have been made in the Wang Dynasty.

And the bottle did not have any traces of later cutting, that is to say, the wooden box where the "Nine Profound Sky Classics" was originally stored should be put in in advance when making the mud before the Wang Dynasty craftsman made the jade pot spring bottle.

And the material of the wooden box and the "Nine Profound Sky Sutra" is also very magical, there is no problem with the fire, and it disappears instantly after opening it, and Charlie can't see through the mystery.

Therefore, he empathized with Philip's words.

After three rounds of wine, Philip became more and more interested and drank the wine very refreshingly. Soon, the two of them each dropped a kilogram of white wine.

Lenan suddenly remembered something at this moment and said: "Be careful, when you show up at the board of directors tomorrow, I'm afraid it will scare many people, especially the second and third."

Philip sneered: "That's right! Tomorrow, I will not only stun the entire board of directors, but also reorganize the entire board! I used to take care of my second and third wife, and I never dreamed that they would fall into trouble when I was seriously ill, but From tomorrow on, their days in the Gu Group will not be so comfortable!"

Lenan hurriedly said: "From now on, you must pay attention to the issue of personal safety. Whether it is a group or a family, you must have more bodyguards to prevent the elders and thirds from jumping over the wall."

Philip nodded: "Don't worry, I will communicate with the best security company tomorrow, and spend 200 million to hire the best security team to protect our family's safety 24 hours. From now on, except for this one Apart from the people in the house, I don't trust anyone anymore!"

The people in this room Philip said were his wife and daughter and Charlie.

Now, besides these three people, he really can't believe anyone.

Even his own younger brother can betray him, and even think of robbing his property, which is even more extreme. They even threatened him with the lives of his wife and children. This not only made him angry, but also made him feel disappointed and see through the nature of human nature.

What about brothers? In the face of interests, don't you also draw swords to each other?

Thinking of this, Philip looked at Charlie and said seriously: "Charlie, if you don't have any plans tomorrow, why not go with me? With you, uncle will be more confident."

Charlie naturally nodded and agreed without hesitation.

This time he came to Eastcliff to help Philip solve the problem.

The physical problem is solved, and the asset problem must be helped as much as possible.

Otherwise, the current Philip has recovered from a serious illness and his control of the group is at the weakest stage, and he may not be able to beat his two younger brothers.

In case his two younger brothers join other shareholders to squeeze him out, this is also a problem.

Moreover, Charlie was even more worried that his two younger brothers would want to kill him.

After all, they have been greedy by these hundreds of billions of property for so long, and they cannot give up easily.

Chapter 1528

Therefore, he must help Philip solve all the problems before leaving Eastcliff and returning to Aurous Hill.

Seeing Charlie's agreement, Philip sighed, took his wine glass, and said, "Come on, Charlie, uncle toasts to you!"

Charlie nodded and clinked glasses with him again.

Lenan saw the two drunk happily, and whispered to Sara beside her: "Your dad hasn't been so happy in a long time."

Sara also nodded repeatedly, and said in her mother's ear: "It seems that from the time Uncle Wade's accident until now, I haven't seen him so happy."

Lenan was under the table, gently holding her daughter's hand, and whispered: "Charlie is a good man, you must hold him!"

Sara was a little embarrassed and said, "Mom... you know... Charlie is already married and he is not divorced..."

Lenan said earnestly: "Stupid girl, he is your fiancé since you were a child. This is his wife who robbed you, not your husband!"

After a slight pause, Lenan said: "Besides, in Aurous Hill, I don't believe that a daughter with a family can be worthy of Charlie, and the local richest man is far from qualified. Looking at the entire Eastcliff city, those who can be worthy of Charlie, except you, Only the girl from the Su family."

"And you have a marriage contract with him. The two families are still friends for many years. It is justified and created by nature when you marry Charlie."

"Moreover, by then, you and him will have more sons! Your dad will definitely be happy all day long!"

Sara's pretty face flushed with shame: "Mom, then you say, how should I hold it...I don't have any experience in this area..."

Lenan said: "I will teach you slowly when I turn back!"

At this time, Charlie also responded to Philip with a glass of wine, and immediately said: "Uncle, I am here this time. In addition to seeing you and Aunt Lenan and helping you treat your illness, I also want to go to my parents' tomb. Where are the parents buried now?"

Philip gave a melancholy sigh, and said, "Your parents are now buried in Waderest Mountain in the western suburbs."

"Waderest Mountain?" Because Charlie listened to Philip uttering these two words, he didn't know which tomb belongs to his parents.

Therefore, he asked in surprise: "Uncle, why haven't I heard of this place you are talking about?"

Philip said: "Waderest Mountain is actually a mountain with excellent Fengshui in the western suburbs. Originally, your parents were buried in the tomb of Wade's in the northern suburbs, but something happened to the Wade family four years ago. They bought this mountain and renamed it Waderest Mountain. Wade is the leaf of your family, and the mausoleum is the resting place."

After speaking, Philip said again: “After the Wade family bought Waderest Mountain, they invested hundreds of millions to refurbish and develop the mountain. This development took three years. It was not completed until last spring. After the completion, Wade So the family moved the entire ancestral tomb. When the ancestral tomb was moved, there was a lot of movement and great momentum, and everyone in Eastcliff knew it.”

Charlie frowned: “The Wade family has been in Eastcliff for hundreds of years. Over a hundred ancestors were buried in the ancestral tomb. On such a large scale, the Wade family said that the accommodating whole moved?”

Philip nodded and said, “I heard the rumors about this incident that your grandfather fell ill unexpectedly four years ago, but no problem could be found. It did not help to seek medical advice anywhere.”

“Later, the Wade family also traveled across the famous Sichuan and Dashan Mountains across the country and visited many experts. After seeing the experts, they all left without saying a word, turning around, and asking why they didn’t mention a word...”

“Your grandfather was in madness, he went to the United States in person, and he invited back a hundred-year-old Chinese feng shui master after three visits to the thatched cottage. After the feng shui master came, he visited the tomb of Wade’s and said what the feng shui bureau of the Wade family is dark, And it’s not easy to resolve, so he instructed the family to move the ancestral grave to Waderest Mountains...”

Chapter 1529

Charlie didn’t care too much about Wade Family Fengshui and moving the ancestral grave.

He has no interest in the people and affairs of the Wade Family.

For the family, he actually only cared about two things.

First, where the parents are buried, and whether he can worship them;

Secondly, who were the people who hurt his parents and whether they were the Wade family members.

As for the other things of the Wade Family, he didn't want to take it into his mind.

Therefore, after listening to Philip's introduction of Waderest Mountain, Charlie asked: "Uncle, can I go to Waderest Mountain to worship?"

Philip said: "Waderest Mountain is the ancestral tomb of your Wade family and a place of feng shui. Usually the Wade family controls it very strictly. Outsiders can't enter at all. Even if I go, I have to greet the Wade family in advance and make an appointment. But you are Wade family's son, just say hello and you should be able to go directly."

Charlie shook his head and said, "Uncle, I don't want to tell them anything. I don't want the Wade family to know that I have come to Eastcliff, so I don't want to have too much contact with them for the time being."

Philip thought for a while, and then said: "Well, let me call your uncle later and say I want to pay homage to your parents and ask him to say hello to the people below. Then you disguise and we can go there together. After all, you look so much like your father. If you are in your generation, Parents Wade, they will definitely recognize you."

Charlie hurriedly got up and bowed deeply to Philip: "Uncle, thank you for your help!"

Philip hurriedly got up to help, and said with a trembling voice, "Charlie, what are you...what are you doing? You are the great benefactor of our family, why bother to salute me for this little thing..."

Charlie said solemnly: "Uncle, it's not a trivial matter to me that my deceased parents mattered. My parents passed away eighteen years ago and I never went to the grave to pay homage. It's really unfaithful and unfilial. It is of great significance to me that you can fulfill me and give me this opportunity to fulfill my filial piety. How can I not salute you!"

Upon hearing this, Philip hurriedly said: "Oh, you said the wrong thing. This is really not a trivial matter. Don't worry, uncle will take you there tomorrow!"

Lenan on the side said: "I will go with you and Sara will join too. If you and your father go, the Wade family will easily become suspicious. After all, the Wade family knows what is going on in our family."

Philip said: "It doesn't matter, we can let Charlie pretend to be my driver."

Lenan nodded, but insisted, "Then I mothers should be with you, too. I haven't visited Big Brother Wade and Miss Wade for half a year."

"Yes!" Sara hurriedly said, "Dad, you can let me and mom go together too!"

Philip nodded and said, "Okay, then we will go together tomorrow!"

After speaking, he thought about the time, and said: "In this way, in the morning, Charlie and I will go to the group to open the board of directors. You two will wait at home. After the meeting, we will come over and pick you up."

Lenan immediately agreed and said: "Okay!"

Between pushing the cup and changing the cup, Charlie and Philip killed the four-jin bottle of Moutai.

They were full of food and drink, and the two of them were in high spirits, so Philip took him and looked through many old photos in the study.

These old photos all have Charlie's parents. The earliest photos were when Charlie's parents were just married and before he was born.

Chapter 1530

Charlie's parents, from the looks of them, are also absolutely stunning human beings.

Charlie's father is handsome and tall, and his mother is glamorous and generous, especially the beauty of Charlie's mother, Lenan can't be compared with it, no matter what era, they are outstanding.

It's a pity that the pair of golden boys and girls who were famous in Eastcliff back then are now gone, leaving only mottled images and remaining memories.

At that time, Philip was not married, so at the wedding, he stood alone beside Charlie's father and took a photo with Charlie's parents.

Then there are photos of Philip and Lenan's wedding.

Charlie's parents were there at his wedding.

So, the four of them took a group photo.

Then, it was Charlie who was born, and the four people in the photo became five people. He was wrapped in a baby towel and hugged by his mother.

Then Sara was born.

As a result, the photo became six people.

These six people, from two children in their infancy, became Charlie standing beside parents, and then Sara also standing beside her parents.

Then, there was a group photo of the two children.

Charlie is half a head taller than Sara, so he looks like a big brother, while Sara is like a little sister, closely following Charlie's side.

What's interesting is that in the group photo of the two people, Sara grasped Charlie's arm tightly, with a very happy expression.

Charlie, who was on the side, always had a pretentious taste, deliberately trying to keep a distance from Sara.

Philip sighed while looking at these old photos for him: "I didn't expect that time flies so fast. In a blink of an eye, you are already so old."

Charlie saw so many old photos of his parents, his eyes were red, and he almost shed tears several times, but he abruptly endured it.

Seeing this, Philip patted his shoulder lightly and said, “Charlie, your parents know well. If they know the news of your safety, they will definitely be very happy.”

Charlie nodded and said with emotion: “It’s just that I feel a little shameless to face them. I haven’t worshipped them for so many years, and I am ashamed. Moreover, for so many years, I haven’t made any proud achievements, I feel sorry for the cultivation of my parents.”

“Don’t say that.” Philip said earnestly: “Your parents were open-minded throughout their lives, and they had never hoped that their sons will become a dragon. They are the dragons and phoenixes among people, so the expectation of you has always been that you can grow up healthy and happy for a lifetime. Don’t have any sorrows and troubles.”

Charlie smiled knowingly, thinking of his parents, there was a warm current in his heart.

Indeed his parents never hoped that he would become a dragon or a phoenix. He told himself from an early age that a person needs to be happy when he is alive. It is enough to be a kind and upright person. Achievement and status are not important.

After chatting with Philip for an afternoon, when Lenan came in to deliver the fruits, she said to Charlie: “Charlie, the guest room has been prepared for you. On the second floor next to the girl’s room, you drank so much wine at noon. Go back to your room and rest for a while. If there is anything, you can just find Sara directly.”

“Okay.” Charlie nodded: “Thank you Auntie.”
