

Nothing to Give but My Heart Chapter 229-232

Chapter 229

After Ana was rescued by him, Curtis Ye discovered that there were many purple spots on her body, and there were many scratches, which looked shocking.

“How could this be?” Curtis clasped her thin white wrist and asked nervously.

Ana Shen is now ignoring the relationship with him, grabbing him backhand, and anxiously said: “Something happened over there, you can quickly let the security guard remove those shelves.”

Hearing, Curtis Ye only looked in the direction she was looking at. It doesn't matter if you don't look at it. At this time, Curtis Ye's eyes were actually dyed red with blood, and he frowned, “Hurry up and remove the shelf. . .”

“Ana, what's going on? Why is it just so empty for a while? Are you hurting like this?”

Ana shook her head, “I can't explain to you now, can I take her to the hospital?”

Although she hates Shi Baoqin, it is undeniable that if something happens to her here, the whole Ye's might be involved. The most important thing is that Jessica is also involved. She is fine, but she doesn't want to involve others!

“Okay, I'll drive, you wait for me.”

After that, Curtis quickly let go of her hand to drive, but the hospital was very close to Ye's. Before Curtis could drive over, the ambulance arrived early. The hospital and nurses saw this when they arrived. Circumstances, they quickly gave Shi Baoqin first aid, and after the most basic first aid, she was carried on a stretcher and then into an ambulance.

Ana hurried to catch up. When she was outside, she happened to run into Curtis Ye who was driving out of the parking lot. He rolled down the window: "Ana, go to the car, I'll take you to the hospital."

"Good!" Ana nodded quickly opened the door and got into the car.

"I'm going too!" Jessica quickly followed Ana out after she ran out, and then saw her getting in the car, so she hurried forward and got into the car together.

Boom!

After the car door closed, Ana looked at her in surprise.

"Why are you here? Didn't I ask you to go back to the department first?"

Hearing, Jessica glared at her fiercely: "You want to take everything to yourself, I am not as you want, if she wants to count everything to you, then Let me count it."

Having said that, Jessica gritted her teeth with a bit of use. "Anyway, Jessica dares to be a dare. There is nothing to be afraid of. The big deal... I will pay her for this life."

"Don't talk nonsense!" Ana Shen held her hand and said calmly: "The crowd was chaotic at the time. Whether she was the one we pushed out or not has yet to be verified. If you want to get in the car now, I can't control you, but if something happens Things, you must not be the first to rush up, and you are not allowed to pretend to be."

Jessica didn't understand it at first, but then slowly recalled: "You mean, maybe she didn't push her?"

"It's not clear who pushed, but most of them can't be us." Ana recalled carefully: "At that time, we were controlled by others and suffered so many injuries. We were too busy to take care of her to push her so far. The odds are too small."

"That's right." Although Curtis Ye who was driving in front didn't know the whole story, he clearly understood something from the conversation between the two of them, and nodded in agreement: "Everything has to be verified, so don't rush to admit it, now Let's go to the hospital to see the situation first, and I will contact a professional later, so don't be nervous."

Hearing, Jessica looked at Curtis Ye with emotion, then hugged Ana's arm and whispered: "Brother Ye is much less reliable than your husband, and he is gentle."

Although her voice was very low, it was in the car after all, and the space was limited, so Curtis Ye could still hear her.

Sure enough, through the rearview mirror, Ana saw Curtis Ye glance at her, and had to mutter in a low voice: "Don't talk nonsense."

Jessica pursed her lips and said nothing.

Followed the ambulance all the way to the hospital. After getting out of the car, Ana almost fell to the ground. Fortunately, Curtis Ye quickly supported her, "Is it all right?"

Jessica also came out: "Ana is hurt too badly, or else go and treat the wound first."

“I’m fine.” Ana stood up reluctantly. She was too anxious before. Only then did she realize that her knee hurts badly. It should have been knocked out. That’s why she felt so hurt. “I was not careful just now, let’s follow up and see the situation before talking.”

Curtis frowned, realizing the seriousness of the matter, and nodded: “Okay, let’s see the situation first. If there is no problem, you and Jessica’s injuries will be treated by a doctor immediately.”

“I know.”

Ana Shen pushed him away without a trace, and then quickly followed.

Seeing Shi Baoqin being pushed into the operating room, Ana suddenly remembered a person coming, Shi Baoqin looks like this, do you want to call Ben Lin?

“Ana, what are you thinking?” Jessica asked suddenly.

Hearing, Ana recovered and moved her lips: “I was thinking...Should I call her husband?”

“Ah? You know her husband? But didn’t she say...” Are you a junior?

These words almost blurted out. Fortunately, Jessica stopped the car, and then glanced at Ana: “Is it appropriate to call her husband? After all... she has become like this.”

Ana Shen thought for a while, but took out her mobile phone: “Let me send a message.”

Curtis watched from the side, his eyes extremely doted.

“You can do whatever you want, no need to worry. Anyway, this matter is not your fault.”

Hearing, Ana Shen couldn't help but glance at Curtis Ye.

“Isn't it? It was she who brought a few women to Yeshe to make trouble. For this, she took the blame.”

“That's right, Ana, I think you should call Mr. Walter to report that you are safe. After all, he is your husband.”

Jessica's unintentional words changed Curtis Ye's expression on the side, Jessica paused, and said with a smile: “Well... or don't fight.”

Ana: “...”

She glanced at Jessica helplessly, wanting to ask if she could have a bit of spine.

However, Jessica's words reminded her that such a big thing had happened, and also happened in the Ye Family Group. Even as a subordinate, she should indeed have notified Walter.

Thinking of this, Ana's eyes moved, and she just wanted to enter the call interface to call Walter, but she hesitated, not wanting Curtis Ye to suddenly raise his hand and take her mobile phone over, with a gentle voice.

“It's better to make a phone call and inform Walter.”

After speaking, he just pressed the dial button, Ana paused, and then said: “I'll do it.”

As soon as the voice fell, Walter's side unexpectedly answered quickly. Because of the close distance, Ana also heard Walter's deep voice.

"What's up?"

As soon as Ana wanted to speak, she heard Curtis Ye say: "It's me."

There was silence on the other end, then sneered after a moment: "Why is her phone in your hand?"

"We are in the hospital."

Chapter 230

When the word hospital was spoken, Walter immediately narrowed his eyes dangerously, and his black eyes shrank. The woman's mobile phone was in Curtis Ye's hand, but Curtis Ye was in the hospital. What does this mean?

Explain that something might happen to that woman.

Immediately, the heart seemed to be pinched tightly by something, out of breath.

The voice that Walter heard was anxiously dull: "Which hospital?"

Curtis recalled it for a moment, then said a name, and then said: "With me here, you should take care of the company's affairs first, don't rush over."

Then he hung up the phone and returned the phone to Ana.

When she turned around, she realized that his hand was covering Ana's mouth, because when Ana wanted to speak, Curtis Ye directly raised his hand to cover her mouth, without giving her a chance to speak.

Ana frowned tightly.

“Sorry.” Curtis handed her phone back to her and smiled slightly: “I want to be selfish too.”

Ana’s mood suddenly became microseconds, and the Jessica beside her blinked nervously. After a while, she was ecstatic in her heart. Seeing Curtis Ye like this...it seemed to be deeply rooted in love.

“The patient has been sent to the emergency room, and it is estimated that he will not be able to get out for a while. You two are injured like this. I will send you to check the wound first.”

“No.” Seeing him getting up and trying to pull himself, Ana immediately rejected his proposal: “You take Jessica first, I’m here to guard.”

Curtis frowned, and said displeased: “Ana.”

“Brother, this is a very important thing, please don’t interfere with me!”

Ana pursed her lips and said coldly.

Curtis: “...”

Jessica’s complexion changed.

For a long time, Curtis smiled bitterly: “I still have nothing to do with you. Since you insist, I will take Jessica to treat the wound first, and when she comes back to guard, you will follow me to treat the wound.”

Probably because this arrangement was no different, Ana Shen didn’t say anything again.

Curtis took Jessica to deal with the wound. Only Ana was left sitting on the spot she and Jessica were in fact both seriously injured, and the women made heavy attacks.

Visible, scarred.

What is invisible is the deepening of internal injuries.

Ana almost moved her arms and legs, feeling the bones all over her body hurting.

Women fighting is really terrible.

She laughed mockingly and shook her head again.

She doesn't know how long she has been sitting, Ana leaned back, and when she was too tired to close her eyes, she heard the sound of a wheelchair rolling.

The more she heard it, the more familiar he became. When the voice of the wheelchair reached her, Ana suddenly opened her eyes, and then she saw Walter, which was close at hand.

It has only been such a short time since he hung up the phone just now, he actually...appeared in front of her?

"Second married girl!"

He grabbed her shoulders angrily, looked at her whole body with a stern look, and when he saw that her whole body was hurt, an anger rose in his black eyes, "Who hurt you like this?"

When the words fell, he seemed to think of something. He looked around, but only saw her alone, so he asked coldly: “Where is Curtis Ye?”

Hearing, Ana was relieved now, her pink lips moved, and she whispered: “Can you move lightly... my shoulder hurts.”

She was hurt all over her body, and she felt like her whole body was shattered when he pinched her shoulder.

Walter was taken aback for a moment, and found that her face and lips were pale, and then he quickly let go.

The expression on Junmei’s face became gloomy, and there was hostility in her eyes.

After a while, he changed to clasp her wrist: “Come to the doctor with me.”

“Don’t, it hurts.” Ana pointed to her wrist.

Walter paused, and finally did not let go of her. Instead, he gently pulled up her sleeves. When he saw the large and small, intricate scratches on her white arms, his black eyes burst out. Out of strong hostility.

“Who did it?”

Ana’s heart was so soft for no reason.

Obviously on the phone, Curtis told him to let him deal with the company’s affairs first, but after hanging up the phone for a few minutes, he appeared in front of him, if it weren’t for a red light. Yes, it came in a speeding car.

As for why he was so anxious, Ana no longer wanted to care about the reason, she only knew that he was caring about her now.

Her voice was slightly softer, “The person who hurt me hurts more severely than me, Walter...I may have committed a very big thing.”

Hearing, Walter frowned involuntarily, “What’s the matter? Speak clearly!”

Ana Shen smiled slightly, and whispered softly: “What if I said, I went to jail for hurting people this time? If I can’t get out of jail for the rest of my life, then...you don’t have to worry anymore.”

When she said the last sentence, Ana even lowered her head, staring at her toes without saying a word.

Walter has been frowning tightly, what on earth is this woman talking nonsense?

“Ah.” Ana suddenly exclaimed, looking up at Walter who was pulling her into his arms in amazement, “You...”

Walter squeezed her small chin with a cold voice: “Although I don’t know what happened, no one can move the woman in Walter. If who hurt you like this, that person will have to pay ten times the price. .”

Ana: “...”

“Next, you tell me what happened, don’t miss a single detail.”

Ana shook her head, “I don’t want to say.”

Hearing, Walter narrowed his eyes dangerously: “Want to die?”

“I hurt.” Ana sniffed, suddenly leaned over to his chest and stretched out her hand to wrap around his neck. “The whole body hurts. I don’t want to explain anything.”

Originally, Walter wanted to lose his temper, but now she held his neck softly and said lowly that she hurts...

The anger that was still bursting out just now disappeared completely. At some point, Walter realized that his heart was too soft. He looked at the thin woman in his arms and swallowed dumbly. Spit.

“Where does it hurt?”

Ana Shen closed her eyes: “It hurts everywhere.”

Walter paused, “Then... I will rub it for you?”

Ana: “...”

Phillip who followed: “...”

Please don't treat me as a transparent person??? Ha ha ha, smile manually bye!

Although Ana didn't answer the conversation, Walter really stretched out his hand to cover the back of her neck. There was a large patch of bruise there. When she snuggled down, he could see it with his head down.

The original white and smooth neck was covered with blue and purple at this time. Walter was distressed and annoyed. When he covered it, he used a little bit of strength and rubbed it badly.

Ana's body trembled, and his heart softened to a mess, and then the movements of his hands were lightened a lot, gently rubbing the wound for her.

“Feel better?” Chapter 233

Ana Shen was taken into an office by Walter. When he was wondering how he could come in casually, he heard a familiar voice.

“Why are you here?”

Hearing, Ana accidentally discovered that the person who appeared in the office was actually Song An.

Unexpectedly, she could see her here, and suddenly Ana felt that Walter’s aunt felt ubiquitous.

“Wow, Ana, why are you hurt like this?” Aunt Song was frightened when she saw Ana hurt like this.

The reaction was more than when she saw her with Chinese medicine before. After all, this time it was all skin trauma. There were some wounds on the face, neck, arms, and legs. It looked shocking and seemed to have experienced a ...A terrible violation.

“Walter, didn’t Auntie tell you before that she should protect her wife? That’s how you protect her?”

Walter: “ ...”

After Song An’s accusation, Walter also felt that he hadn’t done a good job of protecting her. He didn’t think too much about the previous things, but this time... he saw her covered with scars.

Walter’s eyes darkened for a few minutes, and his voice was cold: “Cure her first.”

“It will definitely be cured, you get out first.” Song An left Ana, then drove Walter out, and closed the door to Ana for healing.

“Take off all your clothes. Let me see what the wound is like.”

Because she had already taken it off in front of Song An before, Ana Shen didn't hesitate too much this time, she just unbuttoned her body. When she took off her clothes, she still felt her skin hurt.

“Wait a minute!” Song An scolded, and then stepped forward and took a look: “Who did this and put such a heavy hand on it. The clothes are stuck in the wound. Don't pull it with force, let me help. You do it.”

Ana couldn't see what her back looked like, so she could only let Song An help her. Although she was very careful when pulling clothes, Ana still frowned her eyebrows in pain and bit her lower lip. Live did not let her scream out.

After a while, Song Ancai said, “Okay.”

Only then did Ana Shen take off her clothes, and looking at her back, Song An couldn't help closing her eyes, and then told her to sit still and turn around to get the medicine.

When Song An went out to get the medicine, she saw Walter outside and gave him a kick.

Walter was in pain, but only frowned.

“I won't talk about you this time. Go in and see yourself to see how she is injured.” Song An went straight to find medicine after speaking, and lost a back to Walter.

Walter sat there for a moment, remembering how Ana looked just now, in fact, just by looking at her exposed wounds, one could guess how badly the wounds were invisible.

Song An came back after finishing the medicine and found that Walter was sitting there motionless, not moving at all, and said, “You are such a dead brain!”

After speaking, she went in directly, Walter had been waiting outside the door, and at the same time waiting for news from Phillip.

After Song An disinfected Ana’s wounds, they were all treated with medicine. It had been a long time before they were finished. Ana was still worried about Shi Baoqin’s results. After she had said it, she quickly took her clothes and put them on. Get up, then slip out of bed.

“I have troubled you several times, thank you so much.”

“If the family doesn’t say anything, why are you thankful for this trivial matter? It’s just that your injury... temporarily can’t touch the water, and you have to take medicine every day.”

Ana nodded when she heard the words: “Okay, I will pay attention.”

“By the way, apart from the pain on your body, do you still feel uncomfortable?”

Hearing, Ana was taken aback, but she didn’t feel any uncomfortable...

“Well, it seems that your expression is gone, but you still have to pay attention. After all, you are a pregnant person. In the future, this situation... still needs to be avoided.”

When someone reminded her about her pregnancy again, Ana almost forgot it again. She just felt that if they wanted to fight, she would accompany her. She didn’t know when she became so impulsive, but she really just wanted to make peace at first. Yes, who knows afterwards... it was out of control.

“Okay, I see.” Ana nodded, and she really has to remember this matter in the future.

Seeing her wanting to leave, Song An couldn't help but said: “You stay here for a break. I'm going to have an operation soon. I'll check if the wound is inflamed when I come back.”

“But...”

“For other things, or what you worry about, I'll talk to Walter.”

Ana: “...Well then, thank you auntie!”

Walter stayed outside for a long time, Phillip brought him news, saying that the woman had a child safely by cesarean section, but she was a girl. Now Ben Lin is in chaos, but the mother and child are safe, so Ana doesn't have to worry anymore. It will be fatal.

Ana doesn't need to worry, but... they have to worry about it. They hurt Ana like this, thinking that just a few words are enough?

“I know about this, you send a few people to stay there, and then go to find out the whole story.”

As soon as he hung up the phone, Phillip saw Song An coming out. He pursed his thin lips, “How is her injury?”

“Okay, do you know you care? I thought you didn't want this wife and children anymore!”

Hearing, Walter frowned, “Who said I don't want it?”

“Then what are you doing?” Song An questioned: “I told you since the last time that as a man, you must protect your wife, but what are you doing?”

“I don’t know what she did.” Walter replied “And has been abnormal recently.”

“Oh? What an abnormal method? You can tell me something.”

Walter glanced at his aunt. Since his mother passed away, Song An has been the only relative in his mind. He was puzzled, and he didn’t know who to answer.

Perhaps it is solvable to talk to Song An.

Thinking of this, Walter’s eyes darkened, and after a while he told Song An about Ana’s recent performance.

After listening, Song An narrowed her narrow eyes slightly: “So what? If she behaves normally, would you be unhappy?”

“Strange.” Walter pursed his lips and replied displeased.

“It’s really weird.” Song An nodded, and then sneered at him suddenly: “But have you ever thought about why she became so strange? As your aunt, I can tell you clearly that women are sentimental and sensitive. , She suddenly became like this, it must have been a decision in her heart, or something you did that disappointed her, or something that you said changed her. Besides, a person... Change easily. Think about what you did?”

What did he do?

Walter pursed his lips, he didn’t know what he did.

“Anyway, to be honest, since you and she are already married, you have to live your life. Unless... you really want to divorce her...”

Chapter 234

Divorce her? Hearing this word, Walter immediately frowned. He had indeed thought about divorcing her before, but after this time of getting along, he suddenly discovered that this woman did not seem to be what he thought, maybe...

“I know you will care more or less about that child, but since her body is not allowed to destroy this child, then you must learn to accept it.”

Hearing this, Walter raised his eyes and glanced at his auntie: “Auntie means, I want to listen to Yejia’s arrangements, will I live with this girl in the future? It doesn’t even matter if she cuckolds me?”

Song An’s face changed a little, and then helplessly said: “What is a cuckold? She didn’t get pregnant after marrying you. She just met someone badly. If you like her, you should feel sorry for her. Treat her better. I see her... her eyes are clear and she has no bad thoughts. The point is that you are sitting in a wheelchair. She does not despise you, but protects you in multiple ways. This kind of girl is rare. “

Walter heard these words, but he also heard some special words. He squinted his eyes and stared at his aunt in danger: “Who said I like her?”

Song An originally just said it casually, who knew that he had actually taken this sentence seriously, and suddenly he thought of something and laughed out: “Why? You only heard this sentence after I said such a long sentence, right? Ye? Walter, you don’t like her aunt, don’t know, but you must care about her? Otherwise, how could you let Phillip take me to help most of the night? Charity?”

When she talked about Walter, she didn't give any face, and she changed Walter's face with shock.

"Why do you do those things, don't you have any points?" Song An said again.

After successfully seeing Walter's face changed, Song An triumphantly raised the corners of her lips, and then put a few bottles of medicine on the table: "She can't touch water these days, and she has to clean, disinfect and wipe the medicine every day. , You can figure it out."

Hearing, Walter pursed his lips and said, "I will bring her here every day."

"I'm very busy. If there is nothing serious, don't always call me. You can deal with this small injury yourself. You won't be able to change the medicine? Then you let her wound continue to hurt, or the inflammation will heal."

After that, Song An turned around and walked to the front of the office to open the drawer. The nurse knocked on the door to remind her: "Dr. Song, there is an operation in half an hour, and it's time to start preparations."

"Okay, I'll come right away." Song An nodded, and the little nurse left. Song An looked at Walter: "Have you heard? I'm going to have an operation right away. She will rest inside. You can wait until she wakes up. Take people home directly."

Song An quickly packed up her things and left. Walter was alone in the office. He thought of something, staring at the bottles of medicine, and finally reached out and took the bottles of medicine into his palm reluctantly.

It was quiet inside, and Ana should still be resting.

Actually, Ana didn't rest. After Song An went out, she got out of bed and wanted to go out. But when she walked to the door, she suddenly heard the conversation between the two, so she gave them all without saying a word. Listen to it.

After listening, she didn't dare to go out again. After all, she had a guilty conscience, so she could only go back to bed and lie down with her eyes closed.

But the body hurts too much. After applying the medicine, the whole body is sticky, and it is very uncomfortable to lie down, so Ana's brows are frowned.

I don't know how long it took, there was a sudden noise outside, the sound of wheels rolling, although the sound was very soft, but it was too quiet here, and Ana heard it very clearly.

Realizing that Walter might have come in, Ana thought of her previous conversation with Aunt Song An, her eyelashes quivered slightly, and then turned over without a trace, facing the outside with her back.

Otherwise, Walter would come in for a while, and she might be exposed if she lay down to sleep.

The door was pushed open, and Walter came in as expected.

His wheels rolled lightly to the bed, looking at Ana Shen who was lying on the bed, he just happened to see that all her white arms and neck were scarred.

When he saw these scars, there was a vicious look in his dark eyes.

He will not let the person hurt her easily!

Ana was lying inexplicably feeling a chill coming, and she was also engulfed with yin, making her shoulders tremble, what's the matter?

Did Walter find that she pretended to be asleep?

Thinking of this, Ana's eyelashes trembled. Just when she wanted to move, she felt Walter's aura covering her. Before she knew it, he had already reached behind her. At this moment, he stretched out his hand to twist the corner of her clothes. , Pulled it up gently.

Ana subconsciously want to huddle, but soon refrained.

Walter night he is doing it ah?

However, Ana do not know is that the night Walter actually staring at her back hurt look above, then black eyes grew heavy and, finally, a bit darker than the night.

Walter stared at her for a while, but for Ana who was pretending to be asleep, every minute of it was suffering. Her skin was exposed to the air. She wanted to move but didn't dare to move. It's a shame.

Can only hold back, finally Walter put down his fingers, Ana breathed a sigh of relief, feeling a lot more comfortable throughout the body.

Moment, Walter night out, Ana finally feel comfortable number, she slowly turned around, looked at just where the night Walter, thoughtfully.

Later, Ana really fell asleep when she lay down. When she woke up, the sky was already dark. Ana sat up and found that the pain in her body had alleviated a lot. She had to lament Song An's medical skills. And the effect of the plaster.

Just...

Where are people? The office is quiet. Song An should have gone for surgery and has not returned. Where did Walter go?

Thinking of this, Ana quickly got up, only to find that something had fallen off her body, and when she looked down, she realized that it was Walter's suit jacket.

This... Ana picked up the coat, and Walter actually covered her with the coat. Does that mean that he has been here after she fell asleep?

Thought of this, in her heart suddenly Ana not taste it.

She took the suit got up and went outside, only to find Song Ann has come back.

"You're awake." Song An looked back at her and smiled: "Walter has something to do. I went out with Phillip. Are you going to have dinner with me tonight?"

Hearing, Ana paused, then nodded subconsciously.

"Well, but where did he go?"

See she would hold ink Xuan night clothes, SONG could not help but hook the hook lip: "think to know it, you might as well play your own phone to ask?"

Own call to ask?

Ana pursed her lips, "Auntie, where are we going to eat?"

"Go back to my house, I'll cook."

Chapter 231

He asks.

Ana didn't answer, but shook her head, still buried in his arms.

In fact, before he came, Ana thought calmly, she did not do it, nor Jessica did it. If there is a real confrontation, she will not be afraid. The big deal is that she will take care of everything alone. .

But now Walter hurriedly rushed to her, his black eyes were full of anxiety looking at her, causing her backlog of grievances to burst out.

He thought that she must not be able to take care of everything alone, she must explain things clearly.

But... if Shi Baoqin is really bad luck, then... this matter has nothing to do with them.

So many people at the scene saw her not pleasing to their eyes, and probably many people would take this opportunity to kill her.

“Ana!”

Ben Lin hurried over. After receiving Ana's message that Shi Baoqin had an accident, he hurried over. Who knew he would see this scene after coming over. His former wife was actually snuggling in another man's arms. As a man, he was furious when he saw it, and said angrily: “You sent a message to show me this?”

Hearing Ben Lin's voice, Ana came back to her senses. The aura that Walter was familiar with was in front of her. She was a little fantasizing just now because she was scared. Now... she still wants to return to reality.

She stood up slowly, but when she was about to reply, the back of her head was suddenly held down.

Walter pushed her back into his arms, and said coldly: "Go away."

The powerful aura on his body burst out, making Ben Lin almost unsteady. He glanced at Walter in fear, and then said with a trembling voice: "It's not me... I want to come, yes, it's the woman... ..She sent me a message and abducted me."

Hearing, Walter's thin lips made a cold arc: "Really?"

Ana struggled in his arms, and finally said in a dull voice, "I called him."

Ben Lin immediately became proud, "Right? You think she admitted it by herself...!"

Walter's eyes were a bit cold, Ana finally struggled away from his arms, and then glanced at Ben Lin: "I asked you to come here to show you the emergency room. How can I tell you in the message? Did you forget what you said?"

Hearing, Ben Lin recalled the message, saying that Shi Baoqin had an accident.

Seeing Ana looking at the emergency room, Ben Lin realized what, "You mean, Bo'er is in the emergency room?"

Ana didn't speak, it was a tacit understanding.

Ben Lin jumped immediately and changed his face and pointed at Ana angrily: "What's the matter with you? Bao'er will be born soon, why are you so vicious, you actually beat her! Ana, if the child has an accident, I must be endless with you."

Ana bit her lower lip and said coldly, "You don't know what happened, so why do you say that I am vicious?"

"Does this still need to be thought? After divorcing me, you must be holding a grudge. You are jealous that Bo'er is pregnant, so you want to be cruel to her, because we had no children before, so you wanted to kill my only child. Ana Ah Ana, I didn't expect you to be this kind of woman, Mr. Walter... this kind of woman is very snake-hearted, you must not be deceived by her."

Speaking of this, Ben Lin suddenly thought of something, "Young Master Ye, you can't keep this kind of woman with her, let alone listen to all kinds of slanders she said, or else... someday she will be killed by her. it's a living example!"

"..." Ana Shen bit her lower lip, this bastard!

When I got married, I never did anything for her. After getting divorced, I even tried to discredit her!

But what Ana cares more about now is, what he said, would Walter believe it?

Thinking about this, Ana looked at Walter and glanced at him nervously:
"Don't believe what he said, things... are not like that at all."

Walter raised his eyebrows, his thin lips slowly raised, and said mockingly:
"Woman. How did you fall in love with this kind of man and marry him for two years? Didn't you notice anything in two years? Is it stupid?"

With this, Ana's face flushed, and she heard Walter sarcastically before she could answer: "It should be a fierce counterattack."

Hearing, Ana was taken aback, and even Ben Lin was taken aback.

Having said that, Walter raised his eyes and glanced at Ben Lin, sneered: “You are Ana that is useless. You never subsidize the family, and you are looking for Xiaosan’s ex-husband?”

Ana looked at Walter in surprise.

Unexpectedly, he would actually speak for himself, and... he actually knew so much.

Is it looking for someone... have you investigated him?

“You, what are you talking about? Nonsense, Baoqin is not a junior!” Ben Lin probably didn’t expect Walter to suddenly turn around. A big man was said to flush with his face, “This woman is too useless. And because of the snake-hearted, I abandoned her to marry another.”

“On the day of your divorce, Xiao San has been pregnant for a few months, dare you to say that others are not good?” Ben Lin’s information was checked by Phillip at the time, so Phillip knew very well and heard him accuse Ana and Phillip couldn’t stand up immediately, and stood up to report the injustice for Ana: “You scumbag, all the money you earned after two years of marriage went to that junior, right? After winning the lottery, I can’t wait to divorce wife. Now I’m so embarrassed to hack others back, and you lose the face of men. Don’t call yourself a man!”

What Phillip said was even more ugly, and Ben Lin’s eyes were red with anger: “You!”

“The divorce is good. Without a scumbag like you, our second youngest grandmother will have a happier life.”

“Let’s talk.” Walter chuckled, his thin lips evoked a nice arc, his fingers fell on Ana’s neck, and he was still rubbing the bruises for her. The movements were gentle and gentle, just once. Ana felt the wound felt much better. “I also want to thank this scumbag, if it weren't for you, I wouldn't be able to marry such a good wife, would I?"

He looked sideways at Ana and said seriously and gently.

At this moment, his eyes were as bright as the sea of stars and morning. For a moment, Ana almost thought that what he was telling himself was true, but...Ana still reacted quickly, it was just acting.

His Walter's wife should not lose his face.

He wants to save her face.

Thinking of this, Ana followed with a sweet smile: "Yes, I also have to thank you for choosing to divorce me. If you didn't divorce me, maybe I haven't gotten out of the sea of bitterness yet, and I've been fooled by your cheating."

Having said this, she wrapped her hands around Walter's neck and leaned against him, "Now I can meet such a good husband, thank you so much."

"You..." Ben Lin didn't expect this couple to show their affection in front of him. He clenched his fists in anger and couldn't say a word.

Chapter 232

After the show is over, Walter has another sentence.

"My wife is so badly injured this time, I won't give up."

Ben Lin almost vomited blood when he heard that he wanted to question him? What should he do? His wife was lying in the emergency room, not sure if there was any danger!

It happened that at this time, the door of the emergency room suddenly opened, and the doctor walked out: "Which of you are Shi Baoqin's family members?"

No one agreed!

The doctor frowned, "Are Shi Baoqin's family members away?"

Ben Lin reacted suddenly and stepped forward: "Doctor, I am Baoqin's husband."

"Mr., your wife is bleeding heavily, and the child is about to be born early, so please sign the operation consent form."

Hearing, Ben Lin suddenly widened his eyes, "Born early? Then...will the child be healthy?"

"Sir, it is still unknown whether the child can be born safely, but the hospital will do its best. Please sign as soon as possible and do not delay."

Ben Lin trembling hands, took out a pen to sign his name.

Finally, he thought about it and gritted his teeth: "Doctor, if you can...I want to make a request to you!"

"What?" The doctor glanced at him.

Ben Lin clenched his fists and seemed to have made a big decision: "If both are in danger, I hope... I can keep my child!"

Doctors: "..."

Ana on the side: "..."

Her eyes widened, she couldn't imagine what she was hearing.

Ben Lin actually... told the doctor to keep the child, what about the adults? Sir, does he want it?

There was a sudden cold all over, and Ana looked at the man who had lived with him for two years, and felt like falling into an ice cave. It turned out that in the two years together, she had never understood this man. She didn't expect him to be scumbag, ruthless and unjust, and so... frantic.

Suddenly, Ana began to be worthless for Shi Baoqin. According to her, she should have been the poor woman who was deceived, and the instigator was Ben Lin.

She couldn't help but scolded him directly: "Ben Lin, are you still a human?"

Hearing her questioning, Ben Lin glanced back at her, "Don't worry about it, Baoqin will lie in it because of you, what's the pretense?"

Ana sneered: "The reason she came to me must be clearer than me, right?"

Ben Lin who was talking about this suddenly felt guilty. He shrank his neck, then turned to the doctor: "Doctor, what I said just now is what I wanted to say. I'm sorry."

But who knew that the doctor didn't give him face, retorted: "This gentleman, the hospital has a clear stipulation that in the case of danger for adults and children, they will give priority to her"

"What are you talking about?" Ben Lin frowned, "What does this mean? What is a written rule? Isn't this decision right on our own? What's up to your hospital?"

The doctor didn't bother to talk to him anymore, and turned directly into the operating room. After the door was closed, Ben Lin still wanted to chase in. The nurse came up: "Sorry sir, this is the emergency room, please stop the noise!"

Ben Lin was so angry that he pointed to the inside: "What does it mean to default to protecting the big and not keeping the young? Didn't you hear that I want to keep the young? What can I do to protect the big one? I just want to protect the young and pass on my clan!"

The nurse is a girl, and she wanted to give him a punch when she heard his straight-eyed remarks, but her good professionalism made her resist this impulse. In the end, she just satirically said, "Does your family need to inherit the throne?" "

Hearing that, Ben Lin was taken aback for a moment, "What did you say?"

"If you don't have the throne to inherit, can't you rebirth in the future? You have to keep the youngster this time and pass you on? If it's not a boy, don't you want it?"

Her words were very straightforward, and it happened to poke Ben Lin's mind. Ben Lin's face was green and white when she said, and he pointed at her angrily: "You, you, you..."

"She's right." Phillip stepped forward and stood in front of the nurse: "You are a big man who doesn't even protect his wife. If you say this at this time, what other woman will dare to marry? Here you are? I'm ashamed to say that the clan will be passed on. How much property does your family have?"

Seeing Phillip coming forward, the nurse stared at him with bright eyes.

And Ana watched this scene from the sidelines and shook her head helplessly. She didn't expect Ben Lin to be such a person.

“Does it suddenly feel that I was blind before and I actually fell in love with such a man?”

The deep voice rang in her ears, and Ana suddenly recovered, and she realized that she was still lying in Walter’s arms.

She lowered her eyes: “Indeed, I did see the wrong person before.”

She never knew Ben Lin was such a person, pursing her lips, Ana whispered: “Let me go, thank you just now.”

Walter didn’t let her go, but raised his lips: “If you want to thank me, then you have to take action.”

“What?”

She raised her eyes and glanced at him suspiciously. At such a close distance, Walter noticed that there were also a few scratches on her white cheeks.

Damn it!

Walter raised his hand and gently stroked her face with his slightly rough fingertips, his eyes getting deeper and deeper: “I will let them pay the price. First, treat the wound.”

“No!” Ana shook her head, “You heard it just now. The doctor is doing emergency treatment. I have to stay here to see what’s going on.”

“With Phillip standing here, are you still afraid that you won’t get the situation?”

Ana: “...”

It seems to be the same, Phillip's handling of affairs is indeed reassuring.

"But..." While she was still hesitating, Walter had already raised his hand and rolled the wheel. Before she could react, Walter had already left a word and led her away.

"You stay here to watch the progress and report to me in time if you have anything."

Phillip looked at their leaving figures and nodded, "It's Mr. Walter!"

Upon seeing this, Ben Lin wanted to catch up with him: "Ana, come back to me, do you want to leave if you hurt Baoqin?"

An arm turned sideways and stood in front of him, Phillip stared at him coldly: "It's still unclear who caused the harm, but now I stay here, you can't go anywhere, and I don't want to disturb our second young master and second young grandmother! "

Ben Lin stood where he was, so angry that he smoked quickly but was helpless.

And here, Ana was taken away by Walter directly because he was sitting in a wheelchair while Ana was pressing on her lap. This strange phenomenon attracted a lot of people's attention, and Ana felt embarrassed. Can suggest: "I'll go down and walk by myself, I will push you away."

"You are hurt." Walter ignored her, just tossing to her.

"My injury is not serious."

"Very serious."

Ana: "...I can go."

"Shut up." Walter's movements suddenly stopped, staring down at her lips: "If you speak again, I will kiss you here."

Ana's eyes widened in horror, and the next second she stretched out her hand to cover her mouth.

Forget it, she should shut up.
