

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 2459

Chapter 2459

The Jewish man who spoke was Walter Hogwitz's father, Steve Hogwitz.

Ever since Walt and all his men have evaporated, the entire Hogwarts family has been doing everything possible to inquire about their whereabouts and get any clues.

But no matter how they inquire, the result of feedback is the same.

No one has seen how Walter and his men disappeared from the world. Even the Skynet surveillance all over the city did not have any Walter-related video data.

This made the Hogwarts family immediately realized that Walter was very likely to provoke a very powerful person in Aurous Hill.

Therefore, Walter's father Steve came to Aurous Hill himself, just to do everything possible to find Walter and bring him back to the United States.

At this moment, the plane next to him also turned on the spiral staircase.

Shoude stepped out of the hatch and walked straight down.

At this time, a welcoming convoy composed of six bullet-proof Cadillac Presidential One had already drove to the plane of Shoude, and nearly twenty men in black, all of the same height and body, came out of the cars, standing next to the convoy. Straight.

These were all the security teams temporarily prepared by Shoude's men. During Shoude's time in Aurous Hill, these people were responsible for the security work on the bright side.

However, these are just superficial security forces. Most of them are used to fill the front. Twenty minutes ago, the Su family sent twenty top masters to Aurous Hill first. These people will secretly protect Shoude's safety and obey his orders. Shoude's instructions and dispatches searched for Liona and Zhiyu in Aurous Hill.

Walter's father Steve noticed Shoude. He did not expect that the unremarkable Chinese man would have such a big battle.

So, he hurriedly stopped and said to the assistant behind him: "Check the registration number of the plane next to ours. Hurry!"

Every aircraft, whether it is a civil airliner or a private jet, must have a registration number.

Moreover, the registration number is generally sprayed on the fuselage of the aircraft.

Generally speaking, the registration number is a combination of one letter and four numbers.

For example, the combination of B-2233.

Among them, the letter B represents the country.

No matter where you are in the world and see an aircraft with a registration number starting with B, you can confidently and boldly confirm that this is an aircraft registered in China.

Therefore, Steve Hogwitz wanted to check the registration number to determine which company the aircraft belongs to, and then probably infer the identity of Shoude.

Fortunately, this kind of inquiry is not difficult. Just as Shoude walked down the spiral ladder, Steve's assistant finally found out the results and immediately reported: "Boss, this aircraft is a company registered with Su's family in Eastcliff. Under the name!"

"Su's family!?" Steve was shocked and immediately said, "No wonder there is such a big show!"

Having said that, he immediately quickened his pace, and ran off the spiral staircase in three or two steps and went straight to Shoude.

Before he could get close to Shoude, several people in black immediately rushed forward and surrounded him, sternly, "Who are you?! Please stand back immediately, otherwise, don't blame us for treating you." polite!"

Steve hurriedly explained: "Don't get me wrong, everyone, I have no intentions to harm, I just want to say hello to Mr. Su!"

Shoude was about to step into the car. Hearing Steve's words, he looked at him curiously and asked, "Do you know me?"
