

Blossoming Her Shielded Heart Chapter 171 – 180

Chapter 171

At Nelson's mansion.

Zoey stood at the door and waited for Shawn to come back. Seeing her like this, Noah could not help but walk close to her and said, "Zoey, come in and wait. It's windy outside."

"It's okay. I'll wait here." Zoey looked back and smiled at Noah.

Zoey's intention was so obvious that it was not hard for Noah to decipher. But she was not a good match for Shawn. Shawn and Julia had already married.

"Zoey, thank you for taking care of Shawn these days. I don't know how to pay you back. If Shawn has not been married, I would like you to be my daughter-in-law." Marwell said half jokingly and half seriously.

"He got married?" Zoey asked in a daze.

"Didn't he mention it to you?" Asked Noah.

Shaking her head, Zoey smiled helplessly. "He never mentioned anything to me. I said everything to myself."

“That’s him. You don’t have to mind. But he treated his wife very well. What a pity that they seldom came back together. ” Noah smiled. Since Julia was his daughter, of course he was still protecting her.

“Really?” Zoey asked with a bewildered look.

Noticing the change in Zoey’s eyes, Noah said, “Holden is a good boy. You can see that at home. Zoey, I like you very much and hope you can stay in our family. “

To put it bluntly, he wanted Zoey to be with Holden.

Before Zoey could refuse, she saw Shawn’s car coming in slowly from the outside. She hastily walked up to it.

“Hi, Shawn. You’re back.” She walked to the back door and waited for him to get off.

Shawn nodded, without looking at her, and went straight into the Nelson family.

Zoey was depressed, but she soon raised a gentle smile and followed Shawn.

There was no change in the Nelson family. After the morality incident, the white hair on Noah’s head increased day by day, and he was a few years older. After the incident was settled down, no one mentioned it again.

Now there was another thing that happened. With a heavy sigh, Noah sat down in front of Shawn and asked, “how is it now?”

Shawn rubbed the spot between his eyebrows with one hand, and then summoned the other to ask Zoey to acupuncture.

“You can see the results tomorrow.” His voice was as cold as winter, without any ups and downs. It seemed that the person sitting in front of him was not a person, but a dispensable ice sculpture.

“Well, that’s good.” Taking a look at Zoey, Noah said, “when can you bring Julia back home? It is inappropriate to hide her all the time. People will think that you are unmarried if you don’t tell them.”

“Yes.” Shawn didn’t contradict Noah..

“Have you found out where Julia lives?” Noah asked again.

“No.” Shawn denied.

Noah lowered his head in despair. He was old and had to depend on his child for everything. Although Shawn was the most naughty boy, he loved him and trusted him t prominence, and I can match Shawn. That person said it was a good way to kill two birds with one stone. ” Mona laughed.

“Did you bribe Mr. Zhang?” Julia didn’t want to hear her nonsense.

“Yes, it’s me. I got the poisonous materials. When there was no one in the construction site, I secretly changed the materials. I also put some poisonous chemicals in some workers’ rooms, in order to increase their death. ” Mona looked at Julia coldly.

“But they are too tough to be killed. That’s why I went to the hospital and drugged that patient who hasn’t woken up yet. I want him dead. Your crime will be found only if he dies. I will never have to face you, I will not have to see your disgusting face, and I will not hear your disgusting words. “

“Shawn is mine. Julia, you can’t compete with me! Only when you have an accident and you disappear, can he really belong to me. “

“Julia, why do you always take my things? Why do you always take my things? I’m obviously better than you, prettier than you, and my background is much better than yours. But why do you always win? “

“This is our last match. I lost! I could have won, but why did he help you? How can he possibly track me down? I have done it very well. No one can’t find out. “

“I win! I lost. I win! I lost Haha, I still win. Julia, I won’t let you go. I will never let you go! ” With these words, Mona stared at Julia fiercely and laughed wildly.

Julia shook her head and said, “Mona, you have to follow our deal. Whether we can win, we can lose. Be cool, okay? “

Her words made Mona slightly stunned.

With calmness arising from Mona’s turbid eyes for a moment, she fixed her eyes on Julia and grinned, “someone wants to attack the Nelson Group. Julia, it’s not over yet.”

After that, she suddenly lowered her face and hands, and her tone returned to normal. She muttered decadent, “I lost, I lost.”

Julia sighed, stood up and left.

Chapter 172

When Julia walked out of the police station, with the warm sunshine falling on her, she opened her arms. It was nice to be in the sun. Everything was about to come to an end.

“Zoey, let’s go home.” Julia gave a bright smile to Zoey who was standing behind her.

Zoey nodded and followed Julia with a big smile.

After so many days, the mystery was finally solved, and they were relieved. The scandal about the Nelson Group would slowly disappear as time went by, and the Nelson Group would be promoted faster.

However... Julia was still a little confused. Who was the person that Mona told about?

Did someone really do that? Or did she just say it casually?

Anyway, the matter had been settled, and there was nothing to tangle about.

Back in the car, Julia couldn't help but admire Shawn and talked to Zoey, "I am going to help your brother investigate this case. But it seems that he doesn't need my help at all." Her effort was in vain.

Shawn started the investigation with the main information, while Julia did it from the details. Naturally, he did faster than she did.

"Of course, I have told you Brother Shawn can do anything." Zoey puffed up her nose proudly. Julia looked at her who was with great pride. She was praising Shawn, not her...

But Julia still felt a little bit blue. From now on, Mona would really disappear from her life. No matter what kind of conflict they had before, she couldn't help feeling a little dejected when she was forced to survive her life alone.

Julia can't help but sighed deeply. She hadn't seen Ryan for a long time. She wondered how he would react after he knew about it. She always felt guilty to him, which could not be dispelled.

Evena was calling her on the phone.

"Hello, Evena." Julia called Evena.

“It turned out to be Mona. She is too tough. You two have been entangled with each other for nearly six years. ” Evena sighed.

Hearing what Evena said, Julia felt a lump in her throat. She and Mona had been in a hostile relationship, but they were also very familiar with each other and the other’s weakness.

It had been six years...

Julia lost an enemy that she had fought against for six years but she was not happy at all. On the contrary, she felt empty in her heart.

Julia remembered she met Mona in the selection of student union. They were both in the planning department. Because they were both good-looking, they were often compared by others. As a matter of fact, they had different temperament and there was nothing to compare. It was just nonsense, but Mona took it seriously.

Mona was defeated by Julia in the school beauty campaign. It was said that Mona was a coquettish woman and she didn’t look like a good girl.

Julia was elected minister of the student union, while Mona was elected vice-minister. It was Julia that is more popular than Mona, so Julia got more votes than Mona did.

Mona also lost out to Julia when they ran for president because Nathan had given Julia great support.

This was the same result every time. In fact, Mona won many times. But she didn’t see her advantages, she only saw the merits of Julia. Wha olin left with his long legs. His back was cold and decisive.

If the little brother you are talking about has no blood relationship with you, will you still regard him as your brother? Holden looked at the sky outside the window. He had been suppressed for almost twenty years by a secret. He didn't want to wait any longer like a slaughtered lamb.

The secret would be uncovered one day. Only if he got the supreme power to control the Nelson Group or destroy it, he could get the equal position with them.

But why did Shawn win every time?

Holden clenched his fists and pounded the heavy table hard. It seemed he couldn't get over it, Holden waved the papers off the table together.

Holden's two secretaries dared not to dissuade him when they saw him getting angry and they both got out of the office.

"Holden, what's wrong?" Zoey pushed the door open and asked in confusion.

Zoey came to bring food for Shawn. By the way, she come to see Holden.

"Don't worry. There are cockroaches on the table." Seeing Zoey coming in, Holden regained his usual tenderness and nodded politely to her. "Have a seat."

"This is for you. You two have worked hard for the Nelson Group." Zoey put the food on Holden's table.

Without any emotional fluctuation, Holden thanked Zoey politely and then cSarahred up the documents on the table. His cultivation for more than 20 years had almost been broken because of Shawn.

The two secretaries saw this and hurried to help Holden cSarahn up.

Zoey also helped Holden. And Holden thanked her politely and said nothing more.

“Then I’ll go first.” Zoey felt bored. She had thought that Holden was a gentle man who was good at coaxing girls. However, she didn’t expect although Holden was a gentle man, he couldn’t initiate conversation with others just like Shawn.

After Zoey left, Holden called Zoey.

“What’s up, Brother Holden? We are going back to the villa. ” Zoey said with a smile.

“Zoey, Go back to the mansion tonight. I have something to tell you.” Holden’s tone was full of love and tenderness.

“Okay!” Zoey replied briskly.

Chapter 173

“Why did your Brother Shawn call you?” Julia turned and asked to Zoey.

“I don’t know. He asked me to go back to the mansion tonight. Julia, would you like to go back with me and tell mom and dad about your pregnancy? ” Zoey held Julia’s arm.

Julia smiled helplessly, “Do you think your mother will be happy? “

Julia’s words doused Zoey’s enthusiasm. In view of the current situation of Julia and Juliet, Juliet might hope that the baby in Julia’s belly died...

“But you and Brother Shawn will never go back to the mansion all your lives, will you?” Zoey asked with a frown.

Julia shrugged her shoulders and didn’t answer Zoey. In fact, her mother was right. Love is a matter of two people, while marriage is a matter of two families. Her mother was unable to face Juliet and Noah, so her mother had been blocking her and Shawn's marriage. But, honestly speaking, was she really willing to call Juliet as mother-in-law? She was also unwilling to do that.

Alas...

It was still a tangled question for Julia.

"I'm not going back. I'll ask Peter to send you back later." Julia refused. She had tried her best not to face the elders of Shawn, especially Juliet.

"All right." Zoey understood Julia's difficulties, but she couldn't help lowering her head in disappointment.

When they got back to the villa, Maria had already prepared desserts and fruits for them. Zoey and Julia occupied the whole sofa while eating. Instead of grabbing the remote control from Julia, Zoey gave it to her.

Julia was surprised at Zoey's behavior. But Julia thought of how cautious Zoey had been when Zoey Sarahrned Julia had a baby, Zoey's behavior is not unreasonable. Julia was very calm, while all the people who loved her were very nervous...

Julia shook her head helplessly.

Late in the afternoon, Peter sent Zoey back to the mansion.

Shawn came back very early this tonight. He didn't show any surprise when he heard that Zoey had gone back to the mansion. It seemed that he had already anticipated that Zoey would Sarahve.

"I heard that you went to the police station today again?" Shawn lifted Julia up from the sofa and put her on his legs. He habitually lowered his head and kissed her cheek, asking softly.

"Nothing. I just want to take a walk!" Julia tried to answer in a perfunctory way.

However... How Shawn can be answered in a perfunctory way! He asked slowly, "Did you see Mona?"

"Well, how do you know it's her?" Julia raised her head to look at Shawn and asked.

Shawn, touching Julia's cheek, chuckled and said seriously, "Because I have special power and I can move instantly."

Julia's face turned red, and she Sarahned her head on Shawn's shoulder, smiling. This man was childish and cute.

"What's the name of our baby, Shawn?" Julia gently touched her belly, looked at Shawn's chin and asked.

"Every name will be fine." Shawn answered casually.

"How can a child be choose a name casually? " Julia angrily looked a 's eyes were filled with crystal tears. She looked at Holden incredulously. She had never thought that he would treat her like this one day.

"Zoey, I love you. Will you be with me like this from now on? " Holden kissed her shoulders gently and whispered in her ear.

Zoey trembled with fear. How could Holden like her? They were brother and sister, weren't they?

"Don't be scared, Zoey. Just like you and Shawn, I'm not your biological brother. Don't have a burden. Good girl." Feeling Zoey's anxiety and concern, Holden coaxed her gently. He had spent many sleepless nights coaxing her like that.

Zoey looked up at Holden in disbelief.

“Don’t ask anything. You just need to know that I’m not your biological brother. ” Holden kissed Zoey’s eyelids, said with infinite tenderness and pampering. As long as Zoey was with him, he didn’t need anything else.

Hearing what Holden said, Zoey just felt very tired. She closed her eyes gently and Sarahned in his arms. Zoey still couldn’t digest many things. She didn’t understand why her Brother Holden, who always doted on her, suddenly told her that he loved her and made love with her!

Julia was right... It’s easy to know men’s faces, but not their hearts. Zoey seemed to have never really known about Holden, but only knew that he always doted on her since childhood. So she had taken his love for granted.

What should she do if her parents knew all things? She was afraid...

Zoey hugged Holden instinctively.

“Brother Holden, pSarahse don’t do that again? They will know. I’m afraid. ” Zoey sobbed as she looked up at Holden.

“They won’t know if you move out and live with me.” How could Holden possibly let her go? After he had sex with Zoey for the first time, he restrained himself all the time. This time, he wouldn’t let her go.

Zoey was in silent for a while and firmly said, “No, I don’t want to live with you. I want to live with Julia and Brother Shawn.”

Such a brother would only scare her.

Chapter 174

“Zoey, don’t piss me off. I will punish you, okay?” Holden bit Zoey’s nose unhappily, but Zoey was still unwilling to go with him.

But Zoey was exhausted after making love with Holden last night who was just like a rag doll now. Holden helped her take a shower, put her on the bed, skillfully helped her dress, and carried her out of the door.

Zoey struggled on his back, but she didn't dare to tell her parents. She thought that she should consider more for Holden.

"What's wrong with Zoey? Is she sick?" Seeing that Holden had carried Zoey on his back, Juliet asked worriedly.

Holden looked back at Zoey whose face flushed bright red and answered with a smile, "She has a fever. I'll take her to the hospital."

"No..." Zoey did not want to Sarahve, but she did not dare to say anything in front of her mother. Finally she could only be taken away by Holden obediently. Holden knew much about Zoey. It was so easy for him to take her away.

The family was silent after Holden and Zoey left.

Before the storm, everything was quiet.

When Julia called Zoey, she was held in Holden's arms who was overbearing. Hearing Julia's voice, Zoey cried out without saying nothing.

Julia was confused by the sudden cry of Zoey. She was bored at home today and wanted to ask Zoey to try her new dishes. Zoey was the only female companion that she could talk to and play with.

Julia didn't dare to bring Evena to this villa. Shawn would definitely throw Evena away!

"What's wrong with you?" Julia frowned and asked, "Why did Holden ask you to go back home?"

“Oh, Julia...” With Holden’s gaze on her, Zoey didn’t know how to make a response. The only thing she could do was to cry...

When Julia heard Zoey crying, he thought she was in some serious trouble. “Hello? Where are you? “

“I don’t know. I’m with Brother Shawn... Purr...” Zoey continued to cry.

“What are you crying for being stay with Holden? I thought something was serious. ” Julia breathed a sigh of relief.

Zoey cried even louder. It was because of Holden that she cried so loud! How could she tell Julia that her brother kidnapped her? If Julia and Shawn knew it, would they fight with Holden?

“Sister-in-law.” Holden took the phone from Zoey’s hand and said gently.

“What’s wrong with Zoey?” Julia finally found a normal person to talk with and asked.

“We were in the haunted house. She was so timid that she cried,” Said Holden calmly.

Zoey just wanted to take her phone back. That was not a haunted house!

Noticing that Zoey moved too fast, Holden stopped the car. He held her with one hand, and continued to talk with Julia her holding the phone on the other hand.

“I see. You went to the haunted house early in the morning. You do have this pSarahsure. I won’t bother you. Have fun! ” Julia laughed and said.

“Okay, bye.” Holden kissed on Zoey’s forehead and replied smilingly.

“Bye.” Holden hung up over there as soon a an cure my arm.”

“It’s possible, isn’t it? You should try if it’s possible” Julia stared at Shawn and said seriously.

She hoped that Shawn’s arm could recover soon. Although many people didn’t dare to take about him in his face, there must be someone talking about him behind his back. She didn’t want to hear anyone talk about him.

“Okay, I’ll go back tonight. Is that okay?” Seeing that Julia was about to get angry, Shawn said in a hurry. He carefully sat up with hands on her belly and couldn’t help saying, “Be careful of our baby. Don’t be so excited.”

Looking at Shawn’s look, Julia tittered. It turned out that sometimes the president would be nervous, or she would think that he was a cold-blooded man.

“Then when are you Sarahving?” Asked Julia.

“I will be worried if you stay alone in the villa. I will go after Zoey comes here.” Shawn rubbed Julia’s nose, full of reluctance and connection.

Julia was speechless and thought, ‘Isn’t Maria a human being She was not alone. Besides, her belly hasn’t turned bigger yet. She doesn’t need to be taken care of so carefully...’

However, Julia was still happy hearing Shawn’s words. She put her arms around his waist, looked up and asked, “Have you decided the name of our baby? “

“Right. The baby who will be born first is called big baby, and the later one is called little baby. If there is any child, we can call it baby...” Shawn replied with a smile, and could not help but reach out to smooth Julia’s hair.

Julia was furious and thought, 'is he really interested in a name? It must be some random words!

"The name is important." Julia tried to persuade Shawn.

Shawn Nelson rolled his eyes at her and said in a cool tone, "he has hands. After he is born, put aside a book and teach him how to play."

Julia was speechless. How could she marry such a man? She lowered her head and touched her belly with her hand, "Baby, please forgive your father's single cell..."

Chapter 175

At dusk, Julia called Zoey.

Zoey didn't answer. Then, Julia called her several more times, but Zoey's phone was powered off. Julia looked at her phone in confusion. Why didn't Zoey answer her phone? And the phone was powered off. What's wrong with her?

Julia looked at Shawn helplessly, "Zoey even didn't answer my phone. "

Slightly frowning, Shawn dialed the number of Holden and said one sentence, "I'll come to your villa if Zoey doesn't come here in an hour. "

Then Shawn hung up the phone quickly. Julia was shocked and asked, "Who did you call just now? " 'He was so unfriendly and spoke so fast.'

Without answering, Shawn held Julia's waist and took her into his arms. Their bodies were so close. Then Shawn covered themselves with a quilt. He nodded slightly and kissed her tender lips. Julia passively kissed back him, with her hands tightly around his neck and her eyes hanging down. She was too shy to look at his affectionate eyes.

'They had stayed with each other for a day. Wasn't it enough for him to kiss her?'

After a long time, Shawn finally picked her up from the bed, bathed and dressed. When they came to the hall, the door of the villa was just opened.

Zoey, like a lost child who finally found her mother, pounced on Julia and hugged her tightly when she saw Julia. Julia cried in pain, "Zoey, get your hands off me!"

Her body was already aching all over tormented by Shawn, and she couldn't stand Zoey's passion anymore.

"Julia, I am so miserable!" Zoey was pushed away by Julia. She twitched her mouth and her tears were about to fall.

"You were just going to the haunted house? Do you have to cry till now? "

After giving Zoey a scornful look, Julia pulled her to the sofa and sat down.

On the other side, Holden was still standing at the door. With a cold expression on Shawn's face, he Sarahned against the sofa and quietly looked at Holden.

Julia noticed that something was wrong. She turned around and saw that the two brothers were affectionately looking at each other, as if they wanted to give each other a good beat.

When Julia was still wondering what was going on between them, she only saw that Shawn went up first and punched Holden in the face. Holden was also not to be outdone. The two men were fiercely fighting with each other.

"Brothers!" Zoey was a little bit scared. She tugged at Julia's sleeve and didn't know how to stop them.

"You two..." Julia wanted to stop them.

“Bang!” Julia was interrupted by the sound of Holden’s heavy fall on the table. Holden struggled to stand up and also smashed Shawn into the cupboard with the advantage of his both hands.

“Bang!”

Kneeling on the sofa and covering the ears, Julia and Zoey lowered their heads and watched the two men fight.

“What should we do, Julia?” Zoey asked anxiously. She must get hurt if she stop them and she didn’t know which side she should stand on.

“It’s up to you. I don’t know what kind of hatred they have. Once they g r into his arms and bit her lips with his mouth, and they tangled.

“.....” Julia regretted what she had done. She should have been more ruthless to tape his mouth and nose and suffocate him.

But it was too late. After Shawn kissed her, Julia nestled in his arms obediently and yawned.

Shawn couldn’t help kissing Julia on her forehead. After a long time, he put her on the bed and got up to change his clothes.

“Are you going back?” Julia covered the quilt with Shawn’s remaining warmth, looking at his back, and asked.

“I’ll be back soon. Don’t wait for me. Go to bed early. It’s good for the baby.” Shawn nodded and gently scraped Julia’s nose with his fingers.

Julia nodded obediently and smiled at him. “Be careful on the road. If it’s too late, you don’t have to come back. You can rest assured with Zoey here.”

“Okay.” Shawn kissed her on the corner of her lips, stood up and left.

Seeing Shawn’s figure disappearing at the porch, Julia smiled sweetly. She felt good to have him.

Since when had she become so dependent on him to the point that she couldn’t live without him? Was it because all pregnant women are more sensitive?

Because she was too sleepy, Julia slowly closed her eyes and went to sleep.

In Zoey’s bedroom.

Zoey stared at the ceiling and wondered, ‘Why did her brothers fight with each other?’ She couldn’t help but turn to look at the man who made her love, scared and hateful. “Does Brother Shawn know what happened? “

Zoey’s voice was choked with fear.

“Well, baby, don’t mention him.” Holden hated to hear the name of Shawn from Zoey. He Sarahned down, gently kissed her cheek and dried her tears, as if he swallowed her fear.

He was crazy and he would also pull her crazy.

Once it started, there would be no chance for her to go back.

“What do you think what mother and father will do if they know it?” Not daring to imagine the scene, Zoey closed her eyes in pain and just let Holden do whatever he wanted.

Chapter 176

When she returned to Nelson's mansion, Zoey was already waiting for her in the hall.

"Sorry for waiting for me, Dr. Ding." Shawn's "Dr. Ding" made their relationship cSarahr.

Zoey's heart ached. With a gentle smile, she said, "not long ago. What's wrong with your face?"

Without answering him, Shawn sat on the sofa and pile up his sleeves. Standing beside him, Zoey began to acupuncture. She looked gentle and lovely, and was really good at it.

"Shawn? You've never mentioned that you have a wife." Zoey said slowly, trying to get closer to him.

"It has nothing to do with the injury of my hand." Said Shawn in a cold tone. He didn't even look at Zoey.

Since he was injured in the car accident, Zoey and Zoey had been taking care of him. And it was Zoey who had actively helped him recover his arm. He would thank her for these things. However, Shawn knew Zoey's thoughts.

If he had to marry a woman without Julia, he might consider marrying her.

Hearing Shawn's words, Zoey could not help but feel depressed. If 'his arm couldn't be cured all the time. Can I stay with him all the time

"You don't have to treat me in the future. I will pay you all the medical fees," Shawn said coldly.

Shocked, Zoey looked at him and asked, "why? Are you doubting my medical skills? "

Shawn shook his head, looked at Zoey coldly, and said, “Dr. Ding’s medical skill is very good, but I know my own injury. There isn’t 100% thing. I don’t want to gamble.

The acupuncture was a long process and it had little effect. He never liked to wait.

Biting her lips, Zoey didn’t say a word, but her eyes were tearful. She knew that Shawn would not give her any chance to approach. She knew something must have happened to him. Although he had been very cold to her before, he hadn’t refused her so obviously.

She had never seen his so-called wife visit him when he was in hospital. By the way, Zoey had said that Shawn had lost part of his memory. Has he regained his memory now? Before he could finish his sentence, James interrupted and impatiently pushed him away.

After the acupuncture, without a moment’s rest, Holden got up and left.

However, her words did not work at all. She heard a roar of wind. Hearing that, Shawn left without looking back.

The next day, Julia slowly woke up, but the man next to her was still asleep. She turned to look at him and saw that he frowned, but his face was still cold, without any temperature.

Julia put her hand on his brow, raised her head and kissed him on the lips.

“My sleeping beauty, time to get up.”

She called him softly. Without opening his eyes, Shawn accurately pressed his lips on hers. While kissing, he smiled and said, “kitten, this kiss can’t wake up the sleeping beauty.”

Ka

ssed.

Julia was stunned and looked at Zoey. Shawn was truly wronged. When she was in a daze and saw Holden stand up at that time, she thought it was an illusion, so she didn’t think of anything about Holden

Julia patted her head, speechless for a moment. It was not easy to offend men of Nelson family, actually Did Shawn know it? So that’s why he fight with Holden last night? Why didn’t he stop them! He still let Holden bully Zoey. Julia was furious and cursed Shawn in her mind.

Seeing that Julia was agitated, Zoey said nervously, “be careful, don’t hurt the baby.”

Julia took a deep breath and calmed down. She turned around and asked Zoey, “what are you going to do?”

“I don’t know,” Zoey replied honestly. She was the passive one who had no idea what to do.

Julia sighed. She thought that she couldn’t tell this matter to Noah and Juliet, or it would cause a huge uproar. Besides, since Holden loved Zoey so much, apart from status, Julia also supported their relationship.

However They were brother and sister Although they were not related by blood.

'Trouble came one by one.' Julia sighed and shook her head. She had just dealt with the problem of the construction site, and now a problem between brother and sister appeared. She was exhausted

"Never mind. If anything happens to you, we'll be there to face it." Julia could only comfort her.

Zoey looked at Julia with gratitude. She nodded her head heavily and grinned.

Julia didn't mention anything about Holden anymore, but casually asked, "what are you going to do during your winter vacation?"

"I need to be the 24-hour nurse to take care of you and the baby." Zoey blinked at Julia with a serious look.

Julia's face twitched.

"Madam, Miss, it's time for lunch." Maria greeted with respect.

Madam Julia was stunned and wondered when she became Madam..

Well, Madam is quite good. Haha Julia smiled with satisfaction.

Chapter 177

After lunch, the two, who didn't have work to do, stayed at home, absent-minded. Julia wanted to play her computer, but it was taken away by Zoey, who said that the computer was radiation. Just as Julia was trying to exercise, Zoey took away the rope and said that pregnant women shouldn't have strenuous exercise

Zoey would follow Julia wherever she went. The way she spoke to Julia carefully and thoughtfully made Julia sigh for several times. At last, Zoey changed from Shawn's Mommy to hers. She was just pregnant, not a big deal

Besides But now, two months had passed, and from now on, Julia would have a little tail every day, and there would be a pair of big and round eyes watching closely on her every day?

With this in mind, Julia felt very uncomfortable.

While Zoey was studying the food material for protecting the fetus, Julia secretly used her mobile phone to search the recovery rate of a disabled arm, and every message would have a negative impact on her.

The arms of Shawn.. What should she do to help him recover?

A touch of sadness appeared in her eyes. She wouldn't mind his arms, but wouldn't he mind himself? Julia knew about Shawn's born arrogance. Though he said nothing, he definitely minded it.

No one could accept the fact of self-disability, not to mention Shawn, the honorable king of the Nelson clan.

"Zoey, is Zoey's medical skill very good?" Julia suddenly turned her head to look at Zoey.

Zoey nodded, fixing her eyes on the ingredients on the book. "Since brother's car accident, she has been staying by his side all the time. Who let you run so far away and gave her the opportunity?" she said

"She is a nurse?" Julia was confused.

"Brother's grandma hasn't woken up. So he invited a world-class doctor to treat his grandmother. Zoey was the granddaughter of that old doctor, and she came with him. Originally, the old doctor was responsible for brother after the accident, and Zoey was only an assistant of the old doctor. Later, the old doctor was very busy, so she took over the responsibility of looking after my brother. "

“I told Zoey I have a sister-in-law but she didn’t believe it. In order to cure brother, my parents also invited her to the Nelson family mansion and arranged her to live in a guest room. Mommy likes her very much and she is very happy to talk with daddy and Mommy. “

After that, Zoey looked up at Julia. “But don’t worry. Brother doesn’t like her.”

“I’m not worried about that. It’s none of my business.” Julia said in an awkward voice.

“Humph! Who believes it?” Zoey didn’t believe her. She rolled her eyes at Julia.

Julia shook her off and asked, “do you think she can really cure your brother’s arm?”

“It’s hard to say. After so long treatment, brother’s hand did not respond at all. Her grandfather told her directly that it’s very difficult to cure my brother’s hand. Brother only could wait for the miracle with his skills. Do you think that as her granddaughter, her medical skill is better than her grandfather’s? ” Zoey said honestly.

After that, Zoey sighed again. “Now we can only use the last resort. Let Zoey have a try. The Chinese medicine’ she had planned?

Julia was in a trance while looking around.

“Okay.” With a smile, Julia turned around and said to Zoey, “let’s go.”

The reason why she had come to the construction site was just to finish the accident. It was not until she found that everything was going well that she felt relieved.

As there was a construction site here, the number of restaurants here increased. Julia intended to take Zoey for lunch, but Zoey insisted that the food outside was not safe and asked Maria to cook for her.

Julia had no choice but to concede. Zoey became her guardian.

“Julia?”

“Zoey!”

Suddenly, Julia heard two different sounds and turned around. But to her surprise, Julia saw Nathan , who she hadn't seen for a long time. It seemed that she hadn't seen him since she encountered him in the construction site last time. Julia was a little surprised to see him now.

She took a glance at Nathan and turned her eyes to the boy next to Nathan . The boy was about 20 years old, with a good-looking, tall figure. Although he was somewhat childish, he was definitely a beautiful man.

Julia was staring at the boy. Nathan elegantly and politely introduced, “his name is Hobson Li. He is the son of Mr. Lee. I take him here to visit the place he used to live.”

Nathan then turned to look at Zoey. Although he was confused, he was not in a hurry to talk. But he was interrupted by Hobson's introduction. “She is my college sister, Zoey Li.”

Julia was stunned. ‘it seems that the relationship between her and Nathan is quite complicated, ‘ thought Julia.

But Zoey didn't seem to greet Hobson. She tugged at the corner of Julia's clothes, beckoning her to Sarahve.

“Li? She is Shawn's sister? ” Nathan asked in confusion.

Julia nodded and said, “she is very impolite. Excuse us, we are Sarahving now.”

As soon as she took a step forward, she heard that Hobson behind her said, “Zoey, I went to your home and your mother said that you were not at home. Where have you been these days? “

Hobson sounded like an abandoned pet.

Julia looked suspiciously at Zoey, who looked agitated.

Chapter 178

“Zoey, pSarahse listen to me for a second,” Hobson walked towards Zoey and tried to hold her hand. But Zoey dodged and hid behind Julia.

“Hobson, how can you be so impolite?” Nathan frowned and scolded.

Hobson was silent.

“Hobson, what the hell do you want to do? You made me lose my face in front of all my classmates. ” Zoey looked at Hobson in disgust. She snorted and dragged Julia away without looking back.

With her eyes wide open, Julia was curious and believed that they seemed to have an affair!

She caught up with Zoey and asked cheekily, “Zoey, that boy is nice.”

“And then?” Zoey turned around and glared at her.

“Do you have any grudge against each other?” Ignoring Zoey’s contemptuous eyes, Julia walked up to her and grinned.

If it were not for the fact that Julia was pregnant, Zoey really wanted to kick her away. Though with her strength, she would be more likely to be kicked

“He was my senior and a member of the magic club.” Zoey said impatiently.

“A magic club? The magic club of Ventrusburg country was very legendary. You actually joined that community! Why didn’t you mention it? Did you perform a magic?” Julia was very excited. One of the things she regretted when she was in college was not be a member of the magic club.

It’s heard that this organization was specialized in recruiting cool boys and beauties, and person who looks ordinary were prohibited from entering. So the magic and good-looking people were very attractive.

“I don’t know how to play magic.” It seemed that Zoey didn’t want to talk about this topic any more. Her tone became more fierce as well.

“Really?” Julia gazed at Zoey with doubt. She didn’t believe that Zoey couldn’t play the magic after joining in the magic club.

Oh my God! If she was performing a magic, how many people would be fooled However, when Julia saw the arrogant expression on Zoey’s face, she shake her head. The magician should be kind to people, but Zoey was not kind at all.

When they got back to the car, Julia turned her head and looked at the outside. When she saw that Hobson ran towards their car, she got excited all of a sudden. She thought that she’d like to watch a good show.

“Zoey, pSarahse listen to my explanation!” He shouted from behind.

“Hurry up! I don’t want to see him! Hurry up!” Zoey also heard the sound, but she did not look back. Instead, she urged Peter with all her strength.

Peter was sweating from Zoey’s’ hurry up ‘, so he sped up.

Hobson ran fast, but compared to cars, the speed of Hobson was slower. Zoey didn't care how far they were from Hobson, but she kept urging Peter to drive as fast as possible.

Julia couldn't help but to say to Zoey, "my little princess, pSarahse don't urge Peter sed, Julia found they had returned to the bedroom and.. He was on top again and she was under him again.

"Shawn! Wait! " Julia turned her head and put her hands gently against his chest, shouting at him.

Shawn's hand paused. He stopped and teased, "Kitten, we have been married for long time. Don't be shy."

"Not so long!" Julia turned around and rolled her eyes at him. Her face went redder. Seized the chance, Shawn grasped her lips again.

"What were you trying to say just now?" At this time, Shawn asked with a smile.

Glancing at the man who was satisfied, Julia snorted and didn't want to say anything. As if he had read her mind, his tall and strong body approached her directly. The strong pressure made her shrink her head and compromise

"I just want to tell you that I've already known the relationship between Holden and Zoey." Said Julia.

"Okay." Shawn's reaction was indifferent.

Julia glanced at him and said with grievance: "and it's time for dinner. I'm so hungry..."

"Yes." Shawn's reaction was even more indifferent.

Julia was depressed.

“If you don’t eat, I’ll go for dinner.” Julia was afraid that something bad would happen if she stayed with this man again.

Hearing that, Shawn smiled. She gently hugged her waist with her long arm, and gently placed her hand on her flat abdomen. “How can I let my baby be hungry.”

Julia’s beautiful and red face made her more charming and even more striking in Shawn’s eyes.

“Kitten, you are so beautiful.” With his chin on Julia’s shoulder, Shawn blew her hair away and kissed her.

Her heart was soft and trembling as if a drop of water had entered it. Julia kept her eyes open and stared blankly ahead. Her misty eyes made her look mysterious and sexy. She was like a siren who was good at seducing men.

Chapter 179

After the boring and leisurely days in a row, Julia thought she had recovered well. She was not as weak as before, but Shawn hadn’t allowed her to go back to work.

Today, Zoey looked very different from usual. With her chin on her hand and her bright eyes staring at Zoey who was sitting on the sofa, Julia touched her almost invisible beard and pretended to think.

In the end, she really couldn’t find anything wrong about her. She could only take a way to interview him and asked doubtfully, “do you have a sad emotion as well?”

Zoey rolled her eyes at her and said, “today is my classmate’s birthday. Could you pSarahse go with me?”

Zoey’s classmate? What did that have to do with her? Julia was about to refuse, but she was stopped by Zoey. Julia lowered her eyes to look at her. Zoey shook Julia’s arm and said with a frown, “Julia, it’s not difficult to go with me.”

She was half threatening and half coquettish.

Zoey... Rubbing her forehead, Julia said: “it’s your classmate’s birthday. Won’t it be a little abrupt for me to go there?”

“It’s not abrupt. You saw the scene of my birthday last time, didn’t you? Their parties were also like that and they didn’t care who you were. ” Zoey said indignantly.

Moving her eyes around, Julia thought of one thing which had aroused her interest for several days. Was it taking advantage of Zoey if she asked it now? Julia grinned and looked at Zoey with a big smile. “Then tell me what happened between you and Hobson.”

Speaking of this, half of Zoey’s face suddenly darkened. Time stopped. Julia winced her neck and took the doll on the sofa as a shield. She was really afraid that Zoey would suddenly pounce on her and bite her.

After a long time, Zoey raised her head and took a glance at the spineless Julia hiding behind the big bear doll. She firmly said: “you can’t laugh at me.”

“I promise.” Julia was a curious girl. She had been tortured by the thing between Zoey and Hobson for several days. As long as there was a chance, she wouldn’t let it go.

“If you laugh, you have to listen to me for a week. Do whatever I ask you to do.” Zoey said with concern.

“Okay, you can say it.” Said Julia.

Zoey was silent again. She lowered her head as if she was preparing for the story. Julia waited for a long time before she heard Zoey’s voice.

“There was a magic show in the Welcome party for freshman. The magician was Hobson and I was his assistant.” Zoey looked at Julia who listened to her carefully and continued, “that night, what he performed was a pigeon flying out of my body.”

Julia nodded. It was a nice magic.

Zoey rolled her eyes at her and said with difficulty, “there was an accident during the performance, and he accidentally pulled my dress and took off it in front of the whole school.”

“Haha...” Hiding behind the doll, Julia tried not to laugh. She shrugged her shoulders and twitched like a crazy patient.

Zoey’s face darkened immediately. She stared at Julia behind the bear doll with a sinister look, “you said you wouldn’t laugh on’t want to go to the birthday party, why not refuse it.” Julia could tell that Zoey was extremely reluctant.

“But that’s my best friend. What if she won’t play with me?” Zoey sighed. It was not easy to make friends with friends.

Julia was forbade to do make-up by Shawn, and Zoey only wore a light make-up with a cute bow on the head. Julia sat on the bed, watching Zoey making a funny face in the mirror, and could not help smiling.

Even though she felt a little boring these days, Julia still liked to live in a peaceful and peaceful life. The peaceful and peaceful life, like a peaceful lake, without waves, but in fact, she was very tender and warm.

Though nothing has happened now, it doesn't mean it won't happen in the future. Julia didn't know how to explain her pregnancy to Barbara. After hearing that Barbara would rather accept the child as rapist's than admit that the child is Nelson family's, she really didn't know what to say.

She was also worried about Zoey and Holden, who were more difficult to be together than her and Shawn. Holden was at the age to get married, but how would Zoey do if Holden got married?

They didn't want to talk about it and they just wanted to run away from it. Just like Noah, he didn't say anything and was afraid of losing it as soon as he said it. But didn't he lose it in the end?

They believed that lies would break into pieces one day and the truth would be exposed to them. Where were they then.

About this, Julia felt herself as pathetic as Noah.

Julia turned her head and looked at the dark sky. The sun had already set and it was going to be winter, the coldest season of the year.

After getting everything ready, they went out to take a walk in the garden when they still had time. Zoey looked at the osmanthus tree in the backyard, jumped and picked a small flower. She smelled it and smiled. "It's time to make osmanthus cake."

Julia also nodded with a smile.

She didn't wish for a long time, but she hoped that such a life could be longer

Chapter 180

Zoey's classmate was also rich. Although the birthday party was not as big as the last time, it was still very lively. Most of her classmates were girls, and there was fewer adults.

Seeing that Zoey and Julia came in, some people cheered, "Miss SpongeBob is coming!"

Zoey cast a sharp glance at the people. They didn't stop laughing, instead, they laughed even more hysterically. Julia felt deeply speechless. How could Zoey don't have a little strong aura?

"Aunt, you're finally here!" A lovely and sweet girl hugged Zoey happily the moment she saw her.

Aunt? Julia looked at the girl in front of her in suspicion. She was about Zoey's age. Did Zoey have some relatives with this girl?

The girl looked at Julia beside Zoey and asked her curiously, "who is she?"

"My friend, Julia, is also our direct senior." Zoey introduced unhappily.

She was in a bad mood because of the people laughing around her.

"Hello, Senior. My name is Carrie Gu. You can call me Guoer." Carrie held Julia's hand and giggled.

Guoer? Aunt?

Julia finally made it cSarahr, 'they are playing the costume'

"Miss SpongeBob, it's SpongeBob cake. Don't you want to have a look?" The people around shouted again.

Zoey stood there in embarrassment. Her face darkened. Carrie, regardless of the princess dress she wore, walked over and kicked the crowd hard. “Are you courting death or do you want to die? How dare you bully my aunt! Fuck off! “

Julia suddenly felt that Carrie was a little familiar. She patted her forehead and thought to herself, ‘isn’t Carrie the girl who was determined to stand on the side of Zoey when she was involved in the scandal with Shawn?’? And she was on TV at that time

She was really brave.

“Anyway, it had happened. Don’t be afraid of being discussed by others. Zoey, are you wearing the SpongeBob underpants when you sleep with your brother? ” The bold classmate moved closer to Zoey, making faces at her while giggling.

Zoey couldn’t help giving that damn boy a slap in the face.

“How dare you hit me!” The boy was so angry that he jumped up. Zoey looked up at the boy arrogantly and said fiercely, “I hit you. So what! Don’t you dare touch me! “

Everyone was not scrupulous towards Zoey, but the CEO of the Nelson Group. Moreover, the crowd had just been jeering, and Zoey couldn’t find an object of revenge. If this boy really did something to her, Julia was sure that this boy would never see tomorrow’s sun, and Zoey was good at complaining “Fuck off!” Zoey once again bellowed at her.

The boy snorted and left in anger.

The students were divided into two factions. One was for Zoey and the other was against Zoey. Carrie didn’t stand for any part.

Julia finally understood why Zoey asked her to come here. At Sarahst with her here, Zoey didn't look so pitiful

"Julia, have more fruit."

The rest of the men and women had a sigh of relief, but Hobson then got out to chase the car after them. When they drove away, Julia saw that they was staring at them under the street lamp, still in a daze.

It was cSarahr that Hobson likes Zoey. His expression when he was at the construction site was not as simple as apology.

"Hello, Zoey. Are you okay?" Julia passed the tissue to her.

"Thank you." It was quite rare for Zoey to thank someone, but she just couldn't stop crying. She felt so humiliated.

"It's not a big deal. Don't cry for it." Julia tried to comfort her.

"No, no, No. I don't want to take classes now. Those people are all so hateful!" Zoey continued to cry.

What about Holden if Zoey and Hobson were together?

"Zoey, maybe you don't know about Hobson. Maybe he's a nice person." Said Julia, with a smile on her face.

"I don't care. I don't like him, and I especially hate him." Zoey wiped away her tears, and her anger slowly subsided. She looked at Julia pitifully and said, "Julia, I will really have only one friend in the future. It's you"

The friendship between the girl named Carrie and Zoey had come to an end.

"As long as you make an apology to Carrie, she will forgive you," Said Julia.

“Why should I apologize? I will never apologize. It’s not my fault.” Zoey was born arrogant and spoiled by Holden. She couldn’t get along with others except her two brothers.

Julia rubbed her forehead. What Shawn said was true. This little girl deserved a scolding. However, Zoey was used to being a princess. It seemed a little difficult for her to make an apology. In fact, Michelle wasn’t a bad person. She was just too arrogant. This kind of personality only caused some alienation.

Just now, Julia thought that her classmates were making fun of Michelle. Maybe they wanted Michelle to be part of the group, but Michelle misunderstood them.
