

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 2407

Chapter 2407

Issac quickly drove the car over. Charlie was about to get in the car. Bao Fugui, the owner of Treasures Pavilion, hurried out and asked nervously, "Master Wade, why are you leaving so early?"

Charlie said calmly: "Suddenly there is something to be dealt with, so I won't stay longer."

Bao Fugui hurriedly asked: "Master Wade, are you not satisfied with the service of Treasures Pavilion?"

Charlie waved his hand: "No, it has nothing to do with your Treasure Pavilion."

Bao Fugui only breathed a sigh of relief and quickly asked: "By the way, Master Wade, were you interested in the items that were auctioned today? If so, please tell me, and I will help you win !"

Charlie shook his head and smiled: "There is nothing I am interested in at the auction. I came here today to join in the heat, so don't worry too much."

With that said, he pointed to the Rolls-Royce in front of him and said to Bao Fugui: "I have something to do, so I will leave now, and we will get together again when I have time."

Bao Fugui hurriedly nodded and bowed his waist and said, "Master Wade, go slowly. If there is another auction in Treasures Pavilion next time, I must contact you in advance!"

Charlie nodded, said goodbye to Bao Fugui, and got in the car.

Bao Fugui saw Charlie's Rolls Royce leave the Treasure Pavilion before turning around and returning to the auction venue.

Afterward, Issac carried Charlie to the old house where Charlie lived with his parents.

At this time, Liona, who finally won the former residence of Charlie's parents at a sky-high price of 62 million, has come to the back office of the auction and began to go through the house purchase procedures with the staff.

The staff of the judicial department looked at Liona in shock at this time, and said: "Madam, are you sure you want to buy this property at a high price of 62 million? If you want to breach the contract now, we will only hold your bid deposit of 10,000 will be deducted and you will be added to the blacklist for only one year. Would you like to consider it again?"

This is a judicial auction after all, and all the funds from the auction will be used for the defendant to repay the amount involved in the case.

Therefore, no matter how much is sold, there is no actual interest involved in the judicial department. Therefore, they hope that the goods sold by the judicial auction can really be sold at a price-performance ratio.

They felt that the price Liona had set out was too ridiculous and that this house was not worth so much money without reason.

Once Liona paid the money, there would be no room for regret. All the money from the auction of the house will be used for judicial compensation immediately, and there will never be room for regret.

But in case Liona clears the money and regrets it, if she wants to coax it, she must come to the judicial department to coax it. At that time, it will more or less affect their own reputation, and it will be trouble for them.

Therefore, in order to put an end to the trouble, they hope that Liona will not be taken advantage of. It would be best to repent on the spot. When the next judicial auction comes, the house will be taken out again and auctioned at a normal market price.

Moreover, they also felt that Liona must have bid the price with that person on the spot, so they kept increasing the price one by one. Otherwise, it is impossible for a normal person to get such an incredible price.

However, she was very confident at this time and said: "I don't need to think about it. Please handle the payment for me as soon as possible and the rest of the transfer process. The sooner the better, thank you."
