

Chapter 617

Lin Yurou held up two fingers towards Qin Ming and said, "Qin Ming you now have two choices, first, you can meet my conditions and then I will help you find Sun Zhengzhi so that you can help the Sun family without any problems. Second, you force me to tell you where Sun Justice is hiding, and I will tell you honestly."

Qin Ming said, "You're a strange woman, what's the point of saying that? Isn't it all the same result?"

Lin Yurou scraped her cheeks in shame and said, "Where is the same? I'm being raised by you now and the rest of my life's happiness depends on you, so how dare I speak up to you? But I want to have a little request, so the achievement mentions it, if you don't agree, I can't do anything about it, I should still help you."

Qin Ming narrowed his eyes and said, "It's not that you're asking me to eat some bug, is it?"

Lin Yurou rolled her eyes speechlessly and said, "No, I won't. Our Xiangxi Lin family's parasites are very precious and are not usually used easily. Anyway, it won't make you do anything harmful or against your conscience, it's just some minor things in life."

After hearing this, Qin Ming did not violate his conscience, wasn't that simple? He patted his chest and said, "No problem, tell me quickly, how do you know?"

Lin Yurou explained, "Just like cats are particularly sensitive to the smell of fish, in nature, there is also a type of moth that can release a female scent to attract male moths from three thousand metres away to come and mate."

After hearing this, Qin Ming spat out, "Tsk, this female moth's slutty smell is too strong, isn't it?"

Lin Yurou was instantly furious, biting her lip in a very tangled way and looking at Qin Ming speechlessly, who hurriedly gave a harrumph and pulled the chain towards his mouth, saying, "Er, you go on, I'll shut up."

Lin Yurou continued, "Through our Lin family's cultivation, the unique scent released by this female moth has become even stronger and can spread even further, even if it is very faint it can be traced all the way to ten thousand meters away, and if one is familiar with using several groups of moths that match males and females, they can form an effective scent tracing line, and as long as the other party has not left the capital city, they can be found. It's even stronger than a police dog."

Qin Ming was secretly staggered, this Lin family's moths were so terrifying, worthy of being an odd family with some discipline, this was simply a strange thing in the world, he had never heard of a dog's nose being able to track for a thousand miles, now the moths' noses could still be so powerful.

Qin Ming asked curiously again, "Then how do you control those special moths?"

Lin Yurou smiled mysteriously, "Secret, only the heirs of our Lin family can know this. If you are willing to marry me, it's fine for me to tell you now."

Qin Wei gave her a glance and said, "No, I'm not curious at all, simply asking about it more than once, where are you thinking."

Lin Yurou flattened her mouth in a tangled manner, seemingly a little unhappy.

Qin Ming found a car and asked the Sun family to follow behind him, while Lin Yurou used her unique compulsion method to follow the "scent" all the way.

Every time a distance was passed, Lin Yurou was able to use a special compulsion mound to retrieve two moths the size of nail slices, Qin Ming sniffed desperately, but could not smell anything.

Lin Yurou giggled, "Are you trying to be a dog's nose?"

Qin Ming said sarcastically, "It's really great to be of help this time. I underestimated you before too. I didn't expect you to be so capable."

Lin Yurou suddenly pointed ahead to the entrance of a heavily secured Mid-Levels Spa Hotel.

The crowd stopped the car and Sun Renbing said in surprise, "Boss, I came here in the early hours of the morning because I found a suspicious-looking car and investigated all the surveillance of this hotel and found nothing, or I came to see it myself."

Lin Yurou secretly made a reassuring gesture, and Qin Ming then said, "Just follow me."

At that moment, a group of security guards at the entrance stopped the crowd and said, "Do you have a reservation, please? We have a reservation type hotel."

Sun Changxi pulled out her ID and said menacingly, "Your hotel is suspected of harbouring criminals, and we are now entering to investigate, please cooperate with us."

But the security guard didn't buy it and said, "Oh, you came to conduct a search in the middle of the night, why are you still here now? Please show us your search warrant."

Qin Ming asked, "Sun Renbing, were you this tough the last time you came?"

Sun Renbing frowned and shook his head, indicating that he had not.

Qin Ming frowned, this security guard had such a tough attitude? Moreover, since they knew that they had searched once before, if there was no problem per se, they should also cooperate this time.

Lin Yurou whispered, "The people are inside and they are leaving. To hurry."

As soon as Qin Ming heard this, he looked at the security guards, who were moving very warily and looked like they were desperately stubborn, and immediately ordered, "Block all the exits and rush in immediately."

Sun Renbing immediately ordered his men to guard all the exits, and as a large force moved out, those security guards looked alarmed.

Sun Renbing said majestically, "If you are bent on going your own way, you are guilty with the terrorists, do you think you can get away with it in this capital city?"

Qin Ming suddenly raised the corners of his mouth and said, "Sun Renbing, I am afraid that they are not proper security guards, they are from the Ten Thousand Snakes Association."

At these words, those security guards' faces changed greatly and they immediately pulled out their sticks and pointed them at Qin Ming.

"Who are you? Don't talk nonsense here."

Ka!

And behind Qin Ming, a group of uniformed ones, too, raised their guns and bellowed, "Drop your weapons."

When the group of security guards saw that the police had all pulled out their guns, they looked at each other with covetous faces, not knowing what to do anymore.

"What a disorder." Suddenly, at the back of the crowd, a svelte man in a suit stepped out and chided the security guards, saying, "People from the Sun family, you guys are really something, you actually found it."

As soon as they heard this, the people of the Sun Family were all overjoyed, and at the same time, they had even more admiration for Qin Ming.

Why was it that what they couldn't do with their status and position, as well as their connections, to death, Qin Ming did every time he stepped in? He was simply a god.

The svelte man looked at Qin Ming again and said, "It looks like you did the job. That's remarkable, I thought you wouldn't check here, how did you know we were hiding here."

Qin Ming said playfully, "The land lord told me."

The svelte man smiled faintly, "Hm hm hm, it doesn't matter if you don't say. Who is in charge of your Sun family now?"

The four Sun siblings looked at each other, they had fought over the right to speak a lot in the past, and this svelte man had deliberately thrown out this question, fearing that he wanted them to continue to make a fool of themselves and stall for time.

The four siblings suddenly said in unison, "Master, we'll listen to you!"

When Qin Ming heard this, he felt a sense of glory, a feeling that was so good that it made him float a little.

Qin Ming cleared his throat and said in an ethereal tone, "I was commissioned by the Sun family, and I am the sitting personal disciple of the real Zhang of Tiger Dragon Mountain, Qin ..... Zhao Zhengyan! Here I have the say."

The svelte man frowned slightly and said, "Well then, Mr. Zhao, my master has said that you are given two ways. First, we fight to the death and stubbornly resist, and Master Sun will definitely die. Second, only the Sun family relations and you will be allowed to enter, and everyone else will be guarded outside, what is your choice?"

The faces of the Sun family paled, wasn't this an outright trap? How could they possibly agree?

But unexpectedly, Qin Ming said atmospherically, "Fine, we choose the second one."
