

Blossoming Her Shielded Heart Chapter 161 – 170

Chapter 161

The next day, Julia got up early. After dressing up, she leisurely had breakfast before she went to the company with Evena.

A familiar car had stopped at the gate of the Zona Residences. Julia wanted to pretend not to see it, but Steve pulled down the window and greeted her, “good morning.”

“Good morning.” Julia was so sad that she almost cried. When she turned around, she grinned with a standard smile.

“Julia, you don’t have to pretend to smile.” Steve smiled.

“As a qualified secretary, smile is the basic skill.” Julia smiled.

Evena stared at Steve and found he was another handsome guy. There were much more handsome boy recently!

“Get in the car.” Steve said.

“We are not going in the same direction.” As soon as Julia said, Evena opened the car door and got in. Looking at Julia who was in embarrassment at the roadside, Steve smiled but didn’t say anything.

Evena, you traitor. Julia touched her forehead and sat beside Evena.

“Handsome boy, what’s your name? You look like the deputy CEO of Simon Group!” Evena asked.

“Steve,” Steve replied.

“Wow! Ah ah ah! You are the deputy CEO! Oh my God! I am sitting in the deputy CEO’s car!” Evena looked around in shock.

Julia patted Evena’s head and said, “can you be a little more aspiring? We work in the Nelson Group.” We should admire their CEO! Such an undisciplined woman!

“Why does the CEO look so handsome...” As if not hearing what Julia said, Evena looked at Steve with coveted eyes.

Hearing this, Julia could only sigh that Evena had met few men, and those CEOs who had business with her were not handsome at all!

“Steve, you don’t have to come to me anymore. I’m fine.” Julia spoke peacefully.

“Don’t listen to her. She really wants you to come to her.” Evena twisted the back of Julia’s hand and said with a smile, “welcome to the Zona Residences. By the way, her room number is 504.”

Julia watched as Evena who described her as a 16-year-old longing girl, with all kinds of bad information floating in the car. She wanted to interrupt, but her voice was completely drowned by Evena’s.

Actually, Evena was the 16-years-old girl

Evena kept talking until they arrived at the Nelson Group. Then Julia pulled her down.

Seeing that Steve, who used to be the prince of sunshine, rubbed his ears and his face was covered by a dark shadow, Julia was totally speechless about Evena.

“Julia, I really hope what she said is true,” After a few seconds, Steve regained his composure and smiled brightly at Julia.

Julia’s face twitched and said, “Steve, I’m not that horny in your mind...”

“.....” Everyone was silent.

Finishing her words, Julia left with sad Evena.

Shawn on the 95th floor stared at Steve’s car parking on the gate of the Nelson Group. His face was more dark.

Looking at Shawn, John made a concession. Though he didn’t get along well with Julia and he hated her now, he still prayed to the God for keeping Julia from dying so she didn’t bump into the door. She opened the door with trembling hands and staggered out of the CEO’s office and pressed the elevator button.

When she entered the elevator, she couldn’t help but sob weakly in the elevator. Tears streamed down her cheeks and she couldn’t even think about why the document was in Steve’s hand.

His distrust destroyed her whole life.

If she had known what would happen today, she wouldn’t have come back yesterday. She had been staying in that small town, admiring the scenery and going shopping with nothing in her mind.

Could they go back?

She tried her best to protect the Nelson Group this morning, but she was fired because she betrayed the Nelson Group and him.

But she did nothing

When the elevator reached the first floor, Julia didn't call Evena. She staggered out of the Nelson Group. She would no longer belong here.

"Julia." Steve's voice came from the gate of the Nelson Group. He seemed to have foreseen that she would be so embarrassed today and be expelled.

But why did he say nothing.

Steve came over to hold her up, but Julia waved his hand away. With disheveled hair, she looked like a crazy woman. "Get out, get out!"

"Listen to me, Julia." Steve wanted to explain.

"I don't want to hear it anymore, Steve. I'm tired. Don't push me so hard, okay?" Julia stepped back and covered her head. Her eyes were red and swollen. She was like an orphan abandoned by the whole world.

"I know, but you have a baby. You can't take care of it yourself." Steve frowned and slowly approached her.

Julia stepped back and smiled: "how do you know that I can't take care of him? Don't consider me as a weak woman. Even if there is only one person that is still alive in the world, I can tell you that it is me!"

"Steve, Sarahve me. I will go my own way. I don't need any help. " Julia supported herself with all strength, as if her head was filled with thick milk that it didn't belong to her anymore.

Chapter 162

Steve had no desire to Sarahve. He knew that Julia was a stubborn girl, but he also knew that she would fall down before long.

Julia still wanted to say something. But her head was so heavy that she wanted to fall down. After returning to her hometown, she was in poor health and her strength was as weak as being sucked away.

She tried to hold on, but her consciousness was fading away gradually. At the moment when her consciousness disappeared, she saw Steve coming up.

What she didn't know was that Shawn was behind her, and Shawn was faster than Steve.

"If Master. Nelson wants the land, I'll give it to you." Then Steve shifted his gaze to Julia's hand that was holding in Shawn's arms and said: "but I hope Master. Nelson can forgive my girlfriend's mistakes. I will take the consequences."

Shawn harrumphed and cast a cold glance at Steve, "too late. Mr. Tang, from the moment you send her here, you could take her back. "

Looking at the arm that was hidden in the sleeves of Shawn's suit, Steve suddenly smiled. "Master. Li, can you still hold her up now? Can you bring her the happiness she wants? "

"None of your business." Shawn said with his cold and malicious voice. He held Julia's arm and bent over to pick her up. Since he couldn't carry her which didn't mean that he couldn't put her on his back.

Carrying Julia on her back, he walked by Steve. The strong wind cooled Steve down.

He thought that he might lose miserably this time.

He fought against Shawn with everything the Simon Group had, hoping to have a chance to take care of Julia, but it was a small wish that nobody could give him.

People from the first floor to the 95th floor all came out to watch what happened in the gate of the Nelson Group. When they saw that Shawn took people away, everyone couldn't help but cheer, even if they didn't know who Julia was.

"Didn't the CEO fire Julia? Why did you carry her away?" Sarah asked with puzzlement.

"Does the CEO and Julia Is there something fishy?" Cindy was also curious about the scene.

They looked at each other and were stunned. They didn't know that Julia was so close to their CEO!

The expression on Brandon's face became ferocious. She wondered if Shawn was still going to protect Julia after she putting all the evidences in front of Shawn?

A lengthen Rolls Royce phantom stopped at the door of the Zona Residences. Shawn took her back to her apartment, opened the door and sent her back to her bedroom. He put her on the bed and covered her with the quilt. When he was about to Sarahve, Julia gently pulled his trouser leg.

"Shawn..." Her pale lips softly twitched.

Hearing that, Shawn's body froze. He turned around and looked at her. He wanted to know whether she was pretending or just having a dream.

Still in tears, she mumbled, "pSarahse believe me..."

The voice was like a broken glass bottle, fragile.

With a frown, Shawn forced apart her little hands bit by bit. Julia looked more fragile with her face becoming desperate. She took back her hands a he team. At that time, she thought the luckiest thing was she met Lola. Later, in order to get the position of the chairman of the student union, Mona set her and Lola up, which caused a big scandal in the city.

Because of her, Nathan went abroad and Ryan had a broken leg because of her.

When she came to Nelson Group, she got acquainted with Shawn. Nathan felt relieved and Ryan had forgiven her. She thought everything was over, but she didn't expect that she would meet Noah.

It was her fault that Shawn's right arm was broken.

She lied to her mother again.

She was a disaster. Shawn's disbelief was her punishment. She finally lost everything.

Julia couldn't hear cSarahrly what Steve said next, so she just hung up. Even a didn't come back, nor did Zoey. The room was so quiet that only her breathing could be heard.

Julia slowly got up from the bed, walked to the desk and picked up the noodles in the bowl as slowly as an old lady in her seventies.

The smell It tasted like that cooked by him.

But it couldn't be cooked by him. He wouldn't cook noodles for her anymore.. He had abandoned her thoroughly

Tears streamed down from her eyes to the bowl. Julia wiped her eyes, but the more tears she wiped, the more tears dropped. She simply stopped, allowing the tears to fall. In the end, she picked up the noodles, mixed with tears, and ate them all.

Julia was huddled up on the bed with her hands around the knees. She buried her head into the knees, trembling with cold, but she didn't want to take the quilt.

As long as she could overindulge herself this time, she would be satisfied.

By tomorrow, she would forget everything, restart her life and give birth to their baby. She would tell the baby that his dad was a great man.. She was a sinner. God didn't want her to be happy.

Julia felt icy cold all over her body. Her teeth were chattering and she fell asleep slowly.

In her dream, Shawn turned around and left. Her mother turned around and left Everyone had left her

Chapter 163

The next day, Julia was awakened by a ringtone. She felt lucky that the ringtone was loud enough, or what if she kept sleeping.

Julia took up her phone. It was from Evena.

“Julia!” As soon as Julia opened her mouth, Evena shouted, “Julia, Sarahve here quickly! The police are going to arrest you. Hurry up! Whooooooooooh! “

Julia was confused. When did she offend the police?

Before she had time to ask, a violent knock on the door suddenly came from outside. She stood up with the support of the table, suppressed her uncomfortable body, and slowly walked to the door and opened it.

As Lola said, the police came to arrest her.

“Excuse me, are you Miss. Julia Able ?” One of the policemen showed his police identity card and asked Julia.

Julia nodded and looked at them with puzzlement.

The police took out the handcuffs, handcuffed on Julia’s hand and said solemnly and calmly, “Miss Able , pSarahse come with us.”

Julia’s eyes widened. She was fired yesterday, and would be in jail today? But when she thought of the case that she was framed to be a commercial spy yesterday, she calmed down when the police suddenly appeared today.

Without any resistance, Julia followed the police obediently.

She didn’t know why she was put into jail until she arrived at the police office.

The construction site she was responsible for had an accident. Eight workers were poisoned and sent to hospital, still unconscious. If someone died, she would not simply go to prison

The cause of being poisoned was breathing in excessive poisoning such as Tina. They had been absorbed for a long time. Fortunately, the eight people were rescued in time. Although they were still unconscious, they were not dead yet.

It suddenly occurred to Julia that the day when she went to the construction site with Zoey, Zoey said it was too smelly. If she had considered Zoey’s words seriously, this could not have happened.

Besides, she had no time to investigate the accident in the construction site.

Why did Holden’s man could come so quickly when Zoey called Holden?
What was the purpose of Holden letting them stay at the wasteland?

Julia's eyebrows knitted in a frown, and she felt that too many things had happened lately, too chaotic.

Zoey was raped. The rapist was Shawn.

A car accident happened to Shawn..

She was framed to betray the Nelson Group.

There was too much toxic substance in the construction site.

Apart from the internal strife about her being framed, everything seemed to be directed against the Nelson Group and Shawn.

Who is it? Who is it behind this? Holden? It was impossible. Since Holden was the brother of Shawn and the deputy CEO of the Nelson Group, his status was high enough. Why did he still want to frame the Nelson Group and Shawn?

Unless he wanted to ruin Shawn, or he wanted to die with the Nelson Group.

"Miss Able, did someone ask you to do this?" The policeman asked as he knocked on the table.

"No."

"If not, you have to shoulder most of the responsibility. You took your purity? Julia, don't think that I am blind. I hate to use things used by others, and the same to women. "

He whispered to her ear in a low voice, which was not loud enough to be heard in the monitor video. But this sentence made Julia stunned.

Shawn stood up and turned away without mercy.

The policemen outside sent him out respectfully. Shawn stopped at the door, he said, "if anything happens to her, call me at any time. And, arrange a better room for her."

"Yes, yes." The police said yes and sent Shawn out of the police station.

The sunshine outside was dazzling. Looking at the fierce sun, Shawn was somewhat absent-minded. What did he do to care for a woman of easy virtue again and again!

He stopped for a few seconds and immediately left.

In the interrogation room, Julia was so stunned. Then it occurred to her that Shawn had forgotten her. So he naturally forgot everything related to her

'So the reason why he been targeting at Steve was he misunderstood this?' That's why he was so angry about her relationship with Steve, and hurt her deliberately when he misunderstood that she betrayed him.

What he said that he didn't believe her.... Could it be just a slip of the tongue?

He He still cared about her? And she cared a lot

What a mean man.

Julia grinned suddenly which startled the policeman who just came in. A woman with grey hair and dirt on her face was in a trance, and now she gave a sweet smile It really freaked people out!

"Miss Able ." The police didn't dare close the door. He intentionally coughed in front of the door. Julia turned around and stopped smiling.

Seeing that she had returned to normal, the police closed the door and sat down in front of Julia. He cSarahred his throat and asked, "do you still refuse to answer the question just now? Did someone ask you to do this? "

“Nobody,” Julia still answered.

The policeman shook his head helplessly and looked at his watch. “That’s all for today, Miss Able . PSarahse get up.”

Chapter 164

Julia followed him. The police took her to an empty room.

Here is the detention room.

Julia looked around. Among all the detention rooms, there was only her own room which have one person. It turned out that she was also lucky

Looking at the opposite, she saw Mr. Zhang was locked together with a group of people. Julia walked close to the corridor and shouted to Mr. Zhang: “Mr. Zhang, Mr. Zhang.”

Mr. Zhang didn’t respond, as if he didn’t hear her.

Julia called him for a while but he didn’t answer. After she went back to the detention room, she saw a bowl. She picked up the bowl and threw it towards Mr. Zhang’s head. Unfortunately, she did.

But Mr. Zhang still didn’t make any response. Now, Julia understood that Mr. Zhang didn’t want to speak to her. Was he afraid that she would know something from him?

“Mr. Zhang, I know you could hear me and I know you just don’t want to talk to me.” Julia broke the silence, “I don’t know whom you’re helping, but I’m laughing at your stupidity. Do you really think you are only detained for fourteen days? Even if you are free after the sentence, but you ruined theNelson Group’s reputation, do you think that Shawn would let you go? “

Mr. Zhang, who sat opposite her, seemed to make a move.

“Shut up! It’s time to go to bed!” A guard with an iron whip ferociously passed through the corridor and stopped in front of Julia.

Julia was scared by his eyes. She didn’t say anything more. The guard snorted and left slowly.

Julia called Mr. Zhang for quite a while, but he still didn’t give her any response. She felt it was not a correct way to keep calling him. Julia felt a little tired, too. She Sarahned against the wall and closed her eyes slowly.

So cold

The cold made her tremble. Julia wanted to open her eyes, but her eyelids were so heavy that she couldn’t move no matter how hard she tried. She was like frozen and unable to move.

Not knowing how long she had slept, she felt someone push her. “Miss Able , wake up...”

“She has a fever. Ambulance!”

“Julia?”

“The patient is getting cold. Why hasn’t the ambulance arrived?”

But it was quite noisy as if there was a battle between thousands of troops. All the sounds were stirred up, making her irritable.

In the hospital.

The two men, Steve and Shawn who didn’t get along well with each other, were standing at the door of the emergency room.

Eventually, the door of the emergency room opened and a nurse came out. The two men hurried forward and asked, “how is she?”

“May I ask who is Shawn?” The nurse asked.

With his brows knitted tightly, Shawn stepped forward. The nurse looked at him and said, “you must be the husband of the patient. Her fever has been gone. But Mr. Li, I hope that you can be more careful with your wife next time. She is only two months pregnant and she is in an unstable state. It is already a miracle that she does not miscarry due to such a high fever. “ baby?

“Is she pregnant?” Said Shawn in disbelief.

“Yes, it has been two months. Don’t worry. Although the baby is unstable, she has not miscarri him, and she had carefully prepared a farewell, a farewell gift for the one she loved, and a farewell for herself.

His memory, like the tide, shattered all his senses. The origin of the jade bracelet, the origin of the bead, the origin of the ring, and the origin of the red rope on his hand

After being petrified for half a second, Shawn seized the ring, strode out of the room.

He thought he was so stupid that he pushed Julia to Steve. He must be out of his mind to force her to admit having an affair with Steve. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have left her at the hospital alone with Steve.

The baby was his!

When they were in Wuzhen, she was carefully protecting her belly when they were in that inn. He had never paid attention to this.

Before the car accident, he was going to pick her up.

She had asked him if he liked children before. At that time, she was in a good mood. She had been waiting for him to take her home and their babies back.

No wonder he saw her coming out of the bathroom with a hand covering her mouth. She must be very sad at that time, and he had held another woman's hand and watched her embarrassedly walking past them.

No wonder Steve would use "repay" and "miss" when talking to him. It turned out that they had been together before.

No wonder she grabbed him and asked him if he believed her. He answered her that he didn't believe her at that time. Who said he didn't believe her? He believed everything of her!

She endured everything he had put on her silently. And she was still hiding it and waiting for him to come back like a fool.

He was the one whom she called a jerk, who pushed her own woman to another person.

As the night fell, a luxurious black Ferrari sports car flashed past, leaving no trace. As the wind blew, cold sweat seeped from Shawn's forehead. He was worried.

After he had lost his memory, Julia was in poor health. She was very weak when he sent her home yesterday. She would be in danger if Steve wanted to do something to hurt her.

The car ran even faster.

Chapter 165

In a daze, Julia waked up and heard from Steve that he said to the nurse, "I'll be here with her."

She coughed and looked around. She was taking a nap in the detention room of the police station. Why did she come to the hospital. Julia rubbed her aching head and realized that she was still in the detention room at noon.

He's not here.

Although she didn't expect much, she couldn't help being disappointed.

Steve closed the door and sat beside Julia. He looked at her with a tender voice and asked, "are you awake?"

"Yes." Julia tried to sit up straight and asked with doubts: "why am I in the hospital?"

"You had a high fever when you were in the detention room and was sent to the hospital. Julia, you almost kill you and the baby." Steve frowned, stared at Julia's face and said seriously, "I've already distracted the police and nurses. Julia, don't be bothered. Go with me."

Julia shook her head and said in a faint but firm voice: "I won't Sarahve."

"Because of him? He even put you in prison, which almost killed you and your baby. If you are still here, you will soon be back to prison! Don't be silly, Julia, okay? " A slice of madness flashed across Steve's eyes.

Julia managed a smile and said, "he didn't mean to do that." She believed Shawn wouldn't do that if he remembered her.

“Julia, I won’t let you go on making mistakes. Go with me. Even for the baby, I will take you away. ” Steve bent over and held Julia up.

Julia raised her head and looked at Steve in astonishment. She didn’t understand why he was so stubborn all of a sudden. All she could see from his face was only the word “Crazy”. The once bright sun disappeared.

“Steve, calm down. Put me down.” Julia tried to push away Steve’s chest and shouted.

She had just woken up and hadn’t recovered yet. She had a splitting headache which made her very uncomfortable.

“Steve, what the hell are you doing?” Julia screamed, pushing him away.

Steve looked down at her and saw her frowning with panic and fear in her eyes. She pushed him away with both hands and feet, but she kept pushing him away.

She never loved him.

At the gate of the Nelson Group, he wanted to take her away and embarrass Shawn, but he didn’t expect that even in the most vulnerable time, she still pushed him away. She didn’t need him.

No matter how bad her life was, she never thought of relying on him.

She could only rely on one person.

Shawn.

A rage of jealousy rose in his heart. Why was everything of Shawn worth her attention? Even if Shawn broke his arm and refused to admit her and her child, she was still unwilling to let go.

How could Julia know how much he loved her? On the first day of her business trip with Shawn, he followed them secretly and even didn't know what he was doing.

At first, he just wanted to fight for it, but the more Julia rejected, the more he wanted her to admit it, and the more he wanted to get rid of Shawn in her heart totally.

He wanted Julia to be eyes filled with fury

He pounced on Shawn. Shawn slightly sideways pulled up Steve and ruthlessly threw him to the wall. After waiting Steve to stand up on purpose, Shawn hit him a few more times.

Steve was so angry that he picked up the pieces of the vase on the ground and dashed toward Shawn like a bull, but he was stopped by Shawn's single hand. He gave a hard kick to Steve to the ground.

Julia watched this with fear. But from the moment they started the fight, Shawn seemed to gain the upper hand. Steve didn't hurt Shawn at all.

"Shawn! Stop!" Seeing that Shawn was trying to kill Steve, Julia stopped him at once. She thought she had seen Shawn's brutality and fighting style while his grandmother was in the emergency room. But it was easy for him to beat Steve with one hand. He was unfathomable.

How could someone who was Elmore's brother not have any qualification.

Hearing Julia's voice, Shawn stopped and coldly looked down at the moaning Steve on the ground. "Mr. Tang, you're really pathetic. You can't even fight against the person who broke his arm."

Shawn walked to the sickbed and held Julia, who was wrapped in his suit jacket, in one hand. He walked to the door at a steady and arrogant pace, turned around, looked at Steve, and said with a slight twitch of his tight lip, "What's more, to hold her, one hand is enough."

"Julia." After that, Steve climbed up from the ground with an awkward look on his face and called Julia in Shawn's arm.

"I'm sorry." Steve lowered his head. He was the loser.

With her arms around Shawn's neck, Julia turned around to look at him and said, "Steve, I'm not blaming you. I'm the one who should say sorry. I'm sorry. I didn't notice your emotion and didn't tell you cSarahrly. I was too self righteous. I thought you would give up as long as I pushed you away hard. But I didn't notice that the pain you suffered every time you got hurt. "

When one's pain accumulated to a certain extent, he would explode.

Holding her in his arms, Shawn left step by step. After they left, those dull doctors and nurses rushed to the ward.

The air outside was even colder than inside. Julia shrank back into his arms unconsciously. Shawn quickened his pace, opened the door, sat on the driver's seat and kept Julia in his arms.

"Are you cold?" Shawn held her even tighter.

Julia shook her head, put her hands around his waist, looked up and smiled at him, saying, "CEO, you look like a hero."

He turned up when she needed him most. He would knock the bad guys down on the ground, and then take her away. He was as Superman in time, but Superman.. belonged to everyone.

Julia's eyes darkened.

"Are you sending me to the police station?" She asked in a low and weak voice, which contained a lot of complex emotions, cowardice, helplessness, fear, and a bit of expectation.

Shawn's heart ached. He gently kissed her hair and said in a low and gentle voice, "kitten, I'm here to take you back home."

This sentence was not sentimental at all, but it made Julia burst into tears. In her ears, this word was sweeter and more lingering than any love word in the world.

"I'll take you and the baby home." His pSarahsant voice rang in her ears like a song with sentimental sentiments, or a cup of wine of a thousand years'. It was so intoxicating that she couldn't help but fall in love with it.

He clasped her back head, bent over and kissed her tears, little by little, and then moved the kiss to her lips. His lips were burning, while hers was cold. The ice and fire met and melt into each other's warmth

He came to find her, to save her To tell her that he was coming to take her home

All of these were just like her beautiful dream and everything stopped in her dream. When she woke up, where should she go Julia felt a sharp pain in her head, and she was in a daze, as if her head had been stuffed with thick milk.

If it was a dream, she didn't want to wake up.

The warm sunlight poured in from the window, the breeze blew in from the window, the curtain gently raised, and the quilt on the bed moved. She raised her head with difficulty and rubbed her aching forehead, but didn't dare to open her eyes.

She couldn't remember cSarahrly what happened last night, the craziness of Steve, then Shawn appeared

Or Shawn didn't appear at all Then she is now

"Does your head still hurt?" When she heard a gentle and low voice above her, Julia was stunned. She was very familiar with this voice. It was his voice.

She looked up blankly, and the man in the dream suddenly appeared in front of her. Julia reached out her hands and gently put them on his face and pinched, feeling warm and soft. She believed that he was real.

"What Why are you here? " Julia asked innocently.

Shouldn't he be in the company now? How could he be with her.

"Where can I go without here?" Shawn held her little hand, with tende her eyebrows, and answered, "occasionally."

Julia carefully rolled his sleeve up, and her whole arm was covered with tiny needle holes. Her heart ached as if it was pricked by a needle. How many needles did he get.

She remembered that he had told her that Zoey was his attending doctor. Did that woman put the needle into his arm?

"When will it recover?" Julia held back her tears and asked him in a low voice.

“Will you dislike me if I cannot be cured?” Shawn stared at her bright eyes, waiting for her answer.

“Yes, I will. despise you for not being able to take care of yourself. And I will take care of you for the rest of my life. ” Julia answered. She looked at him seriously, “so, you must get cured.”

Hearing that, Shawn was slightly stunned. After a while, he chuckled. His sexy thin lips looked very weird in the sun. His gentle eyebrows and eyes, as well as his delicate and outstanding features, with the perfect hard and hard outline, and the delicate hair gently placed on his forehead.

The CEO smiled more charming. Julia rubbed her eyes and didn't believe that someone could smile so charming. His smile was so charming and brilliant “Okay.” Nodding his head, Shawn turned over and pressed on her body. Biting her nose which she was proud of, he kissed her on the cheek and asked, “have you finished your questions?”

Julia nodded in confusion.

“Then Shouldn't we do something else? ” Shawn smiled. Then he put his white finger into her hair, clasped the back of her head, and kissed her heavily.

Knowing what he was going to do, Julia flushed. She gently pressed her hands against his chest and said in a low voice: “be careful. I'm afraid that I'll hurt the baby.”

Her voice was soft and coquettish.

Julia closed her eyes, put her arms around his neck and kissed him back.

Julia rested her head on his chest, feeling his strong heartbeat. She grinned.

Baby, daddy finally came to pick us home.

Chapter 167

They didn't wake up until the evening. Julia was hungry and her body was still held by the man. She even found it difficult to turn over.

In the orange sunset, she looked up and down at her man.

While her angular face, straight nose and thick and long eyelashes danced beautifully like the gorgeous wings of butterfly. His lips were thin, like the bright cherry petals, flirtatious and thin.

It was said that men with thin lips were usually cold-blooded and ruthless, but at the same time they were the most affectionate.

As the man moved his body slightly, Julia hurriedly closed her eyes and pretended to be asleep. However, the two blushes on her cheeks exposed her real thoughts.

Shawn smiled, did not reveal her thoughts. But looking at her shy face, he could not help kissing her.

After a long time, Julia couldn't stand the man pestering her again and again. She pouted and looked at him pitifully, "I'm hungry. I'm hungry."

"Are you reminding me that I didn't feed you enough?" Shawn said, with her lips in his mouth and the tip of his tongue twirled mischievously against hers.

Julia's face turned red. She wanted to pinch him, but her hands and feet clung to him so feebly that she could only stare at him with the fiercest eyes she had thought.

"Kitten, I think you are seducing me." Shawn looked at her eyes with a smile.

Julia felt like weeping but had no tears. This man was just a rascal. She just called him rascal CEO from now, humph!

She gave him a black look and complained, “your thoughts are dirty.”

“Okay, tell me where is dirty? I will change it.” Shawn was so reluctant to let her go. He said with a gentle smile that his eyes had never left her for a moment.

Julia’s face was even redder. She hoped that her unborn child wouldn’t be influenced by his father The so called justice!

“I don’t want to talk with you anymore.” Julia snorted and turned her back to Shawn.

This gave Shawn the opportunity for a sneak attack from behind

Julia, being tossing and turning because Shawn, almost wanted to die.

At last, they didn’t get up until night. Shawn took her to the bathroom to wash, and then moved her back.

Julia hated the bathroom so much that her heart was hurt when she saw it. How long had this man beard? There were only a few days when they came back from the town

In the end, Julia came to a conclusion that CEO was always hungry like a wolf.

She curled up in the quilt and watched him walk out of the room. Julia’s beating heart began to calm down, but it was kind of empty somehow.

If it was possible, she still hoped that he could always stay with her But it seemed difficult to have that guy simply stay with her. She grabbed a corner of the quilt and felt ashamed of her contradictory thoughts.

She turned around and looked around. This was the villa where they lived. He took her back here.

Jade bracelets and other t shut up her with lips.

After the kiss for a long time, Julia calmed down and forgot what she wanted to ask him, lying in Shawn's arms quietly like a pet cat.

"Don't Sarahve me again, okay?" The thought of almost losing Julia made Shawn fearful. He was afraid of nothing but her safety.

"Well, I won't Sarahve again unless you drive me away." Julia was deeply aware of her mistake. She should trust him and believe that he could handle everything well.

Shawn lowered his head and kissed her.

"Shawn, mom also knew I'm pregnant." Julia gasped, rested her head on his chest and said in a low voice, "I told her that I had been abducted..."

"I always lie to mom. What if she knows that one day?" When she mentioned Barbara, Julia's face darkened a little. She could find an excuse to get away before and try to solve everything by Sarahving him. But now She couldn't bear to Sarahve him She had been completely trapped by him and could no longer climb out of the abyss created by him

"Silly girl, don't think too much." "I'll make your mother admit me." said Shawn with tender voice

Julia nodded. She didn't know who else she should trust besides Shawn.

She didn't know if it was because she had a baby or because she had to face everything alone before, she became more sensitive and afraid of loneliness. She hoped that he could accompany her all the time.

But Julia knew it was impossible. He still had a lot of things to deal with and his company needed to take care of. He would not put everything down to accompany her. She should be satisfied that he could accompany her occasionally. She shouldn't be so greedy. She should not be so greedy as to control his world.

Shawn gripped her finger and slipped a glittering ring onto her ring finger. "Kitten, Don't take it off casually."

Julia nodded, happily Sarahning against his arms.

Shawn clasped her fingers, with their hands clasped tightly.

Their fingers interlocked.

Chapter 168

The next day, when Julia got up, Shawn had already dressed up. Seeing that she was awake, Shawn immediately sat beside her bed and carefully lifted her up, just like holding a pregnant woman with a big belly.

She was pregnant, but she had not been such a condition that she needed to be held.

"Watch out," Shawn pulled her into his arms gently and said with a frown, "don't play too much when I'm not at home. Take care of yourself and call me if you need anything. Don't play too much computer and watch too much TV. The radiation was not good for your health. Besides, don't be picky about food. Eat more meat to supply nutrition..."

Julia rolled her eyes and wondered when CEO became so nagging

“It’s only two months old.” Julia said in a weak voice. Her entertainment right was deprived so soon. Then how could she spend the next half of a year Julia felt her life boring

“Be more careful in two months.” Shawn gently pinched her ear, and Julia cried out “it hurts.” then she turned around to attack him.

Usually, if she attacked him, he would certainly fight back. But today, he stood still and let her bully him as she liked.

After pinched him for a while, Julia didn’t dare to hit him. She wondered if he had remembered in his mind that he would take revenge in the future As far as she knew, her boss was very stingy and would bear grudges.

“I still want to go to work with you.” Julia held his arm and said in a spoiled manner.

“Be good, Zoey will come here later. You can go out for a walk, but be careful. You need to have a good rest. ” Shawn denied her idea without a second thought.

“All right Come back early. When I get better, you must let me go back to work. ” Julia gave in. She grabbed his arm and couldn’t help asking.

After thinking for half a second, Shawn frowned and rubbed her hair, “Be good, let’s talk about it later.”

Just do as whatever he said Because she couldn’t win him.

Maria came back to work, too. Zoey came here early in the morning. When Shawn saw Zoey, he was relieved and went to work.

“Julia, you are pregnant! Why didn’t you tell me?” Zoey complained as soon as she came in. Seeing that Julia wanted to stand up, Zoey hurried to hold her up. The way she behaved in a meticulous way embarrassed Julia.

She was not that weak

“Be careful. That’s my brother’s child, my nephew.” Zoey lectured harshly.

“Yes, yes Princess. ” Julia rubbed her forehead.

After Maria put the plate of fruit in front of them, Zoey sat down beside Julia. She turned around and asked, “how’s your test?”

“Not bad, my second elder brother helped me with the final few courses of the examination.” Zoey smiled unnaturally. “The exam is not important. Vacation is important, isn’t it? Besides, if I can’t pass the exam, I can resit. It doesn’t matter. “

Julia felt Zoey would not have a Tibet’s trip.

“I’ve told you that my brother will surely r tin asked with hesitation.

“Of course still.” He didn’t do anything harmful to her, so she had no reason to blame him all the time.

Steve smiled, as if nothing had happened. In her eyes, he was still the loving Prince of sunshine.

“By the way, where are you now?” He laughed as usual, and the stone pressing on her chest was finally removed. Julia could pretend that nothing had happened last night.

“Hospital.”

“Are you okay?” Asked Julia.

“What a vicious man Shawn is! I’m afraid I won’t be able to get out of the hospital in just ten days.” Steve laughed.

Though it was somewhat insincere, Julia could not help nodding in agreement with what Steve said. What a ruthless man Shawn was.

“Have a good rest.” With a faint smile on her face, Julia opened her mouth and said. Her voice was not as gloomy as it was several days ago, and anyone could hear happiness in it.

Steve heard that and sighed. Nobody could replace Shawn in her heart.

When Julia was about to hang up the phone, Steve stopped her, “wait.”

Julia’s hand stopped in midair, and she asked him confusedly, waiting for his reply. What else did Steve want to say?

After a long time, Julia couldn’t help asking, “what’s wrong?”

“Julia.” Steve took a deep breath and said slowly, “watch out for Brandon.”

Brandon? Julia blinked her eyes and wondered when did Brandon have anything to do with Steve?

“That file was sent to me by Brandon. She seems to know our relationship and knows that I’m pursuing you.” Steve said softly.

Julia was stunned and wondered if it was Brandon who had framed her up? Why? Julia didn’t have any personal enmity with Brandon and there was no conflict between them. So far, they had been getting along very well.

“I don’t know why she framed the Nelson Group, but she must have her purpose.” Steve continued, “I thought I could force you to Sarahve the Nelson Group and come to me by this way. It seems that I was wrong.”

Chapter 169

Hearing this, Julia didn’t know what to say. She thought that Steve was also framed by someone, but she didn’t expect that he was one of the chief plotter, who could not be blamed.

“Okay, I’ll be careful of Brandon.” Julia said with a slight smile.

“And be careful of my cousin, Mona. I have been taking care of the company affairs these days. I always feel that she is busy with something. I will notice you if there is anything specific. ” After pausing for a few seconds, Steve said softly.

Julia nodded: “Okay, thanks.”

After hanging up the phone, Julia couldn’t help but rub her forehead with her hand. A touch of coldness came out of her heart. Indeed, the saying “knowing the outside world, not knowing the inside”. She had worked with Brandon for such a long time.

I’ve never known that Brandon is such a scheming woman. By the way, last time, when Julia saw Brandon talking to Lisa, could it be that Brandon had been scheming against her since then.

She was sure that Lisa had told Brandon what had happened between her and Shawn. She also wondered if Brandon did that because Brandon couldn’t bear her behavior? Julia couldn’t figure out Brandon’s motive.

When she was lost in thought, the car had stopped at the gate of the police station. Julia took a deep breath and Zoey kept staring at her. Julia smiled helplessly and turned Zoey's head. "I am really not that fragile. You don't have to stare at me all the time. I will feel embarrassed."

"Oh, let go of me. I have to take good care of you." Zoey shook off Julia's hand but didn't dare to fight with Julia for fear of hurting the baby in her belly.

Julia was speechless. She rubbed her eyebrows and pulled Zoey out of the car.

Seeing the little princess of the Nelson Group, the police quickly greeted them.

"We want to ask Mr. Zhang a few questions. This is my lawyer. Please take us to Mr. Zhang." Zoey raised her head with her long curly hair hanging on the back. She wore a cute princess dress with a bowknot on her head. An arrogant little princess who was from fairy tale books looked at the police seriously.

Of course, the police didn't dare to neglect the princess's words, and quickly took them to a detention room.

Zoey had never been to such a place. The darkness in the detention house made her want to scream on Julia, who held her. She looked around and saw the guard of the detention house. When she looked at him, he was also looking at her.

Julia shrank her head. This man was expressionless, his eyes glancing with malicious light, which made her feel a little uneasy.

"Mr. Zhang." Julia called him.

Hearing Julia's voice, Mr. Zhang was stunned and looked at them in disbelief.

"Mr. Zhang, I remember that the Nelson Group has been good to you. Why did you frame them?" Julia spoke softly.

If the material used at the beginning was all right, then it must be replaced by someone later. Mr. Zh ly, Julia had to Sarahve with Zoey.

From the moment they entered, the bodyguards at the gate of the detention house kept staring at them. Julia didn't know if he had anything to do with them.

But his gaze made her feel very uncomfortable. As if she thought of the snake hiding in the dark, it popped out and bit her hard. So she had better be careful for those innocent people.

After they went out, the police respectfully sent them to the door. Julia reminded the police, "watch Mr. Zhang carefully. Keep him safe."

"Okay." The policeman said.

Seeing them come out, Peter wanted to ask them something, but he didn't dare to.

As soon as they got on the car, they received Shawn's call. With Peter here, Shawn knew their whereabouts.

"Why don't you just stay at home?" Although Shawn was not happy, he didn't dare to be too tough in case of frightening Julia.

Julia smiled and thought that this kind of CEO was really rare to see. But maybe she had to face this kind of CEO for a period of time.

"I just came out to get some fresh air," Julia answered in a soft voice, which made Shawn want to reproach something more but he didn't say anything.

“Okay, go back early. Take care of yourself. Don’t get hurt. ” All Shawn could do was to remind her. He wished he could have taken that woman into his mouth so that she wouldn’t run away.

“I know, I know, nagging father!” Julia pretended to be impatient. Thinking that he was also busy there, she couldn’t help but remind him, “take care of yourself. Don’t force yourself so hard.”

With a smile, Shawn said as he looked through the documents in front of him, “mom is so nagging, too.”

Dark red was on Julia’s cheek, and she quickly hung up the phone. But her mood was extremely happy. He was Dad, and she was Mom. They were a family.

Julia gently touched her belly and thought to herself, ‘baby, daddy and Mommy are ready to wait for your arrival.’.

Chapter 170

“Peter, go to the construction site.” Putting away her phone, Julia raised her voice and said to the driver.

Peter’s hand stiffened. He said awkwardly, “Master told me not to let you go out. He was afraid that you might hurt yourself.”

Last time when Julia went back home, he was severely punished by Shawn. If he hadn’t been Shawn’s driver for eight years, he might have been expelled from Nelson Group. He didn’t dare to let Julia do anything bad.

“It’s okay. I’m just going to have a look. I mean it.” Julia said seriously.

Now even Zoey stopped her and said to Peter, “Peter, go back to the villa.”

He won against her. So, Julia had to yield. Unwillingly, she returned to the villa.

After lunch, both of them lay on the bed, with a lollipop in his mouth. They looked up at the ceiling and enjoyed the lollipop in a relaxed manner.

“Julia, you don’t even know who is the boss behind it.” Zoey turned to ask, only to find that Julia looked very serious. She bit the lollipop and didn’t utter a word.

“Hello.” Zoey shook her arm.

“what?” Julia was brought back to earth and looked at Zoey, confused.

“Do you come up with something?”

Julia shook her head and sighed heavily. Then she said slowly, “I’m just sighing that the world is too cold and sinister. A nice man would betray you for various purposes. But after knowing the truth, I can’t scold him, because his motive is not wrong. “

Zoey glared at her and cursed, “psychopath!”

Hearing Zoey’s words, Julia shook her head heavily. This girl hadn’t come across anything serious, so she couldn’t understand her sigh.

But she could only agree with Zoey on the first sentence. Indeed, they didn’t know who was behind Mr. Zhang. Mr. Zhang was just a person who worked for the company and a tool. Even if they knew that Mr. Zhang was involved in the accident, they wouldn’t know who was behind him.

“It’s you who didn’t allow me to visit the construction site. I may find something if I go there,” Julia pushed all responsibility to Zoey. Zoey felt speechless when she heard that.

“You’d better rest at ease. Just Sarahve everything to my brothers.” Zoey comforted her.

Julia picked up the pillow and thought to herself, ‘if it was Holden who did this, what would Shawn do?’? But how could it be possible. How could Holden do it.

Mona? Could it be Mona? But what could she get from it? If Shawn knew it, she would be blacklisted, no, she had been blacklisted by Shawn.

Was it Mona’s desperate action? Julia thought of Steve’s warning, “be careful of Mona.”.

Alas, even if it was, she could only think about it here casually. She didn’t know how was the investigation going on for Shawn.

At night, Shawn didn’t come back. Julia was depressed and put down her phone. She wanted to ask him about the progress of the matter after he came back home. As the person in charge of this project, Julia couldn’t be out of it.

As Julia Sarah

“Yes, Master.”

Shawn stood up at the window, and rubbed his forehead. The crowd was still standing in front of the gate.

His cell phone rang. Looking at the caller ID, Shawn picked it up.

“Master, Mona was arrested at the airport. Now she is on her way back. The trial could probably start tomorrow.”

“Yes.” Shawn hung up the phone.

John came in.

“Too many things have happened lately.” John stretched himself and couldn’t help but complain.

“I find that your ability to lie is getting better and better. You are just guessing Brandon did that, but when did Steve sell her out?” Looking at his sinister boss, John could not help but sigh for Brandon.

It was not easy to get the position of secretary general all the way. Just a few words from Shawn made her lose her job at once. What a ruthless tyrant.

Sooner or later, everyone in the Secretary office would be renovated by this tyrant.

Although John sympathized with Brandon, he could only feel sympathy for her. But he didn’t feel sympathy for Brandon when he saw how bad Julia had been. Before she did it, she had to think about the worst result.

Brandon was just too confident about her own way. Seeing that Shawn and Steve were not getting along well with each other, she thought Steve would be her best ally, but the relationship of interests was often the most unsteady.

“Work for me when you have time to complain.” said Shawn with a cold look “Shawn, pSarahse don’t say that...” John howled and was on the verge of collapse. He was not the guy who would be not so tired with such a heavy workload!

“I’m afraid that Mona can’t do that alone. So who is behind all this. That’s so evil! How dare he offend the Li group?” John couldn’t wait to pull out the man who was operating from behind.

Hearing that, Shawn frowned, rolled his eyes at John, and said gloomily, “work.”

Shocked, John took the order to be an diligent assistant immediately.
