

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 1741 – 1745

Chapter 1741

Aman Hotel Tokyo.

After taking a shower, Zhiyu turned on the laptop in her room, and again, together with her brother, had a video conference with Zynn who was far away in Eastcliff.

The two, brother and sister, truthfully reported Takahashi's huge concession to Zynn, and Zynn was greatly surprised.

In Zynn's view, Takahashi's true knowledge is too high, not only has the determination to kill the Ito family, but also has the consciousness of letting Lee give the Su family and be willing to be a younger brother.

Such a person can be said to be teachable.

Zhiyu said: "Dad, we will meet Takehiko from the Ito family tomorrow as agreed in advance, but I think Takehiko has already lost his competitiveness in this cooperation. The first one really knows better conditions."

Zynn gave a hum, and laughed: "Then go through the cutscene. After finishing the superficial work, you can sign with the Takahashi family, but before signing, you have to go to the major ports in Japan. Take a look at the actual operations of Tokyo, Yokohama, Nagoya and Osaka Ports."

Zhiyu nodded and said, "Don't worry, brother and I have already planned the schedule."

"That's good." Zynn smiled with satisfaction: "I didn't expect Machi Takahashi to be willing to reduce the share to 25%. You must know that your grandfather's psychological price was 30% at the time, and the maximum tolerance limit was 35%. Directly on the basis of his tolerance limit, he cut down 10%. After the contract is signed, your grandfather will be very happy and will definitely give you great credit!”

Zhifei smiled and said, “Dad, if Grandpa really gives us a great credit, can you let him give the entire ocean shipping business to our family?”

Zynn smiled and said, “I will definitely win this business from the Old Master, and I think the probability of the Old Master agreeing is very high. You will do a good job of preparing for cooperation in Japan. Then I will talk to the Old Master. Talk about it, try to let him give this business to your brothers and sisters.”

Zhiyu hurriedly waved his hand: “Dad, I don’t want to do it, just let Brother take over.”

Zynn asked in amazement: “Why? Why don’t you want to do such a good opportunity?”

Zhiyu said seriously: “I will go to the United States to study for an MBA after finishing this matter.”

Zhifei hurriedly said, “Oh, grandma, you are so talented, what MBA is you still studying? It’s a waste of time. It’s better to go back to work in the family earlier and lock up some resources in advance!”

Zhiyu shook her head: “Learning is endless. I don’t want to come back to work so early, and I am not so interested in family resources.”

Zynn hurriedly said: “Zhiyu, you are not too young anymore. It’s almost time to consider marriage. MBA is too time-consuming to get through. It’s better to get married in two years.”

Zhiyu asked back: “Get married? To whom?”

Zynn said: “Your grandpa will naturally help you choose the best one.”

“I don’t want it.” Zhiyu shook her head: “If I let my grandfather choose for me, then I might as well find someone who looks pleasing on the streets of Tokyo and marry casually.”

“Stop talking!” Zynn angrily said: “Don’t let your grandpa ask you to go to Japan to talk about cooperation, but he will never allow you to marry a Japanese!”

Zhiyu curled her lips and deliberately said to Zynn sullenly: “Who said I was going to marry a Japanese? There are also many Chinese people on the streets of Tokyo, okay? I met one on the way, who was tall and handsome. He’s pretty fanciful, I think he’s pleasing to the eye, or I can marry him, it’s much better than going back and letting my grandfather choose for me.”

Zhifei said awkwardly: “Do you know his name?”

Zhiyu hummed: “I’m just making an analogy. It doesn’t matter what his name is. I can ask him next time I meet.”

Zhifei smiled and said: “I guess there is no chance to see him. With Takahashi’s character, he will definitely not let him leave Japan alive.”

Zhiyu raised his eyebrows and said: “How do you know that Takahashi can kill him? I think that man is very capable, and Takahashi may not be able to do anything to him.”

Zhifei shook his head and said with a smile: “The strong dragon does not hold down the snake. Even if the two fists can beat four hands, they may not be able to beat forty or four hundred hands.”

Chapter 1742

Hearing this, Zhiyu’s expression became a bit solemn.

What she said just now was just to anger her father, but when she really thought of the figure of that man, Zhiyu was quite worried for him.

Thinking that Machi Takahashi might not let him go easily, Zhiyu blurted out: “Next time I have an interview with Machi Takahashi, I will warn him. If he dares to quietly attack that man after the cooperation is reached, then I terminate cooperation at any time!”

“Naughty!” Zynn sternly scolded, “As the representative of the Su family, everything must be based on the interests of the Su family. How can you let a strange man affect the interests of the Su family?! As long as we can get Machi Takahashi The biggest concession clause, what does the life and death of this strange man have to do with us?!”

Zhiyu also moved a bit of anger, and argued for reason: “The man offended the Takahashi family to save a little girl from bad boys. How can I let the Takahashi family kill him?”

Zynn said disdainfully: “When the Takahashi family kills him, don’t you just look at it?”

Zhiyu said angrily: “Dad! How can you do this?! Are there any principles and ethics?”

“Principles and ethics?” Zynn said coldly: “My principles and ethics are for the interests of the Su family! For the interests of the Su family, I don’t need any principles and ethics!”

“I...”

Zhiyu was speechless.

Zhifei hurriedly finished the game at this time: “Dad, Zhiyu, we haven’t finished talking about our business, why are you two still arguing?”

Zynn said with a gloomy expression: “Okay, don’t talk about these meaningless things, Zhiyu, you’re going to study the MBA, let’s discuss it after you come back.”

“No need to discuss.” Zhiyu said with a very cold expression: “The admission notice of Harvard Business School has been sent to my mailbox. School starts in August, and I will leave in May.”

“You kid!”

Zynn was about to say something. Zhifei just received a call on his cell phone. The call was from an assistant who came to Tokyo with them.

The other party said in WeChat: “Young Master the patriarch of the Matsumoto family in Tokyo, Ryoto Matsumoto begs to see you and the young lady at the hotel reception!”

“The Matsumoto family?” Zhifei frowned, “Is the Matsumoto family ranked third in Tokyo?”

“Yes!”

Zhifei looked at the video conference interface on the computer and asked, “Dad, Zhiyu, the Matsumoto family’s man, want to see us, do you want us to meet?”

Zynn said disdainfully: “As far as I know, the strength of the Matsumoto family is much worse than that of the Takahashi family and the Ito family. We only need to choose between the Takahashi family and the Ito family. There is no need to waste energy planting garbage.”

Zhifei said to the assistant on the phone, “Reject the Matsumoto, just say that I have taken a break and I will not see guests.”

Zhiyu opened his mouth at this moment: “Brother, let’s see. This Ryoto Matsumoto still has some abilities. It is really not easy to bring the Matsumoto family together on his own, and as the saying goes. The smiley man, the patriarch of a family came to the hotel to see you personally. This has already put the figure very low. If we don’t even see him, it will be more or less justifiable.”

Zynn opened his mouth at this time: “Zhiyu, you like to think more about things. This is good, but you can’t think about everything so much. It will be too late! If you see this Ryoto Matsumoto tonight, maybe tomorrow The 4th, 5th, and even the 40th and 50th families in Tokyo will come to the hotel to ask to see you. Can you handle it?”

“This” Zhiyu didn’t know how to answer at once.

Zynn continued: “Okay, this matter is still up to your brother, reject it.”

Zhiyu nodded: “Okay”

Chapter 1743

The lobby of the Aman Hotel.

Ryoto Matsumoto, who is not yet forty years old, is looking forward to meeting with the Su family.

He personally came to the hotel to meet the Su family this time, hoping to use a humble attitude to seek an opportunity to interview the Su family.

Although the strength of the Matsumoto family is not as good as that of Takahashi and Ito, Ryoto Matsumoto feels that his ability is not weaker than anyone, and he is young and bold. He is definitely the ideal partner for the Su family.

However, the Matsumoto family had insufficient precipitation in the early years, and it was far from the Takahashi and Ito families.

Although Ryoto Matsumoto resolutely led the Matsumoto family to develop rapidly and catch up with them, there was still some distance from them.

In fact, the Matsumoto family can be said to be the fastest rising family in Tokyo.

Ten years ago, it was unknown. Today, ten years later, it is second only to Takahashi and Ito. This speed is regarded as a miracle to the outside world.

Therefore, Ryoto Matsumoto believes that as the head of the family, he came to the hotel to ask for a meeting in person, which definitely gave the Su family a lot of face.

However, he didn't know that in the eyes of the Su family, the strength of the Matsumoto family was about half that of the Takahashi family or the Ito family, so the Su family naturally wouldn't take him in their eyes.

At this time, Ryoto Matsumoto is full of confidence. He is a recognized business genius in Japan, a young and rich man who has the real ability to fight the world, so he thinks that the Su family should give him a chance to have an interview, and he will definitely use it. Their eloquence and vision convince them to cooperate with them.

Ryoto Matsumoto's assistant was somewhat apprehensive, and said, "Boss, do you think the Su family will be willing to cooperate with us?"

Ryoto Matsumoto tidied up his suit and tie, and said confidently: "When I meet in a while, I will use my abilities and charm to make the Su family realize that my Ryoto Matsumoto is their most perfect partner! As for Takehiko Ito and Machi Takahashi, they are just a bunch of old men with outdated thinking and worrying abilities!”

As soon as the voice fell, Su’s assistant made a call to the front desk.

The little girl at the front desk answered the phone and immediately came to Ms. Matsumoto, bowed and said: “Mr. Matsumoto, I’m really sorry, Mr. Su and Ms. Su don’t have time to see you, please go back.”

Ryoto Matsumoto was stunned, and after a while, he asked in a daze, “What are you talking about? They don’t have time to see me?!”

The little girl at the front desk nodded slightly and said, “It is true, so please go back.”

Matsumoto immediately felt hot on his face!

I am also the patriarch of the Matsumoto family anyway, and a leader among young Japanese entrepreneurs. Those who came to the hotel to meet with the Su family in person can say that they have put their identity very humble.

But I never dreamed that even though I came to see them so humbly, I would still receive the most ruthless and direct insult from the other party!

“No time?!”

“Just let me go if they don’t have time?!”

“The Su family is too arrogant, even too much, right?!”

“Even if you are China’s top family, even if you do have very good big projects, you can’t put my face on the ground, right?!”

“What’s more, if you step on my face, you don’t step on it yourself, let a hotel front desk step on it. Where do you put my face?!”

Thinking of this, Ryoto Matsumoto had a dark face and said coldly to the front desk:

“Contact them again and tell them that I am the patriarch of the Matsumoto family and the president of the Tokyo Young Entrepreneurs Association. I came here today just to see the young master and young lady of the Su family, so that they must take time to talk to me once!”

Chapter 1744

The front desk was frightened by his hideous expression, and he said falteringly: “You gentleman, I’m really sorry! The assistants of the two distinguished guests have clearly told us that the two distinguished guests really don’t have time to see you, so please don’t embarrass us...”

Ryoto Matsumoto’s original strong self-confidence was instantly crushed by the powder hit by the front desk girl!

He cursed almost hysterically, “My name is Ryoto Matsumoto, not ‘You gentleman’! Do you understand?”

The girl at the front desk took a few steps back in fright: “I’m really sorry, Mr. Matsumoto, I’m just passing on the reply from the guest. Please forgive me...”

In the lobby, many people watched Matsumoto whispering.

These people whispered in twos and threes. Although they couldn’t hear what they said, from their expressions, Matsumoto could see that they were all laughing at him!

He has always been arrogant, thinking that he is in the top spot among young Japanese companies in terms of ability.

Unexpectedly, he took the initiative to come to see them, but the other party didn’t bother to see him!

This made Matsumoto very resentful in his heart.

Ryoto Matsumoto clenched his fists and gritted his teeth, and his entire popularity trembled violently.

The more confident and conceited people are, the worse their psychological endurance.

The more people feel that everyone has to look at them, the more afraid of being looked down upon by others.

Ryoto Matsumoto is the most typical example.

At this time, he was angered to the extreme in his heart, but he couldn't find a source to vent.

And his blushing appearance made the people around him despise the sarcasm.

Although many people may not have the strength and wealth of Mr. Matsumoto, they see Mr. Matsumoto making a fool of himself in the public, and they are still very dark in their hearts.

Seeing that everyone was laughing at him, Matsumoto's assistant hurried forward and said in a low voice, "Boss, let's go first, in case someone has something good take out their phone and shoot the video and put it on the internet. It's hard to deal with the impact of..."

Matsumoto gritted his teeth and nodded lightly.

The moment he turned and left, he felt the whole world laughing at him behind his back.

Bite the bullet and return to his car, Matsumoto immediately urged the driver to drive as soon as he got in. He was afraid that he would walk slowly, and would make people laugh, for fear that the ridicule of those people would fall into his ears.

The assistant could not help but persuade him: "Boss, the Su family must feel that our overall strength is still much worse than that of Takahashi and Ito, so they are regarded as cooperation options and do not want to waste time with us, but this must be their loss!"

Matsumoto was silent for a long while, with bloodshot eyes, gritted his teeth and said, "Want to choose between Takahashi and Ito? Very good! Since they don't want the face, don't blame me for being cruel! This time, it happened to be. I have a great opportunity to surpass Takahashi and Ito in one fell swoop!"

The assistant asked in surprise: “Boss, you...what do you mean by this? Why can't I understand...”

Mr. Matsumoto said in a cold voice with a vicious expression: “You don't need to understand, just do as I tell you!”

The assistant immediately said: “Boss, just give your orders!”

Ryoto Matsumoto said coldly: “The first thing, I write a check for 20 million. You take it to the head of the Iga family and tell him that it is only a deposit. If he is interested, come to the house. We will talk, if he is not interested, the money will be my gift to him!”

Chapter 1745

The Kobayashi Pharmaceutical production line in Nagoya has soon been able to produce qualified Weisan.

This is mainly because Kobayashi Pharmaceuticals itself is a top pharmaceutical company in Asia, with very advanced production lines, even more advanced than those of JX Pharmaceuticals back in China.

Therefore, their production line switched to JX Weisan, as long as the formula and medicinal materials are in place, there is almost no difficulty.

After the production line went into normal operation, Charlie left Nagoya and headed to Osaka together with the group of people.

Because there is Kyoto between Nagoya and Osaka, according to Charlie's original plan, after Nagoya's affairs are over, he plans to go to Kyoto and see Nanako.

However, there are three ninjas following all the way right now, and he doesn't want to bring these three people to Kyoto.

So, he planned to solve these three people in Osaka, and after all the troubles are dealt with, he will go to see Nanako.

After making this decision, he felt somewhat regretful.

He thought he could see Nanako earlier, but he didn't expect to wait until the end of the trip to Japan this time.

Charlie was more worried about her body, and didn't know how she was doing now.

When Charlie left Nagoya, he found that Tenglin's three ninjas seemed to be more low-key than before.

They doubled the distance to follow Charlie, and were completely afraid to approach him. On the one hand, it seemed that they were throwing a rat for the unknown whereabouts of Tenglin Qingtian, and on the other hand, because they could not figure out who was secretly targeting them. So were more cautious.

The convoy drove onto the expressway and passed by Kyoto.

No one knows that the seemingly calm and quaint ancient city of Kyoto at this time has actually been feeling undercurrents.

Machi Takahashi felt that Takehiko was secretly targeting him, so Tenglin transferred a group of ninjas from the family, who had already lurked to Kyoto secretly, and closely monitored the Ito family's residence in Kyoto.

Once Machi Takahashi orders them, they can kidnap Nanako or kill her directly.

And Takehiko Ito was unaware of these at this time. At this time, he was meeting with Zhifei and Zhiyu in Tokyo.

However, the meeting process was not pleasant.

Although Takehiko is very enthusiastic, he can also see that Zhifei and Zhiyu seem to have come and walk through the scene.

Although the two brothers and sisters are also very polite and serious, and they talk very comprehensively, Takehiko always feels that, deep in their hearts, they are not very concerned about this cooperation.

At the meeting, he proposed to obtain a 35% share in the cooperation. Originally, he wanted to leave 5% room for a counter-offer to the other party, and it would basically be possible to reach a consensus by letting the other party press down to 30%.

However, he did not expect Zhifei to directly throw a sentence: "Mr. Ito, from the opinion of our Su family, if it is higher than 20%, we can't think about it."

"what?!"

Takehiko was immediately stunned, and exclaimed in his heart: "20%? This is too d*mn dark!"
