

The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 2751

Chapter 2751

Seeing that Charlie was coming, Pollard greeted him to sit down beside him.

The diamond box of Classic Mansion is the most luxurious one in the whole Mansion. The huge round dining table can satisfy at least twenty people dining at the same time, so it looks a little deserted when three people sit.

After Charlie sat down next to Pollard, Pollard looked at the opposite Melba and said, "Melba, there are only three of us. Why are you sitting so far away? Sit here."

Melba said embarrassingly, "I will sit here. Here, with such a big table, it's awkward for three people to sit next to each other."

Pollard shook his head helplessly, and said, "I don't insist, it's up to you." After that, he asked Charlie, "Charlie, you can drink a cup?"

Charlie said with a smile: "I'm fine, it depends on whether you still have to work in the afternoon."

Pollard smiled: "There is no class in the afternoon, so I plan to take a half-day vacation. The two will drink two glasses at noon, and then I will take Melba home to take a good rest, she finally came back, I can't leave her down and go to the park for jogging."

Charlie nodded and said, "Indeed, Melba is here. She didn't suffer less for a while. She really has to take a good rest these two days. If that's the case, I will accompany you to drink two glasses at noon. I will have dinner later, and let Orvel drive you and Melba home."

Pollard laughed and said: "Okay, let's have a few glasses open!" At this moment, Orvel just opened the door and asked Charlie: "Master, the cold dishes are ready, can I serve it first?"

Charlie was busy. He said: "Come on, two more bottles of Moutai by the way, I will accompany Professor Watt to drink two glasses."

"Okay!" Orvel agreed without hesitation, and said: "The hot dishes I will give you directly according to the specifications of the diamond box. It's all arranged."

Charlie waved his hand: "Don't be so extravagant, the dishes in your diamond box are for 20 people, and we are only three. How can we finish eating so much."

Pollard also hurriedly said: "Let's just eat whatever you want, but don't be too extravagant and wasteful. Now the whole country is promoting diligence and thrift. We have to respond to the call and put an end to waste."

Charlie thought, "Uncle, want Don't you go directly to the back kitchen to see, if you are interested, let the chef arrange it on the spot. The three of us, ordering four dishes and one soup is almost going to be sufficient."

Pollard hurriedly said, "No, no, this is me. I am not picky about eating. I can eat anything you like."

Charlie smiled and said: "It's true that I have a choice syndrome, so I still ask you to go and take a look and choose a few dishes."

Orvel listened to the side. Confused, he thought to himself: "What kind of medicine is sold in the gourd, Master? If you want to order, can I just bring up the menu? Why did you let Professor Watt go to the back kitchen? What? Generally speaking, most restaurant back kitchens are forbidden for customers to visit, and Classic Mansion has never had this operation process."

Just as he was wondering, he suddenly caught a glimpse of the face sitting opposite Charlie. However, Melba, who frowned slightly and had a sad expression, suddenly understood in his heart.

“It turns out that Master wanted to take this Professor Watt apart and stay alone with his daughter...”

Thinking of this, Orvel hurriedly said to Pollard: “Professor Watt, you are Master’s distinguished guest. Of course, you have to decide what to order.”

After he finished speaking, he directly made a gesture of inviting and said respectfully: “Professor, please move to the back of the kitchen, I will introduce you to our specialty dishes in Classic Mansion!”

Pollard felt that his hospitality was difficult when he saw this, so he had to agree and said: “Okay, then I’ll be more respectful than fate!”

Then, Pollard and Orvel left the box together.

As soon as the two left, Charlie looked at Melba and spoke with a bit of embarrassment: “Well, Melba, isn’t the close-fitting clothes I bought for you in the morning inappropriate?”

Chapter 2752

Melba felt ashamed and angry when she heard this.

Shameful, Charlie was embarrassed enough to buy her personal clothes, and now he asked about this directly face to face, which made her feel ashamed.

What is annoying is, Charlie, what the hell is he buying! Either it was extremely revealing, or it was impossible to wear it at all. Now that the strap behind the upper body is still hanging on the body, it feels more uncomfortable and unbearable.

However, Melba also knew that these were the unintentional mistakes of Charlie. Even if she was angry in her heart, she was not angry with him, not to mention that he had saved her life and was her savior.

So, she could only bite the bullet and say: “That...that...that’s okay...”

Charlie asked subconsciously, “Are you sure it’s okay? Have they all collapsed?”

Melba was extremely ashamed, and at the same time she asked in surprise: “You...how do you know...”

Charlie said a little apologetically: “This is really not the case. I bought it without thinking. I should have brought bigger ones but bought small “

Melba turned red, she did not want to continue discussing this topic with Charlie.

Charlie took out the underwear that he had just bought from his pocket at this time. He wanted to walk over and hand it to her, but felt that it would be weird to hold the underwear directly to others, so he put them on the dinner table. Pushing in front of her, he said in a somewhat embarrassing manner: “This is a new purchase. I deliberately bought it two sizes larger. Would you like to go to the bathroom and change it now?”

Melba never dreamed that Charlie could even get it from his pocket took out another piece of underwear!

And what surprised her even more was that this underwear turned out to be the brand she saw when she was in the car!

“That means that Charlie said that he had something to do, but he actually went to buy me underwear? His thoughts coincided with me...”

Thinking of this, Melba was moved all of a sudden.

She didn't expect Charlie to be so considerate.

At this time, she was really embarrassed, and quickly grabbed the underwear Charlie pushed over, stood up, blushed and said, “Thank you, Mr. Wade...” After speaking, she hurried to the box. In the bathroom.

She took off the underwear that was of very inappropriate size at the fastest speed, and the marks of the joints on the back were very obvious.

She couldn't wait to throw this underwear into the trash can, but a thought flashed in her mind, making her realize that this was the first underwear Charlie gave her and the first she had received in her life. A piece of underwear given by a man.

So, she rolled up this underwear in a wicked manner and took it quietly.

Afterwards, she took out the newly bought one by Charlie. This time, the size was indeed very suitable, which made her breathe a sigh of relief.

The feeling before was like a size 40 foot, but walking all day in size 35 shoes.

It is finally normal now.

A few minutes later, when she came out of the bathroom, the whole person was in a complete state.

Prior to this, she had been very cautious, did not dare to make any big moves, and her mood was even worse.

But now, the size of this newly bought underwear by Charlie is very suitable. After changing it, all the negative feelings and emotions are instantly wiped out, making her a lot easier.

After coming out, she clasped her changed clothes with her hands behind her back, for fear of being seen by Charlie.

This was mainly because the Chanel dress that Charlie bought for her didn't have a pocket, so she didn't know where to put the dress, so she could only carry it on her back.

Seeing Charlie, Melba said with some embarrassment: "Mr. Wade... thank you so much..."

Chapter 2753

Charlie smiled slightly and said seriously: "It's all right, is it fitting this time?"

Melba blushed and nodded.

This time the underwear really fits perfectly.

But she was not too embarrassed to say it directly.

As a result, she could only lower her eyelids slightly, and said unnaturally: “Mr. Wade, can you please calculate the total amount of money spent, I will definitely pay you back when I get the opportunity!”

Charlie waved his hand: “Between you and me. You don’t have to be so polite. I am also your future boss, so I will treat it as an introductory gift for you.” Melba was even more embarrassed and thought to herself: “It’s okay to give clothes as a gift, but silk stockings and underwear. What kind of thing...”

But after another thought, if she no longer struggles, this matter will be over now, but if she has to return the money to Charlie, then this matter is equivalent to it’s not over yet.

With such an embarrassing thing, she just wanted to turn it over as soon as possible, and didn’t want to have any sequels.

So she quickly said gratefully: “Since Mr. Wade has said so, then... then I won’t be polite to you.”

After speaking, she quickly turned around and hid the clothes at the same time. Before, she lowered her head and returned to her seat.

At this time, Pollard opened the door and said with a smile: “I went to see it, I really don’t know what to choose. Mr. Orvel recommended a few special dishes, but I’m not sure if it suits your appetite.”

Charlie smiled and said, “The food here tastes good. If you feel really unappetizing, you can order something else.”

As he said, Orvel walked in with four bottles of Thirty Years Old Moutai Liquor in person, respectfully. Said: “Master Wade and Professor Watt, you two will drink these four bottles first, and I will bring more if you don’t have enough!”

Pollard hurriedly said: “Oh, Mr. Orvel, I don’t have that much alcohol. When I was young, I could drink a catty or so, and now it’s six or seven taels. What’s more, this Moutai has a high degree. Just half a catty...”

Orvel said with a smile: “Professor Watt, although this alcohol has a high alcohol content, but you can’t stop drinking it, you can open it up and drink a few more glasses!”

Pollard was in a particularly good mood, and continued to say “Okay! Then drink a few more glasses!”

Charlie heard that he took the initiative to pour a glass of white wine for Pollard and for himself, and then ordered Orvel: “Mr. Orvel, you can prepare some drinks for Miss Watt.”

Orvel Just about to get it, Pollard said at this moment: “Melba, Charlie is your savior, you can drink some too, just to serve him a few cups!”

Melba hesitated, then nodded and said, “Okay. Dad.”

Charlie said hurriedly: “Melba hasn’t taken a good rest yet, so let’s just let Orvel get a bottle of red wine.” Orvel hurriedly said, “OK Master Wade, I’m going now.”

Melba Looking at Charlie gratefully, she said: “Mr. Wade, I will use red wine to respect you later!”

Charlie smiled: “We are the same generation, so don’t be so polite between us in the future, just call me with the name, it will be fine.”

Melba nodded lightly, and said: “From now on, I will call you President Wade at work, and I will call you by your name in private.”

Charlie smiled slightly and said nothing.

After Orvel delivered the red wine, Pollard picked up the wine glass and said to Charlie: “Charlie, this girl of mine is my only blood. I will offer you a glass with Melba, thank you for your life-saving grace!”

Charlie quickly stood up, picked up the glass, and said: “Uncle is serious, don’t say thank you, it’s all in the wine.”

Pollard immediately said: “Yes! It’s all in the wine, come on, let me do it first Regards!”

Chapter 2754

Pollard is indeed very happy today.

The only daughter not only escaped the danger, but also returned to him safely.

What's more important is that after this time, she must be more aware of the dangers in the world, and will no longer blindly pursue some unrealistic ideals as before.

And the daughter has also promised Charlie that she will stay to help him, which means that he can live with his daughter in the safe and comfortable city of Aurous Hill for a long time.

When he is happy, he'll naturally drink a few more glasses.

After three rounds of drinking, Pollard became a little drunk.

He thanked Charlie for everything, and finally focused on his daughter.

He looked at his only daughter with a three-point drunk and seven-point favor, and exclaimed: "Melba, you and Charlie are both about the same age, but Charlie has been married for 4 years. You should pay more attention to personal issues, right?"

Melba drank a small bottle of red wine. Although she was not drunk, her pretty face was already a little red.

Hearing that Dad suddenly started to care about her life-long events again, she said embarrassedly: "Dad... don't worry about this kind of thing. There are so many friends around me who are still my age, for further studies in school. It doesn't matter if you are married in your 30s.

As she said, she suddenly remembered the lie she had told her father, and quickly said, "Tell you... let me talk about my situation... ...Didn't I tell you everything..."

Pollard looked at her, paused for more than ten seconds before finally sighing, and said with emotion: "Even if you like girls, is it not time to find a girlfriend at this age?"

“I...” Melba didn’t expect that her father would say these words in Charlie’s face. She suddenly felt extremely embarrassed and made a stop. Trying to find a way how to answer.

Charlie suddenly remembered what Pollard had told him before, that the girl Melba was indeed very rebellious, and her s3xual orientation was somewhat different from that of ordinary girls.

Thinking of this, the first thing that came to Charlie’s mind was the other two female hostages he saw in Hamid’s custody, in Syria.

So he blurted out and asked: “Melba... Syria, you had two other female companions, was one of them your other half?”

Melba heard this, and the whole person was stunned for a few seconds. After a long pause, she came back to her senses and said in shame: “Mr. Wade, what are you talking about... Those are my classmates... how could there be my significant other...”

She didn’t expect that Charlie was relieved when he heard this, and said with emotion: “Oh, it’s fine if you don’t have, it’s fine if you don’t.”

Pollard was bored with a glass of wine at this time, and then raised his hand in the air. Signed and said: “In fact, Dad has also seen it now. Now this society, this situation is very common. In many countries, they can already legally marry, including the United States. If you find another one you like, you can get your marriage certificate in the United States.”

Melba was extremely embarrassed and said quickly: “Oh, I think you must have drunk too much, you can drink less!”

“I didn’t drink too much... ..” Pollard said seriously: “In fact, these words have been held in my heart for a long time. I have always wanted to tell you that I just didn’t find a chance. You just came back safely today. I have to take this opportunity to talk to you.

Talking from my heart.” Without waiting for Melba’s reply, he continued: “What Dad really hopes is that you can be happy and healthy, not that you have to live the way I want you to live. Life is short, just follow, and live in your own favorite way.”

Chapter 2755

Speaking of this, he poured himself a glass of wine, drank it in one sip, and then said: “Dad has also paid attention to some foreign girls who are in the same situation as you during this period. I find that their lives are also very happy. Blessed with happiness, they have also received the understanding and support of their friends and family members. Some have even been legally married and live together in an open and honest manner. There are even many couples in this situation who choose to use the test tube method to reproduce their offspring. I think this is also the case. A very good solution that can not only meet your mate selection needs, but also allow you to continue your blood, killing two birds with one stone, what do you think?”

Melba’s expression is already dumbfounded.

She really didn’t expect that her father had always thought that her s3xual orientation was towards girls.

In fact, it was just a period of rebellion, used to deal with and prevaricate Dad’s rhetoric.

At that time, her father always wanted to make her fall in love and marry earlier, so he would often help her find some high-achieving students of the same age in the school where he worked, and even some of his proud disciples.

But at that time, Melba did not have the nature of falling in love at all. Half of her mind was learning, and the other half of her mind was used to keep the world in mind. She often participated in various environmental protection and anti-war propaganda activities and even personally met a few friends. Went to Syria to make anti-war films.

At that time, it was the pinnacle that she was blinded by hypocritical universal values. She received higher education in the West, so she felt that the universal value of the West was the key to saving the entire world and even the entire human race.

Westerners call for environmental protection and energy-saving every day, but the per capita electricity consumption in the United States is three times that of China. With a population of 5% in the world, the United States consumes 25% of the world’s oil and creates 25% of the world’s greenhouse gases.

Young Americans promote anti-war and peace throughout the world every day, without knowing that their country is the real global war machine.

However, after experiencing the disaster in Syria, Melba finally woke up.

She finally understood that the premise of being world-minded is to first figure out what the real world looks like.

Right now, the Chinese people are down-to-earth, live and work in peace, make every effort to make their lives better, and at the same time never take the initiative to send troops to attack other countries and provoke disputes. This is the real universal value.

Seeing this clearly also made her a little bit more understanding of her father's previous bitterness.

At this moment, Pollard looked at Charlie and asked, "Charlie, your uncle doesn't have many acquaintances in the city. You have been here for a long time. If you have a suitable girl by your side, you can introduce her to Melba."

Charlie nodded, not knowing how a face came to mind, so he said seriously: "Uncle, I know a nice girl. She has a personality similar to Melba. Her name is Zhiyu, Melba, and Zhiyu. The names look pretty good."

"Good thing," Pollard, who was already drunk, asked hurriedly: "Does she like girls too? If so, just let me know. Introduce them and let them meet each other."

Charlie embarrassedly and said: "I don't know this to tell the truth. I didn't have the opportunity to ask her"

"Okay" Pollard nodded and said: Then you must take it seriously ahead of time. Thank you so much

Melba did not expect that her father had started to make Charlie introduced her to a girlfriend.

She garnered unparalleled courage and said: "Dad, there are actually things I did not tell you clearly

Pollard was suddenly startled after what he already knew about his daughter, and asked nervously, "Is there something more explosive to tell me, Melba?"

Although your father is not very old, his heart can't be too strong. Can you tell your dad what is going on?

Melba lowered her head and didn't dare to look at Pollard. She explained in shame: "In fact, I don't really like girls."
