Chapter 2147

The huge movement caused the entire cruise ship to shake.

Almost overturned!

The tourists on the cruise ship screamed.

“what’s the situation?”

The captain and crew panicked.

Although sailing on the sea, the sea is calm and there are no small waves.

How could there be such a big shaking?

“It seems that there is a problem with the cargo hold, and several colleagues have lost contact...”

“Go and see what’s going on?”

...

But dozens of people who went to inquire about the situation never came back, and there was no feedback.

The captain and others panicked.

“Quick! Seal the cargo compartment!!!”

The captain was experienced and knew that something was wrong with the cargo hold and wanted to seal the cargo hold immediately.

He led everyone to the cargo hold entrance.

At this time, a big smell of blood came.

It made everyone almost vomiting.

Just when the cabin was about to be sealed, something suddenly came out...

“what!!!”

The captain and the others screamed hysterically with fright.

They seemed to see something terrifying.

“Ahhh!!!”

Then they screamed constantly.

But this time the scream was not because of shock, but because of death...

Anyone who saw the contents of the coffin soon died.

The tourists are still trembling, they are waiting for the explanation given by the cruise ship.

What the hell was the shaking just now.

But in the end, he didn't wait for an explanation, and waited for his death.

Something terrifying appeared in front of them, and a cruise ship tourist was frightened and fleeing everywhere.

But the last one is not left.

All turned into corpses...

In the end, the cruise ship carried the corpse to the next location on a small island in Southern Continent...

The sun never sets, an international airport in the Empire.

In the aisles where baggage is checked.

A coffin appeared.

Everyone was surprised to find that they couldn't lift it at all, as if there were hundreds of tons.

I want to throw the coffin away, but I can't lift it.

But soon these staff members fell to the ground one by one, becoming mummified corpses.

No one knows what's going on...

The people who came to inquire about the situation soon died one after another.

...

It was a small piece at first, and then spread rapidly.

The more deaths, the more.

Finally, the metal coffin burst.

The scary creature inside came out...

He rushed into the airport, and countless people fell.

More deaths are spreading.

This place has become a purgatory on earth...

...

There was also a coffin placed in the center of the sun never set empire, which also burst open after a while.

The contents also ran out.

Just right in the center, there are many people.

Massacres continue...

death.

Death is everywhere.

The sun never sets the empire has no idea what happened.

Still checking what is going on...

I don't know what the Great Clown brought out.

It's horrible.

When the cruise ship docked at the port of the small island according to the pre-set route, someone was still greeted in advance.

They couldn't contact the cruise ship in the first place.

As soon as the cruise ship docked, they immediately checked the cruise ship.

But this check was shocked.

The full cruise ship is all corpses...

The corpse whose blood has been sucked dry.

too frightening!

But what they didn't know was that the nightmare had just come!

“Run! Run quickly!”

Someone is alert and wants to run one step earlier.

But in the next second, a terrifying breath came to his face.

“what!!!”

Then there was a sad scream.

Finally, the creatures in the coffin disembarked and landed on the island.

The result can be imagined.

There is no living mouth.

The whole island is reduced to hell.

Numerous casualties...

The method of death is tragic, and they are all the same.

All turned into corpses...

However, some survivors fled the cruise ship immediately.

What I don't know is that the horrible creatures have also followed...

On the other side, Morendam Golden Harbor Island.

The sky is gray.

This is dawn.

The goods sent by the empire that the sun never sets have arrived...

Chapter 2148

This shipment belongs to the gambling king's clan.

People from the family of gambling kings now receive goods at the port.

The cargo ships are all sealed, so there is no abnormality on the ships.

And because the goods are all ore and the like, the weight is very heavy.

So there is no doubt.

It's just heavier than the conventional one.

“Send it back!!!”

Under the command, the goods were transported back one by one.

For the time being, no clues were revealed.

Everything seems normal.

However, although the news of the disasters that happened in the empire of the sun never set, even though the news was blocked again and again, they gradually spread.

After Levi and Huoyun Cthulhu left Tiance Mansion, they wanted to go to the Bible organization to find Sarah.

This time even Huoyun Cthulhu shook his head.

Because I don't know where the Bible organization is.

"How can this be good?"

Huoyun Cthulhu bluntly said that the degree of mystery of the biblical organization may be no less than that of the Gods Lab.

"I have a way!"

Levi smiled.

The Fire Cloud Cthulhu immediately looked over.

"The Bible Organization has always wanted me to join them. If they release the news that I'm alive, they will definitely come here!"

Levi approached.

"Yes, we don't have to look for it ourselves, they will deliver it personally!"

Huoyun Cthulhu nodded.

What we need to do now is to let the Bible Organization know that Levi is still alive!

This matter was done by the Huoyun Cthulhu.

He wants to release news to the Bible organization through the dark web to let them know that Levi is still alive.

I have to say that the dark web is a magical existence.

So far, no one knows who is behind the dark web?

And the dark web knows everything...

Therefore, the evil god Huoyun can directly send news to the Bible organization, and no one else knows.

“Mr. done!”

“But I just got the news that an unknown creature has attacked the Empire in the sun never set, causing disaster! There are countless casualties! I don’t know what it is now...”

“It seems that there is news that something contained in an ancient coffin has appeared...”

...

If it was before, Levi might be curious about it.

But nothing is strange in the current era.

Especially the emergence of a group of ancient racial forces, there is no secret at all.

Levi didn’t care much either, and sighed: “I just hope it’s not because of the problems caused by the use of Taboo Art...”

However, he understands that it will be difficult and difficult to follow after using the contraindications.

This is why he hurried to find Sarah.

It’s best to send everyone related to him to Tiance Mansion.

This way he will have no worries.

“The ancient races know more about him! After all, I and them are not of the same age! I don’t know what will happen... But as long as the husband gives an order, I am willing to go through fire and water!”

Huo Yun Cthulhu expressed his attitude to Levi.

“it is good!”

“Now I’m waiting for the Bible Organization to come and find me! Where would it be better to go? How about Golden Harbor Island!”

Levi decided to wait for the Bible organization to come on Golden Harbor Island.

After all, Golden Harbor Island is a bit cleaner.

Inside Morendam, it may cause unnecessary trouble.

now.

Located in a processing factory of the King of Gambling Family.

This ore material was shipped.

Soon the workers opened the sealed package, revealing large wooden boxes.

“boom!”

A horrible and cold breath came to his face.

Everyone couldn’t help but shudder.

But everyone didn’t care.

Remove all the outer wooden boxes.

The other boxes are normal.

Suddenly someone shouted: “Quick! Look here!”

Because the wooden box fell off, the metal coffin was exposed.

Everyone was shocked to see the metal coffin.

The processing plant immediately notified the principal of the gambling king family...

After the metal coffin was exposed, it began to change...

Everyone still doesn't know what's going on, some people want to take it away...

The Protector Novel Levi Garrison Chapter 2149 – 2150

Chapter 2149

By the time the head of the gambling clan arrived here, the processing plant was already full of corpses.

But there is no trace of fighting...

These people had no blood and turned into corpses.

too frightening!

A coffin was placed in the field.

This surprised everyone.

“Stay away, there is a problem with the coffin! Immediately notify the gambler that they...”

These people reacted quickly.

But it's still slow.

They inhaled the gas leaking from the coffin.

Soon there was a corresponding change.

To the final death.

The processing plant is reduced to hell...

Fortunately, the processing plants of the gambling kings are all automated production, with very few people.

Otherwise, something big will definitely happen!

The gambling king and He Qingxue also came as soon as they received the news.

The monitoring in the processing plant was also called.

After seeing the strange death, everyone was dumbfounded.

coffin!

There is a problem with the coffin!

They suddenly thought of what happened in the empire that the sun never sets.

It seems to be because of the metal coffin!

Now the metal coffin has appeared on Golden Harbor Island...

“Grandpa, look!!!!”

He Qingxue suddenly exclaimed.

Because the metal coffin moved and shook sharply during the surveillance, the contents inside seemed to break free.

“boom!”

In an explosion, the coffin was torn apart.

The stuff inside came out!!!

“Buzzing...”

“Zizzi...”

But at this time, the sound of electric current burns out.

Snow flakes appeared on the monitoring screen, which was blurred.

“Snapped!”

In the end it turned black directly.

Can't see anything...

“No, the circuit in the processing plant is burned out! I don't know why...”

At this time, news came and everyone was shocked.

The circuit is broken?

“It must have something to do with the things in the coffin! It may have affected the magnetic field and current...”

“Is there any news from the Empire where the sun never sets? What the hell is it?”

The gambler was anxious.

“No, the sun never sets the empire blocked the news! Resolutely don't let you tell what it is...”

The gambling king sighed: “Immediately summon all the Lords of Golden Harbor Island, including Kyushu Xuanzun! Hurry up! This may be a disaster for Golden Harbor Island!”

“We want to stop!!!”

...

For a time, all the Lords of Golden Harbor Island gathered in the processing plant.

They are determined not to let anything happen to Golden Harbor Island!

No matter what is in the coffin, it is locked in the processing plant.

Don't let the contents cause disaster.

The gamblers are still very active.

All the people around the processing were evacuated for the first time...

Even within a radius of ten miles, no creatures can be seen.

Next, they will solve the contents.

The news of the appearance of the metal coffin also spread to Tiance Mansion Colin and the others for the first time.

The guardians stationed on Golden Harbor Island also rushed to help them.

Colin and Tiance Mansion attached great importance to this.

While blocking the news, directly dispatched Lords.

Tiance Mansion is now different from before.

Don't worry about issues such as exposure of cards.

Those who came were all direct disciples of the four great generals, extremely strong.

Golden Harbor Island became the site of the outbreak.

Levi and Huoyun Evil God are also coming to Golden Pot Island.

After receiving the news that Levi was still alive, the Bible organization once again sent the eighteen dark angels to Golden Harbor Island.

They are bound to take Levi back this time.

All of a sudden, the little Golden Harbor Island will have such a big wave.

the other side.

The clown emperor has returned to the laboratory of the gods.

The man in the suit smiled: "It's done well!"

"The three places have received feedback! The empire can't control it if the sun doesn't set!"

"Is there any news on Golden Harbor Island?"

The clown said.

"Just got the news that Morendam has blocked the Golden Harbor Island! It is estimated that something has happened! Next we only need to watch a good show...Hahaha..."

The man in a suit laughed.

Chapter 2150

“Aren’t so many ancient races showing up? I’ll let them all out to see!”

The man in a suit showed a sinister smile.

It seemed that everything was under his control.

The clown emperor smiled, and turned around: “By the way, what happened to Lucifer?”

“There is nothing that can’t be saved in his hands! Lucifer comes alive this time and will undergo a transformation!”

The man in the suit smiled.

The clown emperor sighed: “As expected of the scariest doctor! The design has participated in countless renovation projects!”

“Haha, Levi is dead! Still wanting to die together? How could it be possible!”

The man in the suit smiled: “Yes, they only saw the tip of the iceberg!”

The clown emperor also sighed: “I didn’t expect that you even knew their whereabouts!”

“I want to fight us! They don’t even know what we control...”

“No one can stop these four coffins! I am looking forward to what will happen on Golden Harbor Island now!”

...

Golden Harbor Island processing plant.

All the powerhouses of Golden Harbor Island gathered in the periphery.

People including Xuanzun Kyushu are here.

After all, it is about the survival of Golden Harbor Island.

According to the major event that happened in the empire before the sun never sets, that is the disaster of extinction.

Everyone hopes that Golden Harbor Island is safe and secure.

All the strong men who can be named are here.

In addition to the guardians arranged by the Bass Guard of Tiance Mansion, everyone felt that the power was enough.

The gambling king and Kyushu Xuanzun and other big guys began to command: "Some people stay outside! One person goes in together!"

"Everyone gather together! Don't be scattered! Everyone go in together!"

Under the leadership of Xuanzun Kyushu and other powerful people, hundreds of people entered together.

Thousands of people were left standing guard outside.

...

There was a problem with the circuit in the entire processing plant, and it was now dark and silent.

As soon as he entered, a pungent bloody smell came to his face.

Everyone was a little panicked.

I don't know why, this darkness gives everyone an inexplicable fear.

People always fear the unknown.

What's more, everyone knows that there is absolutely something terrifying in it.

It is impossible not to be afraid!

be quiet!

Quiet is a bit too much!

The magic Lords of Xuanzun Kyushu carefully felt the breath.

But I didn't notice anything...

There seems to be no living creatures in the entire processing plant...

“Keep going!”

The crowd continued to dig deeper and soon came to the inside of the processing plant.

It was very close to the place where the coffin was placed before.

Along the way, no one found anything.

It seems that there is no danger.

But the more so, the less everyone dare to take it lightly.

Everyone is extremely nervous, even the martial arts Lords are also sweating coldly.

The unknown great horror is too scary.

If it is general, it is easy to deal with.

Then the empire would have dealt with it if the sun did not set.

Why are all news blocked up to now...

“Everyone is more cautious, I feel like I’m around, maybe we’ve been targeted!”

Xuanzun Kyushu reminded.

His whole body is tense.

...

At this time, the people guarding outside the processing plant suddenly found out.

“Look at it!!!”

When everyone heard the sound, they looked in the air.

It’s almost bright tomorrow.

But it turned black.

I don’t know when it’s dark.

Everyone even saw the blood moon hanging in the sky, as if dripping blood.

This this this...

Everyone was taken aback by the abnormal scene in front of them.

Something is going to happen...

“Everyone is careful, something may happen!”

“Hurry up and remind the gambling king what happened here!”

...

At this time, Xuanzun Kyushu led everyone into the place where the coffin was placed not long ago.

“All cheer up!”

Xuanzun Kyushu reminded.

fear!

Everyone feels fear!

And the temperature here dropped suddenly, everyone couldn't help but shudder.

The Protector Novel Levi Garrison Chapter 2151 – 2152

Chapter 2151

“what!!!”

Just when everyone's nerves were strained to the extreme, a scream suddenly sounded.

“puff!”

Then blood splattered.

Many people were sprayed with hot blood.

At this moment, everyone was terrified.

Including Kyushu Xuanzun and his ilk.

“what!!!”

...

Before everyone reacted, screams rang out again.

Blood splattered.

“turn on!!!”

The gambling king shouted.

“Snapped!”

“Snapped!”

...

They hurriedly turned on the lighting equipment, and it was all lit up in the processing plant for a while.

Not letting go of every corner.

Everything can be seen clearly now!

I also saw clearly what came out of the coffin...

“boom!!!”

After seeing it clearly, everyone’s scalp was numb and their heads burst.

what is this?

The figure in front of him was tall and straight.

“Hohoho...”

A low and beastly roar.

Every breath has a pungent bloody smell...

Everyone finally saw the full picture of the terrifying creatures in the coffin!

Human body shape!

It's just that there are blood scars all over the body, especially the criss-cross scars on the face, plus the hair.

Looks terrifying like a beast!

Especially the corners of his mouth are full of blood, which is even more terrifying!

“Are you a human?”

Everyone was scared and sweating profusely.

Say no.

It's all human characteristics!

It can be said that it is, like wild beasts, it also sucks human blood.

What is this existence?

No matter what kind of creature it is, it presents the ultimate threat to everyone at this moment.

Even Xuanzun of Kyushu was also afraid.

The one in front of you seemed to be like a demon!

“What the hell is this???”

Everyone is very curious.

After carefully distinguishing, the gambling king couldn't help saying: “Isn't this the legendary Western blood clan? That very ancient race!”

“What? Western blood?????”

After everyone heard it, their faces changed drastically.

Ancient mysterious race.

Many people have only heard of legends and records, but haven't seen them.

What's in front of you? ? ?

It's too late for everyone to think.

The terrifying alien in front of him has already started killing.

In front of him, people kept falling, being torn apart, and blood being sucked dry.

His speed is too fast for everyone to react.

If he hadn't killed directly by sucking blood, I'm afraid the loss would have been even greater.

“Everyone win it with me!”

Kyushu Xuanzun was anxious.

Quickly shot.

Other Lords also followed Kyushu Xuanzun's efforts, and all kinds of attack methods came out!

"Boom boom boom..."

But soon everyone discovered that no matter how powerful the attack means, hitting this terrifying alien would not have any effect at all.

His body is unimaginably strong.

Xuanzun, as strong as Kyushu, couldn't hurt the terrifying alien at all, and even said that he wouldn't be able to move at all.

This...

Everyone was terrified by the terrifying aliens in front of them.

Is this physique too strong? ? ?

The gambling king became more sure of his identity.

This alien physique is unprecedentedly strong.

Kyushu Xuanzun's frantic attack completely angered the terrifying aliens.

"Roar!"

He let out a low growl.

Unmatched adsorption power burst out on his body.

"Shit!"

"puff!"

...

Many people's bodies directly cracked their mouths, and the blood was sucked away by the volley.

Soon one after another corpses fell to the ground.

The blood was sucked away directly.

Who has seen this method? ? ?

Everyone started to fright...

This is no ordinary person.

They are all martial artists, Lords of spells.

There is no power to fight back in front of the terrifying aliens.

Fall down one by one.

All turned into corpses.

Realizing that it's not good, it's too late.

It is basically impossible to evacuate.

"I'll stop him! You retreat!"

Kyushu Xuanzun was ready to fight to the death.

The others evacuated quickly.

Can't stop this terrifying alien...

Chapter 2152

"Come on, beast!"

Kyushu Xuanzun is desperately determined.

He wanted to die with the similarities in front of him!

“boom!”

“boom!”

...

Kyushu Xuanzun's all kinds of magic arts are all!

Punch out all your strongest tricks!

Swear to fight to the end with this alien...

A big battle continues...

Soon, blood stains were added to the glass of the processing plant.

Kyushu Xuanzun couldn't stop it at all.

He died in battle!

...

The gamblers have fled outside, but everyone's faces are pale and their nerves are tense.

What I saw today was enough to subvert their imagination.

The people outside immediately asked: “What's the matter? What's the matter?”

Everyone was shocked, just about to explain.

The apprentices of Xuanzun Kyushu made a sad voice.

“Lord!!!”

Kyushu Xuanzun died in battle!

Everyone was dumbfounded now.

At present, Kyushu Xuanzun of Golden Pot Island is still the top combat power.

He is dead.

How do other people play?

“This...”

The guardians were also panicked.

“The powerhouse of Tiance Mansion is already on the way here, but there is not enough time... Maybe they haven't arrived yet, Golden Harbor Island will become a hell!”

Everyone felt a sense of despair and powerlessness.

“So we still have to rely on ourselves!!!”

The gambling king immediately ordered: “Blow up here! Raze to the ground, I don't believe it!”

Before coming, the gambling king had someone set up a detonating device here.

Detonate now!

“Rumble...”

In the skyrocketing fire, the entire building collapsed and was razed to the ground.

A mushroom cloud rose up in the sky!

Amazing power!

All the Lords are also forced to retreat abruptly!

Not only that.

This destruction explosion even shakes the entire Golden Harbor Island.

There are earthquake-like effects everywhere.

This explosion is terrible!

This was purchased from the Blackwater Company by the gambling clan, which is the Lab of the Gods.

It's even to look at the cards of the house!

At the time of purchase, the Blackwater Company introduced the power of this kind of thing.

As long as the gambling king's dosage is enough, it will be instantaneous to blow up the Golden Pot Island.

The power is terrifying!

Specially for super-physical and super-hard materials.

To put it bluntly, powerful warriors and magic Lords are going to die.

Under this kind of power, nothing can be blown up.

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

Everyone's complexion has also eased a lot.

But the next second, something was flashing in the thick smoke.

Everyone's nerves tightened again.

Thousands of eyes stared at the dense fog!

I saw the dense fog gradually dispersed. A tall figure came out from inside.

He let out an angry roar, and a pair of blood-colored beast eyes stared at the Gambler and them.

It's okay!

He has nothing to do!

This degree of explosion did not hurt him at all.

What is his physique level?

Unheard of!

"This, this..."

Everyone was going to be scared to cry.

Isn't it horrible?

The Lords guarding the outside in front also saw clearly what this thing looked like.

shudder.

"boom!"

Before everyone reacted, the blood aliens disappeared, leaving a faint afterimage.

He was already in the crowd when he reappeared.

Start killing.

“puff!”

...

“Uh!!!”

Blood splattered and screams broke out.

This is exactly a killing machine.

All of a sudden, the crowd scattered, and the army was defeated.

What the fuck is this monster?

There is no way at all.

Hit him, let alone hurt, this thing doesn't even hurt.

...

Hundreds of people fell in an instant, tragically dying.

Many were directly sucked up blood.

“Retreat! We can't stop it!”

Someone wanted to evacuate immediately.

The gambling king immediately stopped them: “No, if we withdraw! This thing will definitely enter the center! At that time ordinary people will suffer! We must stop them!”

“Yes, we have to stop him!”
