

Chapter 463

She felt that her cousin Christopher was Arron's personal bodyguard, and at least the cousin could protect her life when things happened.

Galia looked at Suzi earnestly: "Suzi, you are my cousin's friend. Please find my cousin. My cousin drove Arron. Maybe my cousin can help you."

Suzi shook his head: "No one can help me with this."

"Isn't it because of Lenny? It's not Lenny you took the initiative to find. Besides, you haven't had a meal with Lenny until now, and you haven't even paid attention to Lenny."

Suzi shook his head: "It's not because of this, you don't understand... it's okay, don't say it. Don't worry about me, I will be fine. Also, Galia, please help me keep it secret. Don't tell this matter. Your cousin is Christopher, okay?"

Galia didn't understand: "Why didn't you tell him?"

Suzi shook his head: "Your brother is just a driver. He can't help me, and he will cause trouble. I think big things are turned into small things, do you understand?"

Galia nodded: "Well, yes, I will keep it secret."

The two went out side by side, clocked in, and entered the elevator.

As the elevator closed, a group of women behind them exploded.

"Oh my God, I offended Miss Jun Er, this time it's enough for her."

"This woman is also audacious. Where did you say she was emboldened? She went on a rampage here, thinking that such a small design company, so the people in this company are all vegetarians? But I don't know that she can't afford to offend everyone. Yes, even Rayna was taken by a cousin. But as for her, look at the sportswear that she wore today. It's nondescript. I think she is a fool!"

"Isn't it just because of my dirty b!tch, I tell you, I have seen her having an affair with a coach from the driving school. Just like Miss Jun Er said, this woman is definitely a b!tch."

"In the future, we will have a good show every day. I don't know what the Jun Erxia is holding her. I heard that she is not allowed to resign, and I will come to the company to abuse her every day." "What else can I catch her? Doesn't she used to...sell it?"

"80%! Otherwise, where did she come from those abilities that can take away the souls of all men? Because they are professional, haha."

When a group of women got off the elevator and left the company in Suzi, they frantically slandered Mai Tai Suzi behind them, and they were able to analyze Suzi as a seller.

Moreover, all of them are excitedly waiting for the next big show.

Here, Suzi had already gone downstairs, got in the Christopher car that came to pick her up, and went all the way to the kindergarten to pick up Shen Sole.

Three days ago, because of Sanford, Suzi had always been docile and proactive with Arron, but at this moment, as soon as he got on the bus, Arron discovered something was wrong with Suzi.

"What's wrong with you?" Arron asked.

Suzi shook his head without answering.

Arron: "..."

Christopher also saw that something was wrong with Suzi, and while Suzi got off the car, he immediately took out his cell phone and called Galia: "Galia, what happened to Suzi's company today?"

"No, cousin, what's the matter?" Galia asked in turn.

"It's okay," Christopher said.

After closing the line, he looked at Arron: "It's okay, Fourth Master, you don't have to worry about Madam."

Here, Suzi has arrived at the gate of Lilly's kindergarten. When she was about to call Lilly, a very unpleasant tone suddenly came from behind: "Lilly mother, if you don't want to participate in our activities, please leave the group!"

Suzi turned his head: "..."

Chapter 464

The one who spoke to Suzi was a woman that Suzi had never seen before. The woman was somewhat beautiful and dressed more luxuriously than Susan's mother.

Not far from the woman, a Bentley car worth nearly three million was parked.

At a glance, Suzi could tell that this woman was a grandmother.

Grandma Kuo's tone was not good, and Suzi could hear it, but because Siu came to ask for trouble during the day, Suzi didn't want to have other things out of the question.

She immediately humbly asked the Mrs. Kuo in front of her: "Which child's mother are you? I'm sorry I have been too busy these two days, and I didn't care about the reply in our small group, but our group held it spontaneously. I attended that party. Which hotel is it in? Or whose house? Whether it is in the hotel or whose house, how much money needs to be redeemed, I will redeem it, and I will actively respond to the group's call Of."

After listening to Suzi's words, Mrs. Kuo sneered: "You said this at the entrance of the kindergarten so that the parents of the other children in the kindergarten could hear that you are actually rich. Didn't you hide from us? If you are willing to join our party, I will give you another chance to go home and take a good look at our group chat history! Don't tell me you've seen it a long time ago, you just pretend you don't know!"

The meaning of the woman's words is that Suzi has already read the chat history.

But Suzi pretended not to know, so he just didn't reply.

Actually, Suzi really didn't know.

She is busy with work during the day, and she is not a sociable person, so it is difficult to reply to WeChat group messages in time.

But at this moment, in order to bring the only one home, Suzi said in a hurry: "Okay, okay, I will definitely watch them one by one when I get home, then I'll go first, bye."

After speaking, she led Lilly and left.

"Mom, are you a little bit ungrateful today?" The five-year-old Lennyzi can already say a few idioms, and Lilly can see that his mother is absent-minded.

Suzi put up a smile and asked Lilly: "Is it unsettled or absent-minded?" Lilly: "It's all the same!"

Suzi smiled: "Tell mom, do you like dad?"

Lilly thought for a while: "Well, I like my mother better."

"Mom is asking now, do you like Dad?"

Lilly's very firm tone: "I like Mom and Dad."

Suzi: "..."

Almost walking to Arron's car, Suzi once again asked Lilly: "Mom already knows that you like mom. What my mom asks is, do you like dad? Do you like dad alone?"

Lilly still insisted on his answer: "I just like Mom and Dad. I like Mom and Dad to be with me. The three will always be together."

Suzi: "..."

She suddenly understood that the child was actually very eye-catching. She did not want one of her parents to leave her. She had already tasted the happiness of having a family of three parents, so she stubbornly said that she likes mom and dad. I like a family of three.

Suzi's heart sank.

She thought about it, if Siu just wants to have trouble with her Suzi, she can bear it, but she can't bear it, or Siu and Lanita or even united with Walton, their upper class is absolutely If the powerful woman does not leave her a way out for Suzi, she can only admit her fate, but she must first let Arron assure her that she will love the only one throughout her life.

Suzi can't take care of a lot now. The only thing she can keep is her child Lilly.

After getting in the car, Arron asked her immediately, "Who is that woman?"

Suzi replied absently: "I don't know."
