

Medical Genius's Unspeakable Marriage

Chapter 626

Unconvinced, Demi said, "She is just a lowly nurse, yet she dared to pick fault with us just now. What's wrong with me slapping her? Director, I'm warning you, the Cunningham Pharmaceuticals are not pushovers. You'd better not make a big deal out of this, otherwise you'll get into trouble too!"

Upon hearing that, the director laughed. "Cunningham Pharmaceuticals? Who cares? Cunningham Pharmaceuticals is not as powerful as you think. Do you know who she is? Let me enlighten you; her name is Crystal Harrison and she is the granddaughter of Joseph Harrison! I'm sure you guys have heard of Mr. Harrison? He's a leading figure in the medical field of Eastcliff, yet you have the guts to slap his granddaughter. I'm starting to think you have a death wish!"

When his voice trailed off, everyone from the Cunningham Family was stunned.

Demi slapped Crystal just now because she thought that Crystal was just from a normal family.

Never in a million years would she have imagined that Crystal had such a high status.

Of course they have heard of Mr. Harrison before.

He was a leading figure in the medical industry in Eastcliff and he had a lot of connections. In fact, many dignitaries were old friends of Mr. Harrison.

When Eric wanted to see Mr. Harrison last time, he had to make an appointment in advance.

And now, Demi had actually slapped Mr. Harrison's granddaughter. She truly had opened a can of worms this time!

"S-She's the granddaughter of Mr. Harrison? Then... w-why is she here? Helen asked incredulously.

Crystal was Joseph's granddaughter so she could have gone to any hospital she wanted.

Why did she come to this small hospital? Plus, she even came specifically to Matthew's department.

However, no one paid any attention to Helen. The director looked at Crystal respectfully and said, "Miss Harison, how do you want to solve this? Your wish is our command and we will do anything you want, whether it's calling the police or slapping her back!"

Crystal's expression turned cold and she stared straight at Demi. "How do you want me to solve this?"

Demi shivered in fright.

Lately, Cunningham Pharmaceuticals had climbed up the ranks so Demi was also extremely arrogant and was used to being arrogant and domineering to outsiders. Thus, she had directly slapped Crystal the moment she came over.

However, she didn't expect that she would get into this kind of trouble.

"Miss Harison, I'm sorry, I-I really did not know who you are. Please have mercy and spare me this once. I won't dare to act like this anymore..." Demi stuttered.

Crystal countered coldly, "Judging by your words, you're only apologizing because you found out who I am. If I wasn't from the Harrison Family and was from an ordinary family instead, you wouldn't have apologized, eh?"

Demi trembled and said, "I-I didn't mean that... Miss Harison, I'm really sorry. I'll never act like this again..."

"Your apology is not enough!" Crystal snapped coldly. "Forget it. I can't be bothered to hear your apologies. Director, call the police!"

Hearing this, Demi was frightened while James and Helen quickly said, "Miss Harrison, please calm down. Cunningham Pharmaceuticals has a good relationship with the Carlson Group. Why do you want to make such a big deal out of such a trivial matter? Miss Harison, if you do this, our two companies may not be able to cooperate in the future anymore!"

Crystal laughed coldly. "Really? I hope you don't forget what you just said. I will call Mr. Carlson now and tell him that Cunningham Pharmaceuticals wants to stop cooperating with the Carlson Group!"

Upon hearing that, James and Helen almost peed themselves in fright.

Stanley was now in charge of the distribution of medical resources in Eastcliff and Cunningham Pharmaceuticals relied entirely on him.

James only said that just now to scare Crystal.

He didn't expect her to contact Stanley directly.

If Stanley really got involved in this matter and stopped cooperating with Cunningham Pharmaceuticals, then Cunningham Pharmaceuticals would surely be finished.

In other words, this comment of theirs could ruin their family business and if that really happened, it would be a huge disaster!
