

Nothing to Give but My Heart Chapter 217-222

Chapter 217

As soon as the voice fell, the smile on Jessica's lips froze. She looked at Ana awkwardly, "So... you mean you didn't come to me to reconcile? Then my gift..."

"I don't know, if I don't come, maybe... I really don't know you did this, sorry..."

Jessica stood blankly, her eyes flushed suddenly, she wiped hard, and then smiled self-deprecatingly: "Am I particularly stupid? In your eyes, I'm just the kind of talking about others. Bad people, right? At first I treated you badly and my attitude was very arrogant, but then I found out that I had misunderstood you, so I wanted to be good friend of you to make up for you, but now...all this is me. Is it right?"

"No." Ana Shen shook her head and denied: "You are very good to me, that matter...I am too small, let's make up."

Jessica looked at her grievously, without speaking.

Ana Shen held back the tears in her eyes: "Are you willing?"

Jessica hadn't spoken for a long time, and Ana could only lower her eyes: "Well, if you don't want to, then I..."

"Ana, what do you mean? This matter has always been my grievances. You said you want to reconcile with me, but you didn't coax me? Just say this and you will leave without agreeing. Do you really want to reconcile with me?"

Ana paused and looked back at her.

Jessica pursed her lips, her eyes were as red as a rabbit. "You want to buy me lunch."

Ana nodded: "Okay, okay."

"You have to go shopping with me after get off work to make up for your mistakes these days."

"it is good."

After Ana promised her several things in succession, Jessica finally broke into a smile.

Ana was also helpless. Jessica is a girl with a simple mind, and asks her as if a child asks an adult. Ana Shen thought, anyway, she is also a child's character, and there is not so much maliciousness. What will she want to say in the future... ..She just listened and missed it.

After the two were reconciled, the company's cafeteria could see them both entering and leaving together. Jessica did not change her life. After a few hours of reconciliation with Ana, she couldn't help but gossiping and began to inquire. Started about her and Walter.

"How are you and Mr. Walter? The appearance of that woman has no effect on the relationship between you, right?"

Ana Shen scooped the soup in the bowl, thought for a while, suddenly raised her head and asked her: "Are you really interested in the things between us?"

Jessica nodded vigorously, "Does that still need to be said? I should be concerned about the life-long events of my friend."

“Well, let me tell you now, there is no relationship between me and Mr. Walter at all, do you believe it?”

Jessica stared at her blankly for a long while, before blinking her big watery eyes: “Then what are you doing in marriage? He is disabled. I thought you liked him very much, so... you married him. “

Hearing the word disabled, Ana frowned without a trace and corrected her: “Don’t say the word disabled casually.”

Jessica was taken aback for a moment, and finally curled her lips: “Isn’t it unfeeling? Why are you protecting him?” Having said that, Jessica glanced at her: “Could it be that he doesn’t like you, you like him?”

Ana could only remain silent when it was said that it was the central issue.

She didn’t defend herself, nor did she say anything else. She just looked at her calmly. Jessica understood instantly, but at the same time she felt better: “Don’t you? You really like Mr. Walter? But he doesn’t like you. ?”

“Be quiet.” Ana reminded.

Only then did Jessica react, nodded and lowered her voice.

“Then... he doesn’t like you, what should you do? If he doesn’t like you, it wouldn’t be more dangerous, damn it, then Karla Han...”

“Don’t worry about this matter. No one can control emotional matters, and the relationship between us is also very complicated. In short, you don’t care about these things in the future.”

Jessica curled her lips, “Well then, it’s up to you.”

When she got off work, Ana wanted to pack her things and go directly to Jessica, because she had promised to go shopping with her, so she completely forgot about Walter's confession of going home with her.

When she and Jessica walked to the bus stop together, a familiar car stopped in front of them.

The car window lowered, revealing Walter's handsome but cold eyebrows.

Seeing Walter, Jessica stared at Walter who appeared in front of her in shock.

Ever since she became friend with Ana, a lot of illusory things have happened around her. The last time she met the night veteran in the mall, the night veteran actually took her home in person, and then attended the anniversary event last time, she watched Walter with her own eyes. She took Ana Shen away and saw Walter appear in front of her again this time.

"Didn't you let you wait for me after get off work?" Walter's voice was cold and could not hear any temperature.

When Ana was asked this way, she remembered the words he had said to her in the office in an instant, and her pink lips opened, "I...forgot."

After the words fell, the aura on Walter's body became gloomy and cold:
"Forgot?"

Cold air rushed towards her face, Ana shrank her neck subconsciously, while Jessica hid behind her in fright, secretly looking at Walter.

Once people had a contrast, Ana Shen realized that she was calm and calm in front of Walter.

At least, she was not like Jessica.

Thinking of this, Ana Shen took a deep breath: “I promised to go shopping with Jessica, or... you go back today?”

Walter did not speak, but just stared at her coldly.

Jessica, who was hiding behind her, asked in a low voice, “Why don’t you go back today? Shall we make an appointment another day?”

Ana frowned her eyebrows, but she had promised to look good, and now...

I don’t want Walter to suddenly ask: “Where to go?”

“What?”

“Get in the car and see you there.”

Ana: “...”

Jessica’s eyes widened in surprise: “Send, let us go shopping?” Jessica grabbed Ana’s hem, “Is this true?”

Ana thought that she had misunderstood, but Jessica did not expect Jessica to be the same as she thought, and the corners of her mouth twitched: “It shouldn’t be...”

Phillip got out of the car and opened the door for them: “Young grandma, get in the car.”

Ana Shen was still standing there in a daze, Jessica had already pushed her up, and then smiled and said, “Thank you Mr. Walter!”

After speaking, she walked directly around the body to the other side, sat in the front passenger seat, and got in.

Upon seeing this, Phillip secretly gave Jessica a thumbs up!

This kind of sister paper has positive energy. The space behind the special place is reserved for Walter and Ana, which is almost a hundred times stronger than that of Karla Han.

“Where are you going?”

“Just...” Jessica told Phillip a position.

Sitting at the back, Ana listened to the conversation between the two in front and gave Walter a little embarrassed.

“Do you... want to go with us?”

Chapter 218

“There is a problem?” Walter glanced at her.

Where does Ana dare to say that there is a problem? She was just strange. Walter actually wanted to go with them. She thought that because of his personality, he would forcibly say, let her make an appointment with Jessica another day, and then let her get in the car.

Unexpectedly... Anyway, it was really unexpected.

Jessica originally wanted to say that she sat in the front and left the space behind for the two of them. Who knows that until the destination, the two of them never said anything after the first sentence? During this time, Jessica secretly looked back. , Found that Walter had no expression on his face, and his eyes were as cold as ice, and Ana, who was sitting not far from him, also had no extra expression.

If it hadn't been known that they were husband and wife, Jessica would have thought that they were strangers.

It's really embarrassing.

It seems that it is true that Ana said that there is no feeling between them, but...

Out of the corner of Jessica's eyes, she looked at Ana more. According to Ana, she was in unrequited love. It is hard to like ice like this.

Suddenly, Jessica felt sorry for Ana Shen.

The atmosphere in the car became extremely embarrassing and silent. So when they arrived at the destination, Jessica saw that it was almost done, so she hurriedly said, "Just stop in front, let's get in from there."

Phillip listened to her command to stop at the designated intersection, Jessica smiled and said thank you, then unlocked the seat belt and opened the car door, and then waited by the side obediently.

When Ana saw her getting off the car, when he was about to get up, she heard Walter say: "Push me."

Ana: "???"

Walter glanced at her: "I will go with you."

Ana Shen was surprised by this, "You want to go shopping with us?"

"...Didn't I just say it?" Walter said dissatisfiedly.

"Okay." Ana resignedly pushed forward and pushed his wheelchair.

When Jessica saw Ana pushing Walter to get out of the car, she secretly squeezed her eyes at Ana Shen with an expression that was already clear.

Phillip lowered the car window: "Young night, I'll find a place to park, and I will come back to you later."

"Yeah." Walter answered indifferently.

Phillip went to the parking lot, Jessica walked to Ana's side and said courageously: "Sao Ye, when a woman goes shopping, it might be a little boring, are you sure you want to go with us?"

"Uninteresting?" Out of the corner of Walter's eyes, he glanced at her, and suddenly thought of something, "Are you the one at the anniversary event last time?"

Hearing, Jessica's face suddenly appeared in surprise, with a dogleg look: "Mr. Walter, do you remember me? But don't thank me specifically, the last thing was just a handy effort. By the way, Mr. Walter, I am finance Jessica, the head of the finance department is my father."

Ana on the side was stunned.

Walter sneered in his heart, what's the matter with this woman's eyes? Karla Han didn't say that this time the woman was so self-conscious. When did he say to thank her?

Thinking of this, Walter sneered: "It's not that you don't need to thank me specifically, then what's the matter with you reporting your family?"

Jessica was a little embarrassed at once, and Ana was embarrassed to hear these words. When he just wanted to open up for Jessica, Walter said: "I will give you a raise next month."

Jessica almost jumped up with excitement when she heard this, but because of the crowds here, she finally held back, “Thank Mr. Walter! Mr. Walter is the best! I am Jessica from the Ministry of Finance. Don’t remember Mr. Walter. Wrong!”

Ana Shen: “...Didn’t you say...you don’t have to thank you specifically?”

Hearing, Jessica bit her lip: “You don’t have to thank you specifically, but Mr. Walter is the president of Ye’s. If he raises my salary, it’s just a matter of effort. It’s not meant to be, right?”

She looked flattering doglegs.

Ana Shen was dumbfounded, with an expression of irritation.

It was totally unexpected that Jessica still had such a dogged side, why didn’t he see it last time?

Walter was too lazy to pay attention to her at first, but when she looked sideways, she just saw the expression on Ana Shen’s face, and suddenly found it quite interesting. The ink-colored eyes showed a pleasant color, followed by her thin lips. Correct.”

Ana Shen was speechless for a while, pushing Walter and Jessica into the mall.

Phillip, who was going to park, followed far and fast.

“Assistant Xiao is here, I’ll go see him.”

After talking, Jessica ran to stand with Phillip, leaving the space for Ana and Walter.

In fact, it was Jessica going shopping today. She was only accompanying her. Now Jessica and the others are walking behind. Ana didn't know where to go for a while, so she could only push Walter aimlessly, and asked by the way: "Do you have a place you want to go?"

"Huh?" Walter raised his eyebrows: "Don't you want to go shopping?"

Ana Shen explained: "It's Jessica who wants to go shopping, I..."

"You are also a woman, so buy whatever you like."

Ana: "..."

"Since I'm here, I can buy anything for you."

Ana Shen felt bitter in her heart, but still calmly said: "No, I don't need."

She really didn't need anything. Walter had already prepared a lot of clothes and jewelry for her, and she really didn't know what to buy when shopping.

Walter squinted his eyes in surprise, "Is it unnecessary, or you don't dare to spend money with me, afraid that I will despise you for vain?"

Hearing, Ana Shen smiled faintly: "Don't you always look at me like this?"

The question made Walter choke. After a while, he asked in a harsh tone: "Will my mind not change? Or is your image of me set?"

"Should I ask you this question?"

The two were arguing, and Jessica behind suddenly shouted: "Ana, Young Master Ye, come here."

Ana Shen looked back subconsciously, and saw Jessica entering a jewelry store, Ana had to push Walter over, and then followed her into the store.

Jessica was a little afraid of Walter at first, but after Walter paid her a salary, she suddenly felt that Walter's deep and cold eyebrows looked particularly amiable, and she was a very familiar person. , she quickly adapted to the current situation, and since she entered, she has been pulling Ana Shen over to help her watch.

It was inconvenient for Ana Shen to push Walter, but Jessica kept shouting and couldn't help but step forward.

"Does this pair of ear studs look good?"

Ana Shen followed her fingers and looked over, a pair of pink diamond stud earrings flashed round and lovely under the light, which made people love it from the heart. Ana Shen, who was originally unwilling to shop, also saw these stuChapter 219

"Me?" Ana was frightened: "Isn't this what you like?"

"I'll see it for you." Jessica kept motioning to her to pick up the pair of ear studs, and the shopping guide at the back also kept staring here with curious eyes.

Everyone's eyes gathered here, and Ana's face was a little pale, and she evaded: "No, I don't wear these."

“Oh, if you don’t like it, then you will try it for me? The ear studs I wear today are a bit difficult to pick up, so you can try it for me.”

Ana: “...”

“Try it.”

Walter, who was sitting in a wheelchair, heard the conversation between the two and subconsciously raised his head and glanced at Ana.

Today, she is wearing a simple white shirt, and the waist-length blue silk is simply tied with a ponytail behind her head. She looks particularly capable and refreshing, while her white cheeks are surrounded by round and small earlobes.

He... seems to have tasted the taste of the earlobe, sweet, and... So soft.

For so long, I have never seen her wear extra jewelry. She has never moved the ones he asked the servants to prepare, and she has always been pure.

Walter glanced at the pair of earrings, they were small and round, exactly like her earlobes, if...worn on her ears...

Thinking of something, Walter's eyes darkened a bit, and his voice became a bit hoarse when he spoke: "Try it."

He also wanted to see what she looked like with those earrings.

Jessica had been deliberately tentative, but when she heard Walter's words, she felt like she hadn't run away, and immediately took Ana's hand: "You see Mr. Walter has spoken, so you can try."

Ana Shen was forced to accept the earrings: "Then...well."

She carefully put the ear studs in her palms, and then stood in front of the mirror to try them on.

As soon as the small and round diamond beads reached her ears, they immediately matched her white and moist skin, and even Ana Shen's white ears became a little pink and tender.

"It's so beautiful!" Jessica exclaimed, then pressed Ana's shoulder to face Walter: "Look at Mr. Walter, is Ana especially suitable for this pair of earrings?"

Walter glanced at her, watching the pair of pink earrings merge with her earlobe, his throat hummed tightly.

"Buy it!" Jessica suggested.

The shopping guide who has been guarding by the side was overjoyed when he heard the words, “Yes, miss, this earring is our latest new style, the style is unique, there is only one pair, if you like it, you can buy it now.”

Ana Shen glanced at Walter nervously, and saw his figure from the bottom of his ink eyes. She suddenly thought of something and turned to look at the guide buyer.

“That one...”

“Hello, miss, the price of this earring is now because of the event, so the price is very beautiful.”

She used the computer to calculate, then typed a number on it to show Ana.

When Ana Shen looked at the number, her face changed immediately.

A lot of money...

She couldn't afford it.

Jessica nodded happily: "Sure enough, the price is very beautiful, so let's pack it."

"Don't..." Ana Shen hurriedly stopped her, whispering: "You are crazy, I don't have so much money."

Jessica smiled and turned to look at Walter, "Isn't there Mr. Walter there? You don't need to pay."

After speaking, she leaned into Ana's ear and said something quietly. After hearing this, Ana's unsightly expression turned pale after hearing this, and she shook her head and refused.

"Don't wrap it up, I don't need it for the time being." After she said, she reached out to pick the studs on her ears.

Seeing her movement, Walter subconsciously stopped her: "Wear it, I bought it."

Ana Shen's movements stopped for a while, and after a while she accelerated, then took off the earrings and put them on the counter: "I'm sorry, I'm really sorry, but I personally don't like this earrings, you Put it back."

Jessica: "Ana?"

Walter frowned. What is this woman doing? That pair of ear studs is very suitable for her ears.

The shopping guide still looked surprised after he took the earrings, "Miss, this pair of earrings is very beautiful on your ears, and do you really stop thinking about it?"

"Thank you, no need." After Ana thanked her, she pulled Jessica away from the store, and suddenly thought of something halfway, she went back and pushed Walter out.

The reason why she didn't want to accept that pair of earrings was actually very simple. She couldn't afford it, and she didn't want others to buy it for her, and she didn't want the person who bought it for her to be Walter.

The identities of the two were already extremely unequal, and she didn't want to lower him in the remaining time.

After leaving the jewelry store, Jessica was still depressed why she didn't want it, but when she saw that her complexion was not good, she didn't ask much. She was also a person who could see her complexion, and she could see that Ana Shen's complexion was wrong. Then she didn't talk about going shopping anymore, but suggested eating.

When eating, Ana Shen didn't respond, but... she looked at Walter: "Can you?"

Walter was still thinking about the pair of round and jade earrings. Hearing her questioning herself, he raised his eyes and glanced at her. His eyes fell on her small and white earlobes, and then his eyes darkened a bit, and he said dumbly: "can."

"Well, there is a delicious Mala Tang near here. It is delicious and not expensive. Will you get used to it if you stay overnight?"

Ana's face changed, spicy? This is too commonplace, right? Will the noble son Walter accept this kind of food?

"Why don't I think it is for today, another day..."

"I'm used to eating, you can go." Walter interrupted her again, and Jessica's eyes widened in surprise: "Is it okay? Mr. Walter?"

Walter suddenly clasped Ana's wrist: "Do you want to eat?"

Ana Shen, who was suddenly named: "???"

Jessica watched this scene, suddenly felt that the atmosphere between the two was quite ambiguous, Mr. Walter was asking about Ana's situation?

"No, no problem." Ana Shen replied dryly.

After the decision was made, Jessica personally took the people to the nearby store. After entering, Ana Shen found that the decoration of the store was good, and there was no peculiar smell after entering, and everything was cleaned very cleanly.

After looking for a place to sit down, she took a piece of paper and wiped the table top. After a glance, she found that there was no grease stain on it.

It seems that Walter will not be so uncomfortable for the sanitation.

Thinking of this, Ana glanced at Walter, and just hit the bottom of Walter's eyes, his eyes staring at her scorching.

As if being guilty of conscience, Ana looked at him for two seconds before quickly looking away.

In fact, Mala Tang is Ana's favorite. She liked it before she became pregnant. She has been greedy after pregnancy, but she never touched it again after marrying Yejia. She didn't expect to have a chance to eat again today. After a meal, and still eating with Walter, the world suddenly became mysterious.

“That... do you want to add chili?”

Chapter 220

Walter looked at the red thing, the ink-colored eyes seemed to be dyed red, before he could react, Jessica had already added all the peppers, and then smiled and said: “Spicy, that’s it. It should be hot and spicy~ how else would it be cool?”

After finishing speaking, she still showed white teeth to Ana, a very simple and innocent look, which made it impossible to criticize her.

Ana glanced at Walter secretly, seeing that there was no other expression on his handsome face, and then quietly let out a sigh of relief.

However, in this situation, after Walter ate a piece of lamb that was flushed with hot pepper water, the color completely changed, and the action of holding the chopsticks remained motionless, the original expressionless handsome face seemed to be holding back. What the same.

Jessica exhales so hot, but eats with relish.

Ana didn't dare to eat at first, quietly observing Walter's complexion, and seeing that his complexion had all changed, only then did he notice something: "Can't you eat spicy food?"

Walter's brows frowned a little, and he didn't answer her words, but his face was obviously very ugly.

Thinking of something, Ana got up tightly and asked the clerk for a glass of ice water to return to Walter.

"If you can't eat it, spit it out quickly and take a sip of ice water."

Walter's cultivation is very good. He has never vomited in the public. At this moment, Ana asked him to vomit, but he frowned.

"Spit it out quickly." Ana actually stretched her hand directly to his lips. Walter's expression was a little loose. In the end, Phillip took a tissue and handed it to him. Walter spit out the thing, and then pressed it. Next glass of ice water.

But his handsome face flushed at the same time, and the little Yan on the side was still eating with gusto. What happened made her dare not continue, and looked at them panic.

“Sorry Mr. Walter, if I know you can’t eat spicy, I will definitely not put chili.”

Seeing his unsightly face, Ana had to pick up something: “Jessica, don’t be nervous, you should stay here to eat first, I will take him home first, and come back to you later.”

Jessica could only nod her head desperately, and then waved at her: “It’s no longer necessary to come back, you can go quickly, I will call my dad to pick me up later.”

“Well then, be careful of yourself.”

After Ana finished speaking, she directly pushed Walter out, and finally got him in the car, and Ana directly told Phillip to go to the hospital.

Phillip was stunned for a moment, but it was so spicy, do I need to go to the hospital?

But seeing Walter's face so bad, Phillip didn't dare to have any other questions, nodded and prepared to drive.

"Go back to Yejia." Walter suddenly said with a dumb voice, and Ana looked at him: "Don't you go to the hospital?"

"Am I sick?" Walter asked her back, and Ana suddenly had nothing to say, well, she was too nervous.

Walter's complexion was very bad along the way, the mouth and tongue were hot, and this kind of burning sensation was uncomfortable. Looking at Ana, she sat next to her with a look of confusion.

After returning to Ye's house, Ana pushed Walter into the door. He happened to meet Curtis Ye who came out. Three eyes were facing each other in the air. Ana Shen remembered what Curtis Ye had said to her in the group. Quickly lowered her eyes to avoid his sight.

Walter was unhappy, and didn't even give him an extra look.

The three directly passed by.

Finally, Curtis turned his head, looked at Ana's petite figure, and clenched his fists unwillingly.

Since the hot pot incident, Jessica has been concerned about how Walter is going every day, whether she will be punished, or whether her salary has not been increased, after all, she added the chili pepper. It's not so much. For those who love spicy food, it is such a refreshing taste experience, but for people who can't eat spicy food, that piece of lamb that has been flushed with chili water is a meat-taking series!

So Jessica was deeply afraid that her salary increase would fly like this.

"Do you dare to mention it?" Ana poked her forehead, "Don't think about a raise. He didn't talk to me for a long time since he went back that day. I don't know if it was... we lose face in front of him."

Ana guessed this, because Walter was all right that day, but his face was black for the next few days, as if Ana owed him a lot of money.

“That said, a big man lost his face in front of us, and he certainly won’t be able to wipe it away. Then I should take a detour when I see Walter these days. By the way...Why don’t I see that Karla Han after I reconcile with you? Came to see you?”

When she mentioned this matter, the smile on Ana’s face faded a bit. It is strange to say that since she argued with Karla Han that day, Karla Han stopped coming to her for a long time. Maybe she was angry, but Ana didn’t want to pull her face down. Coax her.

Because she had never thought of telling Curtis Ye the truth.

But Karla Han had been unilaterally trying to match her up with Curtis Ye. It’s okay to not be in contact for the time being, and both sides should calm down for a while, and then see how to deal with this matter.

It’s just that Ana didn’t expect that Karla Han’s movements would be so fast.

Coming soon, she was helpless.

Time flies, Ana originally wanted to contact Karla Han this weekend, but she didn't expect that she would call her first, saying that she had bought fruit supplements, and she wanted to visit Yejia as a guest.

Hearing that she was coming to Yejia, Ana was a little worried: "Should we go out and talk?"

"What are you thinking? The fruit tonic is for Grandpa Ye. I have another preparation for your gift. Ana, don't you still blame me? I take the initiative to confess my mistake and apologize."

"All right, when will you come?"

"I'll be over in half an hour."

Half an hour? Ana glanced at the time, then got up: "Okay, then I will prepare."

After that, she hung up her mobile phone, got up, changed her clothes and was about to go downstairs, but Walter's eyes were staring straight at her with bad eyes.

It has been several days since the Mala Tang incident. Ana is still thinking when she sees this look, is he still angry?

So she had to walk around him, who knew that after two steps, she heard him coldly questioning: "Did you move the clothes in my cabinet?"

Hearing, Ana stopped for a while and looked back at him with some doubts.

"What?"

Walter's eyes were as sharp as a knife: "Did you move my clothes?"

Ana: "...What do I do with your clothes?"

Although they are using the same cabinet, there are differences between them. In his area, Ana never took a second look. How could he move?

Seeing her innocent look, Walter was a little annoyed: “Are you sure you haven’t moved?”

“Walter, is it possible that you lost something and thought I stole yours? What valuable things are in your closet? I live under the same roof as you. Even if I want to steal something, I steal valuable things, right? What am I doing in moving your closet?” d earrings. Looked a few more times, then smiled and nodded: “It looks good.”

The pink is very small and the naughty style is very contrasting.

“Then you put it on and try it.” Who knows Jessica actually asked the waiter to take out the pair of ear studs, and then brought them in front of her?

Chapter 219

“Me?” Ana was frightened: “Isn’t this what you like?”

“I’ll see it for you.” Jessica kept motioning to her to pick up the pair of ear studs, and the shopping guide at the back also kept staring here with curious eyes.

The identities of the two were already extremely unequal, and she didn't want to lower him in the remaining time.

After leaving the jewelry store, Jessica was still depressed why she didn't want it, but when she saw that her complexion was not good, she didn't ask much. She was also a person who could see her complexion, and she could see that Ana Shen's complexion was wrong. Then she didn't talk about going shopping anymore, but suggested eating.

When eating, Ana Shen didn't respond, but... she looked at Walter: "Can you?"

Walter was still thinking about the pair of round and jade earrings. Hearing her questioning herself, he raised his eyes and glanced at her. His eyes fell on her small and white earlobes, and then his eyes darkened a bit, and he said dumbly: "can."

"Well, there is a delicious Mala Tang near here. It is delicious and not expensive. Will you get used to it if you stay overnight?"

Ana's face changed, spicy? This is too commonplace, right? Will the noble son Walter accept this kind of food?

"Why don't I think it is for today, another day..."

"I'm used to eating, you can go." Walter interrupted her again, and Jessica's eyes widened in surprise: "Is it okay? Mr. Walter?"

Walter suddenly clasped Ana's wrist: "Do you want to eat?"

Ana Shen, who was suddenly named: “???”

Jessica watched this scene, suddenly felt that the atmosphere between the two was quite ambiguous, Mr. Walter was asking about Ana’s situation?

“No, no problem.” Ana Shen replied dryly.

After the decision was made, Jessica personally took the people to the nearby store. After entering, Ana Shen found that the decoration of the store was good, and there was no peculiar smell after entering, and everything was cleaned very cleanly.

After looking for a place to sit down, she took a piece of paper and wiped the table top. After a glance, she found that there was no grease stain on it.

It seems that Walter will not be so uncomfortable for the sanitation.

Thinking of this, Ana glanced at Walter, and just hit the bottom of Walter’s eyes, his eyes staring at her scorching.

As if being guilty of conscience, Ana looked at him for two seconds before quickly looking away.

In fact, Mala Tang is Ana’s favorite. She liked it before she became pregnant. She has been greedy after pregnancy, but she never touched it again after marrying Yejia. She didn’t expect to have a chance to eat again today. After a meal, and still eating with Walter, the world suddenly became mysterious.

Chapter 220

Walter looked at the red thing, the ink-colored eyes seemed to be dyed red, before he could react, Jessica had already added all the peppers, and then smiled and said: “Spicy, that’s it. It should be hot and spicy~ how else would it be cool?”

After finishing speaking, she still showed white teeth to Ana, a very simple and innocent look, which made it impossible to criticize her.

Ana glanced at Walter secretly, seeing that there was no other expression on his handsome face, and then quietly let out a sigh of relief.

However, in this situation, after Walter ate a piece of lamb that was flushed with hot pepper water, the color completely changed, and the action of holding the chopsticks remained motionless, the original expressionless handsome face seemed to be holding back. What the same.

Jessica exhales so hot, but eats with relish.

Ana didn’t dare to eat at first, quietly observing Walter’s complexion, and seeing that his complexion had all changed, only then did he notice something: “Can’t you eat spicy food?”

Walter’s brows frowned a little, and he didn’t answer her words, but his face was obviously very ugly.

Thinking of something, Ana got up tightly and asked the clerk for a glass of ice water to return to Walter.

“If you can’t eat it, spit it out quickly and take a sip of ice water.”

Walter’s cultivation is very good. He has never vomited in the public. At this moment, Ana asked him to vomit, but he frowned.

“Spit it out quickly.” Ana actually stretched her hand directly to his lips. Walter’s expression was a little loose. In the end, Phillip took a tissue and handed it to him. Walter spit out the thing, and then pressed it. Next glass of ice water.

But his handsome face flushed at the same time, and the little Yan on the side was still eating with gusto. What happened made her dare not continue, and looked at them panic.

“Sorry Mr. Walter, if I know you can’t eat spicy, I will definitely not put chili.”

Seeing his unsightly face, Ana had to pick up something: “Jessica, don’t be nervous, you should stay here to eat first, I will take him home first, and come back to you later.”

Jessica could only nod her head desperately, and then waved at her: “It’s no longer necessary to come back, you can go quickly, I will call my dad to pick me up later.”

“Well then, be careful of yourself.”

After Ana finished speaking, she directly pushed Walter out, and finally got him in the car, and Ana directly told Phillip to go to the hospital.

Phillip was stunned for a moment, but it was so spicy, do I need to go to the hospital?

But seeing Walter’s face so bad, Phillip didn’t dare to have any other questions, nodded and prepared to drive.

“Go back to Yejia.” Walter suddenly said with a dumb voice, and Ana looked at him: “Don’t you go to the hospital?”

“Am I sick?” Walter asked her back, and Ana suddenly had nothing to say, well, she was too nervous.

Walter’s complexion was very bad along the way, the mouth and tongue were hot, and this kind of burning sensation was uncomfortable. Looking at Ana, she sat next to her with a look of confusion.

After returning to Ye’s house, Ana pushed Walter into the door. He happened to meet Curtis Ye who came out. Three eyes were facing each other in the air. Ana Shen remembered what Curtis Ye had said to her in the group. Quickly lowered her eyes to avoid his sight.

Walter was unhappy, and didn’t even give him an extra look.

The three directly passed by.

Finally, Curtis turned his head, looked at Ana’s petite figure, and clenched his fists unwillingly.

Since the hot pot incident, Jessica has been concerned about how Walter is going every day, whether she will be punished, or whether her salary has not been increased, after all, she added the chili pepper. It’s not so much. For those who love spicy food, it is such a refreshing taste experience, but for people who can’t eat spicy food, that piece of lamb that has been flushed with chili water is a meat-taking series!

So Jessica was deeply afraid that her salary increase would fly like this.

“Do you dare to mention it?” Ana poked her forehead, “Don’t think about a raise. He didn’t talk to me for a long time since he went back that day. I don’t know if it was... we lose face in front of him.”

Ana guessed this, because Walter was all right that day, but his face was black for the next few days, as if Ana owed him a lot of money.

“That said, a big man lost his face in front of us, and he certainly won’t be able to wipe it away. Then I should take a detour when I see Walter these days. By the way...Why don’t I see that Karla Han after I reconcile with you? Came to see you?”

When she mentioned this matter, the smile on Ana’s face faded a bit. It is strange to say that since she argued with Karla Han that day, Karla Han stopped coming to her for a long time. Maybe she was angry, but Ana didn’t want to pull her face down. Coax her.

Because she had never thought of telling Curtis Ye the truth.

But Karla Han had been unilaterally trying to match her up with Curtis Ye. It’s okay to not be in contact for the time being, and both sides should calm down for a while, and then see how to deal with this matter.

It’s just that Ana didn’t expect that Karla Han’s movements would be so fast.

Coming soon, she was helpless.

Time flies, Ana originally wanted to contact Karla Han this weekend, but she didn’t expect that she would call her first, saying that she had bought fruit supplements, and she wanted to visit Yejia as a guest.

Hearing that she was coming to Yejia, Ana was a little worried: “Should we go out and talk?”

“What are you thinking? The fruit tonic is for Grandpa Ye. I have another preparation for your gift. Ana, don’t you still blame me? I take the initiative to confess my mistake and apologize.”

“All right, when will you come?”

“I’ll be over in half an hour.”

Half an hour? Ana glanced at the time, then got up: "Okay, then I will prepare."

After that, she hung up her mobile phone, got up, changed her clothes and was about to go downstairs, but Walter's eyes were staring straight at her with bad eyes.

It has been several days since the Mala Tang incident. Ana is still thinking when she sees this look, is he still angry?

So she had to walk around him, who knew that after two steps, she heard him coldly questioning: "Did you move the clothes in my cabinet?"

Hearing, Ana stopped for a while and looked back at him with some doubts.

"What?"

Walter's eyes were as sharp as a knife: "Did you move my clothes?"

Ana: "...What do I do with your clothes?"

Although they are using the same cabinet, there are differences between them. In his area, Ana never took a second look. How could he move?

Seeing her innocent look, Walter was a little annoyed: "Are you sure you haven't moved?"

"Walter, is it possible that you lost something and thought I stole yours? What valuable things are in your closet? I live under the same roof as you. Even if I want to steal something, I steal valuable things, right? What am I doing in moving your closet?"

Chapter 221

His sharp eyes were like looking at a thief, which made Ana suddenly embarrassed and bit her lower lip.

“Who said you stole something?”

Walter’s voice was neither lukewarm nor hot, but it made people feel chilly. Ana clenched her fists: “Then what did you mean by that question?”

Walter thought of the suit, and the buttons on it were gone.

After he was with that woman that night, he came back and found that the suit button was missing. He didn’t care, but Walter would naturally not wear the suit without a button, but he did not put it on. A suit was thrown away, but stored.

It was accidentally discovered today that all the buttons on it had been removed.

Thinking about it carefully, it is indeed impossible for Ana to do such a deliberate thing, but...who is there besides her?

And at this time, Walter couldn’t help but imagine that the missing button would be in the woman’s hands that night?

“Nothing.” Walter replied in a cold voice, frowning: “Just do you dare to say that you really haven’t moved my closet?”

Ana: “...What the hell did you lose? Just say what you want to say. What’s the point of knocking like this?”

He remained silent, and Ana Shen: “Okay, I’ll talk to you later on this matter. Karla is going to visit the old man, I will go down first.”

After speaking, Ana turned around and went out directly.

After she left, Walter turned over the suit in his hand and stared at the places where the buttons were removed.

One is missing, two are left-where did they go?

Ana went downstairs to go straight to the gate and waited. When she passed the living room, she just saw Curtis Ye sitting on the sofa. He was holding his mobile phone and seemed to be talking to someone, and suddenly looked at her as if he was aware of it. , Ana quickly speeded up and left.

She waited at the gate of Yejia for a while and saw Karla Han's car approaching.

After Karla Han got out of the car, she gave the key to the housekeeper to park, and then carried a lot of things in with Ana.

"Ana, it's really nice that you came to pick me up. I thought you were angry with me. I didn't think about it the other day, so I'm sorry that I didn't come to you. Would you mind it?" Karla Han Asked quietly when she entered the door.

Ana doesn't have to deal with these things. These days, she just wants to calm down, so she shook her head and said, "It's not a problem, go in. By the way, Master Ye has gone out and may come back later."

"It's okay." Karla Han leaned over and rubbed her cheek with a smile:
"Anyway, I'm here to find you the main one. Stop by and take a look at Grandpa Ye and his old man."

Hearing this, Ana felt warm.

"Thank you Karla."

“Well, let’s go in.”

Ana helped her carry things. After the two went in, they just ran into Curtis Ye. When they saw Curtis Ye, Karla Han was very enthusiastic.

“Big Brother Ye.”

“Come and play?” Curtis also took a book in his hand, looked at them with a light smile, his eyes flowed and fell on Ana’s face, seeing that Ana had been avoiding his sight, the expression in his eyes was dark. A bit.

“Yeah, Big Brother Ye, I heard that Grandpa is out. This is a gift I brought to everyone.” After saying that, Karla Han handed a bag in her hand to Curtis Ye and said with a smile: “I hope you don’t dislike it.”

“Just come here, what kind of gift should you bring?” Ye Curtis qian took the bag in her hand politely.

“I’m here as a guest, I must bring some gifts to look like this.”

“Well, you play by yourself first, I’ll take care of something.” Curtis Ye saw that Ana was really uncomfortable staying here, so he had to find an excuse to leave.

After he left, Karla Han took Ana’s hand and walked towards the living room: “Actually, I think Big Brother Ye is gentle and polite. He treats everyone very kindly. This kind of person looks very good. But...If you don’t like it, I will treat it as if I don’t know anything, and I won’t mention it again.”

Hearing, Ana paused and looked at her in disbelief.

“Karla?”

“Isn’t it a pleasant surprise? We sisters. I have thought about it when I go back these days. I think you still have to respect your choice. After all, this is your own business. I... shouldn’t interfere too much.”

Having said that, Karla Han put down all the things in her hands, “Don’t be too moved, by the way, Grandpa Ye hasn’t come back yet, what we are doing now?”

“I’ll walk around with you.”

It just so happens that she herself is not very familiar with the place here, so she can look around when she is familiar with it.

So Ana took Karla Han to the back garden for a circle. Karla Han suddenly said that she felt sick and wanted to go to the bathroom. Ana nodded: “Well, you go, I’ll wait for you here.”

“Okay, then wait for me, I’ll be back later.”

After saying goodbye to her, Karla Han walked around the long corridor and saw Walter not far in front, a delicate smile appeared on the corner of her mouth, and then walked forward pretending to be surprised.

“Young Master Ye? You are here...”

On weekends, Walter always went to the back garden, but he didn’t expect to meet Karla Han here.

For her, Walter glanced indifferently, and then he said in response.

“I’m sorry, I used to go shopping here with Ana, but... I just wanted to go back to the bathroom and I accidentally got lost.” At this point, Karla Han came closer and directly posted Ye Walter whispered on the back: “Young Master Ye, am I stupid?”

Walter: "..."

He frowned, this woman...

"Mr. Walter, can you... take me to the bathroom?" As he said, Karla Han's hand unconsciously stretched out her fingertips and poked Walter's back. Seeing that he didn't have any special reaction at her. The fingers moved up slowly, and gradually landed on his neck, his heart beating faster and faster.

Seeing her white fingers quickly stroked his neck, his wrist was suddenly clenched.

Walter stared at her with cold eyes, and his voice was cold: "What do you want to do?"

Karla Han was taken aback, and Walter used a lot of energy, and immediately struck out her hand. Has she ever treated himself like this before? Karla Han was at a loss for a while, "No, I didn't do anything, Mr. Walter...you hurt me."

She opened her big watery eyes and looked at Walter innocently.

Looking at her eyes with moisture in them, a pair of cold and icy eyes suddenly broke into his mind, Walter thought of the woman in Ana, who also looked at him with innocent eyes. But her eyes were firm and stubborn, with a force of reluctance to admit defeat.

But the woman in front of him was different, the innocence in her eyes was obviously just pretending.

"Nothing?" Walter sneered: "Then what are you doing near me?"

Chapter 222

Such harsh questioning made Karla Han's eyes suddenly red.

"I'm sorry, I just wanted to push you. I didn't mean to bump into you just now... Mr. Walter, you hurt someone, okay?" As she said, Karla Han shed a few tears, and then softly want to withdraw my hand.

Walter sneered and let go.

Karla Han leaned to the side weakly, leaning against the wall like a boneless body, rubbing her sore wrist, feeling terribly wronged in her heart.

Originally, she thought Walter should have feelings for her, as long as she exerts more methods, she will be hooked.

I didn't expect him to be so rude.

But... the more he resisted her, the more Karla Han became interested in this kind of cold and domineering man.

She wants to get his heart more and more, this kind of man as long as she will get his heart, then she will be the happiest woman in the world.

However, if you want to get his heart, you have to do whatever it takes.

Karla Han leaned against the wall and closed her eyes.

Ana, then I .. can only be sorry for you.

Walter doesn't like you anyway, so... just let me come.

Thinking of this, Karla Han's eyes changed when she opened her eyes again. She stood up again, her voice as small as a mosquito.

“Sorry Mr. Walter, I didn’t mean it... Since you hate me so much, then... I’ll leave first.”

While talking, Karla Han left, seemingly inadvertently and said: “It’s all to blame, what’s wrong, but you have to remember that rainy night... Now let you see a joke?”

Originally she wanted to leave, Walter didn’t bother to pay attention to her, but after hearing her whisper, Walter’s cold eyes immediately changed into the stormy sea, and he drank her before she left.

“Stop.”

Karla Han suddenly stood on the spot like a bird with a frightened bow and looked back at him in astonishment.

“What did you just say?”

Karla Han stretched out his hand to cover her mouth, her eyes widened and backed in panic: “No, I didn’t say anything, you got it wrong!”

After speaking, she turned and ran.

“Damn it, come back!” Walter stopped her, but Karla Han had already achieved her goal. Of course, she didn’t tell him directly, so naturally she would not stop, she would leave time for him to suspect.

Soon, Karla Han disappeared around the corner.

On the other hand, Ana waited for a long time in the same place. After waiting for a long time, Karla Han did not return. When she came, the path in the garden was complicated. Ana was worried that she might get lost or could not find the bathroom. After two minutes, she was still missing.

She had to walk along the way she came, but not too far away she ran into Karla Han who stumbled towards this side. Because Karla Han was walking in a hurry, she almost fell down. Fortunately, both of them stabilized their pace.

“What’s the matter? Running in such a hurry, did something happen?” Ana helped Karla Han and asked, seeing her red eyes, her heart suddenly tightened.

Karla Han immediately turned her back and wiped her eyes, “its okay, and I’m okay.”

“But... why are you crying?” Ana frowned and asked suspiciously.

I don’t know why... She suddenly had a very vague premonition.

“Is there? I have cried?” Karla Han smiled and rubbed her face vigorously: “Where is it? Why didn’t I know? Maybe water got in accidentally when washing my face just now?”

Ana: “...”

“You didn’t lie to me?”

“Hey, what did I lie to you, I really didn’t cry!”

Karla Han took her hand and quickly changed the subject: “Let’s go, let’s go over there and take a look.”

Although Ana was full of doubts, Karla Han didn’t want to say that Ana couldn’t do anything with her, and there was nothing wrong with her later emotions, so she gradually forgot about it.

The two of them wandered around for a while and then went back. The old man Ye came back. After seeing Karla Han, seeing that she had brought so many things to Yejia, he was overwhelmed with joy. They kept saying that there was a chance to meet Victor Han, and asked Karla Han to introduce him. .

Karla Han said that her elder brother is very busy, and next time if there is a chance, she will definitely introduce them to each other.

Ye Grandpa agreed happily, and then invited Karla Han to stay for lunch.

Ana on the side looked a little worried. In fact, she understood the thoughts of Old Man Ye. He had always wanted to get together with Karla and Curtis Ye. After everyone left, she dragged Karla Han into the corner.

“If Master Ye asked you to marry Curtis Ye, would you agree?”

Upon hearing this, Karla Han’s eyes widened in surprise: “How is this possible?”

After thinking about it, she continued.

“Ana, although I will no longer intervene in your decision, it does not mean that I will be with him. After all, he is the child of your stomach...Father, how can I be with him.”

Ana pursed her lips: “That might be a bit troublesome, Ye Old Man wants to match you with Curtis Ye, can’t you fail to see it?”

“...Really? I thought he just wanted to meet my elder brother, so I was so passionate.”

“Are you stupid? With the status and reputation of the Han family in Beich, Old Man Ye must hope that you can be her granddaughter-in-law.”

“Is this...” Karla Han lowered her head hesitantly, “Then I will pay attention next time, I will definitely not have anything to do with Curtis Ye.”

Ana ignored her words. Karla Han only said that she wouldn't have anything with Curtis Ye, but she didn't say that she wouldn't have anything with Walter.

When everyone was eating at a table at noon, Walter's face was as cold as ice, and the indifferent breath on his front almost froze everything around him. The servant did not dare to approach him, and Ana couldn't help but turn towards him. He glanced.

In the morning, I noticed that the breath on his body was not right. Why does it seem to be serious now?

What is it today?

“Karla, please come to see Grandpa Ye often if you have time in the future.” Old man Ye smiled and gently peeled a few shrimps and put them in her bowl. Karla Han smiled flattered: “Thank you, Grandpa Ye, I Will do.”

Seeing this scene, Ana Shen didn't think much about it, anyway, she knew about the fact that Old Man Ye didn't like her.

On the contrary, Curtis and Walter did not speak. Only Ye Laozi and Karla Han occasionally talked at the dinner table. This meal was very embarrassing. At the end of the meal, Ye Laozi suddenly said, “Erika Shen, you Help put the bowl away.”

Ana paused, then nodded: “Good old man.”

Then she got up to help the servant collect the bowls, Karla Han saw this and said, “Then I will help too.”

“No, Karla, come with Grandpa, I want to tell you what Grandpa said.”

“This...”

“It’s okay, you go.” Ana smiled at her, and Karla Han nodded: “Then I will come to you later.”

After a group of people left, Ana helped the dishes into the kitchen.
