

My Dreamy Old Husband

Chapter 643

Although Stanley had no idea what had happened, he still felt sick at Natasha's tone so he glared at her and cursed, "You shameless b*tch! Let me tell you, if you dare to bully Sophia, I won't let you get away with it!"

His loud voice attracted everyone's attention in the cafeteria. Turning to look at them, they saw that Stanley was about to start a fight.

Indeed, Stanley had rolled his sleeves up and was about to hit Natasha. Even if she had two bodyguards with her, he would hit her to vent his anger.

Right at that moment, Sophia finally spoke. "Stanley, change it to the finance channel. I want to watch financial news."

Stanley smacked the table. "Why would you want to watch the financial news in a situation like this?"

On the contrary, Sean found the remote control and quickly changed it to the financial channel. After that, he looked back and forth between Sophia and Natasha while persuading Stanley to sit down.

Turning a blind eye to Natasha, Sophia looked at her phone and realised that it was already 12.30 p.m., so she said, "It's time."

Natasha knew that Sophia was dying to rip her apart but she couldn't.

As long as she was alive, she wouldn't let Sophia live in peace!

Meanwhile, Sophia started to watch the television with great interest.

Currently, the finance channel was broadcasting financial news and the headline for today was 'The real-life story of swapping daughters: Sandra Oak is actually the daughter of the Mitchell Family!'

"Today, the Chairman of Mitchell Group, Alex Mitchell, held a press conference at 12.30 p.m. and revealed a shocking incident to the public, where his daughters were swapped. Alex said that Natasha isn't his real daughter and his real daughter is actually the famous sports star, Sandra Oak, who had won two gold medals in the Universal Games! Kindly watch the following live coverage of Alex clarifying this incident to the public...."

At once, Natasha's expression changed drastically and her fingers that were twirling her hair froze.

Everyone's attention was attracted to the news so they immediately gathered in front of the television.

The scene was switched to Alex's press conference, showing Alex in a neat suit with the famous sports star, Sandra, as well as his first wife, who was also Natasha's mother, beside him.

Choking up, Alex said to the reporters on the scene and the camera, "I'm standing here today to clarify an incident that happened 20 years ago. 20 years ago, my wife, Mrs. Wright, gave birth to a baby girl in the hospital, which is our daughter. Unexpectedly, the nanny that we hired with a high price for our daughter took the opportunity to swap her daughter with our daughter when my wife was weak and frail from the labor. All these years, we have been kept in the dark and cherished the nanny's daughter like she was the apple of our eyes, while our real daughter struggled to live. By chance, we found our real daughter and she is Sandra Oak! Now, the truth is revealed and the three of us have finally united as a family!"

Speaking of the sad part, the family of three hugged each other and wailed as if they were genuinely families that hadn't met for years.

As soon as the news broke out, the students in the cafeteria burst into an uproar and the discussion was turbulent.

Sandra was the real daughter of the Mitchell Family? What about Natasha, who was right in front of them? Was she the nanny's daughter?

Oh my! That nanny was truly heartless to swap other people's daughter with her own daughter, letting her own daughter to live a luxury life while the real daughter of the wealthy family lived in a life of poverty with her.

It was said that Sandra grew up in a poor family when she was young.

Simultaneously, everyone looked at Natasha, only to see her completely stupefied while staring at the news on the television in disbelief.

She was the nanny's daughter and the real Natasha was actually Sandra?

What about her?!

Natasha sprung up at once and dashed out while calling someone.

After she left, the discussion became even more heated.

No one had imagined that such a bizarre incident would happen in real life.

Then, everyone went online and shared the news they had just heard.

Bayside University and the entire Bayside were shook!

While the others were busy discussing, Stanley remained stunned for a long time.

Wasn't Sandra Derek's sister, Alex's illegitimate daughter?

How did she become Alex's real daughter who was maliciously swapped by someone 20 years ago?

Suddenly, he turned stiffly toward Sophia, only to see her bowing her head to eat her food calmly. While eating slowly, she would occasionally look at her phone.

At that moment, it dawned on him.

Good gracious, what a ruthless trick!

From the beginning when she found Sandra's existence, she had started to plan everything calmly just for today.

Now, Natasha no longer had the title of Young Lady Mitchell.

Without saying a word, Stanley sat down to eat while all his hair stood on end. He swore that from now on, Sophia would be his respected elder, his God and he would obey her regardless of anything she said.

He wouldn't oppose her anymore!

When Natasha rushed back to Mitchell Residence, she was beaten and thrown out of the house mercilessly by the Mitchells.

At the same time, all her assets were frozen, including her credit cards and bank accounts. Everything that the Mitchell Family had given her was taken back.

In a short amount of time, she had gone from a wealthy young lady to a penniless person.

"No! Mom, Dad, I'm your daughter. I'm Natasha!"

Natasha screamed shrilly outside Mitchell Residence but no one answered her. Only a group of women from the upstart West Family that stayed next door watched her with amusement as she made a scene.

Natasha could strangle her own brother to death just to prevent him from taking what was hers. Similarly, Alex could tolerate his own daughter, who strangled his son, and conceal the truth for his own benefit.

It was all about benefits and Alex needed an offspring!

Nothing would be placed above benefits, not even his family.

Therefore, it wasn't strange that Alex abandoned her today.

Sean had shown the evidence of Natasha attempting to murder Nathan to Alex and told him that he had an outstanding illegitimate daughter. He had also told Alex a perfect plan where he could swap Sandra and Natasha's identity.

After hearing that, Alex would know what to do. Between a b*tch that always got herself into troubles and a sports star that brought glory to the country, he knew well which daughter would bring him the greatest benefit.

Therefore, he wasted no time in bringing Sandra into the family and changed her name to Sandra Mitchell. Not only that, after she was registered in the Mitchell's family genealogy record book, he even organized a grand banquet to celebrate his union with Sandra.

Sandra was indeed Alex's daughter so she looked like Alex. In addition, she was a sports star that was cherished nationally, who brought glory to the country. The only shortcoming was her origin and an illegitimate daughter would never be allowed in the Mitchell Family's ancestral hall. Yet, it wouldn't be the same case if she was a legitimate child that was swapped 20 years ago.

Although Alex had carried out the plan flawlessly, some of the Mitchells still sensed something fishy, but what could they do?

After Sandra was reunited with the family, Mitchell Group's shares shot up so no one would be so stupid to cause trouble.

Natasha guarded outside Mitchell Residence for a day but no one responded to her. Then, she thought of her uncle so she hopped into a taxi and headed to her uncle's house.

Unexpectedly, when she arrived at her uncle's house, she bumped into Mrs. Mitchell and Sandra, who were visiting her uncle.

Seeing that everything she had was being handed to another woman, Natasha flew into rage. So, as soon as Sandra got down from the car that had just stopped, Natasha charged toward her angrily and slapped her hard. "You b*tch! I'll strangle you to death!"
