

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 1736 – 1740

Chapter 1736

“The Takahashi family?!” Both were shocked.

Issac blurted out: “Master! Is the Takahashi family going to attack you?!”

Charlie nodded: “They want to follow me first, and then find a suitable opportunity to kill me.”

Issac gritted his teeth and cursed: “Takahashi family is just as powerful as the Eastcliff Gu family at best, so they have such courage!”

Charlie smiled and said, “People are still very strong at least in this three-acre land in Tokyo.”

With that, Charlie asked him: “Has the refrigerated car been found?”

“found it”! Issac said: “We bought a freezer box to transport seafood directly from the seafood market at a high price. We drove over before the car had time to unload the cargo.”

Charlie asked: “According to that, the carriage is still frozen, right?”

Issac nodded: “In the car, it is 20 degrees below zero. The fish inside is so hard that it can kill people.”

Charlie said with satisfaction: “Okay, you and Mr. Orvel lift this guy up and move it into the car before freezing.”

Issac asked hurriedly, “Master what about the Takahashi family? Don’t you ask them?”

Charlie smiled slightly: "The Takahashi family sent a total of four ninjas, one dead, and three more. When the four brothers have gathered in the freezer, they will be sent to Machi Takahashi at once. I will give him a big gift!"

The frozen container truck has a quick-freezing function. When the power is fully turned on, the body of Tenglin Qingtian can be frozen into a pile of ice in ten minutes.

Before a few people put Tenglin Qingtian on the freezer container, Charlie took off the cowhide cover that stored the shuriken from him, planning to use it for others.

Afterwards, Charlie told Issac's subordinate who drove: "You first drive the car to a hidden place and park it properly. Remember not to cut off the oil and power of the refrigerated truck. Make sure that the container keeps cooling. I want to send four ice sculptures to Machi Takahashi. Don't look back. People will turn into four piles of rotten meat when they receive it. It won't be good if they give me a bad review. After all, I am an overseas customer and an international friend.

The subordinate nodded quickly and said, "Don't worry, we must arrange this car properly!"

Issac asked at this time: "Master we are going to Osaka next stop. Will this car follow us? Will it be alerted by the other party?"

Charlie said: "In principle, where we go, this car will go wherever we go, but there is no need to follow us closely. If we set off tomorrow, let this car leave before two hours in advance."

Issac nodded immediately: "Okay!"

Charlie waved his hand: "The three of you go back. I will deal with the scene and go back by myself."

Issac asked hurriedly: "Is there anything I can help? Or I will stay!"

"No." Charlie said lightly: "I will go back after I finish handling it. This will also prevent the group of people from seeing the clues."

Seeing this, Issac nodded and said, "Master since this is the case, then I and Mr. Orvel will go back first."

After Issac and Mr. Orvel left, Charlie dealt with some traces in the park.

He found all the six-handed swords in Tenglin Qingtian. He did not discard the six-handed swords, but put them all back in the cowhide case and kept them next to him.

Afterwards, the bloodstains on the ground were also cleaned up by him, leaving no traces.

After doing all this, he was alone, walking back to the hotel leisurely.

Chapter 1737

The two juniors of Tenglin were watching around the hotel lobby.

Seeing that Charlie returned to the hotel without incident, they immediately notified Tenglin. At the same time, the two of them were surprised at the same time. This guy seemed to have just gone out for a walk, and could not see anything. Didn't Tenglin Qingtian act with him for the traces of fighting with others? !

The reason why they think so is because both of them feel that even if Tenglin Qingtian's strength is not as good as Charlie, it will certainly not be so weak.

If he has encountered an accident now, then his opponent will be injured a little bit, and it is absolutely impossible to look like nothing happened.

Tenglin, who had already installed several bugs in Charlie's room, quietly walked out of Charlie's room, and then told them on the intercom: "Come to my room!"

In fact, as soon as Charlie entered the door, he noticed the breath of these two people.

After all, they followed him all the way from Tokyo to Nagoya, and he was already familiar with these four people to a certain extent.

Seeing these people waiting for him in the hotel lobby, Charlie knew that they must have a plan.

So he took the elevator back to his room quietly.

As soon as he entered the door, he felt another familiar feeling in the air.

From the inheritance of the “Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures”, Charlie knew that everyone has their own unique aura.

The so-called breath is like the magnetic field in physics.

A big living person, no matter how good he is to hide his figure, if he doesn't have the ability like Charlie, it is difficult to hide his breath.

This is like a running car, no matter how environmentally friendly it is, it will definitely emit a faint exhaust gas, and the exhaust will still be in the air when the car is gone.

However, the smell of exhaust gas can be detected by anyone with a keen sense of smell.

However, the faint breath of a person is easy to dissipate, and unless the sense organs are extremely sensitive, it is impossible to detect it.

Tenglin thought he was hiding well, but he didn't expect that Charlie would have noticed the traces he left as soon as he entered the room.

So Charlie calmly looked around in the room and found several wireless bugs hidden on the back of the furniture, the bottom of the sofa, and the ceiling.

Seeing this, Charlie couldn't help but sneer.

Since these friends even used the wiretap, and he didn't perform a play for them, he is really sorry for their troublesome arrangements.

So he took out his mobile phone and sent a text WeChat message to Issac and Orvel: “My room was tapped. Mr. Orvel will not come to my room for now. Old man will cooperate with me in a show later.”

Issac hurriedly sent a text asking him what arrangements he had.

Charlie sent him a bunch of lines he played live, and then sent him a voice: “Old man, come to my room.”

After half a minute, Issac knocked on Charlie’s door.

When the door was closed, Charlie spoke nervously, “Old man, I feel that Nagoya is a bit weird.”

Issac hurriedly followed Charlie’s script and asked him: “Master what do you mean by weird?”

Charlie said with some worry: “When I went for a walk just now, I always had a strange feeling, as if someone had been following me.”

“No, master!” Issac hurriedly said, “We have already left Tokyo, and we went to Yokohama in the middle, and now we are in Nagoya. Maybe no one will follow us here all the time?”

“It’s hard to say.” Charlie sighed: “I played that b@stard on the streets of Tokyo. It seems that he has a d*mn background. As the saying goes, strong dragons do suppress local snakes. We go out and provoke the local big family. It’s still a little troublesome!”

At this moment, in Tenglin’s room, the three of them were already dumbfounded when they heard it on the radio.

The third blurted out: “Brother, I heard what this guy meant, he didn’t seem to meet Qingtian directly?”

Tenglin stopped him with gestures, and said: “Keep listening!”

At this time, Issac said again: “Master are you a little too sensitive? I don’t feel anyone is following us.”

Chapter 1738

Charlie said very seriously: "I always feel that something is wrong. Just now when I was out for a walk, I inexplicably heard someone behind it seemed to be fighting, and there was the sound of weapons colliding, but I looked back, what? There was nothing."

Issac thought for a moment, and said, "Master I think you are still too sensitive. Maybe you have auditory hallucinations."

"It's still not quite right." Charlie smacked his lips: "The movement I overheard was very chaotic. It seemed that several people struck for a while, and then someone struggling and whimpering as if their mouth was covered, waiting for me to follow. When following the voice I came over, there was a pool of blood on the ground, and there was also a shoe. That shoe was f*cking weird..."

Issac said: "Master the blood may be astupidl. As for shoes, what's weird about a shoe?"

Charlie said very seriously: "Do you dare to believe that there is a dmn knife on the toe of that shoe? It's like a fcking movie, it's a d*mn door."

Issac exclaimed: "What? There is a knife on the toe of the shoe? Is this not too weird?!"

In Tenglin's room, when they heard Charlie's words, all three looked terrified!

The second child said with some horror: "Brother, this should be Qingtian's ninja shoes!"

Tenglin also became nervous and frowned, "According to what he said, it is possible that Qingtian was harmed by others?"

The third added at this time: "It is very likely that he is also a ninja!"

On the other side, Issac asked Charlie: "Master do you think this is the legendary Japanese ninja?"

Charlie nodded and said in agreement: "I think it's possible too!"

Issac asked curiously: "Did you happen to see a ninja fighting with a ninja?"

Charlie groaned: "I always think it shouldn't be so coincidental. I feel vaguely in my heart that maybe this matter has something to do with me."

"Can't be?" Issac blurted out: "According to you, is it because someone wanted to mantis catch cicadas at you, and then was followed by other oriole?"

Charlie said: "The ghost knows, it's possible, so I think this place in Nagoya is a bit weird. Let's finish our work as soon as possible and leave as soon as possible!"

Issac snorted and said: "Master I will make arrangements to arrive at the airport in the middle of the night, and the pharmaceutical factory will start trial production in the early morning. As long as the trial production is okay, let's leave this place sooner than planned!"

"Okay." Charlie sighed and cursed in a low voice: "It's f*cking annoying. I have never had to worry about it since I've been in Japan. If I don't withdraw quickly this time, I might have to get involved in the disputes of the big Japanese family."

Having said that, Charlie waved his hand and said: "Okay, you go back and tell everyone to stay alert to avoid Maching mistakes!"

"OK!"

After Issac finished speaking, he left Charlie's room.

At this time, Tenglin was a little confused.

He and his two younger brothers felt that what Charlie said should be true.

There are four reasons.

First, it is impossible for Charlie to retreat unscathed after starting hands with Tenglin Qingtian;

Second, Charlie couldn't detect the bug in the room, so he didn't have to lie in the room and act;

Third, Charlie mentioned Tenglin Qingtian's ninja shoes, and mentioned the short blade hidden in the ninja shoes! This feature is very secretive. With the three of them understanding Tenglin Qingtian, it is impossible for Tenglin Qingtian to use this hand to press the bottom of the box when it is not a last resort and must work hard!

Fourth, Charlie just said that he heard that there were many people fighting, and there was only one person Tenglin Qingtian. If many people were fighting, it would prove that he was ambushed by many people, so this is also right with his sudden disappearance. Ok.

After analyzing all of this, Tenglin gritted his teeth and said: "All of this shows a fact: He was targeted by another group of ninjas!"

Tenglin's second junior brother blurted out and asked, "Brother, who do you think it will be?"

Tenglin thought for a moment, and said seriously: "We have never offended any ninja family on weekdays, so I guess that the one who did it on Qingtian is most likely the enemy of the Takahashi family!"

The third junior slapped his thigh immediately: "d*mn, is it the Ito family?!"

Chapter 1739

At this moment, Tokyo, Japan.

Machi Takahashi ended a whole day of talks with Zhifei and Zhiyu.

The talks between the two sides can be said to be very in-depth, and both sides are very satisfied with each other.

This is mainly because Zhifei and Zhiyu feel that this person Machi Takahashi is very good, and he does not need to guide him to kill the Ito family himself. He already has this consciousness.

Secondly, it is also because, in order to finalize the cooperation as soon as possible, Takahashi deliberately released a few percentage points of the profit share on the specific cooperation terms.

Zhifei originally wanted to talk about the next three-to-seven cooperation agreement. Whether it was with the Takahashi family or the Ito family, only 30% of the benefits would be given to them.

But what he didn't expect was that Takahashi himself reduced his expected profit share to 25%!

Even Zhiyu feels that the target of this cooperation can basically be finalized, that is, the Takahashi family. As for the Ito family, there is no need for negotiation.

But out of business reputation, the siblings decided to talk to the Ito family before making the final decision.

After all, before she came, she had made an appointment with someone from the Ito family, and she couldn't just kick the opponent out before she met.

Therefore, even if they just walked through the scenes, they couldn't let the Su Family talk.

This is the business field.

Even if he has sharpened his knives secretly and is about to slaughter the other person to eat meat, he will still be very polite on the surface, and even call him brothers and sisters.

Machi Takahashi is indeed a smart man.

He knew that the Ito family could never offer better terms than their own. Even if the Ito family could accept a 25% share of the bill, they couldn't take the initiative to propose to the Su family to unite with the Su family to kill.

After all, when doing business in peaceful times, most people are afraid to shout and kill. Even if they have this idea, they are still hiding in their hearts and afraid to speak out.

Takehiko didn't know the malicious plan of the Su Family, and naturally it was impossible to actively cater to their tastes.

But he is different.

He had made a mistake and had known Su's hole cards in advance.

Therefore, he believes that the Su family will eventually choose himself!

By then, the Takahashi family will also become the top presence in Japan!

Just when he was excited about this, he suddenly received a call from Tenglin.

Seeing that it was his call, Machi Takahashi immediately thought of the Chinese man who abolished his son's arms in the street!

This incident is simply the greatest shame the Takahashi family has suffered over the years! Every time he think about it, Takahashi really gets angry!

So he immediately connected the phone and asked in a cold voice, "Tenglin, how is the matter going? Where is that b@stard now?"

Tenglin hurriedly said: "Mr. Takahashi, something has happened to accidents. If I guessed correctly, my junior brother should be dead now, and there is no dead body!"

Chapter 1740

"What?!" Takahashi blurted out in shock: "You mean, Tenglin Qingtian is dead? Who did it?! Is that the Chinese?!"

"No." Tenglin said with a gloomy expression: "There is a high probability that another ninja family did it!"

"Another ninja family?" Takahashi Machi frowned. "Did you provoke anyone?"

"No." Tenglin said: "Mr. Takahashi, our brothers have been doing things for you all these years. Except for your enemies, we have not made enemies outside, so I suspect that the other party should be directed against you!"

“Targeting me?!” Takahashi blurted out, “Who is targeting me? And the other party also used ninjas. It seems that the background is not small!”

Tenglin asked him: “Mr. Takahashi, do you think it is the Ito family? As far as I know, the famous Koga family in the ninja family has always been closely related to them!”

“This” Takahashi was also a little confused.

He didn’t know what happened to Tenglin Qingtian and who was killed by him.

So I thought in my heart: “There are not many ninja families in China. Except for the ninjas of the Ito family, the remaining families seem to have no need to be an enemy of me.”

“Could it be that the old dog, Takehiko Ito, is also plotting to kill me?!”

At this time, Machi Takahashi, because he originally wanted to kill Takehiko, he felt somewhat preconceived in his heart that Takehiko might also be planning to kill himself!

“It seems that everyone is a swordsman, and they want to put each other to death!”

Thinking of this, he blurted out: “This time the big Chinese family came to Tokyo to meet me first. Takehiko must be furious, maybe he is targeting me!”

“And I guess, he is now waiting to discuss cooperation with the Su family. In order to leave a good impression on the Su family, he dare not directly act on me at this time, so he acted on you first. I estimate Ito’s purpose. It is to weaken my strength in advance, and then slowly clean me up!”

Tenglin hurriedly asked, “Mr. Takahashi, what shall we do now?”

Takahashi really thought about it for a long time, gritted his teeth and said in a deep voice: “Tenglin, you have been a little low-key these days, and you will send more people to watch the b@stard secretly and wait for my news. Once I successfully sign the contract with the Su family, I will first Get rid of that b@stard! To snow the shame of my Takahashi family!”

Tenglin immediately said: “Good Mr. Takahashi, I will definitely fulfill my mission!”

Machi Takahashi said again: "In addition, you will mobilize a group of people from your family to rush to Kyoto overnight!"

"Go to Kyoto?!" Tenglin asked in surprise: "Mr. Takahashi, why should I send people to Kyoto?"

Machi Takahashi said coldly: "Takehiko's baby daughter has been recuperating in Kyoto since he was injured. You will monitor her closely. When I started with Takehiko, I didn't want to leave any troubles, so his daughter Nanako must also dead!"

"Furthermore, it is good for me to monitor Nanako in advance. If Takehiko dares to attack me, then I will use his daughter as a threat and force him to dictate him! In this way, I will have double insurance!"

Tenglin immediately said: "I understand Mr. Takahashi, then I will notify the family, immediately arrange for personnel to go to Kyoto, and secretly monitor Takehiko's daughter!"

Machi Takahashi gritted his teeth and said: "Tenglin, you must make sure that as long as I call, your people will immediately kill Nanako!"

Tenglin promised: "Don't worry master, I should go all out!"

Takahashi hummed, and said, "Tenglin, don't worry, after you cooperate with me to destroy the Ito family, I will definitely give you a very generous remuneration, and then a generous settlement allowance for your junior."

Tenglin hurriedly said, "Then I would like to thank Mr. Takahashi in advance!"
