

Levi Garrison: The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 1080

Even though everyone was well aware that Tyrone agreed to establish this arranged marriage, and that Emma had nothing to do with it, they all pushed the blame on her.

Intimidated by power, none of them dared to drag Tyrone into this.

Everything was Emma's fault.

As she spoke, Leia passed the engagement contract to Levi and ordered him to tear it apart.

The rest whipped out their phones to film it.

Sighing, Emma said, "Levi, just tear it. We are indebted to Tiffany, so we should give her back her freedom."

"Yeah, this is the proper attitude of repentance! We won't blame you for wasting so much of Tiffany's time. Rip the contract now and don't pester Tiffany anymore," instructed Taylor arrogantly.

"Tear it up! Why aren't you moving? Tear it now! We still have to return," urged the rest when they saw Levi standing there motionlessly.

To their surprise, Levi crumpled the contract into a ball and shoved it into his pocket.

Everyone was stunned.

What is he planning to do?

"Levi, what are you doing?" yelled Leia angrily.

Even Emma was confused.

"Listen up! I'll safeguard the engagement contract for now. I'm fine with calling off the engagement and tearing the contract up. However, you should tell Tiffany to come personally. Who are all of you? How dare you criticize my Mom like that? Rather, you should directly find Tyrone and call off the engagement!" said Levi sternly as he glared at the rest.

If they spoke in a more courteous manner, he would just tear the contract up.

Yet, since they dared to scold his Mom, he would not agree to their request.

It was not so simple to make him tear the contract!

"You..."

Everyone glared at Levi Garrison resentfully.

"How dare you?" yelled Taylor.

"Get lost! If you want me to tear up the contract, tell Tiffany to come personally. Anyone else will not count," ordered Levi furiously.

"You... You just don't want to call off the engagement, right? That's why you deliberately snatched the contract away. You want Tiffany to marry you, right?"

"You shameless bastard! You aren't worthy enough for Tiffany. She's the most beautiful woman of Oakland City and the heiress of the imperial Meyers family. What right do you have to do this?"

"Yeah, you even have a pregnant wife! Even Martin, who has a crush on Tiffany, can kill you so easily."

Everyone bellowed in fury.

"Haha! The more you act like this, the more reluctant I will be to destroy the contract. The only condition is that Tiffany comes personally. Seth, send the guests away!" instructed Levi.

Seth instantly chased the five people out of the Morris Group.

Although they were furious, they were well aware they no longer had any authority outside their turf.

"I'm sure that Levi is trying to use Tiffany. Even if he doesn't want to marry her, he will use the engagement to extort money from the Meyers!" analyzed Leia.

"What should we do now?" asked the others.

"Should we quickly inform Tiffany and the Meyers family? Let them decide!" suggested Taylor.

At that moment, Eden's phone rang.

"It's a call from Martin! He's been paying attention to our progress in calling off the engagement."

Eden picked up the call.

"Martin, something bad happened. Levi doesn't want to call off the engagement and he even snatched the contract away. He demands Tiffany to personally come and call it off."

Eden relayed everything to Martin, who instantly became mad with fury.

"This is outrageous! You guys, continue staying at North Hampton for the time being. Tiffany and I will personally come to settle this issue!" ordered Martin coldly.

Everyone was overjoyed to hear that.