

Nothing to Give but My Heart Chapter 241-246

Chapter 241

If it weren't for the pair of pink earrings found in Walter's pocket yesterday, Ana Shen might be wondering who bought it, but now... she already knows that the pair of earrings are there. .

When Jessica asked, she suddenly blushed first with a guilty conscience.

"Guess quickly!" Jessica thought she didn't know, and pushed her hard, asking her to guess.

Ana didn't guess, just lowered her eyes and whispered: "How would I know?"

"Hehe, do you want to know?" Jessica asked thieflly, approaching her.

Ana: "...". Seeing her put her small face in front of her eyes, almost touching her nose, she had no choice but to turn around and shook her head: "I don't want to know, don't tell me."

Jessica: "...inexplicably, why don't you want to know? Or to say..." Jessica suddenly realized that, her eyes widened: "Could it be that you have received it?"

"I didn't receive it!" Ana replied very quickly. In fact, she was not sure if Walter bought the pair of ear studs as a gift.

But there is always a guess in my heart, telling her that it is.

After all, she really liked the pair of earrings. If Walter hadn't bought it for her, then why did she buy it again without telling her?

After denying, Ana realized that she seemed to be revealing something. She bit her lip and looked at Jessica awkwardly. Jessica immediately grabbed her shoulder: "So you knew it a long time ago. I also said to treat this as a Surprise tells you."

Ana blushed and nodded.

"I discovered it by accident, but... I'm not sure that he gave me the pair of earrings."

"How come? If he doesn't give it to you, who else does he want to give it?"

"Yes, I don't know who he wants to give it to."

"Don't think about it, you are his wife, and... you also wore these ear studs in front of his interview that day. Didn't he want to buy them? But you turned around and left. So he didn't. After he went back, he thought about it, and bought the pair of ear studs while you didn't know how to turn back! Of course they are going to be given to you, Ana, you said you have no feelings, I think Mr. Walter treats you very well !"

Hearing this, Ana thought and couldn't help but look at Jessica more.

"Nice to me?"

"The authorities are crazy, the bystanders are clear, the way he looks at you is exactly the same as the way my dad looks at my mother!"

Ana Shen: "...What is this description?"

“My dad treats my mom very well, and they have been in love for many years. So, you must be optimistic about Mr. Walter, such a high-quality man can’t let others go.”

Hearing this, Ana couldn’t help laughing, “You.”

The two spoke for a while, and Ana paid attention to the time at any time, and noticed that almost half an hour was up, and said goodbye to Jessica, and then she was going to find Walter.

Who knew that she had just walked out of Jessica’s office when she saw Phillip pushing Walter in a wheelchair in front of her.

The eyes of the two met distantly in the air, and Walter’s dark eyes stared at her, with an unpleasant color in them.

“Why so long?”

Ana had no choice but to speed up and walk forward and walk around behind him: “Why are you here suddenly?”

Walter frowned impatiently: “Half an hour has passed.”

Hearing, Ana watched for a while and muttered: “It just passed.”

“Second married woman, it seems that you didn’t take my words to heart at all.”

Having said that, Walter glanced at Jessica, Jessica quickly straightened her waist as if she saw a serious elder, then waved to Walter, and then came over coolly: “Little night, you go slowly.”

The other employees in the finance department cast their curious gazes, and Ana quickly pushed Walter away from the finance department. After entering the elevator, she said, "I was just about to go up to find you, so you came here. "

The breath on Walter's body was very cold, and the air pressure in the elevator was directly lowered. The elevator floor moved up one by one, and Ana Shen heard Walter's cold voice and continued: "I will let Phillip send it. You go to the hospital and I have a meeting."

Such behavior made Ana Shen feel warm in her heart, and the corners of her lips twitched: "Okay, then... I am today..."

"After taking the medicine in the hospital, you go home and rest. Do you hear that?" He said again.

Ana nodded obediently once.

Looking at the outline of Ana Shen reflected on the wall, Walter found that her eyebrows and eyes were actually gentle, and she seemed extraordinarily well-behaved today. The gentleness when she bowed her head almost made him lose control.

Inexplicably, Walter became irritable again, and stretched out his hand to pull at the tie of his suit. Some gritted his teeth, but didn't know what to say about her, so he could only remain silent in the end.

After that, Walter went back to continue the meeting, and Phillip sent Ana Shen to the hospital.

When picking up the car downstairs, Ana Shen couldn't help but ask: "Walter just came out of the meeting room on purpose?"

This question was very self-conscious, but Ana still wanted to ask.

Phillip froze for a moment, and then nodded: "Yeah, the time agreed by Mr. Walter and the second grandma has arrived. The second grandma has not come, so he went downstairs to find the second grandma in advance."

The second grandma called Ana Shen's heart really comfortably, she lowered her eyes and couldn't help but smile.

Phillip saw the smile on Ana Shen's face through the rearview mirror, but there was no warmth in her heart. Instead, she felt so cold. He looked at Ana Shen in the rearview mirror with complicated eyes and said: "Second young lady..."

Hearing, Ana Shen raised her head, and a pair of clear eyes broke into her sight without warning.

"What happened?"

Although those eyes were cold, there was no trace of impurities, as if they had gathered all the spiritual energy in this world.

How can such a Ana Shen make people bear the heart to destroy?

Phillip hesitated to speak but stopped. The words that reached his throat just now stopped between his lips.

"Phillip, do you have anything to tell me?" Ana saw him hesitating, obviously he had something to say, but after waiting for a long time he didn't say anything, so Ana had to ask him.

When she asked this, Phillip's eyes suddenly flinched, thinking of a certain woman, Phillip felt that if he didn't tell Ana Shen, it would definitely be unfair to her.

But... he does things for Mr. Walter.

He couldn't help but listen to Mr. Walter's order.

"No, nothing," Phillip shook his head, and finally chose to say nothing.

The look in Ana Shen's eyes became even more strange. When she looked at him, his eyes and expressions seemed to have a lot of things to say to her. He wanted to say something, but why didn't he say it again?

"Is it... what happened?"

"Second young lady, it's nothing, it's my own problem." Phillip touched his forehead awkwardly: "Don't worry about it, I'll take you to the hospital."

Since he refused to speak, Ana Shen naturally couldn't force him to speak.

It's just... She was very curious, what did Phillip hide from her?

Chapter 242

After going to the hospital, Phillip told Song Anming about the situation. Song An reluctantly shook her head, disinfected and cleaned her again, then applied medicine, and then told her to go back and take a good rest.

When Ana was leaving, Song An still couldn't help but say: "Ana, auntie treats you as your own. I'll just say some things directly. You seem to have serious injuries, but you will come every day afterwards. In the hospital, you just need to pester Walter to give you medicine, you know?"

Ana Shen blushed as she said: "I'm sorry, my aunt, I remember, I will never come to trouble you again in the future."

Hearing, Song An looked at her helplessly, "What do you think? My aunt doesn't think you are causing me trouble, but you can't run to the hospital to let me treat your wounds, but learn to let Walter helps you, do you know?

Woman, sometimes, you still have to be softer, not too stubborn.”

Ana Shen paused for a moment, and suddenly realized that Song An was teaching her how to deal with Walter.

“Auntie, I...”

“Don’t forget what I told you that day. Although Walter looks cold and poisonous on the surface, in fact his heart is very sensitive, and his feeling is very different from that of a fragile person. His appearance is really different from his heart. You have to find a way to deal with him, you know?”

Having said this, Song An held her hand: “Don’t say that I told you this, you know it, you know?”

After saying goodbye to Song An, Ana Shen went directly to Yejia. After returning home, she thought a lot by herself, and suddenly took out her hand to think about sending Karla Han a WeChat.

She doesn’t have any friends, just Karla Han, a close friend, who recently met Jessica.

There are many things on her mind now, and she also wants to find someone to share.

Just opening Karla Han’s WeChat account, Ana Shen paused. Thinking of what she said to herself before, she didn’t know whether to share her thoughts with her? Will she scold her?

Thinking of this, Ana Shen took a deep breath, and finally put the phone down.

Forget it, she should follow her heart.

So at noon, Ana wanted to go to the company to find Walter for lunch, but when she arrived at the company, she found that Walter was not in the company.

When she asked, she learned that he had left the company very early. According to the security guard, Walter left the company with her back foot when she left the company.

After knowing the news, Ana thought about it.

At that time he asked Phillip to send her away, saying that he would go back to the meeting.

Obviously the meeting is very important, so she just paused halfway, but then why did he leave the company again? Is there something particularly important? More important than meetings?

Ana Shen was a little curious, but didn't think much about it. She went to Jessica for lunch, but she didn't see Walter all afternoon, and he didn't return to the company. In the end, Ana Shen had to go home by herself.

Originally, Ana thought that she could see him at night, so she never re-applied the medicine, because she had remembered what Song An said in her heart, thinking that he might be able to help her.

So at first, Ana sat on the sofa and waited until she accidentally fell asleep later. When a Ji Ling woke up, she found that the room was still empty and there was no one.

Ana subconsciously reached out and rubbed her eyes, Walter...hasn't he come back yet?

After rubbing her eyes, she took out her phone and took a look.

She found that it was already twelve o'clock at night.

This late...

Did she actually sleep on the sofa for hours?

Ana was a little cold, and quickly got up to find a coat to put on herself, and then went out to find Walter.

She went to the study room and didn't see him, so she could only ask the servant.

"Didn't the second young master come back?"

The servant saw her and replied: "Second young lady, it's so late, why haven't you rested?"

Hearing, Ana Shen pursed her lips and asked again: "I asked your question just now, and you haven't answered me yet."

The servant respectfully said: "Second Young Master hasn't come back yet. Maybe he is busy with work. It's late at night, Second Young Grandma should rest early."

After speaking, the servant retreated.

Ana Shen stood there blankly, it was so late, he hadn't come back yet.

What are you going to do?

Thinking of this, Ana Shen remembered the situation he asked at the company during the day. He left the company early in the morning, and then she waited for him in the company all afternoon without seeing anyone, and he has not even returned home yet.

Could it be... what happened?

Ana Shen's heartbeat, and anxiously took out her mobile phone and called Walter.

It was only after the call that the phone could not be connected. Ana was worried and could only call Phillip back and forth.

Phillip played a few times before connecting, his voice seemed to be a little fuzzy, and he was awakened.

"Who?"

"Phillip, it's me."

"...Hmm? Who are you? Second, the second grandmother?" Phillip was still a little confused at first, but then he heard Ana Shen's voice, and then he seemed to wake up suddenly, and then Ana Shen heard that there. After a while, she politely took the phone away for a while, and after a while, she heard Phillip's voice from inside, and she put the phone to her ear again.

"Excuse me, the second young lady, after a delay, what can you do with me?"

Listening to his tone, it seems that he is not by Walter's side?

Thinking of this, Ana Shen asked carefully: "I want to ask you... Didn't you follow Walter today?"

Hearing Walter's name, Phillip seemed to think of something, suddenly becoming guilty.

“Second young lady... why did you suddenly ask? Is there any problem?”

“He... he hasn't come home yet, I am a little worried about him.”

“What?” Phillip was obviously startled, “Mr. Walter hasn't returned yet?”

Ana Shen nodded and said, “Yes, do you know where he is?”

“Damn!” Phillip couldn't help but burst into a rough sentence: “How could Mr. Walter be entangled by her till now? What time is this?”

This sentence was Phillip's own complaint. Although he said it quietly, Ana Shen heard it a little, but it was not true. She could only ask in confusion: “What did you just say?”

“No.” Phillip reacted abruptly, denying: “It's okay, don't worry, the second youngest grandma, I will call Mr. Walter and ask immediately.”

“He can't get through with his cell phone.”

Ana paused and bit her lower lip nervously: “Can you...can you take me to find him?”

She was very curious, what was he doing all day?

“Second young lady...” Phillip said entangledly, “I'm afraid it won't work, it's too late, and you are hurt. If you let Mr. Walter know that I'm taking you out, you will definitely punish me.”

“It's okay, my injury is almost healed, I'm just a little worried.”

“SeChapter 243

After speaking, the other party directly hung up the call.

Ana could only hear a busy tone, and there was no time to say a word afterwards.

After staying for a while, Ana put down the phone and sighed.

Something is wrong.

There must be something wrong.

When Phillip sent himself back in the daytime, he was as if he wanted to talk and stopped talking, but then suddenly stopped. Obviously something was hiding from her, but he didn't dare to tell her.

But Ana couldn't guess exactly what it was.

Forget it, Walter suddenly withdrew from the meeting and left for one day. What does this mean?

There are very important things for him to deal with, although she doesn't know what it is.

But everyone is curious.

Especially after Ana Shen decided to follow the heart, she especially hoped that she could melt into Walter's life and slowly walk into his heart, so she naturally wanted to know his affairs.

But... She has no clues, there is no way to find him.

Forget it, let's go back and wait.

Seeing when Phillip would find him back, Ana went back to the room.

Lying on the soft sofa, Ana Shen looked at the snow-white ceiling, unconsciously stretched her hand to the lower abdomen to caress, and muttered: "Baby, if Mommy wants to be with him, will he... accept you?"

Ana Shen knew that the child in her stomach hadn't formed yet, and she couldn't hear what she was saying, but she still hoped that Walter could accept this child.

Thinking of this, Ana Shen smiled slightly.

Curtis Ye's gentle eyebrows suddenly appeared in front of her eyes. Ana was startled. How could she think of him at this moment, she shook her head suddenly.

I remembered the dream she had last night.

"Just a woman like you is worthy of my Walter's love?"

An indifferent voice rang mercilessly in her ears. In her dream, Walter's eyebrows were cold during the day, and it was not an exaggeration to say that it was ice and snow.

Suddenly Ana felt that she was a little delusional. She was pregnant with another man's child, but actually expected Walter to accept her? is it possible?

Mindfulness, everything is delusional.

Ana's mood sank to the bottom, got up and returned to her bed, lying down without sleep.

It wasn't until the sky was light that Ana fell asleep sleepily.

When she woke up again, it was almost noon. Ana turned over and the sun was violent outside the window. She got up and glanced at the phone. It was ten o'clock and the phone was lying quietly without any news.

Phillip...hasn't called her back yet.

Ana looked around again, it was still empty, Walter...hasn't he returned?

After thinking about it, Ana called Phillip again.

After the other end was connected, Phillip's voice sounded tired.

"Second young lady."

"Phillip, Walter... how is he? Did you find him?"

"Mr. Walter is in the company now."

Hearing that he was in the company, Ana's hanging heart finally let go. She heard herself breathe a sigh of relief, and said, "That's good."

Phillip on the other side hesitated and asked, "Second young lady...wasn't she waiting for Mr. Walter one night?"

Ana was stunned for a moment and immediately recovered, and then smiled slightly: "Why? I just asked casually, since he is all right, then I will hang up call."

After finishing talking, Ana directly hung up the phone before Phillip could respond.

After hanging up the phone, Ana looked at the phone in a daze, and then went back to bed.

What is she thinking? She can go wherever she likes to go, and she doesn't have the right to control it either.

Ana simply lay back on the bed and stared at the ceiling in a daze.

Walter didn't let her go to the company, so she simply stayed in the room and didn't go anywhere.

Moreover, she waited all night, her grievance was deep, and she really didn't want to see Walter again at this moment.

After a long time, the phone rang.

Ana seemed to be suddenly alarmed, and quickly took out her mobile phone. She thought it was Walter's call. When she saw Karla Han's name displayed on the screen, she was not disappointed, but excited.

"Karla?"

She wanted to contact her at first, but she didn't know how to talk to her. It happened that Karla came to the door, and she could also tell her heart.

"Ana."

After a long absence, Karla Han's voice sounded a little tired, and her voice was hoarse, as if she had cried.

Ana was stunned for a moment, and then asked: "What's wrong with your voice?"

"No, nothing." Karla Han's tone sounded flustered, and then she chuckled softly: "Ana, it seems that our relationship has faded a lot recently, you and that Jessica..."

Speaking of this, Ana Shen also felt in her heart. It seemed that after the two people had a disagreement in their opinions, the relationship between the two was relatively colder, not as hot as before.

“The relationship between me and her does not prevent us from being friends.” Ana Shen explained softly.

“But, she looks very hostile to me. If she affects the friendship between us, will you continue to be friends with her?”

“I...” Ana paused, never expecting that Karla Han would actually say that. Is this the purpose of her call today?

Just when Ana was so confused that she did not know how to answer the other party, Karla Han took the initiative again.

“Forget it, I didn’t come to you today to ask your guilt, I want to ask you out to relive the past, and... My Karla is not such a stingy person, I know that I am definitely not the only person in your circle of friends. , There must be others, and I won’t blame you.”

Hearing this, Ana finally showed a new smile.

“It’s great Karla, you don’t mind, I’m still struggling.”

“We met at the dessert shop we met before, okay?”

Karla Han likes desserts, although Ana Shen doesn’t like it, but she doesn’t think there is any problem, so he nodded: “If you like it, then I will clean up and go.”

“it is good.”

After hanging up the phone, Ana quickly got up to change clothes, and then went out to meet Karla Han.

After arriving at the agreed dessert shop, Ana Shen entered the shop and saw Karla Han sitting by the window. She wore a pink gauze dress today, her hair was beautifully curled, and the color seemed to be newly dyed.

“Ana, here.”

Karla Han waved to her, Ana walked up to her and sat down, and asked, “Karla, did you do your hair?”

As soon as they sat down, the waiter came over and handed them the menu. Ana Shen still had a smile on his face, but when he saw Karla Han approaching to pick up the menu, he was completely stunned.

Because when Karla Han was sideways, the pair of ear studs just exposed.

Karla Han loves to dress up, and Ana Shen won't be surprised what kind of earrings she wears.

But today, the pair above her ears happened to be... the pair she saw from the box in Walter... the pink earrings.

Chapter 244

For a moment, Ana thought she was wrong.

Because she actually saw the pair of earrings bought by Walter in Karla Han's ears.

“Miss, what do you need?” The waiter’s voice came, finally pulling Ana’s soul back. Ana then recovered and pulled her lips at the waiter embarrassingly: “Give me a cup of coffee Just fine.”

“Okay.” After the waiter left, Karla Han looked at Ana Shen with a sweet smile, and held her hand intimately: “Ana, thank you, you are so kind, obviously I don’t like sweets, but I always do. Come with me to eat sweets all the time, we want to be good friends forever.”

Ana couldn’t help but fall on Karla Han’s ears.

The pair of ear studs was pink and lovely, with a pleasant light flowing under the light. Ana also took a fancy to the pair of studs at the time, but later...

She couldn’t help asking: “Your earrings...”

Hearing, Karla Han seemed to have recovered, reached out and touched the pair of ear studs on her ears, then curled the corners of her lips, “Isn’t it pretty?”

Ana Shen didn’t know how to react better, so she could only nodded blankly.

“It looks good.” She smiled slightly, but this smile was bitter to the bottom of her heart, and only she knew it.

After speaking, Ana Shen saw Karla Han reaching out and holding her face, fiddled with her earrings with a shy expression, “I also think it looks good.”

Ana Shen felt terrible. The hands under the table were already tightly clasped together, and her nails were almost sinking into the flesh. Then she loosened it again, looked at the pair of ear studs and asked: “You... bought it yourself.?”

Karla Han seemed to be taken aback, then shook her head: “Of course not, it was... someone else gave it!”

Having said that, Karla Han’s face turned red, and her face was shy.

She looks like Ana of course knows what it means, she looks like she’s in love.

It’s just... Ana is thinking now, that pair of ear studs shouldn’t be given by Walter? Even if Walter has that thought, isn’t Karla that kind of person? After learning that Walter is a husband and wife, how could Karla Han accept Walter’s gift and still show such a shy appearance, she is not that kind of person.

Thinking of this, Ana Shen finally breathed a sigh of relief, and then let go of her clenched hand.

“Congratulations.” Ana sincerely thanked her, thinking in her heart, this should be just a coincidence.

When she heard her say congratulations, the expression on Karla Han’s face paused, then she blinked and suddenly looked at Ana Shen quietly.

Ana Shen was a little strange by her, and couldn’t help asking, “What’s wrong?”

Karla Han uttered a loud voice, then shook her head and said no. Then the clerk brought the dessert over. Karla Han picked up the spoon and dug a bite of the butter and ate it, “It’s great.”

Ana’s coffee was brought up, and she took a sip, struggling.

Although comforting herself, she still cared very much in her heart, that pair of earrings... is it really just a coincidence?

When the two were parting, Karla Han suddenly took Ana's hand and asked in a low voice: "Ana, I want to tell you something, but... I don't know to speak to you."

Hearing, Ana only felt a fierce jump between her eyebrows, and her voice trembled a little.

, what's the matter?"

Karla Han stared at her for a while, her expression was not as gentle as just now, but she became a little sad. The look in her eyes was as if she had done something sorry for her. This look made Ana Shen's heart tremble.

"Forget it, let's not say it." Karla Han sighed, lowering her eyes and pressing back the words that reached her lips.

Ana Shen: "... Tell me, there is nothing in our relationship that cannot be said."

Karla Han shook her head: "The time is not yet ripe, I will tell you when the time comes, Ana... No matter when, you must remember that we are good friends, you must... Trust me!"

She held Ana's arm tightly, looked at Ana seriously and said.

Originally, Ana comforted herself, but now that Karla Han stopped her words, her heart was suspended again. She bit her lower lip and looked at Karla Han embarrassedly: "Karla, we are good sisters, of course I believe you, can... what is the time when the time is right? What are you hiding from me?"

"Nothing, Ana, don't think about it, I will tell you in the future, anyway you must believe me, we will always be good sisters."

In the end, Karla Han still didn't tell her anything, Ana couldn't do anything, and after parting with her, she went home desperately.

Halfway through, Ana suddenly remembered the store last time, so he hurriedly said to the driver: “Driver, please turn your head down!”

After Ana told the driver the new address, the driver sent her to the new destination.

After getting off the bus, Ana went directly to the previous jewelry store.

As soon as she walked in, she ran into the shopping guide who tried her ear studs last time. The shopping guide recognized her and smiled immediately when she saw her.

“Hello.”

Because of the incident that day, Ana was a little embarrassed and smiled at her.

The shopping guide spoke first, “Hello miss, did you come to see the earrings last time?”

Unexpectedly, she actually remembered herself, so Ana Shen nodded: “Yeah.”

“Does the young lady want to buy it back?”

Ana Shen shook her head: “I just want to ask, the pair of ear studs...”

“Hello, miss. That day, the gentleman bought the earrings the next day. They must have been bought for you. You are very happy. Your friends have also been here, but I didn’t expect you to also...”

Ana Shen pulled her lips, feeling strangely embarrassed.

“Actually, I just want to ask, that pair of ear studs...are there any more?” She was curious, whether the pair of stud earrings had the same style, she really hoped it was just a coincidence.

“The same style?” The shopping guide was stunned at first, but only after a moment did she realize what she meant: “Miss, please rest assured that the earrings are individually designed, and there is only one pair on the market temporarily.”

There is only one pair on the market for now?

“Temporarily?”

“Yes, we only have one product in our family. We will only consider the same product after we sell it.”

Hearing this, Ana understood it, and asked: “Then if I want a second pair, how long will it take to get it now?”

The shopping guide thought for a while and gave her an answer.

“From the time of submission and arrival, the cut scene in the middle will probably take more than a month for the lady.”

More than a month...

Ana Shen still didn't give up: “Does that have the same style?”

“This is the only pink one for now.”

The little bit of hope in Ana's heart finally shattered.

So... Is Karla Han's hesitation only about this pair of ear studs?

The pair of ear studs were actually given to Karla Han by Walter?

Thinking of this, Ana bit her lower lip, and the sky began to spin before his eyes.

For a moment, she felt as if she was going to fall down, but fortunately, the shopping guide next to her saw that her face was wrong and hurriedly supported her.

“Miss, are you okay?”

cond young lady, don't worry, I'll go to find Mr. Walter, you can rest early.”

Chapter 245

Ana came back to her senses and vacantly supported the cabinet next to her, trying to calm herself down.

“I'm fine.”

“But your face looks bad, do you need me to call you?”

Ana did not answer, and took a deep breath to calm her mood. After a while she raised her head and gave the shopping guide a far-fetched smile: “Thank you for your concern, I'm fine, I'm leaving now.”

After that, Ana left the jewelry shop in the eyes of the shopping guide's worry.

Along the way, Ana walked forward aimlessly, she didn't know where she was.

Before coming to this jewelry store, she had always tried to comfort herself and convince herself that the pair of ear studs were just the same style, otherwise they wouldn't hang on Karla Han's ears so accidentally.

She didn't even dare to come to verify, but it came later. After getting the result, she realized that the result was not something she could bear.

Because of the meeting, Walter, who could only comfort Phillip and sent her back to Ye's home, left the meeting behind and went out, and did not return overnight. Today, Karla Han appeared in front of him again wearing the pair of ear studs.

What does this show?

Ana Shen stood still...

Explain that the two of them have been together yesterday, one day and one night.

Ah.

Ana, you have waited for another night, are you a fool?

Actually, she was worried that Walter had an accident, so she called Phillip.

Thinking about it now, this should be what Phillip's desires for yesterday stopped? No wonder, no wonder she looked at him with that kind of pity!

It turned out...only she was kept in the dark.

"Liar." Ana cursed lowly, staggering forward.

Boom!

Accidentally hit someone's arms.

"You don't have eyes to walk? Believe it or not I killed you? Go away."

Someone scolded and walked away from her. Ana Shen didn't even see who the other party was, nor did she have time to apologize.

She continued to stumble forward, and after walking a few steps, she accidentally ran into one, but this time she was not lucky enough, and she knocked herself down and sat on the cold hard floor.

"Wow, what's the matter with you? You hit someone when you walked? What do you want to sit there? Isn't it because you want to ruin my money?" The man said that and left quickly, for fear of blackmailing her. .

She sat on the floor for a long time, trying to get up, only to find that her whole body was weak.

Ana is so angry, but it's just a small matter. Is it worth making her so desperate?

Ana, when you divorced Ben Lin, when your parents cruelly pushed you out, you could stand up, and now you can...

She firmly supported the floor to get up, but a pair of big warm hands suddenly supported her arms, and then helped her to stand up.

In the dim eyes of tears, a tall and thin figure stood before Ana's eyes.

The man stretched out his hand and wiped the corner of her eye, then tears rushed out, and the hazy eyes gradually became clear, and Ana Shen could see the person who wiped her tears.

Curtis looked at her pitifully, wiped away the tears from the corner of her eyes very softly, and sighed helplessly.

"Silly girl, you cry like this, and I can't see it again."

Ana Shen's tears burst all at once.

Those tears seemed to be uncommon, and rushed to the outside. At first, Curtis Ye could calmly wipe her off, but later more and more, the pain in his eyes became deeper, and he stretched out his hand to pull her into his arms.

"Leave him." He mutely pressed the back of her head, pressing her cheek tightly in his arms.

The tears from the bursting bank wet his shirt, warm and wet.

"If it were me, I would never let you cry so sad, Ana, give me one chance, just once."

Ana Shen was pulled into his arms by him. The unfamiliar breath on his body made her a little resistant, but the warm feeling made her very greedy. She felt that she was indeed a little tired, and she had no strength, and suddenly there was such a warm hug. , She has no strength to resist.

The street where people come and go, Curtis just hugs Ana like this, regardless of other people's strange eyes.

After a while, the person in her arms suddenly stopped responding, and Curtis pushed her away, only to find that she had closed her eyes, as if she had passed out.

Curtis's expression changed, and he quickly reached out and hugged her horizontally, and quickly left the place.

Rumbling...

A thunderstorm sounded, and the sky full of countless black clouds finally began to rain heavily, accompanied by lightning, almost penetrating half of the sky.

Several thunders sounded continuously, and Ana Shen suddenly woke up from the bed, and after another look, she found that she was actually lying in a warm ward, no longer a lively street.

“Wake up?” A gentle voice came. Ana Shen followed the voice and saw Curtis Ye sitting in front of her hospital bed at a glance. He looked at her with gentle brows, “Do you feel any discomfort?”

Then he came over and touched her forehead, as if testing the temperature.

After testing for a while, he didn't seem to be able to test it, so he personally leaned over and pressed his head against her, and touched her forehead to feel warm.

The warm breath hit her face without warning, and Ana's pupils shrank when seeing Curtis Ye's handsome silhouette very close to her.

When she realized that she wanted to reach out and push him away, Curtis had already retreated, and then curled her lips: “Fortunately, the fever is gone, or I have to worry about you.”

Hearing, Ana Shen's lips moved, “I have a fever?”

As soon as she spoke, she realized that her voice was too low and hoarse.

Curtis smiled faintly, did not speak, but got up and poured her a glass of water, and then helped her to sit up: “Drink a glass of water to moisturize her throat first, and then talk after drinking.”

His throat was so dry and dumb, Ana naturally did not refuse, got up and took the cup, and then drank one.

“Don't worry, drink slowly, it won't be good if you choke.”

When she drank the water, Curtis took the cup naturally and stretched his other hand directly to her lips to wipe off the water stains on the corners of her lips.

The extremely intimate action made Ana Shen frown Xiu, and then subconsciously wanted to avoid his touch.

It's just that Curtis's movements were too fast, she touched quickly, and collected quickly. She didn't have time to hide, let alone push him away.

"You really have a fever, and it is very serious. The doctor said you have a cold. Ana, your body is too weak. You may have to be hospitalized for several days."

Hearing that he was going to be hospitalized, Ana's face changed a bit, "I don't want to be hospitalized."

She doesn't like the hospital, so she shouldn't stay here for no reason.

Curtis heard her refusal and stared at her seriously: "You have to be hospitalized, your physical fitness is very poor, and... I heard the doctor say that you are pregnant."

Hearing, Ana widened her eyes in astonishment and looked at him in astonishment.

In an instant, the mixed feelings in her heart hit her face, almost suffocating her.

Chapter 246

He... he knew she was pregnant?

Will he doubt that the child is related to him? Or would this incident remind him of the rainy night before?

Seeing her face turned pale in an instant, Curtis Ye frowned slightly, his voice lowered a bit, "Don't you know this?"

Ana Shen shook her head and stepped back subconsciously.

Curtis Ye's half-stretched hand stopped in midair. After a while, he pursed his lips and said, "Is it Walter's?"

Before she could answer, Curtis said again: "No, Walter is sitting in a wheelchair, I'm afraid I can't do this kind of thing. Then..." His eyes were a bit sharp, falling on her face.

"Nobody's!" Ana Shen retorted loudly before he could speak.

Curtis's face was incomprehensible, "Ana?"

Ana Shen shrank into the corner and hugged her knees, staring at Curtis Ye warily, "This has nothing to do with you!"

Her eyes were wary as if she was guarding against a thief, which made Curtis's heart cool a bit. He frowned and looked at her: "You hate me so?"

Hearing, Ana Shen's heart shook for a while, and before she could react, Curtis Ye stepped forward and clasped her wrist forcefully: "Why? What did I do to hurt you? You want to hate me like this? Since you entered the night house, I have always treated you well, even..."

Ana Shen wanted to pull her hand back, but don't look at Curtis Ye's usual jade-like appearance, her strength is not covered, she tied her wrists tightly, no matter how hard she struggles, she can't get away. Can only breathe: "Even what? Curtis Ye, you let go of my hand!"

“Even I gave you my heart.” Curtis Ye looked at her with heavy eyes, his expression was painful, “But you are so defensive and hate me, Ana, what did I do wrong?”

Ana Shen felt a little guilty by his painful eyes. Indeed, he has been helping her for such a long time since she was in the night house, including the last time she was humiliated by her mother on the street, and even Ben Lin, He has solved many things for her.

But... the relationship between her and him is too complicated, she doesn't want to admit that period of time.

Thinking of this, Ana Shen lowered her eyes and bit her lower lip forcefully: “Let go of me.”

Curtis held her hand tightly, showing no tendency to let go.

“Curtis!” Ana Shen scolded him pale with anger.

Hearing his name from her mouth, Curtis's hand movement was a little loose. After a while, he smiled contentedly and let go of her: “If you are willing to call my name often, then I will not treat you like this. , I never want to hear you call me big brother again, I don't want it anymore.”

Ana: “...”

After a long silence, Ana Shen got out of bed from the corner.

“I have been out for a long time, I should go back.”

“It's been a night, do you want to go back?”

Ana Shen raised her head in astonishment, after a night?

“When I brought you back to my private house, you kept having a fever. Later, I had no choice but to send you to the hospital. The doctor said that you had a cold, and you had a high fever and remained unconscious, so you can only stay here. Stayed for one night.”

At the thought of not coming home at night, Ana’s face instantly turned pale. She didn’t know what Walter would think of her. Thinking of this, she quickly wanted to use her mobile phone, but after searching for a long time, she couldn’t find it.

“Are you looking for this?” Curtis handed her mobile phone up, and Ana Shen quickly took it, and then subconsciously wanted to call Walter.

“If you are looking for Walter, then I can tell you bluntly, last night, you didn’t have a phone on your cell phone all night.”

Ana’s movements stopped, and she looked up at Curtis Ye in disbelief.

“Disappointed? Or is it distressed? You haven’t returned all night, and he didn’t have a call.”

Ana: “...”

She lowered her head and looked at the phone, and it turned out that the phone was quiet, without a call.

Curtis approached for a few minutes, and his voice was lowered: “Your marriage is actually a trading marriage, but... you are in this marriage, right?”

“No!” Ana Shen raised her head suddenly, and directly denied Curtis Ye’s statement.

She wasn’t tempted, Walter didn’t care about her, and wouldn’t it be a joke if she was tempted?

“You denied it so quickly, and denied it so intensely. If you say no, who would believe you?” Curtis Ye smiled faintly, but the smile contained a bitter meaning, “You are moved by Walter.”

This statement was categorical and did not give Ana a chance to deny it.

“But have you ever thought that between you... it’s impossible at all.” Curtis directly buckled her shoulders this time, staring at him seriously: “You and he will never be possible!”

“Let go of me!” Ana Shen whispered.

Curtis did not let go, and Ana Shen directly shouted at him loudly: “I let you let me go!”

Curtis Ye gently let go of his hand, and Ana Shen jumped out of bed with her mobile phone.

But because of the sequelae of a high fever, when she jumped out of bed, her head was dizzy and her body fell straight forward.

Boom!

Ana Shen fell directly on the ground, Curtis Ye’s expression changed, and he rushed over to help her: “Ana, are you okay?”

“You let me go.” Ana Shen pushed away his hand vigorously, “You don’t care about my business, you are just my elder brother, even if Walter doesn’t like me, it has nothing to do with you!”

After speaking, Ana Shen pushed Curtis Ye away desperately.

Curtis pushed a big man straight back by him, and hit his back against the cold wall. He looked at Ana Shen painfully: "But I don't want to be your big brother at all."

Ana Shen didn't want to talk to him anymore, but turned around and walked out. Although she walked staggeringly, she still walked out step by step.

Curtis stared at her back for a long time, and finally couldn't help chasing after her and sighed.

"I'll take you back."

"No." Ana Shen shook her hand away: "It has nothing to do with you."

"If you hate me for saying this, then I won't say it anymore." After Curtis Ye finished speaking, he directly raised his hand and hugged her horizontally, ignoring her struggle, pushing and pushing calmly: "You are too physically weak now. You should have been hospitalized, but if you are unwilling, I will send you back now, and I will never force you to do anything!"

The latter sentence calmed Ana Shen, she raised her eyes to look at Curtis Ye's face close at hand, and suddenly stopped talking.

"Quiet." He sighed helplessly, then left the hospital with Ana Shen in his arms, and then opened the door to the parking lot and put her in. The entire audience was cautious, and then he bent over and fastened her seat belt. , And then looked up at her.

"Ana, remember. I, Curtis, will never force you to do anything, no matter when, if necessary, you can let me do anything."
