

Life at The Top – Chapter 1484

When Henry, who was originally lukewarm toward Todd, looked at this guy again, he suddenly did not feel that this guy reeked of betel nut anymore. Now, the more he looked at him, the more pleasing Todd was to the eye.

This kid was nice and promising. So, Henry was quite satisfied with such an idea.

However, Henry who was feeling gleeful heard Jasper's words shortly afterward.

"I'm not interested. At least, I'm not interested in it now."

Jasper's words rained on Henry's parade. Then, Young Master Law suddenly became unhappy.

"I think this is a pretty good idea."

"What's so good about it?"

Jasper glared at the fool.

“Fabian founded Empire Meet, but did you not see how we dismantled it just a while ago? Yet, now you want to start one yourself. Do you really think it’s appropriate?”

Henry said nonchalantly, “It’s just a club. A high-end club like this is indeed very useful. Fabian is just a loser to you now, so do you think he has the guts to fight you?”

Shaking his head, Jasper replied, “This is not a matter of him fighting back or not, but at the moment, it’s not the right time to start a club like this. Secondly, I don’t have the time and energy to do it.”

“I see. We’ll talk about this another time then.” Henry rubbed his chin and said in dissatisfaction.

When Todd saw Henry speaking up, he was pretty pleased.

However, Jasper was surprisingly determined, so Henry stopped pushing the matter after asking these two questions.

Where was your arrogance, Young Master Law?

Why did you become a yes man in front of Jasper?

“Mr. Laine, I disagree about the wrong timing. I think since you already plan to start this foundation, I think this is the best chance.”

Todd looked at Jasper passionately and said, “What is a more suitable opportunity for everyone to work together to fight against foreign enemies under the watchful eye of a powerful enemy?”

“At this point in time, Mr. Laine, you are the spokesperson recognized by several wealthy families and you are the one who bears the brunt of the incident. The moment you make a sound, you will easily be able to gather a group of people around you.”

“If there are financial concerns, you can rest assured that I can immediately take out 500 million US Dollars as the preparation cost of the foundation. This is to support the establishment of the foundation and has nothing to do with the previous 1 billion US Dollars investment.”

Jasper looked at Todd, who was extremely enthusiastic, and smiled profoundly.

He asked Jasper to come forward to build a club similar to Empire Meet and was even giving Jasper the money to do it. This was 500 million US Dollars. If all the money was used for this club, Empire Meet would seem like a roadside stall in comparison.

However, one had to wonder why Todd was so enthusiastic. This was 500 million US Dollars, not 5 bucks or 10 bucks.

Jasper never believed in a free lunch, let alone a free lunch of 500 million US Dollars.

In this world, everyone except your parents was the same. You always had to give something in return for what you took. If you nonchalantly take what others offer you, then you cannot blame others when they take away what you have.

Meanwhile, Todd seemed to see through Jasper. He smiled and said, "Mr. Laine, I obviously did not offer to give you free money for no reason.

"My father and I can fully support you and build this foundation, or this club, or organization. The only request is that I want to have no less than 25% of the shares as well as the position of second-in-command."
