

Blossoming Her Shielded Heart Chapter 11 – 20

Chapter 11

Being rubbed by his soft and strong kiss, Julia's taut body turned soft, gradually turning into a pool of water, Sarahving her at the mercy of the CEO.

Her tightly closely teeth was pried open, and his warm tongue was forced in.

It was absolutely the first time that Julia encountered such a situation. Although she was very intimate with Lola, they only kissed on the cheeks.

Julia quivered, her bare shoulder turning pink and her cheeks flushed. Her awkwardness and bashfulness were all seen by him.

Woman's born blandness and obedience pSarahsed Shawn, and Julia's light moan was more comforting.

Shawn was always right about timing. When he reSarahsed Julia, she was almost stifling to death.

The woman, who had been kissed, obviously became much more obedient. Her smart eyes were full of tears, and she looked blankly at Shawn. Her red lips were slightly swollen, her cheeks flushed with shyness, and her messy and wet hair added a bit of glamour to her.

This scene was so beautiful that the eyes of Shawn could not move.

A knock on the door broke the silence.

Shawn put Julia on the bed and tucked her in quilt before going to open the door.

Julia was stunned and hid in the quilt, with her ears ringing. What did she do just now? Actually She dared to..again...

This time, Julia could think that she was bitten by a dog. But again?

However She should feel nausea and want to vomit. Why didn't these symptoms appear again?

She even thought Mr. Shawn was good at kissing Oh, No. Julia gave herself a hard slap. He forced her. Julia, you are such an idiot. How could you come up with such an idea!

Did he force her? Julia blinked, and her answer to this question was a little blurry. Well, forget it. She felt a headache

She closed her eyes. When she was about to go to sleep, someone pulled her out of bed. To Julia's surprise, she was pulled into the arms of Shawn again.

Mr. Shawn, I don't care about your sexual behavior. I just want to have a sleep, ok? Julia put on a long face and roared in her heart. But she didn't dare to look at Shawn's face.

Julia didn't care anything else and went to sleep with her eyes closed. The kiss wit Shawn last night had made her insomnia for the whole night. Besides, because Shawn was her boss, she didn't sleep well the day before yesterday. In addition, she had been trapped in various kinds of embarrassing things these days.

No matter it was for body or mind, Julia felt that it was beyond her ability.

In fact, Julia still didn't want to admit that it was really comfortable to stay in the arms of the CEO. She didn't expect that one day she could rely on someone like this. Especially just now, under people's scornful and squinting eyes, Shawn had given her the greatest protection and support.

After a while, Julia fell asleep soundly.

Shawn's cold eyes softened as he held Julia in his arms. He wiped her hair gently.

"Oh... Lola... I am so full..." Julia lay on the leg of a big chicken and began to bite it with her mouth wide open.

What? Why was the drumstick so hard? Julia was puzzled and she rubbed her eyes. The chicken leg in front of her suddenly disappeared, and the CEO suddenly appeared in front of her. He lifted her clothes with his little finger and saw her with his black eyes. After that, he grinned and threw her into his mouth.

"Ah! Don't eat me!" With a scream, Julia suddenly sat up from the bed.

The sky outside was still bright. The sunlight poured in from the window and spread golden yellow everywhere.

Then, Julia wiped away the cold sweat from her forehead, and thought that it was just a dream, and she was indeed very frightened

However When Julia turned her head and saw another man on the bed, her heart beat fast again. She blankly pinched her thigh, and the pain from it was obviously shouting at Julia, "haha, it's true!"

It's true Mr. Shawn was really sleeping on her own bed

No, she slept on the CEO's bed At the thought of this, Julia was frozen and wondered if what she dreamed of was true? Did she really let Mr. Shawn eat her?

She looked down at her clothes and found it was just a big bath towel.

Under this strong shock, Julia's thoughts became cSarahr. She fell into the water with Mona. It was the CEO who took her here and helped her change wet clothes for her who was not inconvenient to move. Then she fell asleep here.

Someone deliberately ignored the aggressive kiss, and deliberately ignored what happened after she fell asleep

'I see. It's not a big deal. I didn't lose anything, ' she thought. Julia thought with satisfaction, and she pretended to be calm, lifted the quilt and wanted to jump out of bed.

"Watch your feet!"

Just hearing what Shawn said, a sharp pain came from Julia's foot as it touched the ground. She took a deep breath and her face turned pale.

"Well CEO I I'm going home..." Julia didn't dare to look back at him.

Two young people of the rig ht age woke up in the same bed. Even if nothing happened, they would still be embarrassed. Besides, that man was her boss. It would be terrible if she accidentally offended him.

"Get dressed." It seemed that Shawn didn't hear what Julia said. Her voice was light, but it sounded aggressive.

Hearing that, Julia's face turned red and her forehead twitched. Mr. Shawn, pSarahse don't say that intimately? Nothing happened to us yesterday!

Julia took the clothes from Shawn and sat silently on the edge of the bed. When she heard the door closing behind her, she turned her head carefully and thought that the CEO had finally left.

She breathed a sigh of relief and put on her clothes with a little stiff.

After getting dressed, Julia was still lying on the bed. First, her foot was injured and she couldn't go. Second, she didn't know where she should go.

She didn't dare to Sarahve without the order of Shawn.

It would be an easy task for Shawn to give her a hard time. And then her would be unable to escape from Shawn no matter what would happen to her.

By the way She could not escape easily now? Julia kept fiddling with her fingers and looked at the door from time to time. A lot of thoughts were going on in her mind.

Suddenly, her phone rang. Julia picked up the phone and found it was a call from Lola.

"Julia, where are you?" Asked Lola as soon as she answered the phone.

"I'm.. at my friend's home. What's wrong? " Julia thought for a while and said. It was not wrong for her to take the CEO as her friend

"PSarahse come back home as soon as possible. Your mother came here last night. She called you many times, but you didn't answer her," Said Lola.

"What!" Julia was shocked and almost jumped out of the bed again. She didn't expect her mother would come to her home?

After hanging up the phone, Julia found that there were so many missed calls on her phone. Some of them were from her mother, and the others were from Lola.

Julia thought that something was wrong, so she carefully put her foot on the ground. Her foot was a little swollen and terrible, so it seemed that she couldn't wear high heels anymore. She casually found a pair of slippers and put it on. Then she slowly walked to the door while holding the table.

When she opened the door, she was surprised to see Shawn walking towards her.

Julia quickly lowered her head, with her heart beating fast. She felt strangely guilty but she didn't do anything wrong.

"Where are you going?" When Julia was about to go back with the help of the table, she heard a cold voice from behind.

Julia stopped because of his words, turned around and said with a big smile: "I'm looking for the bathroom, hahaha..." She would not tell him that she wanted to Sarahve without a word.

"What?" "I don't believe it" was hanging on Shawn's face.

Under the pressure from Shawn's powerful eyes, Julia lowered her head. Then, Shawn said coldly: "do you still remember the standards of choosing employees of the Nelson Group?"

"Yes, I do." Julia's voice became weak. She naturally remembered that one of the standards of choosing people for the Nelson Group was honesty.

Then there was another silence. Julia laughed and said, "my mom is at my home, so I want to go back." Then she looked at Shawn seriously and said: "it's true. I didn't lie to you."

“I don’t doubt you.” The serious look on her face amused Shawn.

You have suspected me! Julia wanted to stare at him, but since he was her boss, she could only despise him in her heart.

“Let me send you back.”

When Shawn picked up the woman who was still in a daze, Julia screamed and casually grabbed the man’s tie.

When she came to her senses, Julia immediately released her hands and slightly twisted her body, trying to break away from his arms.

After all, Julia was a principled person, so how can she allow others to hug her casually? But before she determined to do that, Julia raised her head and secretly glanced at Shawn’s face.

Well, the man’s expression didn’t look good, especially when he felt that she resisted him, his face was even gloomier.

Julia was a principled and sensitive person. When she sensed that Shawn was dissatisfied with her, she immediately stopped resisting, curling up in the arms of Shawn like a docile kitten.

Tut, tut, rich people is really rich. According to Julia’s visual observation, from the bedroom door to the gate, it is about five times further than her home.

The black suits and cool bodyguards were arranged on the road from the gate to the gate of the yard. Julia used to dream to be a bodyguard, which was so cool that everyone wore a pair of sunglasses. She would have jumped off and asked the bodyguards for autographs if she were not held in Shawn.

Moreover, she hadn’t had the time to see the big house last night, so she couldn’t help looking at it a few more times. She was so excited that she almost forgot where she was.

Chapter 12

“Brother, father and mother want sister-in-law to Sarahve and have dinner with us.” Holden was walking down the cobblestone path. It seemed that Holden had already anticipated Shawn’s Sarahving.

“She is not available today.” Shawn looking down at the cute bunny.

“But...” Holden hesitated for a few seconds, looked up and frowned, “brother, you didn’t discuss with father and mother about your marriage. They seem to be a little unhappy.”

The corners of Shawn’s mouth curved into a cold smile. Obviously, they were not happy, which could be seen last night. He didn’t marry a woman arranged by them, and the woman he married could not bring any benefits to the Li family, so they were unhappy.

“I can go back by myself.” Julia thought Shawn who was in a dilemma and raised her hand.

“Let me drive you home.” Without another look at Holden, Shawn slowly walked out of the Nelson’s mansion, with Julia in his arms.

Looking at the disappearing figure of Shawn, the once gentle and cultivated Holden slightly raised the corners of his mouth in an almost invisible way. A strange smile broke his originally gentle appearance.

“Brother, where is my brother?” Zoey’s voice came from behind.

“Drive sister-in-law home.” Holden turned around and gently smiled at Zoey.

Hearing what Holden, Zoey’s excitement almost disappeared. She pouted in dispSarahsure.

“Who the hell is that woman? Why would my brother fall in love with such a woman? ” Her sweet voice was full of resentment.

“Zoey doesn’t like that woman?” Holden asked Zoey when walking.

“Yes, this woman appeared out of nowhere. I want my brother to be with me forever.” Zoey nodded her head in exasperation. She really hated Julia. She hated all the women who tried to approach Shawn.

Holden suddenly stopped. Zoey looked at him doubtfully. Seeing that Holden was staring at her. Holden said seriously, “Zoey, you are brother and sister of different mother. Don’t be so capricious in the future.”

“It’s not like that.. You know it’s not like that...” Zoey murmured.

“It is. If you want to stay here, you must remember that. ” Holden slightly bent down and touched her hair. He was gentle but tough.

After a short pause, Zoey nodded in agreement.

On the way, Julia was still in a very nervous state. She was so nervous that she had nothing to say, and found that the CEO had ignored her and she was just talking to herself.

“We are finally here!” Julia shouted with excitement as she saw the coming Zona Residences.

However, the CEO next to her rolled his eyes at her behavior. Julia was bending over the window and looking at the familiar scenery outside with great interest, not knowing what had happened.

The car stopped slowly. Julia wanted to open the door. The door at the back was a little strange and she couldn’t open it no matter how she tried.

Julia just wanted to get off the car. But thinking of the bad temper of the CEO, she got more anxious. However, the more anxious she was, the less she could open it. Cold sweat started to form on her forehead.

Suddenly, a pair of arms stretched out from her waist, and in an instant, there seemed to be a heavy mountain on her back. Julia felt that her heart was half beating and her brain was stopped for a few seconds.

Whether it was true or not, Julia felt that her neck was cold, like a cSarahr wind blowing, or like someone's lips sliding

No, it must be the wind.

Julia patted her chest while Shawn opened the door for her.

Seeing the car door open, Julia wanted to jump out, but the arm around her waist didn't seem to reSarahse her waist. Julia stayed in the place, feeling like weeping but had no tears. She put up with him again and again.

"Ask your friend to come down and help you back." Said Shawn slightly.

"I can do it myself." Julia still wanted to hold on.

"You want me to hug you upstairs?" His words made Julia give up. She took out her phone and called Lola right away.

Waiting for a few minutes, Julia felt that tens of years had passed by, and she suddenly was tens of years older.

"Julia?" Lola came late. When Julia saw her, she just wanted to hold Lola in her arms.

'I am so familiar with this place. This is my true life. As for CEO and wedding matters, just get out of here

With a polite greeting to Shawn, Lola took Julia over who had a weird look on face and carefully helped her Sarahve the car.

When she heard the sound of car engine coming from behind, Julia's straight back suddenly collapsed. She put on a long face and said to Lola, "I want to resign. I want a divorce!"

Taking a look at Julia, Lola said to Julia in a realistic tone, "let alone divorce, I believe your mother will destroy you if you resign. Don't forget that your mother made contribution to this job. What's more, it's not easy to find such a great job. "

"Hey, can you give me some fantasy?" Julia gave Lola a stare, and then sighed, "I should also go to Sarahrn painting. Look at you! you just need to paint at home, and you're making a good salary."

Look

ing at the woman who was full of regret, Lola frowned and asked, "were you in your boss' home last night?"

"What do you mean by my boss! You are my girl! " Hearing this, Julia's fighting effectiveness soared immediately.

Lola was very calm about this. She gently asked, "were you together last night?"

"No, we didn't." Julia retorted at once.

Lola nodded. It was hard to tell whether she believed it or not. Julia looked at her for a while and suddenly said, "I saw Mona last night. But I didn't see her brother."

While they were talking, they had reached the door of the suite. Meanwhile, Lola and Julia stopped at it in a tacit understanding.

“Did you quarrel with each other?” Although Lola didn’t raise her head, she asked with certainty.

Julia nodded gently with a complex emotion on her face. It seemed that Mona had a good relationship with the Li family. If she would have to deal with Shawn in the future, she would have to deal with Mona.

Although it was Mona’s fault, Julia still felt a little guilty about it. Moreover, why Mona couldn’t get along well with them couldn’t be explained simply with a few words.

“Don’t think too much. Let’s go.” Julia giggled and shook Lola who was in a trance.

Lola nodded and helped Julia push the door open.

“Julia, where on earth did you go last night? You should at Sarahst answer the phone if you are working in the company!” As soon as Julia’s first step into the room, she heard a woman’s loud voice.

With these words, Julia plucked up a handful of cotton wool she had prepared in advance and put them in her ear secretly, ready to accept the Able family’s rules.

Julia thought her mother didn’t have many shortcomings, and nagging was the only weakness she could complain. However, she waited for a few seconds and her mother didn’t nag at all.

“Julia, what’s wrong with your feet?” Barbara was stunned when she saw Julia’s red and swollen foot.

“I sprained my ankle on my way back.” Julia smiled.

“Oh, why don’t you be careful. Come here.” Barbara helped Julia to sit on the sofa with Lola.

Lola went into the kitchen and began to cook lunch, Sarahving the mother and the daughter chatting in the hall.

Barbara carefully observed Julia's ankle and then took the medicine box to help her apply medicine to the ankle and use the bandage to wrap the injured part.

Seeing there were a lot of grey hair on Barbara's head, Julia couldn't help feeling bitter. Mother loved being pretty. Every time there was white hair, she would ask her to pull it out. Now there were so many, she didn't know how to pull them all out.

"Mom, why do you come here suddenly?" Julia was confused.

After the bandage, Barbara rubbed her sour waist and stood up with a smile. "Naughty girl, when did you back home?"

Julia smiled sheepishly. It seemed that more than a year had passed.

"It's because you said that you found a very satisfied man, so mom come to check on him for you." Sitting next to Julia, Barbara smiled again.

Sure enough, she knew something bad would happen to her when mom came over. Julia gloomily stared at her feet.

"Ah, this pair of shoes are men's, why do you wear men's shoes? Did you sleep together last night?" Barbara suddenly noticed the men's slippers on Julia's foot and cried out in surprise.

Julia rubbed her ears and tried to explain: "Mom, you are thinking too much. I just buy it for temporary use. I deliberately chose the biggest one of them which are at the same price."

Julia even smiled at Barbara, showing off how smart she was.

However, Barbara picked up the men's slippers and looked at them carefully. After she thought over and over again, she slowly said, "don't lie to me, you didn't buy these shoes."

"....." Julia touched her forehead and thought that all people around her were so sophisticated that she couldn't deceive them.

Shawn had been in the business world for many years. It was not strange that he could see through the truth.

"Because the quality of this pair of shoes is too good. I don't believe your taste." Said Barbara indifferently, putting down the shoes.

Julia lowered her head speechlessly and wondered how she could have a mother like this

"Tell me the truth." Said Barbara smilingly, patting Julia on her head.

"It's the man I talked to you over the phone. I fell down when I went to his house, so I borrowed his shoes." Julia said honestly. She didn't lie.

The shoes were from Shawn, and she did borrow his shoes. Moreover, she really "accidentally" fell into the pool when she went to his house.

Hearing what Julia said, a big smile lit up on Barbara's face. She held Julia's face in her hands, looked around and smiled: "look at my daughter. She is so beautiful. She must marry a rich man in the future."

Julia was flustered and didn't know how to get rid of her mother's hand. She could only look at her coldly.

Noticing Julia's facial expression, Barbara patted on her head and said disappointedly, "except for being pretty, you have no advantages at all."

"....." Julia kept silent.

Chapter 13

“You can bring him here to meet me these days. I ask your aunt for help to look after the shop.” Said Barbara with a smile.

When she heard these words, Julia couldn't help shivering. She had to brought CEO to meet her mother. But how could she invite him? She might not even have the courage to mention it.

“Nothing. But he is busy. Maybe he doesn't have time recently.” Julia laughed.

However, Barbara was not going to let Julia pass the thing so easily. She frowned and said, “I will stay here and won't go back until I see him.”

Well, how old are you? Still act out with me? Julia rolled her eyes at Barbara and scratched her hair helplessly.

“Anyway, you must bring him here to see me these days.” Barbara patted Julia's head and said strictly.

“.....” Julia kept silent.

At this time, Lola brought in the meal and said with a smile, “Auntie, dinner is ready.”

“Okay.” Standing up with a smile, Barbara came over to help Lola with daily chores.

Julia were lazy to move. She sat at the table and waited for her dinner. Lola served the dishes for Julia in a considerate manner. Julia was used to Lola's service and didn't take it seriously. However, when Barbara saw her lazy daughter, she frowned again.

"Mom, enjoy yourself." Julia was very happy on the table. She said to Marry with smile while picking up the food.

She looked like she was at home. She didn't treat Lola as an outsider at all.

"Julia, you should Sarahn from Lola. Look at you! You are not like a lady at all!" Barbara couldn't help but curse Julia. With chopsticks, she hit her on the head.

Julia put her hand in her head and looked at Barbara with dissatisfaction, "in your eyes, other kids are better than me."

"Hey, how could you talk to your mother like that?" Barbara knocked on Julia again.

"Mom! Don't hit me on the head, okay? You must have hit me dumb. " Julia sat far away from her mother.

Barbara cast a sidelong look at Julia, and said: "I have to hit your head. Your brain is the most useless."

Lola, who had been watching the play, chuckled.

Julia was sadder. In her mother's eyes, she was nothing but beautiful.

They had a good time during the meal.

After dinner, Barbara asked Julia to help Lola.

Julia went into the kitchen as her mother told her to, but her mother didn't know that during the period she lived with Lola, Julia didn't even touch the sink or wash water, how could she do housework

"What should I do? What should I do?" Julia closed the kitchen door and walked around.

Without any emotion on her face, Lola went on with her housework, totally ignoring the woman who was so depressed that she wanted to hit the wall.

"Ah! By the way, Lola, how about you dress like a man and cheat my mom?" Julia patted her own thigh and finally came up with a good idea.

But when she looked at Lola's figure, she couldn't help but give up her idea.

Because Lola's figure was very good, no matter how she tried to cover up her female characteristics, and no matter how she dressed, she could not be as elegant as men.

Maybe what her mother said was right. Her brain was worthless. What's more, Julia was depressed for the whole night holding her valueless head. Barbara was tired after the travel and fell asleep soon. Julia had no chance to persuade her mother.

The next morning, when Julia got up, her mother had already made breakfast for her.

Her mother was really good at cooking. Julia sat at the table happily thinking about that the food cooked by Lola was also first-class. She believed that it was because she lived in these hard-working and virtuous people that she did not know how to do housework.

"Where is Lola? Is she still sleep?" Asked Barbara confusedly.

“She is a painter and she goes to bed very late every night, so she usually gets up very late in the morning.” Said Julia with a big smile on her face.

“Really? So you make breakfast for yourself every day? ” Barbara obviously didn’t believe it.

“I have breakfast in the company.” Julia touched her head with embarrassment.

Barbara sat down, sighed helplessly and said, “Whoever married you would be so unlucky because you didn’t even do any housework.”

Though she said so, Barbara still pushed all the nutritious food in front of Julia, smiling at her.

In fact, in their parents’ eyes, their children were the best, but they naturally wouldn’t say “good” directly.

After finishing breakfast, Julia hurried to work. She didn’t stay in that small office today. Thinking that she had changed a new job, she still felt it was quite challenging. But her excitement disappeared again when she thought of working with Shawn for eight hours a day.

Moreover, she had the mission to bring the CEO to his mother.

The original novel and ex citement on the way had passed a lot of twists and turns. When she came to the company, she had become indifferent and depressed “Julia, here!” As soon as she arrived at the door of the company, she saw Evena waving vigorously and screamed excitedly.

The shouting attracted many people's attention. Julia put her hand on her forehead. Evena, you look worse than me. She walked slowly towards Evena, forced a smile and asked, "what's wrong?"

"I heard that you weren't fired yesterday and got promoted. Is that true? I heard that you are now the president's secretary. Is that true? Is the boss handsome or not? Just like the magazine, right? Just same with the rumors, right? How tall is he? What are the sizes? And, does he really have eight pack abs? "

Seeing that Evena kept talking like tanks, Julia didn't know what to say

"Evena, calm down. It's almost time to go to work. Can I talk to you later?" Julia broke the chattering Evena, looked at her watch and said seriously.

Evena wanted to know more about Shawn, but she couldn't give up his money. She nodded and left with Julia reluctantly.

After pacifying Evena, Julia walked towards her office.

In fact, the CEO did not work here. He just had to do some investigation and evaluation in the branch recently, so he let her be the temporary secretary. John said that Shawn would return to headquarters after handling things, and she still stayed in the branch.

"We are going to be late in five minutes." John stood at the door of the office and looked at Julia who was limping towards him. He took a look at his watch and reminded her.

"Has the CEO come yet?" Julia didn't care about anything else and asked while walking.

"You are so lucky. He hasn't come yet. CSarahn up the desk first, and then go through the documents that need to be turned in. Later, send them to the CEO's office," said John with a smile

Hearing that, Julia was relieved. She put down her bag and cSarahned up the table quickly.

There were only two people in the office after John checked all the documents Julia had collected. Looking at Julia who was carefully working, her sexy and seductive look came to his mind. He paused for half a second.

“Is your foot feeling better?” Asked John.

“It’s okay. It’s not as serious as you think.” She wiped the table carefully.

Yes, it was a wooden desk. It felt so good to touch.

Julia felt proud when she touched her fragrant wood.

“Hey, what’s the relationship between you and Shawn?” Looking at Julia who looked like an idiot, John couldn’t help gossiping.

“Gossip? Go back to your work.” Julia really didn’t want to mention this in front of other people. She rolled her eyes at John and then went on with other things.

John was stunned by Julia’s words. Although he was not the CEO, he was the top assistant of the president. If he were in ancient times, he would still be the most popular assistant of the emperor. He had never seen anyone who was rude to him.

And he did not forget that when he first saw this girl, she raised her head high, and looked at Shawn with confidence as she said she was an employee of the company.

It was the style of her doing things.

“Hey, you are a man, right?” Julia suddenly remembered something, looked back at John and asked.

Hearing what she said, John was stunned for a moment. Then he approached her with an evil smile and said, “do you need me to prove it to you?”

Julia patted away the hand which was about to reach out to her and took a thoughtful look at John. She nodded and shook her head now and then, with a deep and weird look on his face.

At Sarahst in the eyes of John, she was weird.

“Are you free tonight?” Asked Julia.

John was stunned again, but he was not in a hurry to reply. He quietly looked at Julia, waiting for her to continue.

“Can you act a play with me? Be my boyfriend to see my mother. ” Sure enough, Julia said again.

So that’s it. John nodded his head. What she said just now really startled him. It seemed that Julia was not a playboy.

“You nodded?” Julia grinned and looked southward.

John felt uncomfortable because Julia’s scanning eyes.

However, Julia didn’t notice the discomfort of the man in front of her. She continued to stare at him and said: “well, you look good. My mother will be satisfied. After we meet, you can’t say that you are the assistant of the CEO. You must say that you are the son of the Nan financial group. You have an exaggerated background.”

Kid, are you sure you want to lie to your mother in this way? John’s mouth twitched.

“I believe that you can do it. Come on. If there is something urgent, I will protect you. You can do it at ease. ” Julia thought that John was hesitating.

She looked at him seriously and firmly. And she was about to pat him on the shoulder.

Chapter 14

“Okay. If you don’t say anything, I’ll take it as your consent. I’ll wait for you after getting off work tonight.” Julia took a deep breath and looked relaxed.

John looked at her helplessly. Throughout the time, she did not give him a chance to refute.

After tidying up the documents, Julia went back to her own office, which was next to the CEO’s office, so that the Secretary could conveniently observe the movements of the CEO.

A steady sound of footsteps came from outside. Julia raised her head and saw Shawn in suit passing by the Secretary office. She lowered her head immediately.

Her face was burning. How could she forget what happened last night

Thinking of the kiss last night, Julia couldn’t focus at all. The documents in front of her couldn’t keep from flashing the CEO’s sexy and coquettish lips in her head.

“Julia! ‘stop! What’s the use of being handsome? The more handsome, the more fickle!” Julia tapped her head heavily and warned her.

She took a deep breath and finally relieved herself.

“Shawn...” an sudden coquettish voice came from the door. Julia was startled and looked up at the door.

A coquettish woman with a snake waist followed Shawn who was in front, and extended her hand affectionately to grasp the arm of Shawn. Unfortunately, before she could reach Shawn, she had been pulled away by John forcibly. John stood in front of the woman and said politely, "Miss, if you have something to talk with the CEO, please go to the next secretary room to register."

If there was nothing wrong with Julia's eyes, the woman must be Mona, her rival in college.

"Humph!" Being stopped, Mona couldn't do anything about it. She gave a hard look at John, then turned around and walked into the next secretary office.

Seeing Mona coming over, Julia was bending over the desk and holding documents in her hands to cover her face. If possible, she didn't want to see Mona here.

However, Julia's idea was obviously too naive, as there were only a few people in the secretarial room, and her behavior immediately attracted the attention of Mona.

"Why are you here?" Mona took away the documents and looked at Julia in astonishment. Her voice was raised.

"It's none of your business!" Now that she was discovered, Julia stood up, not to be outdone, stared at Mona and said coldly.

In terms of height, Julia was much better than Mona. Now she was able to look down upon Mona like a goddess. She became more confident as well.

"You bitch! You got the promotion by your secretary job! Aren't you afraid that Nathan knows that you have reduced to such a degree?" Mona clenched her teeth with hatred. She was not as high as Julia. What she could do was to look up at her arrogantly.

Neither of them was willing to yield.

“Do I have anything to do with you? Aren’t you here for these things? Mona, don’t think too highly of yourself. It makes people feel sick to see you.” As she was speaking, Julia glanced at Mona’s clothes with a sneer and then Sarahned against the desk.

Their quarrel attracted everyone’s attention.

“You... You... If you dare to be so arrogant, I will expose everything of you that happened in Ventrusburg University!” Annoyed, Mona grabbed her dress.

“What? You think I don’t have any chips? If you dare to do it, I dare to do something too. I don’t think Mr. Shawn will like a girl who is crazy about her private life. Your photos are well saved in my computer now. Do you want them? I can send it to you anytime.” Then, Julia put her face close to Mona’s ear and whispered with a smile.

His tone was full of threat.

Moreover, nobody had the advantage in some cases. Once they fought, it would cause destruction to both sides. Besides, morphens understood this principle.

After listening to Julia’s words, Mona was not so aggressive as before. She said in a trembling voice to her: “what do you want? I will give you as much money as you want. Give those photos back to me!”

“Money? Do you think I’m lack of money? Mona, sometimes money didn’t buy everything. I don’t believe you. If you don’t believe me, we’d better take our own chips, so we can keep in balance.” Julia shook away Mona’s hand and smiled scornfully.

They both lowered their voices, so the outsiders could only see them tussling with each other and didn’t hear what they were saying.

“All right, you win!” Mona gave her a cold look.

“You too.” Julia was still smiling.

After tidying up her clothes, Mona took a casual glance at the documents on Julia’s desk and said: “I’m here to look for Mr. Shawn on behalf of my brother. PSarahse notify him.”

“Is your brother back?” Julia asked in surprise.

“The day after tomorrow, there will be a dancing party for my brother in Sunny hall. I don’t care if you want to come over. You’d better bring that ingrate Lola. I’m looking forward to Lola’s coming.” Then, Mona raised her red lips and looked at Julia who was a little embarrassed.

After a long while, Julia came to her sense, with a calm look on her face, and said formulaically: “I’ll tell Mr. Shawn, pSarahse sit over there and wait for a moment. This is my place to work.”

With these words, Mona stood up and, after shooting a meaningful glance at Julia, walked towards the living room next door, wriggling her waist.

After Mona left, Julia sat in her chair with mixed feelings. Suddenly, she noticed a note on the table which wrote, “I hate you.” The signature was Ryan.

Julia’s heart trembled. Although she knew that this must be written down by Mona on purpose, she could not help but picture the proud man limping away until he disappeared.

If she hadn’t been so willful at that time, would all the accidents not happened? Ryan wouldn’t hate Lola, so the only person he hated was her.

He had almost forgotten the resentment between them, but now these appeared in front of him with the appearance of Mona. They had escaped for so long, but they couldn't escape in the end? Julia rubbed her temples, took a sip of water and forced herself to work hard.

After a long time, Julia found that Mona was not in the living room. Maybe she had left, or maybe she was in the office of Shawn.

Julia didn't want to see Mona. She was just the switch for the memories in Julia's college. Once she turned it on, the memories would flow like the tide, which couldn't be stopped.

"Come to the CEO office." On receiving the order of John, Julia quickly adjusted her state of mind and went to the CEO's office.

The style of the office was black, elegant and luxurious. Every piece of furniture was placed in the most suitable position, and it looked very pSarahsing.

At that time, Shawn was working. Julia raised her head and peered at him. As expected, Shawn was the most handsome man in the work. He had a perfect profile, with his vivid and bare face and straight back. He was just sitting there in silence. What a wonderful scene.

It was not until Julia approached that Shawn raised his head and lightly said, "go to the hospital with me after work."

His voice was plain, but there was an irresistible power in it. Julia shrank her head and kept silent, fingers clenching.

Shawn cast a few glances at her. Julia made up her mind and politely said in a low voice, "I have something to do this afternoon. Can I go to the hospital another day?"

Julia knew that he just wanted to go to the hospital to see his grandmother. The CEO was very filial.

“What is it?” His voice was full of impatience.

“Well Well My mother came to visit me. I want to go back and keep her company.” Julia tried her best to keep a low profile and put on an embarrassed and helpless look.

Shawn fell into silence. Under great pressure, Julia didn't dare to move a little while standing beside Shawn.

Once again, she realized that the CEO must be a cold man. She should wear a few more clothes and not as cold as now, which could make her shiver.

“Go through these materials before you get off work. I'll get them sorted out tomorrow.” Here came Shawn's voice, cold as he was, but Julia cared nothing. She revived her spirit when she heard him, so she immediately took over the documents from Shawn and said: “okay.”

The latter nodded slightly.

Julia held the documents in her hands and walked out of the room quickly. Looking at her back as she limped off, Shawn's cold face tightened. “Doesn't this girl want to get close to me?”? Was he terrible?

Sitting back in his seat, Shawn got a little relaxed. He was a little concerned about her performance last night.

To him, as long as grandma was happy, whoever would marry him was the same. And this girl seemed to be easier to deal with. She did not want to use marriage as a bargaining chip to marry a rich family.

When Julia walked out of the CEO Office, she felt that her legs were trembling. It was so horrible to stand by the side of the CEO. Now, she finally understood that the feeling of being around the CEO was just like accompanying a tiger. No one could ever feel the same feeling of being trembling.

She quickly went back to her office and found that her work had increased a little in half an hour after she left. Though Julia was a little confused, she didn't think too much. As a new employee, she knew that she had to do much more than the old staff.

When she finished her heavy work, all the others had left. She was the only one left in this huge office. Julia stretched her arms and took a look at her phone. She was startled and jumped out of the chair. Why was it so late.

She slowly turned her head and looked out of the window. It was completely dark outside. She hurriedly walked out of the door with her handbag. Her heart sank when she saw that the CEO's office was closed.

The door of the CEO's office was closed, which meant that John was off duty now. What a little liar! He had promised her that he would pretend to be her boyfriend. How could he Sarahve first!

Julia was very indignant and after she cursed John bitterly in her mind, she dragged her injured leg and locked the door.

Chapter 15

While walking, Julia whispered to curse John.

'Why does the man at the door look like John? Julia looked at the man at the door curiously. She could only see a vague outline of that man in the dim light and could not help quickening her pace.

"Hello!" Julia shouted and the man turned around.

It was John. Julia's face was immediately full of smile. She could not help but curse herself severely for the cunning heart. How could John be a cunning man who broke his promise?

“I’m sorry. Why didn’t you call me?” Julia said with a big smile on her face, passing the buck to John.

“It’s okay. As you work hard for the company, I am more than happy to see that.”

To put it bluntly, John wanted Julia to try her best to work for the company. After hearing that, even though Julia still felt a little guilty, her face immediately turned gloomy. She put on a false smile and said to John, “Mr. John, you are really a dutiful assistant.”

“Of course.” John said with a smile, not being modest at all.

“.....” She gave him an angry stare and walked towards him.

“Hee.” John behind her called her name and followed her.

Julia turned around and looked at him with puzzlement. She asked, “what’s wrong?”

“If you are satisfied with my performance, you don’t have to pay me anymore. Just tell me the relationship between you and Shawn.” John said with a grin.

“Did I say that I’m going to pay you? Do you have to measure this little favor with money?” She gave him a scornful look.

Chills went down John’s back as he was scolded by Julia. He glanced at her speechlessly, thinking that he was being hypocritical by her words.

The two walked out of the company door side by side. Julia deliberately kept a small distance from John. John tried to approach her, but she always keep a distance from him, so he did not force her.

“Get in, miss.” John opened the car door and said.

Julia took a look at the front passenger seat. After hesitating for a few seconds, she turned down John's kindness, opened the back door and got in.

Seeing Julia's action, he frowned, but said nothing.

"Why are you so vigilant?" John asked, after they drove away

"Shouldn't I be on the alert? You looks not purely simple. " Julia said bluntly.

John was injured. It was the first time that he had heard someone say he was an impure man. Although the girl was an outgoing girl, she was like a thorny person who could hurt people all over.

What's more, his question was escaped by her. It seemed difficult to know something from Julia

What they didn't notice was that they were followed by a black Pagani Huayra.

"Follow up." Blankly staring at the car in front of them, Shawn's face was as dark as ink.

"Yes, Master."

John stopped at the Zona Residences with Julia telling the way. He opened the door and got out of the car. "This place is really remote. I don't know how you found it."

"I have no choice. I saw further than you." Julia smiled and her curved eyebrows were so lovely.

John was slightly stunned and quickly turned away.

"Let's go, John. It's up to you whether you can make it or not!" Julia looked at John solemnly, as if this thing is decided by him.

John only felt great pressure on his shoulders, but also curious. It was his first time to be a fake boyfriend of someone else and to meet parents.

They walked into the Zona Residences one after the other.

the eyes behind them were following them until they disappeared.

“Go back,” Said Shawn in a cold voice.

The car temperature dropped sharply because of the words of Shawn. Even Julia on the road got a cold shiver.

“Mom, I’m back!” Julia pushed the door open and brought John in. She shouted inside.

“Coming!” Hearing Julia’s words, Barbara came out of the kitchen and smiled happily at John.

Julia had informed her that she would bring her boyfriend home tonight, so there was not much surprise in her eyes. With a smile, she held the hand of John and said, “Hey, you are John, right? I am her mother. Nice to meet you.”

“Hello.” It was hard for John to break free from Barbara’s hands, so he kept a gentle smile on his face.

“What a polite young man!” With a big smile on Barbara’s face, she stared straight at John. If Julia hadn’t warned him, John would have been frightened by the green light in Barbara eyes.

Like the saying goes, like mother, like daughter.

“Mom, can we eat now?” Julia ignored John’s eyes which were asking her for help and walked past Barbara to the kitchen.

Nothing was more important than eating for Julia.

Just then, Lola came out of the kitchen with food in her hands. Seeing the dishes on the big table, Julia's eyes were shining with excitement. She wanted to rush to them, but when she remembered that John was still on the scene, she restrained the excitement in her heart and waited at the table.

"John, come with me. Julia is not a quiet girl, you need to tolerate her from now." With a broad smile, Barbara took John to the table.

Seeing the horrible eyes of her mother, Julia felt lucky that she hadn't brought her boss here, or she would lose her job.

However What would happen when Mr. Shawn was here?

Would Mr. Shawn be forced into a cold sweat by her mother? At the thought of Shawn's sweating face, Julia couldn't help but chuckle.

"What are you thinking? Quickly fill a bowl of rice for John!" Barbara stepped on Julia's foot and turned around to order her in a low voice.

Then she looked back at John and saw a brilliant smile on her face.

Mom, it's truly a waste of your talent if you don't become an actress Julia thought to herself.

Julia, with some reluctance, brought the food to John and politely said, "enjoy yourself, pSarahse."

John suddenly shook his head as he cSahrly uttered the word "pSarahse".

"Eat this, John. It's delicious and nutritious." Barbara picked up food for John with enthusiasm, while John kept his gentle smile and ate quietly.

On the other side, Julia and Lola were also eating silently. In front of outsiders, Julia ate like a lady.

There was no other sounds except that of Barbara and John. Julia didn't speak because she was afraid that if she spoke too much, the truth would be revealed. And Lola was always silent.

"Well, you're the first boyfriend of Julia. I thought she may be lesbian. I'm relieved to see you." Barbara sighed.

This sounded familiar. It suddenly occurred to Julia that on the day she went to the hospital, Shawn's grandmother also said the same words to her.

Nowadays, the elderly really had a fashion thought. Julia took a deep breath.

"Really? That's so lucky." John smiled at Julia who was eating silently.

"Ha ha, you will be responsible for my daughter." Barbara said with a smile.

Listening to conversation between Barbara and John, Julia felt guilty and lowered her head. She lied to her mother.

The phone suddenly rang and Julia took it out to have a look.

He couldn't help but worry. It was a call from Shawn.

She hurried to the living room and answered the phone.

"Downstairs." The voice of Shawn was low and charming, but Julia could tell that he was unhappy from his pSarahsant voice.

Did she do anything wrong? Julia searched every nook and cranny that she might have provoked Shawn, and remembered that she had turned him down in his office today.

'is Mr. Shawn so stingy that he is going to take me back to the company to work overtime because of this trifle?

“But However My mother...” Julia looked at her mother with hesitation.

“Do you know what kind of person I hate the most?” Shawn interrupted her words and asked coldly.

“What?” Julia was confused.

“I hate liars the most.” Shawn’s voice was as cold as ice.

The coldness penetrated the phone and spread to the limbs of Julia.

“I’ll say it again. Downstairs.” Added Shawn.

If she said one more word, the icy CEO would get furious. For her own life, she quickly responded and pushed the door open without saying anything.

“Julia, where are you going?” Barbara’s voice trailed off.

After she hopped downstairs, she finally saw a low-key luxury black car parked outside the community. This car was familiar to Julia. It was Shawn’s car. She quickly walked towards the car with her injured leg.

When she walked to the car, she saw that Shawn was sitting on the driver’s seat with a gloomy face. Julia carefully looked at his reactions. Shawn took a glance of her, then, Julia opened the door and got in.

After she got in, Julia found that what she had done was so unwise and unreasonable.

How could she Sarahve her mother and John behind? How could she get on a man's car without thinking, especially when she was injured. What if this man wanted to do something bad to her

Without saying a word, Shawn started the engine, and the car suddenly rushed forward like an arrow off its string.

"Mr. Shawn, where are we going?" Julia got nervous.

"Mr. Shawn, it's very late." She asked again as no answer was given.

"Boss, I want to go home..." In the end, Julia got frightened and touchingly looked at the man who was wearing a gloomy and horrible face.

Finally, the car stopped in front of a bar. To Julia's surprise, Shawn helped her unfasten the seat belt and then pulled her out. Yes, he dragged her out of the car directly.

Chapter 16

Julia raised her head and saw the sign "Blue Night Entertainment" hanging on the wall. She remembered these words. It seemed that she had passed by here before. It was the most luxurious entertainment place in Ventrusburg.

When she was a student, she was not allowed to come here even if she had money. What's more, she could not come here even she had money, because she has no status.

Julia carefully looked at the expression on Shawn's face. She really couldn't understand why he suddenly took her here, and it was in the middle of the night. Just because she go to the hospital with him? Is it serious?

When Julia was still trying to figure it out, the door was already opened. The security guard bowed slightly to Shawn. Julia couldn't help straightening her back, though she knew that they did this for the sake of Shawn. At the thought of she coming here, being chased away, and now being bowed, she felt really wonderful.

On the way, Julia saw a lot of people were making out, men and women, and people were drinking and playing in the box. This was a world of adults completely.

Did Mr. Shawn want to sell her?

Julia was shocked by the idea she suddenly came up with. She looked at the man in front of her carefully and quickened her pace to catch up with him.

If he really wanted to sell her, she would definitely not let him go. Julia made up her mind and became confident.

Shawn came to the end and pushed open a door.

The crowd of men and women looked straight at Shawn, and they were dressed in either rich or noble clothes. Julia was a little stunned and looked at her simple clothes, suddenly feeling a little embarrassed.

“You are late, Shawn.” A coquettish woman raised a glass of red wine and walked towards Shawn, with red lips.

“Drink for punishment.” Another man hooted.

Shawn slightly glanced at the group of men and women, took the red wine handed over by the coquettish women and drank it up. Then he dragged Julia to sit down on a seat. Julia curiously looked at this group of people. Although they seemed to be very warm-hearted, Shawn still looked very indifferent.

Only one man caught Julia’s attention. It was a man with an incomparably exquisite appearance. He sat next to Shawn and drank indifferently. From his dark eyes, Julia could see nothing but his murderous look.

“The first time I saw you bring a woman here.” The man glanced at Julia and then looked at Shawn. He smiled.

Although he was smiling, he still made people feel fear. Every move of his was like a demon that had escaped from hell. The Black Mist emitted from his every move seemed to push people to a corner.

“To prove that I’m not single.” The voice of Shawn was colder than that of a man.

The man had got used to Shawn’s coldness, so he turned to continue drinking. After a while, he laughed again and said, “so you want to get rid of me.”

Julia was shocked. She thought to herself: “Shawn brought me here in order to get rid of this man?”? Did they have an affair?

“Elmore, you think too much.” Said Shawn with a smile. He filled his glass with wine and took a sip.

During the greetings, someone suddenly mentioned the business. Julia listened to their conversation and realized that the CEO had brought her here to do business.

And some people are hostile to her, especially from three girls. Finally, Julia understood what Shawn’s words “to prove that I am not single” meant.

It would be very uncomfortable if people were always stared at by others with lustful eyes and followed by them from time to time. While they were negotiating with Shawn, Julia could do nothing but stare at the other three women.

The negotiation soon came to an end.

“Okay, pSarahse give me convenience in the future. If you can agree to my small request, I can also pay you a percent of the profits in the cooperation.” A middle-aged man, with a big beer belly, stood up and squinted at Julia next to the jail. The meaning in his eyes was obvious.

In fact, many people present also took a fancy to Julia, who didn't have any heavy make-up on her face as other women did. On the contrary, she was pure and pure, incomparable to any woman present.

Of course, Julia knew what he meant.

She couldn't help but grab the arm of Shawn and looked at him nervously. Would the CEO really sell her out? Was she not equal to the one percent of the profits in his eyes?

Sensing Julia's anxiety, Shawn reached out his hand and gently pushed Julia's hand away. Julia was shocked and grabbed at the corner of Shawn with the other hand. She could not give Shawn a chance to get rid of her.

Shawn put his hand on Julia's hand. Julia was so nervous that she was about to cry. Did he have to push her away

However Julia didn't wait for Shawn to push her away, because Shawn's fingers snapped and then clenched with hers together.

“Sorry, this woman can't do it.” With a faint smile on Shawn's lips, he didn't hesitate at all.

Julia stared at him blankly, and suddenly she felt something strange, and It didn't feel bad to be held in his hand.

Although it was not the first time, her heart beat faster and faster. Julia had all kinds of strange feelings.

“Shawn? Is this woman yours?” A woman finally spoke.

Shawn looked at Julia and said indifferently: “my wife.”

It seemed that Shawn was too lazy to say one more word, but now these two words had calmed all the people down, looking at Julia surprisingly. Julia smiled her trademark smile and politely greeted everyone.

All in all, it was just the superficial practice. She inherited the powerful face-change ability of Barbara. Isn't that just acting? It was a piece of cake for her.

Julia had successfully seen the shocked expression of those women who had been arrogant, the man and the woman who had teased her earlier kept silent, especially the middle-aged man with beer belly, who looked ghastly pale.

He found a reason to say goodbye to Shawn in a hurry. Others left one after another when they saw someone Sarahving.

The oddly enough, every woman who left gave Julia a few disdainful looks, and Julia indifferently watched them Sarahving with a smile of triumph. She suddenly had a good mood.

The only one who was left was the man in black who had been sitting next to Shawn. This man in black didn't talk much, and Julia also knew that every word he said was to help the business of Shawn.

The relationship between the man and Shawn was really unusual.

“Master Simon is back. We can't underestimate the development of the Simon Family now.” Elmore gently said.

Hearing the name “Mr. Simon”, Julia couldn't help standing up and put her ear close to Shawn's.

After peering at Julia's face, Shawn asked, "was Master Simon a student of Ventrusburg University?"

Julia thought he was asking her because she felt the gaze from Shawn and nodded.

Shawn nodded with satisfaction and said slowly, "it seems that you are quite familiar with Master Simon."

As soon as this sentence came out, Julia then realized that the CEO was testing her. When she was about to explain, she heard the magnetic voice of Shawn, "how many men you have!"

His words sounded like a praise to her, but Julia of course could hear the irony in his tone. Upon hearing his words, she felt like something was blocked in her chest, which made her a little depressed. She frowned and couldn't help defending, "I just know Ryan."

When he heard that Julia was calling Ryan's name, Shawn's face darkened. In the dim light, she was like a cold night elf, dangerous.

Seeing this, Elmore stood up and took a meaningful glance at Julia, smiling: "sister in law, pSarahse take good care of my brother."

Julia got goose bumps all over her body, as if this man was used to walking in the dark and cold without any temperature in his eyes. He was so horrible.

No sooner had she finished speaking than her black coat disappeared from the door.

"What a horrible man!" Julia couldn't help smacking her lips and spilled the beans.

"Who did you say?" Taken a sip of wine, herring asked.

“The man in black. His eyes are so cold.” Julia didn’t realize that the man sitting next to her was Shawn.

“I find your another weakness now.” There was a hint of smile in his tone.

Uh When she was talking to the CEO, Julia slowly turned her stiff neck and looked at Shawn next to her, then she forced a smile and said: “well I was just talking nonsense You, you know, I am insane... “

To cover up her own shortcomings of gossiping, she put her ‘diseases’ on the table again.

“Oh, it’s serious.” Shawn nodded in agreement.

Mr. Shawn, can you stop humiliating me like that? Deep inside, Julia rolled her eyes at Shawn and looked at him indifferently. However, she was wearing a big smile on her face.

“Well, can I go back first? My mother is at home. ” Julia requested cautiously as she saw Shawn’s face turn better.

When he heard these words, Shawn’s face turned cold again, and the temperature in the box instantly dropped several degrees. The little devil had gone crazy in Julia’s heart. Was she wrong to go home? Was she wrong to accompany her mother?

“Mr. Shawn, it’s late.” Julia was thick skinned and looked at Shawn cautiously.

After a long time, Shawn’s voice was heard. “John, is he your mother?”

Julia was shocked and wondered what he meant? Why did she mention him?

But it suddenly occurred to her that she seemed to take John home tonight as her boyfriend

Chapter 17

Did he behave abnormally tonight because of this?

'did he see John go home with me a long time ago? So he mocked me that I have many boyfriends

But this was not the style of a cold CEO. Julia took a glance at the stinky Shawn and suddenly twisted the corner of her mouth, a slight smile overflowing from the corner of her mouth.

Julia usually didn't like to explain because it was too troublesome for her to do so. But today she felt that she was a little abnormal. She actually wanted to explain it cSarahrly to Shawn. She didn't want him to misunderstand her.

"Mr. Shawn, there must be some misunderstanding? It's not what you think." Said Julia.

But Shawn was obviously not that kind of man who liked to hear any explanation. He stood up and sneered, "your matter has nothing to do with me. And I have no obligation to listen to your explanation on the agreement."

After saying that, he left straight away. Seeing that, Julia also followed him. Looking at the tall and strong back in front of her, she curled her lips. She just wanted to explain to someone, but he didn't appreciate it!

Julia was so arrogant that she glared at the back of Shawn and raised her head proudly.

Naturally, this kind of action could only be done behind the CEO. It could fulfill her small wish that the humble citizens could change their fate to be the owner.

However, Julia forgot that the two sides of the aisle were made of reflective glass, and every move of hers had already fallen into the eyes of Shawn. Her complacent little expression and the breath of her nose in the air.

'this girl...' She was so careless, hypocritical and had all kinds of shortcomings all over her body. She would speak ill of people behind others' back, grab the power of the powerful men to pretend to be powerful, and she even lived a dissolute life.

At the thought of this, Shawn was completely shocked. It was the first time for him to observe a woman's shortcomings so carefully.

After they left Blue Niht entertainment and got on the car, both of them didn't say a word. Julia was depressed and fastened the seat belt. She couldn't help staring at her finger. It was at this position that she was kissed.

And the man who kissed her was her boss.

Fuck off! Julia shook her head in a hurry, trying to banish this terrible memory from her mind. The rising temperature on her cheeks also slowly dropped during the intense struggle in her mind.

But the next second, she couldn't help looking at Shawn her.

She wanted to explain to him.

As a girl who always had the guts to do what she wanted to do, Julia was in a dilemma. She scratched her hair, her clothes and the Sarahther of the Sarahther chair.

Shawn looked at her weirdly.

"Mr. Shawn, my mom is really at home. And I don't know if I should tell you something." Julia hesitated for a long time and finally got the courage to say that when the car stopped in the neighbourhood.

“What is it?” There was obvious impatience in Shawn’s black eyes.

Being glanced at by Shawn, Julia couldn’t help shrinking her neck and whispered: “my mother wants to see my boyfriend. She said she would go back after seeing it.”

Shawn lifted his eyebrow.

“I know you’re occupied with all kinds of trivial and complicated work every day. You can earn millions of dollars in a minute. So I think that you certainly don’t have time to care about these small things. ” After a short pause, Julia continued, “so, so I took John here to deceive my mother.”

After that, she suddenly felt light all over and the thing that blocked her chest disappeared.

It felt amazing to be honest with her. She was really a honest girl, thought Julia with confidence.

Just as she was immersed in her own world, Shawn suddenly said softly, “how do you know I have no time without asking me?”

His words shocked Julia like a thunder. She looked at the perfect side face of Shawn in shock. She couldn’t believe what she just heard was from this man.

His mouth didn’t move. How could he say that out. Julia laughed and touched her chest.

“I have time.” A low but cSarahr voice echoed in the air and stabbed right into Julia’s chest. Now she believed that those words were said from Shawn. He said that he had time.

Holding the seat belt, Julia could not help but dance to the light music in the car. She felt so happy and her smile was hanging on her lips. She thought that she should not have gone to ask John at the beginning so that she didn't need to owe John anything.

"Get off the car." The door of the car was pushed open and Shawn got out.

The giggle on Julia's face was brought to reality by this sound. She uttered a "yes" in a hurry. She jumped off the car quickly.

"Mr. Shawn, I'll go home first." With a big smile on her face, Julia waved her hand towards Shawn.

There was no answer. He looked up at the apartment in front of him. It looked neither new nor magnificent. Strictly speaking, it was ugly and shabby.

"I'll go with you." Then he took her hand.

Julia was stunned and she tried to struggle, but before she could do so, Shawn gripped her hand firmly.

"No, I'm fine." Said Julia with a smile on her face.

What a joke! Her mother saw her fiance, John, came back at midnight. No wonder her mother would break her leg.

But she forgot that her boss had a severe male chauvinism, and he could stop anything he wanted to do. Julia gloomily followed behind Shawn. She had imagined numerous scenes where her mother abused her, each of which made her heart broken.

Finally, they arrived at the suite's door. Julia said seriously: "we are home now. I can go in myself."

The implication in her words was to make the CEO Sarahve as soon as possible. Julia believed that Shawn was smart enough to get her implication. But it doesn't mean Shawn had to do what she want he to do. Without looking at the pitiful look in Julia's eyes, Shawn knocked on the door.

"Coming." Barbara's voice came from inside the room.

Julia hugged her head and slowly crouched down. What should she do?

The door was opened slowly. At the moment she saw Shawn, Barbara was stunned. Her eyes were fixed on the man for a long time, and were inexplicably a little complicated.

"Mom, I'm back," Julia called her in a low voice. Then, at that moment, she saw Julia squatting on the ground.

"Do you still remember to come back? Look at what time it is now? John has gone back. Is that what your girlfriend did? What the hell is going on with you? Why didn't you answer my call?" Barbara chattered.

Julia covered her ears, walked closer to Shawn and hide herself behind it. Her mother's voice hasn't changed for ten years was so horrible, Julia sighed softly.

After a while, her mother stopped talking suddenly. Julia popped her head out curiously and thought: "my mother is not that weak, is she?".

Her mother once again looked towards the direction of Shawn, and at the same time looked at Julia who was hiding behind Shawn. She coughed a few times and asked: "Julia, who is this?"

"Mom, let's get inside." Seeing the cold expression on Mr. Shawn's face, Julia giggled and said.

Then she turned around to let them in.

The atmosphere in the room became a little weird. Julia and Shawn were sitting together. She was eating an apple that was cut by Lola on the table, without saying a word. Sitting next to her, Shawn looked at her eating apples, frowned, and Barbara looked at them from head to toe.

“Tell me, what happened?” Asked Able Yingying.

“Well, mom. You know, I am a charming woman and many men will pursue me.” Julia said calmly.

Barbara rolled her eyes at her. Then, Julia continued: “they are both outstanding, aren’t they? It’s women’s fault. So I’ve been bothered by it for a long time.”

“You mean you have two boyfriends at the same time?” Barbara asked coldly.

“You can’t say like that. We are innocent. So I decided to bring them back to let you see which one you like. Since ancient times, marriage has to be approved and choosed by parents.” Julia giggled and looked at Barbara with filial piety.

After hearing this, Barbara nodded, admitting that Julia would date two men at the same time. And she even threw a look at Julia with appreciation. It seemed that she was saying that this was my daughter. Her charm was so strong that Julia was ashamed in an instant.

“What’s your name?” Lola asked.

Before Shawn could say anything, Julia had rushed in front of him. She said with a smile: “He is Shawn.”

Well, Julia admitted that she did not have the courage to call out the name of Shawn directly, and could only introduced her mother vaguely.

“Did I call you to talk?” Without hearing any reply from Shawn, Barbara was obviously unhappy. She glanced at Julia and asked discontentedly.

“Mom, he doesn’t talk a lot. He have to protect his voice. Julia held Barbara’s arm intimately and said in a spoiled manner.

“Protect throat? How can he get his throat sore while talking with your future mother-in-law? ” She raised her voice.

Knowing that it was difficult to handle her mother, Julia immediately moved to the battlefield. Sitting next to Shawn, she didn’t dare to tell Shawn to do something. She could only get close to him and said in a low voice, “can you do me a favor?”

“Promise me one thing?” The corners of Shawn mouth twitched as if he was smiling.

“What is it?” Julia answered simply.

In order not to let Barbara hear what they were talking about, Julia whispered to his ear. Their postures were naturally a little flirtatious in the eyes of others.

Chapter 18

Shawn looked down at her pretty little face. There was still some baby fat on her face, which made her look like a new student in college.

“I’ll tell you later.” Shawn laughed.

At a close distance, she saw the smile of Shawn. Julia was stunned. The CEO’s smile was so charming and there was no flaw on his face at all. She was so close that she could not even see his pores.

Shawn kissed her bright and smooth forehead in a good mood. This slight kiss was exploding in Julia's brain. Her heart could not help beating non-stop. Her mind was totally dead. She only saw that the face, which was dozens of times enlarged, was moving in her eyes.

It was in front of her mother. How could he “Nice to meet you, mother-in-law. I'll take good care of her.” The look in Shawn turned elegant and indifferent when he looked at Barbara.

Although she knew that what Shawn said was to her mother perfunctorily, she could not help but feel hot on her cheeks. She lowered her head with a little embarrassment.

Barbara nodded in approval and looked back at Shawn. There was no embarrassment on Shawn's face. Julia thought highly of her boss's face.

However, her mother had stared at him for a long time and never stared at John that way when John came. Maybe it was because Shawn was more charming than John. Well, that's for sure. Haha, something is going on in Julia's mind.

“Ahem!” All of a sudden, Julia was choked by the apple and began to cough violently.

The sound of the cough brought Barbara back to earth. She looked away slowly.

Barbara and Shawn looked at Julia at the same time and found Julia was embarrassed. ‘They looked at me for no reason!’ Julia thought.

“How could you choke on an apple?” Shawn slightly frowned and took a piece of tissue from the table. He then pinched Julia's cheeks with one hand and wiped her mouth lightly with the other hand.

Their movements were so ambiguous and intimate.

After she calmed down, Julia's heart beat faster again. She looked up to the sky speechlessly and thought to herself, 'Mr. Shawn, don't be so frightening. Her heart may have a problem in such a short time...'

"It's late. You can stay here tonight." Barbara gave Shawn a deep look before standing up and Sarahving.

After Barbara left, Julia felt relieved.

"What do you think Mommy will think of you? She stared at you for a long time." Julia probably forgot that Shawn was her boss. She was interested in talking with her.

Looking at her curious face, Shawn smiled and answered, "maybe he is not satisfied with me."

Julia was shocked and turned her head to look at Shawn. She saw nothing but his calm face. When their eyes met, her heart couldn't help beating heavily, but the man opposite her was still as calm as usual.

After a moment, Julia looked away awkwardly and felt aggrieved. She was afraid of seeing him and complex feelings surged into her mind, but how could he be so elegant and calm? It was so unfair!

"Why do you say that? I think mom had a good impression of you." Julia asked curiously as she grabbed the snacks on the table. If she wanted to talk with Mr. Shawn, she had to distract herself with them so that she would not be so nervous.

Without saying anything, Shawn looked around the suite and saw two girls' picture hanging on the wall. One was smiling brilliantly, like a small moving sun, and the other was standing quietly in front of the camera, as fresh as an angel who fell from the mortal world.

One of the girls was Julia.

Julia looked in the same direction with Shawn's gaze and also saw that photo. She suddenly thought that maybe Mr. Shawn had a crush on Lola.

At the same time, she was sitting next to him. Shawn couldn't possibly have been gazing at her, so he must have been gazing at Lola. Then under the logic, Shawn had taken a fancy to her.

Though Julia shouldered the heavy duty of helping Shawn find a new wife, she could not push her friends into the fire. Julia quickly stared at Shawn and said firmly, "no, no, Lola can't be your wife."

Looking down at her, Shawn chuckled.

"I mean it. Lola is not your type," Julia frowned and repeated her words with a firm look.

Not getting a positive reply from Shawn, Barbara came out of the room and said with a smile, "don't chat, it's too late."

Barbara's voice sounded a little strange. Julia curiously glanced at her mother and found her eyes were red. She was a little surprised and thought her mother had cried?

It seemed that she hadn't cried for a long time. Why did she cry today?

There were only two bedrooms in the suite, one for Julia, and the other for Lola. Her mother went to sleep with Clara and the other one left to Julia and Shawn. Julia also wanted to sleep with Lola, but the bed was too small for them.

With she playing with her fingers, Julia saw Shawn unbutton his clothes. She lowered her head and stood far away from the bed carefully.

'Oh, no! How can he spend time tonight? Behind the curtain, Julia stretched out her head to take a deep breath of the air outside. The room was overwhelmed by the strong aura of the CEO. She couldn't breathe smoothly.

"Don't you sleep?" The sound of Shawn came from afar to near, and Julia heard it as a demon's call. And the bed, was like the demon who was lying there with his mouth wide open, waiting for her to fall into the net.

Julia quivered, turned around, smiled stiffly and said, "I'm not sleepy. You can sleep first."

Shawn's eyes were like an X-ray which could penetrate human body. Julia's body was stiff and unable to move under the gaze of this ray. Moreover, this feeling of being watched through made her very uncomfortable.

"Come here." Shawn curled his finger and said lightly.

She mumbled and glanced at him hesitantly. She was sensitive in every aspect, so she could feel the depression in the room.

It was said that men were easily inhuman especially at late night. Although the CEO looked honest, no one knew whether he would get up and eat her in the middle of the night?

But if she didn't obey his order, what if Mr. Shawn wanted to have sex with her

After a struggle in mind, Julia walked slowly towards Shawn.

"I'm so sleepy." Julia smiled brightly at Shawn, sitting next to her.

"Didn't you say that you were not sleepy?" The next second, Shawn reached out his hands and pulled her into his arms, and whispered to her ears with a smile.

Julia was embarrassed. She quickly rolled her eyes and smiled: "I'm the kind of person who want to sleep as soon as I'm close to the bed. Ahh, I'm so sleepy." Then she covered her mouth and yawned.

"Okay." Noticing that Julia was making a scene, Shawn didn't expose her. He turned off the light.

The room went dark. Julia stared at the ceiling with her big eyes. In fact, she was not sleepy at all, but very energetic. Being embraced by her superior, she thought each subordinate couldn't fall asleep.

Though Julia once slept in the same bed with Shawn, she was so tired at that time that she fallen asleep quickly, totally different from how she is now.

Julia signed in a low voice. Since she got the marriage certificate with Shawn, she had not been able to have a good night's sleep. All she was thinking about was this man. She wasn't Evena; she wasn't thinking of the scenes when she and Shawn were in love; she was thinking about the kinds of troubles.

After a long time, Julia, who had just closed her eyes, suddenly woke up. Was Mr. Shawn touching her?

In the darkness, Julia didn't know if Shawn was asleep or not. But what was wrong with the hand that was wandering around her body? Did Mr. Shawn do it unintentionally or on purpose?

Julia didn't know what kind of expression to show on her face now, and she howled in her heart, 'it's not yet midnight, Mr. Shawn, pSarahse be calm.'

She wanted to wake him up but she was afraid that he would be awakened by her. If that was the case, she would really be regarded as a lamb to be slaughtered? However Julia clenched her teeth and tried to get rid of his hand, which was more insistent than she thought. No matter how hard she tried, she just couldn't get rid of his hand.

"Go away!" Julia was so anxious that she was sweating. She couldn't help but growled, and spoke out all her thoughts.

The sound echoed cSarahrly in the empty room. Julia was shocked by her own voice. Was that really her voice? When did her voice become so aggrieved?

It sounded as if the horrifying voice had awakened the horribly strong man. He moved a little. Julia put all her attention on horrifying Shawn.

Fortunately, there was only a move of Shawn, which made Julia feel relieved.

But things were always out of her expectation. When she felt a huge monster was lying on her and heard its steady breathing, the bomb that had been hidden in her mind for a whole night finally exploded.

What she worried most finally happened.

"Shawn." Julia's voice trembled.

She had once argued with Shawn and she understood that her power which she could flaunt was nothing in front of the CEO.

But this was her home, and she was not afraid of anything that would happen to her no matter how strong the CEO was. She was not afraid because her mother and Lola were here!

Julia felt a little relieved when she thought of the girls in the next room.

The moonlight poured in through the window. The atmosphere was ambiguous.

Julia was clutching at Shawn's shirt. She would do anything if he tried to something! She gritted her teeth and looked at Shawn decisively.

Chapter 19

The moment Julia saw Shawn's black eyes, her consciousness was sucked in more than half.

The man's eyes were dark, but seemed to hide a universe under the moonlight, as if she had been living in his eyes all the time

With a curving mouth, Shawn intently Sarahned down and bit on the woman's rosy and plump lips.

When they kissed, Julia remembered that she forgot to call for help. She desperately tried to push him away and shout for help. However, when she opened her mouth, she was caught. The tip of Shawn's tongue intruded, bringing her faint voice for help into the stomach.

Julia found that she was so stupid that she should scream for help when he pressed her against the bed. Now she closed her eyes tightly, waiting for his last moment. Perhaps it was because she thought she was bound to be eaten up by the CEO, Julia gave up and relieved herself from taking a rest in her tight mind, and her consciousness slowly disappeared under the strong kiss of the CEO.

Bye, her innocence; farewell, the purity that she was proud of

The next day, the sun shone brightly.

Julia was awakened by her mother's knocking at the door. While she was rubbing her eyes, her elbow accidentally touched something stiff. She curiously opened her eyes and saw a wall on the bed?

When she saw cSarahrly that it was a broad chest, she was stiff again. It was the chest of the CEO. Last night, they Thinking of this, Julia quickly lowered her head and looked at herself. Fortunately, she still had the clothes on. Other than some clothes, she didn't see any sexual feature.

Did Mr. Shawn let her off?

'didn't the CEO have sex last night?'' This recognition made Julia a little shocked, and she felt a little guilty in her heart. It was her who had thought too bad about Shawn. The boss was a gentleman.

However, Julia didn't expect that an upright man would force a kiss to others

"Mr. Shawn, it's time to get up." Julia, who was not eaten up, was in a good mood. She even smilingly shook Shawn beside her and called him in a sweet voice.

With his eyes slightly squinting, Shawn pulled down the smiling woman who was kneeling down beside him.

Julia was still immersed in the joy of being a gentleman of Shawn and forgot to see how sexy their position was.

"You are quite initiative." Shawn chuckled.

Julia was stunned. When did she fall into his arms? Was she really so active?

"Julia, have you got up?" Barbara's voice came from outside.

"Yea, we are getting out." Julia shouted at the door in a hurry.

Barbara should call Shawn just like last night call John. Given her mother's fervent character, she was supposed to be enthusiastic about Shawn, wasn't she? Her enthusiasm almost made Julia forget that she was the daughter of Barbara. Why didn't her mother call Shawn? Was it just like what Shawn said that she was not satisfied with Shawn?

Hearing that, the eyebrows of Julia were raised. Shawn knew that her thoughts must have gone to another country. Although he knew that she was insane, he was still dissatisfied. He Sarahned forward and touched her forehead gently. The touch was enough to bring Julia back to reality.

She pushed Shawn on her, and her beautiful face had already turned red.

Shawn smiled with satisfaction and reSarahsed her.

After a while, they walked out of the room. Barbara rarely looked at Shawn. Instead, she warmly looked at Julia and said with a smile, "come and have breakfast. Aren't you working in Nelson Group? You have to work diligently and show your boss how hard you work. Only in this way can you promote your career. You couldn't be fired or did anything that could deduct her salary. I have asked so many people to help you. If you dare not work hard, I will punish you heavily! "

She sounded serious and gave Julia a meaningful look.

Julia shrank back her head. She wanted to tell her mother that the biggest boss of the Nelson Group was here

It seemed that Lola hadn't told her mother about the background of Shawn. In this case, if her mother was so enthusiastic, Julia would have a reason to get rid of the responsibility. 'anyway, it was because She didn't recognize the real big boss. No wonder they did it.'

"By the way, where do you work? Are you close to Julia? " Asked Barbara, who was still smiling ladylike, and finally she took a glance of Shawn.

“We are colSarahgues.” Shawn replied her politely.

Hearing this, Barbara nodded slightly and said with a smile, “no wonder you are so good with Julia. You are colSarahgue.” Then she turned to Julia and asked: “are you talking about Eden or Shawn over the phone? I remember you were saying Shawn? Didn’t you say that you knew him in the hospital? “

Hearing this, Julia was speechless She made up that story.

“Well, when we got acquainted with each other, w e found that we worked in the same company, and then...” She looked around.

“Well, you go to work first. It’s important to go to work.” However, Barbara didn’t care much about the truth of what Julia said. She just pushed her out of the room with a smile and closed the door.

Julia still wanted to say something. But when she turned around, she saw Barbara’s half face behind the door. There was no smile on her face and she was overwhelmed by a feeling of melancholy.

“It’s so strange.” Julia muttered and walked downstairs behind Shawn.

Her mother had been acting strange since last night. What happened? Julia was puzzled. She looked blankly at the floor of her own home in the Zona Residences and suddenly saw a vague figure standing next to the window of her room. Was it her mother?

Julia frowned as she saw her mother was so depressed since she saw Shawn last night. But her mother didn’t know who Shawn was. For her, Shawn should be no different from John.

But her mother’s attitude towards them was obviously different.

After a long time, the car stopped. Julia came to her senses, turned around and looked out of the window. They were already at the company.

She wondered if she had been in a daze all the way? Would he think that she ignored him? Julia looked at Shawn with fear and trepidation. The CEO's face was as cold as ever, and there was no emotion change in it.

When Julia wanted to take her eyes back, Shawn also looked at her. Her dark eyes were exactly same as those of last night. With a sudden blush on her cheeks, she turned her head as fast as she could, and her heart was like a naughty rabbit, bouncing wildly.

“Get off the car.” Looking at her blushed face, Shawn pursed his lips into a straight line and gently upturned it. The pSarahsant voice was still emotionless.

Julia nodded, pretending to be calm to unfasten the seat belt, but her fingertips trembling was enough to show her nervousness. She was under too much pressure. She could behave calmly in front of her mother at home.

But now, without her mother's protection, she even slept with Mr. Shawn last night. Although it was her who suffered loss, she always felt that she had treated him unfairly. Yes, she was a little inconsiderate last night

Thinking about this, Julia finally got rid of the rope and jumped out of the car. Waving her hand to Shawn, she smiled at him and said: “I am going now.”

Her body moved as she said that. But she didn't dare to move before Shawn responded.

After a long time, when Julia's body became stiff, Shawn finally nodded. In the next moment, she escaped from Shawn like a frightened rabbit.

When she was on the elevator, she patted her chest to calm herself down.

“Good morning.” When Julia returned to calm, she heard a bright voice.

Julia was shocked. She turned around and saw it was John. Her heart was suddenly thumped. Julia felt that it was already a miracle that she didn't have heart attack in the face of such sudden fright.

“Good morning.” Julia held her spirit and grinned at John.

“Where did you go last night?” John asked with a puzzled look.

“No, my friend suddenly asked me to go out to play.” Julia said with a forced smile. Her relationship with John was not so good as to be frank to each other.

John realized that she was just being perfunctory, so he smiled and joked, “which friend is so charming that you can Sarahve your mother and your fiance at midnight?”

“I advise you not to know too much, or you will get yourself in trouble.” Julia smiled sweetly and her dimples were so beautiful.

As soon as she finished her words, the elevator door opened. John didn't say anything more.

As soon as she arrived at her office, Julia received a call from Lola.

Julia picked up the phone and heard her mother's voice. Then she realized that her mother didn't have a phone.

“Julia, are you with Shawn now?”

“No, I'm not. I'm already at work. What's up?” Julia asked in confusion.

“Well I think Maybe Shawn is suit not for you, and I think John is more suit for you. ” Barbara paused for a few seconds and then continued.

Julia was stunned and her heart sank all of a sudden. She asked, “why? Mom, what on earth are you thinking about? “ “John is a gentle man. He is good at taking care of his family. But Shawn is a cold man and he won’t be a man who can take care of his family. Mom knows that you may like Shawn more, but a man like he is really not suitable to be a husband. ” Said Barbara.

“I don’t think so. I think he is a good man.” Julia retorted subconsciously.

“Julia, listen to me. Don’t be naughty.” Barbara’s voice was soft, without the usual haze and strength.

Julia was silent for a while. She hadn’t heard her mother speak with such tone for a long time.

Chapter 20

“Mom, I think you are strange. Today I don’t want to talk about values of life with you. I just want to ask you, why are you so strange to him? ” Asked Julia, as she took a seat on her office.

Ever since her childhood, Julia and Barbara have been very close, not like mother and daughter, but like friends. In many people’s eyes, this kind of relationship was very good. In fact, Julia knew that it was just because they were too lonely. They both wanted to have a thoughtful friend.

Anyway, Barbara was her mother. Though they were close to each other, Julia would listen to a lot of Barbara’s words. Since Julia went to college, they were not as close to each other as before. There were many ideas that had been separated between them. For example, from the second year of University, Barbara had arranged many blind dates for Julia. At that time, Julia was disgusted with blind date. But after that, she gradually got used to it and didn’t pay attention to those blind dates.

If it weren't for Barbara's oppression, how could Julia have got the marriage certificate with a random man. Barbara hoped that Julia could find her Mr. Right as soon as possible, so that she could feel at ease. However, she had never thought about all these questions from the perspective of Julia.

"Is this the way you talk to mom?" Barbara's voice became serious. A serious mother, who had been late for ten years, came back at this moment.

"Julia, be a good girl. Listen to me, break your connection with Shawn. He's not good for you. He's really not good for you." Barbara softened her tone and said with somewhat tiredness.

Julia kept silent. She neither agreed nor opposed. She looked up and saw Shawn walking into the CEO's office. She really didn't understand why a person's personality was evaluated just for one meeting.

Her mother didn't accept Shawn. Was it really because she didn't think that a cold and uncaring man like Shawn was suitable to be a husband? Or something else?

After hanging up the phone, Julia was in a trance.

A CEO was already annoying her enough, and now she had a mother. For no reason, when she heard that Barbara wanted her to end the relationship with Shawn, Julia was suddenly overwhelmed with fear, as if Barbara's words could cut off her relationship with Shawn.

This feeling was so strange to Julia.

Seeing piles of work piled up, Julia put aside her personal emotions and immersed herself in work slowly.

A document needed to be sent to the CEO's office to Shawn. Standing at the door of the CEO's office, Julia knocked on the door gently. As CEO's secretary, it was inevitable for them to meet each other, but it was very difficult for Julia to calm down.

Shawn was still buried in work. During the days she spent with him, Julia knew that he was a responsible and good boss, who didn't live up to his reputation. In fact, behind every success, there are tears of bitterness.

With this thought in mind, Julia suddenly found that Shawn was not a god, he is a human just like her.

The shorter distance was a lot further due to the word "cut off" from Barbara. She twitched the corners of her mouth helplessly and put the documents on the desk of Shawn before Sarahving. She didn't want to disturb his work.

"Wait for me to get off work tonight." After walking a few steps, she heard what Shawn said behind.

Julia stopped her step, and John, who was next to Shawn, was also stunned.

A few seconds later, Julia nodded and replied politely, "yes, boss."

Her tone became polite and alienated.

"This girl is interesting." Seeing the back of Julia disappear at the door, John said with a smile.

"What a pity that she has already been married." It seemed unintentional but also a warning.

John was so smart that he understood what Shawn meant. With a wry smile on his face, he said, "you think too much. It's a common case that a friend's wife cannot be bullied. I understand it."

Looking at the expressionless Shawn, John was surprised. As his classmate, of course they got along very well. Although he was now the private assistant of Shawn, their way of getting along was similar to that of friends, even John was afraid to offend him.

When she went back to the office like a ghost, she saw a man peeping around at the door of the secretarial room. When she saw that man's head, Julia felt it was funny. Wasn't this man Evena?

"Julia!" Evena greeted Julia excitedly, waving her hand at her as soon as she saw her.

Evena didn't make much noise, but it was enough for everyone in the Secretary Department to hear. Julia sighed and walked out of the office.

It is obvious why Evena were here. There w as no secret wall in the company. The news that Julia was promoted to the CEO's secretary because of sleeping had spread throughout the branch company, and the nosy gossipers like Evena had grasped the first-hand news.

"It's work hour. What are you doing here?" Julia rolled her eyes at her.

"It's lunch break. Let's go to have lunch." Evena held Julia's arm.

Julia knew why Evena came to her and she also knew that she had a big mouth and couldn't hide any secret. Though reluctant, Julia had to follow Evena to the company's canteen.

Since she met Shawn, Julia had never been to the company's canteen. Looking at the normal canteen, she inexplicably felt that she hadn't been there for a long time.

But her time with Shawn should not be measured by the day, but by the years. Julia felt that her experience in these days was even more soul stirring than hers in the last few years..

“Julia, are you really married to the CEO? I heard that you attended the CEO’s family feast. What happened? Are you telling me the truth? ‘oh my God! I even suspect you. I didn’t expect that you would really be in love with the boss! My prince charming! How can you do this to me? You should have told me at that time! Don’t you know how much he means to me? How could you... ” As soon as she sat down, Evena kept moving her lips quickly and Julia looked at her, with her ears in a mess.

Evena finally paused. Julia gave her a glance and asked, “have you finished?”

Evena drunk some water in excitement and shook her head.

“Go ahead.” Julia smiled helplessly.

Without any hesitation, Evena got close to Julia and whispered in her ear: “Julia, do you have sex with the CEO now?”

sex?

As Evena often told her this, Julia almost got what she meant in a second.

Julia tried to calm down. She pretended to be calm and serious and said to Evena, “Evena, how can you be so impure? Is it fun to think about these things? “

“Humph, just keep pretending. how can you know what I’m thinking if you don’t want that?” Evena glanced at Julia with contempt.

What Evena said struck Julia dumb.

“No, I’m not. My relationship with the boss is very pure. ” Julia raised her hand in surrender. Did she say it wrong? Kissing was something that could be seen everywhere on the street. One who got kissed was also pure Evena rolled her eyes at her again. Obviously, she didn’t believe it.

“You see, you don’t believe me again. Who is confessing just now? And who said that she must believe me in the future?” Julia looked at her teasingly.

Being slightly ashamed, Evena asked seriously, “really?”

Julia shook her head seriously.

“Well, we should be frank to each other. Don’t worry. I will believe whatever you say in the future.” Evena patted his chest with confidence.

“Be careful of your breasts.” Julia took a slight glance at Evena’s barren breasts.

As soon as he mentioned that, Evena looked gloomy. It was exactly her pain!

But after being depressed for only one second, Evena immediately understood what Julia meant. She glared at her fiercely. “Don’t try to change the topic. Mr. Shawn, is more important than my figure!”

Julia rolled her eyes.

“How did you get to know Mr. Shawn?” Evena became much calmer. She asked questions one by one.

“That’s the scenes of the TV series just like you pictured in your minds.” Julia was enjoying her meal. If she told the whole story, the subsidiary company would definitely play the broadcasting of “a story between Julia and Mr. Shawn”, which must be shared everywhere tomorrow.

Evena was indeed a loyal friend. But her fatal flaw was that she had a big mouth and always spilled beans.

“Hey, don’t be so perfunctory, okay? I shoulder many friends’ requests. ” Evena rolled her eyes at her and grumbled.

“All right, all right. I said that in a dark and windy night, the CEO’s luxury car accidentally brushed against me, and then...” Said Julia, as she was eating chicken leg.

When Julia was speaking, many people came around and stared at her.

Julia was talking passionately in the crowd, and every now and then she would wave her hands, which attracted everyone’s attention.

John happened to see this scene. Looking at Julia who was so excited in the crowd, he chuckled.

“Is he the CEO’s assistant?” Someone exclaimed.

People around Julia suddenly became quiet and everyone looked at the man coming in.

“Hey.” John looked at Julia with a slight smile and sat down beside her.

Julia was shocked and looked at him strangely. “Why are you here?”

“You guess.” John winked at her mysteriously, which made all the women on the scene scream while biting their fists.
