

Nothing to Give but My Heart Chapter 343-348

Chapter 343

“Who you look down on, you know in your heart. How did our family treat you before, don’t you know in your heart? You are going to be the eldest of the Han family now, and your mom took me to the hotel to tell you start to be impatient with just a few words, and what do you mean by what you just said? Do you think mom just asks for money? I tell you, we rarely do that!”

Erika Shen was out of anger, because the unfair fate of the two made her feel that she was left out by God. Mother Shen took a lot of effort to coax her, but who knows that she is having a temper again.

“Yueyue, don’t talk nonsense.” Mother Shen quickly grabbed her arm and walked aside, “What did you promise mom before you came?”

“But Mom, look at her arrogant look. She hasn’t lived in the Han family yet. When she lives in the Han family, doesn’t she have to ride on top of us?”

Ana on the side listened a little helpless, and she just woke up really lacking energy.

She didn’t want to black face them, but she didn’t like Mother Shen mentioning those pasts in front of her every day. In fact, everyone’s relatives for so many years, how could Ana Shen not know what she wanted?

Mother Shen, all she wants is money.

After taking 300,000 yuan from her, she always wanted to take money from her, including her savings of tens of thousands of dollars, which were all taken by Shen's mother.

"Ana, you just said... you shouldn't treat me wrongly, is it true that the Han family won't treat me wrongly?" Where does Shen mother care about Ana's words, she only has money in her heart, this Four or five days have passed, and she hadn't even seen a single word of the five million she had originally said, and Mother Shen was so anxious in her heart.

It's not that she doesn't want the five million, she just feels that more than five million, the Han family is so rich, you can ask for more.

"Mom!" Erika Shen died of anger and pursed her lips: "Don't ask her for money. Look at her like that, we don't want that money!"

"Yueyue, you shut up! What do you know?"

Mother Shen pulled Erika Shen aside, and then stepped forward by herself: "Ana, it's not your mother's vanity, but it's true that we have been nurturing you for so many years. Mr. Victor said that he would give me five million, but you want Think... In addition to raising you so big, did I give you all kinds of conditions for you to learn? Also, if it wasn't for Yueyue, you wouldn't be Yejia's young grandmother, you see, these are some intangibles Help, isn't it?"

Ana heard that she was begging her for money because of lack of money.

"Then Mrs. Shen thinks... how much should the Han family give you?"

When Mother Shen heard it, her eyes lit up: "Actually, you don't need that much, just give 50 million, and... Yueyue is your sister. I hope the Han family can take care of her more in the future."

Fifty million...

Ana's eyes deepened a bit, and he smiled faintly: "You are too overestimating my worth, or you sell me to the Han family and see if you can get 50 million? When my mother sold me at night, don't you get this price?"

"This..."

Mother Shen was stunned for a moment. When she married the Shen family, she did receive money, and she did not have fifty million.

Thinking of this, Mother Shen hurriedly said: "This is no better than in the past. Did you know that you were a second marriage? But now it is different. You are the biological daughter of the Han family. You can have more."

Ana: "..."

When Erika Shen on the side heard this, she couldn't help but bit her lower lip and widened her eyes: "Mom, what do you mean... She was sold in the night house when she married? Then if she was not there, married Is it me that I also sell it?"

Hearing, Mother Shen's face changed, "Yueyue, things are not what you think, what is it? What you said...that's a wages, okay to marry a bride price? Ye's family is a big family. The bride price is high, how can there be any reason to marry a daughter and not take the bride price?"

Ana has been leaning against the wall without any extra reaction.

"Are you going to pay a high price to marry a daughter? Now you have to charge a high price to sell your daughter, right? Mrs. Shen, please don't worry, you can go back today. I will inform you of the specific matters."

When she said these words, the corners of Ana's lips and eyes were filled with mocking smiles.

It's just that she is not mocking others, she is mocking herself.

Maybe she didn't be a good daughter. She was too unsuccessful to be a daughter. That's why Mother Shen wanted to transport her through money many times, regardless of her thoughts or life and death.

Mother Shen heard she said that she would inform her. She was originally upset because of her tone, and now the smoke disappeared, she nodded: "Hey, then you remember to inform me, I will go back and wait for the news, don't be too late Ha. You also know that the debt collectors are terrible, and you may not see me in a few days."

Ana didn't speak, only was looking at her with cold eyes.

After a while, Mother Shen seemed to feel embarrassed, and she could only cough lightly: "Then I will go back first. By the way, it's boring for you to be here alone, let Yueyue stay with you here. "

Ana wanted to say no, but when her eyes touched Erika Shen, she felt a little softhearted.

Anyway, it was the Shen's who treated her like that, and it had nothing to do with her.

Erika Shen never knew that she was not her biological sister.

She is really self-willed as her sister.

Thinking of this, Ana didn't speak any more. After Shen's mother left, Erika Shen stood alone. She looked at Ana for a while, and suddenly said, "You don't like me, why do you want me to stay?"

Hearing that, Ana sighed inexplicably: “Yueyue, I ask you, I am not the biological daughter of the Shen family. Did you know it since you were a child?”

Erika Shen’s eyes widened, “How is this possible? They are also hiding from me, I only learned about this a few days ago, huh!” At this point, Erika Shen’s heart became unbalanced, “I am really angry. Now, obviously you are the eldest daughter, but they took you back to raise them, how much more money have to be spent on you these years, and... Why is that person not me?”

The latter words were whispered by her. Ana didn’t hear it really, but she could vaguely hear her saying that she was so angry, she walked towards Erika Shen with some helplessness.

“I know you really treat me as your sister these years, but they are different. They always know that I am not my own, so... always let me do many things for you.”

“Of course I know that my sister is unbalanced, but... as a sister, I have to take care of my sister, even if it is the real one!”

“Yueyue, in this world...nothing is inevitable, including my relatives, I treat you well...not because I am a sister, but because I treat you as my sister, so I am willing to accommodate you , Tolerate you, not that I think I have to do this, can you understand what I mean?”

Chapter 344

“Hmph, don’t tell me these great principles, they are not all the same.”

After Erika Shen turned around and looked around, her heart was still very unbalanced: “Anyway, I understand what you mean, that is because my sister has wronged you. Now that you live in such a big hotel, you have become a Han family member. Miss Qianjin, you won't need to accommodate sisters like me in the future, so happy."

Ana didn't know how to explain it to her, and it was precisely because she had been with her for so many years that she knew that Erika Shen couldn't listen to her words at all, and she didn't go on.

"Then do what you think, I'm still tired, I want to go to sleep for a while."

After speaking, Ana went directly into the room.

Erika Shen snorted and stood still.

When Ana went to sleep, Erika Shen looked at this huge hotel room, feeling terribly uncomfortable, but suddenly thought of something, and quickly took out her phone and went to the bathroom to take a selfie.

After taking the selfie, she found that the photo was not bad, so she took it in every corner of the hotel and uploaded it to Moments.

Erika Shen has been relatively vain since she was a child, and has always wanted to compare with others.

Now the environment of the hotel is good, so she took a few selfies and sent it to the circle of friends, hoping to be sought after by her friends.

Unexpectedly, not long after she posted the photo, many people gave her a thumbs up.

Erika Shen held the mobile phone in her heart and lost most of her anger.

After Ana Shen woke up, Erika Shen was no longer in the hotel room. She took out her mobile phone and swiped the message, and saw the WeChat she sent to her, saying that her friend had asked her, so she left first.

Ana put down the phone to wash.

She has lived here for a long time and can't go on like this anymore. She has to cheer up again. She is going to find a job, and... Although Walter gave her the divorce contract, the two have not yet applied for the divorce certificate. .

So she had to go to Walter to get a divorce certificate.

It's better to hit the sun than to choose a day, just today.

Ana changed her clothes and put on makeup for herself.

She usually uses pinkish lipsticks, but today she has turned them into red.

Looking at herself in the mirror, Ana felt that she had some aura.

No idea...

She didn't want Walter to see her embarrassed look, and she didn't want Walter to feel that he would live a miserable life without herself, or be particularly sad for him.

Although she is really sad, but...she must hide them.

Thinking of this, Ana pursed her lips and slowly raised a faint smile toward the mirror.

Come on, Ana.

Not long after walking out, someone greeted me immediately: “Ms. Shen is going out?”

Hearing, Ana had a meal, “You are...”

“We were sent by Mr. Victor to guard Ms. Shen’s safety. Will Ms. Shen go out? Shall we call you the driver?”

Ana was a little surprised, but still shook her head: “No need, I can go there by myself.”

“its okay, Miss Shen, the driver has been around for 24 hours and is on standby at any time.”

When he said this, Ana was embarrassed, but she still kept an eye on the man, staring suspiciously at the man: “Mr. Victor really asked you to guard here?”

The man smiled faintly when he heard the words: “Miss Shen, don’t worry, we are really the people sent by Mr. Victor, and we are not malicious. The driver who is on standby for Ms. Shen is also the one Ms. Shen has seen before.”

The one she met?

“Did you bring me to the hotel before?”

“Yes.”

“Then... well, trouble you.” Ana nodded comfortably.

Don’t blame her, she is really a woman away from home and living alone in a hotel. What if she is targeted during this time? After the other party said so, Ana was relieved.

When she got downstairs, she saw the driver she saw five days ago.

“Miss Shen.” The driver treated her respectfully, and Ana also nodded at him.

“I will pick up Miss Shen from now on.”

Ana asked after getting in the car: “I don’t know...how to call you?”

“If the lady doesn’t dislike it, just call me Uncle Nan.”

“Okay, thank you Uncle Nan, I’m going to the Yeshi Group.”

When he heard the Yeshi Group, Uncle Nan was a little startled, “Miss is going to the Yeshi Group?”

“Any questions?”

“No, let’s go now.”

After arriving downstairs in the Yeshi Group, Ana directly opened the door and got off the car. Before getting off the car, she said to Uncle Nan: “Uncle Nan, wait for me here for a while, and I will return it later.”

“it is good.”

After Ana got out of the car, she entered the gate of the Yeshi Group, because she hadn’t appeared in the company for a long time, and she was dressed differently today, so when she walked to the door, she attracted a lot of other people’s attention.

Ana wanted to go directly upstairs to find Walter.

But she don't want to be stopped by security as soon as she walked to the door.

"Miss Shen."

Ana's eyes fell on the two security guards' faces: "You know me?"

Anbao nodded, and then said: "Assistant Xiao ordered, you will no longer be an employee of the Yeshi Group in the future, so you can't go in anymore."

Hearing, Ana paused, and bitterness surged into her heart.

Because she came to the company to find him that day, does he even restrict her access now?

Heh, Walter... You are really unfeeling.

Thinking of this, Ana swallowed the bitterness in her heart. She didn't forget the purpose of coming here today, so she said coldly: "You don't need to go in. Then please help me inform Assistant Xiao and say that I have something to find. He talked."

"This..." The two security guards glanced at each other hesitantly.

Ana continued: "I didn't find your nightclub. I just found Assistant Xiao. Can't it? I want to talk to him about important things, so I won't embarrass you."

"Then... well, wait for us."

"Ok."

Ana turned around and stood quietly waiting at the door.

There was an argument coming from behind.

“Wow, why does she dare to come? People have ordered her not to come, why is she so shameless?”

“What am I talking about? I said before that she would get tired of playing one day, right? Look, this day comes really fast.” Qiangwei came over surrounded by a few people, mocking Ana loudly.

Ana lowered her eyes and clenched her hands into fists.

Ana, don't forget the purpose of your coming today, you are here to go through the divorce procedures with Walter, not to listen to these people's irresponsible remarks.

So hold back and ignore those people.

After she finishes the divorce procedures, she will leave here forever and ever, and will never appear in front of Walter again.

“Hey, do you want to be shameless, what about you, you are no longer an employee of Ye's, so don't come here to get the eyes of others?”

Ana ignored the people, so the person behind actually came forward and pushed her.

She didn't expect it, and leaped forward.

Chapter 345

Ana really didn't expect that when she was about to fall forward, fortunately, she grabbed the handrail next to her and didn't fall completely.

After standing still, Ana heard crazy laughter from behind.

“Hahaha, look at how embarrassed she is, I tell you, this kind of abandoned woman is just like her, it’s really ugly to me.”

Ana took a deep breath and turned around after standing still.

Qiangwei put her hands around her chest, glancing at her proudly: “What? You are not convinced?”

Ana looked at her for a long time, then suddenly took out her mobile phone to make a call.

“Do you want to move the rescuer? Don’t forget that you are now an abandoned woman. What other rescuers can you move? Heh...” Qiangwei’s lips wore a mocking smile.

But soon, the smile on her lips disappeared after hearing Ana speak.

“Hello, 110? This is the gate of Beich Yeshe Group. I want to report the crime.”

Qiangwei’s face changed drastically, report? What is she going to report?

“Suspected of homicide, yes. I’m pregnant. That woman wants to murder the child in my stomach. Well, I read the address to you. Please come and rescue me immediately.”

When she said she was pregnant, Qiangwei’s face suddenly became difficult to look.

Is it possible that she is pregnant with Walter’s child? So she is here today...?

After hanging up the phone, Ana Shen put away the phone and looked at Qiangwei coldly.

Qiangwei's face was a little pale, and she bit her lip and asked her: "I'm pregnant? You lie? You also said that I was suspected of murder. When did I kill you?"

"Oh, you didn't kill me, but you pushed me just now. If it wasn't for me to control it, it would be your fault if my child had any problems after I fell!"

Rose:"..."

The several girls who were surrounded by Qiangwei also obviously heard what Ana just said.

"She really called the police, then will we be implicated in it?"

"It shouldn't be our business, right? It was Qiangwei who pushed her, and she was looking for Qiangwei as well. It has nothing to do with us."

So a few people quietly moved away from Qiangwei, but how could Qiangwei not find it? She turned her head and stared at them angrily and said: "What are you doing? Can you not see this woman pretending to be? How could she be pregnant? It's just cheating you!"

"Do you know whether I am pregnant or not? Do you send someone to follow me 24 hours a day? That's why you feel that you know everything about me?"

"Who followed you? It's up to you?"

Ana smiled coldly: "Since you didn't follow me, how do you know if I am pregnant or not? Okay, I don't bother to tell you these things. Anyway, I will wait for the police to come. You can explain to the police."

When the others heard her letting go, they backed away in a panic.

“She really called the police, so let’s go. Sooner or later we will be implicated in staying here.”

“Let’s go, let’s go, Qiangwei herself has a grudge against her, why do she want to pull us? We have no grievances with her.”

So a group of people left, and Qiangwei was the only one left in the blink of an eye.

Isolated and helpless, Qiangwei lost the courage to confront Ana in an instant, and yelled in anger: “What a bunch of cowards! Don’t think that I am afraid of you when you call the police. Let’s watch.”

After Qiangwei finished speaking harshly, she turned around and fled.

Ana looked at this scene, reluctantly reached out and wiped her brows, and then she glanced at her mobile phone. In fact, she hadn’t made a call just now, just scared them.

Fortunately, she scared her away, otherwise she kept staying here and caused her trouble.

Ana had no thoughts to deal with them.

I don’t know how long after waiting, the security team finally came back.

Phillip followed, and Phillip walked over immediately when he saw her.

“Second young lady.”

Hearing this name, the pupils in Ana's eyes shrank suddenly. After a while, she calmed down and said softly, "Phillip, I am no longer the second youngest of the Ye Family. You can call my name in the future."

Hearing, Phillip was dumb for a while before he said: "Second young lady, Mr. Walter is just still in anger, and the decisions he is making now are irrational."

"Irrational?" Ana raised her lips and smiled faintly: "Do you really think like this? You should know better than me what kind of person Walter is. He must be able to make this kind of decision. Well thought out, now that the contract has been handed over to me, it means there will be no turning back."

"That..."

"I agree to the divorce." Ana pursed her red lips, then after thinking about it, and then said: "So I didn't come to pester him today, can you let me meet him?"

Phillip: "This... I have to ask Mr. Walter."

"Okay, I'll wait for you."

Phillip went back to ask Walter. Phillip's speed was much faster than those of the two security guards. He returned within a few minutes after going there. The expression on his face was a little worried, "Let's go, five minutes later in the night. There will be a meeting in the future. Before that, Mr. Walter promised to see you, and you will say what you want to say soon."

After talking about Phillip, he stepped forward and pulled her inside. Ana, who could barely keep up with him, felt even bitterer?

Do you only give her five minutes?

Counting the time, it is estimated that it is less than three minutes.

But it's okay, anyway, whether it's a few minutes or a few hours, she just has to make it clear.

When he arrived at the office upstairs, Phillip stood directly at the door: "Mr. Walter is in there. There are still three minutes before the meeting. The second youngest grandma, please go in."

Ana stepped forward and opened the door.

Walter was sitting in a wheelchair, and his position at this time was in front of the floor-to-ceiling window. He turned his back to her, looking at him as if he was looking at the scene under the floor-to-ceiling window.

After thinking about it, Ana took a step forward and walked over.

"I have something to tell you."

Walter didn't even turn his head, the aura from his body was cold.

He did not answer her words, and after a while he said impatiently: "If you have something to say, I am very busy."

Ana: "...Are you so impatient? It's just three minutes."

The wheelchair turned, Walter faced her, and the expression on his face was extremely cold.

"Since you know it is three minutes, don't talk nonsense."

After speaking, he raised his hand and glanced at the time, and reminded her coldly: "You still have two and a half minutes, if you have nothing to say, just go away now."

“Walter, you don’t have to ask me to go away in such a hurry. After I finish speaking, I have done everything I need to do. You don’t need to say that I will leave here by myself.”

Walter stared at her tightly.

After a few days, she was a little different, and... She also put on a red lipstick, it seemed... actually a little aura.

What does she want to say to him? Walter frowned and said nothing.

Chapter 346

“Don’t you want a divorce?” Ana took a deep breath, and finally said the words that had been pressing in her heart: “Then go to the Civil Affairs Bureau to complete the divorce procedures.”

After saying these words, Ana didn’t care about the expression on Walter’s face. She only felt that after she said these words, the big rock that had been pressing in her heart had disappeared.

Perhaps, she also wanted a divorce in her heart.

After all, two people who can’t trust each other are always together and jealous of each other, and they will not be happy for the rest of their lives.

Separation is the best result between them.

Thinking of this, Ana raised her head again and bit her lower lip: “Go to the Civil Affairs Bureau, Walter, after completing the formalities, I won’t pester you again.”

As soon as he raised his head, Ana was stunned to find that Walter did not know when he had arrived in front of her, and suddenly took his hand to pinch her chin.

“Go through the divorce procedures?” Walter narrowed his eyes dangerously and stared at her close at hand. When he pinched her chin, he could still vaguely touch the layer of powder on it.

The feel of the powder made Walter frown his brows unhappily. In the past, when he pinched her face, he could touch her white and soft cheeks, which were like water, but now...all she touched was powder.

This makes him very unhappy, so why do you want to be like this?

“Yes.” The warmth coming from his fingertips made Ana Shen stunned for a moment, but she reacted quickly, stretched out her hand to hold the cuffs of Walter’s sleeves, and then used some strength to slowly pull him ‘S hand opened, and said quietly: “I’m afraid I’m going to disappoint you. I’m afraid your meeting today won’t be completed, so go through the divorce procedures now.”

“you can’t wait to get rid of me? So you can fly with your little lover?”

Walter curled his lips ironically, the cold color in his eyes was extremely cold.

He didn’t answer, Walter kept staring at her.

After a while, the sound of knocking on the door sounded outside, and Phillip reminded: “Young night, the meeting is about to begin.”

Walter came back to his senses and said coldly: “If you want to go through the formalities, you can, but I don’t have time now. You go out and wait.”

After speaking, Walter rolled his wheelchair and walked out.

Without even thinking about it, Ana turned to catch up with him, “About how long to wait, there must be a time limit?”

“Oh, if I haven’t been to work for a few days, I forgot how long the meeting of the Yeshi Group will last? Or do you remember if you have to go in and experience it again?”

Hearing, Ana’s steps suddenly stood in place.

Once this meeting started, it would take at least two hours to wait. She thought for a while: “Should we go through the divorce procedures after you finish the meeting?”

He did not answer, his body still drifting out.

“Well, I’ll go to the lounge and wait for you for two hours.”

After that, Ana walked directly in the direction of the lounge. Walter didn’t say yes. Seeing her stepping fast, the thin figure disappeared from his sight, Walter frowned slightly. .

This woman... just disappeared a few days later, how did she feel like she was a different person.

“Sao Ye, the meeting is about to begin.” Phillip stepped forward to remind.

“I know.” Walter responded impatiently, and glanced at him coldly.

In the lounge

Ana waited alone.

Because Walter didn't have a secretary, and Phillip went to the meeting room again, so she stayed in the lounge for a long time and no one came to care about her. Fortunately, Ana is very familiar with it. Anyway, the meeting will take more than two hours. She simply got up and went to the pantry to make green tea for herself, and then read the magazine.

If you just wait, one hour is enough to make people wait hard to wait, let alone two hours.

Time passed by minute by minute, and Ana felt that she had consumed enough time, but when she looked at the time on the phone, she realized that only half an hour had passed.

There is still an hour and a half...

Ana rubbed her eyes and looked at the sofa opposite. Would you like to take a nap here?

Anyway, she got up early today and is a little sleepy now.

After making up her mind, Ana sat on the sofa, holding her bag in her hand, leaning against it and closing her eyes.

Soon she fell asleep, and the time to sleep was really good.

When she opened her eyes, she found that two hours had already come.

Ana Shen got up happily. Unexpectedly, the time was just right, so she went to Walter now.

As soon as he walked out of the lounge, she happened to meet Phillip who was coming over, and Ana Shen directly greeted him.

“Phillip, where is Walter? Has he finished the meeting?”

Phillip was here to look for her, but now he looked a little embarrassed when he saw her. He scratched his head and nodded: “It will be over, but...”

“Then I will go find him.”

“Miss grandma, wait a minute.”

Phillip grabbed the corner of her clothes and pulled her back with a pull.

Ana turned her head, looking at him with an unclear expression.

“What happened?”

“Mr. Walter... he finished the meeting, but he just went out again.”

“Out? What does it mean to go out?”

Phillip struggled for a while before saying: “It’s just that when Mr. Walter finished the meeting, he received a call. Now he has something to do, so...”

“So he left me here?”

Ana suddenly felt very ridiculous. It turned out that even at this point, he... still didn’t put her in his eyes and didn’t respect her at all.

“My grandmother... Mr. Walter didn’t leave you on purpose. It was just the sudden situation that Mr. Walter didn’t expect.”

“What is so important?” Ana asked suddenly.

Phillip’s eyes suddenly dodged, “This...”

“It’s so important that you have to give up even such a good opportunity to get rid of me?” Ana Shen laughed to herself, and then said: “You give me the address, I will find him myself, I have to see, when he will go with me? The Civil Affairs Bureau handles divorce procedures.”

Listening here, Phillip’s face changed suddenly and stopped her from saying, “Young lady, maybe you can wait here, or I will send you back today and wait a few days...”

“No need. Phillip, you heard that. He and I will be divorced soon. From now on, I will no longer be Yejia’s young grandmother. Don’t call me young grandmother anymore. If this title is heard, it will be a joke. Mine.”

“Young grandma... how can you say that you and Mr. Walter haven’t divorced yet, and maybe you will get a divorce...”

“Don’t explain it for him anymore. Even if he is not divorced now, I will leave. Really Phillip, in the future... you just call my name. My name is Ana. If you don’t want to be called by your name, you can just ask me to feed it...In short, you just can’t call me young grandma.”

Phillip: “Young grandma...”

“Also called?”

“Well, then I will stop calling.”

“Give me the address, and I will find him.”

“Young Master Ye really has something to go out, how about you go back?”

Chapter 347

“He is busy with his, I am busy with mine, it does not affect.”

But no matter what she said, Phillip was unwilling to give her the address.

In the end, Ana was really helpless, “You don’t want to say so? Well, I will go first.”

After that, Ana left the Ye Family Group directly. Before leaving, she turned to Phillip and said, “Since he is so busy, then I...I won’t come to him again. As for the divorce procedures, I will find someone to handle it.”

“Shen, Ana!” Phillip was anxious when he heard it, and quickly stepped forward to stop her from going: “I’ll take you there, but... you will not want to go even more after you go.”

But the words she just said made Phillip a little flustered. If Ana really didn’t come to Walter, how could they solve the misunderstanding in the future?

Therefore, Phillip finally decided to take Ana to find him.

“Well, I’ll trouble you.”

After that, Phillip drove in front and led the way, and Ana followed Nan Shu’s car.

When driving all the way, Phillip got out of the car after arriving at the destination, then walked around to her car and knocked on the window.

Ana didn’t know why, so he dropped the car window.

“What’s wrong? Is it here?”

She looked at the hospital door in front of her, always feeling that this place was a bit familiar, she... seemed to have been here.

“That’s it. Young grandma will wait here for a while. I will go in and talk to Mr. Walter and let him come out.”h

“Okay, trouble you.”

Ana didn’t think much, nodded directly.

So Phillip turned around and left, and the pace was still in a hurry. Ana sat in the car and looked at the door of the hospital. She became more familiar as she looked at it. After that, her mind was bright, and she suddenly remembered...this place is not Karla Han’s suicide. Is the hospital to be sent to?

She didn’t recognize it for the first time, and she didn’t know if her brain was flooded or something.

Karla Han lived in this hospital, and Phillip brought her here again, saying to come to Walter.

Isn’t that...

The urgent thing Walter said was that he came here to see Karla Han?

After having this guess in her heart, Ana instantly felt like her whole body was falling into an ice cave. She wanted to find him to get a divorce, but she didn’t expect... He left her for Karla Han and didn’t even have the chance to get rid of her.

Ana actually chased to the hospital foolishly.

Ana pursed her red lips, looked away from the window, and suddenly said, "Uncle Nan, wait for me here. I'll come in and have a look."

Uncle Nan noticed that her emotions were different, but he nodded, "Good lady."

Ana opened the door and got out of the car, and walked towards Karla Han's ward along the direction he remembered.

Every step she took, she felt her heart beating a bit faster.

She doesn't know what she is like now, why is she still so nervous after making a decision?

Finally, Ana walked to Karla Han's ward.

Sure enough, she saw the scene inside.

Walter was indeed inside, and Karla Han was saying something while pulling his arm, tears streaming down her eyes.

And Phillip, who came in to find Walter, stood by helplessly, the expression on his face was very impatient, and Walter's back was facing her, and he could not see the expression on his face at all.

He really came to see her.

The light in Ana's eyes gradually disappeared and was replaced by the Dark News, with no trace of light being found.

Karla Han said something, suddenly plunged into Walter's arms.

Seeing this scene, Ana couldn't stand it anymore, and suddenly turned around and leaned against the cold wall.

Forget it, don't read it anymore.

Why should she ask for abuse? Obviously, he has already decided to divorce, so he can be with whomever he wants to be with. She can't control it.

Thinking of this, Ana slowly closed her eyes.

After a long time, she opened her eyes again, and her eyes were already black.

She took a step back and walked back.

Uncle Nan waited outside for a while, and he was a little worried, so he directly took out his cell phone and called Victor Han to talk about the incident, and then hung up the phone.

After waiting for a while, Uncle Nan still felt uneasy. When he wanted to get off the car and have a look, he saw Ana coming back.

He quickly got out of the car and opened the door, "Miss, you are back."

Ana opened the car door and sat in, saying, "Uncle Nan, I have kept you waiting."

Uncle Nan also sat in, "No, no, then shall we continue to wait?"

Ana leaned on the back seat, closed her eyes, and shook her head: "Don't wait, go back."

The breath on her body was a bit heavier than before getting off the car, which made people feel very gloomy and uncomfortable.

Although he does not know what happened inside, Uncle Nan didn't feel embarrassed to ask. He obeyed her order and drove the car away from here.

"Miss, are you going back to the hotel next?"

"Yeah." Ana nodded.

Since Walter only had Karla Han in his heart, she didn't need to look for him again.

As for the divorce procedures, maybe... she has to ask someone else.

Just thinking about it, the phone dinged, and information came in.

Ana Shen glanced at it. Victor Han sent her WeChat.

{where are you? }

Ana took a look and thought about asking him.

{On the way back to the hotel. }

After speaking, Ana thought for a while, and just wanted to ask him if the other party would have time to meet, but the other party responded by texting.

{I'm going to the hotel now, I will meet later. }

Hearing that he said he was going to the hotel, Ana was stunned for a moment, and then replied okay, and then she put away the phone.

After a while, Ana couldn't help asking: "Uncle Nan, have you called Mr. Victor?"

Hearing, Uncle Nan twitched the corners of his mouth in embarrassment, and nodded in embarrassment to admit: "Yes, I think you went in for a long time and didn't come out, so I was a little worried. I'm sorry, next time..."

"It's okay, Uncle Nan, thank you, you did a good job." Ana smiled and closed her eyes again: "It's just that I'm a little tired now, I want to sleep for a while."

"Okay, miss you sleep, I can wake you up when I arrive at the hotel later."

"Thank you."

Ana closed her eyes and went to sleep. In fact, she was very confused, she didn't feel sleepy at all, but she didn't want to continue anymore, maybe she could avoid some problems with her eyes closed.

When the car arrived at the hotel later, Ana opened her eyes again.

"Thank you, Uncle Nan, I'm here."

"Are you awake? I still want to call you."

"No thanks."

Ana opened the car door and walked directly upstairs after getting out of the car.

When she walked to the door of hotel room, she happened to see Victor Han standing there waiting.

Seeing Victor Han from a distance, Ana Shen's steps stopped for a while before walking in front of him.

"Mr. Victor..."

"Back?" Victor Han looked at her with a smile, and subconsciously reached out to touch her head. Ana was taken aback. Before her brain could respond, she subconsciously avoided Victor Han's. Touch.

Victor Han's hand froze in mid-air, then he retracted it and smiled carelessly.

Chapter 348

Victor Han was fine, but Ana felt a little embarrassed.

He took out her room card and swiped the door, then pushed in.

"Come in."

Victor Han walked in carrying the bag and followed Ana inside.

"Uncle Nan told me everything."

Ana put the bag in her hand on the table and nodded: "Well, since you have investigated me, you must know my past."

Victor Han was silent, but the expression on his face already showed that he knew everything well.

Knowing this is better than he doesn't know.

Lest Ana have to tell him again when she asks him for help. Now that Victor Han knows things more clearly than she wants to say, then things will be much easier.

“Well, can I ask you to do me a favor?”

Hearing, Victor Han lifted his lips and nodded with a smile: “Of course, but...”

But? Ana was a little stunned, is it still possible?

“Without relatives and no reason, I can’t help you. Before doing this for you, you have to tell me, do you agree that we are a son and daughter of the Han family?”

Ana: “...”

Unexpectedly, he was referring to this.

Ana could not speak for a while.

“Mr. Victor, I...”

“Also called Mr. Victor?” Victor Han smiled slightly and looked at her tenderly.

Ever since she met Victor Han, Ana has always felt that although Victor Han is calm, he is also an existence that makes people feel powerful and inaccessible. He has no extra expressions on his face for a lot of time, even with relatives of this kind of person. He also belongs to the kind of people who don’t recognize the six relatives for justice.

Unexpectedly, he could show such a gentle smile to her.

Is this... the power of family affection?

Ana looked at Victor Han for a while and didn't know how to react. Later... she didn't know what was wrong with herself, as if she was bewitched by family affection, she actually called out: "Brother..."

However, with just one sound, Ana's words froze on her lips, and she quickly reached out her hand to cover her mouth, and didn't call any further.

However, just this sound was enough for Victor Han.

He stretched out his hand again, Ana Shen wanted to hide, but for some reason she still stood still, letting Victor Han's palm fall on her head.

Victor Han gently rubbed the back of her head, smiling brightly.

"It's pretty much the same. Remember, the entire Han family will be my backing in the future. As long as you need it, brother... is always there. You will be Victor Han's younger sister from now on, you know?"

What's the matter with the tone of talking to a child, Ana blinked her eyes and nodded blankly.

"How do you want to deal with your matter?" Victor Han asked about her and Walter's affairs.

"I want to go through the divorce proceedings with him, but... I don't want to see him now."

"Yes, I will let people start to do it." Victor Han nodded, his younger sister's request, he would definitely not refuse the brother.

Is it that simple? Ana thought he would feel embarrassed, but she didn't expect that he would agree so quickly.

Ana thought for a while, and then said, “Can I... leave this city?”

“Because of him, you don’t want to stay here anymore?”

Although a little embarrassed, Ana still admitted: “I don’t want to see him again, let alone stay in this city with him, I...”

“No problem, our Han family also has an industry abroad. We can send you abroad, depending on whether you want it?”

Going abroad? Ana Shen never thought about this problem. She only thought about leaving the city, but never thought that Victor Han would directly say let her go abroad.

“After you go abroad, you can go to study. You will have better chances in the future. My Victor Han’s sister... is naturally excellent, instead of being restricted by some men, you can also meet better people in the future.”

“As for Walter, I will handle it for you, if you want...”

“I am willing!” Ana nodded directly, bit her lower lip forcefully, staring at Victor Han with wide eyes: “I want to leave today!”

Now it was Victor Han’s turn to froze, he looked at her helplessly, and finally agreed.

“Okay, I will ask Su Jiu to prepare for you. You go and clean up first and see if you have anything to bring. I will return to the company first.”

After Victor Han left, Ana went to the house to pack up things.

Then when she was packing her things, she realized that she had nothing to clean up. Before going to Yejia, she had nothing to her own. After going to Yejia... a lot of her things were given to her by Walter.

Now she realized that her past 20 years has seemed like a big dream.

Nothing is left.

Ana felt that it was really ridiculous that she lived like this, so she didn't tidy up, sitting quietly on the bed looking at the scenery outside the window.

Until the afternoon, Su Jiu came to the hotel to pick her up.

"Ms. Shen, it was Mr. Victor who asked me to pick you up. I have already booked the ticket for you. It is an eight o'clock in the evening. Do you have a problem?"

"No." Ana shook her head: "That's good, thank you."

Su Jiu looked at her, although he didn't know whether to say it or not, but finally couldn't help but ask: "Ms. Shen and your friends and relatives in China have been confessed? Do you really want to leave? After leaving...no Regret it?"

Relatives and friends in China?

The first thing Ana thought of was Jessica. If she left, Jessica would definitely miss her.

And according to her temperament, it is estimated that she will rush over to tell her not to leave.

Forget it, let's tell her later.

As for the others...

“I have nothing to notify, can the Shen family trouble Secretary Su?”

Secretary Su froze for a moment, and then agreed: “This is of course possible. As long as Miss Shen needs it, I can do it with Su Jiu.”

“Then, let’s go.”

Ana picked up her bag and got up.

Su Jiu was stunned: “Ms. Shen didn’t have anything to bring? Just left?”

“No, I don’t have anything to bring, just a few sets of clothes, that’s it.”

In the end, Su Jiu took her directly to the airport, and it was already over five o’clock when she arrived at the airport.

“There is still waiting time. President Han is going to a meeting. He will arrive at the airport in about half an hour. He will come to see Miss Shen.”

“it is good.”

So the two waited at the airport for half an hour, and Victor Han finally arrived late.

He probably rushed over here, Victor Han looked a little tired, he gestured to Su Jiu, and Su Jiu took out the ticket and pass from her bag.

“this is...”

Ana took it and saw that it was her own photo printed on it, but his name was not Ana Shen, and even the date of birth and residential address had changed.

When Ana almost thought that he had taken it wrong, he heard Victor Han's steady voice sound above his head.

"Stella."

She raised her head in amazement.

"When you were just born, the old man gave you the name, and your surname is Han, Stella."

"Stella..." Ana rubbed herself on the photo with her fingers, is she called this name?
