

Chapter 2823

Meanwhile, in the Great Hall of the Underworld in the Ghost World!

The King of the Dead sat on the throne. His usually gloomy face seemed very relaxed then.

Several envoys and elite minions stood neatly in line on both sides beneath the throne. They looked calm, and the atmosphere in the entire hall seemed very relaxed.

The King of the Dead was waiting for some good news from Jack.

Half an hour ago, Jack sent someone to deliver the news that he had successfully captured all the people from the major sects of the Nine Mainland. King of the Dead was delighted to receive the report, If the people from the Nine Mainland's major sects were captured, the entire nine continents would be in chaos. The King of the Dead would be able to seize the opportunity to strengthen his foothold in the Nine Mainland!

The King of the Dead thought about it and smiled proudly.

Suddenly, a ghost soldier walked in quickly from outside the hall with a panicked expression and said to the King of the Dead, " Your Majesty, I have terrible news!"

The ghost soldier panted and sweated profusely.

" What's with the hysteria?" King of the Dead's face sank and rebuked coldly!

The next second, the King of the Dead said impatiently, " What the hell is "

The ghost soldier almost cried; he was in a panic. " I made a careless mistake, Your Majesty. I beg for your forgiveness!"

" What the hell is it? Say it now!" King of the Dead said coldly.

The ghost soldier wiped his cold sweat.

" Your Majesty, Chester had escaped the purgatory! I was too careless!"

' What?'

The King of the Dead's face changed abruptly; he frowned. " Chester escaped?"

' How dared Chester escape the purgatory when his life lay in my hands? Furthermore, I just told him to repent and did not punish him. Why did he run? '

" Your Majesty! "

Just as the King of the Dead pondered that, he saw Jack slowly enter the hall with Woody and the others.

What?

The King of the Dead's face darkened when he saw Jack enter without the Nine Mainland party." Jack, didn't you capture people from the major sects?

What are they? "

Jack looked confused. He stepped forward, paid his obeisance, and replied respectfully, " Your Majesty, didn't you ask me to let them go? "

Suddenly, Jack had a bad feeling when he saw King of the Dead's face.

" Oh, no ... Did that envoy lie to me?'

" When did I tell you to let go of them?"

The King of the Dead was furious, and he shouted,

" Tell me, what's going on ?!"

Thud!

Jack was drenched in a cold sweat when he felt King of the Dead's anger. He knelt and explained the entire situation. " Your Majesty, I've caught those people, but on the way back to the Soul Offering Road, I bumped into the envoy-"

Bang!

When he learned of the situation, the King of the Dead's eyes were blood-red as his anger erupted. " Chester! How dare you give a fake order! Send a Soul Chasing Order immediately to capture Chester, and make no mistake!"

" Yes, Your Majesty."

Terrified by the King of the Dead's anger, the other envoys quickly responded and then walked out of the hall quickly.

Meanwhile, in the New World Continent.

Yvette and the others had finally arrived in the New World Royal City, and Ambrose escorted them.

Yvette was overwhelmed with emotions when she entered the majestic palace. Her esteemed identity as the princess back then was a huge contrast to her miserable state!

Chapter 2824

At the same time, Dax and everyone else wore complicated looks on their faces.

Yvette remembered when the New World Emperor held a martial art marriage tournament for her. Darryl had concealed his identity and won first place in both tournaments, but he was caught when his identity was exposed. The Carter family immediately went to Darryl's rescue when they learned of the situation. Not long after that, Lord Kenny appeared and killed the New World Emperor to control the situation. Subsequently, Lord Kenny captured people from the Carter family and various sects.

The Carter family had many grievances with Lord Kenny, but they were back in the palace several years later. Ambrose had led them there to seek some treasures to help them. That proved that things were never impertinent. Ambrose led everyone into the palace and arrived at the Full Energy Hall. As soon as they stepped into the Full Energy Hall, they saw the civil and military officials standing neatly on both sides of the hall. All of them seemed grim, and the atmosphere was quite solemn.

A tall figure sat on the dragon throne in the hall; he was a man with an imposing aura dressed in a golden dragon robe. He looked majestic. It was Lord Kenny. Lord Kenny and the civil and military officials had their eyes focused on Yvette and the others.

' Why are they here?

" Father. " Ambrose moved forward slowly and greeted Lord Kenny. After Ambrose let go of his hatred against Darryl a few years ago, he wanted to stay with the Carter family. He chose to stay with his mother, Monica, who had been in the New World Palace.

Lord Kenny nodded, looked at Ambrose, and smiled. " My dear son, what's going on? "

Lord Kenny's gaze slowly swept toward Yvette.

Ambrose took a deep breath and said, " Father, Zhang Jue formed the Endless Sky Organization to bring harm to the Nine Mainland and persecute the Carter family. Zhang Jue poisoned them, and they no longer have their internal energy!

" I brought them here to ask for your favor to bestow some treasures that could help them regain their strength!" Lord Kenny's eyes flickered; he did not immediately respond to Ambrose's request.

The civil and military officials were in an uproar after they heard Ambrose's request!

The prince is ridiculous. The treasures in the palace belong to the royal family. How can they be given away? Furthermore, these people from the Carter family once offended His Majesty.

They also considered Yvette, the daughter of the previous New World Emperor, as a sinner from the previous dynasty.

" Oh ..."

Finally, Lord Kenny reacted and looked at Ambrose with a smile. " Since these people are here to ask me for those treasures, why do I feel like they are insincere in their request? Why should I give the treasures to them?"

Lord Kenny had a smile on his face, but his eyes looked cold and mean.

Ambrose lowered his head embarrassingly, and then he gave Yvette a wink.

F * ck!

Dax, Yvette, and the others were angry. Lord Kenny had been an emperor for a few years, and he had grown even more egoistic

Yvette, Dax, and the others looked at each other and chose to compromise when they saw the embarrassment on Ambrose's face.

" Greetings, Your Majesty!"

" Greetings, Your Majesty!"

The next second, Yvette spoke in unison. They bowed deeply toward Lord Kenny

It was the best way to show their respect

Whoa!

The civil and military officials began to criticize their actions.

" You are so bold. Do you only bow when you meet His Majesty?"

" They don't know how to kneel; they are not sincere at all ..."

" I don't think they are here to ask for treasures but to be disrespectful to His Majesty on purpose."

The angry cries made Ambrose anxious. He wanted to say nice things on behalf of Yvette and the others but could not get a chance to interrupt the other officials.

Chapter 2825

Lord Kenny chuckled
He stood up slowly and waved his hand. " Quiet!"
The civil and military officials shut their mouths quickly
The next second, Lord Kenny walked down the steps slowly and went straight toward Yvette.
Yvette held Lord Kenny's gaze calmly.
' Yvette! "

Lord Kenny said," I can give you the treasures, but I have one condition. You will kneel and address me as Your Majesty. Then, you can choose any treasures from the palace. "
Even though Lord Kenny had become the Emperor, he felt unfulfilled for not getting Yvette's recognition. He had always thought that he was not the New World continent's true ruler until he could get Yvette's acknowledgement

Even though Yvette was only a princess, she was quite influential in the New World continent.
Yvette was shocked, and she furrowed her brows.

' Lord Kenny is using such a despicable method to make me acknowledge his identity as the new Emperor! If I do that, would it mean that my father had died in vain?'

" Lord Kenny."
Yvette did not hesitate. She said coldly,
" You can continue to dream that I would admit that you are the New World continent's emperor!" She spoke in a cold and resolute tone!
Gasp!

The massive Full Energy Hall fell silent! All eyes were on Yvette!

' What did she say?'
How could she be so rude to His Majesty? '
Lord Kenny's face changed abruptly. How could he possibly face his hundreds of civil and military officials after Yvette insulted him in public? Suddenly, the atmosphere in the hall turned grim. The civil and military officials held their breath cautiously.

" That's right!"
Dax also stepped forward and shouted at Lord Kenny, " You usurped the throne shamelessly. You killed her father, and now you want her to admit that you are the Emperor. How ridiculous!"

Then, Dax looked around and said to Yvette, " Let's go. There's no need to ask for any treasure!"

The others also nodded in agreement. If Yvette had to let go of her dignity in exchange for the benefit of restoring her friends ' internal energy, they would rather not have internal energy for the rest of their lives.

' Oh, no !!

Ambrose was very anxious and whispered at Yvette, " Auntie, don't be impulsive!"

Yvette smiled faintly at Ambrose. " I know that you are kind, Ambrose. I am very grateful for what you have done.' Then, she was about to leave with Dax and the others.

Yvette regretted that she had agreed to go to the New World Palace. If she had known that things would end up in such a messy state, she would not have decided to do that.

However, before they walked out of the door, a group of soldiers rushed into the hall and surrounded them.

" Are you leaving?"

Lord Kenny laughed and said, " Yvette, you are a felon, and yet I decided to give you a chance, but you are so rude to me. Do you think you can just leave after what you did?"

Lord Kenny had a smile on his face, but his anger was seething

Since he ascended to the throne, everyone had been respectful to him.

Yvette, on the other hand, despised him, and he would not forgive her easily

" Father!"

Ambrose's expression changed drastically, and he pleaded with Lord Kenny. " Father, please do me this favor and let them go."

Ambrose was anxious. He thought that after so many years, the hostility between his father and aunt would have faded. To his astonishment, their meeting that day had turned so ugly.

" Retreat!" Lord Kenny scolded, " No one is allowed to intercede in today's affairs. Otherwise, they will be sent to prison with these people!"

Chapter 2826

That ...

Ambrose's body trembled as he heard that. He moved discreetly to the side. This is it; Father is furious

However, as he retreated, Ambrose could not help but glance at Yvette. Don't worry, Auntie, I will find a way to take all of you away. "

Ambrose knew that debating with Lord Kenny at the Full Energy Hall would be futile, so he did not argue with him for the time being. Anyway, as the prince, it would be an easy task if he wanted to release Yvette and the rest.

Wow!

The royal soldiers rushed forward in response to Lord Kenny's order. They imprisoned Yvette and the others after tying them up

Sigh!

Seeing that, all the ministers in the hall were fearful. The atmosphere in the hall was incredibly depressing.

Lord Kenny returned to the dragon seat; his face looked gloomy.

' I wanted Yvette to accept me as the Emperor. Then, my status as the Emperor will be official. But she is just so stubborn. Even though she has no more internal energy, she still dares to confront me.'

The entire Full Energy Hall was deafeningly quiet at that moment.

" Report!"

A eunuch rushed into the hall. He spoke in a respectful and slightly fearful tone, " There is news from the North Moana Continents, Your Majesty. We've just learned that the Raksasa Tribe had invaded the North Moana palace. They have apprehended all of the major sects that were present at the Supreme Conference!"

What?

The entire main hall was stunned in an instant.

Lord Kenny's facial expression changed abruptly, and he was astonished.

A few days ago, the New World's royal family had also been invited to the Supreme Convention, but Lord Kenny was extra cautious. He sensed that the event was not as simple as it appeared. Therefore he did not send anyone. His suspicions appeared to be correct. However, Lord Kenny did not expect the Raksasa Tribe would interfere so suddenly

" Your Majesty!"

At that moment, though, a figure strolled quietly into the hall with a solemn expression. It was Tobias Norland, the commander of the royal army!

" Your Majesty," he said. Tobias took a deep breath and moved toward Lord Kenny. He sweated profusely. " I recently learned that the Raksasa Queen has arrived in the New World with her troops. They are currently about ten kilometers from the Royal City!"

Tobias ' eyes gleamed as he said that, " The Raksasa Tribe's invasions must have some connection to the Supreme Conference. They have conquered all of the main sects and are now bringing their massive force here. It is apparent that they intend to eliminate the community's power before conquering the Nine Mainland!

Sh * t!

The ministers' were concerned when they heard that!

" Raksasa Tribe is truly wild and ambitious! "

" If we knew that this would happen, then we would not have had peace talks with them three years ago! "

" Yes, we should have wiped them out. Now, our kindness is causing us trouble ... "

The Ministers' comments continued unabated, and Lord Kenny's eyes shone with rage and dismay

" Hurry!"

In the next second, Lord Kenny jumped to his feet and said, " Hurry, mobilize the royal troops quickly!"

" Yes, Your Majesty!" Tobias replied quickly

Hundreds of thousands of royal soldiers immediately gathered a few minutes later. Lord Kenny led them in a formation outside the Royal City, where they waited

Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh ...

Soon, the sound of horse throttles could be heard from afar. Then, army troops rode in quickly. They were in uniformed black leather armors and bone sabers in their hands.

That was the Raksasa Tribe's grand army!

A woman with attractive features, a charming body figure, and blood-red armor led them. Her entire body exuded a strong and powerful aura, much like the Queen, and she appeared to be quite heroic.

It was Natalie!

Wow!

Chapter 2827

When she saw the Royal Army approaching, Natalie lifted her hand instinctively. At that moment, the Raksasa Tribe's grand army of ten thousand came to a halt.

Natalie's gaze was drawn to Lord Kenny the next second. Her charming face looked serene as she said softly, "That is the New World's emperor." Lord Kenny did not show any facial expression. "You there! From the Raksasa Tribe! Why are you in the New World?"

When he stated that, the Royal Army behind him pulled out their long blades and braced themselves for battle

Wow!

When Natalie saw that, she did not panic. She smiled gently and said, "You don't have to be nervous; we are only passing by your land. The North Moana Palace is holding the Supreme Conference. It is supposed to be one of the biggest events in hundreds and thousands of years. However, the conference was ruined by traitors from the Raksasa Tribe. We are heading there now to remove those traitors." Natalie looked very sincere when she said that.

That was right; the Raksasa Tribe's base camp was right on the border of the Nine Mainland. They had to travel through the New World to reach the North Moana Continent.

Traitors?

Lord Kenny furrowed his brows discreetly when he heard that. "You're saying that the party who captured people from the major sects were Raksasa Tribe traitors?"

"That is correct!" Natalie nodded. "Jack, the traitors' leader, was previously the mayor of Rock City. I had previously held high regard for him, but I had not anticipated that he would be so ambitious that he would lead his subordinates to betray the Raksasa Tribe."

"I heard that you are a man of great talent and strategy, Your Majesty. Now that you have gathered your troops, perhaps you'd like to head toward the North Moana continent with us and help us destroy these traitors and rescue their captives at the same time. "

That

Lord Kenny pondered the offer; he hesitated.

" Your Majesty!"

Tobias, who stood next to Lord Kenny, said, " Those people from the Raksasa Tribe are astute and vile. We must not believe in their words. They might be lying to us!"

Lord Kenny did not reply, but his eyes flashed faintly.

Moana was impatient and could not wait much longer. " If you are reluctant to help, Your Majesty, please kindly withdraw your army and let us pass!" she said again.

" Let you pass?"

Lord Kenny's expression was icy cold. " During the peace discussions, it was decided that the Raksasa Tribe would not be allowed to enter the Nine Mainland without permission. But here you are, leading your great army into the New World, talking about executing some of your tribe's traitors.

" Do you honestly think I am such an idiot that you can trick me so easily?"

Lord Kenny abruptly pulled his sword as she finished his last sentence. His gaze was locked onto the Raksasa Tribe's massive army as he replied coldly, " Heed my orders, Royal Army. Kill these intruders without mercy, spare no one, and protect the New World's dignity!"

Lord Kenny appeared virtuous and heroic when he roared, but his eyes glittered with evilness.

Lord Kenny had been forced to

Lord Kenny appeared virtuous and heroic when he roared, but his eyes glittered with evilness.

Lord Kenny had been forced to surrender during the years when Yang Jian attacked the New World. That incident was an eternal shame in Lord Kenny's heart, which had also affected him deeply

He realized that he needed to be stronger if he did not want to be controlled by others. Therefore, Lord Kenny had been looking for opportunities to conquer the Nine Mainland over the years.

Unfortunately, there had never been any suitable opportunity

At that moment, Lord Kenny knew that the opportunity had arrived.
Regardless of whether Natalie was telling the truth or otherwise, he had to seize that opportunity to destroy the Raksasa Tribe army and then continue to conquer the other continents.
Lord Jenny was well aware of the Raksasa Tribe's fighting prowess.
However, the Raksasa Tribe's vast army was only tens of thousands strong in front of him. On the other side, he was accompanied by a few hundred thousand members of the royal army. He had a greater number of people than his opponent, so there was no reason to panic.

" Kill!"

Upon hearing his instruction, the few hundred thousand soldiers behind Lord Kenny yelled so loudly that it stunned the sky and earth at that instant. Then, they charged toward Natalie,

" You,"

Natalie's body trembled when she saw that. She was shocked and furious.
Then, she turned around and shouted,

" Hurry, prepare to defend!"

Natalie was furious. She had hoped that by demonstrating her honesty,
she would be able to gain Lord Kenny's understanding and support. She had no idea that Lord Kenny was so ruthless that he would strike so quickly without giving her a chance to explain.
Natalie did not want to battle against people from the New World, but she could not stand by and see her warriors perish tragically.

" Kill!"

After she spoke, the tens of thousands of soldiers in the Raksasa Tribe's
grand army responded unanimously
of soldiers in the Raksasa Tribe's
grand army responded unanimously.
Their voices shook the skies as they surged ahead like a tidal wave!
The armies from both sides collided head-on and erupted into a furious fight in the blink of an eye!

" Argh!"

Suddenly, screams of killings and roars could be heard incessantly as blood splattered and turned the ground crimson.

Chapter 2828

" Natalie!"

At that moment, Lord Kenny's eyes were filled with delight as he roared, " You still can surrender now. Otherwise, the lives of all of your people will end here today! "

" The Raksasa Tribe did nothing wrong; why must we surrender? " Natalie bit her lips. She was not intimidated at all." You, on the other hand, gave orders to attack us without understanding the situation. From how I see it, you are instigating a war intentionally. "

She must have wanted to die! When Lord Kenny heard that, he did not want to waste any more time. He activated his internal energy and charged straight at Natalie, Bang!

Natalie did not panic when she saw Lord Kenny charged toward her. She lifted her body and greeted his attack; her palm hit against Lord Kenny's firmly! When the two fists collided, her palm hit against Lord Kenny's firmly! When the two fists collided, there was a loud bang. Powerful internal energy began to envelop and wipe out the entire area!

Lord Kenny and Natalie appeared dark and gloomy among the dust. At the same time, their figures retreated from the vibration.

It was clear that no one had an advantage in the fight.

Lord Kenny was shocked! Natalie, who stood in front of him, had only taken over the Raksasa Tribe three years earlier, and she was a woman. Her strength was mediocre when the Nine Mainland's army faced the Raksasa Tribe at the Chaotic Mountain Range Darryl had also managed to capture her alive very effortlessly.

It looked like Natalie's strength had grown dramatically over the last three years.

Natalie glared intently at Lord Kenny at the same time. She appeared calm, but her heart was racing.

" As expected, he is the New World's emperor, indeed. I should not underestimate his power.'

When Natalie witnessed the situation on the ground, she became quite concerned. She noticed that the opponent's army had surrounded her troops. It looked like they were at a disadvantage. If the fight continued, all of them would die in that fight.

Bang!

Natalie shrieked and charged toward Lord Kenny again; she was overcome by fear!

" You overestimated yourself!" Lord Kenny snorted coldly without fear. Both of them fought intensely in mid air again in the blink of an eye. Lord Kenny and Natalie were still fighting a few minutes later, neither could defeat the other.

Lord Kenny was a little concerned at the time. The New World enjoyed a significant advantage in that war, yet their adversary could hold out for so long. If such news spread, it would be a source of amusement for people all around the world.

' More importantly, how will we capture the Nine Mainland if we can't overcome the paltry tens of thousands of Raksasa Tribe soldiers?'

" You must die!"

Lord Kenny's eyes turned crimson as he yelled violently. He unleashed his whole force and punched Natalie!

Bang!

Lord Kenny utilized nearly all of his might in that punch. His palm's force twisted the air around it. The strength was terrifying. Not only that, but gold lights shone between his palms.

That was right; Lord Kenny used the New World royal family's secret technique, the Heaven Turning Palm. The New World family's secret technique was Heaven Turning Palm; only the Emperor could cultivate it.

When Lord Kenny ascended to the throne, he immediately began to cultivate the technique. His understanding of the technique had improved dramatically over the last few years

Bang!

The entire battlefield was enveloped in a brilliant golden glow the moment he used the Heaven Turning Palm. Lord Kenny's powerful aura was felt, and both parties' forces, which were fighting hard on the ground, were all taken aback.

" How powerful! "

" Be careful, Your Majesty! "

Many Raksasa Tribal warriors yelled at that moment!

Natalie's body trembled at the same time. Her fragile face glowed with anxiety and panic.

Even though she was the Raksasa Queen, Natalie had only assumed the throne for three years. She had been deeply involved in managing the relationship between the Raksasa tribe and nine continents. It had been challenging for her to focus on her cultivation. Besides, she had battled intensely with Lord Kenny for a long time, so she had consumed her internal energy substantially. She panicked when she faced Lord Kenny's secret technique.

Chapter 2829

Sigh!

Natalie was about to get punched when a nearby lovely figure soared in front of her to block the attack.

The lady was around 18 or 19 years old, and she was alluring and attractive, She was in a long purple dress, and she Scanned by TapScanner looked gentle and peaceful. Her entire body had an unexpected aura.

It was Clarice Zaine, who Natalie had awarded the title of Oracle.

Lord Kenny chuckled.

He was taken aback by Clarice's abrupt entrance. The corners of his mouth lifted; he looked cruel. ' When a small child steps forward to be the hero, she is asking for death!'

At the same time, Natalie was stunned.

" Clarice, don't-"

Even though Clarice had received the inheritance from their ancestor, Kuafu, she was still too young to completely comprehend the ancestor's energy. How could she ever compete with Lord Kenny?

However, Clarice was not worried at all. A smile appeared on her face as she signaled Natalie not to worry. Next, Clarice raised her hand to meet Lord Kenny's Heaven Turning Palm.

Bang!

A strong vibration was heard. In an instant, a hundred-meter radius was blanketed in dust and smoke.

Clarice was floating at the same spot among the dust and smoke. As for Lord Kenny, he moaned as his body was sent backward from the vibration. He bounced a hundred meters away before landing heavily on the ground.

What? How could that be possible?
When they saw that, the royal troops,
who had been tremendously excited earlier, were all horrified with their eyes wide open.

Lord Kenny's face was also dark and gloomy at the moment. He locked his gaze onto Clarice. He was enraged and stunned. He was confident that his ? Heaven Turning Palm, which he had performed earlier, did not harm that young lady.

On the contrary, he was the one who had bounced off.

How could that be?

Lord Kenny was unaware that Clarice, who stood in front of him, was not only young, but she also carried Kuafu's ancestry. Her strength surpassed his wildest dreams.

" Your Majesty!"

Tobias went over at that moment and asked, " How are you?"

Lord Kenny shook his head as he glared at Clarice. " Take her down!"

' Sh * t, I did not expect that there would be such a powerful woman in the Raksasa Tribe. However, this is the New World. As long as I can capture her, I will be able to control the whole situation.

" Yes, Your Majesty! " Tobias replied. He flew up immediately with a long blade tightly in hand as he charged toward Clarice!

Whoosh, whoosh, whoosh!

At the same moment, many Royal Army generals followed him to surround Natalie.

" You people of the Nine Mainland Natalie's eyes shone as she saw Tobias and the others fly toward her. Her delicate face was crimson with rage."
The Raksasa Tribe had no intention of offending you, but you are intentionally slandering us. Don't even think about hurting anyone from the Raksasa Tribe while I am still alive! "
Clarice did not accompany the troops on their journey because she had inherited the ancestors' inheritance.
Natalie had made arrangements for her to remain at the camp's headquarters. However, the young woman was astute. She knew that the Supreme Conference was not like any other, so she followed them on her own.

When she arrived in the New World, she noticed that both sides were engaged in a fierce battle. Clarice immediately rushed forward without hesitation

Bang!

Clarice's body erupted with a powerful aura as she spoke coldly. The air around them felt as though it had frozen at that instant.

They all drew frigid breaths discreetly when they felt the aura, whether it was Tobias or the other Royal Army generals.

That lady is so young, but she has such a terrifying power? !!
