

Life at the Top Chapter 140

Jasper was surprised when he received Anna's call.

Jasper, who was having a live stream meeting with Hudson and the rest, hinted for the meeting to end. He got up and came to the balcony of the suite to answer the call.

"I thought that the super-rich guy who earns one billion a day wouldn't answer my call."

After hearing Anna's teasing, Jasper replied with a smile, "It's a call from the beauty of the Law family. Even if I'm earning ten billion, I still have to pick up the call!"

"I already know about today's matter. My family gave you high praises for what you did today," said Anna.

"I guess it's all about fate. I don't have any good points about myself, the only thing that's worth praising is that I'm good at grasping the opportunity."

Anna lay on the bed. She twirled her hair with her fingers as she said, "I think my elder brother has changed."

Jasper massaged his forehead and said helplessly, "To be honest, perhaps the part that he's interested in is different from what we expect."

"According to him, he said you'll bring him over to the trading center tomorrow?" asked Anna as she was interested.

Jasper said, "Yes. I'm planning to head over there tomorrow."

“Can I tag along?” asked Anna.

“I can’t find any excuse to reject you,” said Jasper with a smile.

With a soft chuckle, Anna flipped over and lay on the bed, saying, “Then, shall we meet up tomorrow?”

“Sure, see you tomorrow.”

After hanging up the call, Anna sat on the bed. Both her hands were hugging her long legs. With her chin placed on her shin, one could not tell what was on her mind. It was just that she revealed a bright smile.

The next morning, Henry hurriedly ran to his car after having his breakfast.

However, just when he arrived at the side of the car, he saw that Anna had been waiting there a long time ago.

“What are you doing here?” Henry stared at Anna and asked.

“Going out with you,” said Anna as a matter-of-factly.

Henry frowned his brows and said, losing his cool, “I’m heading out to do some big business. Why are you tagging along? Go and have fun by yourself.”

Anna said, unsatisfied, “Aren’t you going out with Jasper? I already gave him a call, and he permitted me to tag along.”

After being stunned, Henry looked at Anna with a suspicious look. “Previously, there were so many young masters who put up so many tricks just to beg you to go out with them, but I’ve never seen you being bothered with any one of them, yet today, you insist on tagging along with me to look for Jasper?”

“Lil Sis, you’d better take good care of yourself.”

Anna glared at Henry and said coldly, “It’s alright if I don’t come along. Then I’ll now go upstairs and look for Dad to have a fine discussion with him regarding those matters of yours when you were studying abroad—”

“Go, go, go!” Henry unlocked the car door irritatedly, cutting Anna’s comment short. “You’re such a talkative person.”

At Mandarin Oriental Hotel, Jasper was just done with his breakfast when Henry and his sister arrived.

They drove and headed in the direction of the trading center. Henry was feeling rather uncomfortable when he sneaked a peek at the two people who were sitting side by side in the backseat while chatting happily.

‘Why did I become a driver?!’

It was clear that this was not what Henry had expected.

“Today, what are we going to do at the trading center?” Henry thought of a topic and successfully interrupted the two people who were having an engrossing conversation.

“I’m planning to go over there to open a new securities account. Then, you two can each open your respective accounts too,” said Jasper.

“We can open one as well?” Anna asked curiously.

“Don’t you want to earn some spare cash?” said Jasper.

Anna’s eyes were sparkling. She knew that Jasper was a genius in stocks yet had never witnessed it with her own eyes. With this chance presenting itself to her, she would not miss out on it.
