

Chapter 570

Perhaps it was the sudden taking of her first kiss, perhaps it was Qin Ming's hand moving restlessly down to her sensitive parts, perhaps it was the nervousness of kissing someone for the first time, Huang Shutong couldn't help but do it.

Slap!

With a backhand slap, she hit Qin Ming's face fiercely.

See, the red marks were coming out.

The first kiss between the two of them came to an abrupt end.

She saw Huang Shutong's white cheeks, red with shame, covering her heaving chest with one hand, licking her lips and swallowing her saliva, she looked at Qin Ming with some incredulity.

He was so cowardly and impotent before, but this time he disappeared for more than half a month and came back from a car accident, as if he had changed as a person, so tough and domineering that Huang Shutong could not believe that the man in front of her was her fiancé.

Huang Shutong suddenly questioned, "Are you Zhao Zhengyin?"

Qin Ming touched his hot face, the slap was really hard.

Qin Ming could only put his acting skills on line and lied, "I'm not Zhao Zhengyan who am I? Do I need to go to the police station to issue a certificate to prove that I am me?"

Huang Shutong still had one hand over her chest and asked, "Your skin isn't that dark, you don't even like to go out these four years, you stay at home every day."

Qin Ming already had a prepared remark and said, "I've been practising with my teacher for the past month and got a tan. The next time you see my teacher, you can ask him how toxic the sun is in the south."

Huang Shutong looked at Qin Ming and questioned again, "What about your nearsightedness? Why have you suddenly stopped wearing glasses?"

Qin Ming added, "My teacher cured my nearsightedness, he took me to western Hunan and used a native method, a compulsion worm you know? That worm drilled into my eyes and slowly repaired the thickness of my retina, then the worm drilled out again and my eyesight was cured."

After Qin Ming finished bragging, he admired himself, bragging without a draft, and taking it at face value.

Huang Shutong questioned, "Then why did your personality change so much."

Qin Ming said, "Because I finally understood that people are good at being ridden and horses are good at being ridden by others. My teacher has changed me, and I don't want to be bullied anymore."

Huang Shutong was still staring at Qin Ming with great suspicion, not quite believing.

Qin Ming heart panic, should I say not comfortable rest, anyway the first kiss got in hand, this girl's small lips particularly fragrant, waist particularly small, and then the next step is unlikely to be able to get her whole tonight, is not it?

The first thing you need to do is to ask the person who is the main character of the anime.

But Huang Shutong didn't ask this, she walked out, not ten minutes later she came back with a book of college higher mathematics exercises and threw it to Qin Ming, saying, "Prove it to me, if you finish these exercises, I will believe you."

Qin Ming laughed in his heart, this was good.

Zhao Zhengyin and he had the only thing in common apart from looking alike, and that was that they were both study hobbyists!

Qin Ming was a bully, he picked up a pen, flipped open the university higher mathematics exercises, brushed up on his calculations and wrote, and did a dozen pages in an hour.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

Qin Ming said: "The past me is dead, the present me, is the new me. The Zhao Zhengyan you liked is no longer there."

Huang Shutong bit her cherry lips and said, "I didn't like the past you."

"....." Qin Ming's face darkened, this girl was so direct, huh? Fortunately, he was not Zhao Zhengyin, otherwise he would have been depressed to death.

Huang Shutong said, "When I was in high school, I only had a crush on you too. I knew you had a crush on me. When you pursued me, I was very hesitant. You should also know that my agreeing to be engaged to you was also partly due to my parents' non-stop persuasion and your parents' investment in our family's business."

"I thought I'd had enough time to get to know you, you were so good and your family background was so high, I didn't think it would be too bad to marry you."

"Who knew that after what happened with you and Baby Lin, your image collapsed and you became weak and decadent."

"We only even saw each other once a year and couldn't speak twice."

"There's even less chance of me liking the old you."

Huang Shutong spoke bluntly and sincerely, these were the words from her heart, Zhao Zhengyan and her had such an estranged past, Qin Ming also felt helpless.

Qin Ming didn't know how to take a stand, so he simply said indifferently, "It doesn't matter, I'm fine on my own."

Huang Shutong said, "But now you, you stole my first kiss and tried to touch my chest. I'm very angry now!"

The corners of Qin Ming's mouth twitched, and looking at Huang Shutong who was fuming like a little lion, Qin Ming broke down and said, "Then what do you want? Do whatever you like."

Huang Shutong clenched her fist and stared straight at Qin Ming, humming, "You better be responsible for everything you do now."

Qin Ming snickered in his heart, it doesn't exist, when Master is done with the capital city and the Zhao family, Master will disappear, responsible? That was non-existent.

After Huang Shutong finished speaking, he retreated and Qin Ming was left alone in the ward.

Qin Ming was lying comfortably on the hospital bed, this quality service was still provided to him by Huang Shutong.

He pondered in his mind, "Before in still paid for her own escort and sent me new glasses, after coming into contact here, she seems to be well aware of her fiancée's status and will still do what she needs to do, not completely heartless and heartless."

"But why is she so close to Bai Jingchen? The last time I was hospitalised in Haicheng, she even left me to go to a party to find that Bai Jingchen."

"This woman, it's not easy to see through. Could it be that she's riding a donkey to find a horse? If there's a better target, only then will she break up completely, good calculation."

"It's just that, what am I doing thinking so much, she neither likes me nor hates me too much right now, it should be enough for me to rub some cheapness and get through my mouth and hands every now and then."

"I'll be impersonating Zhao Zhengyan this trip, so I guess it will only be a month or two, I should still be able to make it back to the countryside in time for the New Year."

Qin Ming slept comfortably in the hospital and was discharged straight away early the next morning, he wasn't sick, so naturally he didn't need to continue to be hospitalised, staying in the hospital would avoid Bai Jingchen's trio of debt collectors.

The nine million or so that Qin Ming was not going to spit out anyway.

Qin Ming took two cars back to school, and the single dormitory was already filled with all kinds of second-hand luxury goods.

Qin Ming poured over them for a while, not interested in what watches, diamond rings, antiques, gadgets, he got tired of playing with them after a while.

Qin Ming was thinking of going to Nie Haitang when the phone rang, it was Zhao Songli's secretary calling.

"Second young master, the boss and his wife have asked you to have dinner tonight at six o'clock at the private custom restaurant on the forty-seventh floor of the China World Trade Center, I may not have the time to pick you up and drop you off, but I will book a special car for you, please arrive on time."

After that secretary finished her words, she directly hung up Qin Ming's phone.

Qin Ming was so angry, the last time he was forcibly taken from the city of Hai to go to school here, this secretary was also so cold and despised people, hanging up as soon as the phone was said.

Qin Ming grunted, "Shouting at me for dinner? Are you guys worthy?"

Qin Ming ignored the meal, picked up his books and went to class, he was still looking forward to it in his heart, wondering what the difference was between the most advanced institution of learning in China, and a first-tier university in Guang City?
