

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 1611 – 1615

Chapter 1611

Originally, Elsa only felt that Charlie's rhetoric could barely pass, but there were always some things that made her feel that something was wrong.

However, Charlie's self-deprecation directly swept away the only little doubt in Elsa's heart.

She thought that when Charlie was in school, he was looked down upon by all kinds of people, even his classmates from the same background could bully him wantonly.

But he never cared about others, let alone argue or quarrel with them, it seems that everything has nothing to do with him.

With Charlie's personality, it is indeed impossible to tell her about Sara.

Moreover, even if he said it, no one would believe it.

Thinking of this, she admired Charlie somewhat.

Knowing the Gu family and commensurate with Ms. Sara's siblings, but never told anyone about it, and would rather be looked down upon by others than thought of using this relationship. This is indeed is very rare.

However, she still has a little faint worry.

Because just now, she saw Charlie and Sara behave intimately, so she always felt that there seemed to be something abnormal between the two.

So she asked Charlie tentatively: “Charlie, did you know your relationship with Miss Sara at first?”

Charlie smiled and asked, “Do you know JX Weisan?”

“I know.” Elsa nodded and said, “Isn’t this the super hot gastric medicine with amazing effect during this period? Oh, by the way, it seems that Miss Sara is the endorsement of it!”

Charlie asked her again: “Then do you know that the manufacturer of JX Weisan, JX Pharmaceutical, is an Aurous Hill company?”

Elsa continued to nod her head: “Well, I know.”

Charlie smiled and said, “When Sara went to Aurous Hill to shoot an advertisement some time ago, she also ate dinner with Claire and me, but because Sara is a public figure, I didn’t tell you about it.”

“That’s it...” Elsa suddenly realized, and asked Charlie: “At that time Claire knew that you two had known each other a long time ago?”

Charlie shook his head: “In fact, I didn’t tell Claire the truth at the time, because Sara was going to work at that time, and I didn’t want others to know about my affairs with Sara, lest I would drag Sara’s back legs. , So I didn’t tell Claire or anyone about this at that time. In fact, if I didn’t happen to meet you today, I wouldn’t tell you.”

Elsa nodded gently, and when she heard Charlie always laugh at the name pauper, she felt a little distressed in her heart, so she said: “Charlie, don’t be so arrogant all the time. In fact, you are very powerful, I think few people can compare themselves to you!”

Elsa’s remarks came from the heart.

She really felt that Charlie was very unusual. If nothing else, the strength alone was by no means comparable to that of ordinary people. At the beginning, Oliver Vincent had no ability to counterattack before him.

Judging by Charlie’s terrifying combat effectiveness, those who insulted him in the past were actually not his opponents at all, but Charlie never cared about them.

Sara on the side hadn't spoken all the time. She knew that her unintentional remark just now almost caused trouble. Fortunately, Charlie's brain reacted quickly, otherwise it would be really hard to explain this matter.

Chapter 1612

Seeing that Elsa believed his words, Charlie said: "Elsa, it's late, we'll leave first. See you at the airport tomorrow."

Elsa nodded slightly, remembering something, and hurriedly said: "By the way, you just saved me again!"

Charlie smiled and said: "The old one is not you, it's the little girl. She really ran into you. You shouldn't have any big problems, but the little girl may be in a little danger."

Elsa deliberately curled her lips and said in a very stubborn tone: "Thank you for that too!"

Charlie smiled helplessly: "Okay, we have to go, so I won't be polite with you. Remember this, don't tell Claire first."

Elsa nodded: "Okay, I see, it must be tight-lipped. It's getting late and we both left."

Elsa and her cousin parked their car in a nearby parking lot. Charlie and Sara just parked their car in Gu's courtyard, so everyone was not in the same direction, so they said goodbye on the edge of the ice rink.

After the separation, Charlie finally breathed a sigh of relief. It seemed that today this incident was barely cleared.

After Charlie and Sara turned and walked out several tens of meters, Sara asked him in a low voice, "Charlie, why do you keep concealing your identity? If you show your identity, how dare those people in Aurous Hill bully you!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "I left Wade's house with my parents and fell into Aurous Hill. To put it bluntly, I'm just like an ordinary orphan. What could I do even if I showed my identity? Others may not believe it."

Sara asked again: "Then after Uncle and Aunt passed away, you could obviously contact the Wade family and let them pick you back."

Charlie shook his head and said indifferently, "The situation in the Wade family is complicated, far beyond what I could control at the time. What's more, my parents just didn't want to bow their heads to the Wade family before leaving Aurous Hill. Although I was young, my body was flowing. It's their blood, how can I take the initiative to bow their heads to the Wade Family and return to the Wade Family to enjoy the glory and wealth after their death?"

Sara's eyes soon turned red. She hugged Charlie's arm tightly and choked up and said: "I feel sorry for you for having suffered so much and suffered so many grievances for so many years. They looked down on you and can bully you..."

Charlie patted the back of her hand, and said with a smile: "Humans are like this. They have to withstand the ups and downs and be complimented by others for a lifetime. Maybe they don't know the dangers and sufferings of the world for a lifetime, so it is very likely that they will suffer in the future. Unfortunately, unlike me, I have seen the warmth and coldness of the world since I was eight years old. These experiences will be a precious asset for my future life."

Sara nodded slightly, tears running down the corners of her eyes.

She really felt sorry for Charlie's life over the past ten years. Even if Charlie said so lightly, she felt like a block in her throat every time she thought of it.

He was the young master of the Wade family, but he lived in Aurous Hill and suffered from the bottom of the society. Sara couldn't imagine how he survived so many years.

Although she is younger than Charlie, she hopes to keep him in Eastcliff forever when she thinks of these things. She doesn't do anything by herself. Every day, she will do everything possible to treat him well and make up for him for so many years.

At this moment, Charlie suddenly sighed: "I will leave tomorrow. Let's see Stephen today!"

Sara asked in surprise: "Charlie, are you going to see Uncle Stephen?"

Charlie nodded and said: “My parents’ things back then, I still need to ask him face to face.”

Sara blurted out, “Then I will go with you!”

Chapter 1613

Charlie was not overly wary of Stephen.

This is because he can analyze that Stephen has absolutely no malice towards him.

Even for so many years, he was able to grow up in Aurous Hill safely, thanks to Stephen’s secret protection.

Therefore, if Stephen had malicious thoughts about him, he would not wait until now.

This is also one of the few people who can absolutely be trusted, so he is going to contact Stephen and ask him to meet to learn some details of the year.

Stephen was in the Wade Group at this time.

In the high-level conference room of the Wade family group, all the children of the Wade family gathered here to participate in the family meeting.

It was Zhongquan Wade, the Old Master of the Wade family, who presided over the meeting.

Nearly twenty descendants of the Wade family were all sitting in the meeting room.

At this moment, the Old Master said with emotion on his face: “Old Master walked in a hurry yesterday and went directly to the airport from Waderest Mountain. I didn’t even see him for the last time. What a pity!”

Charlie’s aunt, Cynthia, asked, “Dad, did you let us come to the meeting for the old master’s return to the United States?”

Zhongquan waved his hand and said: “The old master had told me a long time ago that the reason why he stayed in Eastcliff and the country after the completion of the Waderest Mountain was to wait for a chance that belongs to him. He is gone, presumably he has gotten the opportunity he has been waiting for for years.”

Everyone nodded, and a cousin of Charlie’s generation asked: “Grandpa, is there anything important that you let us over today?”

When the Old Master called the entire Wade family’s direct descendants for a meeting last time, and decided to move the ancestral grave, the Wade family’s family business was too big after all. The children were in charge of various ministries and scattered across the country. If it was not an extremely important matter, there was no need to Everyone got together with great difficulty.

Zhongquan sighed and said: “At the beginning, the old master told me that after the dilemma of Dragon’s sleepy shoal of the Wade family broken, Wade’s would have the opportunity to soar into the sky and rise to the next level, but I still couldn’t understand it, Dragon Wade Where is the opportunity to soar into the sky.”

Everyone looked at each other for a while.

The current strength of the Wade Family ranks second among the big families in the country, second only to the Su Family. If one were to rise to the next level, wouldn’t it mean to surpass the Su Family and become the first family in the country?

As a result, everyone was a little excited.

Charlie’s third uncle, Changyun Wade, said: “Dad, did the old master give some general clues? For example, where will this opportunity appear? Who is it? Or through what can we find relevant clues?”

Zhongquan shook his head and said: “The old master only said that the Wade family will usher in a god-given opportunity, but as to what the opportunity is and where to look for it, he didn’t confide half a word, just said that it is a secret opportunity that should not be revealed!”

Cynthia smacked his lips and said, “Then this range is too broad. We can’t catch clues if we want to!”

Zhongquan said: “If you can’t catch it, you have to find a way to take the initiative and search for it!”

After speaking, Zhongquan said again: “I have been thinking about a question for the past two days, that is, how can we surpass the Su family.”

“Surpass the Su family?”

Chapter 1614

All the descendants of the Wade family, when you look at me and when I look at you, they all think this incident is almost a fantasy.

Compared with the Su family, the Wade family is similar, and the comprehensive strength of the Su family is about 20% higher than that of the Wade family.

However, because the Su family’s and Wade family’s property base is too large, the difference in money between the 20% gap is also astonishing.

If the Wade family wants to surpass the Su family, it will be possible to increase their assets by at least a few hundred billion.

The size of the Su family is stronger than that of the Wade family, and the development speed is naturally faster than that of the Wade family, so the gap between the Wade family and the Su family is actually slowly widening.

Now wanting to go up against the trend and catch up with the Su family all the way is not only difficult, but more like a fantasy.

Zhongquan could not help but sighed when everyone was silent. “Twenty years ago, when Changying was still alive, under his leadership, the Wade family almost surpassed the Su family. At that time, Changying formulated a strategy to dominate the country. Eastcliff’s big family believed that the Wade family would inevitably surpass the Su family and become the top of the country...”

Having said that, Zhongquan was silent for a moment, his eyes full of compassion and said: “But, after Changying left, you people are really not as good as one...”

When Cynthia heard this, she was very dissatisfied and said, “Dad, it would be boring if you say that. We always say that we are not as good as Changying and that is not as good as Changying, but you drove away the Changying family. Driving him away, maybe the Wade Family had now achieved the goal of dominating the country.”

“You...” Zhongquan pointed at Cynthia angrily, trying to yell at her, but then he put it back.

He sighed and said to everyone: “What happened back then is over. Let’s focus on the present.”

Cynthia said, “Do you always have any good ways to shorten the distance between us and the Su family?”

Zhongquan hesitated for a moment, and said: “The Su family has always been a prosperous male lead. Father Su has five sons and thirteen grandchildren, but he seems to have only two granddaughters. One of them is 22 years old this year and has reached the age of marriage, and the other is a minor, these two granddaughters are like pearls in the hands of the Su family. If the Wade family’s grandchildren can marry the Su family’s granddaughter, it will definitely help the Wade family!”

Charlie’s aunt, Cynthia, said: “Dad, Su’s granddaughter is very much loved in Su’s family. If you want to marry her, at least it must be our eldest grandson!”

Wade’s grandson is the son of Cynthia.

At this time, Cynthia sighed and said: “He has already signed a marriage contract with the Norwegian royal princess last year. The wedding will be held this summer. Almost all Eastcliff knows about this. There is no room for mediation!”

“Yeah.” Charlie’s cousin said: “The Zhiyu of the Su family, I have been in contact before. This woman has a cold personality and rarely participates in social activities. Many domestic and foreign celebrity gatherings have changed. She has never accepted the invitation. To pursue her is as difficult as going to heaven. What’s more, I have a marriage contract. If I go to pursue her, the Su family can see my motives at a glance.”

One of Charlie’s cousins, Hawade, the eldest son of Changyun, the eldest third of the Wade family, couldn’t hide his excitement and said, “Grandpa, why don’t I try?”

Andrew, Charlie's first Uncle, glanced at this plain-looking nephew, shook his head and said, "Hawade, the strength of the Su family is above us, even if you are the eldest son of Brother, you may not be able to enter the eyes of the Su family. Not to mention you?"

Changyun said a little displeased: "Brother, what you said is boring. Who stipulated that Su's parents and granddaughters must marry someone else's eldest son? Maybe our Hawade has this charm?"

Andrew chuckled: "The third, if you are not convinced, you can let Hawade give it a try. I'm just afraid that Hawade won't even have a chance to meet Zhiyu. In that case, it would be a laugh."

Elder Wade couldn't help sighing, splashing cold water and said, "Want to marry the Su family, Hawade is really too far behind."

As he said, he suddenly remembered something, his eyes flashed, he looked at Stephen, who had not spoken, and said, "Stephen, do you think that if the son of Changying is allowed to marry the Su family, can he agree?"

Chapter 1615

As soon as Mr. Wade said this, the whole audience let out a surprise!

The son of Changying, isn't that Charlie?

In fact, as early as when Elder Wade asked Stephen to buy the Emgrand Group, in Aurous Hill to give it to Charlie, and invite him to return to the family, everyone knew the news that Charlie was still alive.

Except for the Old Master, everyone else was very wary of him, even extremely repulsive in their hearts, for fear that he would return to Eastcliff and compete with them for the Wade Family's property and power.

Fortunately, Charlie rejected Stephen's request and did not return to Wade's house, so everyone breathed a sigh of relief and slowly relaxed their guard.

However, even if Charlie didn't come back, everyone was extremely dissatisfied with the matter of the grandfather throwing hundreds of billions and giving him the Emgrand Group.

The Wade family's assets exceed trillions, but after all, the population is large.

Charlie's grandfather has four sons and two daughters.

Except for the second child, Changying, who died young that year, the other three sons gave birth to seven grandchildren and six granddaughters.

Although the two daughters were married, they both held important positions in the Wade family's financial empire. Therefore, even if they were evenly distributed, it would not be possible to reach the level of 100 billion per person under the circumstances of many children.

Therefore, Charlie got the Emgrand Group alone, which really made many Wade family members very jealous.

At that time, there were also many people who jointly opposed and strongly protested the eccentric approach of the father.

But the Old Master resisted the crowd and insisted on doing so on the grounds that the Wade family owed too much to Changying's family.

Although everyone was dissatisfied with 10,000 in their hearts, fortunately, Charlie did not plan to return to Eastcliff to compete with them for more property, so everyone reluctantly accepted all this.

In the eyes of everyone, it is actually quite good to let Charlie be a feudal king outside, at least it will not affect their fight for the position of Wade Family Patriarch.

However, the Old Master actually wants Charlie to come back, and he also wants him to marry the Su family. Isn't that for them to lead the wolf into the house?

Therefore, Andrew, blurted out: "Dad! The son of Changying has been outside for so many years. He has not received high-end education, has not experienced family training and experience, and is completely a wild man. Let him marry the Su family. , Doesn't it make people laugh out loud? And, I remember, he has already made a family in Aurous Hill!"

"Yeah, dad!" The old third Changyun also hurriedly said: "Which one of our Wade family's grandchildren is not the top domestic private school and has been studying from kindergarten to high school? Which one is not studying at a top overseas university? Which one is not from childhood not receive the top-notch education combining Chinese and Western? Not only learning knowledge, learning business, learning management, but also learning multi-language, learning aristocratic horsemanship, learning golf, the son of the second brother, grew up in an orphanage, not even a university he's been to, how could Miss Su's eldest in the Su family look at such goods?"

Others also agreed with him.

Stephen said blankly at this time: "Mr. Charlie has been to university, but he has not been in college for four years. Moreover, I have some contact with him. In my opinion, Mr. Charlie has the demeanor and courage of the second master. , It is definitely a dragon and a phoenix among people!"

Someone shouted sternly: "The surname is Stephen, there is no place for you to speak. Don't look at who is around you, we are all named Wade! You are a domestic slave with a foreign surname, what are you talking about here? ?"

Stephen said neither humble nor overbearing: "Although I am not named Wade, my life was given by second master, so Stephen had already sworn that this life will belong to the Wade family, so for every word I say , I have a clear conscience!"

Hawade said coldly: "You think we don't know you? You are not loyal to the Wade family at all, you are loyal to my second uncle, so you did everything possible to hide Charlie, and you did everything possible to fool grandpa to buy assets for him. An imperial group, do you still want to fool Grandpa to get him back to Eastcliff? I think your selfishness is actually trying to help Charlie win the position of the Wade Family Patriarch, right?!"

Everyone's expressions changed as soon as this was said!
