

Chapter 451

"However, Suzi is indeed beautiful, man! D*mn all visual animals...Go, go to the beauty salon first! I must surpass Suzi!"

The taxi drove out with a swish.

Christopher looked at Arron: "Master?"

"Go home!" Arron was short again. He didn't need to hear too much, he could only tell from the mouths of three gossip women. The girl here is very jealous of Suzi.

Jealous of Suzi's fate for men.

I am jealous of Suzi's beauty like a flower.

Not to mention that those women are jealous of Suzi's men's fate, even his husband, Suzi, is equally unhappy in his heart!

Christopher responded, drove to the kindergarten first, picked up Lilly and went home. As soon as she got in the car, she saw that there was no mother in the car. She immediately asked, "Where is my mother!"

"Where do I know!" Arron said grimly.

Lilly: "Aren't you waiting for my mom where my mom gets off work?"

"No! Take it! Here!" The man said with a cold face.

Lilly glanced at his father and suddenly smiled.

Then, the five-year-old Shen Zhiyi was very bad, and said with a tone of salting his father's wounds: "Oh, I see, it must be the handsome guy in my mother's company who wants to invite my mother to dinner, so Mom went to the appointment today, so you didn't pick up my mom. I guessed it right!"

Christopher: "... " I really sweated for my little princess.

Hey! Princess!

Although you are a princess and you are the most precious jewel of the Fu family, you can't hit your father like this, right?

Christopher was afraid that the next second, his father opened the car window and threw his daughter out with his own hands.

However, the man in the back seat only had a black face, but he did not open the car door, and did not make any gesture of throwing a girl at all. Arron only had a black face. Moreover, resolutely did not answer Shen Only's question.

Since then, Shen Only has become more and more happy.

Both her smiling eyes turned into two rounds of crescent moons: "Daddy, badass dad, even if you don't answer me, if you don't speak, I can guess. When I was in Quxian before, there were often very handsome and handsome guys. The handsome uncle invited my mother to dinner. They treat my mother well. Sometimes my mother will ask me if he likes that uncle to be my new father.

My mother, wherever she goes, there will be many handsome uncles chasing her.

So badass dad, you have to work hard, and treat my mother doubly, otherwise, my mother will be snatched away by other handsome uncles! "

Arron finally couldn't bear it: "Are you happy if your mother is snatched away by another man?"

"Of course! This shows that my mother is beautiful!"

"Then what if I..."

"You can't have a woman! If you dare to have a woman outside, I'll beat that woman out! Humph!" The little princess immediately stared at her father with anger.

Christopher: "Puff..." Just after smiling, he met his own master's murderous eyes, and Christopher immediately said, "Master, I'm home."

When the car stopped, the father and daughter got off, only to see that outside the door of their building, Suzi was standing at the door of their house waiting for them.

Shen Yiyi immediately rushed in front of Suzi in surprise: "Mom, you are at home!" They all walked to Suzi, but Suzi did not see the girl, but went straight to Arron, and threw it like Arron's arms. .

"Thank you." Suzi said lightly.

Chapter 452

Shen Only: "..."

Behind him, Christopher was forcibly stuffed with dog food: "..."

"Eh, little princess, you've been defending your mommy and suppressing your daddy all the way, but now, you have a bad nose at your mommy's place." Christopher was very unkind and slammed the only sore spot. .

The forgotten Lilly immediately raised his chin: "Humph! My mother is happy."

Christopher: "..."

He figured it out. Suzi, Shen's only mummy, is more than an all-human eater. She can eat all men and women, all young and old. Even the hardcore fan girl next to her can be called a monster-level warrior.

At this moment, Christopher wanted to sigh with emotion in front of his own father: Oh, my lord, it's so good to have a daughter, and one hundred daughters are good. I now finally understand why you are so far away, and it took so much effort and effort. Years, it cost hundreds of millions of dollars to bring back your relatives and your relatives' mothers.

It turns out that you are trying to find abuse for yourself.

As soon as he raised his head, Christopher saw the incomparable cold eyes of the Lord looking at him, and he was so scared that Christopher repeatedly said: "The Lord, if I'm fine, I'll go back first, I'll go back. ."

After speaking, he turned around and ran into the car.

When he got in the car, he looked through the glass, and his father held his wife into the elevator while holding his wife.

A family of three is still a family of three.

Christopher suddenly realized that he was actually the single dog being abused.

The single dog drove away quickly.

Here, after Arron hugged his wife and took her daughter into the elevator, he asked her, "Why come back so early today?"

Suzi: "Yeah." It's over. Looking up at him, he is still him. The image of a man with a calm and cold face but with deterrent power is indeed such a person. He even His half-brothers were all eliminated, but he...

However, Sanford's leg was healed.

I never told her.

"Is it for me?" she asked him in a nonchalant way.

"Huh?" The man didn't understand.

"Nothing." Suzi suddenly stopped asking. She couldn't betray the male doctor, and she couldn't betray Joan. She didn't even know if she said that he knew that Sanford was fine now, so she was grateful to him. . Will he send Sanford into exile again in a rage?

Because she couldn't guess what he was thinking.

I don't know when he got angry and when he was gentle.

As long as she knows now that he did not commit a murder to Sanford, it is enough reason for her to be grateful to him.

Men looked at her inexplicably. She rarely looked so shy and submissive. She talked little, but she was not docile.

But today is different.

Could it be because she was squeezed out of the company and wanted his husband to support him, Arron looked at Suzi while thinking like this in his heart.

It seems that she is not a person with such a personality.

She has always been lonely and indifferent. In the eyes of ordinary women, the so-called bullying and the so-called exclusion do not exist in her, and she does not take it seriously.

To put it bluntly, she is a woman who can bear to be excluded.

Seeing Suzi docilely said to him: "You take the only one to wash your hands. I washed my hands and came back for dinner. Today I participated in making a noodle dish, which is my favorite noodles from our hometown. Come and eat with your hands, otherwise the noodles will be lumpy in a while." That tone is like an old couple and an old wife.

The man was even more stunned.
